Dryland Areas Receive Over 3"

Bountiful rains across the Littlefield trade area brought smiles of happiness from both irrigated and dry land farm operators.

One person said "it's just like living in the mountains, with a nice shower each night. . . scattered showers in the daytime."

Area communities like Enoch and Bula received rain a week ago and then received up to two inches early this week. Very little cotton was up in those areas, but farmers had the seed in the ground.

East of Littlefield, in the Spade Community, better than three inches were received in the three day period.

In North Lamb County, more than two inches was received Sunday night at Earth. At the Thurlow Branscum farm, 6 miles west and 5 north of Earth, 1.36; at the R. K. Fennell farm, 5 miles north and 3 west of Earth, 1.75; at the Fred Welch farm, 1 mile west and 1 1/2 north of Earth, 1.50

Chamber Manager Resigns

Littlefield's Chamber of Commerce manager, Don Page, submitted his resignation to the Chamber Tuesday night, following an open meeting of local builders and contractors with the board.

In his letter of resignation Page stated: "I would at this time like to offer my resignation as manager of the Chamber of Commerce effective June 8, 1960, because of outside business interest."

Trans - Western Development Company of Lubbock and with his resignation he will immediately continue sales of the FHA and GI loan homes in Cannon Terrace addition. He will continue to live in Littlefield.

Chamber of Commerce president Arnold Neumann made a brief explanatory talk to the 60 or 70 interested persons who had attended the open meeting with the board before the private meeting.

Neumann explained that there were basically two questions for discussion: first, was there a need for a low down payment home building project in Littlefield? second, could the Chamber of Commerce manager retain both jobs. . . that of sales manager of the out-of-town building firm and the local chamber managership?

Neumann said his investigation showed that the town needed the project in answer to the first question, then he opened the meeting for discussion of the second question.

Lumberman, Jim Crump was speaker for the local builders, plumbers, painters, and subcontractors. Crump stated that his group was not against the out-of-town development, but that grievance was the manager presenting the out-of-town firm.

Cannon Terrace developers Cliff Griffin and Sid Hopping stated that they felt that Page's only interest in the beginning was to bring a much needed housing development to Littlefield with the one interest of helping the town to grow and to meet the housing need.

Griffin stated that he had already been working with out of town developers and stated that an official of FHA had made the statement that he "wondered why Littlefield hadn't taken advantage" (Continued on Page Seven)

Cotton Reporters Set To Measure Lamb Acreage

Local and area cotton farmers can expect visits from one of forty-six cotton reporters that will be measuring the amount of cotton acreage on every Lamb County farm in the next two months.

Lamar Aten, head of the Lamb County ASC office mentioned that reporters will be plotting the acreage to determine which farmers will be eligible for price supports from the government. Each farmer is allowed to raise a certain number of acres. Should the office find that a farmer has more cotton planted than he has been allowed, the farmer has 15 days to plow up the excess acreage in order to receive the support.

Mr. Aten predicted that approximately one-half of the farms measured by his reporters will be over-planted. Lamb County has been allotted 203,561 acres of cotton for the 1960 crop. This acreage amounts to over $50,000,000 of income to Lamb County in good years. Of these acres, 180,736 will be planted in Plan A cotton. The remaining 22,825 acres will be allowed for Plan B cotton.

Rain, Rain, Go Away

Rain, rain, go away. Come again another day. So goes the saying, and that must have been first in the minds of the members of the winless Foust Food Minor League team when rain interrupted their ball game with Union Compress Saturday night.

Foust, who is presently sitting on the bottom of the Minor League standings, was ahead of the Compress team, 11-0, in the first inning when rain prevailed and the game was called off. The game will have to be played over in full at a later date.

In the top of the first, Foust's lead-off batter, Randy Woods, struck out. However, before the inning had ended, 15 batters had fanned three Compress pitchers, and the Woods had avenged his out with a single which scored two other runners.

So begins a new column that will become a regular feature in the Leader during the fishing season.

"Summer time and the living is easy. The fish are jumping and the cotton is high."

So starts the famous Southern ballad, "Summertime."

Although some may doubt that living is easy here on the South Plains it is a fact that this year's cotton crop is shooting up and the fish are jumpin' and bitin'.

Recent rains have moved acreage to the lakes and streams to cope with nature.

Prominent in the area last week were Mr. Boots Crews and his son, Mike. Mr. Crews brought in three 40-pound yellow cat fish at Stamford Lake. Fishing with Mr. L. W. Woodson of Stamford, Mr. Crews' party bagged seven yellow cat, Mike added a number of bass, perch, and crappie to the catch.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Haberer of Littlefield, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gatewood and family and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Smith and sons of Sudan set a record at Lake Brownwood by bagging 125 sand bass during a three-hour period this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Harper and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Son Whitmire and daughter of Sudan added a number of channel cat fish to a large catch of sand bass and crappie to help them enjoy their stay at Lake Brownwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rose and Tommy and Pat Brown of Sudan returned from the Brownwood area with a large catch.

Hilltop Lodge, between Brownwood and Cross Plains, was the scene of a fishing-boating-skiing party for Mr. and Mrs. Claude Newell, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Spradley, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thurcent rains have moved acreage to the lakes and streams to cope with nature.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Harper and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Son Whitmire and daughter of Sudan Fishing should be good this weekend. Rains in the West Texas-New Mexico have added water to the streams and lakes, and "luck" has been good this year.

Olton Downs Roden; Use First Frame

Roden Drug spotted Olton 10 runs in the top half of the first inning, then fought back only to watch a last inning rally fall short, as Olton downed Roden, 14-12, at PONY League Park Tuesday night.

The defeat was the first of the young season for Roden.

Olton capitalized on a series of walks and infield errors to jump to a 10-0 lead in the first inning. Every man on the Olton roster scored at least one time. The Olton attack was led by Priest, who picked up Olton's only hit in the inning, a single Kunkel and Jones.

Roden starting pitcher Richard Kimbrough singled and scored a solo run in the second inning.

Olton jumped ahead, 12-1, in the fourth inning when Don Malone and Priest used errors to score.

Roden scored four runs in the fourth and added two more in the sixth off Olton pitcher Jones. Ricky Phillips, Junior Hodge, Kimbrough, and Lloyd Winn led the Roden risings.

Olton widened its lead to six runs, 14-8, in the top of the seventh inning. Jones led off the inning by blasting a home run over the left field wall off relief pitcher Willie Johnson. Benny Harris singled and later scored for the last Olton tally.

In the do-or-die last half of the seventh inning Roden Drug batted base on an error, Terry Gronewald singled, and Johnson gained first on the first baseman's error. Phillips and Hodge were hit by pitched balls, and Ricky Miller walked, scoring Pierce, Gronewald and Johnson. Phillips crossed the plate on Kimbrough's infield out. That was all, however, for Roden as Jones fanned Eddie Wheeler and Winn to retire the side.

What has Littlefield to offer new business? . . . as much or more than any town in the state of Texas . . . but who knows about it?
Littlefield has the abundance of good water necessary for industry, it has gas and electrical power for any size operation, it has a very reasonable tax rate . . . (that's hard to believe, but it's true.)
What's the answer? Obviously more publicity to the right people . . . more prepared brochures . . . more individual personal effort, all or necessary . . . yet, even more important is what we have to GIVE!

June 5
ADMITTED — Mrs. Lora Philbrick, Mrs. Jackie Parker, Mrs. Frank Jester, Lloyd Kennedy and Frankie Carpenter.
DISMISSED — Jack Hicks, Robert Coper, C. D. Trotter, Mrs. Mary Cowan, W. H. Cunningham, Mrs. Lavern Williams.

Mentioned our new fishing column to Velma Smith and she said, "That's just wonderful . . . but the preacher will surely have tab on his congregation when they don't show up on Sundays . . . he can read the fishing column and find out where each and every member was!"
Well, let's look at some funnies:
It was a lovely day and some of the asylum inmates were permitted to go outside. Strolling about a staff doctor spotted one of them with a fishing rod, casting in the middle of a flower bed. He approached the man and asked, "How are they biting today?"
"Darn good - you make the seventh."

June 6

DISMISSED — Mrs. Marjorie McAlister, Ernest Ammons, Mrs. Helen Woods, Mrs. Jennie Kelley and Mrs. Betty Birkelbach and infant.

I mentioned our new fishing column to the golfer. "That's my mother-in-law on the clubhouse porch."
"Don't be silly," his companion remarked, "it's 200 yards you can't hit her from here."
Two men were discussing a friend's bad luck at the races. "It's funny," commented one of them, "Frank is a demon at cards but he can't win a bet at the track."
"That's not so funny," the other said, "He can't shuffle the horses."

June 7
ADMITTED — Mary Belen, Arlene Provenge, Loretta Hodges, Carl Tidwell, Beverly Kelley, John Phillips, Frank Mott and Marble Thompson.
DISMISSED — L. S. McCarty;

Nueces Insect Control is a new business for Littlefield. They are building a new concrete block office building across the street from Dillon Lumber on East 9th.
Nueces has been in Littlefield and this area spraying crops for several years and we welcome them as a new Littlefield firm.
Everybody knows Charlie Jarman . . . he's manager and has been a resident of this area many years.
Anthony's break out with a Father's Day sport shirt promotion, Bill Smith has a big automatic washer sale on, Stagg's Drug has a movie projector event.

of the huge pile of FHA and GI money as other towns had been doing.
Leveland and Brownfield both have huge home developing projects going and most of them are by Lubbock contractors.
Griffin also stated that he had talked to local builders and contractors before going to Lubbock developers and that the local firms had not been interested except in the case of one lumberman who to date has built six homes in Cannon Terrace.
Page reported to the group that his first interest in his action was to see Littlefield grow, his second interest was in increasing his income in order to maintain a living wage for his family, since his wife is now unable to keep her job as Methodist church secretary.
At times the discussion became heated, several inspiring talks came out of the meeting and it was the general feeling of most people who attended that much good would come out of the misunderstandings which had developed from the situation.
At the Chamber of Commerce's private meeting the group was very complimentary of the good work that Page had done for the past seven months as manager.
Neumann said that Jean Brock would continue to maintain the office and that a committee would begin looking for a new manager.
The FHA - GI housing program is designed for down payments of $250 to $500 plus closing costs, on FHA loans, depending upon the price of the home. No down payment is required on GI loans.
The plan is to build approximately 70 homes in a price range of $8,250 to $18,000.
The development will be on 10 lots in the present Cannon Terrace addition and 51 other lots on a 10 acre tract of land just south of the addition.
The homes will not be pre-fab and do not have aluminum siding, Page said. They will be custom built on the lot.

THIS WEEK

In Washington

With Clinton Davidson

With the past few weeks the Supreme Court of the United States has found a farm cooperative guilty of antitrust violation and has scheduled arguments on whether two large industrial firms have violated antitrust laws.
Collusion in restraint of trade is a violation of the Sherman Anti-trust law that has been in effect for many years. Few will argue that it is not a good law. But prosecution of farm cooperatives and business firms under the law must suggest to many people this question: What about labor unions? Are they innocent of monopolistic practices, or are they immune from prosecution?
A search of court records and talks with prominent attorneys fail to show a single important case in which a labor union has been found guilty under the Sherman Anti-trust law. Yet the record of collusion between unions in restraint of trade is found in numerous congressional hearings.
The McClellan Committee The record of racketeering, violence, coercion, extortion and many instances of collusion between unions is written into thousands of pages of testimony before the Senate Select Committee on Improper Activities in the Labor or Management Field.
This is the committee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan of Arkansas and more commonly known as the McClellan Committee. Earlier this year the committee reported it had found "alarming examples of criminal domination of legitimate business achieved by using corrupt unions."
The record of testimony concerning James Hoffa and his Teamsters Union covers hundreds of pages of damning evidence of extortion, racketeering and corrupt union leaders. Collusion between Hoffa and Harry Bridges, president of the West Coast longshoremen's union, was testified to by witnesses. Bridges has successfully avoided deportation on grounds of collaboration with communists.

The Committee, confronted with a mountain of evidence, warned that "if Hoffa is successful in combatting the combined weight of the U. S. Government and public opinion, the cause of decent unionism is lost and labor-management relations in this country will return to the jungle era."
Equality Under Law
The McClellan Committee contains evidence of numerous labor union operated monopolies. For example, the committee reported evidence of "monopolization of the newspaper and magazine wholesale business in New York" by Irving Blitz, described by the committee as having "an impressive criminal record."
Blitz operated through the Deliverers union.
The record shows numerous instances of "collusive action" between unions, including so-called "Sympathy strikes" and secondary boycotts, to force the demands of only one of the unions involved. Despite the evidence there is no record that the Justice Department started prosecution.
This is not to point an accusing finger at the great majority of honest labor unions — just as a vast majority of farm cooperatives and business firms are honest and law-abiding — but it is to suggest that our laws be administered without fear or favor, and with equal justice to all.

and Olton received showers Tuesday night and early Wednesday night.

Joe Harrell, farmer northeast of Fieldton reported a total of five inches received and no hail this week. He said his cotton was growing off real well and prospects look good.
Charlie Jarman received about a half an inch of rain on his farm west of Fieldton early Wednesday morning.

Pleasant Valley
Pleasant Valley received two inches of rain Monday night and about 40 per cent damages from hail . . . a week ago about 2 1/2 inches of rain and hail pelted the area. Most farmers are trying to save the damaged cotton, rather than try to replant according to one report.

Whitharral
J. W. Borders of whitharral reports that area has received approximately three inches of rain in the past two weeks. He says that cotton is nearly all up and looking good. No hail has been reported for that area.

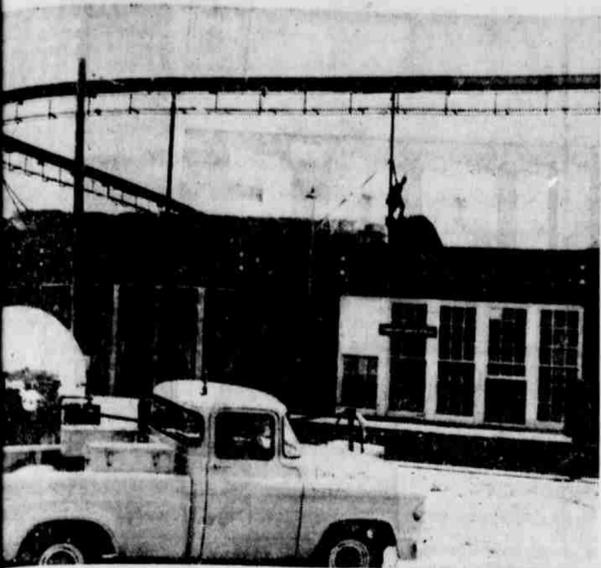

Anton
Anton farmers are recovering from a hail that took out about 10,000 acres of cotton two weeks ago. The crop has been replanted and is coming up nicely.
Anton received a good snow early Wednesday morning.

Hart Camp Hail
More than 5,000 acres were hailed out east of Hart Camp two weeks ago and most of this has been replanted.

SHOPPIN GIN HAVANA
HAVANA (AP) — Standard equipment in most second and third floor flats among Havana's lower income families is a piece of rope, sometimes as long as 40 feet, with a straw or cloth basket at one end.
It's the local counterpart of the American grocery cart.
When a pushcart food peddler passes by hawking his goods, he may get an order from an upstairs apartment. The basket, with money and possibly a shopping list inside, is lowered by rope, the peddler fills the basket and up it goes into the apartment.

The building has not been used as the past few years and presently is being used as the office for the Hart Co. Portions of the building are used for grain storage but were empty at the time of the fire. Firemen from Olton and Littlefield answered the alarm at 10:30 Wednesday morning. Cause of the fire was not known late Wednesday afternoon.

Over 400 Acres Of Onions In Area

Why Making Crop by Hazards Involved are still trying to make a profit each year and he says that is the only way to break even or make a little money on them. The idea of just trying onions on good market years is more than a gamble, according to Gallini. Gallini has found that production costs can be cut very substantially by planting seed instead of setting out plants.

He also plans to try harvesting this year's crop with a potato digger, thereby eliminating much expensive labor.

K. W. Wells and Reese Prichard, both northwest of Anton, have suffered some hail loss to their onion crops this year.

Anton farmers Walter Hopgood and M. H. Newton had their crop hailed out last year with better than $200 per acre invested at the time of the loss. They haven't given up though, they're back in the onion business with around 40 acres.

A former Littlefield farmer's son, Ike Griffin is now one of the Nation's big onion buyers and still buys onions in this area. He sacks under the Sombbrero brand and the company is known as the Griffin and Brand company.

AMHERST FARMER R. C. Davis surveys the progress of his onions. Mr. Davis has over ten acres of onions which he planted in April, on his farm south of Amherst. Mr. Davis' crop is similar to all onion crops in the area. Onions will be ready for harvest by mid-July. (STAFF PHOTO) in rural areas, and increased speed. —In many fatal auto accidents, only one car is involved. —Expressways have fewer traffic fatalities, based on number of miles driven, than rural roads. The average mileage death rate recently was a third as high as the rate for rural roads. —Males are involved in at most eight times as many fatal auto accidents as females. Naturally, they drive a lot more than the girls do. —Driving too fast for conditions accounts for more than half of the rural, fatal traffic accidents in Texas. —Saturday is not Sunday — is the most dangerous day of the week for drivers. About one out of every five traffic fatalities occurs that day. Sunday is second most hazardous. —Safety men say the new interstate highway system can save as many as 3,500 lives a year and that use of seat belts could save an additional 5,000 lives annually. —While few slow drivers ever run afoul of the law, they're still a highway hazard. Driving too slow can cost a life — your life, or the life of a motorist who takes a chance and passes you when he shouldn't. Keep pace with traffic. —Odds are that if your car isn't up to snuff, safetywise, the fault will lie with the rear lights, brakes, front lights or exhaust system. When a hazard is found at vehicle safety checks, those four problems are the ones that crop up most often.

Attention: The Editor
Dear Editor:

Will you through your columns help our Northwest Texas Chapter of the Myasthenia Gravis Foundation to locate patients of myasthenia gravis or relatives of patients, so that they can get in touch with our organization by writing to me.

The Northwest Texas Chapter covers 28 counties from the south line of Cochran, Hockley, Lubbock, Crosby, Dickens and King counties north to the Oklahoma make contact will all sufferers of myasthenia gravis (MG) in this big area in order to bring to them reports of new medicines and progress in research into the cause and cure of this baffling disease as the information comes to us from the national headquarters.

Unknown until 1835, untreated until 1935, MG has probably always been with us. We do know that diagnosis is most difficult and that neither cause nor cure has been determined. MG has been described as a neuro-muscular ailment of the voluntary muscles. Most recent study points to a chemical block at the muscle-nerve junction.

Common symptoms are drooping of the eyelids, tingling of arm, leg and back muscles. Involvement of muscles of face, jaw, tongue, and throat bring difficulty in smiling, chewing, talking, and swallowing. MG is no respecter of person, position or age. It attacks both children and adults. Sometimes it kills; more often it incapacitates.

Through the financial support of the Myasthenia Gravis Foundation, Inc. research is continuously going on to find cause and cure. Recently a new drug, phospholene oxide, not yet on the market, is being used experimentally in northern clinics and even by a few patients in our chapter area. We have made contacts with fifteen persons who have been diagnosed as having MG, and we ask your help in locating others.

We have films on MG which we would be glad to bring before any organization or group of people if they will write me and give the time and place for the showing. Thanking you for your cooperation in publishing this letter in your paper, we wish to assure you of our deep appreciation.

Gratefully yours,
Mrs. B. M. Harris

Mr. Bill Turner, Editor of Spoutin off.

Dear Sir:
In your column of May 29, 1960 entitled ALL THE COTTON, I've just been itching to answer to this article and I would like for you to print it in the same column if you care to do so. You quote "John Gregg of Lubbock, National Cotton Council representative made a point clear the other day in a talk to the local Rotary Club, that all the cotton production in the world is not worth a darn if the farmers have no place to market it."

Then said Gregg, the best way to assure or make sure that cotton is used, in other words when a fellow makes a choice between cotton and nylon socks, he should pick cotton ones.

Mr. Gregg did not state that the United States farmer receives the highest price for cotton than in any other country in the world due to parities and subsidies.

But I'm glad for the farmer, I hope that he can get a higher price, but just LETS PRACTICE WHAT WE PREAMCH

Mr. Turner: Do you use automobile tires with cotton cord, or does Mr. John Gregg?

How many pairs of ALL COTTON SOCKS DO YOU HAVE IN YOUR WARDROBE?

Have you examined your children's anklets to see whether they are COTTON, Rayon or Nylon. How many pairs of cotton stockings does your wife own? If she has any she wouldn't be caught dead in them.

OH YES, Mr. Gregg, of the National Cotton Council gets paid for going over the country preaching to the Rotary Clubs what he doesn't even practice himself. I did not see his car but I'll bet you $100 to your $50 that the tires were not all cotton cord.

After all, I've heard all my life that talk is cheap, but IS IT. Was Mr. Gregg here just to r "nuttin"?

Yours truly,
L. B. Stone

Sandhills Philosopher Business Men Don't Keep Up On Trends

The Sandhills Philosopher apparently doesn't have a full understanding of what the price index is, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:

One trouble with this country is that not enough business people keep up with the economic trends.

For example, I read in a copy of a newspaper day before yesterday that living costs rose four-tenths of one per cent in April as reflected by the consumers price index, a set of figures put out by the U. S. government.

As a result of this, the article explained, nearly a million workers in the auto, farm equipment, and related parts industries got an automatic 2-cents-an-hour pay raise. Their contracts call for adjustments based on the government's consumers price index.

Well, now, I figured, I'm in the auto and farm equipment business, so to speak, especially the parts end of it, so naturally I concluded I was supposed to get a pay raise too, and since nobody pays me by the hour out here on this grass farm, the only way I could see how to get a pay

A guest in the Bill Elms home Thursday was Mrs. Billie Elms of Littlefield.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McDaniel and Martha returned during the weekend. They were here for the lives in Florida and Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Dayton and little daughter of London, Texas returned home during the weekend. They were her for the wedding of her niece, Jo Ann Williams, and Buddy Bolton of Littlefield Thursday night.

Rev. John Rankin was in Dallas Monday for a meeting of the State Baptist Brotherhood Board.

Mr. and Mrs. David Cannon and son, Jackie, visited in the Leroy Cowan home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Caraway visited his father, J. M. Caraway and Mr. Caraway in Comanche last week.

increase was to raise the price of things I sell. I don't know how long it takes for a hen to lay a dozen eggs, but I figured on the basis of that 2-cents-an-hour boost the others were getting, me and my hens would settle for 2-cents-a-dozen increase, which ought to be cheap enough, so I automatically marked up the price that much, and took some to town.

Like I said, the trouble with this country is not enough business people keep up with the economic trends. I couldn't find an egg dealer in this part of the state who'd ever heard of the government's consumers price index. When I said the price of my er, they looked at me and thought I was crazy. What I figure is a lot of business people try who don't keep economic trends, or still using the same walls they had pasted up twenty-five years ago. You've got a price somewhere there at County Leader office. How about a bunch of these new and distributing the country?

My Sincere Appreciation to the many, many friends who supported my first attempt in seeking a public election as your commissioner of Public Safety. Until I can see each of you personally accept this simple word of THANKS!
