Subscribers who change their addresses, or fail to get their paper, should immediately notify this office, giving both new and old addresses.
Communications of local interest are solicited. They should be briefly written, on but one side of the paper, and must reach this office not later than Thursday noon of each week. The right of revision or rejection is reserved by the publisher.
Advertising that does not show in its text or typography that it is paid for must be marked as an advertisement. All local advertisements remain in this paper for the time specified or until ordered out. All notices, matters not by whom nor for what purpose, if the object is to raise money by admission fee or otherwise, is an advertisement and when sent in for publication must be paid for at the regular advertising rate per line for each issue printed.
Obituaries, cards of thanks, and resolutions of respect will also be charged for at the same rate.
Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of the Littlefield Leader will be gladly corrected upon its being brought to the attention of the publisher.

GET THE BEST

The Leader is advised that the City Commission is now gathering data for a waterworks system in Littlefield, and, before taking the matter up with the public, are securing all the necessary data to know just the kind that will be best adapted to our growing conditions.

This is a very wise idea, and one to be heartily commended. The Leader does not favor any temporary concern. With the large prospects of developing into a real city it would mean considerable loss and expense in the long run to not install a first unit of what would be required five or ten years from now. With the initial installation first class then any necessary additions could be made and the highest degree of efficiency maintained at all times.

Furthermore, the certain requirements of the State Fire Insurance Board if met at the beginning, would not only mean the very best water supply and fire protection, but also a large reduction in insurance rates that would in a great measure offset the justified expenditure. For instance, a 140 foot tower, a 75,000 gallon water tank and eight inch mains, would secure for the city the very best fire insurance rate possible, insure an adequate supply of water to meet all occasions, and furnish a standard unit that could be added to with greater facility and efficiency than otherwise.

There is not a citizen in Littlefield but realizes the paramount need of an efficient water system, and, in consideration of the present valuation and the increased development which the town is certain to have, the cost of a good system would be a mere bagatelle in comparison.

TIME TO BE CAREFUL

There are many people here who can remember the horrors of prairie fires in the fall, when whole leagues and sections of this fine prairie land were swept over, entailing the loss of much good grass to the rancher, and not infrequently several head of cattle.

The danger of the big prairie fires have been considerable lessened during the past two or three years, occasioned by the influx of new settlers who have plowed the land and cut out new roads, yet the danger is not entirely eliminated.

Saturday night between Littlefield and Sudan were observed two fires in action. Sunday there was a big one in the vicinity of Roundup. Monday a man was in our office showing us the fragments of a once good leather coat which he wore out the day before fighting a prairie fire south of here—started out in a pasture where doubtless some careless hunter dumped his pipe contents or dropped a cigarette stub. A little carelessness may cost thousands of dollars to some innocent persons. At least it is time to be careful!

THE PARASITE

Every town and community has its parasite; whether that town be young or old, but the new towns are generally the greater victims. Most citizens who come to a new community come there with the very best of intentions of lending their time, talents and money toward making it a still better place to live in, yet occasionally there comes a person with no other aim than to sap all he can from the community, giving back as little as possible. Real interested and loyal citizens would much prefer that people of that class would pack their grips and move on.

Every new town is built in greater proportions by the harmonious teamwork of its citizenry, and the one who fails to fall into the harness and put his shoulder to the economic burdens of any given municipality is not a true citizen of that locality. He deserves no sympathy, no support, and the sooner his departure is effective the greater the appreciation of all loyal residents.

MORE SCURVY

The Farwell Tribune insists that through spite because it fought the "court house ring" in the election this year, the county officers had a Dallas concern print the Parmer county election tickets rather than let the Tribune, which is the only printing office in the county, do the work. If this is true, no matter how hot the fight the Tribune made on the alleged "ring", it was a scurvy trick, and showed conclusively that Parmer county needs new officials, for officials who send the taxpayer's money away from the county just in order to satisfy their own spite are not the kind of men who should be in public office.—Plainview News.

The tickets for the first primary of Lamb county were printed in Plainview regardless of the fact that the Lamb County Leader had never said a darned word against the administration, yet the Plainview News may look upon this fact in a different light.

MARRYING A FARM

Statistics not only reveal stubborn facts, but sometimes amusing facts as well. For instance, a statistical bureau recently gathered the data regarding farm ownership, and while the figures showed that in many of the western states the major portion of farms were secured through homesteading and in some of the eastern states they were secured through inheritance, they also reveal the interesting fact that in the state of Texas 8.4 of them were secured through marriage. Verily, Cupid seemeth to have a business side to his transactions, also.

THE MAJORITY

A well known scientist recently declared that 96 per cent of the American people were below the normal or accepted standard of intelligence. Whether the scientist was posing as the standard we do not know, but at any rate it gives the most of us an opportunity of satisfaction in the thought that for once we are in the majority, while at the same time we can express our sincere pity for the little four per cent that are burdened with so much intelligence. Really that's the reason we drive a Ford instead of a Packard twin-six.

CHEMICAL ENGINE

Now that the city fathers have ordered a chemical engine for fire fighting purposes, the next step of procedure is the selecting of a corps of firemen to man the apparatus when it arrives.

The Leader believes that there are several of the younger business men of the town who will be glad to volunteer their services in this capacity, and who would be dependable and give excellent service. Now while waiting for the delivery of the fire engine would be an excellent time for organization and practice of the local fire department.

MISTAKES

When the Plumber makes a mistake he charges for it.

When a lawyer makes a mistake it is just what he wanted, because he has a chance to try the case all over again.

When the carpenter makes a mistake it's just as he expected.

When a doctor makes a mistake he buries it.

When a judge makes a mistake it becomes the law of the land.

When a preacher makes a mistake nobody knows the difference.

But when a printer makes a mistake—Good night!

LOCAL P. M., ASKS COOPERATION IN X - M A S MAILING

Once a year, as regular as Christmas rolls around the U. S. postal authorities urge the buying and mailing public to cooperate with them in the handling of Christmas packages. This year the call is coming a bit earlier than usual but none to early for people to begin thinking and planning for prompt deliveries.

While human nature is the same the world over, and it is the tendency of nearly everyone to put off their mailing of Christmas packages until the very latest hour, yet it should be remembered that the Littlefield postoffice is already in a terribly congested state, and any added burden to Postmaster Wade and his corps of assistants, would not only work a further hardship, but must necessarily result in delays of deliveries at the point of destination.

Postmaster Wade calls attention to the fact that some simple slogan; such as, 'Don't open until Christmas, may be written on early mailed packages, and the Christmas spirit still carried out by mailing early. He further urges the careful wrapping of all packages, writing the address plainly, not forgetting to give complete address, including street, number, post office box, or marking it "general delivery," as the case may be. It will also confer a great favor on the local office if packages are mailed in the afternoons instead of the mornings, as the force is fully occupied in the mornings with the incoming and outgoing mails of the day.

SPRING LAKE

A large number of our young folks attended the box supper at Sunny-side Saturday evening and report a very enjoyable time.

Our Endeavor meetings are still well attended and a good program always rendered. These meetings are of great benefit to our young people, so let's keep them going even though the nights are cold and it is more pleasant to sit by the fire.

The farmers of our community are very busy picking and ginning their cotton. It isn't turning out near so good as we had hoped for.

Among those attending court at Olton last week were Mr. Dean, Cecil Johnson, M. E. Clenvinger, John Gehres, Sam Jones and A. C. Barton.

Mr. E. F. Hewitt had a fine day for his sale last Friday. A very good crowd was present. The Ladies Aid served the lunch, consisting of sandwiches, coffee and pie. We are very sorry to have this family leave us. They are moving to Plainview so as to be able to educate their children and at the same time keep them at home. Spring Lake needs a good high school, and if we want the right kind of citizens to settle here we must have one. A good school is a good drawing card for any community.

Relatives from Kansas visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Gehres last week.

Thanksgiving was observed in Spring Lake with an all day program. Services began promptly at 11 o'clock. A short program of singing and sermon was preached by Bro. Britain of Plainview. Free dinner at 1 o'clock. Three basketball games were played on the school grounds. The Juniors, the Seniors, and the girls' team each played a game. The ladies of the church had a fancy work sale. Then there was a "Better Baby" contest, ages 6 months to 2 years. Cash prizes were given. First prize $2.50 second $1.50 and third $1.00.

A meeting for organizing a Community Council was called on last Thursday evening by our teachers. A good program will be given once a week which we proceeded to the business of organization. The following officers were elected: President, Mr. Martin; vice-president, Mrs. A. Bales, secretary and treasurer, Mrs. J. L. Hinson; Miss Hembree, chairman of program committee. A committee of three, Mr. Gatlin, Mrs. Martin and J. L. Hinson, was appointed to draw up a constitution and by laws. A good program will be given once a month at which time we hope to have some good speakers with us from time to time. We want to make these meetings educational as well as entertaining.

AMHERST NEWS

Under the direction of the local Chamber of Commerce, a thorough canvass of the city is to be made and a census of the local population taken, the work beginning today.

Special effort will be made to secure the name of every person residing within the city limits, and the cooperation of all citizens in aiding the solicitors is requested. Especially anxious is the chamber to secure the names of all children of scholastic age, as this data will be of great value to the community. It is understood several are not attending school for various reasons, and their names are also desired.

Some persons of this vicinity have been inclined to think because the new school building was not secured this year that it was impossible to have a first class school. But such is not the case by any means. The town is well supplied with ample room for housing the school and manned by a very competent faculty of teachers who are doing the work in a most thorough and satisfactory way.

All Subjects required in each grade are being taught.

The vocal class under the direction of W. V. House, continues to grow with interest. Special attention is given to the young people. He is not only training their voices but is training them to become leaders. Also Mr. House believes that one must begin in the early day to build great characters and the only difficulty is in getting them to make the start.

Each Friday evening duets and quartets are arranged by the juniors and seniors, and each one readily responds to their number.

One of the most enjoyable numbers of the last meeting was a duet by Ho and Joyce Banks with Ethel Linn at the piano.

I. W. Prentice, train master for the Santa Fe System was in Amherst last week and remarked that the developments were almost unreasonable since he was here a few weeks ago.

He further stated that Amherst was the talk everywhere he goes and according to his judgement, it is destined to become one of the leading cities of the South Plains.

While he was visiting at the station five immigrant cars rolled in and this was not an uncommon occurrence, for each day new settlers arrive, many of whom bought land too late to get it in cultivation this year.

The Ford truck belonging to the Home Oil Co., was completely burned Saturday morning when Walter Lile, the driver was called to the country to carry some gas to a tractor.

He drew a can of gas from the big tank and stumbled, spilling the gas which ran under the truck. The motor of the tractor was left running and the sparks ignited the gas tank, causing it to explode, throwing fire under the truck, which caught fire and was completely burned.

Notwithstanding crops were somewhat damaged by the worms, and much of them were late, on account of the new settlers arriving on their land late in the season, the cotton is now coming in rapidly and the local gin is running night and day to keep up with the custom.

As the Advocate goes to press, it is reported that 1000 bales have been ginned here. The crop is not more than half out, and there will also be a large amount of bolls to be gathered from the late planting.

Work began last week on a nice five room cottage belonging to Jewel Whitsett. He is a young man in the employ of the Whaley Lumber Co., here.

Bruce Pierce has sold the Ever Ready Service Station to W. E. Summitt, of Antlers, Okla.

Mr. Summitt and family have arrived and taken possession.

Amherst has telephone connections over the town. The switch board has been installed and is in charge of Mrs. Joe Williams of Memphis, Texas.

W. H. Collins has sold the Amherst Cafe to R. H. Mitchell of Rush Springs, Oklahoma.

JOHN KLING, V-President M. R. WEAVER, Sec'y-Treas.

The Home Mutual Aid Association is a local organization, and by becoming a member of it you are helping both your neighbor and yourself in many ways.

FIRST: You are keeping your money at home, thereby having a chance to get some of it back.

SECOND: You are getting insurance at cost thus saving many dollars to yourself and family that would otherwise go elsewhere.

THIRD: You are dealing with people who know the insurance business and are in no other business.

The cost is very low—get in now while you can—your neighbors are joining, why not you?

This organization, besides being a home institution embodies beneficial features in its policy offered by no other insurance organization of similar nature. Our representatives will gladly explain to you in detail.

Don't forget the name, and demand to see the literature of the HOME MUTUAL AID ASSOCIATION, of Littlefield.

Has She Found the "Perfect Love?"

What is "Perfect Love"?—The nation is watching the former Mrs. A. L. Hall-Quest of Cincinnati-Chicago and Minnesota for the answer. She has gone on record as having found it in Maj. F. W. Hart. Her husband, Professor at Pittsburgh University, listened to her plea for freedom, suppressed his primitive emotions and in asking for divorce attempted to shield the "other man's" name for his wife's sake. Maj. Hart's wife then divorced him, so the "perfect love" might be.

"MA" HAS TO SWEAR SHE "AIN'T FOUGHT NO DUELS" IN OATH

"Ma Ferguson must swear she has never fought a duel before she can become governor of Texas.

Barring rolling pins, the first woman governor must take oath that she has never indulged with deadly weapons in this ancient and manly art of redressing wrongs.

Solemnly, she must swear it before the chief justice of the highest court in the state. And she must say "So Help Me God."

Though this long obsolete method of obtaining satisfaction may be as foreign to her as a suit of armor, it matters not; she must swear by all that is holy not only that she has never duelled (kitchen utensils excepted) but that she has never accepted a challenge or has never acted as a second.

Thus, the echoes of the medieval sword and pistol system of doing up an enemy will reverberate through modern legislative halls on Mrs. Ferguson's inaugural day.

From immemorial time all state officials of Texas, both appointive and elective, have taken an oath that they have never fought a duel. The oath of office is part and parcel of an old law that has come down from the Virginia of colonial days. It is a surviving bit of the great efforts made to stamp out a stubborn vice of older times.

Here is the duelling paragraph of the official oath of office to be drawn up by Fred Connerly, clerk of the supreme court:

"I Miriam A. Ferguson, do solemnly swear that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform the duties incumbent upon me as governor of the state of Texas, according to the best of my skill and ability, agreeably to the constitution and laws of the United States and of this state, and I do further solemnly swear that since the adoption of the constitution of this state, I being a citizen of this state, have not fought a duel with a deadly weapon, within this state or out of it, nor have I acted as a second in carrying a challenge or aided, advised or assisted any person thus offending."

But there is something in "Ma Ferguson's" oath that has a more modern smack. She must also swear that she has not paid for any votes. The paragraph on this reads:

"And I furthermore solemnly swear that I have not, directly or indirectly paid, offered or promised to pay, contributed, nor promised to contribute any money or valuable thing, or promised any public office or employment, as a reward for the giving or withholding a vote at the election at which I was elected. So Help Me God."

Reason Enough

Mother: "I wish you would stay away from that Skinner girl. What do you see about her anyhow?"
Son: "All the other fellows."

In the Home Town Paper

Personal: If Jake Doolittle, who deserted his wife and baby 30 years ago, will return, the baby will knock him for a row of tombstones.

The way to put unity in any community is through cooperation, and the way to take the ice out of a community is through service.

For some reason or other, when a man has tried his hand at a hundred things and fails, people begin to refer to him as "versatile."

Some folks sit up nights with a radio, but we have a linotype operator who sits up nights with the cross word puzzles.

Help keep Littlefield clean!

A PUBLIC SALE

Fortyniner Advertised Plenty to Eat and Drink

The Leader is in receipt of a copy of a public sale notice which occurred in 1849. In reading this notice a few of the old timers will recall to mind the days of their childhood when negroes were chattels and whiskey and brandy were articles of common use in nearly every household. The notice is as follows:

Public Sale
Having sold my farm and am leaving for "Oregon Territory" by ox team, will offer on March 1, 1849, all of my personal property, to-wit:

All ox teams except two teams, Buck and Ben and Tom and Jerry; two milk cows; one gray mare and colt; one pair of oxen and yoke; one baby yoke, two ox carts, one iron plow with wood mold board, 800 feet of popular weather boards, 1,500 ten-foot fence rails, one sixty-gallon soap kettle, eighty-five sugar troughs made of white ash timber, ten gallons of maple syrup, two spinning wheels, thirty pounds of mutton tallow, one large loom made by Jerry Wilson, 300 hoop poles, 100 split hoops, 100 empty barrels, one thirty-two gallon barrel of Johnson-Miller whiskey seven years old, and twenty gallons of apple brandy, one forty-gallon copper still, oak tan leather, one dozen reel hooks, two handle hooks, three sythes and cradles, one dozen wooden pitch forks, one-half interest in tan yard, one powder horn, rifle made by E. N. Miller, forty gallons of soft soap, hams, bacon and lard, forty gallons of sorghum molasses, six head of fox hounds, all soft mouthed except one.

At the same time will sell my six negro slaves—two men, 35 and 50 years old, two boys, mulatto wenches 40 and 30 years old. Will sell all together to same party as will not separate them.

Terms of sale, cash in hand, or note to draw 4 per cent interest with Bob McConnell as security.

LITTLEFIELD BAND MAKING PROGRESS & WINS APPROVAL

After rehearsing regularly for the past month, remarkable progress is being noted in the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce band.

It is the aim of this organization to encourage music in Littlefield and surrounding community. So far all indications point to success in this line. For proof of this fact, during the past month and a half $812.00 worth of high grade band instruments have been placed here with active and expectant active playing members, and it is confidently expected this amount will be tribbled by springtime.

It is the further aim of the band organization to work up a repertoire of high class concert music. It has been the cry for the past few years among the greater musicians of the country that America has gone "jazz crazy," but it is the ambition of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce organization that it may, as an organization, be able to do its "bit" toward blotting jazz out from this part of the country and replacing that bad form of entertainment with good wholesome compositions rendered in a way that will be pleasing to its audience.

Not only is the Littlefield band being favorable received at home, but also abroad its services are being solicited. Lubbock esteemed the ability of the organization to the extent that she came in with a nice remuneration for services rendered by the local band on Armistice Day when the corner stone laying of the Tech College was celebrated. The townsie managers of the new town of Anton came to Littlefield to get their hand music for their opening day Wednesday.

The band has already been able to make sufficient money to purchase for the organization a giant E-flat tuba that retails for $165.00, and it hopes in a short time it will be able to raise sufficient money to purchase uniforms for the entire membership, when Littlefield will then have the pleasure of seeing her band march down the streets in full regalia with a cocky drum major at the front prancing and wielding a big shiny baton to the cadence of really thrilling martial music.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

By Wilma Barber

The magnificent new high school building was occupied by the students of the Littlefield high school last Monday. It is a splendid building, there being no better one on the South Plains. School was opened Monday morning with chapel exercises, which consisted of singing America, Dixie and The Battle Hymn of the Republic, a prayer and a short talk by Rev. Phipps.

The seniors
The high school annual "El Campito," a Spanish word meaning "The Littlefield," is assuming definite form. A student meeting was held last Tuesday for the purpose of nominating the favorites of the high school who will occupy full pages in the annual. It is evident that there will be much competition as a number of candidates were nominated. The votes are to be sold at a penny each. The four divisions are, the most beautiful girl, the most popular girl, the most popular boy and the wisest boy. The first candidate in any division to receive as many as five hundred votes, receives five hundred additional votes.

The Sophomores
Miss Patsey Lively, the Home Economics teacher, returned last Monday from a week's visit in San Antonio on business appertaining to her school work. Her arrival was hailed with great rejoicing by the Home Economics girls.

The school was entertained Monday afternoon by the Jacksonville quartette, who sang a few songs.

How To Be Popular
Boost your country and your business,
Boost the people of your town;
They will think you wise and witty,
And you'll gain a wide renown.

Now's the time to do your boosting,
Do not wait tomorrow's dawn;
In the grave you may be roosting,
And your boosting chances gone.

In the Calaboose
New Arrival: "How long you in for?"
Prisoner: "Two weeks."
New arrival: "Huh—easy fr you. What you gonna do then?"
Prisoner: "Hang."

Then The Fight Started
Becker: Gosh—I had some nightmare last night."
Fetters: "Yes, I was at the movies, too—and saw her."

BEING THANKFUL

By Minnie Lee Kelsey
In the last year we have many things to be thankful for.

For the light of the Moon and Sun and the twinkling of the stars.

And I am thankful I can see all the beauties made by thee.

We are thankful for the Pilgrims who came over sea.

And that they loved their future enough to set us free.

For our country we love so dear.

Our friends and loved ones far and near.

We are thankful for our many friends,

Hope they increase at our journey's end.

And for our food we have in store.

That we have had since the days of yore.

We are thankful for our mother's care.

She has given us through the year.

And our father with boundless love,

We thank thee for all, Oh! Father—above.

200 LOTS SOLD AT ANTON WHEN TOWNSITE OPENED

The new town of Anton, on the Spade ranch, 12 miles east of Littlefield, was formally opened Wednesday in grandiose style.

Notwithstanding the wind was hustling across the prairies at the rate of thirty miles an hour, by 9 o'clock 1000 people had gathered from far and near to participate in the opening.

The Littlefield Chamber of Commerce band, in all its glory was there to lead the big parade which took place promptly at nine o'clock. The gates were thrown open and the cavalcade took possession.

Sixty lots were sold before noon, and after dinner there were 140 more sold, making a total of 200 business and residence lots, and on many of them buildings will be started immediately.

At noon a sumptuous feast, furnished by the townsite representatives, was served by the ladies of the Littlefield churches, each church having a separate booth, designated by outstretched banners. Afternoon entertainment was furnished by the Saxet Quartet, of Fort Worth. There were also several speakers. A much appreciated concert was given by the Littlefield band.

Anton, located as it is between Lubbock and Littlefield, in the heart of as fine a body of land as is to be found anywhere on the South Plains, starts off under the most favorable auspices to become an excellent little city.

The Benefit of Good Roads to our Community.

By Stanley Stripe
Among the things most beneficial to a community, are good roads. To those communities that have nice homes, well improved farms and clean well tilled farm land, there is always found in accordance with good graded highways leading from the vicinity to the leading markets. Thrift in a community, as a whole, may in most cases be denoted by the number of good highways and how they are maintained.

The question may often arise, as to what benefit does the farming community derive from the building of highways? This question may be amply answered when one considers the saving of time, and, therefore, the reaching of one's destination without any thought of delays from bad roads. Considering the question from an economic standpoint one may say that the expense of building good roads, is so large that the profit derived from them is not adequate enough to pay the community for their building them, but this statement is not true, for the saving on their means of locomotion alone will more than pay this initial expense as well as their maintenance in a short time.

The school system of the Plains is principally based on the having of good roads. The transportation of the school children at regular hours depends on the condition of the roads. If they are graded so that the water will drain into the ditches on the other side, the road will be dry enough to travel in a short time after a hard rain.

Good roads are enabling the farming people to live at a greater distance from the railroad and yet carry on their business with a larger profit. They can market their produce by truck, or by the feeding of their grains to livestock and marketed in the form of beef or dairy products.

I believe that the success of the farming people, as well as those living in the cities, largely depends on good roads, for the producer and the consumer is in line to operate on a cooperative basis. Where there are good roads we find the people working more in unison for the welfare of the whole community.
