BAD PENNY RETURNS Swallowed Coin Recovered Without Medical Aid

James Raymond McKinney, aged 3 1/2 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McKinney, while playing with some pennies Saturday about 11 a. m., put a penny in his mouth and accidentally swallowed it.

The parents, somewhat alarmed at the child swallowing a penny, brought him to the Littlefield hospital for observation and advice.

A reporter from the Leader office, at the Littlefield hospital at the time collecting news, stopped to speak to Mr. and Mrs. McKinney in the lobby of the hospital where they were waiting to consult with a doctor.

Then, no sooner had they reported the child's mishap when James Raymond had the inclination to expurge the coin, and right then and there were deposited on the floor, the child's breakfast along with the lost penny.

James Raymond picked up the penny quickly, and everything was well with him.

The meeting will open on the morning of September 22 at the Jefferson hotel. Group pictures will be made and a picture, "Fraternity in Action," will be shown.

In the afternoon a two-hour sight-seeing tour over the city will be made, and that night the visitors will have the opportunity of seeing a baseball game between the Brooklyn Dodgers and the St. Louis Cardinals.

Mammoth Parade To Open Lamb County's Fall Fair

The line of march for the parade will be down Phelps avenue starting from the Court House, turning right at the streets end, and marching the highway to the intersection of the Levelland highway, and thence out Levelland highway to the Fair grounds, and upon arrival there, the gates will be officially and formally opened.

At least a dozen highly decorated floats have been promised for the parade, but many more should be entered, and the management is urging all business houses to enter floats if possible. In addition to the floats, the rodeo show which is staged in conjunction with the Fair will have several fine horse

Citizens Asked To Support Program For Betterment Of Rural Roads; Local Meeting One of Series Over Area

A county-wide meeting looking to a better rural roads program will be held in the District Court room here, Tuesday night, September 20, at 8 p. m., County Judge O. F. Dent has announced.

This meeting, one of a series of such meetings being held in this area, is to organize a Lamb County unit of the Texas Rural Roads association, under the association's expanded program calling for state natural resources taxes dedicated only to permanent improvements in Texas.

To Discuss Proposed Plans
Col. J. I. McGregor, Temple, vice-president and chairman of organization of the state association will discuss in detail the purposes and proposed plans of the new program to provide a system of all-weather rural roads in every county in the state.

Discussing the purpose of the Lamb county meeting and the enlarged program, Jim Cantrell, Colton county banker, president of the Texas Rural Roads association, said: "We are offering the people of Texas a chance to rally to the support of a program that will mean more to the future permanent prosperity of this state as a whole and to the farmers and agriculture centers in particular than any other long-range program ever offered by a distinguished group of business and farm leaders looking only to the welfare of Texas and all its people."

"Natural resources, our state's greatest capital assets, should by a fair severance tax, finance a continuing program of permanent improvements, such as rural roads, soil and water conservation, state and institutional buildings and other permanent improvements deemed necessary by our legislative bodies," he continued.

Prevent Sales Tax
"This sound business and economic principle," banker Cantrell said, "will prevent the state going bankrupt by the unsound practice of using capital investment for current operations. It will prevent the Freshman convocation began at 9 a. m. Monday, followed by freshman orientation and entrance examinations September 12 through today, September 15. Class registrations were being held Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday; and the first class session is scheduled for Friday, Sept. 16. The enrollment this year is expected to be approximately 500, according to J. L. Harden, business manager; but the exact number will not be made available for quite some time.

Fourteen new teachers have been added to the faculty with another coming to head the home economics department at the beginning of the second semester. A number of persons connected with the college are now seeking residence in town.

There are twenty new courses on the Wayland curriculum this year. Among them are engineering physics and physical measurements, differential and integral calculus, theory and equations, analytic geometry, principles of marketing, consumer economics, rural sociology, comparative vertebrate anatomy, histology, organic chemistry, principles of physical education, health education for elementary school teachers, the theory and practice of corrective physical education, and personal hygiene. WHY NEW TELEPHONE RATES ARE NECESSARY AT LITTLEFIELD

NO BUSINESS CAN long survive and charge less for its products and service than it costs to furnish them.

GREATLY INCREASED COSTS of furnishing telephone service make it necessary for the telephone company to place new rates into effect at Littlefield.

We are proud that in these past years we have been able to expand and improve our service without increasing rates. But the pyramiding effect of increased costs of operation - - - higher wages, taxes, materials and equipment - - - make new rates necessary despite the use of every possible economy consistent with sound business management.

EXPENSES ARE GREATER THAN INCOME

During and since the war, the demand for telephone service has been tremendous. While revenues have increased, the costs of furnishing service have increased much faster. In 1949, earnings dropped to two percent.

The cost of almost everything that goes to make good telephone service . . . and almost everything is needed . . . has increased sharply since 1940.

For illustration:

Payroll (wages), our biggest expense, is away up. Seven (7) general wage increases have been granted employees since 1940. Telephone poles cost 110 percent more than in 1940 - - - cable is up 119 percent - - - and manufactured items as much as 139 percent.

NEW RATES ARE REASONABLE

The new rates are reasonable and are necessary to help pay the cost of furnishing telephone service. We do not seek big profits, only reasonable rates that will provide enough earnings to place the system on a sound financial basis, and which will enable us to expand and improve service.

ADEQUATE EARNINGS ARE ESSENTIAL

To carry out its expansion and improvement program, the company must spend many thousands of dollars for new plant and equipment. This money must come from the savings of people who want to invest in something that will bring them a reasonable, regular return. A sound financial business with reasonable earnings is essential to attract new money necessary to expand and improve telephone service.

NEW RATES

The new schedule of rates for Littlefield is given below. Federal taxes which apply are not included.

Class of Service	RATE PER MONTH
	Handset
BUSINESS:
Individual Line Service	$ 6.50
Two-Party Line Service	4.75
Extension Service	1.00
RESIDENCE:

Four-Party Line Service	2.25

Subscribed-Owned Lines:

Two on the line	$6.00	$2.75
Three on the line	4.25	2.25
Four or more on the line	3.50	2.00
	3.00	1.75

* Customer Furnishes Telephone Instrument

For residence users the new rates represent an increase of from less than one cent 1 2/3 cents per day. For business users the new rates represent an increase of from 4 1/6 cents to 6 2/3 cents per day.

Compared with increases in prices you must pay for other things . . . food, clothing, automobiles and almost every other item in the family budget . . . the increase telephone rates is moderate.

SWINE SHOW CLOSING SATURDAY NIGHT

DAN, Sept. 12.—Sudan's fourth annual Fall came to a close Saturday night following a day of rain soaked events. Although the festivity Friday evening at the Sudan-Dimmitt football game, the majority of the color-

Rain and a strong steady wind ripped some of the decorations from the floats but not before the judges had a chance to select the winners.

The first prize of $50 for the best float went to the Tuesday Study club. It was a large float with a merry-go-round carrying four children. Three clowns marched beside the float. The children were Bobbie Smith, Carol Ann Watkins, Sandra Haragan and Charles Nichols. The clowns were Mrs. Doyle Watkins, Mrs. F. M. Smith, and Mrs. Radney Nichols.

Mrs. George Reinhardt was chairman of the committee that designed and decorated the float.

Second prize of $25 went to the Salem Department store and the 1935 Study Club took third place honors and $10 in prize money.

Sen. Fred Harris To Make Race For Post Shivers Held

State Sen. Fred Harris of Dallas announced Monday night that he would run for lieutenant governor next year.

This announcement broke a political logjam that has existed since the death of Gov. Beauford H. Jester.

Harris became the first politician to make certain his position in the lieutenant governor race. In addition, he cleared the way for Dallas county politicians to lay their plans for a senate campaign to name his successor.

Texas politicians have been playing a waiting game since Jester's death. Those who had planned to run for governor are doing some reconsidering. Allan Shivers has an advantage in the governor's race in that he will be running as an incumbent. Shivers moved to the governor's chair from lieutenant governor when Jester died. Harris will be a candidate to succeed Shivers as lieutenant governor.

Harris had figured in political discussions as a potential candidate for railroad commissioner, attorney general and lieutenant governor. The Monday night statement burned the bridges.

"I am a candidate for lieutenant governor," he said.

"Regardless of any turn in the Texas political picture, that is the office I will seek in next year's primaries.

"I will not be a candidate to succeed myself as senator from the Dallas district."

Morton Pioneer and Outstanding Civic Worker Is Elected To Directorate Of West Texas Chamber of Commerce

A NEW DIRECTOR of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce is R. C. Strickland of Morton. He succeeds W. W. Williamson, South Plains banker.

Mr. Strickland is truly a Cochran county pioneer — for, while he has lived there only 24 years, the county's settlement and real growth have taken place within that short period. In 1925 he and Mrs. Strickland went there from Hamilton county. They settled first at Bledsoe, building its first residence, lumber for which was hauled from Brownfield. Mr. Strickland's next job was helping build the town's first schoolhouse, and he served as secretary of the board until Bledsoe could boast of a 10-teacher school. Following, he was elected Cochran county tax-assessor and moved to Morton, the county seat. He served two terms and then entered the dry cleaning business, and he now owns and operates there one of West Texas' most modern small cleaning plants.

Finding time somehow to continue in public work Mr. Strickland served two terms — 1943-1947 — as county judge and county superintendent. In his last year in office he was secretary-treasurer of the County Judges and Commissioners association of West Texas.

A native Alabamian (born in a log cabin on a 40-acre farm), but a West Texan since age 13, Mr. Strickland took time out in 1918 to serve his country in World War I.

4-H Club Boys Do Excellent Job With Pigs

The annual County Sears Swine show was held at the fair grounds in Littlefield, Texas, on Wednesday afternoon, September 7, 1949.

This show is held each fall and all the boys who were given Sears pigs in 1949 exhibit them. This show also includes a pen of 3 market hogs, produce of the sow pigs distributed in 1948.

All the boys had done an excellent job with their pigs and as a result of their hard work we had a good show.

T. L. Leach of Texas Technological College, Lubbock, Texas judged the show.

The winners in the show were: First place, James Sipes, Spade 4-H club; Second place, Danny Dunn, Spade 4-H club; Third place, Joe Peterman, Amherst 4-H club; Fourth place, Leroy Armstrong, Olton 4-H club; Fifth place, Duane Gray, Spade 4-H club; Sixth place, Kenneth Rhodes, Amherst 4-H club. Bo McClure of the Olton 4-H club won first place in the pen of three class.

The first place winners, James Sipes and Bo McClure, will show their animals in the district Sears Swine show at Lubbock, Texas, on Saturday, September 17, 1949.

Anton's First Bale Nets Grower $468

Jim J. Hobgood, Anton farmer, was $468 richer Saturday after a bale of cotton grown on his farm, which was the first ginned this year in the Anton area, was auctioned off at 3 p. m. Saturday.

High bidder was Thomas Gin Co., of Anton, which ginned the bale Aug. 31. The gin company paid 43 cents per pound for the bale.

In addition to the $191.95 which the table brought on a per pound basis, premiums to Hobgood totaled $245.50, and the seed brought $31.50.

Hobgood has extensive interests in the Anton area. The cotton was gathered, however, from his home farm, two miles southwest of Anton.

This year's "first bale" title makes four years out of the past nine years that Hobgood has brought in the first bale in the Anton vicinity. Time before this was in 1947.

The cotton was gathered from 30 acres. Because the cotton had been damaged somewhat by hail, it was graded middling sample and classed 29-32 staple.

Other bidders in Saturday's auction included Mayor George Broome, Citizens State bank, the Farmers Co-op gin, and Anton Drug store.

BULL LAKE PHILOSOPHER WANTS ALL THE COTTON PICKED EVERYWHERE THIS YEAR, BUT BY SOMEBODY ELSE

Editor's note: The Philosopher on his Johnson Grass farm on Bull Lake seems to be going on record about his availability as a cotton picker for the southwest, but we doubt if anybody was counting on him anyway.

Dear editor:

I was in town Saturday seel if I could borrow some money from a cotton picker to get enough money to pay off a hand I had helpin me las week and while I didn't have any luck I did find a few newspapers on a cafe counter and since there pages was pretty well mixed up and since the didn't figure anybody'd want the things anymore and since there ain't much politics stirrin now and wasn't much doin in town I took em home and sat on the front porch since my wife was visitin at the time and read where Marshal Tito in Yugoslavia was worryn over a pact he had with Russia.

I never did figure out what the pact was about, and I ain't sure where Yugoslavia is or whether the Democrats or the Republicans are in over there, but I can tell em they're wastin their time worryn over an agreement with Russia.

In fact, it has been my observation that makin an agreement with Russia is about like makin an agreement with my cow not to cross the fence and get in my neighbor's pasture. I can sign the thing in good faith, but will the cow live up to it? She might as long as I got plenty of grass, but let mine start gettin short and dry and the neighbor's look tender and green, and my cow will treat that pact like a Russian dictator lookin over into a helpless neighborin country.

I also read where cotton farmers throughout the county is havin trouble gettin hands from Mexico, and some folks claim government officials has surrounded the enterprise with so much red tape very few farmers can swing a deal, but that may not be all the trouble. If somebody was wantin me to come pick his cotton, you couldn't put enough red tape around the thing to suit me. In fact, if they have any red tape left over, I'm figurin on gettin in a supply myself to confuse my wife with. Work is a fine thing, if you go in for it, but as far as I'm concerned there's a lot more things a lot more entertaining.

I hope every lock of cotton throughout the South gets picked this year, but if anybody is dependin on me to do it he could save time by just going ahead and plowin it under now. And I think the same thing applies to you too.

Yours faithfully, J. A.

SUDAN GINS FIRST BALE 1949 COTTON

The first bale of cotton was ginned at Sudan Wednesday morning of last week by the Farmer's Co-Op gin. Alfred Patterson, who lives two miles southwest of Sudan, was the grower.

The bale weighed 440 pounds and was made from 1800 pounds of seed cotton. It netted Patterson the Chamber of Commerce prize of $50.

The bale was ginned in only 15 minutes. This was record time, according to gin manager Earl Chester, Chester, who is also president of the Sudan Chamber of Commerce, remarked that none of the cotton was green. All of it was dry, which accounted for the speed in ginning, he said.

No sale price for the cotton was announced.

A. Dooley New Head Of Sudan Schools

Schools at Sudan opened Tuesday, September 6.

A. Dooley of Happy was elected superintendent of Sudan schools in a night-long session of the school board at Sudan that broke up at 2:30 Sunday morning.

Moring's resignation came as a surprise to the school board. He was entering his fifth year as principal. Moring and his wife, also a former teacher at Sudan, have accepted positions with the Abernathy school system.

Resignation of Moring placed an entirely new administrative staff in the Sudan schools, as both the high school and grade school principals for the coming year are new to the district.

Gordon Mills of Lubbock, new high school principal, was hired about two weeks ago, as was Leslie Browning of S. Jo., new grade school administrator.

Store and Service Station Is Being Built On Highway 51, South of City

Construction is underway in the building of a grocery store and service station on the east side of Highway 51 and a little more than one mile south of the city limits.

This new mercantile structure will be 30x50 feet, is located on a corner, and is being built by Alvin Spencer, who will operate the business.

The new store is being built directly across the street from Mr. Spencer's home. Mr. Spencer has been a resident of Littlefield since 1929, and has lived on his present property since 1933.

A large driveway will be built for the service station, which will have two pumps for the present time. Provision is being made for the adding of additional pumps. Phillips "66" produces will be sold.

The business will be opened at an early date.

The opening of the new store is another important step in the development of a suburban section which is rapidly gaining in popularity as a residential area.

SUDAN'S FESTIVAL—

drizzle suddenly turned into a brisk shower. The several hundred spectators scurried for their cars or ran for cover and the parade elements cleared the street.

The showers remained intermittent throughout the rest of the day with a high overcast threatening hard rains most of the time. Mud hampered some of the activities but did not seem to diminish the spirits of the many visitors.

Following the parade a section of the town square was roped off and all children under 16 were invited to participate in games.

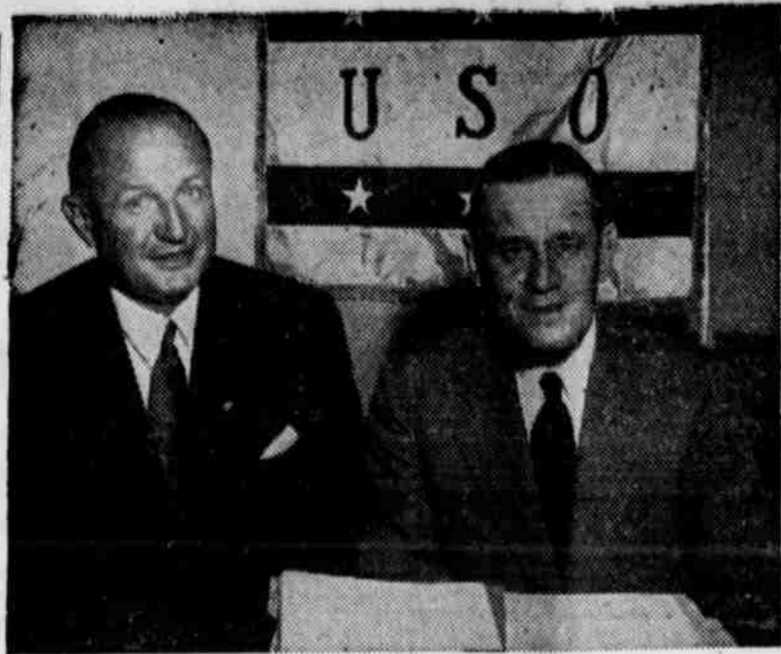

Events and winners were: Greased pig race, Bobby Lee; cracker chewing, Bill Kent; bubble gum blowing, Warren Lowe; egg pitching, Charles Lynch; egg relay, Marvin Ballard; balloon blowing, Steve Thompson; and paper plate throwing, T. P. Wingo. James Moore was master of ceremonies for the children's games and Ernest Minyard was chairman for this division. Prize money totaling $100 was distributed.

A $20 parade prize for the rider of the prettiest horse went to Wanda Foust of Littlefield, who rode a Palomino.
At 1:30, horse races on the straightaway were staged at the airport south of town. At 7 p. m. group and quartet singing took place on the square with prizes going to groups getting the greatest amount of applause.

Quarter-horse racing saw a good track in spite of the rain. Winners were: 440 yards, Skipper, owned by Pee-wee Hinson; 300 yards, We Did It owned by Presser; 220 yards Martini, owned by McGehee brothers; and 40 yards, Salty Babe, owned by T. A. Holman.

Jess Shirley of Lubbock, former Sudan resident, served as announcer. O. C. Willingham directed the horse racing events.

A rodeo was held in the arena at 8 p. m. with many of the familiar rodeo contestants on hand for the roping, riding and bulldogging events. A dance concluded the day's activities.
