4-H clubs in Lamb County are presenting a dress review at the Amherst High School, Saturday afternoon, at 2 p.m. Sponsors are the Amherst High School, under the direction of Mrs. Xie M. Collier. The review will include models of clothing made the past year, and the theme of study presented will include Littlefield Junior and Senior, Sudan, Amherst, Fieldton, Hart Camp, Spade, Springlake and Olton.

Judges will include Mrs. Henry Williamson and Mrs. Wm. G. Rodgers and Miss Diane McClurkin. The latter is the agent at Muleshoe. Winners will be presented with ribbon awards.

Following the style show, a tea will be held honoring the girls, in the home of Mrs. John Nix at Amherst.

Number of Masons From Here Attend Scottish Rite Reunion

A number of Masons from Littlefield are attending the Scottish Rite Reunion, this week at El Paso, which opened Sunday, and will conclude their sessions tonight (Thursday).

Candidates who went for the purpose of taking the Scottish Rite work were: Johnny Miller, W. W. Strother and Dick Perrin, who left here Sunday.

Others attending the Reunion from this area were: Edwin Coffman, Howard Reese, Wiley Roberts, W. O. Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Messer, Mrs. Perrin, and Mayor A. C. Chesher, all of Littlefield; Jack Yarbrough of Amherst; Maddison Newton and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hobgood all on Anton; Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Ayers, and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Timms, all of Shallowater, Texas.

In conformity with an order by Secretary of Agriculture Brannen, ordering consolidation of agencies under his direction into one building, at one location, with a view to shrinking the cost of operation and number of personnel employed, wherever possible, a meeting of the four agencies which operate in Lamb County which includes Production Marketing Administration, (PMA) State Extension Service, including Agricultural Agency and Home Demonstration, both of which have been headquartered in Amherst, and Farmers Home Corporation (FHA) and Soil Conservation Service, which have been located at Littlefield and officed in the basement of the postoffice, was held in Amherst Monday.

Horace Walker of Olton, chairman of the Lamb PMA presided at the meeting, and after discussion it was agreed that it was neither possible or practical at this time to effect a consolidation of the four in this county.

Both Littlefield and Amherst have long desired the location of these services in their respective towns.

Amherst business men have contributed generously to the provision of quarters to House the County Agent's office, and has held it through the years. They have indicated that they will offer to provide additional facilities to house the two other agencies now at Littlefield, if the consolidation must be effected.

Littlefield, similarly, will probably make every effort to retain the offices they now have, and to likewise secure the two now located at Amherst, if the order is made mandatory to consolidate. It is understood that additional room could easily be provided, with some alterations in the local postoffice building, and local men point out, that Littlefield is now the County Seat of Lamb county.

Dear Mr. Wilkinson:

"As you know, the conference of prosecuting attorneys here on March 30-31 voted unanimously to request this office to mail to each County Attorney a list of the parties who paid the 1950-51 Federal tax on slot machines and gaming devices in his county, together with a copy of the appropriate District Attorney. TEXAS CONFEDERATE VETERAN CELEBRATES 105th BIRTHDAY

By MARAHA COLE

AUSTIN, TEX., (AP)—One hundred and five candles on a big white birthday cake.

They were the Thomas Enoch Riddle, a gray-haired man with a shock of white hair, his eyes twinkled and his smile.

He was 105 years old April 18, and he's one of those Confederate veterans still living in Texas.

Riddle is the only veteran who makes his home in the Texas Confederate home for men at Austin. He spends his days playing dominoes with his associates, listening to war news on the radio and taking a slow stroll, aided by a cane, around the yard.

He isn't the usual veteran, Walter W. Williams, who served in Hood's brigade, in the last days of the Civil War. The other veteran is J. W. Whitsett, 94, who served in the 2nd Missouri Cavalry, 1862, at Sherman.

Riddle was a private in the 10th Tennessee Infantry and fought under Gen. Robert B. Lee at Gettysburg.

You can still see where he fought.

He grew up and worked in the United States, making his home in Austin, Texas, on the staff of the Governor of Texas, Governor Miles Stoneman, in the 1880s. He moved to the Texas Confederate home last year.

His birthday party here has been in a big way, with the help of the Confederate Home, in a nearby room. The party was held in the home of the Confederate Home in Austin, Texas, on the staff of the Governor of Texas, Governor Miles Stoneman, in the 1880s. He moved to the Texas Confederate home last year.

What We Need is a New Name For 'Budget'

By OWEN L. WINTER

There is no question as to the fact that the word "budget" has become a household name. But it has never been used in its original sense. It is a word that has been used in many different ways, and it is time to give it a new name.

MacArthur Broadcast to Congress Joint Session 11 A. M. Today

Millions of radios throughout the United States, and for that matter, throughout the entire world will be dialed to stations (all major networks) carrying the broadcast of Five-Star General Douglas MacArthur's report to a joint session of congress in the Nation's Capitol, at 11:30 a.m. this Thursday morning. The appearance of the famed General, to give his version of all matters connected with the Korean war and the far East, was arranged after both houses of Congress voted an invitation to the General to appear and make a report following his recall as far Eastern Military commander by President Truman last week.

The General's talk before Congress will also be shortwaved to all corners of the world, and will be televised, as well.

The entire country has been aroused to intensity since President Truman announced the recall of MacArthur from his high command in Tokyo, Japan. Monday, the White House in announcing the receipt of thousands of letters and telegrams from all sections of the country, in approval or disapproval, of the Truman action, stated that 80 per cent disapproved, while 40 per cent approved. It added that the later arrived messages, exactly reversed the trend.

MacArthur arrived to a great welcome in San Francisco Tuesday, and his schedule calls for arrival in Washington this Thursday morning. Friday he will be welcomed officially in the Nation's largest city, New York.

Time stated here, for the broadcast is Texas time. Much business activity throughout the nation will be at a standstill during he broadcast.

Pfc Glynel Sherman McCary

PFC Glynel Sherman McCary, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman McCary of this city, graduated as a special teletype mechanic Tuesday of last week at the Francis E. Warren Air Force Base, Cheyenne, Wyoming and is being transferred to Kelly Field, San Antonio, as a teacher of Teletype Mechanics.

Enroute to San Antonio Pfc McCary will spend five days with his parents here. He is expected to arrive Monday.

McCary was graduated from the Littlefield high school with the class of 1949. He attended the University at Albuquerque, New Mexico for sometime, and enlisted in the Air Force on October 7, 1950. He was stationed at Sheppard Field, Wichita Falls, Texas, until November, when he was transferred to Francis E. Warren Air Force Base.

McCary is also receiving training in the operation of the linotype.

Littlefield Cub Scouts Tour Santa Fe Railroad Yards at Slaton Saturday

Approximately fifty members of the Littlefield Cub Scout troops, along with ten troop leaders joined the 1300 other Cub Scouts from over the South Plains Council, returned Saturday night after touring facilities of Santa Fe railroad yards at Slaton.

The group boarded a Santa Fe 16 car special, at the Lubbock depot shortly after 9 a.m. Saturday morning, and were taken to the Slaton yards where they were shown through the roadhouse, a 2400 steam locomotive, a three-unit diesel engine and a caboose. Other points of interest explained to the group were in the railroad's power-house machine shop, offices and a wrecker.

After the tour was completed about noon, the group was taken to Slaton city square where they ate sack lunches. Two booths were set up by Slaton Cub Pack and Boy Scout troop, and drinks were available. The Slaton High School band furnished music during the lunch hour.

Den mothers and den dads, attending from here included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duvall, Mrs. Jed Clarida, Mrs. C. E. Payne, Mrs. C. G. Clark, Mrs. Roy Wade, Jody Giddens, den chief; Mrs. Chas Latham, Mrs. W. F. Williamson, C. B. McWilliams, and Mrs. Earl Hutchinson.

Law Does Not Require That Self Employed File Report Quarterly

If you work for yourself and are planning to include your name on the quarterly Social Security tax return you will file for your employees in April, don't. So says John G. Hutton, Manager of the Lubbock Social Security office.

Hutton says that many businessmen who come under Social Security as self-employed are under the impression that they should report their net income quarterly in the same manner that their employees are reported. This assumption is incorrect. A self-employed individual comes under Social Security only if the net income from his business is $400 or more per year.

In most cases, it is not possible to determine the amount of net income from a business until the end of the year, since profits in earlier months may be offset by losses occurring later. For that reason, the self-employed are required to report only once each year. This report will be made at the same time the annual income tax return is filed. A form for this purpose will be furnished by the Collector of Internal Revenue along with the income tax forms.

Hutton reminds housewives and farm operators that April is the month to send their first reports to the Collector of Internal Revenue if they have employees who are covered under the amended law.

Mr. Hutton will be in Littlefield at the Post office on Wednesday April 25 at 1:30 p.m. and will be glad to assist anyone in matters pertaining to social security.

"Skipper" Smith

 president for two years, of Littlefield Jaycees, to one of the 12 regional vice-presidencies, and due to their voluciferous support and also due to the fine qualifications and qualities of the local man, he he was overwhelmingly elected, and will serve as vice president of this district for the next year.

Regional Vice-Presidents
 Eleven other regional vice presidents were also elected. They are:

Gene McDonald of Berger; Howard (Rocky) Ford of Midland; James Lindsey of Stamford; Edward Sheridan of San Antonio; Frank Long of Corpus Christi.

And John Cook of Baytown; Jay Matthew of Austin; Bill Moore of Tyler; George Bateman of Garland; L. L. Larue of Denton; Donald Caldwell of Mexia. No Houston candidates were in the race.

"Skipper" Smith Vice-President was pleased and elated at his election, but the membership of the local Jaycee organization were even more enthusiastic and pleased, if such is possible. He had done an enviable job as an active Jaycee. He was formerly in the produce business here, but is now engaged in farming. He has lived here for many years past. The family, which includes his wife and two children make their home on 16th Street in Littlefield.

Outstanding Record
 The new President has been in Littlefield frequently. He served as director of the census for this Congressional District last year and visited Littlefield again at that time.

Whiteley was state vice president of the organization during 1948-49. In 1949-50 he was one of the four national directors, and was voted the outstanding Texas Jaycee officer in 1949. He is married and has two children.

Whiteley first came to Lubbock as a student at Texas Tech, working his way through school. He is now owner of the Lubbock Nursery and a local real estate man. He and his wife, Doris, have two daughters, one 3½ years and the other six months old. They live at 401 North College Avenue.

Awards Presented
 The following annual Jaycee awards were presented at the dinner:

Dallas, Baytown and Amarillo Jaycees received the Geissenber awards for over-all activities the past year.
 Snyder received the Dunagan memorial trophy as the outstanding first year club.

New Braunfels received the outstanding single project award for its Miss Texas pageant.

Others Are Honored
 Raymond Roberts, Grand Prairie, was named the state's outstanding local committee chairman; V. G. Marshall, Denton, the most outstanding local secretary; Max Roesch, Austin, the outstanding state committee chairman, and Jack Pate, Amarillo, as the outstanding vice president.

Resolution Passed
 The delegates passed two resolutions. One urged all Texas Junior chambers of commerce to actively back any legislation that would give the tidelands back to Texas.

The Jaycees also endorsed proposed state legislation that would split the state training school for boys at Gatesville into four units at four separate towns.

The tidelands resolution also calls upon local Jaycee organizations to appoint special committee "to arouse in its community an active interest in this issue."

Mrs. Whitefield was in the house at the time and told officers she didn't hear the shot. She said she had thought her husband had gone to the tailor shop but noticing the family car in front of the house, went to the workshop where she found Whitfield.

Whitfield was struck by a charge of No. 6 shot in the right side of his neck.

He was a veteran of World War II and was mayor of Anton in 1943.

Survivors include his wife and two daughters, Jane Ann age 15 and a four months old baby.

Federal Records

 that taxes were paid on any gaming devices in your county for this fiscal year.

Due to the absence of payment of the $150 per machine tax, it may be assumed that your county is free of these gambling devices, since it is very seldom that anyone would display such a machine in violation of the Federal tax statutes. I congratulate you and the other law enforcement officers of your county and hope that you will be able to continue such a good record in the future. According to the Kefauver Committee reports, slot machines and similar gaming devices are the "easy money" support of the national crime syndicates, drawing from two or three billion dollars annually from the people of the nation.

"I appreciate the cooperation of County and District Attorneys of our State in waging such a vigorous campaign against organized crime that present violators will close shop and outside hoodlums and racketeers will know that Texas is no place for their business."

Sincerely yours,

 called a meeting to be held at Legion Hut Friday night of this week. The findings of this meeting, will be studied by the department executive committee, department foreign relations committee and the department defense committee, all of which have been called to meet in Austin, Sunday, April 22.

Nationally, the Legion has taken cognizance of the seriousness of the controversy, following reports of the cancellation of a conference between the Legion's National Commander and President Truman, last week.

Bombarded by telephone calls and telegrams from all sections of the state, Commander Elkins declared "this is too momentous a question for the Legion to take snap judgment on."

Some of the Legionnaires defended MacArthur and others were equally vocal in defense of President Truman as commander in chief.

"Legionnaires are all veterans. We are not dodging or pussyfooting. I believe any half-baked, half cocked action by me, as commander, would not represent the 100,000 Texas Legionnaires. In a few days we can all look at the matter in a proper perspective. That's why I am urging every Texas Post commander to call a mass meeting at once, thrash out the matter, and through their division and district commanders bring their sentiments to Austin. Then we can all get together, let our hair down and come to a sensible agreement."

Interested non-Legionnaires as well as all Legionnaires from across the state are invited to attend the meeting of the State Legion governing body, Elkins said in his statement.

Old Fashioned Lace Returns to Style

There is a genuine old-fashioned note in 1951's newest summer fashions.

Cotton lace, which had its heyday in the hoopskirt and pantaloons era, is making a triumphant return in this season's styles.

Not only are laces being used as an accent to highlight other fabrics, but they are being used for sportswear, street dresses, formal, and even swim suits. National Cotton Council fashionists report.

White and cream colors lead the list of most popular colors in cotton lace. Dark, rich colors and bright high shades—red, sharp green, aqua, and periwinkle—are other shades favored in cotton lace fashions.

Glamorous Evening Frocks Set Romantic Mood In Season's Fashionable Sheer Cotton Fabrics

Summer's magic mood, which hits its stride in cool, romantic evenings of dancing under the stars, is doubly enchanting this year. The magic is twofold, for designers have created evening styles in wonderful new cottons to make a girl pretty as a princess or glamorous as a siren.

The full, swirling bouffant dress, so beloved for light-hearted dancing, is newest and most popular in the short version. A whole new array of zephyr-weight cotton sheers has given added inspiration to designers for the new short formal. National Cotton Council fashion authorities report Voiles, lawns, batistes and organdies come in new prints, stripes, fancy plaids and block checks that give them an interesting, 1951 look.

Anne Forgarty of Marget has dreamed up a series of these pretty dresses in unusual organdies. Some are "frosted" with a lovely white blistered effect on futed pastel grounds; some are striped; some show a woven shadow plaid; while others are in lush plain colors like sea green. All have tightly nipped in waistlines above exaggeratedly full skirts. They have unique necklines such as a high neck in front and a low "v" décolletage in back, or a deeply cut square in front and back, with finely, dropped sleeves.

However popular the new short formal has become, the traditional "full-dress" floor-length ball gowns in sumptuous cottons are still holding their own. Many occasions in a summer of festivity and fun demand such an elegant gown as the striking white pique designed by Pierre Balmain.

Summer's siren mood for evening is seen in the "sensational sheath" — the slim, uncluttered basic shell or slip dress, which has become a year-round, day-evening classic. Cotton sheaths in lustrous broadcloth, cotton satin, and textured piques are inspired additions to the sheath this summer are the apron-tunics. Not only do they convert the simple shell into an entirely different costume, but they give it an air of motion, and also may often be used as cape cover-ups.

COTTON ALLURE

Three cool cotton separates by Susan Thomas promise all-around summer allure. The cotton lace overskirt lends a dancing note to a skirt and camisole top of Soap 'n' Water "Everglaze" Taffa. The fabric is a washable, wrinkle-resistant cotton, fashion experts report.

Horatio Alger Rise Marks Denim Use

Equal to the famous rags to riches success story of fiction's Horatio Alger is cotton denim's climb to fashion prominence.

Only a short while ago the workaday cloth of overalls and clothing worn exclusively by farmers and laborers, denim today is seen in the smartest playclothes, street dresses, and dressmaker suits designed by fashion pacesetters for style-minded women.

The sturdy fabric has been glamorized with luscious new colors. In addition to traditional blue denim, green, canary yellow, lime, rust, brown and other eye-catching colors are used for denim fabrics. Colorful woven stripes add dash to many denims.

No Machine Can Do This

One of the marvels of the new field of electronics is a machine that "thinks"—a complicated mechanism that can select the right answer to a highly involved mathematical equation. But in the creative branches of science, the pharmacy is one, no machine made can ever match the and dexterity of the human hand which is guided by intelligence. Only a trained and experienced pharmacist compound your prescribed medicine exactly as you intended it to be.

Site of Indian Raid Discovered

BURNET, TEX., (AP)—A number of old guns have been found scattered among the boulders of a natural rock fort near this central Texas town.

Apparently they mark the site of an Indian raid on a camp of white settlers.

Donald Murchison was running his trap lines on the ranch of his father, Oscar Murchison, when he found the guns on the side of a rocky hill.

With the guns were iron cooking utensils and other items. Donald went for help. He returned and gathered nine flint lock rifles of varied size and length, minus stocks long exposed to the weather.

A Spanish axe similar to present day pictures of Spanish tools was found, also scythe blades, an old wood auger, a pair of steel stirrups but no saddle, a Spanish spur, a bullet-mold, Indian grinding stones used in grinding grain, a cannon ball and various iron pots and a large brass key.

The Murchison family has lived on the ranch for more than 85 years. The presumption is that the equipment was left on the hillside by victims of Indians, or robbers.

The area is rich in Texas history. The Mormons established a settlement near here in the 1850's, a federal fort was established on Burnet's western city limits to help drive off Indians and open the country up for settlement. The granite for the capitol building at Austin and for the Galveston sea wall came from an area west of here. Longhorn Cavern near here was a hangout for both whites and Indians in the last half of the century.

Texas Senate Honors Lamb County Boys

A Texas Senate Resolution last week the proud possessor of the Littlefield boys at the Littlefield boys' camp last week, who were honored for their achievement in the State Capitol.

During their Austin visit, they were seated on the floor of the Senate, and also by Governor. In further tribute to the boys, the Senate unanimously passed a resolution, officially ordering that a copy of the resolution be spread on Texas and also that a copy of the resolution be given to each of the boys.

Probably the first time at such a large Lamb County ever been so honored.

FIGHT WATERWAY Proposed St. Lawrence Seaway Project Finds No Favor With Senator Tom Connally and Congressman Pickett

By TEX EASLEY

AP Special Washington Service WASHINGTON, (AP)—Backers of St. Lawrence Seaway project, an $800,000,000 plan to bring ocean-going shipping to Great Lakes ports and harness the international river for power probably wish they never had run up against a couple of Texas Toms—Messrs. Connally and Pickett.

The first, as chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, has been a powerful force for years past in blocking the development. On the house side, Palestine's Congressman Pickett has emerged this session as an extremely able opponent of the project.

For fifty years there has been talk of damming the St. Lawrence River to provide a 27-foot deep channel over rapids that are now skirted by a 14-foot canal and lock system. Hydroelectric units in the proposed dam are rated capable of generating 12 billion kilowatts of power annually, to be shared between the United States and Canada.

Opponents of the plan include the association of American Railroads and officials of ports who feel they would lose traffic if the St. Lawrence were deep enough to handle ocean-going vessels.

Port authorities in Texas have voiced fears that such a seaway would take away wheat cargoes from the Midwest grain fields, which would have to go shorter distances by rail if moved through Great Lakes ports.

Connally has been an outspoken opponent of the proposal in the past and he says he is still against it. He hasn't appointed a subcommittee yet to study the project again, though President Truman has renewed his recommendation for its authorization.

Hearings on the authorizing legislation have been going on for weeks before the House Public Works Committee. The searching and pointed questioning of witnesses by Pickett has won even the reluctant admiration of some proponents.

Economy is the basis of Pickett's opposition. Pointing to the huge national debt and mounting expenditures for the military, he says:

"We have to eliminate the unessential in federal expenditures, reduce the desirable as much as possible and scrutinize the necessary very carefully before authorizing or appropriating funds."

He participated in hearings on the project last year.

"At the conclusion of testimony in behalf of the bill," he adds, "I decided against approving the project. I approached the hearings this year with that feeling in mind. There has been no actual evidence submitted to me to date that would cause me to change my mind."

Evangelist From Italy To Speak At Springlake Church

Bro. C. R. PADEN

Another C. R. Paden who is to speak Monday, April 23, at the Springlake Church of Christ on the work being done by the churches of Christ in Italy, has just recently returned from that country where he has been engaged in evangelistic work.

Brother Paden is eminently qualified to speak on this subject for he has had a leading part in this work from the beginning. In November, 1947 he and Brother William Hatcher of Detroit, Mich. were out to Italy to investigate the possibility of beginning the work of the church of Christ. After two months they returned, and throughout 1948 preparation was made for this beginning.

Brother Paden and 12 other workers entered Italy in January, 1949 and began the work. The teaching program was begun immediately and has been carried forward vigorously since that time. Also, several thousand people were clothed with the approximately 150,000 lbs. of clothing that was sent to Italy by the churches of Christ in America. Unfortunately the Italian Government will no longer allow the church to do this work.

In May, 1949, Frascati Orphan's Home for boys was started. Brother Paden is the superintendent of this home. At present 30 boys are in the home.

Nine churches have been established during the past two years with several hundred converts. A Correspondence Course with students in every section of Italy is a part of the work of the church. All of these things will be discussed in the meeting Monday night.

Brother Paden returned to America on February 12, 1951 and can give a picture of Italy as it is today: a picture unknown to the tourist or the business man during their brief stay in that country.

Brother Paden will return to Italy to resume his work about the middle of June, 1951. Since March, 1945, with the exception of one year in school, Brother Paden has been working for or under the Crescent Hill church of Christ, Brownfield, Texas, first as local minister and then as evangelist to Italy.

AIRPLANES INVADE COTTONFIELDS

Airplanes play an important part in cotton insect control. Skilled pilots fly low over the cotton rows while special attachments on the planes emit a stream of poisonous chemical dust or sprays to kill the boll weevil and other cotton-attacking pests. El Paso Chamber of Commerce Invites Vacationers To Hunt in Mountains For Pancho Villa Buried Gold and Jewels

EL PASO, TEX.,—(AP)—The El Paso Chamber of Commerce invites you to spend your vacation hunting for buried treasure.

The Chamber, well aware of the pulling power of stories of hidden wealth, has revived a legend given much credence in the Southwest.

The legend is that an agent of Pancho Villa, the Mexican bandit and revolutionary, buried a king's ransom in gold and jewels in the Franklin Mountains near here.

"How much of this story is true?" The chamber asks in a widely-distributed news release. "No one knows. But it would be a lot of fun on your vacation to take a crack at Villa's treasure. Who knows? You might strike it rich."

The chamber's story continues along this line:

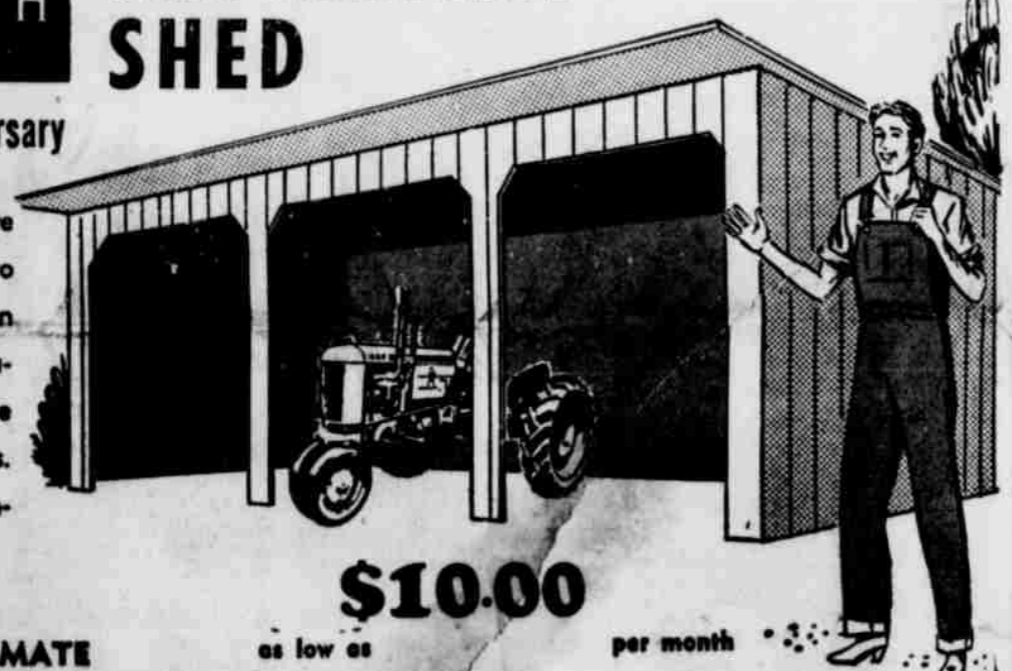

Villa roamed at will from the poppy fields of Sinaloa to the barren Chihuahua and Sonora. Wherever he went he robbed and killed. As time passed he became immensely rich. His valuable jewels and coins became bulky and difficult to care for. He finally re-

Typhoid Fever May Be Controlled

"It is a well known fact that typhoid fever may result from the use of water, milk, or other food contaminated by germs discharged by patients or carriers of the typhoid germ," stated Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"The fact that we know the source of infection and the means by which infection may be controlled emphasizes the importance to all communities of providing water and milk of the highest quality.

"There is being used in many sections this year and all communities should put forth every effort to see that an epidemic occurs only if it is necessary for the health of the community.

"Typhoid fever may be controlled by the use of pure water, pasteurized milk and clean food; by the proper disposal of sewage; by preventing contact with the disease; by protecting food from contamination; and by restriction of the use of the drinking places by search for and cure of carriers, and by anti-typhoid vaccination.

"Carriers from persons ill with typhoid should be carefully instructed to prevent the germ from passing the soil and the water supply. When there is an effective system of waste purification, typhoid fever has greatly decreased.

"It is the responsibility of each community to establish adequate safeguards against the transmission of contaminated products at all times and in all places.

"It is the responsibility of each individual to further control the occurrence of typhoid fever by establishing immunity by means of vaccination."

WILLIAMS LANGE PHILOSOPHER SAYS TREATMENT, WARDENSHIP BOTH WAYS BE WARDING, AND THEN KAREN'S ALONE

Williams Lange, philosopher, said in his address at the Seaside High School, that the difference between the treatment of the two boys was that one was treated as a criminal and the other as a human being.

A Heap o' Hats Especially When They Are Derbies

The West Texas town of Dalhart is abandoning the traditional ten-gallon hat and other cowboy styles temporarily, according to the Associated Press. As a stunt to publicize the Dalhart's golden jubilee party may 25-26, a thousand men will wear headgear of 50 years ago—derbies. We are wondering where the Dalhart men will find the 1,000 derbies. The derby was a popular hat in the east away back when, and perhaps was worn to a limited extent in the west, but 1,000 old-time hats are a lot of hats, and hunting up 1,000 derbies is a heap more hats than just ordinary hats.

REGINA—(P)—When a team of horses bolted from the railway tracks in a heavy snowstorm at Kresson, they saved the life of farmer Guy McCall, who was in the enclosed sleigh and did not see a freight train that missed him "by inches."

Brownfield Site For Parent-Teacher Congress In 1952

Mrs. F. E. Yohner and Mrs. Ray Hulise, represented Littlefield P. T. A. at the annual district conference of the 14th District, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, held in Lockney last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Yohner, vice president of Lamb, Bailey, and Cochran Counties assisted in conducting a workshop, and also presided during one of the morning sessions.

Brownfield was chosen as the site of the 1952 annual conference, with E. O. Douglas, superintendent of Brownfield schools, presenting the invitation. Littlefield was among the other invitations received, as were Muleshoe and Plainview.

Mrs. M. C. Butler of Lubbock, president of the organization presided. Anson was among the schools receiving an award for scrap books, having placed third. Littlefield P. T. A. reported having the most members of any of the organizations represented at the Congress. They reported a combined membership of the two local units of approximately 600.

According to Mrs. Yohner, outstanding speakers for the occasion were Mrs. E. T. Pittard of Anson, who talked on "Christianity Basis for World Citizenship," and Gordon Bennett, vice president of McNairy College, who made a talk based on "Who is a Responsible Citizen?" Other outstanding speakers were H. F. Godeke, of Lubbock, state education relations, and Mrs. E. M. Pittman of Anson, state vice president of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers.

BRITISH WOMEN LIVE LONGER

LONDON—(P)—Medical statistician Dr. W. J. Martin reported in a paper read to the Royal Statistical Society that there is a higher death rate among men than women in England and Wales. He said no satisfactory explanation for this has been found.

Dr. Martin stated that it was previously thought the occupational risks were an explanation of the shorter lives of men, but "the large increase in the proportion of women engaged in industry in recent years has not affected the mortality sex ratio."

ABANDONED SHELLS KILL 1,400 ITALIAN CHILDREN ANNUALLY

ALLY—ROME—(P)—Almost six years after the end of World War II, buried and abandoned shells, hand grenades and land mines are killing approximately 1,400 Italian children annually. The tragic deaths are recorded almost daily in Italy's press. Recently, a series of unrelated disasters took 24 lives, including 16 children within a week. In one of the tragedies, four brothers, ranging in age from eight to 15, died in the explosion of a near Naples.

Accused Of Taking Bones of "Peking"

WRECKED TRUCK
IVOR, VA.—(P)—State Trooper A. O. Downing said he had never seen so many curious people before in his life. But he refused to let any of them stop on U. S. Route 460 near here after a heavy tractor-trailer truck ran off the road, overturned and struck a tree. There were no personal injuries, but the truck was badly damaged—along with parts of its cargo. The cargo—headed for Alcoholic Beverage Control Board stores in the Tidewater area—was $20,000 worth of bonded whisky.

QUEBEC—(P)—An slum settlement here was attracted as much to the provincial legislature, is being cleared by city government. For more than six years, principal authorities have been about what to do with the settlement army barracks. The city plans to demolish and erect about 100 flats for the slum's 100. The new cottages will be the evicted families' monthly installment plan.

Two Fires in Sudan, Recently, Do An Estimated $15,000 Damage

Two disastrous fires, both of unknown origin, destroyed an estimated $15,000 worth of property in and near Sudan Wednesday morning of last week. The first, discovered at approximately 4:15 a.m. at the Mission Service Station in Sudan by C. C. Serratt, completely gutted the station destroying an estimated two to three thousand dollars worth of tires, tubes, batteries, accessories and fixtures belonging to Earl Davison of Sudan, operator of the Mission Service Station. The building, property of J. D. Chester of Sudan was a complete loss and damage was estimated at more than $2,000.00.

The second fire which completely destroyed the Joe Young Grocery in the Friendship Community about 8 miles southwest of Sudan at approximately 8:15 Wednesday morning started in a closed section of the grocery and although Mr. Young and customers were present when the flames broke out were able to save only a few valuable items. Damage to the Friendship store was estimated by Mr. Young at $10,000. The Friendship Store was partially insured as was the Mission Station, however, it is reported that Davison had no insurance whatever on the contents of the Service Station.

The entire Sudan Volunteer Fire Department, plus many local citizens in Sudan got out of warm beds in the early morning hours to fight the fire at the Mission Station in near zero temperatures. It was only a matter of minute until the fire was under control, but it had been discovered too late to save anything.

Mr. Davison says the only thing he saved was his account tickets which he had made a habit to carry home with him at night.

The station was built about 15 years ago by John Dea and was later sold to J. D. Chester.

To Rebuild Station
Mr. Chester announced that he would start immediately to rebuild the completely burned station. The destroyed structure was of stone and only the walls were left standing. Mr. Chester says that he plans to build the new building of a tile construction.

Davison and his father had operated the station for about 2 years.

Doubtful If Friendship Store Will Be Rebuilt

Mr. Joe Young, owner of the Friendship Grocery which was completely destroyed said that he was not definite at this time whether or not the store would be rebuilt. "That depends on a lot of things, whether material and supplies are available, and etc.," said Young.

Mr. Young said that the Friendship store had been in operation for almost 15 years, and was built by Don Carzile. He purchased the store in 1949 and had operated it only about two years.

The cash register, a soda case, scales, books and a few general items were carried from the building by Mr. Young and Henry Williams, a customer who was in the store when the blaze was discovered.

R. H. White, who lives about 7 miles southwest of Sudan bought the top-price bull at the Guernsey cattle sale held during the Panhandle-South Plains Dairy show in Plainview Tuesday. This bull was Meadow Lodge Benefactor, consigned by Kend B. Hayes of Oklahoma City. The price paid by White was $320.00.

Twenty-one Guernseys were sold in the annual auction of the High Plains Guernsey Breeders association. The average sale price for 18 females was $322.00 and the average price for three bulls was $260.00. Top price paid was $650.00 for Strongheart Proda consigned by C. S. Lankhart of Waco. She was bought by Donald D. Douglas of Plainview, and was judged the cow with the best udder.

According to Mr. White, the show was a big success. Judges were excellent, and the Grand Champion female honors were won by J. T. Ivy and son, of the Bluff View farm, near Dallas.

Tom Cooper of Ardmore, Oklahoma showed the Grand Champion Senior Bull and Kent B. Hayes of Oklahoma City had the Junior Champion.

The breeders enjoyed a banquet held in the Plainview Community building and heard as the guest speaker, A. F. Schreid, of Whitesboro, Texas, president of the organization.

The bull purchased by White was the Junior Grand Champion and a large number of Sudan people saw him here yesterday morning as Mr. White was enroute to his farm with the prize animal.

Doctors believe that Howard Ray of Olton, will not lose his foot, which was hanging by tendons, when it was nearly severed in an elevator, while he was working at Hart a few weeks ago.

The foot, attached only by tendons at the heel when he was brought to Olton Memorial, apparently will be saved, said Dr. Gale Seigler of Olton, who did the operating.

Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Bene and their one year old son Balzas Christopher moved to Amherst recently.

The Benes are from England and originally from Budapest, Hungary. They arrived in the United States at New York harbor on the Queen Mary March 27 of this year.

Why not give your Pride a Break?

LET'S see what it means to own a ROADMASTER.

It means, first of all, that you're a shrewd judge of fine manufacture. Nowhere will you find a mechanism more skilfully fitted part to part with scrupulous precision—engineered to stricter standards of fine-car quality—than the deep-framed and durable ROADMASTER chassis.

It means, also, that you possess keen appreciation of everything that makes for unsurpassed performance.

For there's more to this dazzling beauty than its thrilling take-off. There's the surplus of power that you need to make you the master of busy traffic or open road—plus the velvet magic of Dynaflo Drive (at no extra cost, mind).

There's the level-going luxury of ample roadweight buoyantly balanced on coil springs on every wheel—and the security of brakes specifically engineered for firm control of this great-powered beauty.

But there's still another distinction to being a ROADMASTER owner. It marks you as one who buys wisely and well. Size for size, pound for pound, feature for feature, few cars can even approach what your dollars will buy in this finest of Buicks.

There's much more to be discovered by a visit to any Buick dealer's showroom.

There's the sumptuous softness of cushions, the custom excellence of fabrics and interior trim, the grace and charm of every line and contour.

So if you've dreamed of something like owning a car superbly fine, there's no time like the present—and no car like a ROADMASTER for making dreams come true.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

Spade Co-operative Gin Officers Announce $60,000 Profit Year

Two hundred and fifty citizens of the Spade Community, most of them patrons or members of the Spade Co-Operative, Inc., which owns and operates the Spade Gin, at Spade, celebrated with a get-together program, and party at the Spade School house gymnasium Tuesday night, April 10.

The celebration was arranged by the officers of the Co-Operative, who chose this time to announce to their large membership, and the public, the very flourishing condition of their gin, and W. E. Bentley, President, at the meeting, proudly accounted that the gin, now valued at $130,720.45, was able to show a profit of approximately $60,000 from last year's operation. And he also announced, as he presided over the meeting, that the Co-Operative is entirely debt free except for stock to be delivered to farmers, which has been earned by them in the past three years. Edwin Merriman, auditor for the gin, read the complete financial report.

In addition to the president, other officers are R. D. Stokes, vice president, R. L. Stubblefield, Secretary, M. T. Hall and R. T. Black. T. E. Williams is the manager. In addition to the report above, other routine business was attended to, with the various of-cers participating. C. O. Head, school superintendent, was in charge of arrangements for the serving of a sumptuous menu at the big feed which was a feature of the evening. Messdames Stafford, Worley and Garrett, were in charge of food preparations, and it received a unanimous vote of praise.

A fine entertainment program had also been arranged and was enjoyed by everyone. It included a free showing of motion pictures, courtesy of G. W. Steffey.

Other fine program numbers were presented, by Mrs. Akins, and by Sam T. Redwine, known to the listeners on KVOW as "Piano Sam," and to several numbers by the Littlefield "Four," composed of John Clayton, Curtis Strain, Dewey Westmoreland and Joe Dunn.

Prospects for the Spade Co-Operative for the coming season are bright indeed. Cotton acreage in the area will be vastly increased and the opening of the fall ginning season will find the Spade Gin in top shape. Prospects are excellent for an even bigger profit year the coming season, with all gins anticipating capacity business, as Lamb County prepares to plant its greatest cotton acreage in history.

as Los Dorados and were specialists of the devastating cavalry charge.

One cold morning in the high city of Durango, Villa summoned one of his lieutenants to his tent. "Teniente, I have a grave duty for you to perform," and he proceeded to give certain instructions.

That same day, seven men with heavily laden pack mules left Durango for the country far to the north. Each mule was piled high with leather bags containing the treasure. Six men, heavily armed, rode ahead and to the sides of the booty. The lieutenant traveled behind.

Weeks later, the odd little group of hard bitten men crossed the Rio Grande below the little Mexican village of Zaragossa. The lieutenant, by now more tense and nervous than ever, began to show signs of fatigue. The others in the party watched him curiously. They wondered what he meant to do, for he had told them nothing.

They soon turned up the mouth of a canon that leads into the Franklin Mountains. As they progressed up the steep slope, the lieutenant knew the time was at hand.

The group unloaded the burrows, stacking the treasure neatly upon the ground, and began to dig a hole in the rocky soil of Mount Franklin upon the orders of their superior.

The hole crew ever deeper; then came the shots. Six of them. Followed by screams of mortal anguish. In the stillness that followed could be heard the swish, swish, or dirt being thrown into a hole, covering the treasure and any signs of the murder committed.

Before leaving, the lieutenant made a map of sorts to use in returning for the treasure. Upon a nearby rock he inscribed one word in Spanish. "Oro", Gold!

The lieutenant returned to Villa's headquarters. That evening, after Villa was handed the map, the lieutenant died quietly in bed. He was buried, at Villa's orders, by torchlight.

Before the end of the revolution Villa met his Waterloo at the hands of Alvaro Obregon and retired on a ranch near Parral. He was ambushed one day as he drove into Parral and never reaped much value from his ill gotten gains.

That's the story. At the chamber of Commerce, no one knows where truth ends and legend begins, and, as the Chamber also says, someone could find Villa's treasure.

Important Message To Ice Users New Ice Delivery Plan . . . Ice Service Reorganized

In an effort to give better service to the most customers, we have organized a scheduled, basic, ice delivery service. We no longer use the ice window cards, but instead use a route book which contains a list of all customers and the time in which they are to receive ice. New customers are added in their proper place.

BASIC RULES NECESSARY

We must have certain basic rules in order that we may serve everyone fairly. We cannot make special deliveries for two reasons. It would interrupt our schedule, and would incur extra expense, in the amount that it would make the sale highly unprofitable. Any delivery other than at the regular delivery time would be considered "Special". Exceptions to this rule may be made only in the case of very urgent need.

50 POUNDS MINIMUM

There will be a minimum of 50 pounds required on crushed ice deliveries. A minimum of 25 pounds of solid ice deliveries except in the case of regular water cooler customers who must purchase a coupon book, or pay 15 cents for 12½ pounds. Coupon books will be sold only in the amounts of ice required in delivery.

WE WILL DO OUR UTMOST TO WORK OUT ANY INDIVIDUAL PROBLEM IN ICE SERVICE

BASIC ROUTES WORKED OUT

The following basic routes have been worked out on the theory that they will meet the requirements of the majority of customers:

First Morning Business Run—All business places open before 7:30 o'clock;

Residence—Every other day alternately, West Side and East Side. Between 9 a. m. and noon.

Evening Business Run—Starts about 3:30 p. m. and is service for business places requiring ice twice daily, or afternoons only.

MUST CALL PLANT EARLY

Customers requiring ice at infrequent intervals will be required to call the plant in time for the driver to load the extra ice before leaving on the scheduled delivery. This rule also applies to once a day customers who occasionally require ice at the other delivery time.

WE AIM TO PLEASE

The problems of ice service are many. It is our aim to please everyone as nearly as possible. If you have an individual problem or feel that your ice service is not what you expect, please call the manager and discuss the problem with him.

FAST SERVICE ON CRUSHED ICE

We have plenty of regular ice paper bags in 12½ and 25 pound sizes for crushed ice at the dock. Your own container will be necessary for larger amounts. There will usually be ice crushed and waiting in the paper bags. If not only about 15 seconds are required to crush a bag of ice.

Please Drive In on the East Side of the Retail Dock
THANKS!

UNSURPASSED in the ½- to 2-ton truck field!

TALK about power! These great new GMC's are unsurpassed in horsepower in the ½- to 2-ton field—power to keep hauling years longer! But new engines are only part of the story.

From the rims up, these GMC's are truck-engineered to stay young throughout the uncertain years ahead. You get proof in feature after feature from individual models—things like wider Twin-Action hydraulic brakes, heavier axles and longer "pillow-action" springs.

Yet extra quality is standard GMC equipment. You pay no "extras" for such things as easy-turn steering with recirculating ball-bearing action, the Ventipane-controlled ventilation of the Weathersealed "Six-Footer" Cab—Turbo-Top pistons that develop higher power without "knock" even when using standard-grade gasolines!

So come in. Select from the widest range of engine-body-chassis combinations, 9 smart new colors. Drive out in a rugged '51 GMC! You'll know it will take you farther, cost less to run—because it's built to last like the big ones!
