In deference to the Littlefield-Slaton football game scheduled here at Seely Stadium Friday night, sure to draw a tremendous crowd, there will be no activity at the Fair ground Friday night, aside from the carnival. Saturday, closing day, is the reall ybig day of the Fair, and an overflow crowd is expected both afternoon and evening, to pass through the free gate at the Fair grounds on Levelland Highway.

A monsterous parade, headed by Reese Air Force Band from Lubbock, with Littelfield high school band, and numerous other area LAMB COUNTY bands invited and expected is scheduled for 2 p.m. Parade committee announces that they have 35 commitments for parade entries from business houses. In addition to these, and floats, by clubs, etc., a half dozen or more sheriff posses have been invited and are expected to be in the parade. Parade entries may still be made by contacting committee members or Chamber of Commerce.

The parade will form on 1st street at the school houses, and will proceed down First to Delano. right on Delano to Phelps avenue, and up Phelps avenue to 10th street, and on to the Fair grounds. Gene Williams and Ray Smith head the parade committee.

Immediately at the conclusion of the parade, Bud Lucas and his 7piece aerial trapeze act will put on their show in the arena, along with other entertainment features. Admission to this show is 25c and 50c. The act and program will be repeated Saturday night.

Texas Water Conservation Board To Hold Annual Convention Oct. 1-2

Following one of the most disastrous drouths in the state's history the Texas Water Conservation Board will hold its seventh annual convention at Houston Monday and Tuesday, October 1 and 2 with a full two day program jampacked with outstanding speakers.

A greater threat even than drouth will be one of the keynotes of the convention, according to Guy C. Jackson of Anahuac, president of the conservation association. I liked it so well I want to take That threat, according to Jackson, it again. May I do so under the GI is that of the federal government bill? gaining control of the state's precious water supply.

To discuss this angle will be Attorney General Price Daniel whose subject will be "Tidelands Now-Inland Waters Next." "The tidelands seizure by the government has taught Texans that 'it can happen here,' meaning if we don't keep constantly on the alert we may awake to find our inland waters expropriated as we did the tidelands," Jackson stated.

J. E. Sturrock, general manager of the Water Conservation Association has announced the resolutions committee wil meet Sunday afternoon, September 30, in the Rice in advance of the convention. Resolutions will then be mimeographed and given the delegates Monday afternoon.

On the resolution committee are: E. E. McDonald, Mission; Lee Leatherman, Plainview; Victor W. Bouldin, Houston; R. G. Bowdry, Stamford: R. W. Evans, Uvalde; Frank N. Baldwin, Houston; T. A. Munson, Freeport; F. M. Austin, Houston; W. E. Babel, San Antonio; J. K. Mattox, Bay City; Forrest L. Park, Fort Worth; W. R. Parker, Houston; R. G. Hollingsworth, Coleman; Howard Hicks, Beaumont; and Sam K. Seymour, jr., Columbus.

Among those on the program with Attorney General Daniel will be Lachlan MacLeay, president, Mississippi Valley Association; Fred Husbands, executive vicepresident and general manager. West Texas Chamber of Commerce; Paul Weaver, technical advisor to vice-president, Gulf Oil Corporation; J. C.
