Russians Drive Into Jaszbereny

Germans Strive To Halt Advance With New Tanks

By DANIEL De LUCE
MOSCOW, Nov. 14 (AP)—Russian forces have driven into the important rail city of Jaszbereny, 37 miles east of Budapest, and are engaging the enemy in hand-to-hand fighting, front dispatches said today.

The Germans were reported hurling in numerous new tanks and scores of anti-tank weapons in an attempt to check the Soviet drive to outflank the Hungarian capital.

(The Germans admitted Soviet units had penetrated into Jaszbereny, but asserted the attackers were hurled back.)

Red army column striking from the northeast after crossing the Tisza river apparently had made solid contact with the main forces of Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky's Second Ukrainian army, and were aiding in drawing the assault line close to Jaszbereny from the east, west and south.

Despite the fierceness of the enemy opposition the Russians captured at least 10 towns, including the rail terminal of Jaszpatl, 11 miles east of Jaszbereny and 45 miles east of Budapest.

(Moscow dispatches made no mention today of Russian forces previously reported in the southern outskirts of Budapest. A German broadcaster, Col. Ernst von Hammer, said the Russians held a bridgehead on the Danube at Dunaharaszti, opposite Csepel Island, five miles south of the capital.)

The Soviet war bulletin said the Russian drive around Budapest's eastern flank had swept six miles northwest of Cegled, that more than 1,000 prisoners were taken in the Hungarian fighting.

Postwar Council On Economics In Austin For Meet

AUSTIN, Nov. 14 (AP)—The State Postwar Economic Planning Commission, created by the 48th legislature in March 1943, met here yesterday to make plans for a report to the 49th legislature in January on policies for Texas to follow in a conversion from war to peacetime employment.

Andrew P. Rollins, consulting engineer of Dallas, recently named to succeed Gibb Gilchrist, president of Texas A. & M. college, who resigned as commission chairman, presided over the meeting attended by 14 out of the 31 appointed members.

Doubt as to the exact purposes and methods delegated to the commission by the legislature was expressed by several members.

"I was commissioned to do a job and I have done nothing. In fairness to the newly appointed chairman, we should either get behind and make some concrete plans, or resign as a body. We should not expect the chairman to go before the legislature empty handed and take the blame for what we have failed to do in the past 18 months," said H. B. Zachry of San Antonio, member of the Texas Good Roads association.

Joe Metzger of Laredo, representing the Texas Motor Transportation association said he too "had not done one single thing so far."

Both Metzger and Zachry suggested that each member immediately consult leaders in their respective industries and associations for concrete suggestions compile these as done the basis of these findings prepare at their next meeting in January to make a report for presentation to the legislature. A resolution to this effect was unanimously adopted.

Leyte Invaders Have Huge Toll

By LEONARD MILLIMAN
Associated Press War Editor

Attacks on growing Japanese concentrations on western Leyte Island paid off with the highest one-day toll of Nipponese dead in the Philippines campaign, front line dispatches reported today as Tokyo radio said 400 U.S. carrier planes had renewed their attack on imperial warships in Manila Bay.

On western Leyte Island conquering riflemen of the 24th division counted 640 Japanese bodies on the slopes of Breakneck Ridge, with a field of uncounted dead stretching out in front of them, Associated Press War Correspondent Fred Hampson reported.

An American commander expressed belief the bloody battle, combined with night-long shelling of enemy concentrations at Limon, broke the northern Japanese force as a fighting unit. Infantrymen were closing in from three sides on Limon, which Hampson reported was an apparently uninhabited mass of wreckage when the U.S. artillerymen ceased firing.

Elements of five Japanese divisions have been thrown into the narrowing fight on western Leyte island. Reinforcements are still slipping in by barge at night.

But "the enemy's general preparations for counterattacks" have been frustrated by the steady pressure of American infantrymen, combined with devastating artillery and aerial bombardments of Japanese concentration centers, Gen. Douglas MacArthur reported today.

The new mountain, taken by the dismounted First division cavalry outflanking the enemy, is Mt. Cabungangan. It represents a two-mile gain from Mt. Catabaran. From the two peaks artillery can sweep most of the Yamashita defense line and its supply trail.

In a resurgence action in the Palau group, 515 miles to the east, 200 Japanese occupied Ngarengong islet as a U.S. Marine patrol hastily withdrew without casualties.

The islet flanks Denges passage into the Palau lagoon. U.S. Warships immediately blocked the passage and heavily shelled the Japanese. Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced last night.

Ngarengong, northernmost of the Palau islands to be occupied by Americans, was retaken by the Japanese a week ago. Tokyo radio previously said Peleliu, main U.S. island in the group, was reinvaded at that time.

Biddle Asks Bill Against Immigrants

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—As congress reconvenes: Attorney General Biddle asks legislation to allow immigration officers to arrest without warrants persons suspected of being aliens violating immigration laws.

Chairman Maury Maxerick asked that the smaller war plants corporations be continued after the war, and its capital increased from $150,000,000 to total $350,000,000.

The Reconstruction Finance corporation informed congress it had $9,427,913,060 in loans outstanding on June 30, 1944. RFC said it had disbursed $23,341,021,460 since its creation.

Howard County Cash Balance Falls From September Total To $30,641

Howard county's cash balance tumbled from $69,137 at the end of September to $30,641 as of Nov. 13, 1944, but in reality the balance was considerably in excess of the latter figure, monthly statement of County Auditor Chester O'Brien to the commissioners court showed Tuesday.

Heavy current collections in October have not yet cleared the collectors office and will be reflected in the November statement. Receipts reported amounted to $6,875 to Nov. 13.

Road and Bridge expenditures aggregated $23,854 from Sept. 31 to Nov. 13, time of the commissioners regular meeting with around $19,000 of the amount being the final payment on construction of five miles of new road on the Gall extension and from Forsan to the offroad, and 15 miles of seal coating on the Knots, Cornhorns, Chalk, and San Angelo highway and some north of the city.

General fund disbursements amounted to $8,482 for the same period, including $1,711.52 for insurance. This was part of the $1,700 refunding issue left that fund with a temporary deficit of $1,977, which is more than covered by tax receipts on hand for that fund. The payment, including $4,500 for bonds, is next to the last to be made from the fund.

Fund balances as of Nov. 13 were: jury $1,541, road and bridge $13,093, general $13,622, permanent improvement $124, officers salary $1,267, road refunding ($1,977), special road bond $341, road and bridge special $603, court house and jail warrants $1,193 and viaduct warrants $907.

Expenditures from the officers salary fund totaled $8,328 for the same period, against receipts of $2,995.

A $4,700.28 disbursement from the road refunding issue left that fund with a temporary deficit of $1,977, which is more than covered by tax receipts on hand for that fund. The payment, including $4,500 for bonds, is next to the last to be made from the fund.

Never let it be said that war bitterness and misunderstanding born from it have quenched that old "southern hospitality." Perhaps in other places, but not here in and around Big Spring.

Recently Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Petty whose home is eight miles southwest of Big Spring, sat down to their usual Sunday dinner. Before they arose from the table, 16 families had just "dropped in to set a spell" with them. Sixteen families shared that meal with the Petties, and were extended a hearty invitation to return again soon, and at any time.

British Eighth Advances Near Forli In Italy

ROME, Nov. 14 (AP)—British Eighth army troops thrusting northwest from Forli on the eastern sector of the Italian battlefield have advanced two miles in some places, capturing the village of San Tomaso after bitter fighting, Allied headquarters announced today.

Other Eighth army units which crossed the Gialia canal south of Ravenna yesterday cut back across highway 16, the main coastal route, and captured German rear-guards.

Nazis Ordered To Shoot Those Lackin' Morale

WITH THE U. S. 2ND ARMORED DIVISION ON THE WESTERN FRONT, Nov. 14 (AP)—A captured German document disclosed today that the Nazis had ordered all soldiers to shoot their comrades or officers instantly "like a dog" if they observe the slightest decline in battle morale.

The order was published in Scorpion, a Nazi news commentary distributed to troops. The order was specifically applied to any German contemplating surrender. It was attributed to Heinrich Himmler, gestapo head and commander of the German home army.

The Nazi acknowledged the critical position of the Reich in these words: "Our will to resist is the only thing that we have left against the material superiority of our enemy until the new weapons are ready for the front. Therefore, whoever sabotages our will to resist must be smashed."

Responsible quarters said Belgium and Holland may become official signatories to such a regional pact along with Britain and France and that eventually Norway, Sweden and Denmark may come in.

Summarizing the week-end discussions of Prime Minister Winston Churchill and Gen. Charles De Gaulle, a French News Agency expressed the view that "the French and British governments would consider favorably the possibility of concluding such regional accords."

(A dispatch from London said sources in the British capital expressed belief that a similar combine would be formed in the east by Russia, Czechoslovakia and Poland and that at their next conference Prime Minister Churchill, President Roosevelt and Premier Stalin may consider whether such alliances can operate within the framework of the proposed future world security organization.)

Americans Bomb Manila Airport Damaged As Bombs Rain On Capital City

By The Associated Press
Waves of American planes hit Manila and nearby airfields yesterday, Manila time, doing "slight damage" to warships, installations and shipping, Tokyo radio and the enemy-controlled Manila broadcast station said today.

Four hundred planes blasted the Philippine capital city, Cavite and Clark Field yesterday and 400 sorties were flown over Manila targets today, said the broadcasts heard by the Federal Communications commission.

The enemy claimed that 73 of the raiders were shot down or damaged by Japanese interceptors in the two-day period. There has been no confirmation of the raids or asserted losses.

In today's raid, the Manila radio reported, Japanese airfields and Cavite, one-time United States naval base, were the objectives.

The Japanese Domei news agency said yesterday's raids resulted in "some damage to our warships" but ground facilities were "undamaged."

In addition to the Manila and Cavite areas, the Japanese said "about 80 carrier-based planes took part in a raid on Clark Field."

The Japanese communique added: "After about one hour's violent aerial battle, our airforce shot down several tens of planes, including 16 uncertain. However, our side also suffered a valuable sacrifice of one plane by self-blasting and four which did not return to the base."

Chinese Admit Loss Of Liuchow And Chienkiang

The U.S. 14th air force, which announced yesterday that the Liuchow air base had been destroyed and abandoned, said in a communique today that the sector was bombed yesterday and the day before.

SOUTHEAST ASIA COMMAND HEADQUARTERS, Kandy, Ceylon, Nov. 14 (AP)—A five-mile advance carried Chinese troops today to within two miles of the Japanese stronghold of Bhamo in Burma's Irrawaddy valley.

Another column to the east made slight progress yesterday against stiff opposition, a communique said.

One hundred and sixty miles to the southwest British imperials were exerting ever tightening pressure from north and west on Kalemyo, Japanese base 55 miles inside the Burma border.

German Battleship Tirpitz Is Sunk By Bombs "Just Off Norwegian Coast"

LONDON, Nov. 14 (AP)—The great German battleship Tirpitz, sunk Sunday by 6-ton British earthquake bombs, was "put out of action in shallow water just off the Norwegian coast" and a great part of her crew of possibly 1,600 was saved, the German communique asserted today.

The broadcast requeem for the 41,000-ton superdreadnaught said: "The German battleship Tirpitz, engaged in protecting the north Norwegian coast, has repulsed in the last two years numerous air attacks by strong special British bomber formations and shot down a large number of enemy planes. On Nov. 12, the Tirpitz was again attacked by British planes with super-bombs. The battleship lying in shallow water just off the Norwegian coast was put out of action. A great part of the crew was rescued."

Five Persons Decline Regent Appointment

AUSTIN, Nov. 14 (AP)—Five persons have declined appointment to three vacancies on the board of regents of the University of Texas, Governor Coke R. Stevenson said today.

At the press conference the governor said he was continuing his search for qualified appointees and hoped to announce his selections early next week. The governor leaves tomorrow for a deer hunt.

Answering a question, he said one of the declinations came from a man "who has independent oil connections in a small way." He previously disclosed that Clifford Jones, former president of Texas Technological college and member of the Texas Tech board of directors, had declined.

A legislative inquiry into the University of Texas administrative controversy begins here tomorrow.

Gains Reported Along Front Of Western Theater

By WILLIAM FRYE
LONDON, Nov. 14 (AP)—American infantry, hacking a new breach in fortifications south of Metz, captured Fort Orny today, and pushed to within 3½ miles of the besieged city.

Even as this fourth fortress fell, and all of Metz's roads of reinforcement or retreat were brought within artillery range, doughboys on the left flank of the 70-mile Third army front shoved forward in their Moselle bridgehead to within 1½ miles of the German border near the Luxembourg corner.

South of Metz, the Seventh army pushed forward in two-mile gains at either end of a 10-mile front, spreading the U.S. attack into the snow-drifted foothills of the Vosges mountains.

Doughboys of the Fifth division seized Fort Orny, and pushed on into the Hospital woods in the closest approach to Metz. The assault arc against Metz from the south now extended nine miles from Fort Orny to the town of Corny on the east bank of the Moselle.

Fifth division units, punching through unexpectedly light resistance, had captured Fort Aisne and two of its satellites near Corny, Pommereux, Veray, and Liehon.

Fort Orny fell to the 10th Regiment of the Fifth division, but battlefront reports did not disclose whether it was taken without a struggle.

With capture of Fort Aisne and the town of Corny earlier, the Americans had cut up behind formidable Fort Dienant, on the Moselle's west bank.

South of the Third army front the U.S. Seventh army's left flank troops captured Veney, four miles north of Raon-l'Etape, one of the towns guarding the Vosges mountain passes to the Rhine.

On the U.S. First army front inside Germany American artillery fire broke up an attempted German counterattack in the area of Schmidt, southeast of Aachen. There were artillery duels on the Holland front.

On General Patton's northern flank, troops of the 90th division thrust ahead 2-1/2 miles in their hard-won bridgehead over the Moselle near Koenigsmacher, reaching within 1-1/2 miles of the town's border. Their chief opposition was strong artillery fire.

The Germans still posed stubborn resistance in the area of Maisieres. Southeast of Metz, German gains of up to a mile in counterattacks seeking to save Dieuze were wiped out by elements of the 26th infantry and Fourth armored divisions, and the Americans added another mile in fresh advances. Doughboys now controlled almost half the bridge and Koelcing forest astride a ridge dominating Dieuze.

Elements of the Sixth armored division rode into Vittoncourt 12 miles southeast of Metz in a mile push, and the 317th regiment of the 80th infantry in the same sector won a half mile of ground, going into Arriance 14 miles southeast of Metz.

Escaped AAF Officer Held In Parish Jail

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 14 (AP)— Robert G. Kaslow, 21-year-old former army air force officer charged with escaping from a military prison in a stolen army plane, was held in Orleans parish jail today following his capture last night in a hotel cocktail lounge.

FBI agents had trailed him from one night spot to another by means of a "V" ring worn by a woman companion who, FBI Agent Jack J. Van Landingham said, paid his bill in a hotel Turkish bath.

Kaslow, who prior to his escape Friday night was awaiting transfer from a Craig Field, Ala. guardhouse to the federal prison at Atlanta to begin serving a 30-year sentence, was dressed in the uniform of an air force second lieutenant. His companion was held by the FBI.

Van Landingham quoted the flier as saying he escaped from the guardhouse through a ventilator. The FBI agent said Kaslow then stole a parachute, obtained his own uniform, took a trainer plane "off the line" and headed west "for no particular reason."

Kaslow, whose home is at Johnson City, N. Y., was quoted by the agent as saying he "got up nerve to bail out" after once "getting cold feet" and that he came down in a swamp.

Kaslow's previous sentence, given at a court martial, was for violation of eight articles of war, including forgery, assault with intent to kill, larceny and desertion.

Advertising Pays . . . But Often Confuses

ROCKFORD, Ill., Nov. 14 (AP)—An interesting tobaccoist who advertised "three dozen ladies' pipes" sold his stock of small bowl pipes quickly.

But he was stumped when the woman asked for "ladies' tobacco" to go with them.

Now that the Harvest is over—

HERE'S OUR FINAL ESTIMATE ON WHAT CANNED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES WILL BE AVAILABLE THIS WINTER

—and what you can do to make the best of the situation

Twice during the harvest and packing season just finished, Del Monte has reported that apparently there would be less canned fruits and vegetables for civilians this winter.

This picture hasn't improved, in spite of the industry's strenuous efforts to increase total packs. Both housewives and grocers will need growers, packers and workers.

But greatly increased military needs have sharply reduced the civilian share of canned fruits. There will be 1/3 to 1/2 less for civilians than last year. In total, fruits will be available to civilians in very limited quantities.

As for vegetables, bad weather and manpower difficulties reduced the 1944 pack below last year's, while government requirements almost doubled.

As a result, the total civilian supply of canned vegetables apparently will be about 1/3 less than last year.

CANNED FRUITS	ASPARAGUS
PEACHES You will probably be able to purchase an amount slightly less than half last year's supply.	Larger pack offset by increased military quotas. Still you will get only slightly less than last year.
PEARS Larger pack, but larger government requirements will leave civilians less than half last year's short supply.	BEANS Look for slightly less than you bought last year.
FRUIT COCKTAIL Amount available to home front is about half of last year's limited supply.	BEETS Packs not complete. Much larger government quotas. Supply for civilians about the same as last year.
APRICOTS A bumper crop will give you more than usual, even in normal times.	TOMATOES Civilian supply severely cut by weather and manpower difficulties and higher military requirements. Probably about 60% of last year's supply.
PINEAPPLE Harvest light again this year. You will get about 1/2 average 1935-39 consumption, and much less than last year.	CANNED JUICES
CANNED VEGETABLES	PINEAPPLE JUICE Only 1/2 to 1/3 of amount consumers would ordinarily buy will be available.
PEAS Amount for civilians will be about 1/2 below last year.	GRAPFRUIT JUICE Very large pack was anticipated, but recent hurricanes damage probably means you'll get materially less than last year.
CORN Bad weather reduced crop. Consumer should expect about 1/2 less corn this coming year.	TOMATO JUICE Big pack, but larger government requirements, resulting in slightly smaller civilian supply this year.

Just what can you expect in canned fruits and vegetables?

The fruit pack this year came close to that of 1941, the largest in history—a magnificent job made possible by earnest cooperation of

Will the end of the European war change this picture?

There could be a radical change in the civilian supply of canned vegetables if military

What can you do to keep your meals up to par this winter?

You, like many other American women, have probably already discovered that sticking to a dependable quality brand is one of the best answers to shortages.

There are so many different Del Monte Foods that even when you can't find exactly the one you'd planned on, you may still find another Del Monte Food to meet your needs.

That way, you are always sure of the quality and flavor—less food is wasted, and all your meals are more satisfying.

What about your chances of finding Del Monte?

Again, we emphasize that all Del Monte Foods will continue to be apportioned fairly to our distributors throughout the country. Deliveries will also be spread throughout the year, giving you a chance to find at least some varieties of Del Monte Foods on your grocer's shelves at most times.

Whose fault is it when you can't get what you want?

Certainly, it's not your grocer's! It's just an unavoidable wartime situation—one that makes things harder for him.

So continue to give your grocer your patience and understanding. It will help him serve you better.

Board Of Control Gives Governor Recommendations For Two Years

By The Associated Press AUSTIN, Nov. 14 — The board of control today gave to Governor Coke R. Stevenson and the legislature budget recommendations for the next two fiscal years intended to:

Grant salary increases for state workers in the two lowest brackets.

Increase appropriations for old age assistance and for teachers salaries to meet cost of living increases.

Provide for $3,000,000 of new building construction.

The board said the recommendations were well within estimated receipts for the next two years and $26,201,748 less than requested by state departments.

It estimated that the state can spend more money for services, salaries and construction and still end each year with a cash balance.

The next two fiscal years begin Sept. 1, 1945 and Sept. 1, 1946. Appropriations for the biennium will be made by the 49th legislature which meets next January.

The board made these observations and recommendations:

State salaries were cut in depression years and very few of them were restored. Because of this situation and a minimum 30 per cent increase in the cost of living salaries up to and including $2,100 should be raised 20 per cent and those from $2,100 to $3,600 should be increased 15 per cent.

The state is now financially able to provide "reasonable" increases in teachers salaries. As long as business and industry offer better opportunities in security of employment and salaries than does the teaching profession, we cannot hope to improve standards of education and properly reward those who have loyally stayed in the profession throughout the years.

We have much to our credit in Texas about which we can boast but our educational system is not one of them.

The state is paying $139,550 annually in rentals for office space, a sum sufficient to pay for a state office building in a few years.

The state should pool its many motor vehicles and reduce the cost of repairs which was estimated at more than $1,000,000 annually.

The board of control should be given legislative authority to purchase at prices not exceeding market value or actual and intrinsic value surplus government goods because under present statutes, requiring bids, the federal government will not bid on the state's requirement and cannot give the required bidder's bond and performance bond required from dealers.

A tubercular hospital should be built somewhere along the Rio Grande, possibly at Fort Ringgold or Fort Clark. State universities and colleges should receive appropriations on the level of 1941 - 43 with additional contingent appropriations of $1,867,143 and $1,912,703 for each year of the biennium to be used when and if enrollment exceeds that of 1941 - 43.

Before the end of the next biennium eleemosynary institutions will need more housing facilities. These should be provided by appropriating money for new buildings or by acquiring at least four of the better class army training camps which may be abandoned as war demands decrease.

The board estimated $35,846,415 would be needed for the first year of the biennium and $35,461,302 for the second year of the biennium.

Correspondent Tells Story Of The Sergeant That Was Broken by Silence

By HAL BOYLE WITH AMERICAN TROOPS IN GERMANY, Nov. 4 (Delayed) (AP) Rank and its special privilege are the cause of bitterness in the American civilian army, but men without stripes or bars have a way of dealing with non-coms and officers who let promotion go to their heads.

Witness the sergeant who was broken by silence. Call him Okie—close enough to the name the men knew him by. He was a jeep driver for a service outfit which made several rips daily to the front lines. Okie would stay in the rear areas, but he was distinctly allergic to gunfire.

Whenever a jeep had to be sent toward the front Okie wasn't around—or if he was he became suddenly too ill to drive.

Okie volunteered as a night courier driver which nobody else wanted because of the hours. Okie was glad to get it—the trips were dark and lonely, but they were far beyond the range of enemy artillery.

He did his job well and wasn't disliked. He could strum a guitar and sing hillbilly songs and other soldiers found him amusing. Some officers couldn't stand him, but others thought he was a model soldier.

So when the table of organization permitted, one officer angled a sergeantcy for little Okie, the boy who wouldn't go near the front.

He found himself a snazzy pair of leather puttees and an old pair of French riding breeches, grew a little black mustache and began giving orders. He was "out of uniform," but the officers who liked him overlooked this because he was Okie and never forgot that "Yes sir" and that salute.

Angott Quits Ring For Good This Time

WASHINGTON, Pa., Nov. 14 (AP) Sammy Angott, former world's lightweight boxing champion, has announced his second retirement—but this time, says the ring-wise little veteran, "I'm going to make it stick."

Angott renounced his title two years ago, then staged a sensational comeback and regained the crown by whipping Luther (Slugger) White in Hollywood in October, 1943. He lost the championship to Juan Zurita in a Hollywood bout last February.

Crude Production Increases In Week

TULSA, Nov. 14 (AP) — United States crude oil production increased 12,500 barrels daily in the week ended Nov. 11 to 4,731,850 barrels daily, the Oil and Gas Journal said today.

California output was up 4,900 barrels a day to 880,250; eastern fields, 50 to 68,000; Illinois 1,400 to 267,800; Kansas 5,800 to 266,000; and Michigan 2,950 to 49,500. Production in Louisiana declined 800 barrels a day to 363,150; Oklahoma, 600 to 359,400; Texas 500 to 2,132,300; East Texas, 1,500 to 367,900 and the Rocky Mountain area 2,500 to 127,100.

STRAIGHT TALK

ABOUT THE

SIXTH WAR LOAN DRIVE

AS WE MOVE closer to victory, it wouldn't be surprising if you were saying to yourself—"What's the big idea of asking for all this additional money now? Isn't the war almost over?"

No sir, it is not! Not by a long shot. Of course, for many months now you've heard mostly about the war with Germany, where our greatest effort is concentrated. That's why many people have the idea that the war's practically over.

But make no mistake about it—nothing could be farther from the truth! The Japanese war is a tremendous undertaking, and victory will come high. We'll have to fight every inch of the way.

Everything Costs More—in the Pacific War

The European war is expensive, but almost everything in the Pacific war will cost more. Take transport costs, for instance: Because of the longer distances, the same amount of freight costs 25 per cent more when shipped to the South Pacific than to Europe. And it takes twice as many cargo ships in the Pacific to support a task force of a given size because turn-around time is twice as great!

More Planes . . . Tanks . . . Ships . . . Oil

In addition, we shall need more of everything. More B-29 Superfortresses that cost $600,000 each. More P-47 Thunderbolts that cost $50,000 each. More M-4 Tanks, with bulldozer blades, that cost $67,417 each. More amphibious tanks —more aircraft carriers—more supply ships—more gasoline and oil than it took for the invasion of Europe!

Care for the Sick and Wounded

And lest anyone forget, we shall need more battalion aid stations—more clearing stations—more evacuation hospitals—more convalescent hospitals—more hospital ships.

For many, many years the sick, wounded, and otherwise disabled veterans will require medical attention and care. That's the least Uncle Sam can do in appreciation of what they've done for us.

Maintenance for Millions

Did you ever stop to think how much money it costs to maintain the 11 to 12 million men and women in our army and navy? Whether the men are actually fighting or not, they must be fed, housed, transported from one training center or battle area to another, cared for in a hundred and one different ways. That all costs money and will continue to until the last man demobilized is back in civilian clothes.

In addition, millions of dollars will be required for mustering-out pay, for various benefits and services voted by Congress to help the boys get started in civilian life.

These are reasons enough why patriotic Americans will want to buy heavily during the Sixth War Loan. But here are still more—

Winning the Peace—for Your Country

If we're to win the peace as well as the war, the cost of living must be kept down and the purchasing power of money preserved. A reckless inflation that would necessarily be followed by the catastrophe of deflation—with its unemployment, bankruptcies, misery and heartache—must be prevented at all cost.

Let's make no mistake—a dangerous period lies ahead. The American people have nothing to fear, however, if they show in the future the same common sense they have shown in the past, and continue to put every penny over rock-bottom expenses into the purchase of more and more War Bonds.

Winning the Peace—for Yourself

Want another important reason? Yourself! There isn't a better or safer investment in the world today than War Bonds. In helping your country, you are also helping yourself! Never in our entire history has it been so necessary to save as right now. We'll need money, individually, for education, repairs, replacements, retirement—and we'll need a lot of it.

As you can see there are many reasons, important reasons, why our Government must have the financial support of everyone, and have it for many months to come.

Let all Americans do their part—for their own sake, for their country's.

Randolph Field Stands Alone In Texas Service Football As Only Undeclared

By The Associated Press
Texas service football standings (teams playing as many as five games):

Team	W.	L.	T.	Pts.	Opp.
Randolph	7	0	0	321	6
Hondo	5	1	0	141	31
Blackland	5	1	1	130	19
Amarillo	5	2	0	180	87
Galveston	4	2	2	98	105

Bergstrom	3	4	0	111	72
Bryan	1	6	0	6	139
So. Plains	0	6	0	53	223

Randolph Field's mighty Ramblers stand alone in Texas service football. They are the only unbeaten team left. Hondo Air Field fell Saturday night before Galveston Air Field 19-14 while Randolph was rolling over Maxwell Field 25-0.

The Ramblers have one of the greatest records in football—seven victories, 321 points to six for the opposition. That's an average of almost 46 points per game while allowing their foes less than one point.

This week Randolph plays Southwestern, which lost to Tulsa Saturday 51-8. Hondo meets

Abilene Boasts Impressive Year With Stiff Foes

By BILL BARNETT
Invading Steer Stadium Friday night will be the Abilene Eagles, who have their eyes set on the District Three pennant now held by San Angelo's defending district and state champs and the only team given even a long-shoe chance of knocking the champs out of the running, to meet the Big Spring Steers who were only last week vanquished by these self-same Cats 53-9.

Last week the Eagles were none too impressive according to past performances as they knocked over the Lamesa Tornados 40-7 in a game that proved to be a very dull uninteresting affair with the winners playing ragged ball during the first half, and superior ball playing being their only salvation. The Tornados ride the cellar of the district and had they had anything at all with which to fight onlookers as it might have been a much different story.

However, the Eagles are rated the second best by most observers of the district, and the Steer conflict is not supposed to be any test for them this Friday. All pregame castings show them the better team by six touchdowns.

Abilene dropped two early-season games to Breckenridge, 9-7, and Amarillo 12-0 before hitting the victory trail to roll over Brownwood and Lubbock before hitting Odessa, Sweetwater and Midland who also fell before furious Eagle assaults.

Then last week the Eagles took on the easy Tornados and walloped them with no trouble after they once got rolling.

The Steers on the other hand were hard-pushed to win 7-6 from the Dawson County storms, while Midland, Odessa, and Lubbock have soundly beaten the locals. In comparative scores the Eagles are out in front by a big lead.

Coach Jake Bentley's eleven has improved steadily in each encounter, and though their record is not as impressive as is San Angelo's they have racked up a comfortable margin of wins over their defeat list. Fans who saw them play their opening two games with Breckenridge and Amarillo avow that neither team had anything that could match the Eagles but the breaks of each game went the wrong way to cost those two victories.

The invaders will bring such notable individual performers to town as Jim Harrison, a fast stepping back who slings plenty of passes along with his power-laden ability to lug the leather. Also in the forward wall will be one of the finest guards in District Three in Marlon Grant, who is also being boomed for all-state honors by supporters who have seen him in action against numerous foes.

The Eagles will probably move against the locals with their eyes on the ground but their minds on San Angelo who they play next week, Thursday afternoon, November 23, in Angelo, and in this outlook Coach John Dibrell and his Steer charges hope to find the loop-hole they seek and slip through for a most surprising win.

ARMY-NAVY GAME SELL-OUT
ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 14 (AP)—The Army-Navy game Dec. 2 is a sell-out. Capt. C. O. Humphrey, Navy director of athletics, broke the news when he announced that "we have more than 19,000 applications and only 18,756 seats in the Thompson Stadium," even as a renewed drive to shift the game to a big city stadium got under way in Washington.

Sliding Down The Sports Chute

Local fans who have overlooked the junior football league just passed have really missed some treats. Also they have missed seeing some early hints of what Big Spring will offer in District Three competition a few years hence.

Such teams as West Ward and College Heights have shown an amazing bit of coordination and teamwork that it takes to make a winning team. These two elevens will play off their tie for the pennant next Tuesday night under the lights out at the stadium and everyone should be on the sidelines to root them on.

This encouragement business for that group really helps them and also helps their attitude toward competitive sports. I would place that bunch of youngsters against any group their age at ability and spirit. They have done a lot this year to help the city build its youth toward what they should be and if local fans let it go without thanks they are committing a grave and serious move that might discourage something that every city needs more and more of . . . healthy and well trained youth. From what I have seen we have it here in Big Spring.

Another brand of football that local fans should be over-looked, or at least show no interest in, is the Yearling team. This is another group of boys who next year and later will be on the Steer squad and sound basic training is needed now to give the local school a good representation on the gridiron in the coming years. More of this would have eliminated some of the mistakes of the current season that have led to a ragged ball team that has had trouble in winning the few games it managed to win.

The Yearlings have played five games this year and won three of them, after losing their season opener. They showed a lot of ability and courage and put on some shows of running and passing that hold big promise for next year's senior eleven. Most of these boys are 15 years of age or under, and have two to three years left to play high school ball.

What will they be doing when they are seniors? Friends, I won't commit myself in this day and time with the future so unpredictable, but in two years, if that group stays together, the present Yearling team CAN make a ball club that will make local and district fans sit up and take notice . . . and that is no exaggeration. They are a pretty nice little combination now, and with some work and training can make an excellent senior team.

Their record thus far this year and their record is closed: Big Spring 6, Tahoka B 13. Big Spring 25, Tahoka B. 18. Big Spring 7, Midland 7. Big Spring 13, Hermleigh 6. Big Spring 13, Midland 6.

That is their record against other B teams and Hermleigh, which is a senior high school and used all age boys on their team. The

Army Rated As Best In College Gridiron Circle

NEW YORK, Nov. 14 (AP)—Army and Navy, rivals in the service class Dec. 2, rank one-two in a strict collegiate segregation of the football teams rated in today's Associated Press poll.

Army, with 77 first place votes of a possible 106, collected 935 points. Navy, beaten by North Carolina Pre-Flight and Georgia Tech in early season games, is second with five first place nominations and 759 tallies.

Randolph Field sets the pace for the service division with 15 tickets for the No. 1 spot and 770 points. In the over-all poll Army ranks as the top team but the Randolph Field squad moved to second from their fourth place berth a week ago.

For the first time since Oct. 12, 1942, Notre Dame is not in the top ten teams in the country, dropping to eleventh place following the Irish 59 to 0 setback by Army.

Notre Dame is among the elite, however, in the division reserved for college teams only, holding down seventh place.

The college group is made up of Ohio State, Michigan, Georgia Tech, Duke, Notre Dame, Southern California, Purdue and Mississippi State in that order behind the two service schools.

Fellow members with Randolph in the service contingent are Bainbridge, Iowa Pre-Flight, Fourth Air Force, Great Lakes, El Toro, Calif., Marines, North Carolina Pre-Flight, Norman, Okla., Navy, Second Air Force and Maxwell Field.

Seventeen Teams In Running For Orange Bowl January First

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 13 (AP)—Seventeen teams, eight of them from the south, are still in the running for the New Year's day Orange Bowl football game, schedule Chairman C. F. (Jack) Baldwin said today.

They are: Tennessee, Mississippi State, Georgia Tech, Alabama, Duke, Georgia, Wake Forest and Virginia from the south; Tulsa, Oklahoma A. and M., Texas, T. C. U., Texas A. and M. and Arkansas from the Southwest; Michigan State and Iowa from the Midwest and Holy Cross from the East.

Out of every thousand American women, 77 have purchased colored bed sheets.

Hermleigh eleven had tied several Class schools before coming here and had lost a close one to the Abilene Eagles 0-3. That gives some indication of how the locals might stack up against the Eagles in a few years.

All I have to say is watch out District Three. Big Spring is not always going to be the breather game on the schedule and with the returning lettermen next season and the upcoming Yearlings it may not be too long before even the Steers will be moving against the undefeated champions with a clean slate.

See you . . .

College Heights To Play West Ward For Pennant

Results came out just about as expected in the local ward school football league out in Steer stadium yesterday afternoon and fans saw College Heights, North Ward and West Ward come through with wins in the final full round of play in the year's junior football circuit.

In the curtain raiser College Heights had no trouble with the South side eleven and rolled along with an easy 27-0 win using their starting lineup sparingly and with no serious intent in their minds to rack up a big score. They gave no serious thought to losing, and their scores came on long runs or were set up by such, as they scored almost at will, but seemed rather satisfied with keeping the score down within reasonable limits.

For the opening score of the game little Johnnie Berry took the ball from his quarterback slot off the T formation and rounded end for 25 yards and paydirt. Rusk converted through the line.

In the second period Amos Jones ambled over the double-stripe for the score but the conversion failed. Some minutes later as the half ended Earl Rusk took the Southside punt on their 40 and charged through the entire South aggregation for the score. He also converted and the half ended 20-0 in favor of the first-place College Heights eleven.

The winners coasted along through the third period and in the fourth the first string came in for a fleeting moment and immediately Berry grabbed the ball on the 15 and raced across to score. He also converted and the game ended with South ward helpless at the hands of the second team Heights men, and the score 27 to 0.

In the second game the tough North Dogies had to come from behind to overcome a stubborn green-shirted Eastside eleven but do it they did and won out in a close one 14-7.

James Clark opened the afternoon's scoring, and likewise closed it with a 15-yard jaunt for East ward and pay dirt. Hooper converted with straight power through the line.

The half ended with the East eleven leading the black shirts 7-0 but in the third quarter a series of power-laden thrusts moved the big Dogie team down to the one and Lynn Hodnett carried over. Tommy Rupard converted around end.

In the fourth Rupard sewed up the game for Northside with a 40-yard sprint that powered him through all opposition and sparkled with fast and shifty running plus power when it was needed.

NOVA-KAHUT BOUT OFF
PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 14 (AP)—The Lou Nova-Joe Kahaut 10-round fight billed here for Nov. 24 has been called off because, Matchmaker Joe Waterman, said today, "Nova claims he has a broken hand."

Richard C. LeFevre assumed his duties Monday morning as a radio operator on the Big Spring police force.

Hodnett converted to put the game on ice 14-7.

A Central ward eleven that had proved almost too tough for College Heights the week before found West Ward the bearers of too much power, and although the excellent passing of Billy McMillan plus the fine running and receiving of Jimmie Knott showed up as the outstanding individual shows of the day, the red shirts fell before the big Yellow helmeted team 13-0.

Lewis opened the scoring early in the game with a 40-yard dash that crossed the double-stripe with no Central player near. The conversion failed.

In the following quarter Bobby Campbell crashed over from the five for the other tally and Gilbert added the extra point.

This leaves the league in a tie for first place with College Heights and West ward undefeated but both tied. The tie game came when these same two teams met two weeks ago. Coach John Dibrell has issued a statement that, weather permitting, the tie will be played off next Tuesday night under the lights at the stadium. It will be the final go-round of the year and will definitely decide the winner.

And What About Hitler? The War Today

by Dewitt Mackenzie Associated Press War Analyst

The mystery of Hitler's whereabouts is rapidly assuming the proportions of one of history's prime thrillers, and it's likely to have a profound influence on the German people and consequently on the trend of the war if it develops that the fuhrer of the super-race is incapacitated.

Propaganda Minister Goebbels has set all the wheels of his great machine turning to convince the reich and the world at large that the dictator isn't ill, mad or dead but is in "excellent, vigorous health." Still the fact remains that the Nazi chief's people haven't heard from him directly in about four months.

The bomb attempt on his life was July 20. The next day somebody representing himself as Hitler went on the air to say that the plot had failed. Since then there's been a great silence on the part of the fuhrer, and it seems significant that his captives have been working overtime to provide excuses (and very lame ones) why the master hasn't appeared personally. Why should they be so anxious to make a secret of an affair that would be treated openly in any normal country?

I think the answer is clear enough. Hitler has been absolute in his dictatorship for more than a decade. His control has been so complete that all Germany has come to think of government in terms of this one man.

True, within recent months it has been reported that the bloody-minded Himmler, chief of the Gestapo and the home troops, had got Hitler under his power and was the real ruler of Germany. Well, that could be true. However, if it is true I don't believe the German people know it.

I believe that if Hitler is permanently out of the picture for any reason, we shall see a slump in German morale which will hasten the end of the war.

Be ready with offers of prospective sites together with other answers which the army might require. Being prepared is being sensible.

Considerable interest is being stirred over the prolonged silence for Adolf Hitler (who thought it would ever come to this?) There is speculation as to whether this madman has faced the judgment bar, or whether he still lingers in illness. Most popular conjecture is that he is under a doctor's care. Here again the game of speculation goes rapidly. There are those "inside" sources which say the der fuhrer has suffered a throat ailment which does not permit him to talk. Others, equally close (or far away) to the source, maintain that Hitler is manifesting a childish interest in preparation of fortifications around his Alpine retreat. In short, they hint, the master of the master race is short some of his marbles.

Perhaps nothing is harmed by all this guessing, although in the absence of any means of ascertaining the true facts, we doubt that anything is accomplished by it. Some of the stories coming out of Germany do indicate that the typical German genius for efficiency has not been applied to this case. The stories do not jibe with previous accounts. In all probability, they have fallen into the pitfall for all untruths—namely, it is impossible to lie and be consistent.

The one danger of plain glib credence in these reports is that the German is a very tricky creature when it comes to dealing with propaganda as a weapon. He will deliberately add fuel to unfavorable news about the Reich and its leading bandits so that when people have come to believe them, they suddenly come out with a refutation.

In this case, it might be easy to keep the garulous Hitler silent until people outside of Germany convinced themselves that he was in truth and in fact removed from the picture. Then would be a most opportune time for the Germans to produce him. Little as one would think, this would have some adverse effect on our morale.

What has happened to Hitler is unimportant along side of what happens to every bloody, lustful Nazi. He is just one of many. If the Lord doesn't beat us to him, we will get him in time. The thought of that, indeed, might be enough to drive him insane.

Sensible Preparation

A site and steering committee is to be named by A. S. Darby, chamber of commerce president, to be ready in event Big Spring is inspected as a possible site for a veterans hospital. This, it seems to us, is a sound move in view of the fact we have asked for consideration. It follows that we should

Nation Still In Need Of Tin

By JANE EADS (Substituting for Jack Stinnett, who is ill)

WASHINGTON — The nation's housewives have stopped saving tin cans, but the country still needs tin . . . perhaps as much as 5,000 to 6,000 tons annually.

The used tin cans that housewives washed out and prepared for collection in their neighborhoods have provided the only domestic source of tin the nation had.

Today the government isn't getting anywhere near the tin needed . . . only around 2,000 or 3,000 tons yearly.

That's why the War Production Board's Salvage Committee is revitalizing its campaign program, setting up what it calls a "well organized structure for the collection of cans."

WPB salvage officials say the announcement several weeks ago that collapsible tubes were no longer wanted had a bad psychological effect on the public.

The announcement failed to emphasize why the tubes were no longer wanted . . . the majority were war-fabricated, contained little or no tin.

The country still gets some tin from South America, but even if the war should end tomorrow the visible supply would last but one and a half years. This is a dangerous position to be in.

If you've got enough money in the bank to live on for a year and a half, but knew you'd get no additional money for two years, you'd worry too, WPB officials say.

Defeat of the Japanese, even tomorrow, still would leave us out on a limb as far as tin is concerned.

Ernie Pyle: Sgt. Jack Morris Pays Tribute To The GI Joe's Favorite Writer

(Reprint with permission) . . . by SGT. JACK MORRIS YANK Staff Correspondent

PARIS — The medic captain came over to the table smiling and asked: "Aren't you Ernie Pyle?" "Yes, I am," said Ernie.

"I just want to thank you," said the captain. "You've done some great things for us in your column. I read it whenever I can."

Ernie grinned. "You won't be reading it much longer. I'm going back to the States in a couple of days."

Something like relief passed over the medic's face. "Are you?" he said. "By God, I'm glad. You've seen enough of it. I'm glad you're going."

The conversation went on for a few minutes, the captain standing helmet in hand and the rest of us sitting with dirty clothes and dirty boots at a polished table in a modernistic little bar in the basement of a hotel.

We were drinking champagne cocktails. At this hotel you couldn't get bread. But champagne? Mais, oui, Monsieur.

"Where are you going when you get back home?" asked the medic. "To the Pacific, I guess," said Ernie.

"Well, good luck to you Ernie, and thanks again." Ernie matched the captain's sincerity, because in this theatre there are few men who can stand shoulder to shoulder with the medics when it comes to rating praise. Ernie was a little embarrassed.

But in this theatre, too, the legend of Ernie Pyle is a thing of wonder. He is the GI's war correspondent, the man who loves the soldier of the line. A great deal has been written about Ernie, because he is a phenomenon of this war. He himself, however, sees nothing phenomenal about the work that so far has won him a Pulitzer Prize and the good will of almost everybody in and out of the Army.

"I'm doing the same kind of stuff I've always done in the column," he says. "Except that it's on a war basis. Instead of talking to civilians about civilian things, I just swapped over to the military."

Not all that has been written about Ernie has presented him with perfect accuracy. His wife, after reading some of the pieces on Pyle, wrote him: "I am convinced now that nobody can write about you but me." Time did an altogether friendly job of profiling him, but Ernie denies the assertion that he has been harboring a "premonition of death," and he

Hollywood — Ready . . . Action . . . Camera . . . Wait

By ROBBIN COONS HOLLYWOOD — One morning recently a movie called "The Love Letters" was all set to begin.

Joseph Cotten and Jennifer Jones, the stars, were on deck. Lee Remick had his camera ready. By 9 o'clock, like all good little movie companies, this one was ready to shoot.

The first scene, as ordered by Director William Dieterle, was a close-up of Joe Cotten's finger pressing a doorbell. Mr. Dieterle did not look happy. Joe Cotten, sympathetic, understood. Joe Cotten conferred with Cameraman Garmes.

"My finger," he said. "Has not been tested for this role. We'd better do something about it."

This was done, and minutes passed. "But is my finger's makeup all right?" persisted Cotten. "And Lee, how are your lights—does my fingernail shine? Is my nail too long—perhaps we'd better have it trimmed. . . ."

Minutes passed, busy minutes in which Messrs. Cotten and Garmes thought of delays. Mr. Dieterle looked happier. Finally Joe looked at his watch. It was 9:41, on the dot.

"Ready," said Joe. Dieterle beamed, ordered a "take."

Mirrors Of Austin— Governor Cools On Proposal To Impose Heavy Gas Export Tax

By PAUL BOLTON Herald Correspondent

Governor Coke Stevenson has cooled off considerably on his former tentative proposal to recommend enactment of a tax bill which would have effect of collecting a greater amount on gas exported from Texas than on gas used at home.

The governor at first advanced the idea of some such graduated tax during the furore over the Tennessee — Transmission Company's Corpus Christi to West Virginia natural gas pipeline. But since that excitement some months ago, the governor has talked to many people about the intricate natural gas industry, and the more he learns the less certain he becomes of his ground.

While not yet ready to make any definite statement on the subject, it was clear that his earlier enthusiasm was much less pronounced.

All of this subject matter becomes pertinent the nearer the day of victory comes; for immediately after the day of victory, there will be posed the problem all over again: Should the so-called Big Inch and Little Inch pipelines be converted to the transportation of natural gas?

This matter of marketing natural gas . . . the potentialities are hardly yet realized—is more than a mere theoretical discussion in Texas. It has economic and political overtones; in fact the charge that the Big Inch was built in order to give an outlet to Texas gas after the war was in effect charged by Senator V. Lee O'Daniel in one of his campaigns.

Two of the best-informed men in Texas on the general subject are Railroad Commissioners Old Culberson and Ernest O. Thompson.

Culberson points out that strictly in terms of law, there is no way to prevent the piping of Texas gas to the industrial east. And the only feasible argument against such a practice is one based upon the debt this generation owes to all that will follow. Which is a pretty poor argument to give a man who wants to sell his natural resources and enjoy them during his own lifetime.

Seeing no particular way to prevent the piping of gas, nor to persuade industry to come to the source of supply—despite the proximity of fuel, of raw materials, of deepwater ports and a great post-war Latin-American trade — Culberson thinks this: Texas ought at least to get enough in taxes on gas to make gas competitive with the fuel with which it will compete in the east: Coal.

Coal, he points out, is a decadent industry, and it seems hardly fair to add to the industry's already-heavy burden the additional one of a cheaper fuel.

Culberson's colleague, Ernest O. Thompson, approaches the subject from a slightly different angle. That there is waste of gas—the casinghead, produced with oil—none denies. And Thompson thinks this waste will automatically stop when there is a market for gas. And he foresees this "before many months roll around." The manufacture of 87 octane gasoline out of methane. Methane is what ordinarily is burned in domestic use—the dry gas after extraction of lighter ends. If methane can be transformed into high-power gasoline, it should be worth, at the present price of gasoline around ten cents a hundred cubic feet. The dry ends bring about 3 cents a hundred. So a price of 13 cents is not an impossibility. At that rate, gas would be more valuable in terms of dollars than crude oil. "The trouble has been that gas has been as cheap as dirt because there has been so much of it."

There is a conflict of views as to whether it would be economically feasible to continue hauling oil and products in the Big Inch and Little Inch lines, respectively, but all the experts in Austin believe, for one reason or another, the use of the tanker will be revived after the war, thus automatically making the two big lines available for gas transportation with possibly slight structural changes.

Police Investigate Means—Only Sinus

CHICAGO, Nov. 14 (AP)—While sleeping, Ward C. Rogers knocked a nearby telephone to the floor. The central telephone operator, hearing moans, gasps and sighs notified police who dispatched two squads to investigate.

When the officers finally roused Rogers he said there were no means or other noises, only snoring and a heavy breathing due to his cold. Rogers, head of five telephone message centers in Chicago, knows what trouble can be caused by a received off the hook.

Illinois Expects Buckeyes To Swing

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 14 (AP)—Here's a friendly tip to the University of Illinois football team—don't forget to duck if Ohio State's Bucks swing a game-opening haymaker Saturday.

No one has ever heard of a football referee emulating prize fight referees by telling the contestants to "come out swinging at the bell" but the Bucks have been doing it anyhow.

In four of their seven games they have scored the first time they got the ball. In two other games they quickly left their foes so deep in the hole that it was only a matter of a few more minutes before there was an Ohio State score.

SIXTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Leyte, P. I., Nov. 14 (AP)—Lieut. Gen. Walter Krueger, Sixth army commander, took time out for breakfast recently, thereby probably saving his life.

Christmas Seals To Be On Sale On November 27

The thirty-eighth annual sale of Christmas seals will be begun by the Howard County Tuberculosis association on November 27, when the seals will be distributed by mail.

Tuberculosis stands first as the cause of death among men, women and children between the ages of 15 and 45, according to Mrs. Cecil Wasson, president of the Howard county chapter. She stated that to enlarge the program of prevention and cure a larger income will be necessary.

"This work is being carried on day by day among all classes regardless of race or creed," Mrs. Wasson continued. "Your Howard County Tuberculosis association has furnished patch tests for 3,400 persons, x-rayed more than 187 persons, assisted in placing several patients in sanatoriums during the past year and furnished scales for the Health Unit to use."

The sale of Christmas seals is the only means of support for the Howard county chapter, and 80 cents on every dollar remains in this county to combat tuberculosis. The sale of these seals has helped to cut the tuberculosis death rate by two-thirds during the past 30 years.

Colorado Services Set For Pritchett's

COLORADO CITY, Nov. 14 — Double services were set today for Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Pritchett, pioneer Mitchell county residents.

Mrs. Pritchett died Friday but rites were held up pending a turn in the condition of her husband, who was critically ill. He died at 5:30 a. m. today.

Funeral was to be held in the Kiker chapel with the Rev. C. M. Epps, Methodist minister, officiating.

Mrs. Pritchett succumbed as children gathered due to the serious illness of their father. She was stricken by a heart attack.

Mr. Pritchett was born Dec. 4, 1859 in Bullock county, Alabama, and she was born Dec. 6 1865 in the same county. For the past 46 years they had made their home here.

Surviving are five sons, William C. Pritchett, Los Angeles, Calif., James C. Pritchett, Humble City, N. M., C. C. Pritchett, Pecos; and J. B. (Bun) Pritchett and Travis Pritchett, Colorado City; and five daughters, Mrs. B. H. Gregory, Mrs. Luke Girvin, Mrs. E. W. Brunner, Lottie Pritchett, Colorado City, Cleo Pritchett, Dallas. They also leave 10 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Lark Costin, Colorado City, and John Costin, Westbrook, are her surviving brothers. W. C. Hart is a half-brother.

Past Two Months Sees Property Change In Martin

STANTON, Nov. 14 — The past two months have seen considerable changing hands of city and farm property in Stanton and Martin county. There is an apparent boom in prices.

Values in city property have increased notably and many pieces of residence property have changed hands. Rents have sky-rocketed due to the clamor for rent houses and apartments and the acute shortage of best of rent property.

Homes in Stanton that have housed none other than members of the family have been converted into apartment houses or the family moved over to permit room for one more person in dire distress and need of a place to stay. As yet, no one censures the property owner selling his property and getting all he can for it.

The clamor for rent property in Midland with high rent has seen several dwelling houses in Stanton lifted bodily on to moving trucks and hauled to Midland.

Property owners have been offered from 100 to 150 percent for the house standing on their lot than it cost to build in normal times.

The rent property situation here is as "tight as Billy's hat band," due to several geophysical crews as well as a pipe line crew coming to Stanton. In the past several weeks they have absorbed every available piece of rent property. Added to this not a day passes but there are rent hunters in searching for houses and apartments. Just how long this condition will prevail, no one knows, but one thing is certain, every fellow is out to get all he can—when he can. It's everyone and anyone's fight.

Tennis Courts Are Completed At Field

Two tennis courts at the southwest end of the football stadium are nearing completion, it was announced Tuesday.

Use of the courts will be supervised by the Big Spring school system, since they are located on school property. Rules for their use have not been announced by the schools.

Asphalt topped, the courts are enclosed by wire netting supported on iron poles originally erected when the stadium was constructed. Gates and braces were welded to add to the facility of the playing areas.

Lines will have to be painted in before the courts may be used, and some minor patches will be necessary to outfit a few spots of grass in the playing areas.

The courts were sponsored by the chamber of commerce, schools and Lions club, and made possible through the cooperative efforts of the city, county, Sam McComb, Couden Petroleum Corp., Empire Southern Service, Texas Electric Service and Hunter Strain. By installing courts, sponsors hoped that additional playground facilities would make wholesome utilization of youths' leisure time.

Strikers Ignore WLB Work Order

PATERSON, N. J., Nov. 14 (AP) — Striking supervisors of the Wright Aeronautical corporation's five plants in this area voted this morning to disregard a War Labor Board's return-to-work order and remain out, "until the Army takes over."

Production at all plants was at a standstill as the supervisors without kept 32,000 to 35,000 employees idle. The Wright company manufactures Cyclone engines for B-29 Superfortresses.

Davis Newcomb, president of the unaffiliated Wright Aircraft Supervision association, said 1,500 supervisors in a meeting listened to a reading of the WLB telegram ordering them back to work, then voted to stay out.

Newcomb said the supervisors returned to their jobs at the WLB behest after a six-day stoppage in September on the promise that the status quo would be maintained until it considered the dispute, but that the status quo has not been maintained by the company.

Albert Capone, local president of the CIO's United Automobiles, Aircraft and Agricultural Implement Workers, which represents most of the Wright workers and is not involved in the dispute, said he had telegraphed governmental agencies demanding that his union members be paid, "since they are willing to work but are locked out by the company."

Air conditioning of the Navy's submarines is made possible by a non-toxic, non-explosive fluorine refrigerant.

More Paper Needed In Local Salvage

Only 5,100 pounds of scrap paper was collected at the schools Monday, it was reported from the salvage office of the Big Spring Bombardier school Tuesday.

Central ward school headed the list with a 1,200-pound collection, followed by South and East ward with 1,000 pounds each. College Heights had 980 pounds and West ward turned in 820 pounds.

The paper salvage drive is not exclusive to the city of Big Spring, but is being carried on intensively at the bombardier school. Receipts have been placed in all of the barracks and in each office on the post.

The army alone uses 21,000 tons of paper weekly, so in order that the supply be maintained, drive officials urged that every scrap of paper be turned in.

GOP Senators Voice Roosevelt Support

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP) — Republicans in congress voiced support today for the No. 1 goal set by President Roosevelt: To win the war quickly and get the boys back home.

They surveyed the party's 1944 election damage with varying reasons as to cause, but agreed that defeat of the Axis overshadows all immediate objectives.

Senator George D. Aiken, back from his own re-election victory in Vermont, told reporters he thought republican defeats elsewhere emphasized the need for "a more liberal republican congressional policy."

On the other hand, Senator Kenneth S. Wherry of Nebraska, the party's senate whip, told reporters that "if there is any mandate in the election, it is that President Roosevelt get this war over quickly and bring the boys back." He added:

"I feel that that is a non-partisan objective. I, for one, will continue to support the president on all military measures."

Matches Must Be Sealed For Mailing

No one has said that ships have been caught on fire and sunk because some civilian back home sneaked matches to an overseas soldier through the mail. No one knows whether or not this has happened. But it can, through the thoughtlessness of people back home ignoring the post office regulations, according to Nat Shick, postmaster.

Matches of all kinds are prohibited in the mails to overseas destinations, including Alaska.

Safety matches must be packed to meet the postal requirements for transmission in the domestic mails to destinations within continental United States only.
