May this tournament and your visit with us be a gay and happy one and your impression of our city and its people be one of which we may be proud. The city is yours the entire time of your visit.

I want to take this opportunity, as a representative of our citizenship to express to you our appreciation and thanks for having selected our city as your meeting place and we extend to you one and all a most hearty welcome.

Mayor L. R. Crockett officially opened the South Plains District Softball Tournament last night when he tossed the first pitched ball of the second game to Joe Hale, secretary of the local chamber of commerce.

It was a gala opening with speeches and all of the trimmings. The winning team of the four day meet will receive $100 for expenses to the state meet which opens in Ft. Worth, September 4 and extends through September 7.

LEADER JOINS ALL LITTLEFIELD IN WELCOMING SOFTBALL PLAYERS, FANS

Texas Guns

by L. P. HOLMES

TENTH INSTALLMENT

"Plenty," answered Johnny succinctly. "Had a run in with Montant Wade an' a Jasper called Spike back at Jack Butterfield's. They come bustin' in loud-mouthed an' boss like an' told Jake that Spelle wanted all the .30-30 cartridges he had in the joint. Addin' that crack to the one Pink heard them dry-gulchers made last night about rushin' the ranch here an' cleanin' up the whole shebang. I figgered mebbe it'd be a pretty good idea to corral that ammunition ourselves. So I sorta argued 'em outa it an' brought it along."

"Oh—yuh did, huh?" rumbled Delevan peering intensely at Johnny. "Yuh musta done some damn fast talkin'."

"Toilable—tolable," nodded Johnny. "I don't allus stutter when I got somethin' real important to say."

"He-rumph!" Delevan cleared his throat again. "Yuh never out-argued Montana Wade without killin' him. I know that Jasper too well."

"Did I say I didn't kill him?" asked Johnny innocently.

At this statement a squeak of joy broke from Pink Crosby and he leaped upon Johnny to belabor him joyfully on the back.

"Oh dange youre miserable hide," chortled Pink. "Johnny, if yuh elicked off that danged snake-in-the-grass I love you like a brother."

"Couldn't help it," remarked Johnny soberly. "He went fer his hawk-lag first. An' then this Spike hombre was backin' his play. He got out o' it lucky. I jest smashed his shoulder. I reckon that even the count fer wou an' Pod, Pink."

"I'll tell a man is does," declared Pink fervently. "Wait 'till ole Pod hears o' this. He'll get well over night."

"Hope so. By the way—mebbe we better bring Pod up to the house here. I got a hunch we're due for a visit from Spelle an' his crowd. An' say, Jim, accordin' to Jake Butterfield ole Spelle offered him five hundred dollars if he'd refuse to sell yuh any more supplies."

"Damn him!" rasped Delevan. "An' what did Jake tell him?"

"Told him to go jump in the lake."

"Good fer Jake. I won't forget that. Dunno but what yuh're right about bringin' Pod up to the house. Can he be moved, Doc?"

"Aye," nodded McMurdo. "If it is necessary."

"Looks like it's damn necessary. Johnny, yuh an' Pink go down with Doc an' fix up a stretcher outa blankets. I'll have Chang git a bed in shape. An' bring all the shootin' irons around the bunkhouse with yuh. If Spelle wants a argument hes shore due to git it."

Twenty minutes later Pod Fortune, still unconscious, was safely reposing in the ranchhouse. Johnny had prevailed on Jim Delevan to abandon his beloved porch corner and have his chair wheeled inside. Now that grim old warrior was sitting at the edge of a front window, a loaded Winchester across his knees and an open box of ammunition at his elbow. Pink Crosby, similarly armed, patrolled the rear windows, which looked out on the slope of the plateau, while Doc McMurdo, who had gruffly announced his intention of seeing it through with his friends, sat in the same room with Delevan, glaring lourly at the gulf of the desert. For himself Johnny was in the kitchen devouring the meal Ronny had prepared for him.

He was doing his best to keep Ronny from suspecting the true state of affairs, but she, with her cleverness and intuition, would not mad—must be. We've licked him at every turn o' the trail. He's gettin' desperate. On the face o' things it looks like he's goin' to bust wide open by tryin' to clean up on all of us. I figger he's goin' to attack this ranch. So does yore dad. We're jest gettin' ready fer him, that's all."

"But-but the law," argued Ronny. "What will the law say?"

"I dunno. Me—I ain't figgerin' on the law to help us out o' the mud. An' Spelle don't give a cuss fer the law. It's pretty generally understood right now that he was in back o' that bank hold-up. To everybody what ain't prejudiced it shore looks that way. An' the law ain't said boo to him about it."

"But—but, somebody will be killed," wailed Ronny.

"I reckon," said Johnny slowly. "Le's hope it won't be anybody in this house. An' when it does start—an' if it does—I want you to get out o' the way o' lead. They's a cellar at the house ain't they?"

Ronny stiffened and her little chin went out. "Johnny Clehoe, if you think I'm going to skulk in the cellar while the rest of you fight, you're mistaken. I can't shoot very well but I know how to load the extra guns. Indeed I won't hide out."

"Aw golly," argued Johnny desperately. "Please Ronny—please. If yuh don't I amble right out in the open with the first shot."

"If you do—I amble with you,"

Many a Friend Recommends BLACK-DRAUGHT

People who have taken Black-Draught naturally are enthusiastic about it because of the refreshing relief it has brought them. No wonder they urge others to try it! Mrs. Joe G. Roberts, of Portersville, Ala., writes: "A friend recommended Black-Draught to me a long time ago, and it has proved its worth to me. Black-Draught is good for constipation. I find that taking Black-Draught prevents the bilious headaches which I used to have." A purely vegetable medicine for relief of CONSTITUTION, BILIOUSNESS said Ronny defiantly. "So there." In the end she had her way, and because of his worry for her Johnny prowled morosely about the house for the rest of the afternoon that seemed interminable. Just as the last rays of the sun were flickering through the window Doc McMurdo stood up with a snort.

"I na believe that mon Spelle will come," he rumbled. "I'm off for yon town."

By this time even Johnny began to doubt the soundness of his theory and he offered no argument to the contrary with the old Scotchman. "Sorry to have kept yuh this long, Doc, he drawled. "Come on, I'll go down an' thrown youre hull on yore brone for yuh."

The doughty Doctor lingered for a moment to give Ronny some last instruction about the care of Pod Fortune so Johnny strolled corralwards by himself. He led out the doctor's horse and tossed the saddle blanket in place. He smoothed it deftly with one hand reached for the saddle with the other. At that moment a single rifle shot crashed out, coming from the fringe of underbrush at the edge of the clearing to the north. Came the spat of speeding lead heeting flesh and the luckless bronco went down in a heap at Johnny's feet. The slight leaning twist Johnny had given as he reach-

CHURCHES

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. Willis J. Ray, Pastor.
"Selling God for Sodom" or "Living Like Lot" will be the subject for the message at the first Baptist Church next Sunday morning according to the pastor, Willis J. Ray. The evening theme will be "The Detestable Destruction of Disobedience." The message Sunday morning will have to deal with false teachers, showing the punishment of them and their followers; from which the godly shall be delivered but the unjust to the day of Judgment to be punished. We are living in a day that it is easy to sell God for the things of Sodom says Rev. Ray. Just look at your own life and see if God has a place or has been sold out.

Increase In Attendance at First Baptist

There was a decided increase in attendance at all the services last Sunday over a week ago. The Sunday School attendance increased from 173 to 209. The Supt. Lon Smith and the pastor are expecting 225 next Sunday. The B. T. U. increased from 71 to 78. Not as great an increase as it should have been but Mr. M. E. Heathman feels confident that with the coming of the cooler evenings that the B. T. U. will make a decided increase.

The pastor set some goals for the church to work toward last Sunday and every member of the church as well as friends expressed their interest and cooperation in reaching the goals which present a challenge and a worthy effort in behalf of the Master's kingdom work. The goal for the Sunday School is an average attendance of 300 by Jan. 1st, with a record attendance of 400 present. The B. T. U. goal is 150 in average attendance with a record attendance of 200. One hundred present at the mid-week prayer services and 100 additions to the fellowship of the church by Jan. 1st. Some might say that this is impossible but we refer them to Mr. Luke who says that with God all things are possible and we certainly do not intend to leave God out of his own program. There have been 18 additions to the church the past two Sundays and the pastor expects this number to reach 25 before this month shall come to a close. Remember the Lord's day to keep it holy and take time to worship God, it pays big dividends.

John Witt Hendrix, Pastor
Church school comes in at 9:45 a. m. and signs off 10:50 a. m. The Church school offers its services among the first visitors in the birth chamber—the Cradle Roll Superintendent, and in follows on thru life—every stage of growth and age.

Public worship comes on twice, viz. 11 a. m. and 8:15 p. m. If you come to worship you will find a group of earnest, friendly people. The program will interest you—good music and warm hearted sermon.

Subject of the morning hour "SORTIN' OUR IMPOSSIBLES," and at the evening hour, "THAT PORE FISH." We had a visitor with us last Sunday evening and we put of the sermon about this fish. Are you a good fish story teller? Will any man stick to the truth in a fish story? Are you good in collecting such? The pastor will try his hand—truthfully, of course! next Sunday evening. Fish stories galore!

Young people will meet in a worship period—7:45 p. m. That is, the session will start at that moment, please.

We have ventilated the roof of the church and find it has cooled the auditorium greatly.

Protracted Meeting To Be Held At Church of Christ

A protracted meeting is being conducted at the Church of Christ, 9th Street and Park Avenue. Services each morning at 10:00 o'clock, and evening at 8:15. The evening services are outside in the open air.

CHANGE OF PRECINCT LINES PLACES LITTLEFIELD IN PRECINCT NO. 3

Acting on a petition from Sudan residents, the County Commissioners court Monday voted to divide the county into four precincts of equal size.

The vote does not change the number of precincts, but it does make changes in the boundaries, particularly in the matter of Precinct No. 4 and No. 3.

The matter has been before the court on several previous occasions. The petition was presented at a meeting previous to last Monday, but a motion to redistrict the county did not receive a second.

At last Monday's meeting C. A. Daniels, commissioner of Precinct No. 2, moved that the petition be approved. R. D. (Don) Bryant, commissioner of Precinct No. 1, seconded the motion. R. L. Gattis, commissioner of Precinct No. 3 voted in favor of the motion. Ellis Foust, commissioner of Precinct No. 4, stated that he had always fought the redistricting, but that in view of the fact that he was outvoted, he was making the vote of the court for redistricting unanimous.

The vote places Littlefield in Precinct No. 3 in place of Precinct No. 4.

Former Precinct No. 4 extended from about one-half mile east of Littlefield to the Bailey county line, taking in Amherst and part of Sudan. Under the redistricting Precinct No. 4 extends from about one half mile west of Littlefield city limits to the Bailey county line and takes in Amherst and all of Sudan. The north line of new Precinct No. 4 is affected very little, except that it will be about one-half to one mile north of Sudan. Previous to redistricting part of Sudan was in Precinct No. 4 and part in Precinct No. 2.

With the exception of Precinct No. 3 there will not be notable changes in the boundaries, except in that all of Sudan will be in Precinct No. 4.

First Southwestern Patrol Conference Has Been Called

Austin, August 25.—The eyes of the nation have been turned on Texas and Governor James V. Allred's novel experiment in setting up volunteer county parole boards to handle paroled convicts, it was declared by W. W. Halcomb of the State Department, in charge of detail work in handling the county boards.

As a result of this interest Gov. Allred, at the insistence of national leaders, has called the First Southwestern States Parole Conference which will be held in Galveston, September 2nd and 3rd. Model state laws governing parole as well as interstate supervision and uniform procedures for release of men from penal institutions will be discussed thoroughly. The theme of the conference will be: "Breaking the Vicious Circle of Crime." It is expected that as a result of the conference the delegates will be in a position to suggest helpful legislation in their respective states.

Five Governors, other than Governor Allred, have either expressed their intentions of attending or sending representatives. These are the Governors of Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona. Prison and parole officials and Attorneys General of the participating

Lawn Party Commemorating Star Founder And Honoring Mrs. Sellers Thursday Night

One of the most entertaining parties of this season was the farewell picnic and lawn party given Thursday evening by the local Chapter of Eastern Star, with Mrs. H. W. Wiseman, hostess, on the beautiful lawn at the Wiseman home.

Mrs. E. C. Sellers, Worthy Matron of the Chapter who is leaving shortly to make her home in Birmingham, Ala., was the honor guest of the occasion.

The occasion was also in commemoration of Robert Morris, founder of the Eastern Star.

Mrs. W. D. T. Storey, Associate Conductress of the local Eastern Star Chapter, was in charge of the very unique and entertaining program, which created much merriment during the evening.

The program was started by the singing of the A. B. C's to the tune of America.

S. J. Farquhar gave a very instructive talk on the origin of the Eastern Star and Robert Morris' life which was followed by a play, "Milk and Toast," in which Mrs. Quinton Bellomy, Mrs. Oscar Wilmon, Mrs. J. D. Dodgen, and Mrs. Willie Rumback were the members of the cast.

Mrs. Vernie Wright gave a very interesting talk on "Eastern Star and what it means to me" saying "it is the very essence of selflessness." She also extended farewell good wishes to Mrs. Sellers.

Mrs. T. S. Sales gave a historical sketch of the local Chapter and Mrs. Sellers' service as a member and officer, stating that she had been connected with the Littlefield Chapter since it was organized.

A debate on the question as to whether or not Mrs. Sellers ought to remain in Littlefield was very enthusiastically carried out by Mrs. J. D. Dodgen and Mrs. Quinton Bellomy for the affirmative and Mrs. Willie Rumback and Mrs. Oscar Wilmon for the negative. The Judges, Mr. Farquhar, Mrs. Pat Boone and Mrs. G. M. Shaw, "decided they could not decide."

Beautiful gifts were presented Mrs. Sellers by Mrs. J. G. Singer, for the elective officers, and by Mrs. W. J. Aldridge from the appointive officers, both of whom made very appropriate talks.

Those attending this social function were: Mesdames J. G. Singer, Arbie Joplin, Quinton Bellomy, W. J. Aldridge, J. D. Dodgen, Oscar Wilmon, Willie Rumback, E. M. Davis, Vernie Wright, Geo. Staggers, Pat Boone, J. R. Coen, Morley B. Drake, and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sellers and son, E. C., Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. T. Storey and son, David; Mr. and

The sweet little round yoke is finished with the blue ribbon and tied in wee bows at each side. The sleeves could not be otherwise than puffed and the gathered dress is completed by the contrasting rows of ribbon or braid at the hemline.

Texas Guns—

ed for saddle had saved his life, and the bullet, which otherwise would have torn through the center of his chest, struck the horse at the angle of one jaw and ranged upward through the animal's brain.

Like a flash Johnny whirled and went racing for the ranchhouse. It was far closer to the bunkhouse but even if he did reach it in safety he would swiftly be cut off from the rest of the ranch defenders to be eventually wiped out ignominiously. All this went through his mind as he ran, and though he knew his chances of ever reaching the ranchhouse alive were slim indeed, he did not falter. Instead he drew his gun as he ran and threw shot after shot at the treacherous undergrowth.

The answering fire was murderous. Bullets whistled at his ears and plucked at his clothes. His hat was whisked from his head. Something seared across his left thigh. Once he lurched and went headlong, but with Ronny's despairing scream echoing in his ears he was up and on again. The porch was close now, beckoning him on. He tried to fire again but the hammer of his Colt snicked futilely. The gun was empty.

And now a crushing figure leaped clear of the underbrush and sank to one knee, sighting steadily along the barrel of a Winchester at Johnny's bobbing shoulders. Inside the big living room a virulent oath fell from old Jim Delevan's lips and the rifle which had rested across his knees leaped to his shoulder and spat fire. The crouching figure at the edge of the brush stiffened and rolled over, while the bullet that had been meant for Johnny ripped harmlessly into the ranchhouse roof.

Johnny took the porch steps in two long leaps and burst through to the sanctuary of the house. Ronny had her arms about him immediately.

"Johnny—Johnny," she whispered brokenly. "I thought they had killed you."

Johnny patted her head. "Thought so m'self for a minute," he panted. "The dang bush-whackers shot the heel plumb o'n my left boot. Wow! That was shore some hot sprint. Now brace up, honey. We got work to do."

Johnny limped into the big room, punching empty shells from his .45. He caught up a handful of fat, yellow shells from a heap on the table and dropped them through the loading gate, clicking the cylinder around his thumb.

"If yu ain't a fool for luck," rumbled Jim Delevan, "What yuh limpin' about?"

"Lost a heel o' my boot," grinned Johnny. "Got a flat wheel on the left side. I reckon I owe yuh one, Jim."

"Huh. Fergit it. I may be glued to this dang chair, but I ain't fergot how to look down a Winchester. Hell, there goes another prize of glass. An' that stuff costs like blazes in this neck o' the woods."

"Let 'em havethair fun. Good thing yuh built this ole house outa logs instead o' sawed lumber. The soft-point slugs theyre usin' ain't gettin' through worth a cent. The shootin' will slow up pretty quick I reckon. They can't have any holi of a lot o' shells, seein' as I beat 'em to Jake Butterfield's stock."

True to Johnny's prediction the burst of fire which had followed him to the house and had grown to a vertible fusillade when Delevan had picked off the reckless marksmen who had been determined to get Johnny, gradually faded to a few desultory shots: To Jim Delevan's profane disgust there was hardly a sound pane of glass left in the windows. After the first abortive attack on Johnny, Spelle's men had pretty near circled the house.

the hammer on his Winchester. Then he crouched at one corner of a window and watched the bunkhouse with unblinking eyes. A slow minute ticked past before the big gun thundered again. This time the slug tore through not a foot from Delevan's head to carry on and hopelessly wreck a framed Remington picture on the inner wall. And the billow of smoke seemed to spring from the ridge pole of the bunkhouse.

Classified Ad Locates Lost Pig

Clyde Weatherly says: "It pays to advertise."
A black Poland China pig strayed from his home on West 9th Street about two weeks ago. He inserted a small classified ad in the Leader the following Thursday, and two days later, Mr. Meadows called in at Mr. Weatherly's meat department in Houk's Grocery, and advised the owner that his pig was at his place.
Mr. Weatherly, in commenting on the value of the small ad in finding the strayed pig, said to the publisher of the Leader: "If I keep that pig long enough to butcher it I will give you a mess of spare ribs."

R. E. McCaskil Has Charge of Rotary Program Thursday
R. E. McCaskil had charge of the very entertaining program of last Thursday's Rotary Club's luncheon meeting.
Little Miss Bernetta Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris of Sudan, formerly of Lubbock, in a velvet costume sang "Goody Goody," which was followed by a second song directed to T. Wade Potter, "Why Don't You Practice What You Preach," after which Master Ronald Cress of Sweetwater in a red and white costume gave a piano number. Miss Morris dressed in a blue costume, favored the club with another song, "Beautiful Lady in Blue."
Following another piano number by Ronald, Miss Morris in a red and white Indian costume, and seated on the floor, concluded the program by giving a beautiful rendition of the Indian Love Call.
It was a rare treat to those who heard Miss Morris, for she is unusually talented, and demure Ronald's playing was a complement to a well rendered program.

U. S. Serves Notice American Property Must Be Protected

The Spanish government has been served formal notice by the United States that it will be held strictly accountable for the protection of American property in that country.

Disturbed over the potential menace to America's $70,000,000 investment in that country, the State department disclosed it had dispatched a note to Madrid inquiring the aid of Spanish authorities in safeguarding American property and warning that compensation must be paid for any damages.

as well as anxiety lest other American properties share a similar fate, impelled the State department to make its formal representations. Although no official explanation was forthcoming, it was learned on trustworthy authority that one of the factors prompting the move was the recent publication in Madrid of press reports interpreted as being fraught with grave consequences for the future of private property in the Spanish republic.

Britain Withholds Support From Those Furnishing Arms

The British Government have announced it will withhold support from any British subjects furnishing arms or munitions to either faction in the Spanish revolution, thus reaffirming the neutrality of His Majesty's Government. This decision, announced in a Foreign office communique admonishing Britons to abstain from trafficking war supplies to Spain, was believed to have been taken in an effort to avert possible reversal of France's policy of neutrality.

OIL-PLATING IS

Oil-Plating is exactly what is formed in your engine by Conoco Germ Processed oil. The Conoco Germ Process scientifically combines a most carefully refined mineral oil with an extra, exclusive "concentrated oily essence" - fully guarded by patents. And this invention enables your Conoco Germ Processed oil to combine with all engine parts so that they become literally Oil-Plated. Oil-Plating does not depend on constant pumping up, because it does not rapidly drain down, but stays put - fixed - Plated. You can see that this firmly fixed, slippery Oil-Plating leaves no un-oiled bare spots in your engine. And that leaves least chance of wear . . . And the less wear, the more oil you save . . . ADVISES USE OF BLUEGRASS STRIPPER TO HARVEST GRAMA

Trials in Nebraska show that it is practical to use bluegrass seed strippers to harvest blue grama seed. Circular 4621-C just issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture shows that harvesting costs are reasonable. This is good news, because the blue grama is recognized as a desirable native grass for checking erosion and for reseeding ranges in the short grass country. Until these tests, the agronomists could not recommend blue grama seedlings because there was hardly any seed on the market.

BIG FREE ENTERTAINMENT

IN FRONT OF DAVE HICKS TIRE STORE STAR DEALER

11 A. M. and 8 P. M. FRIDAY, AUGUST 28

The Star Tires entertainment and educational truck will be in Littlefield and territory Friday, August 28. You are especially and cordially invited to the two special programs in front of our store . . . 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Enjoy the program and go through the truck. You will learn why more and more cars and truck owners are using Stars. Dalton Bruce will be the entertainer and Dallas Hollimon will tell you about the manufacture of Star Tires.

A SPECIAL MESSAGE

This truck display is presented to better acquaint you with the different tread designs, extra size and superior quality of Star Tires. Star Tires have increased in popularity faster in the last several years than any tire built. Hicks Star tires were first manufactured in 1929 and they were then only sold in a few places in the State of Texas. Since that time, Stars have made the most phenomenal strides of any tire in the industry, to where Stars are now nationally known and universally accepted as the finest tires.

This increase in popularity is due to the remarkable service delivered by every Star Tire . . . and backed by the most satisfactory written guarantee ever placed on any tire. This guarantee assures the user satisfactory service up to 18 months, not only against wear but any injury or accident that might happen to the tire during that time. This phenomenal guarantee is possible due to the fact that Stars are stronger and heavier and built of finer materials.

DAVE HICKS

STAR DEALER LITTLEFIELD

THANK YOU

The Littlefield Star tire store was established just one year ago. Knowing the superior quality of Stars, car and truck owners immediately extended the Littlefield store liberal patronage. Our business has enjoyed a steady growth and on the occasion of our first anniversary in Littlefield, we wish to extend our special appreciation for the liberal patronage extended us.

Sincerely,
DAVE HICKS.

LITTLEFIELD P&E WINS '36 CITY SOFTBALL CROWN

WATSON'S CLUBS FAIL IN PINCH AS P&E WIN TWO

Scott Hurls Double Win Over Weaver For Championship

The Littlefield Poultry and Egg crowned themselves City League Softball champions for 1936 Thursday night when they jumped on the Watson Producers, first half winners for a double victory, 9-4 and 6-1, in their scheduled three game playoff.

Scott, ace P&E hurler, kept the Watson team in check when hits meant runs in the early stages of both games to cap both ends of the twin-bill. He let Pop Watson's crew down with seven blows in the initial game and then returned to pitch three hit ball in the mid-night aftermath.

P&E Start Early

The P&E's didn't waste any time in getting their hits. Leroy Fisher, lead off, poked a single. The next two batters went out, but a double by Price, a single by Tremain, and two Producers errors, sent four men across the plate before the side was retired.

The P&E's scored three runs in their half of the first and three more in the third. More Producers errors helped the P&E's in the pinches, even though Weaver was more effective in the nightcap. The Producers twirler set the champs aside with four base hits.

Score by Innings:

Watson,	110	001	1-4 7 8
P&E	421	002	x-9 8 2
Second Game:
Watson	010	000	0-1 3 4
P&E	303	000	x-6 4 2

Batteries: Weaver and Moore; Scott and Wilson.

AROUND THESE PARTS

By Bob Cannon

There's no use giving you a vivid description of the tournament. You've seen for yourself that plenty of fast softball will be played before the glimmers are turned off Saturday night.

The Kinney-Dickens team that played the Wildcats last night was the combined forces of Dickens and Spur's Kinney Undertakers. The Undertakers were in a tough situation at the drawing in Lubbock Friday night. Two of their players were recent grooms and a couple more player's wives had insisted that they take a vacation.

Dickens was in the same position, only none of their players were just married or going to be. So with the agreement of the commissioner and the team manager's present, the Dickens and Kinney teams combined forces.

With Sudan, Olton, Levelland, Lubbock, Post and this city going in for softball, an inter-city league in this section of the state might make expenses. It's an idea any way!

The rivalry brewing between the two local entries prior to the tournament has helped interest. But the second team, as some call them, had the all-Stars going during their practice series. The Wildcats won three and lost two for the local all-State tilts. It put some folks to thinking and wondering if the Wildcats should have been named All-Stars.

The Amherst baseball tournament, finished Monday, brought a fair gallery of players before the fans of this section. So we select our all-tournament. Here tis:

Stephenson, ss, Anton

Gee, 2b, Amherst
 Sam Lankford, lf, Dodd City
 Bill Hollaway, rf, Enochs
 Joe Potter, 3b, Anton
 Bennett, c, Amherst
 Presley, cf, Enochs
 Lefty McWilliams lb, Sudan
 Hambright, p, Amherst
 Minyard, p, Sudan
 Berry, p, Enochs
 Utilitymen: Infielders—Johnson, Amherst; R. Rich, Anton; Aldridge, Amherst; Catcher—C. Berry, Enochs; Outfielders, Crites, Tip-Top; Dickson, Amherst.

The sudden rise of the Sudan baseball team to second place money is the South Plains most recent miricale. Besides two good infielders, and, actually, the best pitcher in the tournament, they managed to reach the finals. The second money winners should give Minary three-fourths of the gross amount, and split the difference between Lefty McWilliams and A. Lumpkin.

Coach Bill Sanders and his Wildcats open practice on the new turf at the high school gridiron Monday. Not knowing what kind of an aggregation

DICKENS TAKES OUT LOCALS IN FIRST ROUND

Lubbock, Olton Advance in District Play Last Night

A crowd that made sponsors breath easier witnessed the three opening games of the South Plains District Softball Tournament last night.

Although the opening ceremonies didn't go through as planned, the fans, some 450 of them, were convinced that the team that wins the tournament will have to show some extraordinary class.

Wildcats Lose

Littlefield's Wildcats went down before the Kinney-Dickens' contingent in the fastest game of the night. The score 6 to 5, was even closer than the figures, and the speed ball artist of the Dickens county team, Dick Godeke, kept five Littlefield bingles well scattered. After scoring three times in the initial frame, the locals were held hitless from the second on. The big right hander whiffed 10 batters.

Kiplinger, dimitive Wildcat hurler, pitched creditable ball for the locals, but the invaders touched him for base knocks in the fourth.

Olton, Lubbock Win
 In the opening game, Doc Holt's Olton club eliminated the strong Levelland club, 11 to 3. The six hit pitching of D. Hair, Levelland hurler, kept the situation well in hand.

Lubbock's Avalanche-Journal club won a slug feast from the free hitting Grassland entry. After trailing 6 to 0 after the opening inning, the newspapermen pound the offering of one Grassland pitcher for an 18 to 13 victory. Five home runs, three by Lubbock, were registered in the second game.

BULA TO PLAY BAINER BASEBALL BOYS SUNDAY NEXT

Bainer Baseball team played the Bula boys at that city Wednesday afternoon, winning the game to the tune of 8-4.

The Bula aggregation will contest the Bainer team at Bainer Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

Sander's has, we don't offer any statements according to the Wildcats apparent strength for the forthcoming season. With the half dozen or more lettermen slated to appear the first day, there shouldn't be any doubt that the Wildcats will be in the money for the district crown. Our knowledge of Class B football in this section of the state, being nil, is at loss in telling you what may be in store for the local within the district race.

And if the customers didn't know, there are very few Class B high schools on the South Plains with the turf and football field on which the Wildcats open the 1936 season. Football fields don't come and go like the wind. . . . When a Class B club can say that their field is sodded with the best of 'em, then they've got something. Recently, we were over at Coach Pete Cawthon's new stadium, and Dutche Smith, the assistant mentor, was taking us on an inspection tour. The sod turf on the Matadors field isn't any better than the local field.

This department hasn't taken time to inquire as to who was responsible in getting the WPA loan and who has since put the field in such excellent shape. But our hat is off to both fellows.

SUFFERS FACE LACERATIONS

Mrs. Tommie Lowe suffered lacerations on the face Wednesday evening, when a ball hit and broke the windshield of her car parked in the left field while the softball tournament was in progress. She was taken to the Littlefield hospital for treatment.

STAR TIRE ENTERTAINMENT AND EDUCATIONAL TRUCK TO BE HERE FRIDAY

Dave Hicks, local Star Tire Dealer, is now celebrating his first Anniversary in this city.

The Star Tire entertainment and educational truck, will be in Littlefield and territory Friday, Aug. 28. The public are invited to the two special programs in front of Mr. Hicks' establishment at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.; they are invited to enjoy the program and go through the truck. Dalton Bruce will be the entertainer and Dallas Hollimon will explain the manufacture of Star Tires.

Mr. Hicks states his business has enjoyed a steady growth during the past year, and he extends his appreciation to his customers for the liberal patronage extended.

FINED FOR RECKLESS DRIVING

Ganus Gould, negro, who resides between Shallowater and Lubbock, was fined $21 in Judge Sikes' court Wednesday on a charge of careless and reckless driving and failing to stop following an accident. He was arrested at the request of Lamb county officers, and was brought to Littlefield by Deputy Sheriff Sam Hutson and Constable L. A. Rattliff. He is declared to have collided with Homer Hall's car, in which Mr. and Mrs. Hall were returning from exercises at Texas Tech. Tuesday. Miss Lucille Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hall, was a member of the graduating class. The negro paid the cost of repairing Mr. Hall's car.
