School Groups Elect Officers

Four organizations, the Chorus, Pep Squad, Wildcat Band and D.E. Club met the past week in business sessions, for the annual election of officers.

Officers elected for the band included, President, Jack Minix, vice president, Freddy Briggs, secretary-treasurer, Joyce Tharp, reporter, Larry Rice, librarian Nancy Morrow, property manager, Howard Harvey and trip manager, Freddy Briggs.

At a meeting of the high school chorus, Freddy Howard was elected president, Mike Stephens, vice president and Helen Harrell, secretary.

The Pep Squad elected Helen Harrell, president, Garaland Angeline, vice president, Alberta Miller, secretary, Sue McCown, treasurer and Sue Carol Henry, reporter.

When the Distributive Education club met they elected Clarence Williams president, Gwendolyn Colson, vice president, Norma Kesner, secretary, Clarence Holmes, reporter, and Lajuana Bishop, custodian of the scrapbook.

Rains totaling 15 inches flooded the South Texas town of Alice causing an estimated $1,500,000 damage. Some streets in the town of 21,000 were under five-feet of water. Other towns with flood damage from heavy rain included Falfurrias and Weslaco.

scroll which has placed aboard a military air transport service plane at Kelly Air Force Base and then was to be flown to Korea, where it will be presented to men of the First Cavalry, who are in action there.

Other officers elected besides Lumpkin, included Maj. Gen. Hobert H. Gay, deputy commander of the Fourth Army, president; Frank Messerschlag, first vice-president; Chaplain C. G. Trent, chairman; Don Walton, J. J. O'Connell, Col. W. A. Harris and P. Moore, executive committeemen. Col. Ned Stone was re-elected registrar.

Memorial services honoring the dead heroes of the First Cavalry were held Sunday, Sept. 2 in front of the Alamo with General Walter Krueger as principal speaker.

Gen. Johnathon Wainright held the open house for the association in his suite in the Plaza and gave autographed cigars as souvenirs.

Wires were received from General Douglas MacArthur from New York City and from Maj. Gen. William Chase, now head of the military mission of Formosa. He commanded the First Cavalry on Luzon and then during its first three years of occupational duty in Japan.

Cleveland, Ohio was selected as the city where the fifth reunion is to be held next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas E. Coddington of Detroit, Michigan and Bud Coddington, who was recently discharged from March Field, California, returned home with Lumpkin for a visit. They left for their home after several days visit.

Electric Cooking Is

as MODERN women KNOW!

Efficient because it is clean, accurate, automatic, labor-saving.
Accuracy of heat application which assures you that the correct amount of measured heat will be done to each range unit takes the guesswork out of cooking — adds efficiency.
Automatic time controls on your electric range eliminate pot-watching and cooking failures, make it possible for your meals to be prepared while you are miles away — adds efficiency.
The cleanliness of electric cooking means less frequent general housekeeping, eliminates entirely pot and pan scrubbing — adds efficiency.
The pleasantness of electric cooking means added pep, more pleasant cooking conditions — adds efficiency.
Yes, electric cooking is completely efficient — as modern women know.

Oil Progress Week ...

Littlefield and Lamb county will join the rest of the nation in observing Oil Progress Week Oct. 14 through the 20th. Preliminary plans for the observance already have been made by the Oil Progress Week committee of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce.

Thousands of oil companies and hundreds of thousands of men and women will take part in the observance on the national level. Service stations, bulk stations, refineries and plants will stage special events—all for the purpose of telling the American people about the progressiveness and competitive spirit of the oil industry. The week's central theme is found in the slogan, "Your Progress and Oil Progress Go Hand in Hand."

This isn't "just one more week." The oil industry's contribution to American living standards, to American industry and agriculture, and to the very security of the nation in a time of grave world tension, is tremendous. The statistics are all king size. Last year the industry transported close to 2,600,000,000 barrels of petroleum—enough to reach the moon in a pipeline 3 1/2 feet in diameter! It uses 2400 barges and 500 ocean-going tankers—one-third the total tonnage of U.S. waterborne trade. It has nearly 100,000 tank cars and 152,000 miles of pipeline in service. It has met our ever-increasing military and civilian demand for more and better oil products in stride.

During the Week, the American people will learn the thing of great importance about the industry—that it isn't the exclusive province of "big business."

There are, of course, some very large companies engaged in producing and refining and selling oil. But there are also thousands upon thousands of small and middle-sized businesses which perform vital functions in the complex job of turning crude into products usable by consumers. And every oil company, regardless of size, is in direct daily competition with many others.

Freedom of Press Threatened

Working newspapermen all over the country naturally are upset over the indictment of three of their fellow workers in Lake Charles, La. for slandering accused gamblers and public officials.

According to a press association dispatch one of the offenses of the newspaper was that it printed the actual court record, wherein the accused men were found guilty but given suspended sentences.

In a further step the parish grand jury demanded from a citizens' group organized to fight gambling the names of all its members. The story did not state whether the grand jury was as interested in learning the names of gamblers in the parish.

On another count the parish sheriff was said in a published story to have withheld certain information from the reporters, including records showing who had been and was in jail. For this story another indictment was returned, for slander of the sheriff.

Freedom of the press is endangered throughout the world. The press of no other country enjoys the freedom which U.S. newspapermen have. Muzzling the press is one of the first steps of any group which seeks to gain control over the lives of the individual citizens.

An alert newspaper acts as guardian of the citizenry's liberties. Individual citizens often do not have the time to seek out certain information, nor do they know where to find it if they chose to do so.

Denying a newspaper access to vital public information, or badgering its publisher and staff with wanton prosecution is the first step down the long road with loss of freedom of expression at the end.

Health Talks

Prepared by the State Medical Association of Texas

When the time comes that your income is greater than your expenditures, you look forward to saving that extra money until it accumulates enough to represent something important in your life. A house, old-age funds or some such investment. When your food intake exceeds your food expenditure over a long period of time, you don't look forward, you just look bulgy. And it's not the fat of the land that you are going to spend to get back to normal, it's the fat of you that is going to be put into circulation if you would get your weight down to normal proportions.

The 1500 calories which are allowed on this diet under discussion are less than you need to meet your daily expenditures. Therefore, 1500 calories means a limited income less than you need, so you will have to spend some of your "savings."

To bring the comparison between calories and money closer, this 1500-calorie diet is translated into $1.50, counting 10 calories to the penny. You have a daily allowance of $1.50 to be spent in a definite manner; you will need another $1.00 to $2.00 to meet your daily "expenses" and that extra money will be the fat that you use up.

On the $1.50 food allowance, you are supposed to spend 18 cents a day on fruits or juices. That doesn't sound like much, but you get a heap more fruit for the money than you do most other foods. And fruit is a stomach-satisfier, quieting those sensations you may call "hunger pangs."

The cheapest of the juices on the calorie budget is tomato juice, a full glass (8 ounces) costing only 1 cent. You may find it more to your liking if you have a regular fruit-juice glass, 4 ounces, of tomato juice for breakfast and then take the other 4 ounces as a mid-morning snack.

Snacks, which may help you over some of the rough periods of a diet, are quite permissible on this food regime if they are deducted from the total calorie cost for the day. You must eat three meals a day on this diet, but if three snacks can help you, that's fine.

Other juices, all figured on the basis of 4 ounces a serving, cost as follows:

Apple juice, 6 cents; grape juice, 7 cents; grapefruit juice, 5 cents; fresh orange juice, 7 cents; canned orange juice, 6 cents; canned orange and grapefruit juice, blended, 5 cents; pineapple juice, 7 cents; and prune juice, 5 cents.

Bananas, grapes, plums and prunes are the fruits which have the highest percentage of carbohydrates. One medium-sized banana costs 10 cents, one bunch of grapes (divide a pound into 4 bunches) costs 10 cents, four fresh plums cost 10 cents, and four med-

"Rosie the Riveter" Has Nothing On Mrs. Gus Kovalcik of Yoakum, Texas

YOAKUM, Sept. 12 (AP)—"Rosie the Riveter" has nothing on Mrs. Gus Kovalcik of Yoakum. Mrs. Kovalcik is a shoemaker. She runs her own shoeshop, repairs shoes, manages the business, buys needed equipment and purchases new stock.

Mrs. Kovalcik's father established his own shoe shop in Yoakum more than 20 years ago. He taught his four sons the trade.

During World War II, when the four sons were in the service, Mrs. Kovalcik began to learn to be a shoemaker and help out in the shop. After the war, the boys went into other businesses, and Mrs. Kovalcik has been a shoemaker ever since. Her father died in 1950.

"It must seem strange to some of the new salesmen who call on me to see a woman shoemaker," she said.

"When I tell them I'm the shoemaker and manager, they sure look surprised."

"I'm sure glad you converted me to the '50,000 Miles-No Wear' oil," writes Albert E. Lentz, Rancher, Delta, Colorado. "I really barreled my Mercury over the highway on a recent trip, and all I could hear was a motor purring like a kitten."

"50,000 Miles-No Wear!" Proved After a punishing 50,000-mile road test, with proper drains and regular care, engines lubricated with new Conoco Super Motor Oil showed no wear of any consequence; in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth inch on cylinders and crankshafts. AND gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles was actually 99.77% as good as for the first 5,000!

Western Union Change Rates First Time in One Hundred Years

For the first time in 100 years Western Union is departing from its historic 15-word telegram minimum and giving telegraph users the benefit of 50 percent greater word allowance, in most cases at lower cost, it was announced by local Western Union manager.

Western Union's new rate schedules, as approved by the Federal Communications Commission for interstate service and effective Saturday, September 1, will entitle the public to send 15 words instead of 10 in telegrams, and 50 words instead of 25 in night letters for basic charge. The new rate for a 15 word fast message in most cases will be lower than for the same number of words under the old schedules.

Savings to users will vary according to the distance a message is sent. Under the new plan, the cost of a 15 word telegram, compared with the previous charge for a message of the same length, will be lower in five of nine zones, the same in two, and only five cents more in the remaining zones.

For example, a 15-word full rate message from New York to San Francisco will cost $1.50, a reduction of 35 cents under the previous charge of $1.95 for 15 words. A message of the same length in the lowest rate zone will cost 50 cents under the new rates, only a nickel more than the present rate of 45 cents.

A 50 word night letter, compared with the previous charge for the same message, costs less in all cases.

Additional words under the new rate schedules generally will cost less, resulting in lower charges on long messages. Rates for additional words with fast messenger in the new schedules range from 2 cents to 6 1/2 cents as against the present range of 2 cents to 10 cents a word. Some reductions in additional word rates will apply to the day letter and night letter.

The added minimum word allowance in telegrams meets a demand of the telegraphing public expressed in an opinion survey made for Western Union, said Miss Young. The survey disclosed that 23 percent of telegram users had difficulty condensing their messages into 10 words. Eighty four percent said they preferred lengths up to 15 words.

The need for an expansion in the telegram minimum from 10 to 15 words is indicated by the fact that studies show the present text of a full rate telegram average approximately 14 words, the greater word allowances now possible will mean clearer message and easier writing.

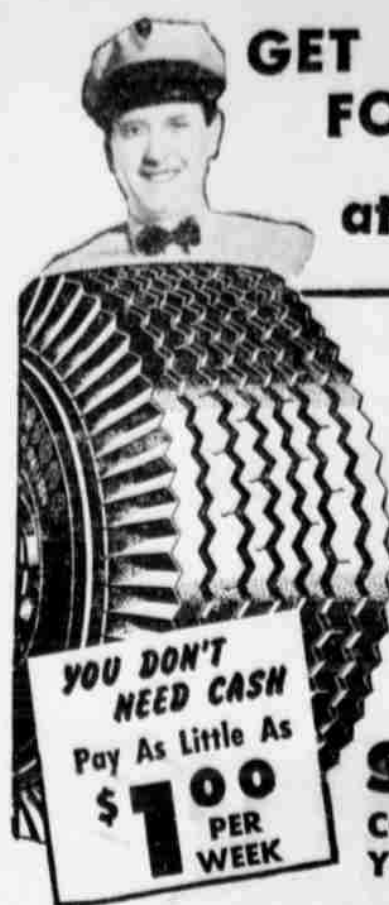

Serial service is discontinued by order of the Federal Communications Commission on the grounds that it is discriminatory.

When effective for both inter and intrastate services, the new telegraph rates, including increases in corollary services revenues of approximately $11,000,000 or 6.8 percent annually to meet added wage rates which became effective July 1.

The new tariffs provide for press rates of one-half the fast telegram cost for day press messages, and one fourth the fast telegram rate for night press messages, with a minimum charge of 50 cents in each case. Heretofore press rates have been one-third and one-sixth, respectively, with a minimum of 35 cents.

Olton Area Gets Two Bales Cotton

Two bales of cotton were ginned Tuesday of last week to open the harvest season in the Olton area. One of these bales, weighing in at 9:30 A. M. and was produced by Frank Mandrell. Mandrell covered about 20 acres of irrigated cotton and received 50 cents per pound for the bale. This bale, because of weighing less than 435 pounds, must take a dock in price.

Another bale, weighed in at 11:30 a. m. Tuesday at the Farmers Gin, turned out 510 pounds of lint, and was sold at a premium price to the compress representative. Calvin Dodd of Dodd Bros. farm brought in this bale and said it was gathered from about 7 acres of irrigated cotton.

The Dodd Bros. farm is located 5 miles north and 2 east of Olton. The Mandrell place is located 1 mile east and 2 miles south of Olton.

Eight Lamb County Youths Awarded Gifts in Contest

Eight 4-H Boys of Lamb County were made happy last week when they each won a gilt.

Any 4-H boy who cared to, could write an essay on why they wanted the gilt or on some phase of Swine Production. These 8 boys were the winners.

This began when the Sears Roebuck Foundation furnished 8 gilts to be distributed in this manner. Since then, each boy who receives a gilt returns the finest gilt in his first litter to be won by some boy's essay just, as he received his own.

The 8 boys who won are Clifford Bells, Springlake; Darrel Ogerly, Littlefield; Dan Dolle, Littlefield; Don Barnett, Littlefield; Ronald Rogers, Littlefield; Donald Mouser, Spade; and Troy Young, Spade.

Darrel Ogerly's gilt and a boar belonging to Roy Young of Spade have been picked to enter in the Lubbock District Swine Show at Texas Tech Saturday morning at 10:30.
