They laughed each time they were told to look at each other . . . but refused to hold hands. "It is to be a small church wedding," says Miss du Pont.

SPECIAL TRAIN TO CARRY FANS TO LITTLEFIELD

Local Citizens Asked To Assist In Carrying Slatonites To Grounds

The Littlefield Athletic Council, with the cooperation of H. C. Pumphrey, local Santa Fe agent, have arranged for a special train to bring Slaton football fans to Littlefield for the Championship tilt today.

The train will bring Slaton football squad, pep squad, Slaton band, and a large number of football fans from that city to Littlefield.

It is scheduled to leave Slaton about 11:30 a. m. today (Thursday) arriving here about 1:15 p. m.

The Littlefield school board are cooperating in a fine way by sending all school buses to meet the special football train for the purpose of conveying passengers to the Seely field, where the game will be played.

In order that all passengers of the train may have transportation to the ball grounds, Mr. Pumphrey has requested the Leader to urge that as many citizens of this city as possible cooperate by meeting the train with their automobiles and assist in extending this courtesy to the Slaton residents.

A low rate of 80 cents has been extended by the Santa Fe to Slaton residents for a return ticket on this football train.

Mr. Pumphrey, in an interview with the Leader Wednesday, stated that 10 coaches from Clovis, N. M., went through Littlefield Tuesday night, which would be used in making up the special football train. He stated that the freight train, to which these cars were attached, stopped here for the unloading of cattle.

TOTAL OF NINE MEN ENLIST IN ARMY SERVICE

Qualifications And Standards Must Be High To Be Accepted

By Sgt. G. H. Appler

During our short stay in Littlefield, the results of our canvassing have been more than gratifying. A total of nine men have been accepted for army service, one man having been already sent to Fort Bliss, and the remaining men will go within the next few days.

The men who were interviewed and accepted here are of the best calibre that we have encountered on our entire trip. Enlisting in the United States Army of today is no small matter, the qualifications and standards are so high that it is indeed an honor to be accepted.

The physical condition of the man must be the next thing to perfect, his moral character must be certified to by a reputable citizen, and his education must be such that he is able to pass a very difficult mental test.

There is no one accepted for Army service that has ever been arrested and held in jail on any charge whatsoever, and a vagrancy charge, although a misdemeanor is included as a charge serious enough to reject enlistment.

The citizens and parents of Littlefield can be justly proud of their younger generation.

The cooperation and courtesies that have been extended to our party

He Didn't Wed A Beautiful Girl Or Fall Heir To A Million Bucks But He Sure Can Handle Horses

Congratulations to First Class Private David Rivett, Machine Gun Troop, Eighth Cavalary, Fort Bliss! No, he didn't court and wed a beautiful Littlefield girl.

And he didn't fall heir to a million.

BUT BY CLEAR, QUICK THINKING AND BRAVERY HE PROBABLY SAVED SOME PERSON, OR PERSONS, FROM DEATH OR INJURY.

Those who know anything of the man who was not up and named as a runaway team that was called for. He was played and their mad dash north on Phelps avenue last Thursday.

Mayor Congratulates Rivett
Mayor L. R. Crockett and others extended hearty congratulations and appreciation to the young man for his good work in halting the team.

Mayor Crockett said that he first noticed the team when the animals, pulling a wagon, passed his home on West Fourth street early Thursday afternoon. They were running fast. Fearful that the team would run down some person, the mayor followed in his car. He lost sight of them for a time as they turned a corner in the dust. Later they crossed Phelps avenue, turned south along LFD drive and then west to Phelps avenue and started north on Phelps avenue when Priv. Rivett, who was here last week on recruiting duty, caught the tail board of the wagon, made his way through the wagon box and took hold of the lines which had been knotted to the front of the wagon. One horse had the bit out of his mouth which presented a problem. Private Rivett thought fast. Something must be done to stop the team. His knowledge of handling horses, acquired on a farm and in the army, directed him in what to do in such an emergency. He slacked one line, pulled tight on the other, and the inevitable happened. One horse went to his knees. That brought the team to a halt after they had travelled only one block with Private Rivett on the job.

Gives Army Training Credit
Private Rivett was modest about what he had done. He gave his training in the army all the credit.

Rivett's home is near Flint, Michigan. He enlisted at Phoenix, Arizona, eight months ago, and in that short time has achieved the distinction of first class private.

His superiors report that he is a good soldier.

The people of Littlefield express their appreciation to Private Rivett for his important contribution to safety.

Private Rivett, you are welcome in Littlefield any time you choose to visit "The Pulse of the Plains."

A THOUGHT OF THANKSGIVING

Of all the holidays which we customarily observe, there are two of distinctly American origin which are celebrated all over the United States. Those are Independence Day and Thanksgiving Day. Both of these have peculiar significance to all Americans. They go back to the roots of our national life. Independence Day is, or should be, an annual reminder that our national liberty was achieved only because free men were ready to fight for the right to govern themselves. And Thanksgiving Day should be a reminder that the foundations of America were laid by men and women who cherished spiritual liberty even more highly than they held personal and political liberty.

"Liberty," said Woodrow Wilson, "is spiritual concept." Liberty of conscience is one of the fundamental precepts of our national structure, guaranteed to every citizen under the Constitution. That spiritual liberty is, perhaps, the most precious of all the bounties for which Americans should give thanks on the last Thursday in November.

So far in our history America has been more abundantly blessed than any other nation has ever been since the beginning of recorded time. We have prospered as no other nation has ever prospered. We are just beginning to realize that the latest world depression let us off more lightly, as a people, than it did any other race or nation. We are now beginning to realize, too, that we are well on our way out of the depression, heading swiftly toward renewed prosperity of a magnitude beyond our present dreams. For such material blessings it is well to give thanks to the Providence which has guided us; but it is also well to remember that there are greater treasures than money and the wealth of which money is a measure.

Let us, in the midst of our Thanksgiving feasting and merrymaking, not forget that we are possessors of a great spiritual heritage, and make the day an occasion for pledging ourselves anew to the upholding and perpetuation of that spiritual liberty, that freedom of conscience and of thought, which our forebears sought and found in their new World.

Miss Lillie Stein And M. T. Huff Are Wed At Lubbock In Quiet Ring Ceremony

Miss Lillie Stein, Superintendent of Nurses at the Littlefield hospital, became the bride of Marcus T. Huff of Lubbock Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock in a ring ceremony performed by Rev. John T. Smith of the Broadway Church of Christ, at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Huff, at the south edge of Lubbock.

The vows were exchanged beneath an archway of greenery and white chrysanthemums, flanked with baskets of white flowers. The rooms were candle-lighted, and decorated with white chrysanthemums.

The bride wore a green alpaca dress trimmed with green and white moire, with green accessories. Her corsage was of white roses.

Following the ceremony, coffee and cake were served to 14 guests. The dining table was covered with an Irish lace cloth and centered with a bowl of white chrysanthemums. A silver and royal blue table service was used. Mrs. G. W. Woody presided at the coffee service. The wedding cake was cut by the bride.

The couple left immediately for Monterrey and other points in Old Mexico. Her traveling ensemble was a black wool tailored suit with black accessories. After several days, they will be at home at 1618 Fifteenth

Delightful Surprise Buffet Supper At Dr. Thos. B. Duke Residence Sunday Evening

The residence of Dr. and Mrs. Thos. B. Duke was the scene of a delightful surprise buffet supper Sunday evening, when Mrs. Duke entertained complimenting the bride-to-be, Miss Lillie Stein, Superintendent of nurses at the Littlefield hospital, who was leaving Littlefield to become the bride of Marcus Hoff at Lubbock.

Baskets and vases of beautiful chrysanthemums and roses adorned the entertaining rooms.

The motif and colors suggestive of the Thanksgiving season were carried out throughout the party.

The occasion was a complete surprise to the honored guest.

On the dining room table, laid with a lace cloth, with centerpiece formed of chrysanthemums and roses, and bearing pink lighted candles, had been placed a beautiful 62-piece China dinner set, a farewell gift to Miss Stein from the House Physicians and surgeons and Floyd Coffman, superintendent and director of Laboratory of the Littlefield hospital; a table lamp, a gift from the nurses of the institution, and other remembrances.

Mr. Coffman, in a very fitting manner, made the presentation of the gifts.

A salad plate, containing pressed turkey and all the trimmings, was served.

Those present and enjoying the hospitality of Dr. and Mrs. Thos. B. Duke were: Miss Stein, honoree; Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Payne, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Coen, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Coffman, Dr. and Mrs. Wm. N. Orr and son, Bill; and Miss Madeline Brashear, sister of Mrs. Orr; Misses Evelyn, Babe and Jane Bird; Misses Louise Sullivan, Louise Culp, Chloe Simpson, and Margaret Louise and Edwin Coffman.

Athletic Council Guests At Dinner Party Sunday

In honor of her husband's birthday, Mrs. Ed Seely was hostess to members of the Athletic Council at a dinner party at the Seely residence Sunday evening.

A four course turkey dinner with all the trimmings, was served, following which dominoes furnished the main diversion for the balance of the evening.

Those attending and enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Seely were: J. H. Ware, Coach Bill Sanders, Ben Lyman, Supt. A. B. Sanders, E. C. Cundiff, P. H. Hanks, E. S. Rowe, W. H. Madden, and Carl Arnold.

Crosbyton Loses To Post High In Non-Conference Tilt

POST, Nov. 20.—(Special)—Post high school defeated Crosbyton high school 7 to 0 in non-conference game here tonight.

The lone tally came in the third quarter when Hundley, halfback shot a short pass to Perkins, star end, over the goal line. Brant, quarterback, kicked the extra point.

Crosbyton threatened only once when O'Neill, slippery halfback, broke through the line and ran 47 yards to the Post 30-yard stripe. The visitors never got within the 20-yard line.

Post made 7 first downs to 6 for the Crosbyton club. Post completed

2 passes out of 6 thrown for a gain of 38 yards. Crosbyton hit the bullseye 2 times out of 13 tries for 20 yards. The victors made 133 yards on running plays, the visiting team made 113 yards.

Spur High Defeat Lubbock High Cowhands 19-0

SPUR, Nov. 20.—(Special)—Spur high school Bulldogs defeated Coach Walker Nichols' Lubbock high Cowhands 19 to 0 in a litlest contest here this afternoon.

Both teams got off to a slow start, but the Bulldogs turned on the steam in the second quarter and a lateral from Harrell to Harrelson resulted in the first counter. They failed to convert.

In the third quarter, long pass carried the ball to the Cowhands' one-yard stripe. "Red" Garner, Spur halfback, carried it over on the next play. Again Spur failed to kick goal. Harrell, halfback, scored on a lateral in the fourth quarter. Spur kicked goal and ended the scoring for the day.

Olton High Team Win Over Levelland

OLTON, Nov. 20, (Special)—In a close game, Olton high school's grid team this afternoon overcame a 6-point lead and withstood numerous goal-line attempts in the final period to emerge victor over Levelland high school to the tune of 12 to 6 score.

A large crowd saw one of the best games ever played here. Levelland shoved over a touchdown in the first period. Olton counted one in the second and another in the third. Then the fireworks began. Levelland mixing a brand of ball that gained time after time to dangerous proximity to the double markers, kept hammering at the goal in that last quarter, but was repulsed each time just short of scoring.

Tahoka High Wins From Ralls By Score Of 14 To 2

TAHOKA, Nov. 24.—(Special)—Tahoka High school eleven beat Ralls high school 14 to 2 here Wednesday, November 18. The game had no bearing on the District 5 race but left Ralls in the cellar.

A good crowd watched the two teams battle on fairly even terms throughout the contest. Both clubs played good defensive ball but failed to show punch on the offense.

"Give Me Your Heart" To Be Shown At Palace Theatre

"Give Me Your Heart," a poignant screen drama based on the famous stage play by Jay Mallory, "Sweet Aloes," has been booked as the feature attraction at the Palace Theatre Thursday (Thanksgiving) and Friday, with glamorous Kay Frances in the stellar role.

The picture, a Cosmopolitan production released by Warner Bros., which is said to give Miss Francis the finest dramatic opportunity of her career, presents her as an ultra modern young Englishwoman who seeks happiness in glorious surroundings in London, New York and Italy.

The plot is daring, the situations novel in the extreme, but most striking of all is the treatment which is frank and brilliant, but clean and in good taste.

The unusually talented cast supporting Miss Francis, includes George Brent, Roland Young, Patric Knowles, Henry Stephenson, Frieda Inescort, Helen Flint, Halliwell Hobbes, Zeffie Tilbury and Elspeth Dudgeon.

Miss Francis has the role of a motherless English girl who has been brought up by her father, a scientist living in Italy. Returning to London for a visit, she meets a young British nobleman whose wife is a semi-invalid, and the two fall desperately in love.

Roland Young, who plays the part of an English play-right and a warm friend of both families, discovers that the girl is going to have a child. Hoping to help both families he tells the young nobleman's father, who is longing for an heir, which he knows his son's wife can not give him.

Thank You, A. B.!

The Lamb County Leader has done its part in getting the arrangements made for the Slaton game to be played at Littlefield Thanksgiving. There was considerable question as to when the two teams last met in a conference game. The file of the Lamb County Leader for the year of 1930 carried two stories that proved the fact to the satisfaction of the Slaton authorities that the game was played on Thanksgiving day 1930. That being the case they were obligated to play here on a fifty-fifty basis. This means a great deal to the town of Littlefield not to have to bid for this privilege. It probably would have cost all that we could have taken in at the game to pay the visiting team had we been forced to bid.

The Leader was especially considerate at this time and allowed the Athletic Council and school officials a very special privilege of taking the complete file to Lubbock for the boys to read. When we read the first article it said the game was to be played on Thanksgiving. We then turned over to the next issue and the paper carried a play by play account of the game played in Slaton. This good service was indeed appreciated by the folks mentioned above.

Lamb county and the folks of Littlefield should especially appreciate this good service rendered by the local paper. This was probably the only record of this matter on file in the county. Newspapers are useful and helpful for other things than news, on some occasions. Accurate and complete information about important matters are very much appreciated by the readers of any newspaper.

Had the Leader allowed this game to go unreported it would have been a very difficult matter to have arrived at any very satisfactory information that would have solved the difficulty we were then facing.

Thanks, Morley!

Make-Believe Bride

by Ruth Harley

FINAL INSTALMENT

SYNOPSIS: Maris Trevor is discouraged because Rod O'Rourke spends all his money developing an invention which he hopes will provide an income so that they can marry. Maris thinks they should enjoy the present rather than deny themselves for the future. She becomes uncertain of her love for Rod. Perhaps there would be more happiness with someone else.

"What do you mean—committed a crime?" There was a terrified look in her dark eyes.

"Well, they've just discovered he's been at the head of a bunch of racketeers who were systematically robbing his father."

"How could he do that?" asked Maris, suddenly remembering something Jimmy had once hinted at.

"Well, he tipped them off when truck loads would be leaving the mills. Then the bandits would hold them up, knock out the drivers and turn the stuff over to another bunch of men who would dispose of it and hand Stanley his share."

"But surely they won't do anything to him?" asked Maris, remembering Stan's haughty mother.

"I don't know. Those thugs who made you ride with them were some of the ringleaders and because Stan tried to cheat them out of more than his share they've told on him and now there's nasty front page scandal about it all."

"Oh, Patsy; surely they can't say anything about me?"

"What could they say, Maris dear? Not a thing. Of course I wouldn't wonder if Stan's scared stiff if he ever gives a thought to what may have happened to you. But there—that's all past. Of course, though, you will have to resign from Fayson's."

"But, Milly—Oh, Pats, you know I got kind of sore at you not having sympathy with my attempts to step up on the social ladder, and sometimes I used to talk things over with Milly. I wonder what she'll say now?"

"Don't bother about her or anyone else; they'll all be so busy talking about Stan's crookedness that you'll be forgotten. There, I don't mean that exactly, but after all they'll realize you were just one of them and when a show-down came you knew which side of the line you were on."

"You're a dear, Pat, I'll never forget this."

There was a knock at the bedroom door. "Come in," called Pat. "I was wondering if Miss Maris would be ready for a bite of supper. I thought I'd bring it up before we eat down." It was the farmer's wife.

"I'm afraid I'm making an awful lot of trouble for you, Mrs. Dawson," said Maris. "I'm sure I can get up now."

"You'd better not. A bite of supper and then a good night's rest and you'll be ready to start off in the morning. Not that I want you to leave in such a rush, but the gentleman insists he's got to get to the city."

"Yes, that's so," said Pat. "Well, I'll come down with you and then I can bring Maris' supper up to her."

By seven o'clock next morning Maris was headed for the city, but this time she had no fear that any moment might be her last. Jimmy Doyle, while a good driver, never took chances, especially when Patsy was riding with him.

Already Maris had shaken off the terror that seemed to possess her, and as she told Patsy little incidents of her hectic love affair, she was almost able to jest about them. The Dawsons had treated her as a sort of heroine because of her part in trapping the criminals. Taking it altogether, in spite of all the discouraging things that she had gone through, Maris knew that life still lay before her, and that there would be other opportunities for her to show Patsy that she wasn't altogether the fool she insisted on calling herself.

But when they reached home and entered the little flat once more, Maris began to realize what her escapade had cost her. She'd lost her good position and the chance to get a better one, and now with conditions still none too rosy she realized that it wouldn't be such an easy thing to pick up a job.

"But you don't need to worry about that. You need a holiday anyway, so why don't you make up your mind to stay home and keep house?"

"Keep house?" asked Maris. "Since when could we afford to have one of us do that?"

"Well, honey, it's like this. Jimmy's got his raise and we've decided we may as well get married. Then, as there's a chance he may be transferred to some other city in a few months, we were thinking we might stay here till we see what happens."

"Oh, but this will be no place for me!" cried Maris.

"Of course it will. If we get married next Saturday, then we're going away for a two weeks' trip, and you could stay here and look after things."

"That would be lovely, but it doesn't seem fair that I should be living off you."

"Living off me! Nonsense. There are a lot of things I want done and if you'll do them for me, that will more than pay back anything it will cost for your keep. And then, who knows, something may turn up for you by that time. Anyway, you don't need to worry, for Jimmy will be perfectly happy to have you here."

And so, on Saturday evening Patsy and Jimmy were quietly married, and started for their wedding trip in Jimmy's car. The house seemed strangely desolate to Maris, as she fixed up the things Patsy had asked her to—making curtains and things for Patsy's home.

She hadn't tried to get a job. The least she could do was help Patsy out after all she had done for her. Once she'd thought of calling up Milly, but then, Milly was not a girl she really cared to have for an intimate friend, and now that she had cut herself off from Fayson's she decided it would be better to let things stay as they were.

As she sat alone in the evenings her thought turned often to Rod. Had he a steady nowadays, she wondered. Was she that stunning looking girl she had seen him meet? Her eyes filled with tears. She realized that she had deliberately cut

Heretofore, the honor of bringing in the first bale was recognized only in the case of a Lamb county farmer producing the bale, but believing this unjust the Chamber of Commerce have changed the rules and regulations to read from "Lamb County" to "Littlefield Trade Territory."

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rollins Observe Their Silver Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rollins of the Whitharral community celebrated their Silver Wedding Anniversary at their home Sunday, November 15. Mr. and Mrs. Rollins are pioneers of this community, coming here from Hollis, Okla., settling on a farm four miles northeast of Whitharral where they did extensive improving and now have a beautiful country home.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollins have four children, Ida Lee the oldest, who is a member of the Whitharral school faculty; Mildred who is teaching in Brownfield; Grace, a senior in the Whitharral school and Thomas, a junior in the same school.

Ida Lee supervised the bountiful dinner that was all prepared when the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Rollins arrived from church services and everyone agreed that Ida Lee is an expert in culinary art. Turkey and all the trimmings graced the lovely table, which was decorated in new gold and silver, gifts from Ida Lee and Mildred to their parents.

Then in the afternoon a very appropriate program was rendered. Thomas gave a reading, entitled, "Dad and Mother's Silver Anniversary." Bro. Teague, a Baptist minister, told of knowing Tom and Ethel as he affectionately referred to Mr. and Mrs. Rollins, every since they were mere children. He expressed the sentiment of every one present when he told what the family means to this community and that they are always ready to help those who need help, the family being such an asset to the church, Grace being the pianist.

ment stand . . . Mr. Crockett also stated that the Utilities company had advised they would have their field engineer make a survey in the near future as to the proposed route for the high line and material necessary. Mr. Crockett further said: "A survey has already been made into the Spade community, and since that line is under consideration, now what we want to get is a line extended from Spade to Hart's Camp and to Fieldton. This would connect up with a fine irrigation belt of land."

"This will probably work in later with the rural electrification program, that is expected to be put on by the government in the near future. We want to have our electrification program arranged so that we will be in readiness for the government's program, so that Lamb county may get started as soon, if not sooner, on the program than any other county. There is no need that we sit here and be last in reaping the benefits, I believe there would be no plan we could put underway at this time that would lead to more rapid progress of our rural communities than that of ample electrification."

Lamb county this year ginned 28,909 bales of cotton up to November 14, as compared with 16,825 bales up to the same time last year, according to Warren Rutledge, government statistician.

FRANCES ANN JOHNSON WINS IN BABY CONTEST

Frances Ann Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnson of West Street, was winner in the baby contest held in connection with the musical comedy given by the P. T. A. last Thursday and Friday nights. Baby Johnson was nominated and sponsored by the fifth grade pupils in Miss Mary Bell Montgomery's room. The winner was awarded a hand-tinted photograph made by the J. S. Chisholm studio, while the room pupils were given a cash prize of 50 dollars and the grammar school building was awarded a prize of one dollar as result of the contest.

STUDENT COUNCIL ACTIVE

Since organization of the Student Council on September 29, they have met regularly every Tuesday noon. At the second meeting two committees were appointed, one to provide a talk for each assembly, the other to sponsor suggestions of pupils on improvements in high school in the "Wildcat." One other tangible thing that the student council has sponsored is the stand on which our Wildcat is now resting and the repairing of the bronze mascot itself. The student council bestowed its approval on the practice of assessing three demerits in case of tardiness. A reason was given also why pupils are not allowed to come in the front door. In the past this has caused much disturbance, the pupils congregate there, and scuffling usually follows. To prevent broken glass, the pupils have been asked not to come in the front door at noon.

A debate was enjoyed by the members of the Science club at the last meeting. The subject was, "Hereditary Has More Influence on a Person's Life Than Environment." Gladys Dow and Hall Rowe composed the affirmative side, while H. C. Pumphrey and Buck Munger took the negative.

All the club members acted as judges and the majority voted for the negative side. However, many good points were brought out for each team.

FOOTBALL BOYS GO TO CENTENNIAL

In a rather sudden departure, seven boys left on the Farwell special train to the Centennial Thursday afternoon at about 7:30 o'clock.

The boys arrived at the Centennial about 6:00 o'clock in the morning and stayed two days, leaving Saturday night at 2:00 o'clock and arriving in Littlefield about 1:00 o'clock Sunday evening.

MUSICAL COMEDY WELL RECEIVED

"Black-Eyed Susan", the musical comedy presented last week under the auspices of P. T. A. was unusually clever and entertaining. It was full of comedy and the audience had not a dull minute. Costumes and performance of the choruses was out of the ordinary and were particularly well received.

Proceeds from the play will be used to buy needed equipment as recommended by Superintendent Sanders and Principals Earl Hobbs and Miss Margaret Teel.

"THANKS A MILLION" FOR MORE THAN A MILLION

America has bought 1,130,000 Chevrolets during the past twelve months, thereby giving Chevrolet the greatest year in its history and the greatest measure of buyer preference it has ever enjoyed.

The builders of Chevrolet are thankful for many things, but most of all for the warm friendship of the American people.

And so again at this Thanksgiving season we say, "Thank you, America," for you have given Chevrolet a measure of good-will without parallel in the annals of modern industry.

Consider, for a moment, all that you have done to inspire Chevrolet's appreciation during the past twelve months:

You have purchased 1,130,000 Chevrolets; you have made Chevrolet your favorite car for the seventh time in the past ten years; you have given Chevrolet strong preference in every section of the country; you have conferred this same high honor upon Chevrolet trucks by purchasing more than 205,000 commercial units; you have made 1936 the most successful year in all Chevrolet history.

And now, to climax these expressions of friendship, you are displaying even more marked preference for the new Chevrolet for 1937.

It is difficult to express adequate appreciation for gifts so great and so generous as these.

All we can say is, "Thanks a million" for more than a million cars in 1936; and all we can do is offer you the still finer Chevrolet of 1937 in return for the finest friendship ever bestowed upon any motor car manufacturer.

Lady's Painful Trouble Helped By Cardui

Why do so many women take Cardui for the relief of functional pains so monthly times? The answer is that they want results such as Mrs. Herbert W. Hunt, of Halle, Texas, describes. She writes: "My health wasn't good. I suffered from cramping. My pain would be so intense it would nauseate me. I would just drag around, so sluggish and 'do-less.' My mother decided to give me Cardui. I began to mend. That tired, sluggish feeling was gone and the pains disappeared. I can't praise Cardui too highly because I know it helped me." If Cardui does not help YOU, consult a physician.

Beware The Cough From a common cold That Hangs On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Creomulsion not only contains the soothing elements common to many remedies; such as, Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar, fluid extract of Licorice Root, fluid extract of Ipecac for its powerful phlegm loosening effect, fluid extract of Cascara for its mild laxative effect and, most important of all, Beechwood Creosote is perfectly blended with all of these to reach the source of the trouble from the inside. Creomulsion can be taken frequently and continuously by adults and children with remarkable results. Thousands of doctors use Creomulsion in their own families as well as in their practice knowing how Creomulsion aids nature to soothe the inflamed membranes and heal the irritated tissues as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled. Druggists also know the effectiveness of Beechwood Creosote and they rank Creomulsion top for coughs because you get a real dose of Creosote in Creomulsion, emulsified so that it is palatable, digestible and potent for going to the very seat of the trouble. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs, chest colds and bronchial irritations and especially those stubborn ones that start with a common cold and hang on for dreadful days and nights thereafter. Even if other remedies have failed, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund every cent of your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Don't worry through another sleepless night—phone or go get a bottle of Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

LOCAL BAPTISTS ATTEND OBSERVANCE OF PORTALES CHURCH TUESDAY NIGHT

A number of the First Baptist church members attended the opening and church warming at the First Baptist church, Portales, Tuesday evening, of which Rev. Joe F. Grizzle, formerly of Littlefield, is pastor.

Services are being held every night this week, and will probably be carried into next week, at the Portales church, in observance of their new church building, which is of white brick construction, the auditorium having a seating capacity of 650.

The first service to be held in the new church was conducted Sunday morning, when Rev. Grizzle occupied the pulpit. The Methodist church of Portales dismissed for the morning, to visit the First Baptist, and the building was not sufficient to accommodate the large crowd that gathered for the opening service.

A total of 350 are reported to have attended Sunday school.

Pastors from various cities have been invited to visit and occupy the pulpit this week. Monday evening Rev. E. C. Nix of Clovis, was the visiting pastor who made the address; Tuesday evening was Littlefield's night, and Rev. Willis J. Ray delivered the sermon to the Portales Baptists; Wednesday night, the laymen of the church had charge of the services; Thursday, Rev. O. L. Dennis of Tucuman, N. M. will preach the evening service, and Friday, Rev. John Williams of Hobbs will be the visiting pastor.

Those attending Tuesday evening from Littlefield were: Rev. Willis J. Ray, Rev. O. L. Oldham, Mrs. Eugene Johnson, Mrs. Carl Smith and Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Sullivan.

months, then changing to their present location.

Deceased was survived by her parents, and three sisters, her twin sister, Louise, Billie Maxine, aged 8 and Nadine 4.

Out of town attendants at the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Spann, Dr. Gayle Spann, Misses Fern and Dorris Spann of Plainview; D. M. Spann of Temple, Okla., C. J. Spann of Elk City, Okla., J. B. Spann of Hollis, Okla., Mrs. T. J. Kelly of Altus, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Renfro, Mrs. Emma George and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Castleberry, Mrs. Emily Lee, Mrs. Jim Renfro, all of Meadow, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. P. . . . Flowers of Brownfield; and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Smith of Lubbock.

Cats To Play Slaton—

the best of their ability we are sure to give Slaton a mighty tussel for the victory. Other folks think that if we are playing up to the standard of the last two games we will beat them by two touchdowns. Who is right about the matter will be determined when we meet the Slaton Tigers Thursday.

On a comparative basis of conference games it might appear that Slaton has a slight lead. They are picked by folks, who don't know the Littlefield team, as a favorite to win by a small margin. Counting all the games played the Wildcats have made 218 points to the 51 points made by the opposition. Counting all games played the Wildcats have made considerably more points than the Slaton team. We do not have the exact score of the Slaton team.

Victory Is Due

This time, above all others, is the time for the north half of the district to win the district championship. The south half has won it until the memory of man runneth not to the contrary. A long lane should turn and we think it will. The Wildcats think it will and are going to do all in their power to make a crook in it. This is the first time that Wildcats have had a chance at it for six long years and they are hungry for victory. The last time we played for the district championship it was against Slaton and the opposition won the game. That makes it a bit more important that we arrange to care for the situation.

The entire high school is all worked up and have had meetings about the matter each day at twelve o'clock.

The pep squad and high school

We Think—

comes to Littlefield for the cotton season.

Mr. Cole has been here for several weeks, and Mrs. Cole remained over in Vernon to visit her family before coming to Littlefield.

"My, hasn't Littlefield grown; so many nice new buildings," remarked Mrs. Cole.

Littlefield is growing, and the citizenship of Littlefield appreciate it very much when their efforts to build a greater city are enthusiastically commented upon.

Flowers for the living should be everybody's rule and guide. If there were more flowers for the living this would be a better world.

What do you think?

MY! MY! MY! WHAT A FOOT-BALL GAME THOSE FIGHTING WILDCATS AND THOSE SLATON TIGERS WILL OFFER! WE ARE FOR THOSE CATS AND WE HOPE THEY HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO DO A HEAP 'O SCRATCHING IN THAT BI-DISTRICT FUSS.

TEACHING PEOPLE TO LIVE RIGHT—

We were very much impressed with an article which recently appeared in the Dallas Journal. We went through it very hurriedly, but the thought remained with us that this world is not really going to the bow wows as some people would have us think. Greater efforts than probably ever before are being directed toward instructing people in living right, not necessarily intensely religious lives, but living right.

We also read another article in which some outstanding student of vice conditions declared that education was the solution of that particular group of evils.

And, as we look around us every day, we can see that increased efforts are being directed toward educating people to live good lives in order that they may escape the wages of sin.

Too many people interpret living right as intense adherence to a faith or active association with a particular church or religious group. Feeling that they are not living lives which more or less exclude them from active religious association, too many people just drift along without any effort to correct those things which are not in their best interests. All of us should feel that there is room for improvement and endeavor to make of our lives the best within us.

Adherence to a faith or active association with a particular church or religious group, is a personal matter.

But the fact remains that increased efforts are being made on every side to direct people in the pathway known as living right.

Total Of Nine—

while in Littlefield are deeply appreciated, and we wish to extend our thanks to the Mayor, Mr. Crockett, the Superintendent of the Littlefield High School, Mr. Sanders, and to Mr. Drake, the publisher of the Lamb County Leader, who has helped our cause to the utmost by publicity that he has so kindly given us.

students met in town about seven o'clock Wednesday night for a town rally. Large numbers of Littlefield citizens participated in the rally.

The entire 8th Cavalry Recruiting Detachment hope it will be their pleasure to visit your fine city again in the near future.

Men accepted for Army services were Tolbert S. Bedford, Noel Bedford, Bill E. Hendricks, Cecil A. Lyons, George Kozak, J. M. Kozak, Robert Doybos. Mr. Kozak has been sent to Fort Bliss, and the remaining men will be sent within the next few days.

We expect to visit Littlefield again during the first week in December.

Thanksgiving....

. . . a holiday that is really your own. It has contributed in no small measure to the happiness and prosperity of America, and other traditions have contributed equally. But it is during this season that we pause to consider the benefits—material and spiritual—that we have received from our Maker and to thank Him in a spirit of fitting real appreciation.

We, of the South Plains, are especially thankful for the better crops—the greatly improved financial condition of this section of the country—the entire nation—the progress and development which is taking place in this part of the state.
