City Police Route Prowler

Police are endeavoring to locate a man who broke into the Tom Hewitt Chevrolet Company about 8:30 p. m. Saturday. Entrance was gained by breaking a glass on the west side of the building, and turning a latch, and the prowler made his escape by opening a rear door and fleeing between houses in the vicinity.

Police were afraid to shoot on account of the hazard from bullets to residents in their home.

"Pop" Scott Injured When Struck By Hit and Run Driver Monday

"Pop" Scott, about 60, well known Littlefield gardener, was admitted to the Lubbock Memorial Hospital Monday about noon in a serious condition, suffering from injuries received when the horse-drawn mower he was riding about three-fourths of a mile north on Highway 51, was struck by a hit and run car.

Mr. Scott had been cutting weeds along the highway and was enroute back to Littlefield when the accident happened about 10

A. M. According to Deputy Sheriff Randolph of Earth, who investigated the case, officers believe the hit and run driver to be a woman in a maroon colored car, thought to be a Dodge or Plymouth of the 1946 or 1948 make. Officers found a piece of chrome at the scene of the accident, which had apparently been scrapped from the car and lying on the highway, and also a grease retainer apparently off the front axle. Officers also observed some maroon paint rubbed on an old casing that was stretched over the mower wheel.

Mr. Scott was first taken to the Littlefield Hospital, but on the hospital's advice was taken in a Hammans ambulance to the Lubbock Memorial Hospital.

Reports received Wednesday indicated Mr. Scott was in a critical condition.

Officers are investigating.

W. O. W. Defeats Amherst 11-1 And 4-3 In Softball Playoffs

The W. O. W. softball team surprised the boys from Amherst by handing them two stinging defeats in the final playoffs of the Jaycee Softball League. On Monday night they played a double-header and the W. O. W. team won by the score of 11-1 in the first game and 4-3 in the second game.

The biggest surprise of the evening was the appearance on the mound of Cotter of the W. O. W. team. He has seen little action this past season but he showed plenty of control in both games allowing few hits. Carter stood out in the hitting department, getting three hits off Contreras, dependable Amherst hurler.

There is a great deal of enthusiasm around concerning the game next Monday night. Fans are wondering whether Amherst can bounce back and make a series of it.

To Vote August 14 On Marketing Quotas; Two-Thirds Majority Needed

The Nation's wheat farmers will decide in a referendum on Friday, August 14, whether they want marketing quotas—and price supports at 90 per cent of parity—or no quotas and supports at only 50 per cent of parity.

A two-thirds majority in favor of the measure will be required to proclaim marketing quotas. The grower referendum, the only means of authorizing Secretary of Agriculture Benson to proclaim quotas, is required by law this year because the nation's wheat supply exceeds the "normal supply" by more than 20 per cent.

According to the Department of Agriculture, the "normal supply" as determined for this year is 1,155 billion bushels. Actually available for this marketing year, however, is 1,76 billion bushels, the largest supply in the nation's history and more than 50 per cent above the "normal supply."

If the national referendum approves marketing quotas by the required two-thirds majority the results will be:

1. Marketing quotas in effect for all farms with more than 15 acres planted to wheat.
2. Marketing penalties to apply on wheat produced from acres in excess of the farm's allotment.
3. Price supports at 90 per cent of parity (about $2.21 per bushel) for those who stay within their acreage allotments.
4. Generally regulated production with supply closer to market demand.

If the referendum fails to show a two-thirds majority in favor of marketing quotas, the results will be:

1. No marketing quotas, no penalty controls.
2. Acreage allotments continuing in effect. (The controlling legislation provides that wheat acreage allotments are to be established because of emergency situations.)
3. Price supports at 50 per cent of parity (about $1.20 per bushel) for cooperators. Non-cooperators will be entitled to no price supports.

4. Production, continued at high levels, possibly adding to the wheat surplus.

Marketing quotas, if proclaimed, would affect at least 850,000 farms in the U. S., including all those with more than 15 acres in wheat and normal production of 200 bushels or more.

The total U. S. allotment of 62 million acres would serve as a basis for the quotas. This national allotment is apportioned among the states and, in turn, among the counties. Acreage shares are based on the acreage seeded to wheat during the preceding 10 years. There are also adjustments for abnormal weather and acreage trends.

Since the national wheat acreage has been cut 15.5 million acres below the 77.5 million acres seeded to wheat for the 1933 crop, state and county allotments also have dropped sharply.

For instance, the 1934 allotment for Texas, compared with acreage seeded to wheat for 1933 has been cut 622,137 acres—from 5,423,000 to 4,800,863. In Oklahoma the corresponding figures are 6,834,000 down to 5,212,994, and New Mexico's allotment dropped from 633,000 to 499,084 acres.

Information concerning the hours and places for voting in the August 14 referendum may be secured through county PMA committees. Polling places will be established in each county. Any wheat producer who would be affected by marketing quotas—any farmer who plans to put 15 acres or more in wheat for 1934 is eligible to vote in the referendum.

Special meetings will be held for the purpose of discussing the Wheat Referendum in Lamb County in the following places: Littlefield Community Center, Friday, August 7; Earth Community Building, Monday, August 11; and Olton Gymnasium, Tuesday, August 11.

Sixteenth Annual Jungman Family Reunion Held At Cameron July 26

The sixteenth annual Jungman family reunion was held in the Catholic Community Hall in Cameron, Texas, Sunday, July 26.

A most delicious basket dinner was served by the members that reside in that vicinity. After lunch Adolph G. Jungman showed moving pictures taken at the last year's reunion at Munday, Texas, which was very much enjoyed by all. The day was spent by talking over present and past times, telling jokes on one another, and playing 8 handed 48, with two complete sets of dominoes, which provided lots of fun.

At the business meeting it was decided to have a few more pages printed for the Jungman history book, and to bring the history up to date by adding all the names of parties marrying into the family, the babies, and deaths occurring since 1950. The dates are to be given for all.

The following parties were selected to get up this information: Johnnie Fuchs of Buckholts for the Fuchs family; Herbert Jungman for the Jungman family; Walter Jungman for all the members of the family in Knox County, and Adolph Jungman for all the rest of the members. It was agreed that this is to be completed in 60 days.

All the old officers were re-elected by acclamation: Adolph Jungman of Pep, Chairman; Herbert Jungman of Rogers, Vice-Chairman; and Walter Jungman of Munday, Secretary.

Ninety-three members registered at the reunion. From the nine remaining children of the late John Jungman and Ida Jungman, only four were present, namely, Arthur from Knox City, Adolph from Pep, Walter and Herman from Munday. They were accompanied by their wives.

The oldest member attending the reunion was Mrs. Anna Fuchs of near Buckholts, Texas. She is the only surviving sister of the deceased Ida Jungman. She celebrated her 87th birthday last March 30. The next reunion is to be held at Pep the last Thursday in July, 1954.

In the evening lunch was again spread before we adjourned, but it was impossible for us to eat it all, and some had to be taken back home. Those Milam and Bell County folks have splendid prospects for a good crop, and certainly didn't hesitate to provide food for the bunch.

Tuesday, July 28, the writer and his wife Annie, and eight members of from near Cameron motored down to Corpus Christi, where all visited in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. August, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Youngman, and the following day the group enjoyed a fishing trip on the Bay at Corpus Christi, which was quite a thrill to all of them, as this was their first experience of this sort of fishing. The fish seemed to be rather hungry and so provided us with ample fish for several meals. This was a reunion and a fishing trip that will never be forgotten by those who attended.

Gold From Greeting Cards

DAYTON WOOD. She suggests that any woman with a flair for design and spare time on her hands can do the same.

By ADELAIDE KERR, AP Newfeature Writer. Dayton Wood never dreamed that she was starting a card business, when she picked up a drawing pencil that she needed to increase a woman's income. At a time when most people are looking for a new activity, she says. As a result, her greeting cards are now sold by some of New York's smartest shops and are a source of her income. Their characteristic is a kind of elegance and a wide use of animation. Pick up one and you may see a fluffy poodle bearing a birthday cake or gazing at gift-filled Christmas stockings hung at the fireplace. In spite of their zip, Mrs. Wood says there was a time when she considered she could not draw at all. "I studied in some Workers' Compensation Administration classes and kept practicing drawing whatever pictures I found anywhere. Finally I made some Christmas cards and sold them to friends and started me in production. The thing is essential to this profession, and that is a file of ideas. I make drawings in every

TEEN TALK

By VIVIAN BROWN, AP Newfeatures

Every once in a while grown-ups come up with some good ideas. So it is that Harry and David Dinnerstein, hotel managers, offer a guide to young vacationers. They have had excellent opportunity to observe manners and mannerisms of vacationing youths, so way not pass on their findings.

Here goes:

1. On a shore vacation don't spend all your time with one person. Get to know as many people as possible. If you have a canoeing date in the morning, it doesn't mean that you are tied down to that date for the day.

2. Dress according to the dictates of your vacation resort.

3. Join in the activities that are available at the resort. Besides having fun you will be able to make new friends.

4. If you are on a diet, don't let a vacation upset your plans. Pass up the gooey piece of cake even if your American plan hotel rate pays for it. You'll feel better in the long run when the scale shows a lost pound.

5. If you are sharing a room with a friend, don't spend all your leisure time in the shower or tub. Give her the benefit of her room investment.

6. Try not to be a hotel clown. Most resort hotels offer entertainment so it is not up to the guests to race around lobbies, swimming area or dining rooms enertaining other guests.

7. Select a hotel you can afford. Many girls save up a year's earnings for an expensive vacation trip in hopes of luring a man into matrimony. Usually they have such an investment at stake that they can't even enjoy the vacation, much less catch a man.

8. If your roommate finds a beau sooner than you do, observe the amenities. Don't try to snatch him from her just because the pickings are slim. If he was more attracted to you, he'd show it.

9. If you are asked to dance, do not refuse just because he's too tall or too short. The man isn't asking you to marry him. He just wants to have fun. And don't ask: is this a rhumba, waltz, tango, etc. just try to follow him.

10. Go away with the idea of having a good time. Forget about catching a man. And perhaps if you are not quite so desperate about it, the only man-in-the-world might stumble across your path.

The Dinnersteins operate the Stevensville Lake Hotel, Swan Lake, N. Y., and the Nautilus, Miami Beach, Fla.

Beauty and Efficiency Feature New Jack Davidson Home

Thrilling Example Of Small Home Building

By MORLEY B. DRAKE
One of Littlefield's attractive small homes is the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davidson, 1007 West Ninth street, into which they moved recently.

Four rooms and bath with attached garage, the New Davidson home occupies a setting of African Bermuda grass, dahlias, zinnias and marigolds. The exterior, though plain in construction, suggests a pleasing interior... an invitation to enter and enjoy those comforts which are truly home.

The exterior is of wide white siding with dark green trim and composition green roof. Twenty-eight by twenty-eight overall, the home offers a compact arrangement of the greater portion of their furniture from Rodgers Furniture, of which Earl Rodgers is owner and manager.

Good taste with a deep appreciation of color harmony is evident throughout the home, and is a tribute to the expert selection of Mr. and Mrs. Davidson.

Venetian blinds throughout the home accentuate the feeling of cool comfort, which has its foundation in the selection of colors used throughout the room, each color appearing to compliment another or several colors.

Green walls form a background for light colored curtains, leather upholstered furniture in a light shade, and the several touches of red in room appointments.

A large mirror and a picture, the gifts at a housewarming given by the Church of the Nazarene, in which Mr. and Mrs. Davis have been outstanding workers for many years, occupy a warm spot in the hearts of the Davidsons.

No home can have too many closets and no closet can be too large. Plenty of closet space in the Davidson home contributes liberally to a lovely home.

A LION OR TWO

The Tail Twister says that it's probably even later than the fellow who says it's later than you think it is.

A salesman was berating his salesmen for not making more calls on customers, saying that from now on he wanted each salesman to report at the end of the day the number of calls made. The first salesman to report said he had made 38 calls. "Very good," said the salesman. "I don't think so," said the salesman. "I could have done better but some nosey individual stopped me to ask what I was selling."

Lion Paul Pharris recently answered a S. O. S. call from the local Jaycees. He flew to Gainesville, Texas to bring 11 year old Johnnie Wells home from the Jaycee Diabetic Camp. We think the Jaycees really have a worthwhile project in that camp.

Chlordane is more effective against cockroaches or waterbugs. We recommend using a small amount of 2 percent chlordane on the baseboard behind and under the sink or refrigerator and other places where these insects run. We caution against using this insecticide where food or cooking utensils will be in contact with it. Cleaning the floors, rugs and upholstered furniture by vacuum is advised to pick up lint, bits of fur, hair or feathers on which insects may live and also any larvae or eggs of insects which may be in the house. Protect rugs by spraying with a DDT spray and use the same material on the baseboards and other places where insects may hide.

If pets are allowed in the house, the cleaning and spraying will take care of the fleas which may hatch from eggs previously dropped from the family cat or dog.

And finally it is just good housekeeping to do these jobs before leaving on the vacation.

FLY CONTROL
This is fly time in Lamb County. Flies breed in filth and spread disease and organisms and the eggs of internal parasites.

Spraying for flies is good but the elimination of breeding places is a sure kill. You may kill millions of flies by spraying while at the same time millions more may be breeding if such places are not eliminated. Organic matter, such as hay, straw or manure which remains wet for any length of time is a potential breeding place.

We recommend spraying breeding places around the home and barn with a 2-1-2 percent DDT or a 2 percent chlordane solution prepared from the emulsion concentrate. Effective control can be obtained by washing the walls and around doors where flies are likely to enter the house.

DDT is still the best insecticide we have for this control while chlordane is also very effective. There has been talk of flies building an immunity to insecticides where control measures are taken frequently but if there are immune flies we believe they are very few in number.

If you have never had plenty of silage when grass was short or pastures dry, you will appreciate these tips by our dairy specialist, R. E. Burleson, on "How To Have High Quality Silage." Burleson says that any forage that is palatable before putting into the silo, will be palatable when it is made into silage, if the proper methods are used. He suggests cutting the feed at the proper stage of maturity for best results. One important step in making high quality silage is to exclude the air from the silo—to do this cut the forage short, pack firmly and in a trench silo and be sure that the walls and top covering are thoroughly wet. The walls of the silo must be smooth with adequate provisions for drawings at the bottom.

Forage crops low in sugar content can be ensiled by reducing moisture content to 68 percent by the wilting method. However, the wilting method. However, most dairymen prefer to use preservatives such as molasses, grain or dry hay, than to use the wilting method. When properly made, silage is a very satisfactory substitute for green pastures.

Cotton Acreage Measured in Lamb

Ten crews are at work in Lamb County this week measuring cotton acreage for possible acreage allotments on that commodity for the 1954 season.

County PMA officers asserted this week that 30 crews would be employed before the measuring was finished. Sept. 1 has been set for as deadline for completing the measurements, so that crews can immediately begin measuring for wheat acreage, although allotments have already gone on the crop of wheat.

PMA officials appealed to farmers to aid the measuring crews on their farms so the work could be completed as soon as possible.

We're glad to note that our new Chamber of Commerce manager, Jesse Everett, is in town now. We're sure to see great things in our community activity with Jesse and his wife now a part of us. Maybe some of us will have to walk a little faster to keep up with his leadership. We understand that when he left Hillsboro, he was replaced by a retired army general and five other assistants. Don't seem possible that a fellow could be that active, but we'll vouch for that story. The Littlefield Lions stand ready to help in any way possible, Jesse.

Cotton Classing Schools Will Be In Session in County August 12 and 14

Lell O. Buchanan of the Lubbock Cotton Classing office and his staff will hold two one-day cotton classing schools in Lamb County, which is being sponsored by David Eaton, County Agent and Lamb County Farm Bureau.

All farmers are urged to attend one of the schools which will start at 10 A. M.:

August 12, Wednesday, Springlake High School Cafeteria.

August 14, Friday, Littlefield High School Cafeteria.

It is expected that farmers in Lamb County will have many questions in mind relative to cotton classing such as:

1. What causes a two-sided bale?

2. What is a "Dirty," "Oily," "Seedy," "Grassy," "Gin Cut," "Mix Pack," etc.?

3. Why do I get more than one grade and/or staple from a multiple bale?

Farmers will be able to see actual cotton samples, U. S. Government Standard Boxes, and if they desire they will have the opportunity of classing cotton, as there will be plenty of samples.

Some Free Oil Is Recovered At Copeland Well

A small amount of free oil was recovered on a drillstem in the Tubb at the Great Western Drilling Co. and Karl Hoblitzelle No. 1 Archie R. Copeland, 10,500-foot wildcat in north-central Hockley County.

Drillstem test No. 1 was conducted from 6,711-6,866 feet and the tool was left open for 45 minutes. Recovery was 303 feet of drilling mud, 3 gallons of free oil, and 90 feet of slightly gas-cut mud. There was no water.

Open bottom hole flowing pressure was zero and 15 minute shut-in pressure was 325 pounds. Operators then drilled on to total depth 6,916 feet and took drillstem test No. 2 from 6,856-6,916 feet.

The test tool was left open for 30 minutes. Total recovery was 105 feet of drilling mud. There was no water. All pressures were zero. No top has been called on the Tubb and drilling was continuing at 7,102 feet in lime at last report.

Drillsite is 660 feet from south and west lines of Labor 11, League 709, State Capitol Lands Survey, A-241, 3 1/2 miles southwest of Antea.

ARMY MAN

important assistance of his Uncle Siva in solving his problems, working through that somewhat popular channel of Congressman George Mahon and the Congress of the United States.

Marries Belgian Girl When Capt. Doss was stationed in Heidelberg, Germany, with the Criminal Investigation Bureau he met, courted and wed a young lady who was employed as an allied civilian employee of the U. S. Army. Those were happy days. And still more happiness came into their lives with the arrival of a daughter one year ago.

The Army is the Army, and "no man knoweth where he goeth next." Word came one day that Capt. Doss was to report back in the United States, and immediately the chief conversation in the family circle became America, the homeland of Capt. Doss and the promised land of his wife's native of Antwerp, Belgium, and the little lady they fondled and loved.

Wife Denied U. S. Admittance Admittance to the United States for daughter wasn't any problem, her daddy's citizenship automatically admitting her. But for the wife and mother the shadows came. She applied for a visa, and started through that endless detail.

Everything, no doubt, would have gone as smooth as a beautiful day in June, but immigration authorities are exceedingly thorough in their investigation of applicants for admittance to the United States.

Medical reports of the Immigration officers declared that Mrs. Doss had a scar on one of her lungs.

Army doctors say that there is no tuberculosis activity. But the United States Public Health Service states that there has been some change in Mrs. Doss' condition, and that there is, in their opinion, a possibility of tuberculosis activity.

Mrs. Doss has been rejected for a visa pending additional X-rays and examination.

Rolling seas separate Capt. Doss, a graduate of Littlefield schools, and who claims Littlefield as his home, from the woman he loves, and the babe that brought so much happiness into their lives.

Long experienced in investigation work in behalf of his country, Capt. Doss is throwing into his new problem all his training and ingenuity. A problem that goes deeper within him than even life itself.

Exhibiting true Americanism, Doss has served his country well, and in this time of trouble looks steadfastly and hopefully to his Uncle Sam.

And as all Americans he looks to his congressman . . . this time Congressman George Mahon, and through Congressman Mahon to the Congress of the United States.

Something undoubtedly will happen . . . something undoubtedly will be done . . . Capt. Doss will some day . . . in that strong and joys of which those who have the valley, second look out on that full life, rich in

In the meantime B. Doss will serve as officer of military Sill, Oklahoma.

Fall Silhouette to Follow Straight and Narrow Path

By DOROTHY ROE
 Associated Press Fashion Editor

This is the year of the slim-Jim silhouette, of sheath dresses and ruler-straight skirts, of skin-tight midriffs and not a petticoat in sight until after five.

The new fall fashions are designed to conceal no bulges, and a big year is predicted for girdle and bra manufacturers as well as for reducing salons. Princess dresses, which follow every line of the figure, are much in evidence in fall collections, as are the straight and narrow sheaths beloved by all designers this season.

The new clothes have a rounded look above the belt, achieved through dolman sleeves, deep armholes, bodice drapery and curving lines in little capes and boleros.

Fabrics are varied and handsome, with accent on polished woollens instead of the shaggy poodle textures of the last few seasons.

Full-length evening gowns are back with a bang, and an era of elegance is in the works.

Shoulders are wider, but not square or padded. The widest part of the sleeve usually comes below the shoulder line, and is achieved by cut and drape. And skirts are slightly longer than those of last spring.

Panel Holds Slip Cover Over Machine

A PANEL to hold slip covers over an old sewing machine is easy to make from a sheet of pressed hardboard.

AP Newsfeatures

Cover an old sewing machine with a slipcover to modernize its appearance.

First make a panel to fit over the top of the machine. This can be done by using a sheet of hard board, such as tempered-pressed wood, 1/4-inch thick, framed on the underside with 1 by 2-inch strips to which the hardboard is secured with casing-head nails.

Apply a good quality prime coat, fill the nail holes and enamel the surface any color desired.

For the slipcover skirt, fabric equal to twice the distance around three sides of the machine will be needed.

After hemming the top, tack the material to the wooden frame of the panel, leaving deep pleats as desired.

An alternative is to gather the material and stitch it before tacking. The hem should be about a half-inch from the floor.

TEEN TALK

BY WIAN BROWN

AP Newsfeatures Writer
Sometimes Dad is boss when it comes to picking the vacation spot.
So Mom finds herself miles from a beauty parlor, and living in pretly primitive fashion in a back woods camp or remote seashore cottage.

Taking to the woods is a wonderful idea, providing that going back to nature doesn't deprive a girl of feminine glamour. No woman is happy just being a drudge. She wants to look her best when dinner is served and the kids are hustled off to bed. Here are some pointers to remember in connection with that vacation retreat:

1. If you're really roughing it make sure you are supplied with plenty of towels, soap, bath brush and pails for sponge bathing for the family.

2. No matter how strenuous it seems to sponge bathe, a daily bath is vital to your morale. It will refresh you and relieve the discomfort of insect bites.

3. If the vacation retreat doesn't have running water, spread a layer of newspaper on the floor and have two pails of water available —one for soaping and the other for rinsing. Start with the face and work down, washing and drying a small area at a time, so you won't expose large patches of wet skin to chill drafts.

4. Soak your feet in the pail one at a time.

5. A weekly shampoo may be taken as usual with head dunked in a sudsy bucket in bright sunshine. Rinse and pin it up in curls swiftly.

VACATION GLAMOR . . . Be sure to take hand cream to that summer cottage to foil dishpan hands.

6. Don't neglect your hands—an easy thing to do when you are out in the wilds. The Good Grooming Institute says that some detergents and soaps with high alkali content cause roughness and chapping of the hands. But if creamed immediately, perhaps with an acid-fortified cream, after a bout with cleansers this may be avoided. They suggest that you keep a jar handy in the kitchen
as well as on your vanity table and that:

PMA Elections Vital To Farmers

"To PMA county and community committeemen to be elected in August by Texas farmers participating in PMA programs, will fall the important duty of determining farm acreage allotments on any crops for which allotments are in effect in 1954." State PMA Chairman Claude K. McCan said today.

Secretary Benson has already set in motion the preliminary work necessary in preparation for possible acreage allotments and marketing quota programs on 1954 crops of wheat and cotton if such controls should be required for these crops.

Urging all farmers concerned in any PMA programs to get out and vote, Chairman McCan said, "Establishment and supervision of farm acreage allotments when they are in effect is not the only duty of PMA committeemen. Price support loan programs and purchase agreements are locally under their direction. Storage facility loans available to farmers needing additional storage space for grains and seeds on their farm must be approved by the county committee. These loans are intended to supplement regular means of credit to increase grain storage capacity.

Local administration of Crop Insurance, with the exception of loss adjustment, is another program under supervision of county committeemen. They are responsible in cooperation with other Department of Agriculture agencies for supervising Agricultural Conservation Program practices carried out in their community.

Any farmer participating in any PMA program — owner, tenant, sharecropper — is eligible to vote. County office will announce time and place of voting.

REMEMBER . . .

The following was news in the Lamb County Leader of September 6, 1934:

Active steps are underway to have improvements carried out on highways Number 7 and 28 through Lamb County.

A delegation is in Austin, urging the State Highway Department to surface No. 7 through the county and carry out the grading and the drainage work on Highway 28 in the county.

Work is underway at this time on the grading and drainage on No. 23, and the delegation is asking that this project continue.

Littlefield schools will open Monday morning at 9 o'clock for the fall term. The first faculty meeting, according to Supt. Sanders, will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A letter has been received by D. A. Adam, County Agent, from E. N. Holmgren, chairman of the State Corn-Hog Review Board, announcing that Lamb County's corn-hog contracts totaling 526, were forwarded to Washington Tuesday, August 28, for payment. This means that the first corn-hog checks will be received at the County Agent's office about September 18. The corn-hog reduction program will bring to Lamb County farmers approximately $58,000.

Woodrow Gibbs, formerly of the Woodville Optimist, and more recently of the Sudan News, has taken charge of the Amherst Argus as business manager.

E. S. (Slim) Sellers, who has many years of experience in the repairing and servicing of automobiles, is now in charge of the shop of Garland & White Auto Supply.

C. O. Robbins has been appointed manager of the Texas Cotton Growers Gin in this city, succeeding J. T. Elms who resigned.

Mr. Robbins, who has many years of experience in the operation and management of gins, will continue as manager of the Texas Cotton Growers Gin until the end of the year, when he will take over his duties as public weigher of Precinct No. 4, an office to which he was elected at the last election.

Jane Whicker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whicker, was unfortunately enough to fall on a rock and painfully cut her knee Wednesday. The cuts were reported clear to the bone, and of a zizzzag nature, making the injury most severe. She received treatment from a local physician.

Farmers from all over the State will gather in Littlefield for a state-wide meeting of the Texas Farm Holiday Association, Saturday, September 8, according to C. W. (Jack) Galle, president of the Lamb County association, and district secretary.

Johnny O'ford, formerly connected with the Griffith circuit at Corsic, which operates three theatres in that city, has joined the Chesler organization in the capacity of publicity and advertising

Health Talks

Prepared by the State Medical Association of Texas

The first twenty-four hours of life are the most dangerous. Thirty per cent of all deaths in the first year, known to be the most hazardous, occur during this period.

Second only to premature birth as a cause of infant deaths is congenital deformity, that is an abnormal condition with which the baby is born. In the last ten years or so, surgical techniques to correct many of these deformities have been developed, and doctors have learned that the earlier the operation is performed in most such instances, the better the results.

Some examples of these life-taking conditions are an absence of openings (atresia) normally found along the food tube, a narrowing (stenosis) of the tube at various points, or an abnormal opening (fistula) between the food tube and windpipe. Still another is "upside-down stomach," or medically speaking, "diaphragmatic hernia."

When the operation is not an extreme emergency, a waiting period is used to get the baby in good shape for surgery. He is given blood transfusions or injections of large amounts of fluids containing nutritional substances. X-ray studies are made to let the surgeon know the exact surgical problem that he faces, and he may call in consultants to view with special instruments different body structures such as the food tube or windpipe. The anesthetist, the doctor who will put the baby to sleep for the operation, with the surgeon's advice decides upon the method of anesthesia which will be safest for the baby yet easiest for surgeon. For infants and children smaller surgical instruments and material for sewing up wounds (sutures) are Miss Inez Kennedy of Olton became the bride of William Yates, also of that city, at an early morning ceremony Thursday, August 30, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Kennedy, Rev. D. D. Deason officiating, with the impressive ring ceremony.

The bride wore a midnight blue frock with matching accessories and carried a bouquet of roses.

The ceremony was witnessed by only the immediate family of the bride, which included her maternal grandmother, Mrs. McGee of Dallas, who had been spending the summer here.

The young couple left immediately for a short honeymoon trip to Carlsbad, N. M. They returned to Olton Monday and are at home at the Rogers place southeast of the courthouse.

Miss Emma Ruth Jones, formerly of Littlefield, has recently accepted the position of teacher of English in Draughan's Business College at Lubbock.

available. The surgeon, who is expert in working in a more confined area with smaller body structures, operates quickly and gently.

Another branch of surgery in which remarkable life-saving gains have been made is the field of breast cancer. Until the development about fifty years ago of radical mastectomy, the operation which removes not only the breast but also underlying and nearby structures involved or portions of the disease could be predicted.

Much of the credit for the fewer cases of advanced cancer of the breast that are seen by doctors today is due to the fact that most women are becoming more cancer-conscious. When they notice a suspicious lump or sore, they report earlier for examination. Many times the signs do not point to cancer, but their keen observation is rewarded either by the assurance that cancer is not present or by measures taken to prevent its serious effects.

If the doctor is doubtful whether cancer is present, he takes a piece of tissue from the suspicious lump in the breast to be studied under the microscope. Often, he does not let the patient leave the operating room before finding out the results of the examination. If positive for cancer, he removes the breast and often (depending upon the nature of growth) deeper tissues such as the muscle under the breast and the lymph glands in the armpit in addition. If much skin is removed, he sometimes is able to use a skin graft to cover the area operated upon. Later, when healing is complete, a breast form similar to the remaining breast can be fitted to make the deformity unnoticeable.

Make Do

A DISCARDED section of a picket fence makes a fine ramp for beaching a rowboat on a rock-covered shore where boats are in danger of damage. Picket points can be quickly sawed off and ramp can be anchored with stakes.

KNOW YOUR INDORSERS

"Let's see the check," said Joe, the service station operator. The stranger handed him a check made out to Ray Gar, for $68.10 and signed John Jones.

"Sure, I know John Jones," said Joe. "Do business with him all the time—good as gold. I'll be glad to cash it for you. Just scribble your name on it."

Two weeks later the bank returned the check. The stranger who had signed the name "Ray Gar" on the back of the check was not Ray Gar. Joe had failed to identify the indorser of the check, and had no idea where the stranger could be found. As a result, he was out one tire and $38.10.

The next week a taxi driver friend, Ray Fenders, came in, ordered $3.00 worth of gas, and handed Joe a $50.00 check payable to Pete Smith, and signed, "Miller Aluminum Company, Inc., James P. Pope, president." On the back, across the top, were the signatures: "Pete Smith, Rex Fenders." Having completely forgotten his recent unfortunate experience, Joe shelled out $47.00 change. The check turned out to be worthless, there being no Miller Aluminum Company, Inc., in existence.

But this time, Joe was protected. He collected the $50 back from Rex Fenders.

An ordinary check, legally known as one form of negotiable instrument, is merely an order by its signer to the bank upon which it is drawn, to pay the specified amount to the person named on the check, or to the order of that person. The bank must pay only as directed by the signer of the check, or stand the loss itself.

What is meant when it is said that a check is a "negotiable instrument?" The ordinary check—that is, one payable to a designated person or order, or bearer—is negotiable, and by that is meant that any good faith or bona fide holder for value takes the check free from any defenses that may exist against it in the hands of the named payee.

When is the holder of a check an "innocent, good faith, or bona fide" holder? When anyone receives a check from a person other than the drawer of such check, for value and without knowledge of any defenses which such drawer may have against the payee named in the check, he is said to be an innocent, good faith or bona fide holder.

For instance, if the drawer should find, after delivering the check, that the consideration received by him had been misrepresented to him, this would be a good defense against payment of the check in the hands of the payee, but a third party receiving this defense would be an innocent, good faith or bona fide holder.

Anyone who indorses a check thereby warrants the check is good and that all signatures thereon are genuine. Where it turns out that a check is worthless, or where the signature of the maker or one of the indorsers has been forged, the person holding the check may collect back the amount of the check from the last indorser. But obviously, if the holder doesn't know the last indorser, or where he is, his chances of collecting are very poor.

Know your indorser.

In Memory of The Late Henry L. George

In childhood we learn, that life on earth is but a span. Mr. Leonard L. George has made his departure to a better land. He joined the Baptist Church to accept Christ's Love. Now, he is prepared to live in his Saviour's Mansion above. Mr. George traveled the pathway of life, seventy years and one. He gave to the world two sons and two wonderful grandsons Who survive and misses him, along with a devoted wife. Other relatives, and many, many friends he made in life. Like many of us, Mr. George was not destined to world fame. Yet his humor and good nature is known to all who knew his name. Mr. Leonard George is at rest. His life journey is o'er, Yet his kind words and good deeds will be remembered forever more. God knoweth best, though in sorrow it may seem hard to realize. Oft-times the things that hurt us most, are blessings in disguise. The Lord giveth life, and the Lord taketh life away. Though, with Christ's Love, we will meet again Resurrection Day. SQUIRE EDGE GATE—A Powerful Argument

Mary Has a Little Persian Lamb . . .

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Fashion Editor

Smart women have learned long since that it's wise to start your fur coat hunting early. And the shops are well primed to assist in this project.

Right about now you'll find the largest selection of furs available at any time during the year, in all price brackets, and often at substantial savings during the traditional August fur sales.

No matter what your budget, you should be able to find the fur coat of your dreams this season. From mink to muskrat and from chinchilla to rabbit, they're well-styled, flattering and varied.

Increasingly popular among the medium-budget fur shoppers is Persian lamb, now being done in youthful styles, in gray, brown or black. The Persian jacket is a hit of the season, as are smaller Persian accessories such as the lei, a loop of fur which can be worn about the shoulders or twisted into a figure-eight under one arm.

And if you can't afford a mink coat, you can get a mink stole, or even a little mink collar for your unbuttoned coat or suit.

ACCENT ON YOUTH . . . Here are two versions of the youthful jacket in Persian lamb—polished black, as pictured at left, with small notched sealskin collar, straight cuffed sleeves and slit pockets; or—lustrous gray, as in the year-rounder jacket at PERSIAN LEI . . . New trick in fur accessories, for day or evening, worn around shoulders or twisted in figure-eight as shown.

Only one player ever was the captain of more than one Michigan State football team. Bob (Buck) McCarry was the field leader in 1946, 1947 and 1948.

Ted Williams, Boston Red Sox outfielder who recently returned from the firing line in Korea, has a lifetime All-Star batting average of .407.

This demonstration showed me the way to a better deal!

I'd been planning to buy a higher-priced car until I found out all Chevrolet offered— and how much I could save!

You get more power on less gas

That's because Chevrolet's two great valve-in-head engines are high-compression engines. In Powerglide* models, you get the most powerful engine in Chevrolet's field—the new 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame." Gear-shift models offer the advanced 108-h.p. "Thrift-King" engine.

And it's the lowest-priced line

A demonstration will show you that Chevrolet offers just about everything you could want. Yet it's the lowest-priced line in the low-price field.

*Combination of Powerglide automatic transmission and 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine optional on "Two-Ten" and Bel Air models at extra cost.

You get greater getaway with the new Powerglide*

A lot finer performance on a lot less gas. That's what you get with the new Powerglide automatic transmission. There's no more advanced automatic transmission at any price.

You're "sitting pretty" behind the wheel

Take this Bel Air model. First thing you'll notice is the quality of the interior. Rich-looking appointments. Roomy seats with foam rubber cushions. Turn the key to start the engine and you're ready to go.

You can see all around

You look out and down through a wide, curved, one-piece windshield. The panoramic rear window and big side windows provide a clear view in all directions.

Biggest brakes for smoother, easier stops

An easy nudge on the pedal brings smooth, positive response—right now! Chevrolet's improved brakes are the largest in the low-price field.

It's heavier for better roadability

You're in for a pleasant surprise at the smooth, steady, big-car ride of this new Chevrolet. One reason is that, model for model, Chevrolet will weigh up to 200 pounds more than the other low-priced cars.

Let us demonstrate all the advantages of buying a Chevrolet now!

Revival Underway At Mexican Mission

A revival is in progress at the First Baptist Church Mexican Mission at Olton. Speaker is Rev. Eliseo Rios of Levelland. Pastor of the Mission is Rev. Dean Godsey. Services begin each evening at 8:00 o'clock.

Seriously Injured In Freak Accident

Herbert Hatley of Olton was seriously injured, Sunday night, July 26 in a freak accident near the roadside park east of Olton.

A car operated by Darrell Bush of Plainview became stuck in a ditch near the park. Hatley entered the Bush vehicle by means of a chain attached to the Bush car and the Hatley car.

Hatley was under his car taking the chain loose. "Holler when you're done," Bush told Hatley.

Hatley said someone nearby yelled and Bush started to drive away. Hatley's hand was caught between the chain and the frame of his car and crushed. A wheel of the car passed over Hatley's shoulder.

Bush brought Hatley to Olton Memorial Hospital where he was under treatment.

MONEY BAGS FOUND IN DITCH

Olton figured in a $5,700 burglary of White's Super Market in Plainview. The burglary took place early Sunday morning of last week.

Money bags taken in Plainview's biggest safe-cracking were discarded about a mile east of Olton near the roadside park.

A Clovis, New Mexico merchant on his way to Plainview with his family found the money sacks in a ditch.

The contest was staged among dealers in 22 towns in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Kansas. Mr. Cates was awarded a Detroit Jewel range.

Mr. Cates has operated his present store about a year. Prior to that time he had operated a hotel in Pagosa Springs, Colorado.

Before moving to Pagosa Springs, Mr. Cates operated a grocery store in Olton.

Leonard L. George, 71 years old, of Olton, died last week in a Littlefield hospital.

Mr. George had lived in Lamb County for the past 23 years. He moved here from Vernon.

Mr. George was born March 3, 1882 in Dallas County. At the time of his death he was a member of Olton First Baptist Church.

Lions Club Carnival Gets Off To Good Start

The annual Olton Lions Club carnival was off to a roaring start Monday night of last week.

Better crowds attended the opening night than in previous years.

There were games and rides for both children and adults.

Of particular interest to the youngsters were the airplane rides. The airplanes were equipped with nose and tail guns, so youngsters usually ride in pairs.

The carnival will be open through last Saturday night.

Also of interest was the ducking board where many of the town's most prominent citizens got thoroughly soaked. Among those in prospect to ride the dunking board were Coach Joe Turner, Agriculture Instructor Cleveland and Head and Mayor Lefty Hollingsworth.

REVIVAL MEETING IS UNDERWAY

A revival meeting began Tuesday, July 28 at Northside Church of Christ with Frank Poyner of Lubbock as the evangelist. It will continue through August 6.

Services begin at 8:15 o'clock each evening.

YOUTH IS BETTER

J. P. Natzger, who was seriously injured several weeks ago, and has been a patient in a Dallas hospital for special treatment, was brought home Sunday of last week.

His condition is reported much improved. He is sitting up at times now, and takes his meals at the table with the family.

Regulations Changed; Texas Local Boards May Draft Fathers August 25

State Selective Service headquarters Monday received official regulations which will enable Texas local boards to draft fathers on August 25 and thereafter.

This change in regulations is authorized by the recent executive order of President Eisenhower on the subject, Brigadier Paul L. Wakefield, state Selective Service director, said.

Only two paragraphs of dependency regulations have been revised, General Wakefield said. He quoted Section 1622.30(a) of the Selective Service Regulations as follows:

"In Class 3-A shall be placed any registrant who prior to August 25, 1953, has submitted evidence to the local board which establishes to the satisfaction of the local board that he has a child or children with whom he maintains a bona fide family relationship in their home. Such a registrant shall remain eligible for Class 3-A so long as he maintains a bona fide family relationship with such child or children in their home."

General Wakefield stressed that any draft-age man who has a child or children before August 25 and does not notify or submit evidence to the local board before that date, he is and will remain eligible for draft.

The state director of Selective Service quoted the remaining pertinent paragraph applicable to the change in regulations:

"No registrant shall be placed in Class 3-A under paragraph (a) of this section because he has a child which is not yet born prior to August 25, 1953, and prior to the time the local board mails him an order to report for induction which is not subsequently cancelled for a reason not related to the filing of the certificate hereinafter mentioned, there is filed with the local board the certificate of a licensed physician stating that the child has been conceived, the probable date of its delivery, and evidence upon which his positive diagnosis of pregnancy is based."

"This means that any draft-age man who does not so report pregnancy of his wife until August 25 or thereafter will be subject to draft," General Wakefield commented.

Texas local boards received copies of this change in regulations at the same time state headquarters did.

General Wakefield saw two effects produced by the new regulation:

1. Draft boards could now defer men for other reasons without fear of their marrying and having children and thus avoiding induction.

2. The number of men under 20 years old being inducted would be reduced to some extent.

TIMELY TIPS ON LIVESTOCK FEEDING

Efficiency is Vital in Cattle Raising Now

"Cattlemen need to increase the efficiency of their operations now to make a profit and avoid serious losses. The use of proper protein supplementation is one of the most important factors in increasing efficiency," advises Dr. T. J. Cunha, widely known livestock authority at the University of Florida.

Cattle specialists at Colorado A. & M. College offer these suggestions for making cattle production more profitable:

"Supplement matured grass with protein, especially in the winter time and in dry periods of the late summer and fall.

"Keep salt available at all times and other minerals if needed.

"Provide water near grazing area.

"Plan a sequence of pastures in order to have good quality forage available for as much of the year as possible.

"Use grain to supplement pasture for fattening to marketable condition."

Drouth Stricken Cattle Need Vitamin A

Cattle on green grazing get enough vitamin A and store a sufficient reserve to last a few months. When green grazing has not been available for 60 to 90 days, supplemental vitamin A should be provided. The most economical and practical method of supplying supplemental vitamin A is to feed 7 to 10 pounds of good quality hay (having green color) twice weekly.

Ample Roughage is Important
Adequate bulk is needed in rations fed cattle and sheep. It usually increases economy and efficiency and helps prevent digestive disturbances. Cottonseed hulls are an economical source of roughage and are especially desirable to mix with concentrates and to help prevent bloat or scours. A part of the roughage rations should come from good quality hay for supplemental vitamin A if cattle have been off green grazing longer than 60 to 90 days.

Feed Pulleta Liberally
Restricted feeding of pulletta this summer will prove costly, warns Rollin Thayer, Oklahoma A. M. College poultry nutritionist. He says, "From an economic standpoint we cannot afford this practice. If restricted feeding is practiced the pulletta will be underweight, they will come into production four to six weeks later than normal and they will be nutritionally unprepared to sustain heavy production over a long period of time."

Feed Enough Cottonseed Meal
Use of too much ground alfalfa hay in the dairy concentrate to "stretch" the protein is not to be recommended as a general practice, Oklahoma Agricultural Experiment Station dairymen have concluded after a series of feeding trials. High protein concentrates add efficiency and economy to protein deficient rations.

Creep Feeding Beef Calves

"Beef producers can put extra pounds on their calves—faster and more efficiently—by creep feeding," says Texas Extension livestock specialist U. D. Thompson. He points out that cows have had a pretty rough time during the drouth and that calves were weak at birth. Creep feeding will help overcome this disadvantage by weaning. Thompson advises that oats be used to start creep feeding.

The older calves should have a mixture of about 600 to 700 pounds of coarsely ground grain and 100 pounds of cottonseed meal.
