Autograph Party Set

An autograph party for Earl Luce, in reality two persons -- Earl B. Luce and Elizabeth Earl Luce Nelson -- authors of the recently published book, "Paha Sapa," is scheduled Friday at 4 to 6 p. m. in the XIT Room of Security State Bank.

"Paha Sapa" is the saga of Route 385, which extends from Mexico to Canada through lands of many legends and much beauty. On hand to greet guests will be the authors as well as Bill Nelson, grandson of E. B. Luce, who co-stars in the book as a traveler along the route, assisting with hospitalities will be Mrs. Jim Nelson, wife of Bill's older brother who is mentioned frequently in the book.

According to several longtime residents here, the Friday event is believed to be the first autograph party staged in Littlefield.

'Cats Open District Tonight

ENTRIES DUE TODAY

Walker Plays Hog, Wins Third Time

For the third week of the four weeks The Leader-News football contest has been held, James Walker has won again. But, hoggish as the pharmacist might be about banking those $10 first prize money, he's still not in the lead for the grand prize of two tickets to the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day.

Walker trails Sudan's Joe Bellar for the tickets.

Contestants are reminded that the deadline for this week's entries is 5 p.m. today. Entries must be in The Leader-News office by that time, or postmarked with today's date. Late entries will be disqualified, as noted in paragraph four of the contest rules.

Reason for the early deadline this week is tonight's Littlefield-Dunbar game. Regular deadlines will be observed the rest of the season.

As has happened in each of the previous three weeks, it took the tie breakers to determine the placings. There were four tied this week.

But Walker was the only one among the four who picked both tie breaker game winners. The other three tied were Donna Parker, who entered a second time and placed second, and

READY FOR PANTHERS -- Mike Stafford will be playing tonight for the first time since Littlefield and Seminole scrimmage in a pre-schedule clash. Stafford has been moved from his regular position as a center to fill the vacated offensive tackle slot left when Stan Harrell received a knee injury. Kickoff time for Littlefield's first District 3-AAA game of the season will be at 7:30 p.m. at Lowery Field in Lubbock.

Dunbar Backfield Fastest In Nation

BY BOB HAMILTON
Littlefield's Wildcats get their baptism in District 3-AAA play tonight when they pit their defense against the "fastest high school backfield in the nation", the Panthers of Lubbock Dunbar at Lowery Field in Lubbock.

Littlefield and Dunbar are the newest members of the conference.

waiting for the 7:30 p.m. kickoff.

Back in the lineup will be Mike Stafford, center switched to offensive tackle, who had a knee injury in the Seminole scrimmage. He replaces another knee victim, Stan Harrell, who is sidelined for at least two more weeks.

Kevin Hutson will be going strong at his offensive end post after missing the Tulsa clash last week. Though he handled the punting in high fashion, his ankle, injured against Muleshoe, would not allow him to knock heads with the Hornets.

Defensive tackle and offensive fullback Howard Wright is back in the lineup. After missing all contact action since breaking his hand against Seminole, Wright was slated for duty last week. However, a car wreck shook him up enough to postpone his appearance until tonight.

Reserve center Harold Lowery is back in uniform after an extended absence. He got his bell rung on a larrain play and mild concussion has forced him to dress in shorts only during workouts for several weeks.

The Wildcats are in their best physical condition since early in the two-a-day fall practices sessions, and they figure to need all they have to take the speedy Panthers.

Littlefield will have to rely on containing the Panther speedsters, because they don't have a man on the team who could hold a candle in speed to the slowest man in Dunbar's backfield.

The Panthers have a back who runs the 100-yard dash in 9.7 seconds, two who have 9.8 timings and the fourth a poky 9.9.

"They will run all over the field, from every position," states Wildcat mentor Raymond Birchfield. "We just hope they won't run through Littlefield Thursday night."

The first year 'Cat coach added "I'm sure 11 young fellows will be out there to do everything they can to contain them."

FOR THE FIRST TIME since the Seminole scrimmage, only one starter will not be ready for action. But all the rest, with the possible exception of one questionable injury, will be KENNETH HORN is a question mark as of Tuesday. He was limping with a painful groin muscle bruise following Tulsa's clash and wasn't able to do much more than exercise early this week. Horn made a big impression with the coaches and fans on his defensive halfback play Friday.

Big Danny Bryson will probably see action strictly at

INSPIRATIONAL STORY OF '385'

'Paha Sapa' Sparkling Trip Through Land Of The Gods

BY HOMALU HOOD
"Paha Sapa" -- Land of the gods -- fresh off the press -- written by Littlefield's Earl Luce, -- is more than a book.

It is a rare achievement. More than that, it is 414 pages of informative inspiration.

Let us warn you -- when you pick up the book to read it, are to get "travel fever."

"Paha Sapa" was a bit rough the writer of this review, use by page 27 she was to "chuck it all" and up Route 385, beginning the Mexican border and using the book as a travel guide.

SAY the book is an achievement, "because to a point-by-point destination of towns and sites along highway route, throwing in a wealth of dates and statistics, still hold -- consistently -- reader's attention, requires touch of a genius.

through sprightly conversation, realistic and beautiful description and an unbroken thread of rich humor, Earl Luce has the reader's interest every mile of the way -- and is a real achievement.

The book, in short, is a trip taken by E. B. Luce and his grandson, Bill Nelson, beginning to end of Route 385, which passes through Littlefield. The highway is known as "The International Highway" because it leads through an impressive number of national parks.

up camper. Those readers who have never seen Big Bend National Park in our vast state of Texas will experience a most convincing visit there -- just long enough and detailed enough to stir up a good yearning to be there in person.

BUT THE BIG SURPRISE -- and the real "achievement" -- comes after the travelers leave Big Bend and slowly travel northward through towns and cities along the route. By the time the trip has meandered even as far as Littlefield, two weeks have passed and the reader -- like grandson Bill -- has said dozens of times concerning information gleaned about "well-known" towns: "I didn't know that!"

In the beginning, when Luce is asking his grandson to make the trip, he inquires if Bill would like to search for "buried treasure, fields of gold, giants in the sky, vast inland seas and enchanted forests." Tossed into the package offer is the intriguing suggestion of seeing "Flin Flon."

And on the trip, Luce keeps his promise and shows all these things to Bill -- although they emerge in forms different from those originally imagined.

Bill finds "buried treasure" in the rich oil country of the Permian Basin, "giants in the sky" in the tall sky-scraping grain elevators, "fields of gold" in wheat and grain, a "vast inland sea" in several forms, including a vast territory once an inland sea, and so on. "Flin Flon" is, in reality, the "fruited Plains."

AS THE TRIP progresses, history and the past are dynamically presented, and then contrasted with the present; while, at the same time, yesterday is woven in as an integral part of today and as the source of pioneer courage and foresight which continue to result in growth and prosperity.

Herein lies the book's interest. See 'PAHA SAPA', Page 12

Rural Domestic Water Association Proposed

Preliminary plans toward a proposed domestic water cooperative, of impressive magnitude for rural residents in this area were discussed by a group of interested persons in Bula School Building Tuesday night.

Definite steps toward the project await a survey to be conducted as soon as possible to ascertain the number of members available and therefore determine the feasibility of such an undertaking.

At least 400 to 500 members are needed, and discussion revealed approximately 200 to 250 members are available immediately.

Eddie Wallace of Bula conducted the meeting of men who are spearheading the proposed water association. Water secured through such a project would be entirely for domestic use and not irrigation.

Although no definite cost figures or technical approaches could be given, again pending membership count, an estimated minimum monthly water bill per meter was designated as "in the neighborhood of $6."

Should a survey prove the plan feasible, an association will be formed, complete with board of directors, which will have relatively free supervision of what can and cannot be done within the system.

For basic financing, the group is looking to Farmers Home Administration which was requested at the meeting by Clinton Kennedy of Muleshoe, engineer, and Ralph Douglas of Douglas Engineering Co., Muleshoe, who presented a "Questions and Answers" pamphlet regarding domestic water systems financed through FHA.

Douglas said after feasibility is established in such a project, FHA then is interested primarily in collection of payments and the association can make its own decisions based on what it financially is able to do. The larger the membership, the more satisfactory can be technical policies and service charges.

Seven districts are included in the proposed association.

District 1, Circleback and Needmore, is represented by M. H. (Pete) Poteet and Raymond Gager; District 2, Friendship-Beck, Marvin Bowling; District 3, bordering the western edge of Littlefield and including Bull Lake, Fred Cris-ham; District 4, Enochs, Bob Newton; District 5, Bula, Eddie Wallace; District 6, Pep, Vic Diersing, and District 7, Pettit, Don Fincannon.

Water for the project can be produced from wells by the association or purchased from outside sources and piped in.

However, apparent consensus of opinion was that purchasing water from another system would be cheaper than buying water rights, development and upkeep.

A point brought out is that such a water system would lower insurance rates from 10 to 17 per cent on residential property and as much as 25 per cent

'Dialing' Plan Expected By City Council Tonight

Anton residents have continued to bring to The Leader-News this week petitions bearing an additional 108 names requesting free telephone dialing to Littlefield.

Further efforts planned toward the extension include attendance tonight of Littlefield City Council meeting by at least 12 Anton residents.

Meanwhile, members of the Council's committee, appointed by Mayor J. E. Chisholm at the last meeting Sept. 21, have been in sessions with Gerald Kehoe of General Telephone Co. of the Southwest, Littlefield, and other representatives of the company.

Confidence was expressed by Kehoe, the committee and Mayor Chisholm that a feasible plan agreeable to both the committee and the company would be ready for presentation to the Council tonight. In fact, both Kehoe and committee members said late Tuesday morning they believed they were "within hours" of reaching an acceptable plan.

Primarily, "feasibility" and "acceptability" have hinged on satisfactory distribution of cost increase, with the Council's favoring major cost placed on Littlefield business firms who, generally, can expect to derive the most benefit from free Anton dialing.

Council members told The Leader-News that Littlefield business firms are backing the project and no objection has been raised against business phone cost increases. A poll of the committee and other Council members revealed the Council considers Littlefield's businessmen to be solidly behind the project.

The committee, in session with telephone company personnel, has been seeking a workable solution to the cost distribution problem whereby residential subscribers would bear the least possible portion of the cost as some are limited to fixed low incomes.

Judge Mangum Has Surgery

Lamb County Judge J. O. Mangum underwent surgery in Methodist Hospital at Lubbock Monday.

Rankin, County F.U. Policy Blast Farm 'Administration'

"Too many people think their farming ends at their fence rows. But this isn't so."

That was the statement made by District 2 Farmers Union Director Joe Rankin of Ralls as he spoke Monday night before the annual membership meeting of the Lamb County Farmers Union.

Rankin stated the farmer's work today "... goes all the way to the nation's capitol." He pointed this as a principal reason for farmer organization.

Rankin, while explaining the representation of the farmers by Farmers Union, stated "Most of our farm problems are not of basic legislation, but of administration."

He said the organization presently is drafting proposed legislation for the coming year which would provide bargaining powers for the farmers with the buying market.

Policy statement changes were proposed by the county delegation which will be submitted to the state convention for adoption. These were as follows:

"1. The committee feels the mention of the Democratic Party as the favored party in the 1967 preamble should be deleted.

"2. Under commodity programs -- We feel the handling of the cropland adjustment program in 1967 was a very cruel hoax. We recommend the CAP be appropriated enough money or some other program be adopted to increase farm income.

"3. Feed Grain -- We feel as the farmers confidence in all government controlled programs. We urge a greater amount of common sense be used in the future. We also feel the feed grains program should include a diversion and support payment equitable to the diversion and support payment destroyed the program as well

AMY'S ADLIBS

A Relative Matter

By Amy Turner

AGE IS strictly a relative matter. But, then, I suppose everything is and I remember, in my school days, going around saying something to this effect and thinking it was very profound.

I find, however, that only now do I really know just what that means.

Like running into someone you haven't seen in over 15 years.

I had this rather unique experience last summer down in East Texas when I chanced to meet an old college room mate of mine.

In a large department store, I spotted a face that was very familiar to me but I couldn't quite connect it with a name.

So, after eyeing her for awhile and letting her eye me for awhile, I sidled around to get a better look and questioningly asked, "Jo?"

"Jo?" at the same moment that she questioningly asked, "Amy?"

I remember my first thought very clearly. It was something like:

"Good heavens, she looks positively matronly!"

Fortunately, I could not read her mind. We then proceeded to the "do you remember", which probably had nothing at all to do with what we were both thinking.

It only took a few moments, however, for me to spot a delightful twinkle in the eye, a mischievous grin and a warm sense of humor that I had admired so much about 16 or 17 years ago. Suddenly, I knew that Jo had not changed at all.

We introduced our children to each other and I'm sure both dismissed them as impossible for girls of our tender young age.

I walked out of that store at least 15 years younger.

CHANGE IS such a gradual thing that I have found it tends to sneak up on you without your realizing it. What is now completely normal would have been so foreign to me only a few years ago.

I can even remember when I thought 30 was over the hill and 40 was unbelievable.

Now, 30 seems just a little immature to me and, as for 40? Well, I suppose I would describe it as the prime of life.

Then, there's television, where a definite change has occurred.

For a few years when television was something of a novelty, I was quite an addict. I admired all those talented performers on TV, but, of course, they were all older than I and it was only natural that they should be more talented.

I just hadn't arrived yet.

I can't remember exactly when it happened but, one day, it suddenly hit me that those were just children up there on the screen and, my goodness, they had so much talent to be so young.

THERE HAS BEEN a change, too, in social gatherings.

For many years, I was accustomed to being, if not the youngest, at least one of the younger ones in most any group.

I just took it for granted.

So it came as something of a surprise to me to discover on a certain day that I happened to be the oldest lady present in the room.

I remember that it struck me as rather humorous because I didn't FEEL old at all.

I might also add that I don't feel anything unusual about the obvious changes around our house.

Rock and Roll has replaced nursery rhymes; The Monkees have displaced Captain Kangaroo and the cartoons; baseball bats, tennis rackets and pictures of current heroes decorate walls that once sported Mother Goose.

And it all seems so perfectly natural that I don't even know when the change took place.

AT LAST, it seems that I finally know what I meant when I used to say that everything is relative.

I look at The Publisher and he doesn't look any different than he did 17 years ago.

Well, not until I look at some pictures taken way back then.

Which brings to mind that it might be a good idea to destroy any old pictures I find of me.

At the same time, I feel sure that to my children I am ancient, my mother still would like to spank me once in awhile, my friends find me either matronly or quite young depending on their own vantage point and, perhaps there's one thing best of all:

The Publisher, bless his generous heart, always buys me clothes two sizes too small.

OWNER'S REPORT

By Bill Turner

EVERY TIME I've heard somebody talk about any kind of advertising other than in the newspaper, naturally I take up for newspapers.

Of course, the "other kind" of advertising has its good points too, but I always try to come up with a better one whenever the subject is discussed.

I read a new approach on that subject the other day that brings the point home better than ever.

SUPPOSE A FELLOW had been arrested on the main drag for being drunk and disorderly with a lady other than his wife.

Would he rather have a picture of the event appear for five seconds on TV, 30 seconds on radio, or on the front page of his local newspaper?

Ridiculous? Maybe so.

But the obvious answer tells it all.

PAUL HARVEY

Island In The Sun

ONE ISLAND in our hemisphere was first discovered by Cabeza de Vaca in 1528 and rediscovered by me in 1955.

This island at 29 degrees, 18 minutes, 51 seconds West Longitude and 94 degrees, 48 minutes and 16 seconds North Latitude is 32 miles long and one-to-two miles wide.

If that doesn't sound like much, remember it's larger than Manhattan Island and three times larger than Miami Beach.

THE SEMITROPICAL CLIMATE kept the island green and verdant, palm fronds whispered in the soft trade winds. And over the island, from windward to lee, from sea to shining sea, the subtle bouquet of a million flowers -- and inadequate seven.

For the island when I discovered it, as have many Caribbean islands, had been mostly taken over by mainland gamblers.

Lovely native girls emigrated, crowded out by unlovely mainland women.

For on this island Eden in the 1950s the principal export was forbidden fruit. The waterfront was gaudy by night; dingy, stinky and soiled in the sunlight.

TEN YEARS AGO the inevitable reorganization of the island's absentee government decreed an end to gambling.

On the island there was weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth. How could the now desecrated Shangri-la survive without gambling to build casinos and gamblers to fill them?

The crutch which had for so long supported the island population was gone.

In a sea of despair the islanders struggled to stay afloat.

Some went under.

IN MY TRAVELS I returned to the island again in 1950, saw less despair, islanders becoming self-sufficient again.

I returned again in 1961.

The islanders had stopped feeling sorry for themselves, were voting out their corrupt commission government, adopting a City Council.

RECENTLY, five years later, I passed the way again. The island is still there at 29:18:51 West Longitude, 94:48:16 North Latitude, but it is in every other way unrecognizable!

A new causeway connects to the mainland.

A wide thoroughfare borders the white sand beach. One of our hemisphere's most magnificent hotels, The Flagship, 240 elegant rooms on a pier, extends out over the white-capped surf.

AND FOR AS FAR as the eye can see, new buildings, splendid block-square restaurants of ultimate graciousness and gourmet cuisine.

Wide thoroughfares and parkways have been planted with thousands of palms and oleander, all pink and white and blue against the sea.

Row on row of modern houses, each backed up to neat waterways.

THE NATIVE LANGUAGE is really very similar to our own, except for the way they run two words into one sometimes in a most melodious way.

For the island of which I speak is located just across the bay from Houston, Texas. This renewed island in the sun . . .

. . . is Galveston!

I SHALL NOT SEEK to explain the renaissance which I have witnessed, but I am indeed inspired by it.

So often we Americans sit back and say "tsk, tsk," over the erosion of our institutions, the moral degeneration of a generation and the resultant corruption of government.

And we forget that such decay is reversible -- that we, the people, when we really want to, can do anything -- even reconstruct Eden -- with the flowers left in -- and the snakes left out.

They did it in Galveston, Texas.

supplies for my eight hands that you have."

"Uncle Sam, you've been a little native haven't you?"

"SO OKAY, okay! What would you suggest that I do now?"

"Leave one of your hands with great know-how at my place, bring all the rest of your own hands back to your own farm to work on the iron weeds, tell me to get the rest of my hands out to the Johnsons' grass and learn how to poison it from your know-how hand."

"Would you like that, oh great Oriental sharpie?"

"Probably not, but I'd deserve it. Please leave me your poisoning rig, though."

"Okay. You can keep the hand with the know-how, too."

Tried that new barber in town, huh?

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Don't Be Too Busy

MORE AND MORE of us are realizing the growing complexity of living.

The most disturbing aspect of the problem is probably in the difficulty we have finding time to do all we wish to do.

In fact, many people cannot find time to do all that they believe to be important.

This time problem contributes much to the stress we feel in our living experience.

We feel so guilty about the important things we neglect.

WE ARE ENCOURAGED by the success some people have attained in finding satisfactory ways to make good use of their time.

They just don't permit themselves to become too busy.

These people know that they cannot do everything; therefore, they decide what is most important and act accordingly.

They don't permit the pressures around them to over-stimulate them. They adjust their behavior to their own unique situation, and wisely act in accord with their limitations.

All of us can do the same, if we will.

Much of the time of many people is dissipated by busy work not connected with anything meaningful or worthwhile in their life pattern.

IT MAY SEEM STRANGE, but, with many people, being too busy is just a bad habit that can be changed.

We realize that being busy is essential to happy, effective living, but it is so easy to become too busy.

It should be our aim, therefore, to be busy in an intelligent and wholesome manner, because our general welfare depends upon how we are busy -- not upon how busy we are.

IF WE ALLOW OURSELVES to become busy in a confused and generally disorganized manner, our sense of well-being will be greatly disturbed.

If we become so busy that we are too busy to give the right amount of time and energy to the things that count the most in our lives, we are certainly too busy.

This seems to be one of the most common mistakes of modern times.

Many folk who have everything essential to a satisfactory life don't live satisfactorily simply because of excessive activity.

They are too busy.

Instead of doing a few important things well, they do many things poorly.

IT SEEMS ADVISABLE that all of us take a careful look at our activities to see what we are doing and why we are doing it.

We may find that much of our time-consuming action is unnecessary or being wasted on relatively trivial endeavors.

If we are not selective and wisely discriminating, we will be too busy.

This means that there will be strain and stress from being so busy, and also the nagging feeling of guilt from knowing that we are neglecting our children, our health, our service to God or some other very important and necessary obligation or privilege.

We must drop the un-necessary.

Goeth said, "We always have time enough, if we will but use it right."

WHEN we become too busy, we miss too much of that which is essential to making the best of life.

THE FARMER'S WIFE

LATEST TALK with Grassie Roots:

"Grassie, let's assume that each of us has ten farm hands apiece."

"Dream on."

"Okay. You send word to me that Johnson-grass is getting a good start on your farm and you need man power and equipment to help get the stuff before it takes over your whole place."

"How come my ten hands aren't out poisoning already?"

"Your hands don't have the know-how and you lack enough poison and have no poisoning rig. I have a rig and have taught my hands how to fight Johnson grass."

"This is a fable!"

"ANYWAY, since we are good friends, I send over my rig, barrels and barrels of poison and three of my hands. You send one of your hands to help my three hands poison your own Johnson grass while your other nine hands go about their regular work."

"How come you only sent three hands? If you'd have sent 'em all, we could have gotten rid of the Johnson grass quicker."

"Pretty soon you send me a note asking for more hands, adding that the quicker your Johnson grass is eliminated the less chance there is of it spreading to my farm. So I send three more of my hands."

"Thanks."

BITS AND PIECES

Weed Out 'Ugly'

ROMA L. HOOD

A RELEASE crossed my desk this week which, for a moment, gave me quite a scare.

Know what the latest "movement" is? A "Crusade to Stamp Out Ugly."

The story begins with "Crusade Against Ugly." This is the battle cry of the modern American "Crusader."

FINALLY, several sentences down, I let out a big sigh of relief. It explained, "The target is 'ugly' -- not people, of course."

For a while I thought Phyllis Diller and I were goners.

The whole gist of the thing turned out to be "The easiest way to Crusade for a more beautiful America is by planting spring-flowering bulbs this Fall."

All I can say is -- if this is Lady Bird's idea of a joke, I wish she'd keep her ideas to herself. I aged 10 years in five minutes, and you can imagine what will happen to Phyllis Diller if she reads it.

ANOTHER STORY in the release (this thing was FULL of bright ideas) was headed, "Daffs" Are Daffies For Problem Spots.

Well, I thoroughly agreed with that. "Daffs" have been handling America's problem spots for some time now, and, in my opinion, they've created a dilly of a mess. It didn't even jar me when I found out the story was talking about daffodils -- I'd already formed my opinion.

And speaking of making America more beautiful -- well, a lot of interpretations could be given to that.

Like doing a little gardening in the jungles of the cities, because their untamed overgrowth is beginning to spread "ugly" to America's interior.

THE PROCESS is known as "weeding out." A good gardener gets rid of his weeds. If he saw someone nourishing and handling weed growth with care, he would think that "someone" had blown his top -- and said gardener most certainly would blow his.

Yet, "handling with care" is exactly what this country's "Daffs" are doing with our national weed growth which has become a dilly.

Personally, I'm in favor of weeding out punks and insurgent rioters into a dilly of a jail cell and giving a dilly of a padding to "delinquent" behinds.

People with an honest, legitimate purpose, be it civil or juvenile, don't throw bricks through windows or shed American blood while screaming like head-hunting savages -- or, more accurately, like the mis-led directionless rabble that has heckled civilization since it began.

PEOPLE with a purpose, be it civil or juvenile, are as concerned with weeding out the "ugly" as any sensible gardener is.

Until the muddled heads of government stop acting like Daffs and start weeding out human "ugly" which is doing its best to destroy America, the weeds will continue to grow until they choke out the beauty of original purpose and direction.

Worthwhile causes like "equal opportunity" don't have a prayer until their own deadly weed growth is eliminated.

And juveniles WITH a cause, who want to fight America's over-abundance of hypocrisy, haven't a chance as long as diapered punks are allowed to overshadow that cause.

AND EVEN THOUGH this "overshadow" is creeping inland and into our own cities, and maybe I'm prejudiced, it seems to me about the only really level heads left nowadays are found in the smaller towns where people live more closely to fundamentals -- to the soil -- to humanity -- and to God.

Yet, these same level heads turn a deaf ear to the warning cries from the cities.

These same level heads hide in a sea of lethargy on the pretense of "What can 'little ole me' do about it?"

I'LL TELL YOU what "little ole me" can do about it. We can write letters to congressmen -- letter, after letter, after letter. And small town editors can write editorial, after editorial after editorial.

And if you think these voices of "little ole me" won't bring reaction in Washington and, closer to home, Austin, think again friend. In fact, at this stage of the game, they are just about America's only hope of inner-peace in the near future.

AND WHEN "little ole me" shuts his eyes, turns on the stereo and forgets it all, he is putting himself in the position of "aiding and abetting." After all, what's the difference between refusing to do what we can to stop "ugly" and in giving physical solace to a lawbreaker?

Another release crossed my desk this week -- written by someone even smarter than Phyllis Diller and I are. Listen to a few remarks the F. B. I.'s J. Edgar Hoover has to say:

"IN A RIOT THERE ARE NO VICTORS. The losers include everybody -- the rioters, the victims, law enforcement, the community, the State, and the Nation . . ."

"In recent years, some leaders of dubious stature have made a grandiose gesture of willfully violating laws they deem to be unjust.

"For the most part, these individuals, although admittedly guilty of breaking the law, have gone unpunished.

"Young thugs and misguided teenagers, seeing others defy authority and the courts with impunity, have been led to believe that any crime under a banner of complaints is justified. Consequently, . . . they roam through their communities creating violence and terror.

"Certainly, . . . authorities who free guilty violators must share a portion of the blame and responsibility for the turmoil in our streets. It should be abundantly clear that the doctrine of civil disobedience is a doctrine of self-destruction.

"STERN, decisive action is needed . . . justice is not served when a growing horde of vandals and looters is appeased and their pillage overlooked lest "a show of force might provoke them to greater violence."

"Quiescence does not satisfy rioters.

"Procrastination or uncertainty on the part of authorities denotes weakness or concession to a mob. Thus, the offenders are encouraged, and their violence gains momentum . . ."

MR. HOOVER has more to say, but we'll save that for another time -- and more space.

I will add, however, that the more Phyllis and I think about it, the more in favor we are of "stamping out ugly."

LITTLEFIELD HIGH SCHOOL, LITTLEFIELD, TEXAS

Wildcat Band Packs Gear For Dallas Fair Invasion

Group Will Play In Mass Music Production

The Wildcat Band due to outstanding performances at UIL contests last fall will represent the South Plains Region at the Dallas State Fair Music Festival held at the Cotton Bowl on October 9.

Three chartered buses scheduled to leave at 9 A. M. Sunday will carry the approximately 93 bandmen 390 miles to the North Park Inn at Dallas.

Monday morning will be devoted to free time while the afternoon will consist of a joint rehearsal involving some 5000 of the finest Texas Public School musicians.

From 8 to 10 P. M. that evening, all the bands, a chorus, and an orchestra will provide entertainment for the public beginning with a fanfare and the Parade of Flags led by the San Francisco Marine Band. After the National Anthem, the orchestra will play for the Queens of East Texas. The Parade of Bands will then march into the letter formation of Texas. The singing of "Texas Our Texas" will set the stage for the formation of the shape of Texas. Herb Alpert will highlight the pageant as the band and choir perform such hits as "Whipped Cream" and "Spanish Flea". The final setting of the pageant will feature the formation of the U. S. with a shield between the letters. The band, choir, and orchestra will conclude with "This is My Country" and "The Star Spangled Banner" in a joint performance.

The band should be returning to Littlefield around 6 P. M. Tuesday, October 10.

PACKING UP for the Dallas State Fair is with the assistance of co-drum majors Jimmy Curtis Timmons, first chair bass player, Williams, left, and Cheryl Reast.

Behind The Line

By KENNETH HORN
The fighting Maroon and White of Littlefield High will make its first district bid in Lowery Stadium, tonight, October 5, against the Maroon and White of Dunbar High School of Lubbock.

The Panthers of Dunbar are 1-2 thus far in the season winning only against Midland Carver, and losing to teams of Fort Worth and Wichita Falls.

This will be the first meeting of these two teams as Dunbar was added to District 3-AAA only last year. Dunbar started their district battles last week against Sweetwater.

Kevin Hutson who suffered a turned ankle during the Muleshoe game is expected to be in full swing tonight. Mike Stafford who has been sidelined with a knee injury is also expected to make a showing in tonight's game. Stan Harrell will not be able to participate due to a severe knee injury suffered during the Muleshoe game. It is not known at this time when he will return.

With exceptional speed and depth Dunbar is expected to post a very strong running game along with their aerial attack.

The Wildcats will need your support tonight, so let's all go out and cheer Littlefield to its first district victory!

Plagued by fumbles and pass interceptions, the Littlefield Wildcats lost to the Hornets of Tulla by a score of 20-14 Friday night in Wildcat Stadium.

Roy Burk, the quarterback, had the ball knocked loose which set up the first Hornet touchdown as it was recovered in the end zone, and a key interception set up their second TD.

Offensively shining were Roy Burk and Mike Grissom. Burk ran the first Wildcat rally around the right end, and speedy Mike Grissom caught a long Burk pass for the second touchdown. Burk kicked both extra points and Grissom was the leading yardage gainer.

This was the last non-district game for the Wildcats as the proceeding games will be for the District 3-AAA title.

The chapter will help with the April Teaching Career Month, American Education Week will be observed with the presentation of an apple and a note of appreciation to each teacher.

Future Farmers Name Officers And Delegates

The Future Farmers of America have been busy preparing for the new school year. Officers were elected at the first meeting on September 11. The officers for the 1967-68 school year are as follows: President, T. J. Reed; Vice-President, Quinn McKinnon; Sentinel, Dave Kooz; Secretary, Joe Gilbert; Treasurer, Stacy Carr; and Reporter, Jim Francis.

Sissy Carr and Quinn McKinnon were also elected to represent The Littlefield Chapter at the National Convention. The boys will leave for Kansas City on October 9.

At a special meeting held on September 18 candidates were nominated for F. F. A. Sweetheart. The senior candidates are Debbie Dutton and Cathy Clark; junior nominees are Millynda Morris and Nancy Hall; and Sherry Cook and Candice Hudson will represent the sophomore class.

'67-'68 Officers Elected At First VICA Meeting

The local chapter of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America, under the direction of Mr. Sid Landers, met September 7 at 7:30 o'clock. Election of officers for the 1967-68 school year are as follows: Eugene Beason, President; David Sevier, vice president; Lewis Ivey, secretary; Henry Thompson, treasurer; Bob Colbert, reporter; Rufus Ramierz, parliamentarian; and James Griffin, Sargent at Arms.

Mr. Landers stated that the purpose of the V. I. C. is: To unite a common bond in trade and industrial education. To develop leadership abilities through participation in educational, vocational, civic, recreational, and social activities. To foster a deeper respect for the dignity of work. To assist students in establishing realistic vocational goals. To train students for automotive trade.

Administration Leans Hard On Council For Assistance

In the eyes of Donnie Heard, President, the purpose of the Student Council is "A go between the students and administration." Mrs. Jordan, sponsor, added, "And to help school spirit."

summer for five days, the student council officers got an early start on plans for the 1967-68 school year.

Headquarters for the state convention this year are in San Antonio. Floydada has been designated as the place for the district convention.

Initiating a new program before school started, the Student Council held a Sophomore orientation. They showed the soph's what was to be expected of them. The faculty committed to Mrs. Jordan that the program helped a great deal.

Proceeds from the powder puff game, totalling $256.55, are earmarked for the athletic banquet next spring.

To promote school spirit, the Student Council has specified every Friday as a special day. For the Muleshoe game, students wore sweat shirts marked with slogans pertaining to the game and for last week's game, Tulla, a color day was announced and maroon and white was worn.

class representative, Shannon Traugott, senior class representative, Kathy Hill, cheerleader representative, Bettye Holt, social director, Janie Hyatt, junior class representative, Jay Christian, sophomore class representative, Bill Nelson, ex-officio, Cheryl Reast, treasurer, Steve Owens, sophomore class representative, and Mike Richardson, councilman-at-large. Not pictured is Joann Grissom, councilman-at-large.

CAREFUL NOW! Mr. Beryl Harris, principal, watches anxiously as Kathy Hill, co-head cheerleader, pins on a beat ribbon. This scene is enacted every week as cheerleaders boost spirit for the coming games.

DE Chooses Officers And Sweetheart

The Distributive Education Club held its first meeting September 11. Officers elected were: Mike Richardson, president; Vickie McKinnon, vice-president; Cathy Sherley, secretary; Susan Downs, treasurer; T. J. Reed, parliamentarian; and Barbara Jones, reporter. Vickie McKinnon was elected sweetheart, and Rodney Richardson and Terry Hobbs were named sergeants-at-arms.

Distributive Education performs a double function. Students receive both classroom and on the job training and receive monetary compensation from local businesses.

Distributive Education originated in Texas schools in Amarillo under the direction of M. A. Browning in 1937. In 1946 it was made available, under the Smith-Hughes Act, L. H. S. instituted the course in 1947 after a group of businessmen presented a petition to the local school board. Six co-ordinators have served the local organization. Mrs. Joycelyn Henry became co-ordinator in 1966 and is now serving her second year.

Industrial Arts Students Show Workmanship

Attending the South Plains Fair Wednesday night were about 25 Industrial Arts students. Each year the area chapters have an exhibit to show the public the training and skills that are taught in both drafting and woodshop.

This year the boys made spice racks in mass production with the materials furnished by the El Ray Lumber Company. The racks were finished at the rate of almost two every five minutes. The finished racks were then given to by-standers. The exhibit was done in relays so that one group would work while the others had time to view the fair.

New Officers To Guide Choirs Through Year

Third period Girls' Choir elected officers for the year which are: Darlene Walker, president; Fannie Johnson, vice-president; LaTonya Dengerfield, secretary; Dianne Perkins, treasurer; and Elaine Graves and Jackie Sims, librarians.

The ACapella Choir officers named last year were: Bill Nelson, president; Penny Waige, vice-president; Diane Kesey, treasurer; Cynthia Montgomery, social chairman; Don Burk, Publicity chairman; and Nancy Hall and Vicki McKinnon, librarians.

Mr. Hood, director, selected a group of singers called the Madrigals to entertain for various organizations. They are: Jimmy Williams, bass; Gaylon Mills, baritone; Bill Nelson, second tenor; Stan Harrell, first tenor; Nancy Hall, second alto; Vicki McKinnon, first alto; Diane Kesey, first soprano; and Kathy Hill, second soprano.

In Harmful Manner

BY LEONA HARMS

This is a new school, six weeks old, it stands resembling a clean, white sheet of paper with no black ink against any of us. What will it look like at the end of the year? Will it no longer be white and covered with black marks of concern or indifference to school affairs, official teachers? Think about it, decide for yourself.

Now to the hallowed halls of L. H. S. Students are breathing a sigh of relief as six weeks test have just about drained their energy. Oh well, six weeks to go. Just wait, semester!

Many of the sophomores finally remembered not to go to the Wildcat in front of the Principal's office. In several of them quite an elbow grease to shine the floor they stepped on it though.

Seniors have been given ultimatum! Romans 12:13, work, will be said October FRIDAY, October 13, by 8 o'clock.

The Morning Watch was finally organized this year as officials for the year were elected. Moderator is truly; Vice-Moderator is Kesey; Songleader is Hall; Pianist is Melinda. Morning Watch is a compulsory devotional held each Thursday morning at 8 o'clock.

King Football will reign night as the Fighting Wildcat take on the Dunbar Panthers. Let's show those Dunbar Panthers who has spirit back up our boys all the way their first District game. Let's not forget the six weeks of energy who generate spirit: the cheerleaders.

To end this bit of until next week here is to think to ponder over.

Time - It destroys hopes and dreams and shatters goals but it also makes that goal just a little bit closer. It is true, a certain sense there is a person can use it or it. With which can be accredited?

Mr. Anthony Faces Challenges Of Band

Five feet eleven, eyes of blue, in Littlefield High he is new. Hair of brown Weight around 77. His students cover lots of ground. Can be seen in the early morn, yelling at a student to get up that horn. Would like to have a sweepstakes band to show across Wildcat Land. About his health he must not care, he's taking his students to the state fair. Is now a Texas Tech fan. Guess the name of this great man.

Mr. Bill Anthony grew up in Amarillo and attended Amarillo High School. He received a scholarship and was a student of Texas Tech for five and a half years where he received his degree in music.

Mr. Anthony was very active during his college days. He was president of the Tech Band, belonged to Kappa Kappa Psi, played first chair baritone in The Tech Band, belonged to the Tech Orchestra and the Men's Glee Club.

The first thing he notices a person is their disposition. His favorite food is steak. His favorite color blue. His peeve is people with bad attitudes. He thinks pop music is fine as long as he doesn't have to listen to it and when he's about hippies, said that he's glad that there weren't around here.

His hobbies are hi-fi stereo equipment, water polo and tennis.

SMILING NOW -- but watch this smile change to a professional when he steps on the podium to direct the Littlefield Wildcat Band. Introducing Mr. Phil Anthony who took director duties of Littlefield musicians, coming here to Clarendon where he was in charge of music activities.

Mike Grissom Chosen 'Back Of The Week'

Despite the fact the Wildcats lost a squeaker to Tulia Friday night, the fighting effort of the team, as demonstrated by half-back Mike Grissom, made some lasting impressions.

And that effort of the 163-pound versatile senior so impressed the sports staff of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal that he was named their Back of the Week, an honor usually reserved for players in victorious causes.

Grissom, in the Tulia game, carried the ball 12 times for a net 71 yards, caught five passes for 118 yards and a touchdown, covered a Hornet fumble and wrestled the ball away from a defensive linebacker who had just intercepted a Littlefield pass.

And he had a 27-yard run called back on one play because of a clipping penalty. But Friday night wasn't a particularly outstanding night for the dedicated athlete. It was about usual, actually.

For the season he is averaging a hair over eight yards per carry from scrimmage. And that on a ball club that has posted but one victory against two defeats, too. He has carried 31 times for 249 net yards gained rushing, and a touchdown.

In the season opener at Plainview he played the entire game at quarterback, replacing the injured Roy Burk. Besides running nine times with the ball for 52 yards, he completed two of three attempted passes for 24 yards and a touchdown.

In the only Wildcat victory of the yet young season he carried 13 times from his regular post at halfback and gained 126 yards, including a run of 68 yards.

He attempted a pass against Tulia but it fell incomplete, giving him a .500 completion average.

Grissom has covered two fumbles this season. Besides the one against Tulia, he fell on one at Plainview.

This is his third season as a regular for the Wildcats.

But offense isn't the only time the son of Mr. and Mrs. Landon "Slow" Grissom sees duty on the field. He alternates between cornerback and defensive halfback, and applies tackles which brings smiles to his head mentor, Raymond Birchfield.

It's not at all unusual to hear sideline fans murmur, either during practice or a game, "He's quite an athlete."

He's Mike Grissom, chosen "Back of the Week" among all backs from all schools classifications on the South Plains last week.

linebacker again this week, where he caught everybody's eye Friday night. Hampered with a deep blister on his right foot that keeps him from running as he would be called upon to do on offense, Bryson can do his chores adequately on the tackling part of play.

Several others, including Richard Ayala, Donnie Heard and Kim Kloiber, have been nursing illnesses of all sorts, but appeared early this week ready to go.

THIS IS DUNBAR'S first year in the Texas Interscholastic League, having played in the state Negro schools competition in the past.

Though the Panthers hold only a 2-2 season record, the flashing felix has posted going into tonight's kickoff, and therefore are veterans in conference battle.

And that victory, scored last week, was over the pre-season district favorite, Sweetwater.

The Panthers had to rely on a field goal after time had run out, but allowed by a penalty ruling, to come from behind and win 9-8.

So far Dunbar has scored 56 points. And, even losing two games, have allowed but 29 to be scored against them.

THE WILDCATS, with one less game played due to an open date, have a 1-3 record. They have scored 49 points, but have allowed 63 to be chalked up against them.

Dunbar relies very little on passing. Against Sweetwater they failed to complete any of the six they put in the air, and had one intercepted.

Birchfield was highly impressed with the Panther win over Sweetwater. The latter, though having only a 1-9 record in 1966, was chosen to capture the loop crown this year mainly on the strength of eight returning offensive starters and six from the defensive platoon.

Though he knows his returning injured players are not ready to give a full account for themselves, Birchfield couldn't hide his pleased feelings over their presence.

He pointed out the team had 26 players to practice with this week, where last week while preparing for Tulia, there were as few as 17 seeing action on some days.

STRATEGY during Friday night's game between Littlefield and Tulia took some close conversations between Wildcat quarterback Roy Burk and head coach Raymond Birchfield.

... Walker

A. A. Smith of Olton, third, Bellar was also tied but didn't do so well on his tie breakers.

Walker receives $10 cash for winning while Miss Parker was paid $6 and Smith $4.

For the overall standings, no one has ever lead more than one week. Walker was tied with six others the first week, Steve Owens stood alone after two weeks, and Jerry Trees led last week.

Walker had only nine correct guesses the second week, the only time he didn't win first. That's what put him down in the standings. But he is only one behind Bellar with 53 correct guesses, along with Johnie Blair and Charles Didway.

Tied for third with 52 are Paul Yarbrough, Trees, Jerry Williams and Don Hevern. Smith is alone for fourth with 51, while Lee Roy Nuttall and Lamar Pollard have 50 correct guesses.

Close behind them with 49 are Owens, Mary Jane Bartlett, Floyce Pierce and Arthur Duggan. Three have 48 "rights". They are Mozelle Hutson, Ricky Kloiber and T.P. Wingo Jr.

Bellar has tied for first place twice, the first and fourth weeks, but has always been off on his tie breaker scores, keeping him out of the top money. Smith is among the top three for the first time.

FRIDAY NIGHT Four Area Teams To Play At Home

Olton, Sudan, Anton and Whitharral play at home tomorrow night to lead the area calendar for the weekend.

Playing away will be Littlefield at Lubbock Dunbar tonight, Bula at Wellman and Springlake-Earth at Tahoka.

The mighty Mustangs of Olton, as yet undefeated-untied, are ranked first among Class AA teams in the area by the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal. They put their unblemished record on the block against Floydada, 1-3. That game is scheduled to start at 7:30.

Once-beaten Sudan faces undefeated and highly touted Plains. The Hornets have been dropped only by the top ranked A club in the state, Seagraves, by the narrow margin of 22-15. The A-J rank Plains third in the area and Sudan 9. Kickoff will be at 8 p.m.

A lot of local interest will be in the Anton-Amherst contest, where an old rivalry takes place. Amherst, dropped in the area ratings from two to five after last week's loss to top-ranked Meadow, is the favored team. The conference battle is to start at 7:30. Amherst is 3-1 and Anton 1-2.

Rebuilding Springlake-Earth must face fourth-ranked Tahoka on the latter's home grounds. The Wolverines are 1-3 for the season while the hosts stand 3-1. That game will start at 8 p.m.

The area's two eight-man football teams face tough rivals. Gail travels to Whitharral for an 8 p.m. kickoff. Whitharral is once beaten.

Bula, riding a victory skein of one, will attempt to put the Bulldog record for the season at 2-3 when they travel to Wellman.

Fourth Down Play Found

The questioned fourth down of Friday night's Littlefield-Tulia game has apparently been found.

In a study of the film made of the game, it appears that, on the fourth from last Littlefield play of the game, Roy Burk did not make a first down. This would have made his time-killing pass on the last down of Littlefield's last series the fourth down, as ruled by the officials.

The Leader-News statistics keeper had recorded Burk's run as a first down, which resulted in the confusion reported in Sunday's story of the game. (Sorry about that.)

TO BE HELD SATURDAY

One More Day Remains For Entry In PP&K

Warner Birkelbach, Competitions Director for the Littlefield Pass & Kick competition to boys 8 through 13, says that only a day remains in which area boys can register for this event.

Eighteen handsome trophies will be awarded during the local competitions which are sponsored by Mitchell-Ford Inc. of the Leader-News, gold medals to the first place winners of each age group; silver second place and bronze for third.

"Every boy has a great chance with so many trophies awarded," Mr. Birkelbach stated. "But registration closes Friday evening. Registrations cannot be accepted after because we must get ready for the big competitions at 9 a.m. Saturday on the junior high practice field. Contestants are asked to bring birth certificates, required if they win.

Headquarters for registration, where all boys 8 through 13 can enter PP&K, is at Mitchell-Ford. Registrants must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. There is no charge and no special equipment is needed. Each boy, upon registering, receives a free PP&K lapel pin and a tips booklet written by National Football League stars who led the league in punting, passing and place-kicking last season, Bart Starr of the Green Bay Packers, Dave Lee of the Baltimore Colts and Bruce Gossett of the Los Angeles Rams.

During the competition boys will compete only against boys their own age in the three football skills. There is no body contact and participation in no way affects a boy's amateur standing.

Winners in the Littlefield competition go on to Zone and then, possibly, District, Area, Division and National contests. Suitable trophies and runner-up certificates are awarded at each level of competition.

Zone competition will be held Oct. 21 on the Texas Tech practice field in Lubbock. In addition, Area winners go with their dads to Division competitions held in NFL team stadiums, with Division winners--12 in all--traveling to Washington, D. C., with both mother and dad, and then on to Miami, Florida, for the National finals during the NFL Play-Off Game in the Orange Bowl January 7th.

Punt, Pass & Kick, a nationwide program in which 825,845 boys competed in 1966, is sponsored nationally by the Ford Dealers of America and the National Football League. As of Wednesday, 107 contestants had entered here.

SUPPLIES ESTIMATED TO VALUE more than $10,000 were packed onto this truck which left Sunday night with part of Littlefield's donation for aiding flood victims in Rio Grande Valley. Taking this truck load to residents of Camargo, Mexico, who are stranded in Rio Grande City, were Clinton Harris of Star Rt. 1, Roberto Saenz, an employee of the generously incorporated inspiration. For local area people, interested in the future of their area, a challenge is thrown out with great subtlety. One finds oneself thinking, "Heavens! If Littlefield is to hold a leading place in the growth and prosperity race, we had better get busy and put some of our plans into reality! It's later than we think!"

Harris who was going home to see his family in the disaster area, and A. L. Aldridge. The Thomas Harris left Monday morning with more goods in their car. Truck pictured was loaded to capacity. Mattress in foreground covers many more boxes filled with relief supplies.

And, no doubt, people in Hereford, Brownfield, Levelland, McCombs, etc., will think the same thoughts concerning their plans for their cities.

FOR THIS REASON, this review writer says every member of Littlefield Chamber of Commerce, and every civic-minded group or individual should read "Paha Sapa," every word of it, then thank Earl Luce -- both of them -- for writing it. Even those who don't really care should read it -- it might dispel that civic lethargy.

And the beauty of the book is: while you are absorbing facts about this and other areas of the Plains, while you are learning how to travel Route 385, a fascinating saga of Indian lore and adventure keeps your senses on edge -- you travel virgin prairies with hardy pioneers (your own forefathers) and share with them their dreams and hopes, their heartbreaks and horrors, and even soak up a bit of their courage.

ALSO, YOU WILL LEARN interesting and even amazing things about places you have never seen but plan someday to visit. When you get there, because of "Paha Sapa," you will know what you are seeing. As Mr. Luce points out early in his book, many people spend three weeks traveling hundreds of miles only to return home exhausted by travel and disgusted because they didn't really "see anything." As he stresses, they saw nothing because they didn't know what was there.

FOR THOUGHTFUL, inspirational and highly entertaining reading, absorb the pages of "Paha Sapa," travel the 2,032 miles of Route 385 from the Mexican border to Prince Albert National Park in the province of Saskatchewan in Canada -- on the pre-Cambrian shield at the "top-of-the-world."

And while exploring the Great Plains, the "Heartland of America," discover the beauty of such scenic parks as Big Bend, Fort Robinson, Chadron, Wind Cave, Mount Rushmore, Theodore Roosevelt, Prince Albert and others.

But, if for no other reason, residents of this area should read the book to learn the perplexing and fascinating legend of the sandhills.

'Concerned' By Misquote

A typographical error in Sunday's County Wide News resulted in a misquote of Mayor J. E. Chisholm in the banner story regarding the issue of free telephone service between Anton and Littlefield.

The sentence should have read, "Mayor Chisholm had been of the opinion Anton residents could dial Whit-harral, Pep, Spade, Field-ton, Hart Camp and Buia, but was concerned for fear he had spoken in error on this subject."

Inadvertently, the word "not" was inserted, making the sentence read the mayor "was not concerned."

Littlefield's mayor is very much concerned about anything and everything that concerns his city and the surrounding area.

Sorry, Mayor Chisholm -- and we are genuinely concerned because we misquoted you!

ments for the cotton program of the past years.

"4. Cotton -- We hope the secretary of agriculture will not make the same mistakes in the cotton program for 1968 as he did in the grain program for 1967. A drastic increase in production and acreage will not be healthy for an industry that is already sick. We support skip row legislation."

Waymon Lewis of Littlefield was elected to serve a second term as county president.

Along with Lewis as this year's officers are T. C. Favor, vice president; Mrs. Tommy McKinnon, secretary-treasurer; Fred Grissom, coordinator; Tommy McKinnon, legislative director; Orville Cleavenger of Olton, program director; Mrs. Bruce Higgins, also of Olton, program chairman; Carl Locke, financial director; Kenneth Cowley of Olton, membership chairman north of sandhills and Roy P. Jones, chairman of membership south of sandhills; Bobby Brantley of Amherst, youth director, and his committee for assistance includes Ed Dawson of Springlake, Rufus Oserly, and Mrs. Raymond Cooper of Olton; T. L. Bennett of Amherst, publicity director; and Mrs. Arnold Shelby of Earth, Tell-A-Lady director.

The state Farmers Union convention will be held Oct. 26-28 in Lubbock. County delegates named include Bennett, Favor, Dawson, Wilton Bodkin of Olton, Cowley, Grissom, Higgins and Jones. Alternates named were McKinnon, Mrs. Cowley, Cleavenger, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Sam, ler of Olton and Mrs. Higgins.

for gins, depending on type of structure.

An initial fee of $50 per member is designated. A member of the group explained about $45 would be for meter and $5 for membership.

Plans did not include collection of these checks during membership survey visits but to wait until enough had signed the survey slips to ascertain feasibility of the project. However, another point established was that when the proposed $50 checks are collected, they will be held until proper time for usage and each member will be notified when they are cashed.

Douglas and Kennedy explained FWA will loan $1,000 per user on domestic water systems. Douglas commented, "What your association could do would depend mostly on number of members and amount of water used. For instance, if you have 400 members, which gives you 400,000 but you don't use but $350,000 in water, costs to meter owners can be lower and services to them much more lenient." On the other hand, he pointed out, if the situation is reversed, costs would be greater and privileges less.

As to required spacing of meters, a rough estimate was given of three or four per mile, while the point was established that "wads" of meters secured in communities would go toward obtaining the needed average. No action was taken at the meeting other than the setting of a survey for membership. Discussion was extensive, but no definite quotes evolved due to the dependency of almost every phase of the proposed project on number of members secured.
