City Commission Asks For Permission To Move Site

Littlefield voters will determine the future of the Municipal Airport Saturday. The City Commission called Saturday's election for the purpose of getting taxpayer's approval to sell the present airport and to use the money to buy a new site further from town.

With the aid of $60,000 in government grants, the city can build a modern Class B airport if voters approve the sale of the present airport site. However, in calling the election, the commission pointed out that the transaction would also depend on selling the present site for enough money to finance the city's part of the new project. "We are very much in favor of building a modern new airport if it can be done at no cost to the city or the taxpayers," Mayor Ellis Foust said in a statement Wednesday. Foust explained that if the present airport can be sold for around $100,000, cheaper land will be purchased further from town and

WHO CAN VOTE?
To vote in Saturday's airport election you must have paid poll tax, be a resident of Littlefield, and a property owner.

The remainder of the money will be used to match government funds and build new hangar facilities.

"We feel that the present airport is too close to town. For the safety of the residents in the southeast section and for progress in the development of the city as a whole, the airport should be moved," Foust continued.

"We surely want the voters to understand, however, that no city funds or tax money will be used if they approve the change of the airport site. Only government funds and money received from the sale of the present site will be used on the project."

The City must take action on the issue by July 1 or federal funds will be withdrawn.

The election will be held in the City Hall with the polls open from 8 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Election officials are Arthur Jones, presiding judge; H. C. Bignam, judge; Mrs. Ortha Smith and Mrs. L. V. Pierce, judges.

MR. and MRS. ALVIN MESSAMORE

First Methodist Church Is Scene of Amherst Service

The wedding of Miss Linda Gail Stagner and Alvin W. Messamore was solemnized June 14 in the First Methodist Church in Amherst. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Stagner of Amherst and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Messamore of Sudan.

An arch of greenery flanked with tapered candelabra decorated the chancel. The ceremony was read by Rev. Elton Wyatt of Snyder.

Mrs. Jomeryl Harmon, sister of the groom played traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Mait Nix, Jr., as she sang "Amour Love Call" and "Through the Years".

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in an original model of white embroidered nylon tulle over net and taffeta. Designed with portrait neckline and framed with erasercross yoke of pleated tulle, the fitted embroidered bodice has tiny sleeves completed by gossamers worn over the hands and terminated with a point at the center front waistline. Stemming from this was a voluminous waist-length skirt made of embroidered tulle, fully shirred with joining plain tulle with elaborate appliques at knee-depth. The immense fullness of tulle, net and taffeta was emphasized by crinoline worn underneath.

A veil of silk illusion was joined to a tiara of seed pearls and the bride carried stephanotis corsages with white feathered carnations on a white Bibbe.

Mrs. Barry Bearden of Amherst attended the bride as "matron of honor." Her dress of white embroidered taffeta was worn as she carried a nosegay of white French carnations.

Bennie Harmon served as best man and Jomeryl Harmon and Joe Embry were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother wore a pink dove down nylon dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bride's mother wore a beige embroidered satin dress with white accessories and also a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church with Betty McLeland, Delores Patterson, and Dumeris Crosby, all of Amherst assisting with the hospitalities.

The bride's table was covered with white linen cloth and the three-tiered cake topped with bride and groom was flanked with sprays of English Ivy centered

The home of the bride, 1301 S. Phelps, was the scene of the reception. A white organza cloth over blue with a center piece of white gladioli and flanked with white carnations decorated the bride's table. A three-tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom and covered with pale blue roses added further to the table.

Lions Give Jaycees Scare; Lose 14-

Batson and Yarbrough Remain Tied for Minor League Lead

In Little League action this week, the Jaycees jumped into a full one-game lead in the standings with the WOW winning one and tying one with the Rotary. This is the second time that the Rotary and WOW have tied this year.

The big game will probably come off Monday night when the Jaycees and WOW tangle and should the two teams win their other game this week, it's one could mean the first half championship. No team has beaten the Jaycees and WOW except each other and both by identical scores of 2-1.

Batson and Yarbrough are still tied for the lead in the Minor League after the two teams split in games Saturday and Monday. Foust Food is hot on the tail of both, one game out of first.

Yarbrough And Batson Split In Two Games

In the opening game Saturday evening Yarbrough Food defeated Batson Motor 13-10 with eight hits.

Yarbrough got 13 runs on eight hits. They got three runs in the first, three in the third, three in the fourth, and four in the fifth.

Doug Yarbrough led the team with three runs on four hits at four times at bat. Mack Stoddy came in second with two runs on two hits at four times at bat.

Sammy Pair who pitched all six innings was the winning pitcher.

Batson Motor got ten runs on five hits. Dwayne Husk got the most runs for his team. Dwayne batted four times making three scores. He got on base all four times with errors.

Terry Hyatt pitched up in the fifth inning and was relieved by Roland Sittin. Hyatt was the losing pitcher.

In the Minor League game Monday evening, Batson Motor downed Yarbrough Food 12-6 with a easy win.

Batson Motor got 12 runs on seven hits. Hitting stars were Terry Hyatt and Phillip Sellers.

Pat Abeyeta was the winning pitcher. He pitched all six innings.

Yarbrough Food got six runs on two hits. Doug Yarbrough led his team with two runs on no hits at three times at bat.

Jerry Cox was the losing pitcher.

WOW Wins One. Ties One With Rotary, 6-4, 5-5

The Rotary and WOW locked horns twice during the week, the WOW winning one and the other game ending in a 5-5 tie.

In the game Saturday night, the WOW banged out a 6-4 victory over the Rotary on the strong left arm of Kenneth Moore and the relief pitching of Junior Hodge.

The Woodmen stacked an early 6-1 lead over the Rotary in the first three innings and then coasted to victory. Hodge relieved Moore in the fourth and completed the game allowing three hits and two walks while Moore had given up only one hit.

Les Smith started for the Rotary but Savelly Duval relieved him in the second inning and completed the game, taking credit for the loss.

Winning pitcher, Kenneth Moore 1-0; Losing pitcher, Savelly Duval 1-1.

In the game played Tuesday afternoon after it was rained out Monday night, the WOW had to fight back from a 5-0 deficit after three innings to gain a 5-5 tie and gain another half game up in the W-L column and a full game back of the league leading Jaycees.

Jerry McCain started on the mound for the WOW and gave up five walks and three hits and was behind 5-0 when relieved by Richard Kimbrough. Kimbrough was relieved by Junior Hodge in the fifth and completed the game 5-5.

Highly recommended by Coach Gene Mayfield, Max and Joe were selected from over 100 graduating seniors, representing 10 schools in Texas and Oklahoma, nominated by their coaches. Both boys will be coached in the game by Coach H. A. "Sandy" Sanford of Tarleton State College, Sanford will coach the 24 star players selected for the "West" team.

Standards for the Woodmen were Roger Morris, Kenneth Moore, Terry Gaze and Tim Chambers.

The two teams have most three times in the first half of the schedule and the Woodmen have won one and tied two.

Jaycees Take 14-11 Win Over Lions Tuesday

The League leading Jaycees kept their full game lead over the WOW Tuesday night as they defeated the Lions in a slugfest by the score of 14-11.

The Jaycees scored one run in the first and in the first inning but the Lions came back with four runs off of Pitcher Billy Halton in the bottom of the frame to take a lead. Halton was hit on the arm by a coal hot ball off of the arm of Vernon Freeman and was unable to leave the game in the first inning.

Johnny Weaver shot the Jaycees down in order in the top of the second and the Lions went down the same way in the bottom of the inning.

The Jaycees tied the game up in the third inning by scoring four runs. Weaver was relieved on the mound by Willy Johnson.

The Jaycees got two more runs in the fourth inning to go ahead and the Lions came back in the bottom of the frame to take a 6-6 tie. A run was scored by Terry Greenwood, who had relieved Halton.

The Jaycees got four runs in the top of the fifth to take a 10-6 lead over the Lions and then the Lions scored their one run in the bottom of the frame. Terry Greenwood pitched the game.

Terry Greenwood got credit for his first victory of the season with 10-6. Jones took his third loss.

Small Town People

The other day we were reading a sports column by Jimmy Cannon, writing from New York and it praised small town people. We were very much interested in the opinion expressed and agree most heartily.

Cannon noted that some fraudulently sophisticated city slickers lived under the assumption that small town people were to be ridiculed. We have always believed, as Cannon does, apparently, that small town people are the backbone of this country.

It is in the average small town, or city, and in the rural areas, that the real strength of this country lies. Of course, the cities have bright lights, many modern conveniences and other new fads, gadgets and entertainments that small-town life may not have.

On the other hand, the advent of the automobile, television and modern conveniences powered by electricity have made it possible for those living in small towns and in rural areas to have many of the things which formerly were available only in the cities, and to enjoy the many benefits of non-city life, as well.

As to the people themselves, we say that most small-town people, or rural folk, have a sort of dignity of simplicity which is both wholesome and refreshing, and which is one of the characteristic traits of the typical American. The city slicker is not smarter than he is, merely slicker.

The Way To Lose Weight

There is one natural way to lose weight for most people which will work. While it can be done by taking pills and other artificial ingredients the best way to cut down on the intake of food.

Despite the fact that one hears much about glandular ailments and other causes, such as the explanation that one eats because of his or her nervousness, over-weight is usually a matter of self-control, or a lack of it.

Therefore, the average overweight person you see is blimpish, usually, because he or she does not back away from the trough quickly enough. While it is true that over-eating may be a habit connected with nervousness, over-eating is probably a lack of self-discipline, just as is over-drinking, over-smoking or over-indulgence in any form.

If one will take the time to look at health charts compiled by insurance companies, and learn for himself the number of years taken off life by excessive pounds, this in itself will often suffice to bring about a sensible diet.

Foreigners are often amazed at the amount of food Americans put away, and at the amount of fats and other rich foods we eat. Although the American diet is turning now more to proteins, too many of us are still taking years from our lives because of excessive eating.

A good way to cut down on your intake of food, if you are having trouble doing it, is to keep hard candy around and kill your hunger by occasionally eating a piece, letting it melt slowly in your mouth.

In addition to the health factor, one should also consider keeping in shape for reasons of pride and posture. There are many other reasons which should make you want to refrain from getting too fat.

The Test Of A Friend

Friends are hard to come by in this life, as anyone who has ever had occasion to have one's friends tested undoubtedly knows. Nevertheless, one of life's greatest joys is to have one true friend—or more—if that fortunate circumstance should favor an individual.

One will find that the test of friendship comes when it costs something to remain a loyal friend. The money test will eliminate ninety per cent of one's friends, but the test which will eliminate ninety-nine per cent is the occasion which demands loyalty to a friend who is suddenly an "expensive" friend.

Realizing that no one is perfect, we must all adjust our thinking and philosophy to the fact that our friends will make mistakes, just as we will. Mistakes, must be forgiven, although not necessarily forgotten, in a spirit of give-and-take, and comradeship. And, just as misfortune can alienate sunshine friends, success often alienates those who appear to be true friends. While envy and jealousy do not part genuine friends, such development inevitably part the sunshine variety.

Using the Bible as a guide and some of the great examples of friendship and love in history, one can generally settle upon one basic rule for friendship. If we can be happy over the sudden success and wealth of our friend, share his misfortune and unpopularity, if that is the turn of events, and stand ready to help or advise, or even get out of the way, as the occasion may warrant, we have come close to being a true friend.

Finally, if you have such a friend, loyal all the way, hold on to him or her. That should be your most prized possession, outside of God and your family.

JUST a Newsstand? No.

It is a battleground. In this tiny territory rival publications fight for the attention of the public. From left to right you can find all shades of political and social opinion, freely expressed. And because of this a newsstand is more than just a convenience in the life of an American town.

It is a front line.

There is another battle going on around a newsstand, more far-reaching than the competitive rivalry of paper against paper, magazine against magazine.

For these are always people—yes, even here—who dislike to see opinions freely expressed... and who attempt to bring all sorts of restraining pressures on those who champion the Press's freedom.

But those who write and print and publish the free opinions of America, they see a threat to that freedom as a threat to all freedoms, and vigilantly hold back pressure-wielders from closing in on the newsstand.

For the newsstand is freedom's front line.

Highlights and Sidelights From Your State Capitol

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Tex. — It's vacation time in Texas. During the next three months millions of people will stream to every corner of the state in search of relaxation.

But a lot of home folks will stay home. They make a living catering to the tourists. Vacationing is big business in Texas. And it promises to get bigger.

Last year nearly 3 1/2 million out-of-staters visited Texas — only 12 per cent on business. They spent $560,000,000 for food, lodging, gasoline and entertainment.

Next year voters will decide whether to try to hustle even more visitors and money through nationwide advertising. A proposed constitutional amendment to remove the ban on spending state funds for advertising was passed by the last Legislature. It will come to a vote at the November, 1958, general election.

Meanwhile, several state agencies and a host of municipal and private organizations give out information on how to have fun in Texas.

State Highway Department has just issued a brand new map telling how to find your way over the state's 100,000 miles of roads. It includes 20 full-color pictures and a warm welcome to the "land of hospitality." Available free from the department.

State Parks Board, housekeeper for 45 state parks, plans many new camping, swimming and picnicking facilities. It got a "generous appropriation" from the Legislature, said the Board.

Texas Game and Fish Commission has help and advice for the one in every four Texans who hunts or fishes. Its numerous publications give guidance ranging from where the fish are biting to what to do for snake bite.

YEAR'S WATER SUPPLY — Without another drop of rain, Texas' 55 major reservoirs now have enough water stored to last a year.

Heavy spring rains poured 6 million acre feet of water into the reservoirs filling them to 92 per cent capacity, reports the State Board of Water Engineers.

Storage is about twice that of a year ago.

FLOOD SURVEY SOUGHT — But the unprecedented rains brought problems. State Water Board wants money to make an emergency survey of what the floods do with a view to learning how to prevent future destruction.

Both the Board and Gov. Price Daniel requested an appropriation for this from the last Legislature. But it didn't go through, so now the Board has asked donations from the state's five water districts and river authorities.

It wants several thousand dollars from each totaling $17,000.

NEW INSURANCE COMMISSION — A district judge, a Federal Justice Department attorney and a former commission member will take over reins of the reorganized Board of Insurance July 1.

As chairman for the new board Gov. Price Daniel appointed Dist. Judge Penn J. Jackson of Cleburne, serving on the bench since 1941. Judge Jackson is former president of the State Bar of Texas Judicial section.

Other new member will be David E. Irons of Fort Worth, former assistant attorney general under Daniel, now with the Justice Department in Washington. Joe P. Gibbs of Sogin, retired board member who returned last spring at the governor's request, fills out the new board.

An active commissioner of insurance is to be named by the board to serve until Sept. 1 when legislation for a permanent commissioner takes effect. He will receive $20,000 a year, and be charged with administration of the department.

Present board members John Osorio and Mark Wentz will continue to serve until the new appointees take office.

GOODBYE TO CHIPS — Texas gambling has got to go, says Atty. Gen. Will Wilson. An all-out effort to shut down the multi-million-dollar empire in Galveston was called just the beginning.

Wilson and Department of Public Safety Director Homer Garrison, Jr., cooperated in planning a massive raid on Galveston's illegal establishments. But the gamblers got word, closed up and cleared out ahead of the raid.

Wilson's staff followed up by filing padlock suits — based full of them — to try to prevent the places from reopening.

Wilson and Garrison said they would follow the same pattern in other areas. First, local officials will be called on to suppress gambling and state cooperation offered. But, said Wilson, "if local officials fail to do this job we will do it from the state level."

Gov. Daniel gave his full backing to the crackdown, hailed it as the beginning of a new era in law enforcement.

MORE SCIENCE FOR TEENS — More study, with emphasis on science, will be required of future high school graduates.

New standards set up by the State Board of Education direct that:

- 1. Graduates complete 16 units of study, rather than present 15, in two years of laboratory science.
- 2. Physical education cannot be counted in compiling the units.

More than one unit per lot of the day may be set for

The Sandhills Philosopher Lashes Surplus Proposals

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnsongrass farm may be showing a lack of grasp of the international situation, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor: After one of the greatest surprises of my life yesterday — I found a copy of a newspaper lying on my front porch, right beside my chair where I could pick it up without moving — I settled down to reading and hadn't gone far when I ran across an article that made me sit up straight and think.

According to it, the United States has figured out a new way to attack the agricultural surplus problem.

Under this plan, for example, Washington is going to lend Poland $5 million dollars with the provision that she has to use the money to buy farm surplus from us.

Also, because Poland needs help in strengthening herself against Russia, part of the loan is interest free. Now this opens up a brand new method of dealing with surplus and I wish you'd use your pen to swing a deal like that.

That is, I don't know off hand what I'd do with farm surplus, but if the government will lend me some interest free, I'll be glad what I can figure out. We got to pull together on this. And while I don't need cheering against Russia, I do strengthening against a lot of dry goods on their shelves. I don't see why bigton should quibble over small point. If a man's country is weak, they both need cheering, it doesn't matter against.

Also, it seems to me ought to have even under example, the agricultural surplus isn't the only surplus we've got in this country. I know some chants in town who have a lot of dry goods on their shelves. I think one or two car dealers some cars they'd like to get off, and I've never seen a market that didn't seem to be surplus of groceries.

If Washington will lend the money interest free, I'll part — I'll prove I'm weak need strengthening, and be gether we'll eat into this surplus that's bothering this country.

Please let Washington know ready to sign the loan paper. Yours faithfully, J. A.

Benefit payments.

Any severely disabled person who has worked under social security for at least 5 years and who has been disabled for 6 months or more should get in touch with his social security office right away, the social security district manager said.

If he is between 50 and 65 years of age, he may be eligible to have his social security record frozen to protect his future right to disability payments, and also his and his family's rights to old-age and survivors insurance benefits.

"Unfortunately there is a lot of misunderstanding," Mr. Hutton said, "as to how disabled a worker has to be to get social security disability insurance benefits or to have his social security record frozen. The rules in the social security law for deciding whether a person is 'disabled' are different from the rules in some other Government and private disability programs."

To be found "disabled" under the social security law, he said, a worker must have a disability which, in the words of the law, makes him unable "to engage in any substantial gainful activity." It must be the kind of physical or mental condition which shows up in the medical evidence, including his doctor's report, hospital reports, or special tests. It must have lasted for at least 6 months and be expected to continue for a long and indefinite time.

In general, he said, "substantial gainful activity" means the performance of a substantial amount of work with reasonable regularity in employment or self-employment. A person does not have to be completely helpless to qualify under the social security disability provisions, Mr. Hutton emphasized. Consideration is given to all of the facts in the individual's situation both medical and non-medical.

First consideration is, of course, given to the severity of his condition as shown by the medical evidence. This evidence must show that the person has a condition which makes him unable to perform significant functions such as moving about, handling objects hearing, speaking, understanding or reasoning, so that he cannot with his training, education and work experiences engage in any kind of substantial gainful activity.

Mr. Hutton said most individuals with such serious disabilities are unable to work. There are cases, however, where a person with such a severe disability is working, or able to work, because of his special knowledge and skills. He would not be entitled to benefits, the district manager said, because he would be able to engage in substantial gainful activity.

A person might work occasionally or intermittently and this would not necessarily mean that he was able to engage in substantial gainful activity. Both the nature of the work and the amount of money he earned would have to be considered.

On the other hand, some persons with conditions somewhat less severe than the ones listed above might be found unable to engage in substantial gainful activity because of the actual facts in their cases. If a person's condition coupled with his work background, his lack of education, training, and other physical and mental resources does in fact prevent him from working, he would have a disability which prevents him from engaging in substantial gainful activity, and would therefore be found eligible under the social security disability provisions.

These Forty Years!

Forty years ago, in June of 1917, the Humble Company received its charter from the State of Texas.

The Company was formed through a merger of the properties of a number of independent oil operators. Its founding brought together a remarkable group of men who occupy an important place in the annals of the oil industry:

R. S. Sterling and his brother, F. P. Sterling, the principal organizers of Humble Oil Company from which the present company acquired its name; W. S. Farish and R. L. Blaffer composing Blaffer and Farish; H. C. Wiess with assets from Paraffine and Reliance Oil Companies; Walter W. Fandren and C. B. Goddard, producers; and L. A. Carlton and E. B. Townes as lawyers.

All of these men contributed greatly in adopting the principles, in shaping the policies, and in laying out procedures that have guided the Company's progress through these forty years. Their influence will survive as long as the Company continues.

They possessed courage and business judgment. They established high standards of performance. They built a strong organization of competent men and women.

The Company, as it stands today, is a tribute to the leadership, the vision, and the work of its founders.

But it is doubtful that these men, with all their foresight, visualized the changes that have occurred in the oil industry since 1917, or the size and complexity of Humble's present operations, or the extent of the Company's contributions through the years to the progress of our society.

To all who have made those contributions possible—employees, customers, shareholders and the people of the states in which the Company operates—Humble extends its thanks.

New Law Hits Parents

According to a new law parents can be held liable up to $300 for property damage caused by their children.

Mayor Price Daniel signed the law which was passed by the Legislature into being the law.

Attention to the new law which becomes effective September 1, Assistant Police Chief J. A. Smith said that the minor's law is liable up to $300 for property damage caused by their children. This applies not only to damaged autos, but to all vandalism and delinquency.

The new law is one of several passed by the 55th Legislature during the session.

They include a $100 fine for driving while drinking, speeding, or driving without a license by teenagers 14 or older. A tougher route for drivers under 16 to get a driver's license was set up.

A $100 fine will be slapped on drivers for driving while drinking, speeding, or other moving violations.

Police officers hailed the new law as a boon to traffic enforcement officials and judges.

"In the past we couldn't do much with teenagers," they explained. "They would be taken to court, warned and released. Now that's all that would happen."

The bill does not allow the minor to be imprisoned but his name will be removed until the age of 18. The new law also removes cases from the jurisdiction of juvenile courts. Littlefield does not have a juvenile court.

Police judges will no longer have authority to issue special licenses to boys and girls under 16. The Department of Public Safety will be the only source for such licenses.

Ed Homer Garrison, head of the L.P.S. has stated that parents have to fill out a pretty interesting questionnaire in order to get an underage permit.

Texas 4-H Club Members Go To Washington, D. C.

College Station, June. — Bill Kotler of Wichita county; J. W. Jackson Jr., Jim Wells county; Marion Frances Dean, Denton county and Alice Sharon Thompson, Hale county will leave Dallas tomorrow by plane for Washington, D.C. and National 4-H Conference (formerly National 4-H Camp).

The four delegates represent a total of 35 years of outstanding 4-H club work and achievement. All have been winners of trips to National 4-H Club Congress and are recognized youth leaders in their respective sections of the state. To be named a delegate to the national meeting is the highest honor which a 4-H member can receive. Selection is based on the member's record of achievement in leadership, production, participation in 4-H and community activities and all-round development.

The delegates will meet in Dallas with Miss Peggy Wilford and Curtis Trent, assistant state 4-H club leaders for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, who will act as chaperons for the week-long stay in the nation's capital. While in Dallas the group will be luncheon guests of United Gas, sponsors for the trip.

In Washington, the group will participate in conference sessions, make tours to spots of historic interest and research centers in addition to visits to Congress, the White House and other government buildings. They will have an opportunity to visit with their Congressmen and other leaders.

Various duties are performed by the delegates. Jackson will serve as an usher at one of the meetings and participate in the ceremonies for new voters. Kotler will have a part in the Sunday Vesper Services. Miss Dean will serve as a page and Miss Thompson as member of the recreation group and of the committee to plan for the final program. Miss Wilford is a member of the committee planning for the International Candlelighting Ceremony scheduled for the Pan American Union. Trent is chairman of the committee planning the Memorial Ceremony at the Tomb of George Washington.

The group will make the return trip to Dallas on June 22.

Wichita Falls Wheat Area Need Combines

The Wichita Falls area is in urgent need of 100 combines. An ample supply of combines was in the area at normal harvest time. However, during the delay in harvest caused by heavy rains throughout the area, much of the equipment has moved on to other areas where current cutting could be secured leaving this area critically short of harvest equipment.

The wheat is ripe and is ready for cutting just as fast as machines can be moved into the fields.

The counties of shortage are comprised of the following counties: Wichita, Young, Baylor, Clay, Haskell, Knox and Throckmorton.

Combine operators should contact the Wichita Falls office of the Texas Employment Commission, 907 14th Street or telephone them at Number 22158.

Mortality Urged For Drivers In Texas

The driver who professes his religion in church, but doesn't practice it in traffic is a highway hypocrite.

This indictment of careless drivers was made today by J. O. Musiek, General Manager of the Texas Safety Association, as he discussed the moral responsibility of motorists. Highway mortality in Texas is emphasized in the spring of the Back the Attack on Accidents campaign.

"Morality cannot be put on taken off at will like an optional accessory on a late model car," Musiek said. "It's basic character equipment. The moral person is just as moral on the highway as he is in his office, his home, or his church."

Musiek pointed out that the driver who cheats on traffic law observance or fails to safeguard his own or the other person's life in traffic is revealing poor character.

"The responsibility for his own safety and the safety of all he meets in traffic rests on the driver. This responsibility includes the obligation to do all in his power to prevent an accident even when danger is occasioned by the wanton carelessness of another," Musiek said.

He urged all drivers to be a positive force in the Attack on Traffic Accidents by driving defensively - that is, driving in such a manner as to avoid accidents by anticipating and allowing for hazards created by the unsafe acts of others and by adverse traffic and weather conditions.
