ENSIGN GUY STUBBLEFIELD IS REPORTED MISSING IN ACTION

Believed To Have Participated In Salerno Conflict

Has Served 9 Years In Navy, And On His Recent Ship 3 Years

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Stubblefield of Amherst Thursday last received a telegram from the War Department to the effect that their son, Ensign Guy Stubblefield, 29, was missing in action in the performance of duty for his country. The message, which arrived about 6 p. m., also asked that the identity of his ship not be revealed, but that more in detail would follow by letter.

Ensign Stubblefield had gone through the conflicts in North Africa and Sicily, and is believed to have taken part in the recent battle for Salerno.

Ensign Stubblefield has been in the Navy nine years on August 15 last, and was recently promoted from Gunner to Ensign. His parents had just received a letter from him a week before the telegram advising them of his promotion.

Before World War II, Ensign Stubblefield served four years on the Battleship Mississippi in the South Pacific. He had served on his recent ship three years.

He was a graduate of Amherst High School, and married Miss Mary Brown of Amherst, who was employed in the Triple A Office two years ago. She underwent a major operation in the Amherst Hospital November of last year, and has not as yet completely regained her health. In April last Ensign Stubblefield was home on a 12 day leave. His wife has been recuperating from her illness and spending a portion of her time with her brother at Lubbock and sister at Pecos, Texas. She arrived in Amherst Tuesday, and will spend until Friday with her husband's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Stubblefield are the parents of nine children, two of whom, a daughter and a son, passed away in infancy.

Besides Ensign Stubblefield, the children are: three daughters, Mrs. Charlie Jarmon of 7 miles north of Amherst; Mrs. L. H. Randolph of Houston; and Miss Iola Stubblefield of Big Springs; and three sons, Jack and Bill Stubblefield of Amherst; and Jim of Los Angeles, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Stubblefield have been married 54 years on February 16, 1943. They have been residents of Amherst and vicinity since 1926.

Cotton Pickers On Their Way Here

Cotton pickers are on the way to the South Plains but they are going to be slow getting to Lamb County, in the opinion of V. F. Jones, County Agent.

There are not as many migrant laborers this year as in the past and they are being held in the lower country as long as they can be, or until the crop is pretty well gathered. Indications now are that by the middle of October quite a few hands will begin to come in.

Some of the crews are requiring a little better living quarters than they have had in the past. If you have some quarters that can be made more attractive and liveable by doing a little work on it, it would pay you to go to that trouble.

The Extension Service is trying to assist farmers in the farm labor problem. The U. S. Employment Service will also have a representative stationed at Littlefield early in October to assist farmers in locating cotton pickers.

District Farm Meeting Scheduled

Issues and problems of paramount importance to producers in meeting wartime food and fiber goals will be discussed by farmers of this area in a meeting at Lubbock Thursday, October 7.

The meeting is sponsored by the Texas Farm Bureau Federation as one of a series over the state to consider current questions and issues affecting agriculture.

Problems to be discussed will include farm labor, machinery and supplies, price ceilings, subsidies and rollbacks, and the Pace parity bill, which would include farm labor costs in calculating parity prices of farm products. This measure, which was passed by the House at the last session of Congress but failed of passage in the Senate is expected to be introduced again during the present session.

The Texas Farm Bureau Federation strongly supported the Pace bill when it was before Congress last winter, and plans for mobilizing the full strength of Texas farmer opinion behind the measure when it comes up this time will be discussed at this meeting.

W. R. Tilson of Brownfield, member of the state board of directors from this district, will preside. The meeting will start at 10 a. m. in the Hotel Lubbock at Lubbock.

Principal speakers will be J. Walter Hammond, president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation; Judge C. C. Randle of Ellis County, chairman of the State Committee on membership; R. G. Arnold, representative of the State Committee on membership; R. G. Arnold, representative of the State Committee on membership.

Sudan 4-H Club Elect Officers

The Sudan Senior 4-H Club met Monday, September 27, at the high school to reorganize, discuss war Time Demonstration programs and elect new officers for the new year. Thirty-five members were present, according to S. L. Garrison, Assistant County Agent.

Different members led a discussion on the kind of project program necessary in order to meet the goal of Lamb County 4-H Club boys this year. The goal of each boy is to produce enough food to feed a soldier for one year. As a result of the discussion 20 boys that completed enrollment decided to produce food from 10 feeder calves, 27 feeder hogs, 12 sows and gilts, 100 chickens, 4 cows, 4 heifers and 182 acres of crop.

New officers were elected under the chairmanship of the out-going president, Billy Frank Royal. The new president is H. L. Brandon, the vice-president is Elwood Allen; Billy Frank Royal, Secretary, and Eugene Templeton, reporter.

The next meeting will be the first Monday in October if school is not out for cotton picking. If so, it will be in November.

Experience Of Col. Julian M. Joplin In New Book

In his book, "God Is My Co-Pilot," related an experience where Col. Joplin, assisted by a group of 100 Chinese coolies, released an embedded transport plane from a Rice Paddy, which had been forced down by digging down into the mud and placing timbers for a runway, and getting into the ship, Col. Joplin shot it out of its landing place, piloting the third of a million dollar plane back to its landing place.

The current issue of Monthly Record of Decorations awarded to personnel of the Army Air Forces gives Col. Joplin's name as being awarded the Legion of Merit.

Besides the above, Col. Joplin has been decorated on three other occasions, having been awarded the Silver Star, Distinguished Flying Cross, and an award by the Chinese Government.

Both Col. Scott and Col. Joplin received their wings at Randolph Field, Col. Joplin in 1930 and Col. Scott in 1933.

Also in the August edition of the American Legion Magazine "More Dead Ducks Tomorrow," by H. S. Mazet, is featured a picture of Col. Scott showing him and his plane, on which Rising Star emblems on his plane indicate that he has eight Jap planes to his credit.

The story also relates that the American Air Force in China are completely upsetting Jap plans for offensive action, while preparing for the day when bombing the Japanese Islands will be just a routine job.

In connection with Col. Joplin, who was then a Major, Col. Scott,

Women at Work for a Railroad at War

America needs millions of women to take over war jobs... to stay with those jobs... to help speed the day when our fighting men will return victorious!

Santa Fe women are answering this call all along the line.

Right now thousands of Santa Fe women are doing war-vital work to "keep 'em rolling." Many are pitching into "unglamorous" jobs... greasing engines, operating turntables, welding shovels, working in blacksmith shops, and cleaning roller bearings. They take pride in their work, too!

Many of these women have husbands, sweethearts, brothers or sons in the armed forces. Many came to work to replace a Santa Fe relative who had been called into service. Others took jobs because they knew womanpower must step in when manpower goes to war.

☆ We of the Santa Fe salute these women who know that what they are doing is vital to Victory!

Lamb Co. H. D. Council Meets

The Lamb County Home Demonstration Council met in the Amherst Hotel Wednesday, September 22, at 3 p. m.

Mrs. E. L. Yarbrough, council chairman, was in the chair. Mrs. Vernon Stagner, secretary, reported nine members present with four clubs represented. The Bluebonnet and Oklahoma Avenue Home Demonstration Clubs were represented 100 per cent.

The county-wide exhibit was postponed indefinitely.

Council meeting date was changed to the third Wednesday of each month. The next meeting will be October 20.

Mrs. Dora R. Barnes, Clothing specialist, College Station, Texas, will give a demonstration on cleaning clothes in the home, October 9 at 2 p. m. in the Homemaking Cottage at Amherst.

Mrs. Mona K. Hildreth, County Home Demonstration agent, announces that Fire Prevention week will be October 3-9, and precaution should be made to check fire hazards around the home.

The need for glycerin is now greater than it has ever been. Texas collected less than 40 per cent of its waste fat allotment last month. This is one of our war jobs on which we Texans are falling behind. Remember the first part of the fat salvage program is to use the fat as long as possible for food but when it reaches the inedible stage turn it in to the fat collection center before it becomes rancid, urges Mrs. Hildreth.

The meeting adjourned at 5 p. m.

With Amherst Men In the Armed Forces

Cpl. Cordell W. Cole, son of Mrs. Winnie Cole of 9 miles northwest of Littlefield, who has been in the Service since October 8, 1942, has been in England since June. He is attached to an Engineering Corps of the U. S. Army. His mother heard from him about three weeks ago.

Cpl. Cole's sister, Mrs. J. T. Collins of 5 miles east and 5 miles north of Littlefield, has written and dedicated the following poem to her brother:

It is nearly a year since that sad day
Our darling brother went away.

With a heavy heart a bus he took,
All we could do was stand and look.

He shed no tears but we understand
The grief he knew when he waved hand.

Yes, the grief he knew was plainly expressed
When he kissed Mother and said
God would bless.

He left his Texas home one October day
To drill and work and not to play.

To help a friend without delay,
The job is ours, to make Hitler pay.

From his home on the Plains he left
That day
With other lads that rode away.

When the job is finished They'll sail away
And live again in the U.S.A.

Should he fail to walk the streets of our town,
Our heads with sorrow would be bowed down.

We live in this world to do and dare,
We cannot stray from God's loving care.

So lads go forward, have no fear,
Whate'er the task, the Master is

JOHN STEINBECK CABLES FROM LONDON

"I HAVE SEEN the soldiers come down from the ships and stand in long lines on the docks, their 'B' bags on their backs and their rifles slung over their shoulders.

"I have seen the supplies come in by the hundred shiploads, locomotives and tanks and trucks—acres of boxed food and great mounds of hams, shiploads of bombs stacked in from keel to hatch and all materials that we need at home—steel for bridges and buildings, food for our own people, material enough to make all America well fed and well housed and well clothed.

"I have seen the men climb into the Fortress in the early morning and fly away waving with elaborate nonchalance and I have seen the gap in the mess when they did not come back and the empty bunks, the blankets thrown aside as they threw them, and the framed photographs on the steel lockers.

"The men have gone up the gangway again to go into action and they jump from landing barges to a beach, strewn with the bodies of their own people, and they claw their way like animals into a hostile coast.

"I have seen the hospitals with the mauled men, the legless and blind, the fingerless hands and the burned faces—all the destruction that steel and fire can do to a man's body and mind. In God's name, what is it for except to get this horrible thing over with as quickly and as thoroughly as possible? And if this is true, it should not be a matter of 'Who will lend his money?' but 'Who dares not to?'"

Farmers Back The Attack

"The record of the American farmer on the home front will match that of his sons on the battlefield—and that is the greatest compliment I can pay," Marvin Jones, War Food Administrator, said.

The American farmer was on the offensive before the war started. He had produced more food in 1938 than in any previous year in our history. In 1939, he produced even more, and still more in 1940. At the time of Pearl Harbor in 1941, the 1940 record had been broken.

Jones pointed out that the American farmer was already in action at his battle station when Pearl Harbor was attacked. The nation's warehouses were filled with the largest reserve supplies of food in our history.

When war was declared, the farmer did even better. In 1942, in the face of farm labor and machinery shortages, he beat the record of 1941 by a full 10 per cent. "And this year, the American farmer's answer to the increasing difficulties was to plant 10 million more acres than last year, to milk more cows, to raise more pigs and to feed more cattle than ever before, in his determination to 'Back the Attack,'" Administrator Jones said.

"The September crop report indicates near record yields on the largest acreage in 10 years, and including meat production, the largest food production of any year in our history—breaking all previous records once more, for the sixth consecutive year.

"Nor is that all. Our program for next fall calls for greater food production. We expect to get that production on a voluntary basis. We will tell the farmer what is needed, help him get the labor and machinery needed, and give him prices that will see him

Young Man, Save Money!

Buying war bonds seems to be a habit with many young men in the service. And it is a good habit for several reasons. By the purchase of bonds these young men are performing an additional service to their country over and above their military duties, and when they come out of the service they will have a very satisfactory amount of money saved to do with as they wish.

The most recent example of a service man buying bonds, which has come to our notice, is that of Seaman Second Class D. C. Lindley, Jr., son of D. C. Lindley, Sr., of Littlefield. The young man entered the Navy May 19, and is attending radio school in San Diego. D. C. buys war stamps and this week sent to his father for safe keeping the first bond he purchased.

Purchase of war bonds by the youths in the service presents to us anew the wisdom of young men saving money in their youth. By such a program young men acquire considerable money while they are young. Through the saving and possession of this money they make better citizens and are in a financial position to do those things which they desire.

Many a man in advancing years is working hard today because he failed to systematically save money in his young days.

A famous editor said: "Young man go west and grow up with the country."

We are far from famous, but we say:

"Young man, save, then you won't have to 'slave.'" through—then depend on him to do the rest. I know that he will do his part and 'Back the Attack!'"

PHILLIPS "66"
STATION

ON MAIN STREET

With South Plains Men In U. S. Service

Jack Garlington, son of Mr. Mrs. J. O. Garlington, of the Forces, in the Chemical Warfare Department, is stationed in Hawaii about six years, and in Hawaii about six years, and in Hawaii about six years, when he said he was getting along fine, and receiving the County Leader "fairly regularly" it requires about two weeks a letter to reach him.

1, was transferred last week to Randolph Field, San Antonio, where he is in the Students Division, and will be going to school for the next six weeks. Following this training he expects to return to Bryan Field, and hopes to get a furlough.

Sgt. Allen C. Kendrick, of the Signal Corps of the U. S. Army, located "somewhere in New Guinea," has been in service about a year.

He writes that Jack Barker and one of the Hukill boys from Field-ton are with him. He writes that they are proud to get the Leader and read it; they wear it out they read it so thoroughly.

His mother reports that he seems in good spirits and writes that his eats are better than they were.

His wife is making her home with her father, George Halliday, at Olney, Texas, for the duration.

Pfc. Maxie McKnight, of the Marines, son of Mrs. Lorado McKnight, who has just gotten out of boot camp, arrived home Thursday on a few days' leave. He left again Monday for San Diego, where he is stationed.

Cpl. Joe T. Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Morgan, of eight miles southwest of town, who has been in service for the past two years, and in the Medical Corps stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas, has been transferred to the Air Corps.

He is now attending radio school at Sioux Falls, South Dakota. He writes that everyone are now wearing overcoats, and that it is quite cold.

S-Sgt. Floyd E. Sadler, son of S. H. Sadler of 9 miles south of Littlefield, who has been in the Service about a year, and is connected with the Supply Department of the Signal Corps of the U. S. Army, stationed at Camp Crowder, Mo., is expected to arrive home this week on a furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. Ab Beckner recently received a letter from their son, Clayton Beckner, Radioman Second Class, of the U. S. Navy, who has been in the Service since May, 1942, and in North Africa since March. He said he was "somewhere in Sicily," and was sleeping under mosquito netting.

Pfc. Granville D. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clark of Littlefield, who has been in the Service since May, 1942, and who has been connected with the Signal Corps of the U. S. Army, and in training at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, for the past nine months, has been transferred to San Francisco, Calif.

Pvt. Leo Clark, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clark, who has been in training in the Signal Corps of the U. S. Army, has been transferred to the Air Forces. He has been in the service since October, 1942, and has been transferred from Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, where he took a six weeks' course, to Brooklyn, N. Y. Previous to taking training at Monmouth he attended the Rhode Island State College, taking electrical engineering.

He has moved about considerably, and his mother reports that Leo, at the time he was at Rhode Island, stated he had been in 25 States. She said he might take cadet training.

Arthur Don Melton of Olton, Texas, was commissioned a second lieutenant in the army of the United States September 13, upon successful completion of the Officer Candidate Course at The Infantry School at Fort Benning, Ga. Melton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Melton of Olton.

Melton enlisted into the Army on March 11, 1942, and served with the 2nd Infantry Division and the 102nd Infantry Division before going to Officer Candidate School three months ago. He held the rank of Staff Sergeant before being commissioned.

The new officer is a graduate of Olton High School in Olton, and Lippert's Business College at Plainview.

When Curtis Pearsey and Parley Meyers of Olton enlisted in the Navy last January they had hopes of seeing some of the service together. However, these hopes soon vanished as they were separated before they reached Dallas. Last week, however, the chances caught up with them and they met in a drug store in Pearl Harbor. Each knew the other was there sometime in the last few months and were on the lookout. Curtis came upon Parley drinking a strawberry malt and soon both boys had malts—all over them.

It was a happy reunion. They expressed wonder that the people of Olton didn't just feel their ears burning. But all too soon their four-hour leave was up and they returned to their ships, wondering where and when they would meet again.

Douglas R. Coker, 22, son of V. D. Coker of Earth, was recently appointed Naval Aviation Cadet and was transferred to the Naval Air Training Center, Pensacola, Fla., for intermediate flight training.

Upon completion of the intensive course at the "Annapolis of the Air," Cadet Coker will receive his Navy Wings of Gold" with the designation of Naval Aviator, and will be commissioned an Ensign or a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve.

Mrs. C. A. Thomas was happier last week than she has been for a long time. The cause of happiness was a card, which she received from her son, Claude Thomas, Jr., who is in a Japanese prison camp. The thing about the card that gave Mrs. Thomas most joy was the fact that it was written in her son's own hand. A member of the famous "Lost Battalion," he was first reported "missing in action," later, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas were informed by the War Department that he was a prisoner of the Japs, then a few weeks ago they received a form card, which gave certain routine information, but the card received Tuesday was written by his own hand.

Word comes to Olton that on September 5, 1943, J. O. Norfleet was picked as an outstanding photographer from the AAF Bombardier School, San Angelo, Texas, and as such competed in the Sixth All-American Olympic Bombing Contest held at V. A. A. F., Victorville, Bombardier School, Victorville, Cal. Col. A. J. McVea, director of training, and Col. Earl C. Robbins, Commandant, attested to the honor given Norfleet.

Elzey L. Hobbs, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emzy Hobbs, of Lum's Chapel, was recently graduated from the Naval Training School located at Naval Air Technical Training Center on Navy Pier in Chicago, Ill., where he successfully completed a course in Diesel Engines, and was advanced to Fireman, second class. He was selected for diesel training as a result of aptitude test scores made during his recruit training.

At Navy Pier, Hobbs received fundamental instruction in the operation and maintenance of internal combustion engines and their auxiliaries.

Robert Noble Lentz, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Lentz of Littlefield, Aerial Gunner in the Air Forces, now "somewhere in North Africa," wrote his parents recently by V-Mail as follows:

"I am making it alright. I am in North Africa, and right now we are sleeping on the ground. I hope we won't have to for long for I don't like it very much. I hope our mail catches up with us soon, for it seems like years since we have gotten any. I had a letter from Floyd before we left. I really was glad to get it. We visited (blacked out) the other day, and saw some of the churches and saw how religious they are. I was rather disgusted with the town, and I hope we get to visit some other town next time. I cannot write much for there is nothing to write. I hope I hear from you all soon. "Love, Noble."

Lentz has been in the service since February. He recently was stationed at Lamont, Calif., for seven weeks. He left for overseas service about August 20.

Cpl. Eugene Rader of the Air Corps wrote the Leader under date of September 21 from Fresno, Calif., as follows:

"I am very sorry I never had time to inform you of my change of address from time to time. I have enjoyed reading the paper very much. It is a great paper. It deals with everything a guy away from home likes to read about.

"I would love to be back in good old Lamb County. It will always seem like home to me. For the Duration I remain, "Sincerely, "Cpl. Eugene Rader."

A. B. Taylor, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Taylor of Littlefield, was recently appointed a Naval Aviation Cadet and was transferred to the Naval Air Training Center, Pensacola, Fla., for intermediate flight training.

Upon completion of the intensive course at the "Annapolis of the Air" Cadet Taylor will receive his Navy "Wings of Gold" with the designation of Naval Aviator, and will be commissioned an Ensign in the Naval Reserve or a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve.

Classes In Playing Hawaiian Steel Guitar Opening In Littlefield

Residents of Littlefield and section now have available an opportunity to learn to play the Hawaiian steel guitar.

Classes, to be conducted by the Dunagan School of Music, Lubbock, are starting this week and next at the American Legion Hall, Littlefield. There will be classes each Friday afternoon and evening.

The Dunagan School of Music, of which I. D. Dunagan is the head was established in Lubbock four years ago, and this is the third year they have conducted classes in Littlefield. The Lubbock studio now has 400 students taking courses and there are large numbers of students enrolled at the school's studios in the principal cities of the South Plains. All instructors are radio artists. A guitar is furnished free with the course.

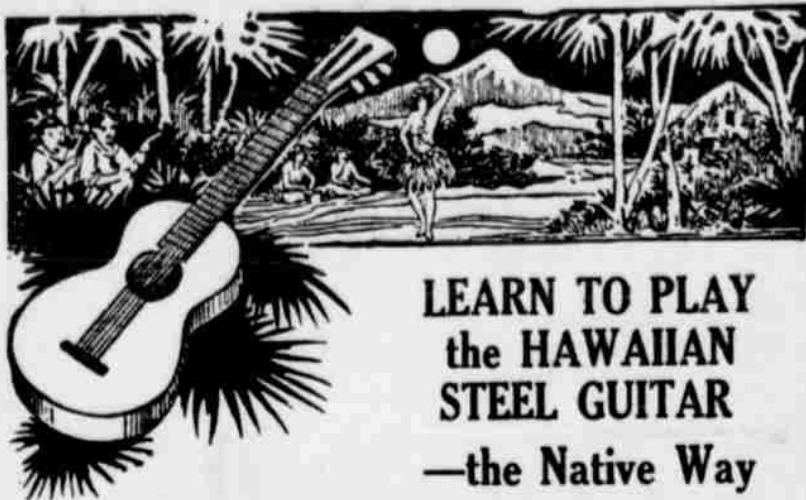

The Dunagan School is represented in Littlefield by George W. Lee and Amos L. Millsap, who are staying at the Highway Hotel.

4-H Club Record Books Due Oct. 5

Four-H Club record books of all members carrying a project during 1943 are due in the County Agent's office by October 5, states S. L. Garrison, Assistant County Agent. The record books will be used in selecting the County Achievement Winner, those eligible for 4-H pins and in selecting those boys eligible to enter state contests.

Records are considered a very important part of any boy's demonstration work. Without them he can never tell just where he stands financially. They are necessary in order to tell whether you are making money or losing money on your project. With record keeping so important to American farmers, on account of taxes, it is all the more important for the youth of our land to learn because they will be the farmers of tomorrow years.

Billy Don Stovall, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stovall, is stationed at Fort Warren, Wyoming, in the Quartermaster Division. He has been in service about four months. He has won a medal on Rifle Range. Billy Don is expected home on furlough in about two weeks. He says he likes the Army O.K., but he doesn't like the Wyoming weather.

Littlefield and Lamb County Have Been Granted

TWO EXTRA DAYS
To Do Their Patriotic Duty in the 3rd War Loan Drive

Texas is one of the few states left that has not yet made its quota in the War Bond Drive.

Lamb County Must Accept a Part of the Responsibility If We Do Finally Fail, Because We Have Not Yet Made The Quota Assigned To Us.

In the hard years back a few years ago when banks were closed, and closing—and since—our government gave and LOANED countless thousands of millions of dollars to stabilize our city and county.

In the city we can point to paving, a water system, highways, and many other things which would not be ours to enjoy now, if the government had not loaned to US.

Now, in prosperous times, our government is asking US to loan to IT. Our duty is clear.

The Bond Drive will close Saturday midnight, Oct. 2. If each of our citizens does his or her part—we will not fail to have filled an obligation which is ours.

Your City government has invested many of your funds in bonds—the safest investment in the world. We believe that each citizen should do the same to the extent of their ability.
