THE LAST WORD IN—KITCHEN CABINETS

—Now you are talking about Sellers and the Hoosier—and we have both of them in stock for immediate delivery—different types of them. Some come in the oak finish, others in gray tone with enamel working tops, either clear or closed types.

These widely known popular cabinets contain all the modern conveniences and refinements imaginable—they are a whole kitchen utility compartment within themselves and no culinary department is complete without one of them.

You are sure to want one of them if you will only step in and let us show them to you and explain their superior merits, and—you are pretty sure to buy one, too.

IRVIN GETS THIEF OF CHRYSLER WHO GETS 2 YEAR TERM

As an example of whirlwind action Sheriff Len Irvin and Deputy Walraven carry recent honors.

Thursday of last week a Chrysler coach belonging to O. G. Kramer, a traveling salesman out of Oklahoma City was stolen in Plainview. Kramer had parked the car, going to the post office, and upon his return found it missing. He immediately notified the sheriff of Hale county, who promptly sent word out over the district. Irvin and his deputy were in Olton at the time and received the message. They immediately went out onto the highway leading to Plainview and in a few moments sighted a Chrysler car coming down the road. The driver seeing them stepped on the gas, shooting the machine to a speed of about 60 miles per hour. Irvin promptly dropped his .45 onto the driver who, in an effort to stop the car, stood it on its nose in the ditch alongside the road. Neither the car or driver were seriously injured.

The driver gave the name of "Bradley," stating he was from Ada, Oklahoma. He was promptly taken back to Plainview, and, within 40 minutes after perpetrating the crime, was safely lodged behind the iron bars of the Hale county bastille. Court then being in session he was the next day convicted and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

BISHOP JERKINS CONFIRMS A CLASS OF EIGHTEEN SUN.

Bishop Jerkins, of the Amarillo diocese, was in Littlefield last Sunday in charge of the services at the Catholic church, during which service a class of 18 children were confirmed.

While here the Bishop stated his pleasure at being able to visit Littlefield at this time, and spoke very favorably of the rapid development going on in this town and section.

Recently the Catholic people of Littlefield finished a beautiful little brick parish house at the cost of about $5,000, which is now occupied by Father Kruckett, recently from Plainview, but now in charge of the Littlefield church. He is assisted here by Father Alfons, and the church at Pep about 18 miles southwest of Littlefield, has been recently added to this work.

Services are now held each Sunday at eight and ten o'clock in the morning, alternating between Littlefield and Pep, while during the season of Lent services are held each afternoon at five o'clock. The membership of the local church is now about 150, and with indications of steady growth.

PILL ROLLERS TO MEET AT BIG SPRINGS MARCH 13th

Professional pill rollers and pellet purveyors will meet in convention formation at the Crawford hotel, Big Springs, March 13.

According to invitations sent out last week by the manager of that hostelry there is a hot time, not necessarily included in Jamaica ginger and mustard plasters, in store for the druggists attending. The meetings are to be held in the Methodist church, where there won't be any preachin' and one gets their money's worth sittin' down.

The feature of the program will be a big dance held "just outside the city limits. We will furnish the best and prettiest fairies in Texas. If you can't dance you can hold them while they dance—the water here does not agree with druggist's wives," the invitation says.

No doubt both Mich and Sad will be there!

MOTHER OF OLTON SCHOOL MAN DIED EARLY YESTERDAY

Funeral services were held at the Olton Baptist church at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon for Mrs. J. P. Webb, 83, who died at 2:30 a. m. the same day. Mrs. Webb was the mother of H. P. Webb, superintendent of the Olton Schools, with whom she was living at the time of her death. She has been in poor health for some time.

Rev. G. I. Britain, assisted by Rev. Vernon Shaw, conducted the funeral services. Interment followed in the Plainview cemetery under the direction of Garner Brothers.

Mrs. Webb is survived by her son, H. P. Webb, a daughter, Mrs. J. F. Wiles, of Olton. She is also survived by several grandchildren and a brother, Henry Duckworth, of Fayetteville, Tenn., where Mrs. Webb was born.

Fall bearers were B. A. Dodson, G. E. Bohner, E. J. Cowart, G. H. Phillips, M. R. Cavett and W. H. Bohner. She was buried by the side of her husband, J. P. Webb, who died in 1926.—Plainview Herald.

BAPTIST W. M. U.

Tuesday morning at 10:00 o'clock, the ladies of the W. M. U. met at the church for visitation day and Bible study. The morning was spent in visiting the sick, prospective members, and other members.

Noon time brought the members back to the church where lunch was served, after which the afternoon program began.

A discussion of the morning visit was entered upon. A report of each visit was given by each visitor and some 32 visits were the result. Not only did these ladies benefit and strengthen themselves for having outwardly expressed their interest in those visited, but those visited received a blessing and a great joy by their coming.

Rev. Roy A. Kemp taught the Bible lesson which was taken from the book of 1st Kings, and made it very interesting by applying practical applications.

Sixteen members and one visitor enjoyed this program and may we hope to have a good representation at our week of prayer, which will be devoted to each afternoon of next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, 3:30 p. m. at the church.

Tuesday afternoon, March 6th, the ladies of Circles No. 1 and No. 2 will entertain with a social, in the home of Mrs. R. E. McCaskill, in honor of Mrs. Lena Howard and Mrs. W. H.

Badger both of whom expect to leave soon. Each member is cordially invited to be present.—Reporter.

P. T. A. MEET

The Parent-Teachers Association met Wednesday with the president present and a number of interested parents and teacher.

The following program was enjoyed: Piano solo, by Dorothy Harrison, and a number of declamations given by contestants in the interscholastic league try-out.

Mr. Boles will be chairman for the next program, Wednesday, March 14. All parents are urged to attend.

YOUR AUTO VALVE
Scientifically Ground

We have just installed one of the late type Black & Decker Valve Retacing Machines which grinds with absolute accuracy all automobile valves and valve seats, giving perfect compression and the highest possible efficiency in motor action.

Imperfect seating of motor valves means leakage of fuel power, which in turn causes over-heating of motor, frequent causing a motor to be out of balance in its action, producing excessive vibration and short life for the entire machine. With this valve grinding machine there is no guess work as to whether your valves are correctly ground, the work is done to the degree of accuracy.

Bring us your autos and tractors for repair work. We guarantee perfect satisfaction in our work.
Valves ground and resealed with the Black & Decker Machine make the old Auto or Tractor run like new!

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid.—Isa. 11:6.

To be prepared for war is one of the most effectual means of preserving peace.—Washington.

GUNTER COLLEGE

It is a matter worthy the highest pride that Littlefield has been honored as the unanimously chosen place by the Board of Directors for the new location of Gunter College, plans for which mean a bigger and better educational institution than ever before in its history.

While Littlefield has always been a worthy commercial municipality, it has also prided itself upon the quality of its citizenship. Realizing that banks and stores and gins and factories, modern municipal conveniences and parks, etc., are all necessary in the maintenance of a city's industry, yet it has also realized that the character of the citizenry who conduct its various business enterprises are the city's principal assets. Witness our consolidated schools, our churches our lodges, our social institutions.

Now Gunter college, a fully accredited junior college, which soon expects to step into its seniority, has chosen Littlefield from a list of 20 other cities that were bidding for its location. It is a tribute indeed worthy our highest appreciation. No citizen is sanguine enough to begin to estimate its value to our town and surrounding community. There is no doubt but the college will be worthy of Littlefield; let us now show that Littlefield is worthy of the college.

Fourteen hundred acres of land have been promised the Board of Directors for the location of this institution and its accompanying colonists, the Steering Committee to have charge of securing this body of land has been duly appointed by the local Chamber of Commerce, and is now at work. Sometime during the next two weeks every citizen will be called upon and earnestly solicited to do his part in the great task of financing the purchase of this acreage. It is a task well worthy of Littlefield citizens and an opportunity that should be heartily welcomed.

Littlefield has the reputation of doing big things; it has the reputation of never failing to put over any project it undertakes. The honor of the city is now at stake. It well behooves every loyal citizen to be awake to its future interests. It is a time when every citizen should test well his pulse of loyalty and patriotism, and be ready to go his full length and do his very utmost in behalf of a bigger and better Littlefield. In other words, the final securing of this great institution is up to you. The local committee does not believe you will fail in this time of crisis and great opportunity!

An eastern doctor says knock-knees can't be cured. And as long as present styles rule they can't be covered up, either.

TOLERATION

In barbarous societies there was little honest difference of opinion. Arguments were bloody and the truth was always on the side of the man with the largest club, the strongest arm, or the sharpest spear.

It is from these times that human beings inherit their intolerant spirits. The desire to choke or abuse verbally the man whose views do not coincide with our own in an expression of our pleolithic natures.

A man can be called civilized only when he can stand a free play of ideas, when he can discuss without anger matters that are subject to controversy. The spirit of toleration was once well expressed by Voltaire, the great French scholar and philosopher, when he said: "I disagree with every word you say, but I will defend with my life your right to say it."

To be truly civilized we must be willing to tolerate expressions of honest opinion that differ from our own cherished views. We must feel that the other fellow has a right to his own ideas, and respect him for the honest expression of them. We must cease to let arguments destroy friendship. And, we must above all, suppress feelings of animosity towards editors whose published opinions are not entirely in accord with our own views, especially when those editors go off half-cocked without being familiar with the details and circumstances of the subject matter at hand.

Another reason for divorce is that it's hard to keep on loving pretty ankles after you discover they can't cook worth a darn.

FACTORY REQUIREMENTS

According to a Detroit factory specialist it takes 14 things to make a good town. He says there are 14 important points necessary to get some men to consider locating a plant outside of the large cities. And here they are: Land at fair prices; reasonable taxes; good shipping facilities and favorable freight rates; conservative banking; good houses for workers and at reasonable rental; pure water and lots of it; safe sewage disposal; good schools and churches; dependable fire and police protection; skilled medical service; adequate telephone service; progressive merchants; a community friendly to outside capital and industrial development.

Read over these specifications and figure out for yourself just how many of them Littlefield can boast. And if there are in the list some things we cannot lay claim to, ask yourself why we can't since hundreds of other towns of like size are pointing to them in their efforts to induce outside capital to locate in their midst.

This day in time, with big industrial organizations seeking locations outside the large cities, where high rentals keep noses of their employees to the grindstone, it behooves every community to keep on its toes. It is necessary to possess everything listed above to even hope for consideration by those who seek a site for a manufacturing plant. Go back and read and check the list again. Then if you find a single thing enumerated that we are not in position to offer start a little agitation and watch how quickly your neighbor will join with you in helping to get it.

If the time comes when Sandino tires of being a Nicaraguan rebel he can come to the U. S. and make a lot of money lecturing.

THIS VERSATILE MONTH

All of the evidence considered, it is agreed that the month of March is the dissenting member, the erratic revolutionary, the most fickle of the fickle and the most irresponsible of the undependable among the 12 major divisions of the calendar year. It is born of both winter and spring by virtue of the calendar and weather tradition. It is nature's sample case. There are weather reasons for the existence of the "crazy March here" and the prophetic association of March with the lion and the lamb.

Throughout the major portion of the United States the month of March is welcomed because it makes the death of winter and the birth of Spring. Among the time-honored days of the year none is quite so well-met and joyfully received as March 21, the first day of spring. Sometimes the first day of spring does not live up to its calendar designations and harsh winds or deadening snows strive for supremacy over the urge of spring, but to no avail.

In closing March abdicates in favor of April with her moving day, snows and garden making.

Job was a patient man, but there is no record of his ever having put a tooth-cutting baby to sleep.

A PREDICTION

It is a little early, but we want to make the prediction that if the Federal Radio Commission permits the various political clans of the country to have free reign between now and the November election a lot of radio fans around Littlefield are going to protest. The owner of a radio set wants all that is interesting, of course. But he doesn't invest his money in a set with a view to having political spell-binders use it to further their own ends.

Sensible political addresses by the candidates themselves is not apt to bring forth any objections. But letting every Tom, Dick and Harry use the air to boost his pet candidate and crowd out more interesting and entertaining programs is not going to prove very popular. Watch and see how close we come to hitting the mark with this prediction.

What this country needs now that it has returned to the five-cent cigar is a five-cent appetite.

LITTLE LEADERS

About the only men in Littlefield who ever gave marriage serious thought are still bachelors.

Never tell a Littlefield man that his boy looks exactly like his mother if that man owes you money.

Another thing hard to understand is why, when some fellows do you a favor, they never let you forget it.

Another thing that all some Littlefield citizens, is that some of them insist on climbing mountains before they get to them.

Considering what most Littlefield people are willing to do for money, it's a wonder we haven't got more millionaires here.

And to think it is impossible to cut down the carburators of Littlefield autos to equalize the rise in gas prices!

The best way to find out if there is any hog in a Littlefield man's nature is to watch him when he's driving an automobile.

Up in Chicago they call them "master criminals" but here in Littlefield we stick to the old definition of just plain thieves.

We've reached the point where love makes some Littlefield boys think almost as much of the girls as they do of themselves.

When a Littlefield boy sticks his Dad on a simple arithmetic problem you can't blame him for feeling that an education doesn't amount to much.

Perfect harmony will not prevail in Littlefield nor any other town, but instead of harsh words a little more brotherly yeeling on the part of some of its people would help considerably.

The trouble is that a lot of Littlefield men who now fear for the younger generation have forgotten the time when they sneaked back of the barn to read Deadwood Dick.

The Littlefield citizen who gets vin-dicative regarding some other citizen over some general business matter is not the best type of citizen by any means, no matter what business he may be in, and his citizenship is not desired here.

GUNTER COLLEGE IS TO BE

 ed business, yet these considerations are purely secondary. Littlefield citizens feel that the location of this school in its midst will give a tone and prestige to the city as could not be obtained in any other manner. It has always been the aim of the majority citizens of this place to build a city of symmetrical development. While it is conceded that business is essential for any municipality, it is also realized that thriving business institutions are not all that go toward making a city a good place in which to live.
 Littlefield citizens have always been greatly interested in perfecting its social and moral life, in making lives as well as making a living, in developing the inner and higher qualities of noble-manhood and pure womanhood as well as supplying the outer or physical requirements of its people. Its churches, its schools, its lodges, its social clubs and institutions all bear adequate testimony to this fact.

The task of raising the sum necessary to purchase the required acreage for this college will be no small task but it is one well worthy the citizenship of this little city. To put it over is a task which everyone may well be proud, its benefits now and in the years to come are entirely too numerous to mention. The sum of $200,000 is being raised by the citizens of this city. The college authorities within the next three weeks is something that will put to test the best qualities of the citizenship. The honor of the city is at stake—there must be no such word as "fail." It is up to every citizen to consider well his part and duty, and to do it. The committee believes it will be done and done promptly!

OUR ARRESTED ON HIJACKING CHARGE
 MADE BY NEGROES

Four men were arrested in Littlefield Tuesday by Sheriff Len Irvin and Chief of Police Fred Hoover, in connection with the alleged hijacking of Lacy Hemphill and L. E. Hunt, negroes, living in Lubbock. Those arrested were G. L. Bullard, charged with robbery with firearms, and a county charge of carrying a pistol and impersonating an officer; and C. R.
 Martin, R. A. Sharp and W. C. Bullard, each charged with robbery. They were taken to jail at Olton where they are being held pending the spring term of District court which convenes April 30.

According to the story told by Lacy Hemphill, one of the negroes, he and the other negro, Hunt, accompanied by a negro, giving the name of Willie May Williams, were driving down the state highway, an out a point about three miles southeast of Littlefield were overtaken by two automobiles in which there were five men riding. One of the cars dashed in ahead of the negro's auto, blocking the highway, some on began shooting and ordered the negroes to stop, which they did. It is alleged they were then attacked, one of the negroes stabbed in an arm, relieved of $26.00 cash and forced to sign a check for $20.00 given on the Citizens National Bank at Lubbock.

Hemphill claims that the men attacking his party posed as officers collecting a fine for a previous game of dice in which they were connected, alleging that the elder Bullard flourished the gun.

ROTARIANS HAVE A CELEBRATION OF BIRTHDAY EVENT

The Littlefield Rotary club celebrated the organization's anniversary in a special meeting held in the Presbyterian church last Thursday evening. There was a good representation of the membership accompanied by their wives present for the occasion, also some guests as follows: Hubert and Mr. Allen of Lubbock, Rev. Geo. Turrentine, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Rowe, Misses Mabel Claire Engleman and Nellie Dugger, and J. R. King and his three entertainers from the Palace theatre.

The diningroom was beautifully decorated in colors and emblems appropriate to the occasion. The Ladies of the Presbyterian church served an elaborate dinner in courses, beginning with fruit cocktail and ending in cherry pie with whipped cream.

Following the banquet spread President Andy Bills called the meeting to order and introduced Miss Engleman who, accompanied by Miss Dugger, sang two very pleasurable numbers. This was followed by a short program of entertainment put on by Mr. King and his assistants, which was greatly enjoyed.

Rev. Turrentine gave an inspiring address upon the subject: "What an Outsider Thinks of Rotary."

Hubert Allen, who is past president of the Lubbock Rotary club, gave a very interesting address on the history of Rotary from the date of its founding by Paul P. Harris, February 23, 1905, up to the present time, stating that there were now Rotary clubs chartered in 44 different countries, and a total membership of more than 135,000.

The program was then turned over to Tommie Thomas, entertainment chief of the evening who presented the jolly President, eulogizing him in a paper which he read alternately with one also read by Secretary J. S. Hilliard, (who is a farmer) on his dairy sire, and which furnished considerable fun for the audience and some little discomfort to the august and imposing official.

Tommy then distributed leaflets to each present on which he had deftly composed verses regarding each Rotarian and his wife, and which were then sung congregational style.

It was unanimously declared by all those present, as the meeting was brought to a close, that it had been the most enjoyable of all held by the Littlefield Rotarians.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hank visited in Lubbock, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Hanes visited in Levelland last Tuesday.

Louise Houk, of Lubbock, spent last weekend with homefolks here.

W. O. Workman and W. T. Hanes attended school in Texas Tech, Saturday.

Wednesday night, February 15th, the people of this community met and organized a club to help and benefit the community. The club will meet every two weeks on Wednesday night.

Last Friday night the Literary society gave a very interesting program here.

The teachers and some of the people in this community have formed a tennis club. The court has been cleared off and the members of the club will be playing soon.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY

The Presbyterian auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. J. W. Porcher with Mrs. Porcher and Mrs. S. J. Farquhar as hostesses, Tuesday afternoon.

The meeting was opened by prayer by Mrs. J. S. Hilliard. Eighteen members responded to roll call with scripture verses beginning with the letter "H."

Mrs. Cater was the leader and in a very pleasing manner gave the ninth chapter of the Bible study course.

During the business session, Mrs. W. D. Arnett was elected as delegate to attend the annual convention at Memphis, Texas, in May, also the following new officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. E. A. Bills, president; Mrs. W. G. Strait, 1st vice president; Mrs. W. O. Stockton, 2nd vice president; Mrs. A. P. Dugan, 3rd vice president; Mrs. M. V. Cobb, corresponding secretary; Mrs. R. W. Steen, treasurer; Mrs. J. S. Hilliard, secretary of literature; Mrs. F. G. Sadler, associate membership.

At the close of the meeting the hostesses served a dainty salad course and coffee.

FIRE DESTROYS HOME

Fire caused by the explosion of an oil stove, completely destroyed the home of J. J. Franks in Sudan, Wednesday a last week.

Mrs. Franks, who was near the stove at the time of explosion, was fortunate to escape serious injury, though the flames spread so rapidly it was impossible to save anything from the house except a few articles of wearing apparel.

Santa Fe Improvement Program for 1928

Railways serving a growing country are never finished. They must add yearly to the number of cars and locomotives in order to care for increasing traffic. They must build extensions and provide second and third tracks. They must provide larger terminal yards and longer and more sidings. They must provide heavier bridges and larger and more commodious stations, roundhouses and shops.

This expansion in facilities requires additional cash investment in the railroads of this country, amounting to over half a billion dollars annually.

The Santa Fe proposes to spend 45 million dollars on its program for enlargement of such facilities during 1928.

Orders have already been placed for 3,850 new freight cars, 75 all-steel passenger train cars, and 771 miles of new steel rail, of which 490 miles will be 110 lbs. to the yard and the balance 90 lbs. When this steel is laid the Santa Fe will have 2,182 miles of 110 lb. rail all laid since January 1, 1925. Orders have been placed for steel for bridges, ties have been purchased, and work on more second track and other improvements is in progress.

The Santa Fe puts this large additional investment of new money into its property to increase its capacity, to render service, to promote safety, and to take care of the growing needs of the country it serves.

OFFICIALS OF TEX. UTILITIES COMP'Y HERE INSPECTING

E. S. Billings, general manager of the Texas Utilities Co., and the Community Power & Light Co., with headquarters in St. Louis, Mo., accompanied by H. L. Allen, regional supervisor for the South Plains territory, with headquarters at Lubbock, were in Littlefield Monday afternoon making an inspection of the company's holdings here.

Mr. Billings expressed himself as well pleased with their interests here as being looked after by the local manager, R. E. McCaskill. He highly complimented Littlefield citizens upon securing the new location of Gunter college at this point, and declared it was only a matter of a short time until this would be a city of some 5,000 or 6,000 population. Incidentally he stated that his company was ready to do their part toward assisting in the location of this college here.

MISS CLARK ENTERTAINS

Miss Lura Mae Clark entertained a number of her friends at her home in Southmoor last Tuesday evening.

Let every citizen now line up for Gunter College!

News From Anton

Basket Ball Tournament

The elimination tournament for basketball in Hockley county was held in Levelland, Saturday February 18th. Six teams entered the run-off which was to be conducted so as to eliminate all teams except two.

The two teams able to reach the finals were to meet in Lubbock, Wednesday, February 22nd to play off the finals for the county championship. The teams entering were Ropes, Anton, Center, Levelland, Smyer and Claene.

In the introductory and semi-finals the following teams played against each other: Anton vs Ropes, 2-0 forfeit, Levelland vs. Smyer, 40-7; Claene vs Center, 17-2; Anton vs Center, 15-13. As the results indicate, Anton and Levelland were destined to enter the cage for the final county championship battle. As had been pre-arranged the two teams, both with enthusiastic followers, assembled at Wednesday 22nd. The Levelland the gymnasium of the Texas Tech, squad took the lead from the first whistle and held it throughout the game which ended with Levelland on the big end of a 20-10 score.

Boy Scouts

The Boy Scouts are this week constructing a "chuck" box to be used when the spring hike season comes. The material will be paid for through the sale of pop-corn. Emery King, a scout of the first class, and Doyle Gilbert, a scout of the second class, are wielding the saw and hammer. Atmar Atkinson, scout of the second class, will paint and otherwise decorate the box. The first scouting trip will be about the 15th of March.

Junior-Senior Party

The Junior class of Anton High school entertained the Senior class with a social at the home of J. R. Minton, Thursday night. As neither class is very large each member of the classes invited a guest. Many games were played and several musical selections both vocal and instrumental were given.
