Snowdy!

You may be pleased to know that henceforth your Littlefield newspapers are banning cigarette advertisements, those glass-type creations of Madison Avenue which suggest that cigarette smoking will make you wealthier and perhaps most likely and economically successful.

Surgeon General Terry concurred. Cigarettes can make you dead. We are sorry that this banning idea did not originate in our editorial cubicle.

We are joining a growing band of marchers in the cause of right. The National Association of Broadcasters recently laid down their own law on cigarette advertising in these ringing words: "Care should be exercised so that cigarette smoking will not be depicted in a manner to impress the youth of our country as a desirable habit worth of imitation."

There you are. If that firm hand doesn't take those healthy C-smoking parachute jumpers off your television screen, well nothing will.

We have framed our own ban, one with teeth, that we expect to be adopted by non-metropolitan newspapers from here to Paducah, at least, with the possible exception of The Floydada Hesperian operated by our predecessor Wendell Coley. Tooley got a cigarette ad a year or so back and may be more judicious.

Our code is to measure carefully and ad we receive dedicated wholly to selling cigarettes, then mail it back. In the space that ad would have occupied we will print this message which has been framed by the Federal Trade Commission, and which they have proposed to be printed on cigarette packs.

CAUTION: CIGARETTE SMOKING IS A HEALTH HAZARD. The Surgeon General's Advisory Committee on Smoking and Health has found that cigarette smoking contributes substantially to mortality from certain specific diseases and the all-over death rate.

If you see this clear warning in a large type one day on our pages you will know that as a public service we have mailed back one of those glossy advertising cigarettes, and are using that space and income to warn you and yours. We modestly hold this to be an unselfish act befitting our unselfish newspapers, the Leader and the News.

Also, before somebody reminds us, we have not received a cigarette ad for three years.

17 Years For Spade Robbery

An Olton man, Raymond Torres Delgado, 28, got 17 years in prison here Monday on a plea of guilty to an armed robbery at Spade last September 29.

District Judge Pat Boone heard Delgado's plea and sentenced him in the opening case of a criminal session of 154th district court, that opened here Monday.

Delgado took $890 at pistol point from John Boyles, Spade grocer, the night of September 29, and was captured by sheriff's officers at Olton about four hours later. The money was not found on him when arrested.

Industrial Meet Friday

Littlefield Industrial Corporation will hold a special stockholders meeting Friday at 4 p.m. in the county courtroom.

The 90 stockholders of the $125,000 corporation will hold a first-year review of the operations, according to LIG President J.C. Hilburn.

Stockholders were notified of the meeting in a letter from Hilburn last week. Stated purpose of the meeting is to "discuss the matter of liquidation of the assets of the corporation, and other matters that may be brought up."

The industrial corporation was set up almost a year ago with its $125,000 capital to procure buildings or building sites for industries interested in locating in the Littlefield area.

Half of its capital came from the Littlefield Development Corporation, which was being inactivated, and half of it was subscribed by other stockholders. No expenditure of funds has been made to date by the corporation.

WILL YOU BE MY VALENTINE?—Sharla Grant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Tom Grant, seems real interested in this Valentine centerpiece in Mrs. Grace Smith's 1st-grade room at Littlefield primary school. Bodie Lyman, son of Mr.

and Mrs. Bill Lyman, doesn't have that "dreamy" look in his eyes, but you can be sure the day will come when hearts and flowers have a more significant meaning.

DILLONS BUY WILLSON-CRUMP City Firm Sells

A major Littlefield business transaction was announced this week in the sale of the Willson-Crump Lumber Company to Bert and Joe Dillon of Littlefield, owners of the Dillon Lumber Company here.

Sale was made by Jim Crump of Littlefield and Jim Willson, Jr., of Floydada. It was effective last weekend. The Willson-Crump business had operated here for 16 years.

The name of the business is being changed to Littlefield Hardware, said Bert Dillon, who will operate it. "We'll continue the same building materials and hardware business, with the same quality lines," Dillon said. "We will enlarge the hardware section as indicated in the name change."

Joe and Bert Dillon are a father-son combination who operate an extensive construction business with their lumber company.

The present Dillon Lumber company will continue to operate as it has, and will be managed by Joe Dillon, the Dillons said.

An extensive restocking of the sizeable plant, tools and hardware section of the company is underway now, said Bert Dillon. He plans to add small appliances and carpet lines, he added.

"We'll maintain our old established lines, and will add several more to make a complete home buildings and equipment center," he emphasized.

Farm Labor Day Slated

A Farm Labor Day meeting is scheduled Friday from 8 a.m. to noon at the Texas Employment Commission office at 104 E. 5th St. in Littlefield.

Purpose of Farm Labor Day, held each Friday morning, is to bring together farm employers and employees. Farmers seeking hands, and men interested in farm jobs are urged to attend the meeting.

There is no charge to either the farmer or the farm hand. The TEC helps to negotiate labor agreements between the parties. Joe Pat Hart, farm labor coordinator, reported that a number of hands are now seeking jobs.

He would also like to contact hands interested in weeding and thinning sugar beets about April 1-15. The wage rate is set by the USDA and guarantees $1.05 per hour.

Weather permitting, men will be needed to set onions around the first of March, Hart added.

Co-Op President Receives Award

Roy E. McQuatters of Littlefield was presented the distinguished service award for outstanding service in farm cooperative work at the 12th annual joint meeting of the Texas Federation of Cooperatives, Houston Bank for Cooperatives and Texas Cooperatives Ginners Association, Tuesday in Houston.

McQuatters is president of Littlefield Farmer's Co-Op Gin.

A Wichita Falls stock promoter got a $3,000 fine and five years in prison here Tuesday from a district court jury for a stock proposal that he offered to several Lamb County people, who in turn worked with officers in tripping him up.

James Winston Sharp, 57, was found guilty after a two-day court trial on charges that he offered for sale stock in a Texas corporation that had not been registered for sale of stock with the Securities Commission of Texas. Sharp also was not registered as a stock salesman with the Securities Commission, a commission agent testified in the trial.

The charge grew out of an offer of $5,100 in stock in a company styled Central Equity Corporation to J.T. Brittain of Littlefield, who was one of several persons approached on a proposal to set up a "holding company" to finance nursing homes in West Texas.

Sharp was a "white collar crook committing a white collar crime," District Attorney Jack Young charged in the trial of the graying, distinguished appearing promoter, who did not testify in his own defense.

The Central Equity Corporation had a stronger tie with the Lamb area trial testimony showed. Donald Cox of Bula, a prominent young farmer, originally was made president of the corporation but withdrew after a week and worked with officers in a plan that led to Sharp's arrest.

Brittain and Cox were principal witnesses in the trial. Cox spent almost seven hours on the witness stand, much of it on cross examination by defense attorney Minor Pounds of Lubbock.

Dr. W.A. Dillon of Littlefield and L.E. Vaughn of Amherst also were prosecution witnesses who testified to offers in the stock scheme by Sharp and allegedly by Cloyse Leon McCaleb of Lubbock, who was charged with the Wichita Falls man.

McCaleb sought and was granted a separate hearing. He is on bond now awaiting trial, and did not appear in the Sharp trial.

Cox, Brittain, Vaughn and Dillon all worked in liaison with officers early last fall when the stock scheme was proposed. Cox and Dillon went to Young after becoming suspicious of the proposal and running a credit check on Sharp, trial testimony showed.

The report showed that the man had been engaged in a number of company organizations in the Midwest before coming to Texas. Investigation of McCaleb by officers showed that he had been under indictment in Texas for other stock operations.

The offer on which the charge was filed was made to Brittain last September 11 and it was to deliver 5,000 shares of "pre-ferred stock" and 1,000 shares of "common stock" in Central Equity for $5,100.

Sharp and McCaleb were arrested a short time later and indicted by a Lamb County grand jury.

The scheme, that might have worked, opened last August when Cox answered an advertisement from Wichita Falls for financing on a building he was planning to buy at Bula, he testified.

Publisher Submits Recipe

BY DICK REAVIS
News-Leader Publisher

Now here's a recipe from the Rio Grande that will do lasting harm to that old feature we publish each week of some good cook's favorite recipe.

It is for Mexican nachos which many of you may be familiar with, especially deer hunters or fishermen who somehow always end up across the Rio Grande on those stag trips to the border country. We have seen many sportsmen in border haunts who were not aware whether they were eating nachos or an old bull fight program, but none of them, of course, came from Lamb County.

This is a simple Mexican food appetizer or more exactly, a nibbling food that keeps you occupied for those intervals between when the waiter takes your order and your food finally comes. The Mexicans do not hurry your food but usually the wait is worth it.

The technique takes a little practice on this side of the river. I've watched the preparation in kitchens on the other side of the Rio Grande; this is not recommended if you intend to go on enjoying Mexican food.

It takes only a package of tortillas, some bland cheese---goat milk cheese is best---and some fat jalapenos that are available at your supermarket here. Get them whole.

Get the thickest tortillas possible. Prick each with a fork in several places as you would a pie crust and for the same reason, to prevent puffing. Then score the tortilla about half its depth twice across, to create wedge-shaped quarters. You will want it to come apart after crisping, so score well but not enough to have it come apart before crisping. If it does, go ahead and work the pieces separately.

Then heat about two inches of cooking oil in a 6 or 8 inch diameter pan, much as you would french fries. Your french fry basket will work well for this purpose. Get the oil bubbling hot then put in about three tortillas flat, preferably lowering them in a french fry basket.

It is best to hold them in the grease with some implement, as a potato masher. Otherwise, they tend to rise to the top. Crisp them for a minute or so, then lift out and drain in the basket or on paper towels.

Put crisped tortillas on a cookie sheet, then cover each with a thin slice of cheese, a mild cheese, and score it in quarters. Slice a couple of jalapenos straight across and about one-eighth inch thick, giving you small circles of jalapenos with the seeds inside.

Place in an oven at 400 degrees. Let the cheese melt slightly, then remove and place a tortilla slice in the center of each quarter. Then let them toast a brief time more, just enough that the cheese runs.

Remove, and complete the quartering and serve. The combination of toasted tortilla, cheese and jalapeno creates a tasty snack. They should be eaten while hot. However, nachos can be refrigerated and heated later, being careful to have the oven hot before putting them in to re-heat.

Some home cooks skip the quartering of both tortilla and cheese, and just sprinkle a few jalapeno places over a whole cheese-covered tortilla in the same way described above. Here you get an open-faced cheese sandwich, Mexican style.

One special note: Avoid a sharp cheese, and have your cheese thin, no more than one-eighth inch. Don't expect to get the same product that the Mexicans do with their solid hand-rolled tortillas, but you'll like the result you do get.

My wife thinks I should add that this is a very simple item to prepare and my only culinary accomplishment. I don't even scramble eggs well. But then, neither do they in Mexico.

FOOD EDITOR?---This week's recipe for a Mexican appetizer comes from publisher Dick Reavis who possibly writes better than he cooks. His nachos recipe was picked up from cooks in Old Mexico who may or may not smoke a cigar while at work.

PLAY AT PERRYTON FRIDAY

Tulia Tops Wildcats

In a game closer than the final score indicated, Littlefield's Wildcats lost a 74-58 non-district cage contest to the Tulia Hornets here Tuesday night in the final home game of the season.

The Tulia team won the game at the free-throw line, hitting 16 of 26 attempts while Littlefield was awarded only 8 charity tosses and sunk 6. Only 7 personal fouls were called on the smooth-operating visitors, while the Wildcats drew 19 fouls.

With Tulia leading by 64-58 and about a minute left, Coach Bob Martin sent in reserves to finish the tilt. The Hornets upped their margin by 10 points in the brief period.

Paul Roberts paced Littlefield's scoring and took game honors with 24 points. Larry Wood and Ronald Sitton also got in the double digit column with 16 and 10 points, respectively.

Tulia's well-balanced attack showed four players in double figures, led by Tommy Kendrick's 20 markers. Jim Arnold had 18, Ricky Sharp 17 and Frank Hooper 15.

Littlefield had trailed by only six points, 52-46, going into the final quarter but the Cats were not able to overtake the Hornets. Tulia grabbed a 16-10 lead in the first period and held a 41-32 advantage at halftime.

The defeat was Littlefield's 13th of the year compared to 8 victories. The Cats are 2-6 in District 1-AAA play and travel to Perryton Friday night. The season ends at Phillips next Monday.

The Wildcat junior varsity also took its lumps in the preliminary contest Tuesday night, losing a 60-49 decision to the visitors. Steve Lewis, with 17 points, was the only Littlefield scorer to score in double figures.

Shiek, Wahoo To Clash Here

The Shiek returns to Littlefield Sports Arena Saturday to take on Wahoo McDaniel in a best 2-of-3 falls match with an hour's time limit.

The first main event will bring together Dandy Dan Miller and Larry Henning, also in a 2-of-3 fall match with an hour's limit. Henning proved to be a popular newcomer to the local arena last week, when he met Luis Martinez.

The opening event at 8:30 p.m. sees Sir Rodney Shane, loser against Dandy Dan last week, taking on popular Pat Kelley. This match will be a one-fall, 20-minute affair.

Junior High Teams Finish

Littlefield's Junior High basketball teams closed the curtain in a highly successful season Monday evening at Plainview, capturing two victories from the Estacado Junior High squads.

The Littlefield freshmen lost a 65-48 decision against the Estacado frosh. Wilmar Williams hit 17 points in the losing cause, and Tim Tapley pitched in 12. The freshmen will enter the Dimmitt tourney this weekend. The 9th graders are 6-6 on the season.

The 8th graders had to rally in the fourth period and go into overtime to nab a 30-29 victory, while the 7th graders posted a close 26-23 triumph.

The LJHS 8th-grade team trailed by 19-17 at halftime and fell behind by 11 points, 26-15, going into the final period. Kevin Hutson tallied 8 points in the final period to spark the victory. Hutson was high with 16 points and Mike Grissom pitched in 10.

Sudan, Springlake Win District Tourney Tilts

The District 3-A basketball tourney got underway at Farwell Tuesday night with a pair of Lamb County teams seeking to retain titles captured in regular session play.

Springlake won the boys' championship and Sudan's girls took the fem crown during regular play. Action in the tourney continues Thursday through Saturday, with playoffs set Saturday night if the tourney winners are different from the round-robin champs.

Springlake scored a 76-51 victory over Kress in one of the opening tourney tilts Tuesday night. Hale Center stopped Sudan, 71-45, in the other boys' game.

Sudan's girls downed Springlake, 46-30, and the Kress girls whipped Farwell, 38-35, in the other opening games.

Rocky Cain hit 26 points in the Springlake triumph, while Tommy Thompson scored 23 for Sudan in the defeat. Candace Mudgett tallied 19 points to lead the Sudan girls to victory, while Beth Dent hit 26 for Springlake.

Wood Signs With TCU

Larry Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wood, Levelland highway, Tuesday signed a pre-enrollment application to attend Texas Christian University and play football for the Frogs.

Wood, an all-around athlete for Littlefield High School, had several colleges interested in his services. Tuesday was the first day in which Southwestern Conference schools could sign athletes to a binding pre-enrollment application.

Hunter Enis, former TCU quarterback and now backfield coach at the college, came to Littlefield to sign up Wood. Enis said the staff was real pleased about recruiting the Wildcat griddier. "We think he's one of the best quarterback prospects in West Texas," Enis stated.

The TCU coach, like Wildcat coaches, thinks Wood could be a "sleeper"—that is, a who is just beginning to realize his potential. Wood stands out the season as an end, moved to quarterback for the last few games. For that reason, some scouts didn't consider him as strongly as a quarterback prospect.

Wood made the defensive district team in football and named to an All South Plains "dream" team. He has been nominated to play in the Texas Coaching School all-star game.

Wood was co-captain of the grid team. He is also basketball and track letterman. This season senior is the leading scorer on the basketball squad, and is a standout pole vaulter on track.

Taylor Resigns Muleshoe Post

MULESHOE -- Bill Taylor, head football coach and athletic director of Muleshoe High School, has resigned and will be replaced by Willy McAlphin, present assistant, it was announced Tuesday.

Taylor, a graduate of Amherst High and Texas Tech College, has been with the Muleshoe system for 10 years. Taylor indicated he desired to continue as a teacher. The Mules will become a member of 1-AAA next season, moving up from Class AA.

McAlphin will assume the head post at the end of the school year. He came to Muleshoe two years ago from Silverton, and is a graduate of Spur High and West Texas State.

Hereford Nudges Wildcats, 50-47

Littlefield's Wildcats, aiming for an upset over 1-AAA co-leader Hereford, missed their mark by a scant four points here Saturday night when the Whitefaces held on for a 50-47 victory.

In the end, it was failure to connect on free shots and rebounding which spelled the difference for Littlefield. The Cats hit only 13 of 29 charity tosses, and the taller Hereford team pulled down a majority of the rebounds.

Littlefield's Larry Wood salvaged scoring honors in the game, netting 23 points before fouling out late in the contest. Big Jim Haney, who was the top rebounder, had 14 points for Hereford.

The Wildcats jumped to a 16-13 lead in the first quarter and held a four-point advantage, 29-25, at intermission. Hereford came back to knot the score at 40-40 after three quarters, however, and forged out the three-point margin in the final period.

The Wildcats hit 1 of 8 free shots in the fourth stanza; the Whitefaces hit 6 of 6.

The Littlefield junior varsity also lost a Saturday night encounter with the visitors, 58-45. Randy Hutson and Steve Lewis led the locals with 13 and 12 points, respectively.

FOR STATE GIRL'S SCHOOL Book Appeal Started Here

A tour of the Girls' Rehabilitation Center at Gainesville has given Lt. Robert Gilliam, local Salvation Army leader, the inspiration for a project which he launched in Littlefield this week.

Lt. Gilliam noted that good reading material was at a premium in the understocked library at the center, so he came up with the idea of collecting books to be donated to the girls' institution.

He has talked with several pastors and is seeking the cooperation of civic, social and church groups in rounding up books for the project. Boy Scouts are going to aid in the campaign, and C.L. Walker, Red Cross executive secretary, has also offered to help.

Persons who have books that are not being used, and are not being saved for a special purpose, are asked to take them to Gilliam or Walker. The men will pick up books if the donor calls 385-3403 or 385-3667.

Good novels, wholesome fiction, autobiographies or other books of interest to girls in their teens are sought. Good paperback books can also be used.

In his visit to the center, Gilliam found that no state money is budgeted for the school's library, and only 200 to 300 books were on hand. Gilliam has already obtained about 45 volumes to be taken to the school.

Gilliam emphasized that he is not seeking donations, but interested persons who do not have books to give may contribute to a fund. The Salvation Army Leader will purchase books through a library in order to make the funds count in buying new books.

The books should be turned in by the end of the month. Rev. Jack Ellzey, pastor of First Methodist Church, helped start the drive by donating three books Monday. The books were the New Testament (RSV), "The Meaning of Suffering," by Ralph Sockman, and "Romance and Christian Marriage," by Clark Ellzey.

The latter book was written by Rev. Ellzey's brother, associated with Columbia University and Council of Churches.

The next meeting of the club will be Friday at 4 p.m. in the high school library. The purpose of this meeting is for the ratification of the constitution for the club.

BY LAMB CONSERVATIONIST

Role Of Irrigated Pastures Outlined

The role of irrigated pastures is still on the increase in this area, according to Paul Larson, work unit conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service.

There are several reasons for this, but the main reason is the unallotted cropland acres on almost every farm, says Larson. Livestock represents a source of income on these unallotted acres.

Some farmers also see a need to diversify their operation because of weather hazards to cropland being planted in grasses.

This trend of pasture planting is very good for the economy and is needed in a conservation program but there is also some stumbling blocks. Pasture management is very difficult to those who are unfamiliar with grass cultivation and livestock. Without the best management, pastures will not yield the grazing and income that is expected and desired.

It is evident in this area that we do not have good management as a whole so we may see some very disappointed people plowing out their grass unless management is improved. Over grazing, low fertility, and inadequate irrigations are the biggest difficulties that must be corrected.

Proper grass height must be maintained for production. Overgrazing causes root-growth stoppage, poor vigor, and finally low production. Too early grazing will also cut production for the remainder of the growing season, sometimes by at least 50%.

Grazing should begin about Early Boot stage or about 16 inches height on tall grasses and about 10 inches on Bermuda. During the growing season leave a minimum of 50% of the current growth. This would be about 8 to 10 inches on tall grasses and about 5 inches on Bermuda.

Fertilizer rates can best be determined by soil tests. It is apparent however that 200 to 300 pounds of nitrogen per acre is needed for maximum production. Phosphorus and potassium may also be needed in early spring.

The proper irrigation system will vary from farm to farm based on slope, soil, and etc. It will take around 24 to 30 inches of water per season on Midland Bermuda. The Soil Conservation Service will help design a system for your farm.

SCS is encouraging the establishment of irrigated pastures but also realizes that only through management can farmers keep a successful grass program going in this area.

TEX-17848

HOLDS WATER, SOIL--A sound conservation practice of contour farming helps to hold water and soil, and is especially vital in areas where rainfall is rare. The Lamb County Soil Conservation Service stands ready to help farmers with their conservation problems.

SCS READY TO HELP

Contour Farming Saves Water

The primary object of contour farming is to slow the rate of running water, thereby causing more of the rainfall to be absorbed by the soil, according to Lamb County Soil Conservation Service officials.

To accomplish this, it is necessary to lay obstacles across the path of running water to stop the flow of soil being carried away in the run-off. This obstacle can be obtained by the use of contour furrows or level terraces to hold the water of normal rains on the land.

The practice of contouring will save soil, grow better crops and increase yields very materially. Yield increases ranging from 10 to 50 percent are reported by many farmers who have changed from the customary up-and-down hill straight line farming to contoured rows.

A system of terraces that will distribute water evenly will cause the water to soak into the ground. Farmers who use terraces will testify that every drop is held within the boundaries of their farms and both water and soil are saved.

In many sections, rain comes too rarely and must be held when it does fall. The Soil Conservation District thus urged farmers to practice sound conservation measures. Local soil conservation officials are ready to help county farmers on any conservation problems.

Fly-By-Night Peddlers Reported

The approaching spring season brings with it the threat of bogus tree and nursery stock salesmen operating primarily out of the backs of pickup trucks, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White warned this week.

Commissioner White said his Austin headquarters is already receiving complaints from home owners who have purchased from traveling peddlers and the plants proved to be dead or dying. The influx is apparently heavier this year and an especially troublesome area has been pinpointed around Dallas and Fort Worth.

Teams of Texas Department of Agriculture inspectors have been deployed throughout the state to be on the lookout for intemperate salesmen. Several truckloads of illegal and below standard trees have been seized, White said.

Buyers are urged by Commissioner White to buy only nursery stock which has a certificate of inspection from the Texas Department of Agriculture. This inspection certificate is required by state law but difficult to enforce on fly-by-night operators who slip in from out of state.

FHA Loans $74.5 Million To Texas Rural Families

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's Farmers Home Administration made or insured $74 1/2 million in loans to Texas farm and other rural families, during 1963, L.J. Cappleman, state director of the agency announced in Temple today.

A total of 11,977 families used one or more of the agency's loan programs during the year.

Farmers Home Administration operates a broad program of supplementary credit for rural development in Texas.

The agency makes loans for family farming operations, farm development, rural housing, community water systems, soil and water conservation and development, recreation enterprises, and other purposes.

Loans are made only to borrowers who cannot obtain credit from banks, Production Credit Associations, and other conventional lenders.

Cappleman reported that in 1963 FHA supervised loan programs had two major results of importance to the economy of the state.

"Loans to family farmers enabled them to make a major contribution to the well being and progress of the state's agriculture during 1963," he said.

"Capital and management assistance supplied by FHA to its borrowers helped them develop and enlarge their farms, operate more efficiently, and build a sound farming business."

Cappleman gave the following breakdown of FHA's loan programs in Texas for 1963.

A total of $35,000,000 went to 6,755 Texas farmers to pay for equipment, feed, seed, livestock, for other farm and home operating needs, and to refinance chattel debts, carry out forestry purposes, and develop income-producing recreational enterprises.

Farm ownership loans totaling about $10,000,000 were used by 436 farmers to enlarge, develop, and buy farms not larger than family size, and to refinance debts, carry out forestry purposes and develop income-producing recreation enterprises.

Emergency loans amounting to an estimated $18,000,000

Letter To The EDITOR

DEAR EDITOR:

We, as a ladies farm organization, representing the Pleasant Valley community, have noticed for some time that it has become increasingly difficult to find good fabrics, clothing or home furnishings made of natural fibers. Especially hard to find is cotton and woolen merchandise in our area stores. "Even cotton powder puffs are hard to find!"

We have all apathetically watched synthetics, mostly of an inferior quality, taking over our cotton and wool markets.

The whole economy of our area here is based on these crops, especially cotton.

We feel it would be to the advantage of everyone concerned to obtain fabrics, clothing and home furnishings and any other merchandise possible which is made of cotton and for all of us to use these natural fibers as much as possible.

We are not against synthetics and know they have their place but feel it is suicidal to not recognize what could happen to our area if our natural fibers are replaced.

We hope that you, too, are concerned about this situation. We would appreciate your efforts in this matter.

In closing, we thank you, we will be expecting to see more good natural fiber products available in our stores in the near future.

Yours sincerely,
PLEASANT VALLEY SOCIETY CLUB
Claudine Embry, President

BILL JEFFRIES

County Tax Post Sought By Jeffries

The News and Leader has been authorized to announce the candidacy of Bill Jeffries for the office of Lamb County Tax-Assessor - Collector, subject to action of the Democratic primary in May.

Following is Jeffries' formal statement:

"In seeking your support for my election to the office of tax assessor-collector, I feel that I have the qualifications and experience to serve you well. Your encouragement and words spoken in my behalf are deeply appreciated.

"I have lived in Lamb County since 1926. I was associated with Jeffries Mercantile for many years, and owned and operated Jeffries Auto Service until elected as a county commissioner in 1954.

"I feel the six years spent on the Commissioner's Court will give me valuable experience in the job I am now seeking.

"I have resigned my position with St. Clair's department store effective March 1 and will try to see each of you before the primaries May 2. If I miss seeing you to ask for your vote and influence personally, please remember that I will appreciate it very much.

"If you see fit to elect me as your next tax assessor-collector, it will be my desire to serve you and Lamb County to the best of my ability."

New Firm To Locate Here
 A new automotive and implement supply firm will be located in Littlefield, it was revealed this week by H. M. Gebo, president of Gebo Distribution Co.
 of Plainview.

A new building, located next to the Production Credit Assn.
 on Hall Ave., is presently under construction to house the Gebo Distribution Co. Virrel Roberts is owner of the building and property.

A distributor of farm and ranch supplies, the firm is the fourth to be located in this area.
 Other stores are now located at Plainview, Hereford and Clovis.
 Gebo anticipates employment of a manager and two local men in the store.

County Man Hurt In Crash
 SUDAN--A Sudan man was injured and a Hobbs, N.M., man killed in a two-car accident at Needmore, about 15 miles west of Sudan in Bailey County, Sunday afternoon.

Edward L. Jezisek, 25, the Sudan man, was reported in fair condition at West Plains Hospital in Muleshoe. He was a passenger in a car driven by his brother, Joe, of Anton, who was not injured.

Killed in the mishap was Cecil Harvey Allen, 38, of Hobbs.
 He died in a Muleshoe hospital shortly after the accident.

The collision occurred at the intersection of SH-214 and FM-298.

... STOCK
 Can't from Page 1

showed, Sharp said that he "could not sell the stock" but that he could accept money and have the stock mailed.

This was the basis of the stock offer charge. It was challenged sharply by the defense attorney who argued that "no stock was issued, no stock changed hands."

John Painter, a securities investigator with the Texas Securities Commission, testified at the trial that Central Equity Corporation stock was not registered for public sale and that Sharp was not a registered securities agent or salesman.

The unregistered stock charge was the primary one against the Wichita Falls man, with the lack of securities license as an alternate charge.
 The jury returned a guilty finding on the first charge.

Vaughn and Jerry Cox also testified in the trial, which opened Monday morning and went to the jury at 5:30 Tuesday evening.

Sharp was returned to jail in Lubbock where he faces similar charges. Although he showed a financial statement of $831,890 to support the Central Equity Corporation, the Wichita Falls promoter has been unable to make bond.

Members of the jury for the Sharp trial were Ray Baccaus, Merlin Yarbrough, Kenneth Heard, Chester Harvey, Orville Clevenger, Daniel Banner, J. M.
 Craft, Glen Chester, Floyd Light, A. L. O'Neil, Norris Sampler and R. D. Kamp.

Spade Water Well Being Developed

Residents of Spade and nearby farmers were interested spectators Tuesday when a water well for the community was brought in and being developed.

The pipeline project is about complete and residents are expected to be on the line in about 30 days. A well house and booster pump is still to be installed near the 42,000 gallon ground storage tank.

A $50,000 soil and water association loan to the Spade Water Supply Corp. was approved in January by the Farmers Home Administration. Don Eagan is president of the Spade water group.

Engineer Ralph Douglas reported the new well had about
 "a 1,000 gallon per minute capacity." The well pumped 750 gallons per minute Tuesday when it was being developed.

The well, drilled by Peerless Pump of Muleshoe, was drilled to a depth of 230 feet and had a static water level of 123 feet. The 24-inch hole has a 12-inch casing packed in gravel. Plains Utility Co.
 of Lubbock is general contractor for the job.

The new system will produce an adequate and safe supply of water for domestic and livestock use in Spade. A total of 51 farm and rural families are expected to benefit from the project.
