

Highway Substation Now Separate Section

The State Highway Department designated the maintenance warehouse here as a separate maintenance section, as of September 1. Formerly the warehouse was a substation of the main section at Muleshoe. Section Maintenance Foreman is C. Edmonds, who has been in charge of the warehouse here for several years.

The increase in roads was the reason for naming a separate section, according to Mr. Edmonds. So many farm-to-market roads have been built in recent years that Lamb County justifies its having a separate maintenance section.

Mr. Edmonds commented that in eight years he has been in Lamb County there has been an increase in number of roads to the extent of 50 per cent.

Edmonds has been with the State Highway Department for 16 years.

MISS BILLIE RUTH LITTLE

Miss Billie Ruth Little, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Little, who was enrolled at Camp Mystic, Kerrville, from June 1 until July 15, received several awards and recognition during her enrollment.

Miss Little studied Journalism and art, and took instruction in tennis, golf and horseback riding. On reaching certain high grades, the campers are elected into the camp clubs. Miss Little on her high grades, won membership into five clubs, but had to drop one group, as no camper is permitted to be a member of more than four clubs.

On last day of the camp, July 15, in recognition of her high standings and accomplishments, Miss Little was awarded the highest recognition of the Camp, when she was elected an M-Girl, being selected one of the 15 girls chosen out of an enrollment of 150, and presented with an "M," which it is the custom to wear on the camper's sweaters.

Miss Little also during her enrollment won second place in her journalism class on a short story, "The Blind Man and His Dog," written by her, which was published in the camp's paper, "The Mystic Murmurs."

She made highest grades in the Corrective Class, and was awarded a gold necklace.

Miss Little, an outstanding senior, president of the Pep Squad, Pep Squad Leader, and Secretary of the Student Council of the Littlefield High School. She also serves as news editor of the local school paper.

F. V. Williams, 60 Victim Car Wreck

Two South Plains residents are dead, and two seriously injured, in a highway accident six miles east of Spade on the new Tuco and Littlefield highway, about 7 p. m. Sunday.

Two cars, driving in opposite directions, met in a head-on collision shortly before sunset. Both machines were described as "total losses."

Mrs. Joe Walker, 2, lifelong resident of Cotton Center, was instantly killed in the collision. She suffered chest and chest injuries and broken limbs.

Her husband, 40, suffered jaw, head, chest and abdominal injuries. He was taken to Payne-Shotwell Hospital where he died at about 1 a. m. Monday. Both bodies were taken to Hammons Funeral Home.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Adkins, occupants of the second car who were seriously injured, were taken to the Payne-Shotwell Hospital where their condition was described at first as critical. However, physicians at the hospital report an improvement in their condition.

Mr. Adkins suffered a fractured collar bone, several ribs, and internal injuries. His wife sustained internal injuries, broken leg and foot and a fractured jaw.

Floyd V. Williams, 60, of Lubbock, died as a result of a head-on automobile collision between Clovis and Fort Sumner, about 9 p. m. Monday.

Mr. Williams, though a resident of Lubbock, has maintained an office for the sale of Watkins products on East Third street, Littlefield, for a number of years.

According to information from Clovis, the 1937 model sedan, Williams was driving and a 1939 model sedan from Fort Sumner were in collision about 30 miles west of Clovis. Williams died before he could be extricated from the wreckage of the car.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Spitz and two small children of Fort Sumner were not seriously injured in the accident and left a Fort Sumner hospital after treatment.

Mrs. Willene Thompson, 33, of Littlefield, entered Memorial hospital in Clovis for treatment of injuries received in the accident.

Funeral services for Mr. and Mrs. Walker were held at 8 p. m. Tuesday at Cotton Center Baptist Church, with the pastor of that church officiating, assisted by Rev. F. R. Allen of the Hale Center Baptist Church. Burial took place at Center Plains, four miles north of Cotton Center.

Tragic Message Written in Blood and Oil

Picture by Chisholm & Nail.

"WE DIED HERE." This grim message was scrawled in blood and oil on the highway where Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Walker met their deaths and Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Adkins were gravely injured. Photographed the morning after the accident occurred, the three words were a graphic reminder of the horror of highway accidents, which take a frightful toll of lives in the United States each year. How the words came to appear on the pavement is not known. Police report that Mrs. Walker died at the scene of the accident and that Mr. Walker died several hours later in a local hospital. Investigating officers declare that this message was not on the pavement when they investigated the accident on the night it occurred, and that neither of the death victims was in a condition following the accident to have written the message.

Then he established a tourist camp at Amherst. They have been good, useful, and upright Christian people in our town. They have a host of friends. We hate to see them move, but we wish for them better health and a long, happy life.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our most sincere and deepest appreciation for the beautiful floral offering, and the many kindnesses extended to us during our recent bereavement.

Our eternal gratitude will always be to the wonderful people of Littlefield, who, through their thoughtfulness made life happier for our beloved sister, and when the summons arrived from our blessed Saviour, your response with your unreserved time, contribution of food and your every care and blessing made this hour of distress a bit lighter to bear. May God's richest blessing rest upon you.

The Kelly and Winans Families

The Egyptians, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica, believed that the human spirit after death was capable of traveling on land but required assistance across the waters of the Nile. Thus, they buried with their dead a model boat called a "Spirit Ship" to assist the soul across the water.

Spade News

Captain L.E. Stubblefield visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stubblefield Saturday night. He was en route to California to get new plane. He was piloting a C-54 transport plane, which he left at Abilene while he visited his parents.

Capt. Stubblefield, "Kink" to the Spade folks, is stationed at Westover Field, Mass., and is still flying overseas. He returned to Abilene Sunday morning, and flew by his parents home about one o'clock Sunday afternoon, flying close enough to take pictures of his home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Wallace and son, Herbert, visited this week end with relatives and friends at Carey, Memphis, and Lakeview, Texas. The Wallace family formerly lived at Lakeview.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Roberts returned to their home this week end from Eagle Nest, N. M., where they have been for several weeks on account of Mrs. Roberts' health. They plan to go back soon.

The terrible wreck that occurred about three miles east of Spade Sunday evening in which at least 10 persons were killed, a Mr. and Mrs. Walker from Cotton Center, was a deed tragic. A feeling of gloom and sympathy for the victims seemed to have settled over this community.

For 200 years during the Middle Ages, the lower classes, practicing speaking, were not allowed to fight during a war. The one exception were townsmen who agreed to supply military units to the great lords in return for free charters. Most of the fighting was done by armed knights on horseback.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

- 1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.
- 2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Matching Jobs and Workers, TEC Aim

For every 100 workers placed on jobs in their own community, one is sent to a job in other localities, according to a report for the Texas Employment Commission. During the last seven months, 3,374 Texas workers have been hired in local offices of the agency for jobs in other parts of the state and nation.

"Employers have little hesitancy about placing job orders for skills which are not available in their local labor markets," the Commission said, "and present methods of job description and workers analysis have eliminated most of the guesswork in hiring practices. Today, when we get an order for a certain type of worker, our testing methods prove whether an applicant is qualified to hold that job. We have to know what we are doing when we refer a man or a woman across the state or country to a job."

"When the office is not able to fill an order for workers locally, this job is listed with all other offices throughout the state," Jordan said. "When employment cannot be found for workers, his job application is also placed on clearance order for consideration by all other TEC offices for work in his line."

To insure speed in filling these jobs, local TEC offices deal directly with each other in listing all jobs and presenting workers for employment, thereby cutting the time involved.

Jordan said this system of inter-office clearance has been operating in Texas for the past 18 months.

Matching jobs and workers locally is the primary aim of the Texas Employment Commission, Jordan said. However, when a worker's skill cannot be used in his home community, and other towns are short on workers it is to everyone's advantage to get them together.

Fair Premiums Are Increased

LUBBOCK, Texas, August 23, 1947—Prizes and premiums for the six-day 30th Annual Panhandle South Plains Fair, which opens Sept. 29 with a giant balloon parade, have been slightly increased, Fair officials announced recently.

The catalog and premium lists, just off the press, show most of the increase results from the addition of a rabbit division this year for the first time since 1934. Prizes in this division amount to approximately $400. The cattle divisions and the swine division carry cash awards of well over $1000 each.

County and community exhibits retain the gains they made last year in the premium list and will receive nearly $750. Premiums in the women's department are the same as last year, also. Nearly $500 will be awarded in the junior agriculture and livestock division.

School Boys Lead As Season Ends

The curtain rang down Wednesday night on the softball league after nearly four months of nip and tuck struggling between some pretty good ball teams. As the sports fans of Littlefield got ready to welcome cooler weather and football, here's the way the score finally stacked up:

The hard hitting High School team, sponsored by the W. O. W., wound up as league champions Tuesday night when they beat American Legion, 9-8.

In second place in the final league standings was American Legion.

Progress Reported in School Course

Since the inclusion of the Distributive Education Course in the curriculum of Littlefield High School, considerable progress in its establishment has been made, it was announced by Supt. Joe C. Hutchinson.

A program for Juniors and Seniors will be utilizing the facilities of the school and local business houses in close cooperation. Distributive Education helps to bridge the gap between school and work.

A survey of local stores and businesses by Mr. Hutchinson and E. F. Bingham, School Coordinator of the course, has indicated a widespread acceptance of the idea and of this type of training for boys and girls who wish to make their future work. The Retail Merchants Association has endorsed it.

Present requests for trainees in Distributive Education are from such places as jewelry stores, grocery stores, photo studios, drug stores, auto and junior department stores, lumber companies and major finance outlets.

According to Mr. Bingham, the program now concentrating the successful establishment of this program has been the apparent lack of interest by students who are eligible to participate in it. A considerable

Child Accidentally Shot In Stomach

Jimmy Green, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leta Mae Green of Littlefield, was accidentally shot in the stomach Monday afternoon of last week when he and a companion, James Royal, also aged 8, were playing with a gun at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Royal.

According to reports, the gun had been borrowed by a brother of Mrs. Royal, and the children did not know it was loaded.

The child was taken to the Littlefield Hospital where he underwent an operation. It was necessary to remove his gall bladder and part of the liver.

He was reported Saturday to be getting along nicely.

RETURN HOME

Mrs. Phil Adkins and grand-daughter, Joy Ann, returned home last week from Long Beach, Calif., from a two months visit at Long Beach. They went by train to Lubbock and were met there by Mr. Adkins, who accompanied them to Littlefield.

Enroute home they visited her aunt, Mrs. Jessie Howard, and two cousins, Mrs. Keith Barnes and Mrs. H. L. Murphy at Phoenix, Ariz.

Mr., Mrs. R. L. May Have Visitors

Columnist Lynn Landrum, of the Dallas News staff, and Mrs. Landrum left yesterday after a two-day visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. May of Amherst. Also here for a visit was Mrs. D. W. May who makes her home in Dallas. Mrs. Landrum is Mrs. May's sister.

Landrum's son, Graham, has been working on Mr. May's farm most of the summer. He left with his parents to return to the University of Texas where he is working on his master's degree.

An artist, young Landrum has completed several oil paintings and a number of canyon landscape sketches of the farm. In his spare time he studies the Russian language and has already made considerable progress in the subject. During the war, Landrum served in the navy.

Mrs. Adkins was called to Long Beach due to the sudden death of her brother, J. D. Wynn, who was electrocuted. His funeral was held in July, Joy Ann was also sick while there; and later Mrs. Adkins, when bathing, had a mishap, and fractured two ribs. They returned home as soon as they were both able to travel.

Stop, Look, and Listen!

School Started Monday. Last year a large percentage of children in the State of Texas, who waved "Goodbye" to their mothers, and started to school, never came home. They were victims of that demon "Traffic Accident". Let's each one in Littlefield strive to make school traffic safe for our children. Let's drive slowly, carefully and safely. Let's teach our children the rules of safety a pedestrian should follow. Let's teach them the best route to walk to school, to cross at intersections only! To stop, look and listen before they cross the street.

And remember, your slow and careful driving may save a child's life!

Kidneys Must Work Well-

For You To Feel Well

24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood. If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling.

Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulate the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.

One day about 10 years ago, a marvelous thing happened! A man we know found ONE STALK of growing sorghum in his drouth ridden field.

Seed carefully nurtured from that same stalk today is found in hundreds of profitable sorghum fields in the area we serve.

Highway Construction Needs Acceleration

"The tremendous increase in traffic that faces us these postwar days makes a speeding up of our highway construction program an urgent national need," J. T. Callaway, president of the American Road Builders' Association, told a highway conference recently.

Mr. Callaway described as crucial the need to modernize the highway.

"It is crucial because of the growing problem of highway accidents produced by increasing use of decreasingly efficient roads—roads which in large part are a casualty of the war.

"The problem of traffic congestion, already a headache, looms even larger in the future," he said. "The automotive industry predicts that 30 million passenger cars will be on the highways by 1951, and that within a few years, the number of motor vehicle registrations may rise to 50 million.

"With the nation depending more and more upon our roads for goods and services, and for transportation, highways must be made safe and adequate for an unprecedented volume of travel."

In view of the tremendous backlog of highway needs, a high level of construction must be reached as rapidly as possible, the ARBA president pointed out. Some 100,000 miles of state and federal roads need replacement.

The construction of 30,000 to 40,000 mile interstate highway system which will handle more than 20 per cent of the nation's traffic, improvement of farm-to-market roads, and construction of new roads and streets to provide adequate capacity for efficient movement of vehicles are pressing highway needs.

The price of deferring replacement is shown in a rising highway maintenance bill, he stated. "Better built highways will mean lowered maintenance costs," he added.

"Our minimum post-war needs will require expenditure of $2,250,000,000 on road and street construction annually," Mr. Callaway said. "Meeting our critical highway needs calls for bold planning and the best in engineering effort. Increased safety and maximum efficiency must be our goals if our highway system is to meet the steadily increasing demands of motor transportation.

BULL LAKE PHILOSOPHER SAYS HE'S IN SAME TROUBLE ENGLAND IS IN NOW... DOLLAR SHORTAGE

Editor's note: The Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Bull Lake in his letter this week says he can't get alarmed over England's present plight, but we don't have too much faith in his international opinions. They're too much like his local opinions.

P. S. The Philosopher likes for letters to be printed on the editorial page; thinks that's where his "weighty" opinions belong, so this editor can expect a big gripe out of him along about Saturday.

Dear editor:
I went down to my neighbor's mail box Monday mornin and with the fat Sunday papers stuck in his box along with his Monday papers and assorted mail the box had about all it could hold and I figured I might as well be neighborly so I took out one of his newspapers to relieve the strain and doubt if he'll miss it which won't matter no way much as he was gone to town after a load of hands and didn't have no chance of seein who done it and I will return it this afternoon and it will be back in his box Tuesday mornin and since the mail carrier is gonna get a little cussin now and then anyway for something he don't deserve he might as well get blamed for misplacin this particular paper as anybody else, and since I didn't have to go to town myself after hands anymore than I'd have to go after a parachute I went on down to the lake and sat down in the shade and read.

I was surprised to find out England is still havin trouble, but this time I just can't take the matter seriously.

Accordin to the paper, England is now sufferin from a dollar shortage and is sendin big shots back and forth across the ocean to confer with Washington about the matter.

Now I don't want to push myself forward, as life out here on Bull Lake suits me, and I don't want to be braggin, but I believe I have had as much experience as anybody in the world when it comes to England's present trouble, dollar shortage. There ain't been a time in my recollection when I wasn't experiencing this trouble in one shape or another. It's a funny thing, it don't seem to make any difference whether times is good or bad, busted or boomin, I still stay afflicted with this trouble, although I ain't never considered it something to fly back and forth across the ocean about, but I want you to know I'm watchin them Washington conferences pretty close and if England talks Washington into helpin her overcome her dollar shortage, I'll headin for Washington myself.

But I got a idea whatever solution Washington figures out, most Englishmen is still gonna have dollar trouble, the same as most Frenchmen, Italians and Canadians and Americans, includin you and me. It ain't nothin to get alarmed about. It ain't nothin new. We all got it. Why I have been told it'd surprise you how many bankers gets overdrawn themselves occasionally. If everybody in the world suffer from dollar trouble heads for Washington at the same time, the place is liable to cave in.

Yours faithfully
J. A.

BALES OF A FEATHER
Flock Together!

Spinning mills require cotton in lots of 100 bales of the same grade and staple.

Since bales from the same farm — even grown in the same field — often are not of the same grade and staple, it is necessary that they be sorted and grouped before marketing.

Providing the necessary concentration point where "bales of a feather" are brought together is one of the essential services your cotton warehouse contributes to the orderly and economical marketing of America's major agricultural crop.

Miss Zimmer is the daughter of Thomas Zimmer of Washington State and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dow of Littlefield.

After a brief honeymoon, Mrs. Dow returned to Long Beach where she is employed by the Air Forces and Sgt. Dow left for Seattle, Washington, where he is enroute to Ft. Richardson, Anchorage, Alaska. The couple plan to make their home in Anchorage as soon as facilities permit.

Announce Introduction of Improved Line Of Light and Medium Duty GMC Truck

GMC Truck and Coach Division recently announced the introduction of an improved line of light and medium duty trucks with an entirely new and bigger cab. Prices on these new FC models, ranging from 4,600 to 18,000 pounds gross vehicle weight, are from $55 to $162 higher than comparable models in the old line, according to M. D. Dougals, general manager.

Price adjustments on the heavier line of trucks, above 18,000 pounds gross vehicle weight, have also been announced with upward adjustments ranging from $17 to $92.

All price adjustments cover standard base chassis and cabs.

Douglas stated that in addition to the increases made as the result of improvements and refinements in the new line of trucks, adjustments were necessary due to the rising costs of material and labor. Contributing to these higher costs were the wage and salary increases made by this division in April 1947, the recent substantial increases in the price of steel and other materials, as well as for parts and components furnished by other suppliers.

New Wheat Varieties Becoming Popular

According to a recent survey by the Kansas State Board of Agriculture and the Production and Marketing Administration, the following variety recommendations were made for that State: desirable varieties—Pawnee, Commanche, Wichita and Tenmarq; less desirable varieties—Early Blackhull; undesirable—Red Chief and Chiefkan.

The report reveals three new wheat varieties—Pawnee, Commanche, and Wichita now occupy 40 percent of the seeded acreage in Kansas. The rapid switch to these varieties has occurred in the last three crop seasons, as they were not recorded in the 1941 survey.

Turkey has slowly given way to the new and improved varieties derived largely from the Turkey blood lines. In 1919, Turkey occupied 83 percent of Kansas seeded acreage, but today is only 3 percent of the total acreage. Tenmarq declined from 36.8 percent in 1944 to 16.9 percent in 1947.

The acreage of Red Chief and Chiefkan has declined to 10.1 percent in the state. It has been replaced by Pawnee and Commanche in the area just west of the Flint Hills, but is still grown to some extent in the central west and southwest.

One of the outstanding facts shown by the survey is the rapidity with which the varieties in an area can change. The rapid switch to Pawnee, Commanche, and Wichita were made possible by a large number of certified seed growers and the effective work of the Kansas Crop Improvement Association.

Wheat Poisoning To Receive Study

LUBBOCK—Texas Technological College and Texas A and M College this winter will launch a long-range cooperative research program to determine causes of cattle deaths resulting from grazing winter wheat, conducting experiments on 8500 acres of land at the Pantex Ordnance plant near Amarillo.

Pres. W. M. Whyburn of Texas Tech has signed a use permit from the War Assets Administration authorizing the college to use the land for seven years upon payment of one dollar to WAA. Buildings, including laboratories, are now on the acreage, and their use is included in the permit.

Tech Dean of Agriculture W. L. Stangel, in his capacity of director of farms, will be in general charge

LEADER HEARS FROM MRS. NINA WHICKER

The many friends of Mrs. Nina Whicker, and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas of Ambler, Pa., will be glad to learn that they are all well.

The Leader received the following short letter from Mrs. Whicker, enclosing check for renewal of the Leader:

"We enjoy reading your paper. As the year will be up in a few days; Ruth is sending you her check. Thought I would just say Hello along with it. We are all well, having quite cool weather for so late in the summer. Tommy takes his vacation sometime this month. Do not know whether he will 'head' for Texas or where as yet.

"With kindest regards to you both Sincerely,

Mrs. Nina Whicker."

Mrs. Max Wood returned recently from a six weeks' trip to Mexico City, where she was the guest of Senora Nona Linton de Aguilar, a friend with whom she attended St. Mary's College, Notre Dame, South Bend, Ind. She reports a very enjoyable visit.

of Tech's operations there. The college hope to develop grazing practices that will eliminate livestock losses during periods of grazing on winter wheat and other lush pasturage following study of the nature of physiological disturbances resulting in animal death.

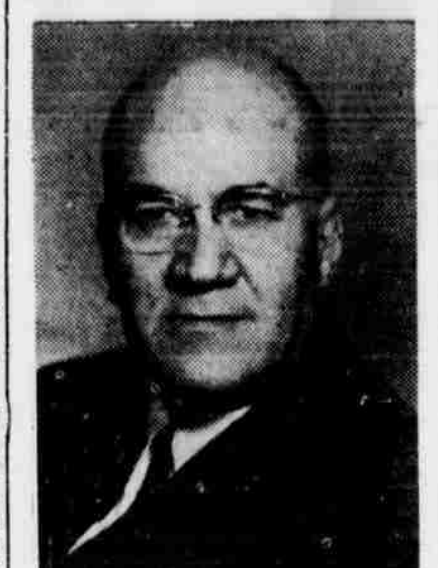

Complete details of the proposed program have not been worked out, but it has been agreed that A and M will provide personnel and laboratory equipment and that Tech will supervise growing of wheat and make arrangements for cattle to be provided as needed in the study. A number of livestock owners in the region have agreed to cooperate with the college in making cattle available.

The federal government invested approximately $35,000,000 in the wartime ordnance plant. Slightly more than half of it has been turned over to the schools for this research.

EARTH SHIFTING THREATENS TOWN . . . Two hardy members of the opposite sex, residents of Welch, W. Va., brave a stroll on the buckled streets of the town after sections of the little city started to sag alarmingly because of a mysterious shifting of the earth. Huge cracks appeared in several large buildings, and inhabitants were fearful that their homes would be destroyed.
