Wildcats Test Cubs In Comeback Fight

Tilt At 8 p.m. In Brownfield

Littlefield Wildcat's, surprised by a stubborn tribe of Indians from Seminole last weekend in a 20-20 tie, hit the comeback trail Friday night when they travel to Brownfield for a tilt with the once-beaten Cubs.

Despite the tie which left the Cats with a 1-0-1 records, polls around the state this week retained them in the top 10 ranks.

The Associated Press rated the Cats as the tenth team in AAA while various sectional ratings classed them as high as fourth position.

Brownfield opened the '60 season with 12 lettermen returning from the 4-6 squad of last year. In their first game against Colorado City (an upcoming opponent of the Cats October 14), the Cubs rolled to a stunning 21-6 victory.

After spotting the Wolves a six point lead in the first two minutes of play, Brownfield roared back to score three times and bottle the Colorado City offense to emerge on top.

The three Cub TD's came, directly or indirectly, from the passing arm of quarterback Keith Addison. A 12-yard pass from Addison to halfback Richard Collins scored while passes by Addison pushed the ball deep into Wolf territory, allowing halfback Johnny Murphy to score on short runs.

In their second game against Levelland, the Cubs jumped to an impressive 13-0 lead in their first period, and led at the half, 13-6, only to see the Lobos score 14 points in two minutes in the third period.

Your Pledge Is Needed

Littlefield business and professional men and women who have not yet made pledges to the Chamber of Commerce budget were asked to do so immediately.

The Chamber drive is still several thousand dollars short of its $19,500 goal. You can help put the campaign over.

C-C Pledges Reach $12,000

With $11,856 pledged to date, Littlefield Chamber of Commerce is some $7,000 short of the goal, but more than half of the potential members were yet to be contacted.

The Chamber is seeking a budget of $19,500 to revitalize the organization and to permit hiring of a competent manager.

Horne said the sum pledged so far comes from approximately 100 persons while the membership potential is 350 persons. He said many of the present members also had not made their pledges yet.

"We are pleased with results so far," he said Wednesday afternoon, and with the success of the nine breakfasts and two coffee breaks staged to tell the chamber's story.

He said there are approximately 70 present members who have not been signed up yet, and that the next step in the campaign will be to plan a door-to-door calling plan to visit potential members.

Horne said the Chamber of Commerce board and the membership and finance committee, of which he is chairman, will get together within the next few days to map steps to be taken for the door-to-door calling.

The chamber has been operating for several weeks without a paid manager. One of the first steps to be taken after the drive is completed will be hiring a new manager, Arnold Neumann, president, said Wednesday.

August Crashes Injure Eight

Lamb county had eight "rural" accidents during the month of August with one person killed and eight injured, D. S. Lawson, patrol sergeant for this area, said in his report Wednesday.

These wrecks amounted to a total property damage of $6,140 and brought the year's total to five killed and 34 injured. Total property damage so far in 1960 was set at $38,021.

Prior to the first of this month there had been a total of 1,988 fatal accidents in Texas, resulting in 1,342 persons losing their lives.

In the 29-county district of which Lamb County is a part, 12 total accidents resulted in 17 deaths during the month. Other counties in which deaths occurred were Bailey, Baylor, Floyd, Hale Lubbock, Terry and Young counties with Lubbock and Hale counties with four deaths each.

Only two counties, Dickens and Kent, had no accidents at all.

During the same period 127 persons in the district were injured in automobile accidents and total property damage was $123,370 for August in this district. Greatest property damage occurred in Lubbock county with $12,015 reported.

Sergeant Lawson pointed out that at the present rate of traffic fatalities, half the elementary school children in Texas will be involved in a motor vehicle accident before they reach the age of 21.

He said 15 persons were killed and 240 injured in rural traffic accidents involving school buses in Texas during 1959.

He called attention to the fact Wednesday that state laws regulating traffic in regard to school buses reads: "The driver of a vehicle upon a highway outside, any incorporated city or town or on a meeting or overtaking on either direction any school bus which has stopped on the highway. . . shall stop the vehicle immediately before passing the school bus, but may then proceed past such school bus at a speed. . . not exceeding 10 miles per hour and with due caution for the safety of such children."

He pointed out that Littlefield operates 12 school buses which make an average of 50 miles per mile per day, and he urged motorists to use caution now that school is under way again. "The driver of a passing vehicle is responsible for taking due caution," he said. "He is responsible for knowing that his proceeding past the bus will not result in endangering any lives."

Stock Show Drive Is Set

Lamb county junior fat stock show directors have set November 14 as the date for a dinner to kick off the finance drive for next year's show, it was announced Wednesday following a meeting here of the directors, to discuss the 1961 event.

The show is slated for February 17 and 18 at the Lamb county fair grounds, and FFA groups here have agreed to cut and fit new panels which must be applied to the stock barn before the show can be held.

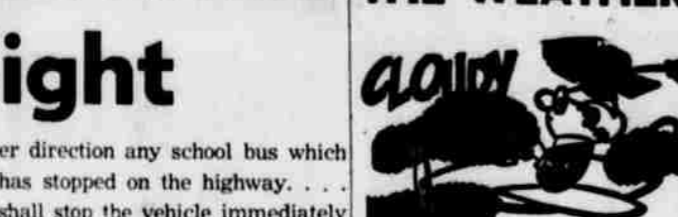

Extensive plans were made for the event at this week's meeting, attended by directors, vocational County chairman Billy Wayne Clayton was unable to attend due to the death of his father.

According to a report received from the group Wednesday morning, the Lamb County delegates supported Price Daniel at the convention.

Sides was an alternate delegate for Kenneth Burgess, Sudan, who was unable to attend the convention.

Howard Hall Wins Grid Contest On Tie-Breaker

The losses of the three Southwest Conference teams, SMU, Texas and TCU, proved to be the downfall of most of the entrant in last week's grid contest by the press.

The top three entries all tied with six misses and, as a result of his predicted 14-8 Littlefield victory, Howard L. Hall, Box 877, Olton, was declared the winner of the $750 first prize.

Hall correctly called the Missouri win over the Mustangs and Texas' upset loss to Nebraska.

Second place went to Jimmy Butler, 302 E. 14th, Littlefield, who also had six incorrect predictions but picked the Cat-Indian score at 28-6, Littlefield. Butler's entry garnered him $5.

Don Hevern, Box 193, Amherst, copped the $250 prize with only six misses and a predicted 30-6 win by Littlefield in their game.

The third week's contest blank appeared on page 7, section 2 of Sunday's County Wide News. Littlefield plays Brownfield in the tie breaking game—the only game requiring a score.

Entries may be turned in before Friday at 1 p.m. to any of the merchants whose ads appear on the page, or to the Littlefield Press Office.

Paving Project Finished

City of Littlefield has formally accepted the recently completed 87-block paving program, J. W. Harrison, city manager, said Wednesday.

City commissioners have taken over the new paving bill and will maintain the project, Mayor E. J. Foust says. Cost of the program was $177,756 with property owners assessed at the rate of $3.95 per property foot to repay the city.

Pioneer Pavers, Inc., Lubbock started the program early in the summer with the laying of concrete.

'Master Plan' Expert To Talk To Officials

City of Littlefield will delve deeper tonight into a proposed "Master Plan" when an expert on the subject appears before the City Planning Commission and the city council, J. W. Harrison, city manager, said Wednesday.

The meeting is called for 7 p. m. The speaker will be Frank Von Zuben, who administers federal funds for cities in Texas, Harrison said.

This will be the second step taken by the Planning Commission in its study of the Master Plan system, such as is used by many West Texas cities.

Von Zuben is expected to give the city officials an estimate of what it will cost to engage engineers to draw up the Master Plan.

Last month, the Planning Commission discussed the proposal and voted to invite a state-approved consulting engineering firm representative to meet with the board and the city council at its September meeting.

Part of the expense for the Master Plan program is borne by the federal government under certain conditions, Harrison said and Von Zuben is expected to tell the officials what they may expect from federal aid.

Under the Master Plan, a long range, comprehensive system of planning is set up, in most cases projected for at least 20 years. The program includes all phases of city development.

This includes schools, roads, highways, public buildings, water and sewer service, drainage and traffic. If such a plan is approved and an engineering firm is engaged to draw the spec-

Thornton Gets 3-Year Term

An all-male District Court jury, which deliberated for nearly four hours, late Tuesday found L. T. Thornton, Littlefield, guilty of theft by false pretext and set his penalty at three years in the state penitentiary.

The case went to the jury shortly after 6 o'clock Tuesday evening; the verdict was returned at 10 o'clock Tuesday night.

The state claimed Thornton had sold some lots on which the income tax division of the Internal Revenue Service had a lien.

Kilmer Corbin, Lubbock, was Thornton's attorney. Representing the state were District Attorney Bill Sheehan and County Attorney Curtis Wilkinson.

The jury was composed of Doyle Dean, Gene Pratt, Alex Berry, Glenn McGeath, Homer Shipley, Paul Carmichael, Donald

Tanks To Boost Water Storage

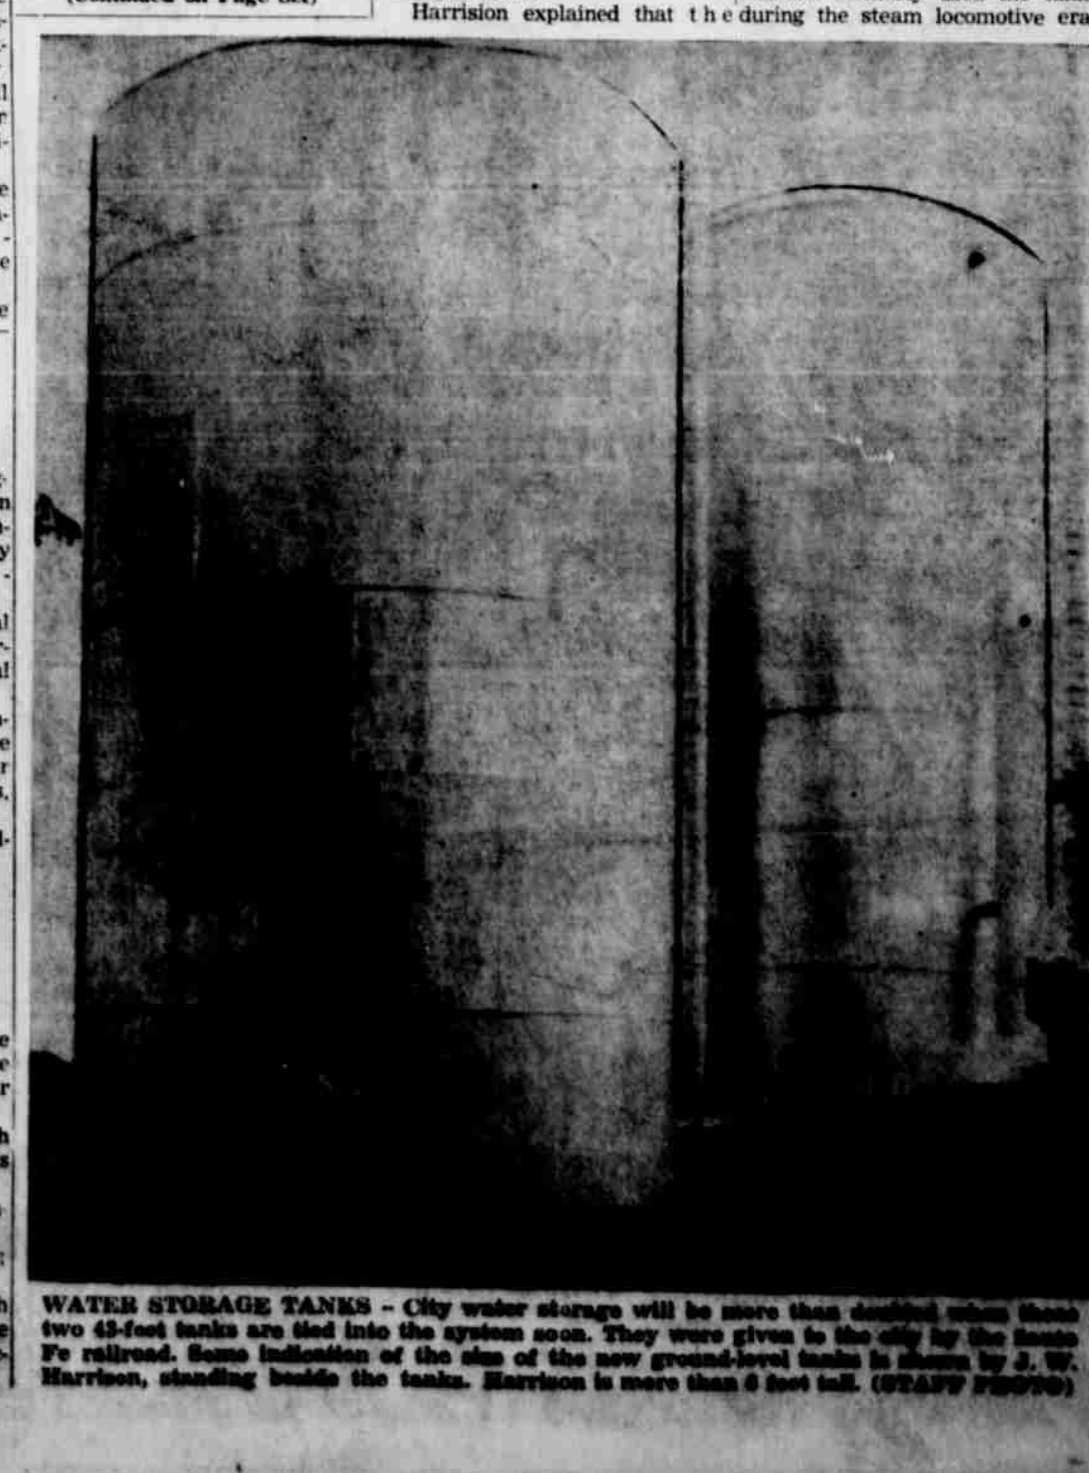

City of Littlefield will more than double its water storage capacity soon when two new 43-foot tanks are tied into the city system, city officials said Saturday.

The tanks were given to the city by the Santa Fe railroad, and have a total storage capacity of 243,000 gallons. This is some 43,000 gallons more than the present two over-head tanks provide.

City crews have been working night and day to complete connections to the tanks which are located on the city's warehouse property, J. W. Harrison, city manager, said.

Harrison explained that the tanks can be used only for storage purposes since they will be below the gravity flow of city mains. However, he said, they will provide much needed storage and will make it possible for the city to have nearly a half-million gallons of water in tanks at one time, thus greatly boosting the city's water supply in case of emergency or during heavy load season.

The water from the tanks will be pumped to the overhead towers as needed, it was explained. The railroad formerly used the tanks during the steam locomotive era.

It's the Law in TEXAS

LAW GROWS

You want the law to grow to meet new challenges, but you do not want it to change completely. The law is like a boy; it must grow up to meet the changing world, but you do not want it to change overnight. When you buy or sell a house, you want the law to stand firm. You do not want your deed upset by some new law overnight. When you make a will you would like its terms carried out long after you are gone. In short, you do not want your law to upset your plans. So you want a stable law. Yet the law cannot foresee all the changes that are to come, and it must be able to grow and meet new circumstances. Sometimes old rules, in terms of modern life, are too harsh and should be changed. It is a good thing that our laws can change — by court decision, legislation or by constitutional amendment. Take an interesting case: until recently a farmer believed he owned his property rights straight up as high as he wanted to claim them — to the sky even. But, meantime, the airplane flew these skies. If your ownership went to the sky you could stop anybody's flying over your property. Or you could charge him a toll. But if landowners got a toll on airplane fare, travel would soon become too costly. How do we change a system of laws to keep the essential use of our property and yet make people enjoy airplane trade, and travel? You could not tell briefly how this was done. But, within the past few years, we have carved out a whole new body of law by court decision and by law making. We have met the new problem without impairing unduly the older property rights of holders. (This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform — not to advise. No persons should ever apply or in any way rely on any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in fact may change the application of the law.)

Research May Be Key To Southern Problems

ATLANTA, GA. — "I think research does mean a better South. It could mean a leading South." With those words Governor Cecil H. Underwood of West Virginia, chairman of the Southern Regional Education Board, recently gave the Southern states a master key to progress in the challenging sixties.

Boosting Southern Income Proof of the past effectiveness of research activities in the South is found in a look at the past two decades of research in the area. Research has provided 50 to 75 per cent of the 250 per cent increase in the per capita income in the South since 1933.

Basic research on long-chain polymers had resulted in the development of nylon, the manufacture of which is located almost exclusively in the South.

University research into the electrical behavior of solids resulted in the development of transistors, of which a single Southern firm now provides one-third of the nation's supply.

More than half of the nation's chemical plants have located south of the Mason-Dixon line in the last few years — a fact noteworthy since the chemical industry is one of the most research-minded of all industries.

Into the Space Age Research has already launched the South into the age of space. Ceramic engineers at Georgia Tech have discovered that ground fused silica molded at room temperature makes a substance so hard that it can be used for rocket nose cones. Their discovery could be the basis for a hundred million dollar nationwide industry.

Students and faculty at the University of Maryland designed the delicate instrument payload carried in the rocket which put the first U. S. satellite in orbit. The success of "Project Farside," brought personal congratulations from President Eisenhower.

University of South Carolina research into the effect of atomic waste on plant and animal life in the Savannah River area has provided a stockpile of information available for use at any other site where an atomic installation is planned.

These and other examples of important research have been cited by the Southern Regional Education Board in its recent publication, "University Research — What It Means to the South."

There are three major sources of support for research in the South — government, industry and the universities. Here we are primarily concerned with basic research in the universities.

Universities, then, lead in the discovery of principles and processes which may be adapted to technological and economic purposes.

New Breakthroughs Needed "Our region needs the basic research our universities produce," said Dr. Robert C. Anderson, director of the South's out fundamental breakthroughs known, all the applications of our industries stymied before long. New scientific talent universities produce, a way of life would come still.

The South Lags In By 1960, the nation is spending over five times as much on research and development as the South. Expenditures for research in the South supported universities from $23 million in 1950 to $126 million in 1959. In spite of its need, the South still lags behind the nation in amount provided. Though its percentage of the nation's population is 23 per cent, the nation's research provides only 17 per cent of the nation's research.

Muffin pans with wells are a good measure of the nation's progress. A pretty luncheon table guests are on hand.

District Heart Workshop Set For Saturday

Plans for the "first" Heart Association regional workshop in this area have been completed and a full program has been set up for the benefit of association and heart committee members in the neighboring counties...

The workshop will be held Saturday at the Holiday Inn, Lubbock, the program to begin at 10 a. m. and continue to 3 p. m.

Dr. Robert L. Carr, district president, announced that all Heart chairmen and their committees in the district have been invited and urged to bring everyone who is interested in the "Hearts of Our Nation." He expects good attendance in view of the work these counties have done for heart in the past and is confident the time they spend at this Workshop will be of great advantage to them.

The aim of this workshop is to acquaint all our members and future members with the functions of the Heart Association, the duties of the working committees where our heart dollar is spent and emphasis will be put on the importance of research and the progress we have made.

Dr. Joe Arrington, president of the Lubbock County Heart Association, feels that it is of great importance to start this year's activities with a better knowledge of how best we can serve, not only ourselves but those in our communities who will profit most by the functions of the Heart Association. He also stated this workshop was not limited to Heart Association members and Committees, but to everyone who would like to participate in this work.

It is his thought there are citizens we are unable to contact personally and at this time they would have the opportunity to offer their time and efforts.

Ernest T. Guy, executive director of Texas Heart Association and James Bloize, state consultant will spearhead the meeting and be available for individual questioning on local problems. Guy will give "The giant steps," a poignant and interesting dissertation at the lunch hour. This has been presented in other parts of the state.

Sandhills Philosopher New Payola Law Offers Public Very Little Relief

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm discussed popular music this week. We guess that's what he's doing.

Dear editor: With the world fraught with danger, I feel sort of guilty thinking about something frivolous, but if Congress can do it, I guess I can too.

What I'm talking about is a new bill passed by the last session of Congress and just signed by President Eisenhower making it against the federal law for a radio disc jockey to accept under-cover pay to play a phonograph record over the air.

When I first read this article hurriedly, I thought it meant it was now against law to play some of these so-called popular records over the air, and I thought, well, now Congress is making progress, but when I read it closely I discovered it's still perfectly all right to play the things, just so the record-maker or the songwriter or the publishing company doesn't pay you something extra to do it.

This is not what I call progress. I didn't think the crime was in taking money for playing them, I thought the crime was in playing them in the first place, but that's not the way Congress voted. You still get off scot-free for playing them, provided you do it for nothing.

Congress missed the boat. What it needs is a bill making it against the law to put a nickel in a juke box if what's going to come out comes out, if you follow me. On the radio, you can turn the thing off while the guitar player hollers for his lost love, but in a cafe, you're stuck.

On the other hand, a lot of people must like these records, and who am I to disagree with them? I don't know any more about music than I do foreign affairs. All I know is that if I was a disc jockey, I'd sure want some extra money to play some of that music over and over, day after day.

Yours faithfully, J. A.

Hornet-Roughneck Clash Headlines Weekend Of Area Football Action

Olton Tries For Fourth Win Against Hale Center

Sudan's undefeated Hornets and the Roughnecks from Sundown clash in the main event headlining Friday night's area grid card. The Hornets have gone through three opponents this season — Morton, Anton and Amherst — but will face their strongest foe to date in the highly touted Sundown crew.

"We have done very well this season," Hornet coach, Hank Brown said, "but we will know the answer to how strong our other opponents have been after Friday night."

Commenting on the relatively bad showing made by the 'Necks this season they were the prevailing pre-season power in Class A, Brown said that he felt that their team may be much stronger than it has shown so far.

"But you can't sell our bunch of boys short," Brown went on. "They will be out there going after the victory."

Brown said that his starting lineup will be the same primarily as in the three previous contests. The season opened slightly on the gloomy side for Brown, having only one experienced lineman returning. But he has fitted together an aggregation that as been instrumental in blocking the way for 78 points in three games.

Brown said he felt that end Jerry Bridwell, who had very little grid experience under his belt before this season, is going to be one of the better ends in this area.

The Hornets are pinning their hopes on a quartet of speedy backs who have had their way against opposing defenses thus far this season — Paul Galvan, quarterback; Jackie Wilson, fullback; Gary West and Raymond, halfbacks.

Sundown, ranked as the number five team in Class A by the Associated Press, has a 2-1 record, losing to Idalou in the season opener before coming back to whip Hale Center and Anton.

Olton, the area's undefeated power in AA entertains Hale Center in an attempt to make it four in a row.

Other games around the area will see Anton's Bulldogs (1-2) make a bid to get back on the winners track when they play host to Wilson.

Hart's Longhorns, sporting a 1-1 record entertains winless Kress while Whitharral (2-0) meets New Home.

The Bulldogs from Amherst, smarting from last week's 28-14 drubbing at the hands of Sudan, travel to Bovina in an effort to get their revenge at the expense of the yet-to-win Mustangs.

Springlake, who has lost two straight to Idalou and Olton, meet New Deal at Wolvenne Park.

In 1-AAA action, Phillips (2-0) clashes with once powerful Breck enridge (0-2) while Hereford, also undefeated, meets Muleshoe (0-1). Dumas (0-2) will try Canyon in the Demons' home park while the Lobos from Levelland (1-1) journey to Seminole.

Littlefield (1-0-1) takes on the Brownfield Cubs in a non-conference tilt in Brownfield.

SPORTS

GIG AN AGGIE—That's the cry rolling from Jones Stadium this week as the Red Raiders prepare for Saturday's game with Texas A&M at Aggeland. Larry Mullins, big tackle from Snyder, will be leading the Tech congregation to Bryan in an effort to make it three in a row over A&M. Tech won its season's opener Saturday night against West Texas 38-14.

...from the sidelines
john petty

IAAA has fared pretty well thus far against outside competition. In the 10 games played, the five teams collectively have won six, lost three and tied one.

Hereford and Phillips are standing at the top of the loop both winning their first two games handsly. The Black hawks downed Odessa Ector in their opener and came back last weekend to outscore Plainview. Hereford's wins have been over Canyon in the opener and Dimmitt.

Littlefield, while undefeated, has last weekend's 20-20 tie with Seminole to mar its record. Levelland's last year's representative in bi-district play, has a 500 average, topping Brownfield in its opener but losing to Artesia, N. M. Friday.

Resting uneasily in the cellar is Dumas by virtue of losses to two tough AAAA teams, Palo Duro and Borger.

HEREFORD BEST — The Whitefaces from Hereford are sporting the best offense and defense so far, scoring 56 points against their opponents while keeping their goal line sod wet.

The Wildcats come in second offensively, scoring 48 points in their two games. Phillips defense ranks second in the loop to Hereford, allowing only seven points to be scored against them in both their encounters. Overall the district, it looks like this so far:

Hereford	(2-0)	56 0
Phillips	(2-0)	28 7
Lfd.	(1-0-1)	48 20
Lvl.	(1-1)	27 20
Dumas	(0-2)	2 32

In games this week, Phillips will go against Breckenridge at Buckaroo Stadium. The Bucks have lost their first two games, losing to Sweetwater and Wichita Falls, and will be mighty hungry for that first win.

Littlefield goes to Brownfield while Levelland and Seminole tagle in Wigwam Stadium. Hereford will attempt to make it three in a row when it travels to Muleshoe and Dumas will meet Canyon at Dumas, trying to break into the winner's circle.

AREA PREDICTIONS — Last week's predictions pushed us over the 800 mark when we missed only the Levelland - Artesia outcome. This week, it looks from here like: Littlefield Brownfield — The Cubs almost surprised Levelland two weeks ago and have had a weekend of rest in which to scout the Cats. It should be a very close one, especially with Brownfield's advantage of being at home. Could go either way, but Pierce's passing and the running of Ball, Estrada and Koller prove too much for the Cubs — Littlefield 21, Brownfield 19.

Sudan Sundown — Too much prestige in beating the undefeated Hornets for the Roughnecks to pass this one up — Sundown 24, Sudan 16.
Olton Hale Center — Priest and Buchenau will lead the Mustangs to their fourth straight — Olton 28, Hale Center 12.
Tech Texas A&M — First SWC game for the Raiders but they will run into the heaviest Aggie line since the championship team of '56. Too, the Techsans will be running into that number three jinx — they've beaten the Aggies two straight — and they'll be playing in Aggeland. A toss up but we'll go with Tech, Holub and the fine crew of Raiders backs — Tech 13, Aggies 8.
Phillips Breckenridge — The featured game of the week in AA A with the undefeated Black

Raiders Prepare For Grid Debut In SWC Action

LUBBOCK — Texas Tech's long-heralded debut in Southwest Conference football takes place Saturday night, when the Red Raiders invade College Station to meet Texas A&M.

Pointing up the difficulty of the chore facing the Raiders if the rivalry history, which shows only five Tech wins in the 18 games played. Tech has eked out two successive triumphs, 15-14 and 20-14, over the Aggies the past two seasons. But those were played in neutral Dallas, and the big one, "for keeps" will be on the Aggies, home turf.

As far as the scoreboard is concerned, however, the season opened on an optimistic note for the Raiders — Tech triumphing 38-4 and the Aggies losing 9-0.

But Tech was playing a thinly-manned West Texas squad trying to rebuild after a 1-9 season, and A&M was facing still powerful Louisiana State University.

In taking the victory before a record-breaking crowd of 30,000 the Raiders exhibited one of their strongest offenses in several years. Tech's attack rolled up 474 yards, 323 of it rushing (a weakness last season) to 194 for West Texas.

In view of the large amount Tech officials are bracing for a heavy demand for tickets to the Raider's next home game with Baylor University October 15 at night.

Methodists Plan Retirement Homes, First At Hereford

W. C. Young, of Commercial State Bank in Andrews and president of the board of trustees of Northwest Texas Methodist Homes for Older Adults, Inc., announced this week that the first home for retirement living to be sponsored in this Methodist Conference would go to Hereford.

The announcement followed a meeting of the trustees in Lubbock at the Caprock Hotel. The Business and Professional Women's Club in Hereford began the campaign for a home there, and with organized community help completed the subscription of $100,000, including a choice site, to help the Methodist Board get under way with the project.

Letters To Editor

(Ed. Note — The last issue of the County Wide News contained a statement concerning the Littlefield High School curriculum. During the week, Jimmie Chapman has received numerous letters from local persons expressing their views on the matter. All thought that baseball definitely had a place in the Littlefield athletic program.

Following are a sampling of the letters (Chapman received.)
9-19-60
Jimmie:
You can add my name to the list for high school baseball, Jimmie. Since the advent of the Little League, Pony League, American Legion teams, there has been a tremendous buildup each year in the interest of baseball.

Surely, the potential for gate receipts cannot be compared to that of the football team, but I certainly would hate to see the youngsters deprived of their opportunity in baseball. The city of Littlefield has done a fine job in setting up the various leagues, and it would be a shame not to let the boys gain as much knowledge as is possible about the game, thru several additional seasons of playing baseball, if of quite a few young boys that are not of the stature a foot weight necessary to make the football team, but given a chance to play high school baseball, would earn a letter that would be just as large and meaningful as a football letter. I say, give these boys a chance to prove their capabilities, and you'll find they will not disappoint anyone.

As an afterthought, it is quite possible that these youngsters coming up from these various leagues, have the potential of major league ball players, but without the follow through in high school, their chances are curtailed to such an extent that competing for a professional career would be over their heads.

I say give the boys the chance as do most of the other schools in the district.
Thank you,
Bob Falk
P. S. I know there is a host of Littlefield people that are anxious to see Littlefield have a high school baseball team. I only hope they will take a few moments to write you and make their bid for a very worthwhile project.

Lymon, Robert E. Smith, Fred Clayton and Howard McClure. Earlier in the week, District Judge E. A. Bills had accepted a plea of guilty from Sostenes Porros on a charge of forging and passing a check, and sentenced him to two years in the state penitentiary. The check, the state claimed, was forged on Harvey Platterson, Littlefield for the sum of $42.

Judge Bills discharged the jury at the conclusion of Tuesday night's session to wind up the current term of criminal court. Several cases were passed, and Judge Bills said the attorney for one defendant informed the judge that he will enter a guilty plea for his client.

Cases passed included: Alvin Nixon, charged with assault with intent to murder. O. B. McClendon, a Negro, charged with assault with intent to murder. Henry Guerrero, charged with rape and incest. Marcello Sanchez, charged with assault with intent to murder. Dr. Robert Sosa, charged with theft of hospital equipment.

Sixty prospective jurors had been summoned for the term. The program extends throughout the city, ranging from one-block projects up to 22 blocks. The longest single job was on Sunset Avenue where 22 blocks were surfaced.

crete curbs and gutters. Grading also was done at that time, but heavy rains in July turned the unpaved streets into quagmires and made it necessary to regrade much of the area before bases could be spread and the topping applied.

The gravel base was applied to most streets in early August and the final topping work started late in the month. The actual paving was accomplished in record time and the entire program was concluded at mid-September.

Contractors have been paid with city warrants, the work being paid for as various phases of the work were completed. The program extends throughout the city, ranging from one-block projects up to 22 blocks. The longest single job was on Sunset Avenue where 22 blocks were surfaced.

V. room, hobby shop, party room, snack bar, solarium, complete infirmary, with provisions for a guest bed room all set in a private park, at much less than it would cost to buy a three bed - room home. The Home will be open to people of all faiths, but all applications must clear a committee on admissions. A building committee appointed Thursday night to contact firms for preliminary design and to hire one to prepare for contract study includes.

The Methodist Board also asked Mrs. Dyalitha Bonson, J. R. Allison, and J. C. McCracken, all of Hereford to serve in an advisory capacity to the building committee as the project makes progress. The public may secure more facts about the home by writing to the Chamber of Commerce, Hereford, or to W. C. Young, Andrews, or perhaps secure later information from the Rev. Don Davidson, whose office address is: Executive Director Northwest Texas Methodist Homes for Older Adults, 3301 S. 5th St. Abilene, Texas. Publicity will be given to the progress made in the plans for construction and opening of the Home from time to time.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Higgins was in Littlefield Monday afternoon for a medical check.
Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hawkins spent the weekend in Amarillo visiting their daughters and families. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pierce and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thompson.

TINGE OF FALL in the air these days and the old wheezing air conditioner out at Goathead Acres is on semi furlough now. It will be just a few more weeks before it will go into hibernation for six months' siesta, and the furnace will take over.

Fall seems to like to play these little previews, like trailers in the movies to whet the appetite eachers assistants, helpers and materials to be used in some schools. Foreign language education a natural interest for children whose parents are assigned overseas, has been a major interest of P.T.A.'s in the European Congress.

As these P.T.A. members, both teachers and parents, return from overseas assignments, they bring broader understanding of other countries to their stateside colleagues.

AND THERE was the job of filling that wood box which stood behind the bass burner. My mother always covered the wall back of the box with a shiny, new strip of oilcloth, and I was cautioned fruitlessly to put the wood into the box carefully in order not to tear the oilcloth.

CLOTHING, too, took on a different slant for winter. There were the long handles which were drug out of the closet and put into more or less wearable condition. Each year they were a bit tighter and more uncomfortable than they were the year before, growth having continued during the summer.

MY MOTHER, always the cautious Englishwoman that she was, laid in a supply of "winter" drugs, the most horrible of which was the stinky greasy mess that she rubbed into a flannel rag and applied to my bony chest when I got a cold.

AND DO YOU remember the "ribbed" stockings? They were bad enough if they came only just above the knees, but the more hideous kind spread out fan shaped and extended in front all the way to the waist where they buttoned onto the long handles.

AUSTIN — A blueprint for action, containing 69 recommendations on how many of Texas' aging problems can be solved, was adopted here at the Governor's State-wide Conference on Aging.

The final conference report, representing the view of more than 600 delegates interested in the aging problems, also contained recommended action by the various levels of government.

EXTENSION NEEDED DELTA Mo. (AP) — Something went wrong somewhere along the line. The girls set a deadline to lose a certain — and secret — amount of poundage but as the deadline grew near it became obvious that they were achieving exactly the opposite of what they set out to do.

Lloyd Bergsma, extension livestock marketing specialist, says fluctuations in livestock prices have a strong impact on the prosperity of our total agricultural economy. Meat purchases, he adds, accounts for a fourth of the money spent for food to be used in the household.

Precision in a Pipe Organ

You know what precision it requires to build a bridge, or an engine, or a watch. The same exactness goes into the construction of a pipe organ.

But the men who make pipe organs, like all others who build, have a feeling for the USE of their product.

An organ will lead hundreds in their worship of God. It will support a talented choir in the rendition of a sacred cantata. Or it will blend with a host of untrained voices to raise a stirring hymn to God. It will sing softly while Christians commune, or thunder majestically a great recession.

And yet this valuable organ whose creation requires such skill and precision is secondary in the life of the Church. It is simply an instrument, like this weekly advertisement, to help the Church fulfill its Mission. That Mission is to lead you, and your family, and your world, to the Lord.

When the organ calls men to worship — be there!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

THE CAPITAL
Highlights
AND Sidelights
by Vern Sanford

all the hoopla elections, many to the polls Nov. 2. They have decisions to make amendments to the constitution will be voted on. The voters will reject or accept the basic law in a referendum. It is the average citizen's duty to vote directly in person.

Present provisions for travel expenses would not be changed. The law provides for the lawmaker to receive $2.50 for each 25 miles of the round trip between his home and Austin once each session. This amendment is essentially a compromise between the present arrangement and the constitutional change proposed in 1958. Last time the proposal was for annual salaries of $7,500 and no per diem. It also provided for annual session which many think contributed to its defeat.

Proponents of the current plan say that it will make it possible for better qualified people to serve in the Legislature without having to make so much of a personal financial sacrifice to do so. Opponents argue that it will create "professional legislators." They contend that it is better for the lawmaker to have another job in private life to keep him closer to the problems of the people.

If the amendment is passed, a Texas legislator would receive for this two-year term of office minimum pay of $9,600. In other states, the pay for a two-year term ranges from $200 in New Hampshire to $15,000 in New York. Average is about $3,600.

AMENDMENT FOUR: Would give the Legislature authority to classify loans and lenders, to license and regulate lenders, to define what part of the charge made on loans should be considered interest and to fix the maximum rate of interest which should be charged.

This is generally known as the "anti-loan shark" amendment and is being supported by a blue ribbon committee of citizens from over the State. At present the Constitution provides that the maximum rate of interest shall be 10 per cent. This is widely, almost universally, violated by the small loan industry, usually through additional charges besides the interest - "handling charges, service charges," etc.

Attorney General's department investigations have turned up cases of flagrant abuses by loan companies, making charges that totaled altogether as much as 300 per cent of the amount loaned. On the other hand, the investigators themselves admit that a loan company making short-term, high-risk personal loans cannot stay in the black on 10 per cent.

If this amendment is passed, it will be up to the Legislature to decide what is a fair charge. Even those legislators who voted for this proposal admit they dread the prospect of having to decide what rates are fair.

HIGHWAY SLOWDOWN DUE - Public highway work in Texas will be cut back about one-half for the months of November and December, the State Highway Department announces.

This is a seasonal drop, according to State Highway Engineer DeWitt C. Greer. Spring and summer are the "rush season" for highway work because the weather is good. They are also the months when revenue from gasoline taxes runs high.

Sale of license plates next spring will bring the annual bounce - back in money to the Highway Department, and a rise in highway contract lettings is expected about the same time.

Total construction contracts for September and October are expected to hit about $21,000,000 each month, but will probably drop to half of that for November and December.

SHORT SNORTS
Kenneth L. Kimbro has been named chief clerk under Comptroller Robert S. Calvert. He succeeds the late Gus Farrar. A. T. (Moon) Mullins, chief clerk of the General Land office, has resigned to enter private law practice in Austin. Mullins has been with the Land Office since 1948. U. S. Dept. of Agriculture has predicted this year's Texas Cotton Crop at 4,425,000 bales, an increase over earlier predictions. Other crop forecasts: sorghum 276,432,000 bushels, just short of last year's record crop; peanuts, a record yield of 313,250,000 pounds; carrots, up 6 per cent; and pinto beans, 30 per cent increase.

About Your Health

In Texas there are 623 licensed nursing homes with a combined capacity of 15,943 beds according to the latest quarterly figures.

Charged with the responsibility of licensing and keeping a health check on these homes is the Division of Nursing and Convalescent Homes of the Texas State Department of Health.

To carry out this responsibility the Division has duties that are

DPS Receiving Job Applications

The Texas Department of Public Safety announced today applications will be received until October 1 to fill 120 openings in the DPS field services.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., department director, urged young men between the ages of 21 and 35 to "take this opportunity to serve your state and at the same time begin a life-time career of prestige and security as a policeman."

He said application forms and full information can be obtained at any Texas Department of Public Safety field office, or by writing to department headquarters, P. O. Box 4087, Austin.

"Successful applicants will undergo a strenuous but rewarding 6-week training period with pay at the department's Law Enforcement Academy at Austin which will put them in tip-top physical and mental condition," Garrison said.

"Upon completion of training good retirements, vacations, sick leave, and will be issued uniform equipment and other benefits."

The major work load of inspection is borne by local health departments; city and county health officers and fire marshals who render a vital cooperative service in the inspection and licensing program.

However, 170 licensed homes are located in 87 counties without the services of a recognized full-time local health department. This means the Division field staff must assume primary responsibility for keeping these 170 licensed homes under routine supervision.

In addition the Division receives daily requests for the inspection of potential facilities and for the investigation of illegally operated homes.

The Division is also responsible for processing and issuing emergency ambulance permits. A weekly feature from the Division of Public Health Education, Texas State Department of Health.
