BETTY MARIE COX

Betty Marie Cox's father, Gordon Cox, died in the service of the Army shortly after the first World War. It is why this pretty girl, formerly of Littlefield, Texas, is now in the Marine Corps Men's Reserve at Camp Lejeune, N. C. Betty thought there ought to be a part of my family carrying on the war," she explains. Betty is a cousin of Bob Cox of this city, and about 10 days ago, enroute from visiting her father at Vaughan, N. M., to Camp Lejeune, N. C., she visited in the home of Mrs. Box Cox, and her husband, Sgt. and Mrs. Christian. She was here a few days. Betty was born at Hillsboro, Texas, after returning from World War I, and while still in college, was killed in a motor-accident. She lived here from 1928, and was a student at Littlefield schools. She attended Louisiana Tech College, and was in the Marines in Louisi-

RAIN AND SNOW FALL OVER LITTLEFIELD AREA FRIDAY

Results In Nearly Three Fourths Inch Of Moisture Here

Beneficial Snow Fell To A Depth Of Between Two And Three Inches

Snow, sleet and rain fell in most sections of the South Plains early Friday morning, bringing to this area the first wintery weather this season.

Late Thursday night rain fell, which was followed by snow, which continued until about noon Friday, and measured between 2.75 inches to 3 inches. The moisture from the rain was reported at .40 inches by the West Texas Cottonoil Company, according to their gauge, and the moisture from snow was said to have measured about .25 inch, totaling in all nearly three quarters of an inch. This was the first moisture over the Littlefield area in some time, and was badly needed, according to reports.

Rainfall ranging from a sprinkle to half an inch fell over the South Plains area. Plainview area, which had not received moisture since last summer, reported half an inch; Levelland reported the first rain in four months at one-fourth of an inch. Cochran County was said to have received lighter moisture.

Sections of West Texas south of the Littlefield area received as much as 1 1/2 inches of moisture.

Eagle Badges Are Awarded

Highlight of the Boy Scout Court of Honor held in the basement of the local Methodist Church Tuesday night was the awarding of Eagle badges to Norris Onstead and James Womack, this city's first Scouts to attain this rank. They are members of Troop 26.

Rev. R. M. Campbell of Amherst, district advancement chairman, presided at the Court of Honor.

In making the awards, Dr. Wm. N. Orr, district chairman of the Boy Scout Council, said, "For many years I have been looking forward to the time that I would present an Eagle Badge to a Littlefield Scout, and tonight Littlefield came through with two Eagle Scouts instead of one."

A small group of local citizens attended the Court of Honor at which other presentations included the Star Award to Jackie Shelby, who has been in Scouting for 11 months, and is a member of Troop 41. Bud Short and John T. Street received their Second Class badges, and Merit Badge awards went to: Martin Drager, Clyde Edmonds, Ernest Repass, Harold Lee Walker, James Womack, Junior Bull, Charles

New Distribution Plan Announced For Meal, Cake

New Government Order Places All Concentrate Users On Equal Basis

Anticipated government action, to control distribution of protein concentrates, amounting virtually to a freeze order and rationing, went into effect Tuesday.

A telegram from B. F. Vance, administrative officer in charge of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency of Texas, at College Station, to L. F. Bain, secretary of the Lamb County AAA, instructed Monday that: "Effective immediately, no person in your county shall deliver cottonseed meal or cake to any other person except on certificate provided for in Food Production order No. 9.

"Such certificate is to be approved by the county committee (Lamb County AAA committee), and the certificate is to indicate the quantity of cottonseed meal or cake to be delivered.

"Under the certificate, FPO-9 is attached to War Board memorandum No. 126, and the committee shall not certify quantities in excess of feeding needs for livestock on hand except as provided in FPO-9, which provides that 'The restrictions imposed by this order shall be effective without regard to the rights of creditors, existing contracts or payments made.'

New Step Taken In Murder Probe

A new step was taken Wednesday by officials and officers in the statewide effort to solve the killings of Dr. Roy E. Hunt, Littlefield physician, and Mrs. Hunt, which occurred in their Littlefield home five weeks ago Tuesday.

This new effort was a conference with the State Board of Pardon and Parole at Austin. The nature of this conference was not disclosed.

Sheriff Sam Hutson of Lamb County, District Attorney Harold La Font, and I. B. Holt, county judge of Lamb County, left Wednesday morning for Austin.

It was understood that other officials and officers would participate in the conference.

Scouters Plan Scoutorama

Plans were laid by the quarterly District Scouter meeting here Tuesday night for a Scoutorama and pot-luck supper during Boy Scout Week, Feb. 6 to 14.

Dr. Wm. N. Orr, district chairman, presided at the meeting, which started with a dinner session at 7 o'clock at the Littlefield Hotel, adjourning for the Court of Honor, and re-convening after the Court, when other business was attended to, and the first Tuesday of February was tentatively set for the next meeting to be held at Amherst.

The Scoutorama will consist of contests between the three troops of Littlefield in Scout work.

Experience Gained This Season To Be Of Great Value

Locals Lose To Andrews Mustangs In Hard Fought Thanksgiving Day Game

Littlefield Cats, with a long record of difficulties in the 1943 football season, which closed Thanksgiving Day with a game at Andrews, will go into the 1944 season prepared to give their opponents some real competition.

This year the Cats went through the season with young and inexperienced players and several times in the season the coach was changed on account of changes in the school faculty.

Those who have been watching the Cats closely are of the opinion that some excellent material is available for the 1944 season, and that the local players will provide fans with some good football.

Lawrence Cook, High School principal and coach, who took over the Wildcats late in the season, says that there is some excellent material in the Cats organization, and that the boys can be developed into an aggregation of highly effective players.

Played Some Good Football
Littlefield played seven games this season, five of them conference contests. The Cats did not place in the conference.

The only victory for the Wildcats this fall was the defeat of Morton at Littlefield. The Cats were supposed to have played a return game but Morton cancelled the contest on account of their coach going into the Army.

Even if the Cats didn't do so well in winning games, they did provide, (Continued on Back Page)

Discharged Service Men Will Register With Red Cross

Concerns Needing Help Asked To Contact Mrs. L. M. Brandon, Secy.

Plans are underway by the Lamb County Red Cross organization for the placing of returned servicemen in suitable positions, according to Mrs. L. M. Brandon, Executive Secretary.

Mrs. Brandon explained that many of these veterans, who may be disabled in some way, might not be physically able to work full time, and the plan is being discussed to provide labor for any who desire part time employment.

The first case coming to the attention of the local Chapter of the Red Cross is the case of James Norton, 30, married, who served overseas, and has returned with an honorable discharge recently. Norton was in combat duty on Attu Island, in the Aleutians, and had both feet frozen. The cold weather naturally affects his feet, and the local Red Cross has been making an effort to place him in employment as a mechanical helper, where he will be required only to work part time. He has been living with a sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith at Earth. Only 20 of the entire company in which Norton served are reported to have survived.

Plans have been made whereby Clifford Jaques, Earth, brother of Mrs. L. M. Brandon of Littlefield, is furnishing living quarters and employment to Mr. Norton and family.

Mrs. Brandon asked the Leader to announce that inasmuch as discharged servicemen have been instructed to apply to their nearest Red Cross office for work, and there are many already applying to her for such work as they are able to do, any business concern needing labor are asked to contact Mrs. Brandon, as she is interested in placing these men in their desired line of work.

Mrs. Brandon stated that inasmuch as men are being discharged now in large numbers, she will appreciate every assistance the public may give her in this work.

Receives Letter Of Appreciation

Many Littlefield and Lamb County women have contributed in a splendid manner towards the Red Cross knitting project, and sweaters, socks, gloves and helmets have been made from Red Cross yarn, and shipped from time to time.

Mrs. S. D. Hay is County Production Chairman while Mrs. Newt Harkey is local Chairman.

Recently a shipment of knitted garments were sent from Lamb County to an Army Airfield at Great Bend, Kansas, and the following letter of appreciation was received by the Lamb County Chapter:

We wish to thank you very much for the sweaters and assure you that they will be gladly accepted by the men. The men in the Guard Squadron are on duty for long periods of time on the outside, and the weather and temperatures in this section of (Continued On Back Page)

Surgical Dressings Today

L. M. Brandon, chairman of the Surgical Dressing room, announced Tuesday that they had completed the County's surgical dressing program; that Judge I. B. Holt had turned over from Olton that the dressings would be shipped to Pueblo, Colo.

Confirmed reports reaching Littlefield to the effect that there was a hospital at Pueblo, where wounded men are being treated by plane for treatment, and these surgical dressings for Lamb County are for use in hospital.

Brandon asked the Leader to thank the women who responded to her urgent appeal last week, stating that she appreciated their courtesy very much.

Don't Be Caught Without Your Home Newspaper!

Many have heeded the warning regarding renewal of subscriptions to the Lamb County Leader, and have renewed their subscriptions. As time rolls on, others will notice the expiration date on their paper, as indicated by the date on the little yellow slip alongside their name on the paper each week, and should not risk being put in the new subscription classification, which would result from a freezing of the subscription list, which may happen at any time. The daily papers have already been obliged to freeze their subscription list. It is hoped that the freeze will not hit the weekly publications, but as the newsprint supply dwindles each week, it is likely the weekly newspapers will be in the same position as the daily papers.

When the government issues orders to reduce the consumption of paper, publishers can do nothing about it, except to cease taking new subscriptions, at which time everyone would have to be dropped from the list on the date of the order, whose subscription is not paid in advance.

Be on the safe side by looking at the date of your subscription opposite your name on the paper, and send in your subscription before that date is reached. The figures on the label indicate the exact date when your paper is paid to, for example, if the figures read 12-15-43, it means that this is the date to which your subscription is paid.

SAVE MONEY
The Leader offers special Club rates with the Star Telegram or Avalanche Journal. Whether or not your daily paper subscription expires soon, since they are threatened with another cut in newsprint, the wise thing to do is renew now.

Commercial Aviation

Development of airline as a major industry in this country after the war will not be just a matter of making peacetime use of war improvements in aircraft design and construction—there will be ground problems, too, Dr. John H. Frederick, University of Texas professor of transportation, asserts.

"The three important facilities involved in coordinating air and surface cargo transportation," Dr. Frederick explains, "are airports, handling equipment at airports, and pick-up and delivery services."

The big advantage of air transport service lies in speed and frequency of schedules, the transportation expert points out. The saving in time, however, will be useless unless all ground equipment is equally efficient and speedy.

The airlines should make contracts with both railroads and motor transport systems to pick up cargo shipments at the airports and deliver them, Dr. Frederick said, rather than try to set up their own ground delivery systems.

For Better Vision

Don't scorn the sweet potato—it can be a big factor in increasing your "visual purple!"

Visual purple is essential to vision. It is destroyed by light but normally regenerate itself continuously, rapidly in the dark, less rapidly in the light.

Experiments in increasing speed of regeneration of visual purple by added amounts of Vitamin A in the diet were recounted at a recent University of Texas meeting by Miss Florence Scoular, professor of home economics at North Texas Teachers College. Miss Scoular spoke before the biological sciences section of the Texas Academy of Science.

"When a person is suddenly confronted with a bright light, he is blinded for a flash. If his visual purple is sufficiently built up, the blinding may be for only a few seconds; if it is deficient, the blackout may last for some time—long enough, if driving at night, to cause an accident," Miss Scoular

Fourth War Loan

The Fourth War Loan Drive, opening January 18, is happily timed to permit investment of additional income received at the close of the current year in financing the war program. The drive will not conflict with taxpaying or war relief campaigns, as has occurred in some previous instances.

The offering of $14,000,000,000 in January is certain to be oversubscribed, in the manner of prior issues. War bonds enable civilians and soldiers to participate in necessary war financing, to lay up savings for the future and to divert income from the limited consumer market. Enlightened self-interest and patriotism are fused as incentives for the bond buyer.

At this time, it is important for the people to exercise the same intelligence and patriotism toward other aspects of the war program, notably the vitally necessary plan for economic stabilization. Already the public and business have invested $50,445,000,000 in war bonds, which has increased our national debt in that amount. The next bond drive will increase that investment.

Having put their dollars into war bonds, the people can not afford to impair the value of their own investment by pressing for higher wages, prices and profits. Moreover, progress toward inflation will materially increase both the national debt and the amount of bonds to be purchased in future drives.

In brief, the same enlightened selfishness and sense of duty which lead the American people to buy war bonds should cause them to support the entire program for economic stabilization. Inflation and the consequent deflation would create another depression, in which government, by reason of heavy debt, would be unable to extend relief to labor, agriculture, business or other groups.

Regenerating of visual purple is dependent on Vitamin A, which is derived from sweet potatoes or other yellow vegetables in the diet. Experiments in supplementing the normal diet with products made from Vita-Yam flour were carried on at the teachers college, Miss Scoular revealed.

Mother Of E. S. Rowe Dies At Big Spring; Burial At Whitt, Texas

Mrs. Amanda L. Lindsey, 81, of Whitt, Texas, mother of E. S. Rowe of this city, passed away at a Big Spring Hospital Sunday, November 21, at 10:30 a. m., following a paralytic stroke, which she suffered the Thursday previous.

Mrs. Lindsey had been remarkably well for her age. On learning of his mother's sudden illness, Mr. Rowe, accompanied by Mrs. Rowe, went to Big Spring Friday before her death, returning to Littlefield Saturday night. They, however, left again the following Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. Wayne Carlisle of Lubbock, and remained until Tuesday of last week.

The remains were taken overland from Big Spring to Whitt, Texas, 12 miles north of Mineral Wells, where services were conducted at the First Baptist Church, Monday afternoon, November 22, at 2:30 o'clock, with the pastor, Rev. McGuire, officiating; and interment took place in the Whitt Cemetery, beside her husband, the late Dr. L. A. Lindsey, who passed away in August, 1920.

Mrs. Lindsey was born July 22, 1862, in Missouri, and had resided at Whitt, Texas, a number of years, and until 1940, when she came to Littlefield and spent a year with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rowe, following which she went to Big Springs, where she had since made her home.

Besides her son, E. S. Rowe of Littlefield, Mrs. Lindsey was survived by one brother, W. D. Benson of Lubbock, and one sister, Mrs. Letha Custis of Ferrin, Texas; and two grandsons, E. S. Rowe, Jr., of Artesia, N. M., and Lieut. Hall Rowe of Boston, Mass.; and one step-daughter, Mrs. Lura Zellers of Fort Worth.

Levelland Loboes Down Sudan In Thanksgiving Game

Sudan's perfect football record for 1943 which included never having been scored upon, was just a memory Thursday after the strong Levelland Lobos drubbed the Sudan boys 20-2 in a Thanksgiving Day game.

For the first two quarters the two teams played a tight defensive game.

The tide turned in the third quarter in favor of the visitors who pushed over two markers during the period. The first coming when Howser passed to Tibbetts for the initial marker. Soon afterwards Murphy broke loose and marked up another tally for Levelland.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter Bickham, right guard of the winners, blocked a punt on the Sudan's 10-yard line and on the next play Crabtree passed 10 yards to Eyerley for the final touchdown.

Beverley converted twice for the Levelland eleven.

Levelland ran up three first downs to Sudan's nine.

The lone Sudan score was made when a Levelland back was caught behind his own goal line in the fourth quarter.

Joint PTA Meeting Wednesday, Dec. 8

The P.T.A. will have a joint meeting Wednesday, Dec. 8, at the High School at 4:30 o'clock. Mrs. F. H. Broyles of Sudan will be in charge and all members are urged to attend.

Miss Marie Hall And Lieut. Adkisson Wed At New Orleans

Word was received here Sunday of the marriage of Miss Marie Hall of Lubbock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Hall of Quitaque, and Lieut. Gid B. Adkisson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Adkisson of Abernathy, which took place Wednesday in New Orleans, La.

The bride chose a soldier blue suit with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias for the ceremony. She carried out traditions by wearing a heirloom pin, for "something old" and carrying a handkerchief for "something borrowed."

A graduate of Quitaque High school, the bride attended Texas Technological College for three years, majoring in business administration. She has been working at Broome Optical Company.

Lieut. Adkisson, a graduate of Abernathy High school, is a former student at Tech College and Texas A. and M. College. He received his commission from Officers Candidate School at Fort Benning, Ga., last Monday.

THIS YEAR'S COTTON GINNINGS UP TO NOVEMBER 14 TOTAL 36,356 BALES

As announced by Mrs. Warren Rutledge, Cotton statistician for Lamb County, there were 36,356 bales of cotton ginned in Lamb County from the crop of 1943 prior to November 14, as compared with 17,673 bales handled of the 1942 crop up to November 14 of last year. The ginnings for 1943, therefore, are considerably more than twice the 1942 ginnings up to November of last year.

Twelve Men And A Flag

By VINCENT EDWARDS
(Rotarian—Dec. 43)

One day the owner of a worsted mill which was turning out United States flags by the thousands decided to check on the national origins of all their workers who had a hand in a single flag manufacture, from the clipping of the wool to the time when it could be flung to the breeze.

Here is what they found as a result of their investigation:
The flag was made of wool from American sheep. In the process, from start to finish, it was—
Sorted by an American;
Carded by an Italian;
Spun by a Swede;
Warped by a German;
Dressed by an Englishman;
Drawn in by a Scotchman;
Woven by a Belgian;
Supervised by a Frenchman;
Inspected by an American;
Scoured by an Albanian;
Dyed by a Turk;
Examined by a Pole.
Altogether, 12 different nationalities joined to make that one flag! America is a melting pot. It's democracy is all-inclusive.

With Amherst Men In The Armed Forces

Sgt. Clarence Davis left Friday, November 19, for his base at Santa Ana, Calif.

Captain Weldon Davis left Friday November 19, for Savannah, Ga., where he is stationed. Clarence and Weldon were here attending the funeral services for their father, Ben Davis.

Mrs. Clarence Davis left Monday morning for Santa Anna, Calif., with Mr. Davis' Uncle and Aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Rogers.

Mrs. R. L. Brown of Amherst sometime ago contributed to filling kit bags with necessary articles for the service men overseas, by donating a dollar, which is sufficient, to fill one bag with the necessary articles. Cards bearing the donors' names are sewed in the kit bags. Mrs. Brown dismissed it from her mind and thought no more about it—until Monday she received a V-Mail letter from Cpl. Leo A. Ihl, of the U. S. Navy, somewhere in the South Pacific, as follows:

"Dear Mrs. Brown:
"I found your card in the Red Cross bag given to me before I left the States so I am taking this opportunity for thanking you for the many articles which were in the Red Cross bag. We appreciate such gifts which are so useful to us.

"We have seen some real interesting people, and also some nice scenery during our trip, and since our arrival in a foreign country. Of course, we cannot tell where we are, but I believe my daughter at Pierre, So. Dak., could guess fairly close. Her name and address is as follows: Betty Ihl, 107 So. Tyler Ave., Pierre, So. Dak. I also have a son at the naval air station in Minneapolis, Minn., and one younger son with my daughter, staying with my mother at Pierre. My wife passed away less than a year ago.

"Again many thanks for the Red Cross bag."

Hidden somewhere in South America is a U. S. Army Air Base, to fliers in that area. It isn't an important base, for just two planes have landed there.

It began last December when a Brazilian flier ran out of gas above the jungle. Looking desperately below him, he found a small spot, which looked suitable for landing. He landed in mud and tropical brush.

The pilot succeeded in making his way out of the jungle to a small outcrop, where he reported the accident and location of his ship.

A few days later a U. S. pilot and a few men found the ship. They were very busy now building a crude runway.

Within a few hours all was ready for their risky run, but the runway was too short and a crash landing resulted but no one was injured.

Within the next few days, due to the rainy season, they could not continue their project.

Six months later, the rains ceased and Lieut. Richard S. Shaulis of Johnstown, Pa., loaded men and equipment into the lightest and smallest plane available and began shuttling them to the side of the marooned plane.

With Lieut. Shaulis was Lieut. J. J. McClouse of New Braunfels, Texas, base engineering officer in charge of the seven-man repair crew.

S-Sgt. William A. Proper, Jr., of Binghampton, N. Y., took over the task of getting the plane's radio into commission. The engine was overhauled by S-Sgt. Raymond M. Hallman of New York City, T-Sgt. Ralph J. Moore of Broken Arrow, Okla., Cpl. Sam Sherman of New York, and Cpl. John D. Harmon of Littlefield, Texas.

Patching the torn fabric was the assignment of S-Sgt. Anthony P. D'Andrea of Weatherly, Pa., while Pfc. Jerome F. Haverland of Dubuque, Iowa, did the sheet metal repairs.

After 12 days of toiling in the sun, their night's rest broken by screeching of monkeys, the men put the finishing touches on their repair job.

Because the plane had made its crash landing at a considerable distance from the runway, it was necessary for the men to clear a completely new 900 foot runway and a 700 foot ran-shaped extension at the end of it.

Everything was in readiness for the take off.

Lieut. Shaulis revved up the light plane's engine and listened, satisfied with what he heard; the plane roared down the runway.

Its wheels left the ground quickly but the plane gained altitude slowly. Shaulis realized he didn't have altitude sufficient to clear the trees.

Within a few short yards from the trees, the 22-year-old ACC pilot slammed the plane over on one wing tip—banked around and flew back the entire length of the clearing in his effort to gain altitude.

To the men on the ground "sweating out" the plane, the take off seemed to take an eternity, but actually it was but a few seconds.

With a sigh of relief the group relaxed. Their work was done. Celebrations were ended at what called Monkey Field.

Cpl. John D. Harmon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Harmon, Brady, Texas. Before going into the Army he was an agricultural engineer.

He has been in the service year and has been home once. He has been stationed at W. Falls, Texas, Annapolis, Ind., Louis, Mo., and New Orleans, now "somewhere in South America."

Mrs. W. F. Birdsong and daughters, Sally and Ann, were in Littlefield Friday. Mrs. Birdsong took children for their guitar lesson.

SNOW ON THE ROOF NEXT DOOR

Winter's blanket of snow remains longest on the roofs of insulated homes. Heat from inside the home does not escape through the ceilings to melt it.

15¢ to 25¢ OF EACH FUEL DOLLAR
ESCAPES THROUGH UNINSULATED ROOFS

With fuel hard to get, it is important that heat should not escape from your home. The American Society of Heating and Ventilating Engineers estimates that 15 per cent of each "fuel dollar," and in some cases 25 per cent, escapes through uninsulated roofs.

Cameron Insulation..

Is Inexpensive... Pays for Itself

You will be surprised how little it costs to insulate the ceiling of your home, and thus prevent heat escaping through the roof. Savings in fuel will pay for the insulation.

Easily Installed... Do It Yourself

At Cameron's you get the most efficient insulation on the market. It is lightweight and fire-resistant. In roll blankets or batt blankets, it is easily placed between attic floor joists. The rolls and bats are proper width to fill joist spacing.

You'll Enjoy It Next Summer, Too

Next summer, and for many summers to come, your home will be degrees cooler with attic insulation from Cameron's. Just as it keeps heat from getting out of your home in winter, Cameron's insulation keeps it from getting in, through ceilings, during summer.

Amherst Drug Now Distributor Of Lederle Products

The Amherst Drug Store, Druggists, announces a new valuable service to farmers and stockmen of this county. This store, for the first time, has established a department for the sale of veterinary biologicals and pharmaceuticals made by the highly regarded Lederle Laboratories.

Never before has it been so important for farmers and stockmen to guard the health of their valuable animals, it is pointed out. The immunization of horses, cattle, swine, sheep, fowl, small animals, against disease costs but a trifle when compared with possible heavy losses of these animals through easily preventable infections.

The Lederle Laboratories, whose veterinary products the Amherst Drug Store now markets, is the largest maker of human and veterinary biologicals in the world. Each year, in the great Lederle laboratories, upwards of a million dollars are expended in research into human and animal diseases.

In the development of animal vaccines, serums, etc., Lederle is noted for its distinguished pioneering. Lederle perfected the first refined hog cholera serum, first introduced into this country an effective rabies prophylactic, developed Anthrax Spore Vaccine (Carbozee), was first to obtain Government permission to produce an effective swine erysipelas serum and, comparatively recently, perfected Equine Encephalomyelitis (Chick-Embryo Method) which stopped the nationwide epizootic of sleeping sickness among horses in 1938.

LAST RITES HELD FOR J. G. MOORE

Funeral services for J. G. A. Dunn officiating, and interment, in charge of Hammons Funeral Home, took place in the Anton Cemetery.

Darlene Graham
Injured In Car Accident Monday

Darlene Graham, 12, daughter of Mrs. Jewell Graham of Lubbock, formerly of Littlefield, suffered head and shoulder injuries when she was struck by an automobile said to be driven by W. F. Eisenberg, 2214 Sixteenth Street, at the intersection of Sixteenth Street and Avenue T, about 8:45 o'clock Monday morning.

The youngster was reported hit by the right fender and bumper of the car as she started across the street north on Sixteenth to Junior High School where she is a seventh grade student. Eisenberg, executor of the Ellwood estates, said he didn't see the girl until he had already struck her. He was driving about 10 or 15 miles an hour as he had just started the car up after stopping to give another automobile the right of way at the street crossing. He had scraped his windshield clear of frost with a razor before leaving his residence for work.

Darlene was taken to Lubbock General Hospital by M. E. West, 2515 Twentieth Street, public accountant, who arrived at the scene of the accident immediately after it happened. Eisenberg also accompanied West and the injured girl to the hospital where she was given X-ray. Officials reported her condition as "not serious."

Darlene is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Graham, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Graham of this city.

The child's father, Pvt. James Graham, is in the Army stationed at Mackall Field, North Carolina. Mrs. Graham and Darlene reside with the former's sister, Mrs. Ray-

Pfc. And Mrs. Edwards Visitors In Home Of Mrs. Viola Honea

Pfc. and Mrs. Marshall Edwards of Brigham City, Utah, are visiting Mrs. Edwards' mother, Mrs. Viola Honea. They arrived the first of last week on a ten day visit. Pfc. Edwards is on duty in an Army Hospital, and with another serviceman had taken a patient, a returned soldier, from Brigham City Hospital, to McClosky's Hospital at Temple, Texas. Mrs. Edwards arrived Monday, and Pfc. Edwards came Sunday.

Mrs. Honea is expecting her son, Capt. Elmont G. Honea, stationed at New River, North Carolina, an Instructor in a Motor Transport Division, home on leave about middle of December. Capt. Honea has 75 Marine Women under his direction in teaching them to drive transport vehicles.

Represents Senior Class At Tourney

Miss Evelyn Griffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Griffin, Littlefield, with Miss Druscilla Longley, Deming, N. M., represented the senior class in the Mary Hardin-Baylor Interclass Debate tournament at Belton, Texas, this week.

The subject under discussion was: "Resolved: that the United States should cooperate in establishing and maintaining an international police force upon the defeat of the Axis." Miss Nancy Salisbury, Mexico City, Mexico, president of the Student Government association on the campus, was moderator at the debate.

Goodness and benevolence never tire. They maintain themselves and others and never stop from exhaustion. —Mary Baker Eddy.

Some figures for Ostriches!

In the Sicilian campaign, part of our losses in the material employed were as follows:

- We lost 8% of our medium tanks.
- We lost nearly half of our 57-mm. guns.
- We lost 33 1/3% of our 75-mm. gun carriages.
- We lost 22% of our 105-mm. howitzer carriages.
- We lost 54% of our 37-mm. gun carriages.
- We lost an undisclosed number of ships, landing barges, airplanes.
- We lost a vast quantity of collateral material like food, clothing, things like 1,100 miles of copper telephone wire.
- We lost all this in a month-long minor campaign that was in every sense of the word a complete victory for us.

There's just no use in trying to dodge this fact:

Somebody's got to pay for that stuff we lost. Somebody's got to pay for the new stuff that replaced it. Somebody's got to pay for the infinitely larger amount of stuff that's going to be used—and part of it lost—in Italy, in France, in the Balkans, in Norway, in India, in a lot of places.

It's no use kidding ourselves. That "somebody" is Uncle Sam—and we've got to lend him the money to do it by buying War Bonds. There's no cheap way out—no easy way out—there's just nothing we can do except to keep on working and buying more and more Bonds till this War is won.

And the harder we pitch in right now—and the ~~more~~ Bonds we buy—the quicker that will be.

How Many More Days, Mummy, Before Daddy Can Come Home?

And mother doesn't know. So she answers the same way she's answered a hundred times . . .

"Not so many days . . . we hope. Daddy can't come home to us until the war is over. Until we win, you know."

Nobody can tell the thousands of bewildered little hearts when their Daddies will come home.

Nor the millions of other Americans when their husbands, or sons, or sweethearts will be back.

The tragic truth is that many of them will never see their loved ones again. Never.

But this we do know . . . Every minute by which the war can be shortened means fewer lives lost—fewer white crosses on a lonely hillside.

YOUR JOB

Is to put every dollar you can possibly dig up into War Bonds. The fighting equipment bought by your dollars will hasten the day of Victory . . . the day when the boys come marching home.

DON'T SLACKEN

Your Bond purchases while victory is within our grasp! Never let it be said that while the attack grows stronger on the fighting fronts, we at home failed to back it to the very limit of our ability.

DIG DOWN DEEPER

Buy extra War Bonds. Help shorten the war by those vital minutes—or days—or months—which mean American lives saved!

on many occasions, some real good football. For example, the game with Sudan at Littlefield. Littlefield was the only team this year to reach the Sudan 20-yard line. At one time, the Littlefield boys got to the Sudan 9-yard line and at another time to their opponent's 12-yard line.

The Andrews Game

Playing on a heavy field and fighting mist and rain, the Andrews Mustangs and the Littlefield Cats battled it out at Andrews in a Thanksgiving Day game. The game, which ended 14 to 6, with Andrews on the long end of the score, was described as "rough."

Two Players Injured

Jimmie Armstrong, playing center for the Cats, received a fractured nose, was taken out of the game, and received treatment at an Andrews hospital. He believes he sustained the injury by coming in contact with an Andrews player's knee.

In the last two minutes of the game, Jack Vaughn of the Cats received a fractured wrist and was treated at a hospital.

Andre s kicked off at the beginning of the game and Littlefield received. Armstrong was injured in the fourth down of the first quarter. Littlefield scored in the last quarter, in fact, in the last four minutes of the game. Littlefield got the ball at the 40-yard line and never lost the pigskin until the goal was made, most of it through line drives. Billie Lyman made the touchdown for Littlefield.

Throughout the game until the half Littlefield held the Mustangs very tight. In the third quarter the Mustangs threw a pass. Gene Pratt tried to intercept this pass, but failed. An Andrews boy received the pass and scored. This was followed shortly by an Andrews boy getting the ball on about the 20-yard line and making a touchdown.

Fans Praise Cats

Fans at the game said that the Cats fought harder and played better football than at any other time this year.

Substitutes for the game were: Buster Owens, Cleston Orr, Kenneth Ware, Junior Graham and Gene Pratt.

Pratt played all the game because Singer was out of the contest due to a side injury.

KENNETH LEE KASSEROLER BARELY ESCAPES INJURY

Kenneth Lee Kasseroler, aged 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kasseroler of Beaumont, Texas, and a grandson of Mrs. K. P. Locke of Littlefield, narrowly escaped serious injury to his hand when he caught it in the wringer of the washing machine at his home. He was wearing leather gloves at the time of accident, and X-ray showed there were no injuries to his hand. Kenneth's mother discovered the accident when she noted the electric meter spinning and went to investigate.

not constitute a commitment by the county committee that the meal or cake will be available. The responsibility of locating the meal or cake rests solely with the applicant, and the provisions of this wire do not apply to peanut or soybean meal or cake.

"County committee may proceed with the issuance of certificates upon receipt of this wire. The certificate form from section G of FPO-9 should be mimeographed, providing spaces for signature of one member of the county committee and for the amount (of meal or cake).

"Any violation should be reported to this office."

The New Plan Explained

In a nutshell, the change in procedure in buying cottonseed cake and meal in far West Texas and eastern New Mexico, would be something like this:

No longer can the farmer demand all the food product from his own seed. He, like any other feeder or producer, must take only the amount of cake or meal required for his own immediate needs.

And he must abide by the same rule as other feeders must subscribe to—he will receive certificates to buy meal and cake in proportion to the number and/or class of livestock he is feeding. If he has three dairy cows he will receive certificates to buy slightly more protein concentrates than if he were feeding three dry cows, for instance.

"More equitable distribution should result," it was announced by government officials, who said the new procedure for buying is to go to the Agricultural Adjustment agency committee of the feeder's county of residence, make affidavit of livestock being fed and of a 15-day cake or meal requirements for them.

The AAA committee will pass on the application and grant certificates if the claim is fair. The certificates may then be taken to the oil mills, which, if there is any cake or meal there, will will the order. For a few weeks, it is expected, there will not be enough protein concentrates on hand at the mills to fill orders in total for all who apply; in such cases, it is expected, a percentage amount will be given the individual, who would be accredited with what he received and allowed to return on other days and receive the remainder as it could be supplied.

The new distribution plan for protein concentrates had its origin chiefly in protests of cattlemen, who pointed out that, under the former system they were being deprived of sufficient concentrates to feed their stock.

Age—did not seem to affect results. The earliest response occurred in a 50 year old; the latest in a 23 year old.

Color—began to appear near the roots of the hair. The color may not appear all over the head at the same time. Symmetrical areas, perhaps on the temples or the back of the head, may show traces of color first, after which the color will spread to other parts of the head.

Miss Willene Ishmael of El Paso spent Thanksgiving Day with Mr. and Mrs. Phil Adkins.

With South Plains Men In The Service

A letter describing Iran, which is very interesting description of the country, where many American servicemen are stationed, was sent to Mrs. Ores H. Downs of this city by her husband, Pvt. Ores H. Downs, who is stationed in Iran, but who did not write the letter. This communication is as follows:

"Hello from here:

"It may seem odd to you that I am sending mimeographed letters instead of the easier and less expensive means of correspondence—but there is a reason. If I were to answer each of the many letters that I have received from you and in them write all that is interesting here in Iran, I would have no time left to perform the duties that rest upon my broad shoulders. And knowing as you do a more important job than letter writing, you will, I know, let me off this time and receive this letter with my warmest feelings.

"I know that since you know that I am over here, you want to hear all about the place; and it is an interesting story. Iran—or Persia as it used to be called, until some ten odd years ago—is a country out of which the history of the world was made, a country through which the centuries have passed, but passed lightly, leaving little indication of their passage. The natives are of a peculiar lot—either very rich or very poor; but all seem to travel in the filth and grime that seems to us to have become of the principal heritage left them from their glorious past.

"You have undoubtedly heard snatches of Persian History, how the great kings of 2500 years ago—Cyrus, Darius, Serses—molded the first empire in the world with this region as a center; how they ruled from India to Greece and from the Caucasus Mountains in the north to the Nile River in the south; how Cyrus conquered and overran the Babylonian Kingdom and released the Israelites from their captivity; how the same Cyrus took Daniel, the Biblical prophet, into his court and later cast him to the lions; how Esther became the beloved wife of King Anusuerus and as a consequence saved Persian Jewery from the projected program of the arch-villain Heman; how Alexander the Great marched triumphantly through this region 300 years before Christ was born, and how one night as a consequence of a particularly hard night of drinking, he burned to the ground the noble's palaces that the great Persian kings had created to stand as everlasting memorials to their power and glory. Of these events you have only read; but to the evidence of these events I have access, for the ruins of this once great civilization surrounds me.

"At Shush—the ancient Susa—is the tomb of Daniel, the site of the Esther story, and the remains of Alexander's occupation. There history can be traced back 6000 years. At Persepolis are the great and still magnificent ruins of the palaces of the king; at Hamadan is the tomb of Esther and her loyal Uncle Merdechai. But more than the remains of things long dead, are the ever present reminders of a civilization that has decayed.

"I have visited a few of the towns, and by describing the scenes that I have seen in these places, I can't give a true enough picture. But I can try. You have no doubt seen alums in the states, and heard about the "Oakies," the poor whites, and the negroes of the South. I can honestly say that I have never seen nor have I expected to see filth and such degradation of the human race as I have seen since I arrived here. Going from camp to town what may seem a bundle of rags cast off by the side of the road will move and prove itself a human form. The poor natives—and they are the poorest of the poor—are merely hunks of flesh, covered with tatters, their features and their bodies marred by roasting sores and scars of every disease known to man. Venereal disease flourishes here in all its vicious form, but typhus, cholera, small pox—all the diseases that are bred of filth—flourish right alongside. Not only are the natives dirty, but they, naturally, contribute to the atmosphere of the town as well. Even if I were blind, I think that I could tell by the smell that I was in a Persian town. I can't describe that smell; it is a mixture of every disgusting and evil odor in the world. The press of the natives in the bazaar makes it necessary to bathe with good strong soap or else carry the smell along with you. It is like a thick syrup that floats through the air, sticking to everything and contaminating all.

"But there is beauty here in Iran, more than that. Even amidst all the filth and ugliness that exists here, the people have an innate sense of beauty and an appreciation of the beautiful.

"One needs only to pass through the bazaar to see this. The varied colors of the material in the merchants stalls, the colorful paintings done with exquisite charm, craftsmanship and as it seems to us broad minded American naïveté. The silver work when it is done well can hardly be surpassed anywhere in the world. And you have heard of the famed Persian rugs, I have seen them and I can only say that it is necessary to look upon them with your own eyes and feel them with your own hands to really appreciate their beauty and delicacy. Each province of rug manufacturers—from Bukhara to Kermanshah to Tabriz has its own characteristics; and each produces fine pieces. Art and craftsmanship in Persia is not a passing fad; though it is a truth that there have been periods in the past when Persian art reached much higher peaks of excellence, the real art of Persia today is nothing to sneeze at.

"Comparable to the beauty produced by man is that which God has placed here. It is true that there are barren deserts, almost as hot in the summer as hell is supposed to be; and it is true that many of the once great forests have passed into building lumber, and food for the parasites. Yet there remains the great ranges of mountains that almost completely incircle the central part of Iran, forming the great Iranina Plateau.

"These mountains viewed from the level of the desert are truly monarchs. Standing in all their glory, dignity and power. Snow-capped the year around, and with their steeply rising cliffs, they guard the heart of this ancient kingdom.

"Dizful, the city that is built with three underground cities that have been built one on the other as time has passed on. Three fourths of the people of this town are blind. Due to the diseases that are prevalent in the community. Crossing the once great bridge that Alexander the Great had built centuries ago, and it still stands today, a monument to that great man. The bridge crosses over the shallow river that flows by the town. Dark alleys are all over the town where one with a jeep can just go through. Native children running in front of the trucks yelling "Backshees Johnny" almost run under the wheels and it is hard to keep from running them down.

"The capital of Iran is Teheran, one of the most modern cities in the Middle East. German architecture is seen almost everywhere. Buildings that are made to stand for centuries. When one visits Teheran, the streets are paved and practically new cars are seen going here and there. Cars that have cost anywhere from five thousand dollars to twenty thousand dollars. Everything is dear, no matter what you want they will always jack the prices up to one hundred, even two hundred per cent on all things. The Queen's Castle is also located in Teheran.

"Not to be forgotten are the flower gardens that one can see almost everywhere. The Persians are great lovers of flowers—almost as great as their love for wine, rest and backshees. One can see that love in the constant repetition of the flower motif in all forms of decoration. Flower gardens are a natural growth from that love for flowers in particular and of beauty in general. In these gardens, the flowers grow in profusion of colors—petunias with larkspur and asters, straw-flowers and sweetpeas. Seeing these flowers here reminds me of home. But that is another story to be told later, at another time."

Lieut. Hall Rowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Rowe, in the U. S. Marines, who has been stationed at Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass., taking a course in Radar, expects soon to be transferred to Massachusetts Technical Institution, located at the same city, for further schooling.

Maj. Wilson A. Chapman, Army fighter pilot credited with shooting down several Jap planes in the Southwest Pacific, where he was wounded in action, spent Sunday visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Chapman, Abernathy, and calling upon friends there and in Lubbock.

Major Chapman, a 1940 geophysics graduate of Texas Technological College, was en route from special duties in the eastern states to an Army air field near Salinas, Calif., where he is an instructor. Among L. T. Patton, head of the department those upon whom he called was Dr. of petroleum engineering at Tech. Transferred to the Southwest Pacific within a few weeks after the attack upon Pearl Harbor, Major Chapman served in that sector more than a year. His decorations include the Purple Heart and the Silver Star.

T-Sgt. E. J. Foust, who has been stationed at Salt Lake City, Utah, for the past 18 months, has been transferred to Ardmore, Okla.

T-Sgt. Foust, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Foust, arrived in Littlefield Saturday, accompanied by Mrs. Foust for a visit with his parents and other relatives and friends. T-Sgt. Foust will report at Ardmore about Friday.

Taking a preliminary course to prepare him for actual flight training, Joe W. Douglass, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Douglass of Littlefield is among the 312 aviation cadets from the State of Texas, now stationed at the Army Air Forces Pre-Flight School, Aviation Cadet Center, San Antonio.

At the Cadet Center, the cadets undergo thorough academic, military and physical training leading to subsequent flight training to prepare them for aerial combat.

Madison H. Newton, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Newton of Spade Community, is now receiving basic flight training as an aviation cadet at the Bainbridge Army Air Field, Bainbridge, Ga.

He completed pre-flight training at Maxwell Field, Ala., and his primary training at one of the many fields throughout the Southwest.

Cadet Newton, who joined the Air Corps on June 26, 1942, formerly attended Tech College.

Second Lieutenant Alvin R. Gerik, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gerik of Pep Community, left Tuesday for Tuscon, Ariz., after spending about a week at home.

Lieut. Gerik is with the Air Forces as a Bombardier Navigator, and is stationed at Tuscon.

Mrs. J. R. Coen received a lovely Thanksgiving card from Mrs. Jim Melton, formerly Miss Frances Humphries, of Los Cruces, N. M., with a note written on the inside of same, part of which was relative to her brother, Buford Humphries, who is located in the Pacific area. The message said:

"Recently heard from Buford. He is in the Pacific area and said we'd read about the action there each day in the papers. He wasn't allowed to write about it, but would tell us about it when he returned. He is in line for another promotion, and asked us to remember him to all his friends in Littlefield as he thought they might like to know where he was, and what he was doing. Of course, we don't know his exact station, but he is on islands somewhere in the South Pacific. Said he was enjoying the best of health and ate coconut, pineapple and bananas fresh from the trees, also had gathered some of the most beautiful orchids he had ever seen. He is his Squadron's head navigator, and is a Lieutenant."

Private Cecil C. Smith, 26, of Olton, Texas, has arrived at Hastings College, Hastings, Nebraska, for a course of Army Air Force instruction lasting approximately five months prior to his appointment as an Aviation Cadet in the Army Air Forces. During this period he will take numerous academic courses, as well as elementary flying training. Upon completion of the course he will be classified as a pilot, navigator or bombardier, and go on to schools of the Training Command for training in these specialties.

He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Smith and is a graduate of Olton High School.

His wife is Mrs. Erin Rose Smith.

Chaplain Thomas A. Rockett, head chaplain of the Engineer unit Training Center at Camp Claiborne, Alexandria, La., watched two men formerly stationed with him at Camp Bowie, Texas, receive decorations in a ceremony at Alexander Army Air Base.

Since their training at Bowie, Staff Sgt. Norris T. Reynolds of Jacksboro, Texas, and Staff Sgt. S. J. Jones, Olton, Texas, have been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and Air Medal for outstanding performance in aerial combat against the Japanese.

They were former members of the 2nd Battalion, 36th Division, which was known as the "lost battalion of Northwest Texas," after it had engaged in combating the Japs in Java. The two sergeants joined the Army Air Forces there when the need for gunners was urgent.

Viewing the ceremony with Lieut. Col. Rockett was Cpl. Philip A. Woodward, a fellow townsman of Sgt. Reynolds, also a former member of the 131st F. A. regiment, 2nd Battalion, and now Chaplain Rockett's assistant in the E.U.T.C.

SHEPPARD FIELD, Texas.—Pvt. Laury H. Medlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Medlin of Bula, Texas, has graduated from an intensive course in airplane mechanics at Sheppard Field, and now is prepared to join the ranks of "coverall commandos" who keep our American planes aloft. Sheppard Field, near Wichita Falls, Texas, is one of the largest schools of the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command, training specialist technicians for the ground crews which "Keep 'Em Flying."

Before entering the school, he was trained at one of the basic training centers of the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command.

Pfc. Medlin sent the following message to the Leader, which is quoted as follows:

"This school has given us a lot we can use after the war. To you in civilian life, you keep buying the bonds, and we'll keep the planes in shape to carry the bombs—then we will be seeing you soon."

Second Lieut. Bill Wingfield, formerly of Littlefield, in the Ferry Command of the Army, is stationed at Long Beach, Calif. Recently he met his father, J. I. Wingfield, now of Morton, at El Paso, when he was delivering a plane, and visited with him.

Lieut. Wingfield has been in the service a year. He was instructor at the Glider School at Phoenix, Ariz., before entering the Armed Forces. He is a brother of Mrs. Ralph Foust.

Pvt. Frederick Mitchell arrived here last Tuesday. He is visiting his sister, Mrs. E. A. Rhodes, and Mrs. John Cary. He is in the paratroop division, located at Camp Mackall and will return to camp next week.

Pvt. J. W. Taylor has been transferred from the Infantry at Camp Roberts, Calif., to a Cadet in the Air Corps at Buckley Field, Dencer, Col.

J. W. Boren, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Boren, who joined the Navy about nine weeks ago, is stationed at San Diego, Calif. He is a Seaman Second Class.

Pvt. Frederick Mitchell of a Parachute Division, stationed in North Carolina, arrived home Tuesday of last week. He will leave today or tomorrow to return to his station. He has been in the service since last Spring.

Pvt. Verle B. Thomas, with the Anti-Aircraft Division, and stationed at Corvallis, Ore., has been transferred to Rice, Calif. He is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. John Boren of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Heathman left here Saturday for Chickasha, Okla., to visit their son, Charles, returning to Littlefield early Monday morning.

Charles has completed his primary training and will go into basic training.

Mr. and Mrs. Heathman saw their son operate his plane at an altitude of 6000 feet Sunday, and do all his practice stunts. He was in the air two hours and 20 minutes, which was divided into two practice flights.

This pilot is doing so well at his work that his instructor stated Charles was doing much better than the average.

Miss Margarette Evans of El Paso, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Heathman to Chickasha, and also returned with him, spending a short time in the Heathman home here before boarding a bus for El Paso.

Pvt. Ores H. Downs, connected with the Persian Gulf Service Command, and located "Somewhere in Iran," composed a piece of poetry about the country, which will be of interest to our readers. Pvt. Downs has been in the service 11 months, and overseas six months. Mrs. Downs is a daughter of B. O. Hall of the Whitharral Community. She and her three sons moved to Littlefield from Chase, Kans., when her husband went overseas, to be near her father. Her sons are Rene and Gene, twins, 14 years of age, and Lee, 10 years of age.

The poetry follows:

"SOMEWHERE IN IRAN"

"Somewhere in Iran, where the sun is like a curse,
And each day is followed by another even worse.

Where the brick-red dust blows thicker than the shifting desert sand,
Or a Texan's wishful thinking of a fairer greener land.

"Somewhere in Iran, where a woman's never seen,
Where the sky is never cloudy and the grass is never green.
Where the jackal's nightly howling robs a man of blessed restful sleep,
Where there isn't any whiskey and the beer is never cheap.

"Somewhere in Iran, where nights are made for love,
And the moon is like a spotlight, and the Southern Cross above.
Sparkles like a diamond necklace on the throat of a tropic night,
'Tis a shameful waste of beauty, for my sweetheart's not in sight.

"Somewhere in Iran, where the postman comes so late,
That a Christmas card in April is considered up to date.
Where we never have a payday so of course don't have a cent.
But we never miss the money, cause could never get it spent.

"Somewhere in Iran, where the snakes and lizards play,
And a million more flies gather to replace the ones you shove away.
Take me back to good old Texas; let me hear my boys yell,
For this God-forsaken country is a substitute for Hell.

"PVT. ORES H. DOWNS,
"Somewhere in Iran,
"July 4, 1943."
