Next Two Wells on School Grounds

Littlefield school officials stated Wednesday that the Texas Company has proposed the drilling of two oil wells on school grounds this month. One will be located on the old practice field. The other will be between the high building and the bus shed.

The Texas Company hopes to begin drilling during the Christmas holidays. Company representatives will either confirm or deny reports circulating Wednesday that they have additional locations, spot-

Two Rigs Now At Littlefield

Two drillings rigs are now at work in Littlefield's new oil pool. Hall and Stewart moved their rig Monday from the Duggan well in the city park to the Ida Dalmont Hewitt lease north of town and spudded in an offset there to the Union Compress No. 1—the discovery well.

This is the third well for the Texas Company at Littlefield. Meanwhile the BS and J Drilling Company is moving in a rig from Post to drill a test on the

100 Barrel Allowable

PUMP INSTALLED ON DUGGAN WELL. As expected, the Railroad Commission Tuesday granted an allowable of 100 barrels per day to the Texas Company on its Union Compress No. 1.

This is higher than oil men expect the per well allowable to be after the field is definitely established. It is customary for the first five wells in a new field

Five Polling Places For Parity Vote

Five Lamb County towns have been designated for polling places in the December 15 vote on cotton acreage quotas. They are Sudan, Amherst, Littlefield, Springlake, and Olton. Buildings in which the ballot boxes will be located will be announced later.

2609 Lamb County Growers Eligible To Vote

If two-thirds or more of the growers across the nation vote to accept the quotas, then the government will continue to support cotton prices at 90% of parity, and any grower who plants more than his quota will have to pay a 50 percent penalty before he can market his excess.

Less Than Two-Thirds Vote To Accept Quotas

If less than two-thirds vote to accept the quotas, then they will continue in effect, but there will be no marketing penalty for over-planting. Neither will there be a 90 percent parity guarantee by the government. However, the government will guarantee 50 percent of parity if the growers voluntarily hold their plantings within the quota figures.

There Has Been Some Misunderstanding As To Just What The Growers Will Really Be Voting On

Many have been told that the only thing they are to decide is whether or not they get 90 percent or 50 percent price supports, and that there is nothing they can do about the quotas.

A Letter From Secretary Benson To County Agents This Week Advises Them That This Concept Is Erroneous

That while there will be quotas regardless of the outcome of the vote, there will be no marketing penalty for violation of allotments if the growers vote against them.

All Gins Work 'Round The Clock As Bolls Pour In

About 115,000 bales of cotton have been ginned in Lamb County so far this season. J. D. Jordan, manager of the local office of the Texas Employment Commission, estimated Tuesday.

He estimates the harvest is 75 per cent complete. He expects the county crop to total 140,000 bales. However, County Agent David Eaton has said he considers his own early estimate of 150,000 bales "very conservative."

All Lamb county gins are working 24 hours per day, Jordan said. He said "county ginning figures from now on won't mean much because farmers will take their cotton to whatever gins they can get in at."

An average of $14,334.25 per month came into Lamb county for old age assistance during 1952. Mrs. Blanche Dodgen and Elam C. Caldwell, field directors working from the county welfare office, said Wednesday.

The $14,334.25 monthly payments were divided among 415 recipients. In addition, 22 families in the county received $1,240 each month for aid to 67 dependent children, and eight persons got monthly payments totaling $281 in aid to the needy blind.

Coach Jay Fikes awarded football letter jackets or letters to 37 Littlefield high school football players at the Pep Squad banquet for the Wildcats Monday night.

Fikes said the 1953 Wildcats "had more spirit on this team than on any team I've coached. They lost some games but they kept up their spirit."

Letters went to Guard James (Red) Durham, a sophomore; End Roy Hoover, sophomore; Center Dale Ward and Guard Ronald Rogers, both juniors. All have played with the Wildcats one year.

Earth Man Gets $100 DWI Fine

Two Lamb counties have been charged with driving while intoxicated during the past week, County Attorney Curtis R. Wilkinson said Wednesday.

Nearly News...

The truck driver who shook off his burning load of cotton a few days ago was not Lloyd Haire, who owns the truck, but Neal Tull, also of Spade. Mrs. Johnnie West is looking for more Cub Scouts at Pleasant Valley to fill the den she is organizing.

Edwin Ramey of Dimmitt and R. J. Clump of Muleshoe have both been volunteer weather observers for over 30 years. Heard a "witcher" telling Texaco's District Superintendent Lake that the well he is drilling on the Dalmont lease is sure to be dry. Didn't seem to worry Mr. Lake.

5,000 Here To See Santa

An estimated 5,000 area children and their mothers saw Santa Claus and four of his reindeer parade through Littlefield Monday afternoon.

Jesse Everett, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, had no official estimate of the crowd. "Everytime I'd look around to do some counting, I'd get run over," he quipped.

The unofficial estimate included the 2,000 Littlefield school children dismissed from classes for the parade. Some of the parents and children attending came from as far as 40 miles away.

Christmas shoppers in Littlefield are now participating in a Treasure Hunt, with merchants offering thousands of dollars worth of free prizes. Customers are given tickets with each purchase, and stubs will be displayed Dec. 10 in store windows next to Treasure Hunt prizes. Persons with tickets matching the winning stub numbers will be given their prizes by store managers.

Texas Quail Season Opens

Hunting seasons on quail and chachalaca (Louisiana pheasants) opened in Texas Tuesday hunting license deputies in and Stacy Hart, one of the Littlefield, says he's selling quite a number of state hunting licenses.

The annual resident licenses, which cost $2.15, are good for all game seasons in Texas. Fishing licenses are sold separately, for $1.65. Although there are special bag limits, taking regulations and shooting hours in some areas, here are the general rules on quail hunting:

The season runs through Jan. 16; bag limit is 2 a day and not more than 36 a week or in possession; if shotguns are used they must not be larger than 10 gauge, and must be permanently plugged so they will hold not more than three shells; shooting hours are from one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset.

Young Bus Riders Travelled Alone

Barbara and Mary 8 and 6 years old, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Brimhall of Anton, were two happy youngsters as they boarded the bus bound for Clovis last Wednesday noon. Their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pendergrass of Portales, N. M., met them at Clovis.

Mr. and Mrs. Brimhall went to Portales, N. M., Saturday and brought the girls home Sunday evening. Barbara and Mary reported a very thrilling trip which included seeing Santa Claus and his reindeer in Portales Saturday.

Of course bus traveling was old stuff for Barbara who made this trip alone when she was only 3 years old.

He is a senior ministerial student majoring in Bible.

Grain Sorghum Harvest Ends

The grain sorghum harvest in Lamb county is 95 percent complete, County Agent David Eaton said Wednesday.

A total of 90,000 acres of grain sorghum was planted this season but only about 50,000 grew to harvest, Eaton said. "Yields on irrigated land were pretty good but the dry land crop - 40,000 acres - was a complete failure."

He said yields from irrigated land were running from 2,000 to 3,600 pounds per acre.

Sheriff's Office Gets New Cars

The Lamb county sheriff's office put two new patrol cars in service Wednesday. The cars replace 1951 models which have been traded in on the new vehicles.

The news cars, a Plymouth and a Dodge, were purchased from Garland Motor Co., local dealer, and delivery was made Wednesday. Radios were transferred Wednesday from the car formerly used, a Ford and Plymouth.

Sports Shots

The college basketball lineup for Texas this season will be: Southwest Conference - Rice, Texas A&M, Baylor, Texas Christian and Southern Methodist.

Texas Conference - Texas A&M, McMurry, Abilene Christian, Howard Payne and Austin College.

One Star Conference - Sul Ross, Lamar Tech, East Texas State, San Houston State, South Texas State, Stephen F. Austin.

Big State Conference - Texas A&M, St. Mary's, St. Edwards, Southwestern, East Texas Baptist and Texas Wesleyan.

Border Conference - Texas Tech, Hardin-Simmons, West Texas State and Texas Western.

Gulf Coast Conference - North Texas State, Midwestern and Trinity.

There are no rule changes of interest to the fans in basketball this season. There are a few minor alterations but, an official said, "I probably didn't explain them so that general public would know what I was talking about anyway."

The one-and-one rule remains as has to do with giving a second shot on a one-shot foul if you miss the first one. It is designed to cut down on fouls but, as far as can be learned from the statistics, did not accomplish its objective. About the only thing it did was increase scoring.

The Southwest Conference which made a humiliatingly bad record in intersectional basketball last season, expects to do better this time. The earliest start and the fact that most of the teams look stronger brings in expectation.

There will be ample opportunity for it. On the intersectional schedule are Oklahoma State, Louisiana State, Tulsa, Missouri, Washington, Mississippi, the Phillips Oilers, Oklahoma City U., Vanderbilt, Oklahoma, Tulane, St. John's Rice plays them in Madison Square Garden) Tennessee, Meharry State, Duguesne, Manhattan (also to be played in New York, by Texas), Brigham Young and Utah.

Texas Christian should repeat with the Championship it won in something of an upset last season. The Horned Frogs made a Garrison finish and beat out the favored Rice Owls. FCU has 10 lettermen back and the height to contest any basketball team in the country. Rice also will be strong again and Southern Methodist definitely will be better along with Baylor and possibly Texas. Arkansas doesn't look as good and neither does Texas A&M.

Lacrosse is the national game of Canada.

The Littlefield highschool band and chorus will present their annual pre-Christmas concert Dec. 22, the last day of school before the Christmas holidays. Director Beryl Harris announced Wednesday.

Younger Set Dresses Lead Gay Double Life

ONE AND ONE EQUAL FOUR PLUS . . . The covering pinafore (left) and vest (right) may be worn with basic dresses or in other combinations to double a young miss's wardrobe.

During the holidays the younger set dresses up too. Christmas partying and visiting relatives call for something special in the junior wardrobe and mothers everywhere are taking a tip from local sewing center experts to make dual dresses, which can do the work of several outfits and save sewing time come Spring.

The double-duty dress consists of two parts. For example, a dress and pinafore set done in companion colors with a dress of striped cotton and a fullskirted pinafore to match the strip.

Worn together, they make a dainty ensemble. The dress can step out on its own, and the pinafore may be teamed with a blouse for a different look, or go to the beach as a sun dress.

A white corduroy vest covers a second dress, with the white repeated in linen collar and cuffs.

Yule Fun For Small Fry

When the piggy bank brigade starts shopping for Christmas gifts, it's a good idea to direct their attention to gifts they can make, with small outlay of capital and large dividends of fun.

One gift any little girl can make is a batch of Christmas cookies wrapped together with a package of paper plates in which to serve them, and paper napkins with a Christmas motif to accompany them.

The young cook may either use one of her mother's favorite cookie recipes, or a packaged mix, cutting the cookies in fanciful shapes and decorating them with bits of candied cherries, red and green sugar, nuts, colored icings, or whatever she may dream up.

After the cookies are made, the wrapping begins. About 24 cookies are placed on a 9 inch paper plate with a Christmas motif. Under this go a dozen paper napkins and then a package of smaller decorated paper plates. The whole stack is slipped onto a sheet of clear cellophane which is drawn up, bunched together and tied on top with a red ribbon bow.

The recipient then may serve the cookies on the accompanying plates, with napkins to match.

lar and cuffs repeat the brown binding and soft teal of the fabric designed by Avondale in a refreshing departure from the pink and blue of little girl clothes. Have, too, the vest has a life of its own, and may be worn under a spring suit or with a sweater and skirt for a touch of grownup chic.

With the mix and match separates rating high on the fashion chart for big girls, their little sisters will enjoy the chance to plan their own wardrobe-doubling tactics.

Wildcat Royalty Presides at Football Banquet

Beva Ray, Martinez Crowned

Miss Beva Jean Ray, 16-year-old blonde, was crowned queen of the 1953 Littlefield High school football team in ceremonies preceding the Pep Squad's annual banquet for the Wildcats Monday night. Fred Martinez, Pep King, also was crowned in the coronation rites in the high school auditorium.

Fred Martinez, Pep King, also was crowned in the coronation rites in the high school auditorium. Lee Boyd Montgomery served as master of ceremonies at the coronation. Sue McCowan played processional and recessional music and the royal party's march into the auditorium was preceded by a fanfare of trumpets played by Paul Renfro, Leland Stone and Tommy Evans. The trumpeters also heralded the crowning of the king and queen. Dick Daughtry sang, "If I Loved You."

Miss Ray's coronation took place before a stage setting centered around the maroon satin chair on a white platform. A white heart decorated the back of the chair, and baskets of white mums flanked it.

Bob Hoover, Wildcat co-captain, crowned the queen and Co-Captain Boyd Mears presented her with an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums, a gift of the team. Her escort, Dwain Hoover, gave Miss Ray the traditional coronation kiss.

Fred Martinez was crowned by Rosemary Hess, representing the Pep Squad. Earlene Roberts presented him with a gift from the Squad, a tie clasp and cuff links.

The royal party, besides the king and queen and their escorts, included:

Flower girls were Linda Webb, dressed in a formal gown of tulle taffeta, and Varina Dee Ray, wearing a ruffled white net dress. James Hubert Cerrico and James Bruce Ray were crown bearers.

After the coronation, the royal party and other guests went to the school cafeteria for the football banquet.

Dan Howard gave the invocation and Dwain Hoover was toastmaster. Linda Hoover, a Pep Squad member, welcomed the guests and Paul Williams responded on behalf of the team.

After dinner, Principal Ralph Schilling introduced the principal speaker, Roy Bass, Lubbock attorney who spoke on "The place of football in the community."

Couch J. S. Fikes recognized members of his team, and announced names of those who will receive jackets and letters.

Hoover led the group in singing the school song, "Maroon and White," and Supt. Halld Pearce gave the benediction.

Dinner was served at a U-shaped table decorated with fall leaves and clusters of balloons, shaped like footballs of white with maroon lettering, which were given as favors.

The head table also was decorated with an arrangement of bronze mums. Fall leaves trimmed windows in the room and place cards carried out the fall theme. Napkins were printed, with "Football Banquet 1953" in maroon.

The menu carried out a football theme and included: "First down" - pineapple juice; "pigskin" - pot roast; "piling up" - potatoes and carrots; "tackling dummy" - green beans; "unnecessary roughness" - combination salad; "touchdown" hot rolls; "extra point" - butter; "gridiron glory" - cherry cobbler; "water boy" - iced tea.

Here's Your Tree-Trim Supper

Christmas eve plans are in the making. In your mind's eye you see the tree standing by the fireplace - tall, green and hand some. You want to have an especially good supper for the family before your tree-trimming fun starts. Something easy to prepare - but something enticing.

May we suggest a menu? Have nibblers for the first course - black and green olives stuffed celery, maybe radishes. Go on to Ham Poulet over toast - utilizing a can of condensed cream of chicken soup for the sauce. Then, just to make the table really festive, serve a salad-dessert of gelatin and fruit cocktail molded in Christmas tree shapes.

HAM POULET

INGREDIENTS: 1/4 pound cooked ham about 1 cup when prepared, 2 tablespoons flour, 1/2 cup milk, one 10 1/2 ounce can condensed cream of chicken soup (undiluted), one 4 ounce can sliced mushrooms (drained) METHOD: Cut ham in thin slices about 2 inches long. Measure flour into saucpan; slowly stir in milk so mixture will be smooth. Add soup stirring well to blend. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly until mixture comes to a boil and is slightly thickened. Add mushrooms and sliced ham. Heat to simmering, stirring constantly. Serve over toast. Makes 4 servings. Recipe may be doubled or tripled.

NOTE: If desired, 1 table spoon cooking sherry may be added to Ham Poulet just before serving.

CHRISTMAS TREE MOLDS

INGREDIENTS: 1 package of lime-flavor gelatin, 1 cup very hot water, 1 cup minus 2 table spoons fruit juice, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 1/2 cups (No. 2 can) drained fruit cocktail, 1 cup cream (whipped and sweetened), maraschino cherries. METHOD: Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add fruit juice and lemon juice. Chill until slightly thickened. Fold in fruit. Turn into individual Christmas tree molds. Chill until firm; unmold.

EASY AND DELICIOUS Christmas Eve - silvered ham. Make tree design on top of ing whipped cream and molds, using whipped cream in and cherries for tree. Makes 8 servings.

FHA Director Is 'Man of the Year'

Local officials of the Farmers Home Administration were happy this week to learn that their boss, State Director L. J. Cappelman, has been named agricultural man of the year by the Progressive Farmer.

Using as his slogan, "Let's do good farming," Cappelman and his organization are credited with doing much to encourage better insect control by cotton farmers, and many other improved farming practices.

Principal local officials are County Supervisor Truman Jones and Committeemen F. L. Shelby, G. M. Vann and Sid Hopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Erbie Jones of Amarillo visited his father and Amherst friends Sunday.

Use Of Liquid Fertilizer Is Increasing In This Area

Increased use of a balanced liquid fertilizer in this area is expected to result from efforts of at least one major manufacturer to build an extensive sales and service organization in this state.

The trend toward greater use of liquid nutrients for farm crops is largely due to results obtained by growers and to reports coming from increasing numbers of agricultural colleges and experiment stations.

Liquid Fertilizer is applied in various ways including seed treatment of small grain crops, as a transplanting solution, as a side dressing and by spraying directly on the leaves of a growing crop. This last method is known as leaf feeding. Tests have shown that leaf feeding has increased yields as much as 50 per cent on many crops.

In most applications, the liquid fertilizer is applied to the plants rather than to the soil. Scientific tests prove that plants can absorb 90 per cent or more of the nutrients spray on their leaves and these nutrients are carried quickly throughout the plant structure. Ease of application, convenience in storing and handling, and the ability to get a "free ride" along with applications of water-soluble weed killers are some of the advantages reported by the growers.

Farmers are familiar with single-purpose liquids such as nitrogen, or anhydrous ammonia, but the availability and use of balanced solutions containing the important major elements in a 1-2-1 ratio plus powerful trace elements is now winning widespread recognition.

EDITORIAL

Are They Learning?

John M. Clark, a Texas A. & M. student, was run off the road by a group of belligerent students after he wrote a criticizing the hazing of freshmen, etc., as "childish." This is not surprising as many young men of college age are immature in their thinking. Many of them have also altered lives with few real troubles to overcome, so they are taking something to fight, preferably with a lot of moral support from other immature persons—or, in words, preferably in a mob.

One sort of expects that kind of thing from children, but administrators should be something else. They are men and should be expected to have mature minds. And our young people to the motto learn, among other things, to live peaceably in a democratic society. It is disgusting to find them unwilling to take effective measures with attempts on the part of their proteges to deny them of free speech to dissenters.

Lawlessness must be punished, not shrugged off, if our people are to learn respect for law. Mob rule must not be done in our schools.

Denying the dissenter to return to almost certain retaliation is not apt to correct anything. Perhaps, the school administration simply feels that there is nothing more it can do. Maybe they tend to agree with the vigilantes. Either way, it is pretty discouraging to the folks who are paying salaries.

Era Of The Common Man

The Daily Review, Clifton Forge, Virginia, recently de-an editorial to a story which has been making the rounds in England. Here's the way it goes:

The agitator was addressing a crowd of workers. When the era of the common man arrives, he told them, "You will wear the pleasures of the rich. You will walk down Park wearing a top hat."

The listener interrupted to say, "Hi'd rather ave a cloth

The agitator said the man could keep the cap if he wished. He continued: "You'll wear a cutaway coat and pinstriped trousers."

The listener broke in, saying, "Hi'm more comfortable in my overalls."

The agitator, annoyed, said that would be permissible. He continued: "And you'll ride to work in a Rolls Royce."

Once more he was interrupted: "Hi'd rather use me money to buy a car."

At this time the agitator leaped from the platform and grabbed the man by the sleeve. "Listen you," he said, "come on, the era of the common man and you'll do what you are blooming ordered to do!"

That's an amusing story. It is also much more. It is a fact commentary on what inevitably happens under Communism—you must do what you are ordered to do.

"er Up" Moscow Style

Isn't likely that you'll ever be driving your car in Moscow. The communists do not welcome visitors from the world, nor would most Americans want to go there even if it were possible.

Suppose that were the case—and you found yourself stuck in low on gas and were in urgent need of finding a service station.

First of all, you might run entirely out before you could get your tank refilled. For, while Moscow is one of the great cities of the world in point of population, with some 5,000,000 inhabitants, it has only five—yes, five!—so-called service stations.

Suppose you were lucky and reached one of the five service stations in time. Smiling attendants wouldn't run out to your car, clean your windshield, attend to your battery or any of the other things we take for granted here in America. Indeed, you'd have to fill your own tank, perhaps with gasoline of very dubious quality, and all the attendant would do would be to take your ration coupons and your money.

Isn't it all remarkable that this should be the case in Moscow. For, under communism and the other totalitarian systems, there is no competition and no free enterprise. The owners and bosses practically everything—and you take what is offered or do without.

The American service station, on the other hand, is the result of the most intense kind of competition—just as is everything else connected with the oil industry. And the result is the best products, the best service, and the lowest prices that human ingenuity can achieve.

With all of our knowledge and information about health and hygiene, one still sees the old time water bucket in use at many of the high school football games. The bucket is set out on the field and all players dip water from it and splash it on their faces. The team manager will dip a towel into the same bucket and run out on the field to rub the face of some boy who has been shaken up in a play.

One wonders how long it will take for schools to start using sanitary drinking cups at athletic events. The local health authorities should not tolerate some of the practices now in vogue. It is no wonder that sometimes the team is stricken with virus and in some instances polio and other infections.

Highlights and Sidelights From The State Capitol

By VERN SANFORD
 Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Tex.—Hottest news out of Austin is the fight to prevent the DPOW from getting a foothold in Texas.

DPOW is the Distributive, Processing and Office Workers Union of America, an interim affiliate of the CIO, but not as yet admitted to full membership.

Attorney General John Ben Shepperd contends DPOW is a communist controlled and communist led. He says "they are organizing in Texas with the intent and purpose of paralyzing the oil industry, as well as the shipping areas of the state when the proper time comes."

DPOW has disrupted business in Port Arthur the past several weeks by picketing some 22 eating places, hotels and retail stores. "They have threatened the laundries and have their eyes on the filling stations," says the attorney general.

According to John Sadler, publisher of the Port Arthur News, stores in that heavily unionized coastal city are as bare of customers as if a depression was on.

Shepperd outlined the procedure followed by the DPOW as follows: "They write a letter to the manager of a business, demanding that he recognize their union and threaten to picket his place. So far there hasn't been a single election by the National Labor Relations Board. The DPOW just moves in and takes over."

Shepperd appealed to the workers and to the people of Texas to investigate DPOW. "Let's not trade the Lone Star of Texas for the Red Star of Russia," warns the attorney general.

State American Legion officials have joined in the campaign to fight DPOW's inroads as have Port Arthur legionnaires.

Governor Allan Shivers has appointed a five-man Industrial Commission to investigate DPOW. Also the International Fur and Leather Workers Union and the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers Union.

The committee will hear testimony about alleged communist domination of these labor organizations which are attempting to operate in Texas.

Members of the Texas Industrial Commission are: C. E. Fulgham, Lubbock farmer and rancher; William J. Harris of Dallas, president of the Texas Federation of Labor; L. E. Page of Carthage, commander of the Texas Department of the American Legion; Walter Buckner, editor and co-publisher of the San Marcos Record and past-president of the Texas Press Association; and E. G. Redman, Sr. of Odessa, president of the Rodman Oil Field Supply Co.

An investigation on another front has been started to consider charges of discrimination against Latin Americans.

Worth, chairman of the Texas Good Neighbor Commission, appointed Frank Kelley of Colorado City as head of the new committee which will act on the problem.

According to Penrose, quicker and more thorough investigation of discrimination cases, with the help of local officials, is the purpose of the committee.

Penrose named Claude Meadows Sr. of San Angelo as head of a committee to help inform Latin Americans in Texas of their status under the McCarran Immigration Act.

The federal law requires proof by January 1 of legal entry into the U. S.

Provisions of the act are causing much fear of deportation even among Latin Americans who have lived in Texas for 20 years or longer. Many persons are unable to present the required records because papers were lost or never made, Penrose stated.

Action taken by state Republican leaders at a session here December 7 may have important bearing on the top 1954 political campaigns.

Law requires the party to nominate its candidates in a primary, since it cross-filed Governor Allan Shivers last year and polled more than 230,000 votes for him.

Republicans would vote on the same day as the Democratic primary.

GOP leaders had favored a strategy of opposing Democratic candidates who appeared vulnerable or any who held views contrary to the Republicans.

National committeeman Jack Porter of Houston had previously stated that the GOP would have an opponent for Senator Lyndon Johnson, but not for Governor Shivers, if he seeks re-election.

At this point, the significance of the committee's decisions becomes apparent.

Should Governor Shivers eliminate himself, there is every indication that several conservative candidates will be in the race with the possibility of one liberal in the field, although two have been mentioned.

Monday's meeting may give the Republicans a definite rule on their rights under the cross-filing law, and they may decide whether they can place on their ballots candidates who are also named on the Democratic ticket.

One conservative candidate for governor has already made an appeal to Texas voters, without making a formal announcement of his campaign.

House Speaker Reuben Senterfitt of San Saba said in a talk last week that he hoped the din of debate over party control would not "obscure our present need to carry forward a program for the improvement of our state government and state services."

He added that there are "able Neville Penrose of Fort and courageous men who have,

and will again lead that debate."

That statement has caused speculation that Shivers will not run again. The governor has previously said that he would be willing to carry on the conservative cause in the party control fight.

One experienced political analyst puts it this way:

"Senterfitt is a conservative. His very early announcement that he would run, plus the fast start on speech-making, has added to the feeling of many political pros that if his campaign catches on, Shivers will not ask re-election."

Texans can now boast of one of the first atomic-age bomb shelters.

It is ready for use as the nerve center of operations in case of disaster or war emergency and is located at the Texas Department of Public Safety as a part of the new headquarters building.

Director Homer Garrison Jr. says the shelter consists of five large basement rooms now used as the department's communication center.

Walls and ceiling of the shelter are made of steel and concrete about two feet thick.

There is little to distinguish it from other parts of the building, but it is built to withstand anything except a direct bomb hit, including the tumbling weight of the upper portion of the building.

Nine telephone truck lines could be expanded to 21 in time of emergency.

Buyers are getting better breaks in the eyes of the law, according to Dean W. Page Keeton of the University of Texas Law School.

Courts are developing a new doctrine of "let the seller beware," he said.

Speaking of his views as stated in the Texas Law Review, he cited the example of a real estate sale in which the buyer was told the plumbing was "all right."

During the transaction, the seller failed to tell the purchaser that the plumbing was not connected to a public sewer, and the court regarded this as misrepresentation.

SHORT SNORTS: In the Court of Criminal Appeals validity of the state's anti-noise muffler law was upheld. . . This followed a similar decision by the Supreme Court. . . Emergency reduction of rail freight rates on hay shipped to Texas drought counties has been extended to December 31. . . George M. Sandlin of Austin and Harvey W. Draper of Houston have been named to serve as chairman and vice-chairman, respectively, of the Texas Real Estate Commission for the fifth consecutive year. . . Four men who represented Wise county in the Legislature during the 1890's are still living. . . They are C. V. Terrell of Austin, John H. Kirkpatrick of San Antonio, C. W. Martin of Coleman, and John F. Thomas of Lawton, Okla.

CHANCE GOVERNS CALL FOR JURY DUTY

Have you ever had to postpone or cancel a hunting or fishing trip or some important business matter to answer a call for jury service. Many people are finding themselves in that position nowadays.

Some may wonder just how that jury summons always seems to arrive at the most inopportune time. There's no secret involved. It is largely a matter of chance.

Under Texas laws jury panels for District Courts are selected by one of two methods—the Jury Wheel or the Jury Commission. The jury wheel is a hollow metal wheel or container, so erected that it will freely revolve on its axle.

In counties using a jury wheel a list of all qualified jurors is prepared from the official tax lists in August of each year. Taking part in the ceremony are the County Tax Assessor, the District Clerk, the County Sheriff, and the County Clerk. Each prospective juror's name is written on a card of uniform size and placed in the metal container.

Then the wheel is locked with two separate locks, the key to one lock being kept by the District Clerk and the other key being kept by the Sheriff. As jurors are needed, the wheel is revolved to mix the names and the required number drawn for preparation of jury lists.

Three persons must be present when the wheel is unlocked and the names drawn therefrom—the Sheriff or one of his deputies, the District Clerk (or one of his deputies), and the District Judge. Upon completion of currently required jury lists, all names are returned to the container, which is again double locked.

Later, when the time comes around to prepare a new set of lists, some of the same names will very likely be drawn again. Others may never be drawn.

In counties not operating under the jury wheel system, the District Judge at each term of his court appoints from three to five persons from different sections of the county to act as Jury Commissioners.

Using the county tax assessment roll, these men follow the Judge's instructions as to the number of jurors to be selected for various weeks of the court term. The lists of names prepared by them are sealed in separate envelopes and are delivered to the Judge. He, in turn, turns them over to the District Clerk or one of his deputies who immediately files the envelopes away in a safe place in the Clerk's office.

Although ordinarily inconveniences are not usually sufficient to gain an excuse from jury service, emergency or hardship is a different matter. If you face such extreme circumstances in your business or personal affairs that your attendance freely reflect a meditate upon the important issues to be tried, call this to the attention of the judge.

Courts try to be reasonable.

LETTERS To The Editor

Mr. Sam L. Williams
 Lamb County Leader
 Littlefield, Texas

Dear Mr. Williams:

Those of us who have been working in the sponsorship of the Canadian River Project deeply regret that Littlefield did not remain in the Authority with the other 11 cities.

The help that Littlefield gave in this effort was valuable and we shall always be grateful for its cooperation in this movement for conservation of this great natural resource, the flood waters of the Canadian River. The 380,000,000 gallons per day average flood water in grants of excises. The judge will consider your situation carefully and to your study, and may determine that your service should be deferred.

run-off down the Canadian that is wasted to the sea certainly will do lots of good in conservation of the underground waters of this region for irrigation purposes, if we capture that flood water and put it to beneficial use.

We sincerely believe this great quantity of water, or such portion of it as the State of Texas is entitled to capture, will keep up the economy of the region for many, many, years beyond that period of time that the underground resources are reasonably calculated to last, should we not take this conservation step to capture the surface waters that are available to us in the area.

With kindest regards, I am,
 Sincerely yours,
 A. A. Meredith
 Secretary, Treasurer
 Canadian Municipal Water Authority.

LETTERS TO SANTA

Christmas and children haven't changed in this atomic age, letters to Santa Claus indicate. First letters to Santa in care of the Lamb County Leader still ask for "two guns" and dolls and assure Santa the writers "have been good and will be waiting for you."

The Leader will send on to Santa all letters addressed to him in care of this newspaper, and the letters will be printed in pre-Christmas editions of the paper.

Among first letters received were these:

Dear Santa Claus,
I have been a good girl. Please bring me a baby doll in a suitcase—one with scales and some clothes and a bottle. I would like to have a doll bath-inette too. Please bring me some candy kisses. Remember all the little sick and crippled children. Bring them something nice.

Merry Christmas from Nelda Lee Walker

Pupils To Give Christmas Acts For P-TA Groups

First and third grade students will present a musical Christmas program for mothers and fathers the evening of Dec. 8. The program will replace the usual afternoon meeting of the Elementary Parent-Teacher Association.

The regular afternoon meeting is being cancelled and the program held at night so that fathers also can attend.

Mrs. John Nail, program chairman, said coffee will be served in the school cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. and the program will begin promptly at 8 in the high school auditorium.

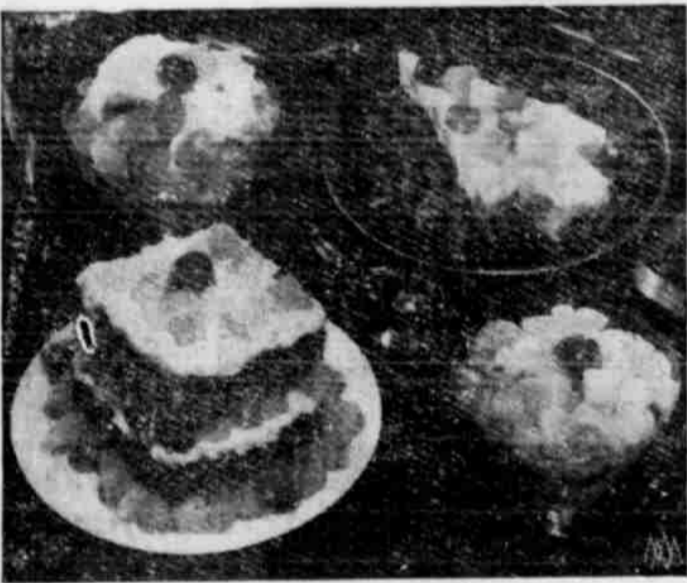

School Supt. Halda R. Pearce will be master of ceremonies at the program. Mrs. L. N. Bridges is music director. Mrs. Fred Underwood is P-TA chairman of the refreshment committee. Parents will register rooms in which their children are students. Rooms will have 10 parents registered. 20 parents will get $2 prizes so on.

Since 1925, the average of the average U. S. motor hicle when scrapped has creased from 6.5 years to years and the average mile from 25,750 to 121,000.

Let's talk turkey

Whether you are planning to serve one of the small turkeys that weighs just a few pounds or the traditional 20-pound bird this Christmas — you can be sure it will cook to perfection on your modern gas range. If you are broiling, roasting or frying your turkey let your modern gas range take over the cooking job — while you enjoy a real holiday with family and friends.

To Roast a Turkey

Salt body cavity and stuff lightly; close opening by placing several skewers across it, then lace around them with a cord. Grease the skin of the bird with melted cooking fat, then salt and pepper. Place on rack in an open roasting pan. Roast the turkey with breast down until 45 minutes before end of cooking time, then turn bird to allow skin to become golden brown. If desired, cover top and sides of bird with fat-moistened cheesecloth during the roasting period. Roast according to following chart:

Weight	Temperature	Hours
8 to 10	325° F.	3 to 3½
10 to 14	325° F.	3½ to 4
14 to 18	300° F.	4 to 4½
18 to 20	300° F.	4½ to 5
20 to 25	300° F.	5 to 6

Come In and Order One... Today!

Of course, any day is a wonderful day for stepping up to Cadillac.

When the magic moment arrives in a man's life when he feels entitled to the "car of cars," he should make the move without hesitation—regardless of year, or season, or any other consideration.

But we do feel, in all honesty, that the motorist who finds himself in that happy circumstance this fall is particularly fortunate.

For Cadillac has never offered so many wonderful things, in such abundant measure, as it does today.

It is supremely beautiful—with grace and dignity and majesty that set it instantly apart from the rest of the world's motor cars.

Its performance is simply breath-taking—even when measured against Cadillac's own extraordinary standards. And the car is luxurious and distinctive and pride-inspiring far beyond its illustrious predecessors.

In addition to all this, the current Cadillac creation is unbelievably practical to own and economical to operate. The lowest-priced Cadillac, for instance, now costs less than twenty-two different models of other makes of motor cars manufactured in America.

And you can ride out a normal, full day's journey on a single tankful of gasoline.

As if this were not sufficient to set it apart, a Cadillac car—according to an authoritative study of used car prices—may be expected to return a greater percentage of its owner's original investment at the time of resale than any other motor car in the land!

So—if you are considering a Cadillac for yourself and your family—come in and order one today!

It's the right thing to do—and it's the right time to do it.

Cotton Quotas Will Cut '50 Crop One-Third

COLLEGE STATION (Special) — When the 1954 cotton crop moves to market, growers will compete with an 8.4 million bale carry over, the largest of any postwar year.

Furthermore, while an approval to marketing quotas will assure growers a 90 percent parity support price, John G. McHaney, assistant extension economist, says cotton acreage allotments will reduce the state's crop next year by one-third.

Tentative national marketing quotas call for the production of 10 million bales of upland cotton and 30 thousand bales of extra long staple. Acreage allotments should tend to boost the price, but will cut the total cash receipts from cotton, McHaney explains. Allotment quotas must be approved in a national referendum vote by two-thirds of the growers.

The current crop of upland cotton is about 25 percent larger than normal and approximately twice the extra long staple in supply. Including the 1954 crop, the carry over from last year and a few imports, this country now has 21 million bales. Domestic consumption and exports

Lipstick Logic

The four weeks that elapse between the fourth Thursday in November and the fourth Thursday in December might be called the Prelude to Christmas.

Fall seems to reach a grand weekend. For most of us this marks the end of fall flowers fall colors and football. It is a time for turning our eyes and thoughts indoors. It is the intermission between thinking of ourselves and thinking of someone else.

Although it doesn't always work out this way in practice, we like to think of the difference between Thanksgiving and Christmas as being one of whose blessings we're counting. During late November, we frankly stop and take stock of our own personal fortunes — health, happiness, family and friends.

Beginning early in December we extend our horizons to include others we'd like to do something for. Instead of basking in the warmth of having, we look toward the less comfortable, but more rewarding, pleasure of giving.

Not until we've much older than we care to admit did we understand that real Christmas gifts don't always come wrapped in bright boxes. Equally precious can be the gift of time, of renewed memories, of thoughtful words, of a demand not made that might have cost someone else some sacrifice.

These, though easily shown can lighten a burden or bring happiness that is far and away more satisfying than many a gift that, by usual standards, would be considered valuable. The gay package without the donors' sincere affection, on the other hand, is about as meaningful as an ice cube.

As we start this Christmas Prelude, we renew a resolve to make it meaningful in the true sense.

will lower the supply to 8.4 million bales by August, 1954, McHaney says.

The economist foresees a small drop in domestic milling consumption during the coming year. Delivery to the military forces probably will decline. And, while cotton exports are down 2.5 million bales from 1951's 5.5 million, a further decline is not likely. Exports may advance slightly, he says.

In concluding, McHaney says, the immediate overall outlook for cotton is one of large supplies and moderate or less demand.

Lfd Reservists Can Now Go To Classes By Air

Air force reservists from the Littlefield area are now authorized to travel by airlift to the Air Force Reserve Training Center at Hensley Field, Grand Prairie, Texas, Col. Jerry W. Davidson, commander, 8708 Pilot Training Wing, announced today.

A reserve C-46 Curtiss "Commando" transport plane will be flown from Lubbock, Midland, and Big Spring, etc., one week-end each month to take 8703th Wing members to the Dallas-Fort Worth area for weekend reserve training.

Headquarters Continental Air Command, Mitchell Field, New York, recently authorized the airlift so that reservists away from metropolitan areas could benefit from training with an organized unit.

Hunters Give Deer Hides To TB Patients

Austin, November 28 — More than 200 deer hides reached Austin in the first two weeks of the hunting season as Texas sportsmen answered a plea of tuberculosis patients for buckskin.

L. M. Rathbone of the Austin Taxidermist Studio who is donating both shipping and tanning costs said various locker plants over the state have advised him they are collecting the hunters' contributions for bulk shipment.

The tanned leather will be used in handicraft projects in the four state-operated TB hospitals at Tyler, San Angelo, San Antonio and Kerrville, where hospital officials say occupation at therapy is one of their gravest needs.

Mrs. Alice Coombs of Austin who is in charge of the occupational therapy efforts in the state hospitals system has said 1000 hides could be utilized in each of the four TB hospitals during the next year. This number would approximate one tenth of the Texas deer kill reported last year to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission.

Hides may be sent collect by motor freight or express, Mr. Rathbone says, but they should be marked "For TB Patients."
