CIVIC CLUB WILL HOLD A CARNIVAL HALLOWE'EN

Members of the Littlefield Civic Club will sponsor a big Halloween carnival in the gymnasium of the high school building next Saturday evening. Everyone in both town and country surrounding is invited to come and partake of the festivities of the occasion.

A program of interest and entertainment has been prepared for the occasion. Mrs. Allen, of the local schools, will give a reading, Miss Grayum, of the Lubbock Tech. College, will render a solo, and Miss Lane of the Littlefield faculty, will also give a reading, while the numerous carnival attractions will lend zest, excitement and financial increment to the occasion. Mrs. Speight will preside over the candy booth; Mrs. Chas. Harless will dispense chili in warm hearted manner; Mrs. E. S. Rowe will have charge of the "Squeezlum" (guess it's spelled right) booth; Mrs. Allen will superintend the fortune telling department, while Mrs. C. E. Cooper will ring the changes on the witch's wheel, which it is understood will be run in strict accordance with the latest ordinance laid down by the City Fathers. Oh yes, Mrs. Wilbur O. Stockton, of Emerald fame, is to be co-partner with Mrs. Cooper in ringing the changes for the witches, goblins, spooks, night hawks, et al. Mrs. R. E. McCaskil, herself a mysterious womanly wizzard, will have charge of the Mystic Cavern, while Mrs. Jim Harless will dispense wierd wonderings from the Mystery Booth.

Prizes will be given the most beautiful girl and the ugliest boy, so everybody should come hoping to win something.

This carnival of disembodied spirits who do nothing more than visit the pale glimpses of the moon while astride a broomstick, is being held for the sole and laudable purpose of raising the desired kale seed to make Littlefield a better and more beautiful place in which to live. The Civic Club members are to be highly commended in their righteous and patriotic undertaking, and it is sincerely desired that they may remain civic and not have to use their club in getting the men to understand their god-give privilege in patronizing this annual institution and relinquishing their exchequer in sufficiently copious quantities to satisfy the fair ladies.

It is the opinion of most folks nowadays that Halloween is a fake and that ghosts really aint any more than "Mejums" in the ultra-spiritualistic realm, yet the occasion furnishes opportunity for one of the most patriotic motives that every bubbled up from womanly breast.

It is reported that several local citizens of the younger set have already become bewitched by some of the charming phantoms fluttering around this burg, and that they will be there to vote and vie one with another as these pulchritudinous specimens of virgin femininity float about on the cloud banks and bathe in the splendors of the mystic occasion, while the official spook manipulator fresh from the bat caves of perdition's clyseum pokes and punches these masculine homes into a frenzy of mingled grief and delight over the outcome of the competitive orgy of perfume and loveliness.

It is said that Ichabod himself will be there, still fleeing from the headless horseman of Sleepy Hollow, that the souls of the dead will scratch messages on greasy slates, that voices will be heard from across the River Styx, the rasping of lips long mute will be re-echoed as in the days of Salem witchcraft when fair damsels dared not leave their slippers pointed toward each other lest they married a bow legged man.

It will be an occasion when fancy will wait on wings of silver into realms of celestial empyreum, for all folks will be mystics that night. Fairies and brownies and sylphs and seraphims with spotted wings and stripped circingles will flit and dart hither and thither, enchanting and bewildering the most materialistic and sophistic. It will be the chance of a life time for amazement and fun, for you may never live another year longer—and the little it all costs goes to the most worthy cause—making Littlefield a better place in which to live.

Those who desire are requested to come in costume.

CORNER STONE OF BAPTIST CHURCH TO BE LAID SOON

Plans are being made this week for the corner stone laying of the new Baptist church, which will be held Sunday afternoon, at three o'clock, November 8th. Several out of town speakers will be present and the program in full will be announced in this newspaper next week.

The enlistment campaign now being put on by the Baptist church in Littlefield, under the direction of Rev. L. L. Cooper, educational and enlistment secretary, is stepping forward in aggressive strides. The various organizations of the church have now been recruited to full strength, according to Rev. Cooper. He declares he never saw any showing of finer spirit than is being manifest here. "It is true co-operation, for which Littlefield has been noted, the people having responded in a way that has been especially pleasing. The Sunday school has increased in numbers each Sunday, due to the special efforts put forth by officers and teachers. Between 25 and 30 people have been added to the teaching force, and many others have expressed a desire to take important parts if needed. This willing list of efficient workers bids fair to keep the various organizations well supplied where vacancies may arise and new work is developed, and at the present rate of growth of the church, it will soon be necessary to add more new workers." "The people of the Baptist church and their friends have undertaken to put over a big task," continued Rev. Cooper, "but they are succeeding admirably. Last Sunday morning the matter of raising funds was definitely presented to the congregation those present were furnished with contribution envelopes, and asked to make their pledges, returning same not later than next Sunday. Envelopes were also mailed out to members not present at that service."

The building of this fine new church, which is estimated will cost between $40,000 and $45,000, is a task worthy the highest endeavor of the membership, and will be a credit to the town. It is understood that $15,000 must be raised immediately when the benefits of a loan may then be secured. This amount will be raised before the cornerstone program of November 8th.

POULTRY

FORCED PULLETS ARE BEST EGG PRODUCERS

James E. Rice of the Cornell university experiment station issued a bulletin relative to the possibilities of feeding early hatched pullets during the summer by retarded or forced feeding.

By retarding is meant the idea that feeding is necessary during the late summer to check the early tendency of laying, with the hope of getting a larger egg yield in the early winter.

By forced feeding is meant the giving of a rich stimulating mash to induce egg production.

Concerning the results of his work Mr. Rice has certain findings drawn from data which are submitted below:

1. Forced pullets made a better profit than retarded pullets.
2. Forced pullets ate less food per hen at less cost per hen than retarded pullets.
3. Forced pullets produced more eggs of a larger size, at less cost per dozen than retarded pullets.
4. Forced pullets produced more eggs during early winter than retarded pullets.
5. Forced pullets have better hatching results of eggs than retarded pullets.
6. Forced pullets made a better percentage of gain in weight than retarded pullets.
7. Forced pullets showed less broodiness than retarded pullets.
8. Forced pullets had less mortality than retarded pullets.
9. Forced pullets showed better vigor than retarded pullets.
10. Forced pullets showed the first nature molt earlier than retarded pullets.
11. Retarded pullets gave better fertility of eggs than forced pullets.
12. Hopper-fed dry mash gave better results in gain of weight, production of eggs, gain in weight of eggs, hatching power of eggs, days lost in molting, mortality, health and profit per hen, than wet mash.
13. Wet mash and grain-fed pullets consumed slightly less food at less cost, and produced eggs at slightly less cost per dozen than dry mash and grain-fed pullets.
14. Wet mash and grain-fed pullets produced slightly larger eggs of slightly better fertility, and showed less broodiness than dry mash and grain-fed pullets.
15. Dry mash and grain-fed pullets laid eggs of good size at an earlier period than wet mash and grain-fed pullets.
16. Hopper-fed pullets ate more than hand-fed pullets.
17. Pullets having whole grain ate more grit and shell than those having a proportion of ground grain.
18. Pullets fed on grain were more inclined to develop bad habits than those having a mash.
19. Earliest producers did not give as many eggs in early winter.
20. Early layers gained as rapidly in weight as those beginning later to lay.
21. Prolificacy made by slight difference in weight of hen and weight of egg.
22. The most prolific pullets did not always lay earliest.

Give Pullets Best Feed and Careful Attention

"The success of the poultryman is measured very largely by the quality of the pullets with which he replenishes his flock," says Martin Decker, poultry research specialist at the New Jersey agricultural experiment station.

"Great care should be exercised to keep the pullets growing uniformly from hatching to maturity, as a check or setback will cause them to mature too late for winter laying. Development is best promoted by free range with an abundance of shade and green food.

"We feed grain and keep mash before the growing stock continually. The mash is composed of nearly the same combination as our laying mash, but the pullets tend to begin laying too early if allowed too much of it. We must figure on having the pullets come into production about the middle of October, or before cold weather sets in.

"The pullets should be transferred to winter quarters, gradually—a few at a time. Do not put on the lights until they have become accustomed to their new surroundings. Then feed the laying flock the following rations:

- Mash
- 100 lbs. wheat bran
 - 100 lbs. wheat middlings
 - 150 lbs. cornmeal
 - 100 lbs. ground oats
 - 100 lbs. meat scrap
- Grain
- 100 lbs. wheat
 - 100 lbs. cracked corn
 - 100 lbs. oats.

Hens Pasture Feeders

Hens are pasture feeders, though seldom considered such on many farms, in that they are fenced away from good pasture. J. G. Halpin of the poultry department of the University of Wisconsin says that a heavy-laying hen will not last long unless the bowels are kept in a laxative condition. Most poultry keepers find green stuff more practical than drugs. Green feed adds the necessary bulk to the ration and apparently assists in the assimilation of minerals.

Condiments and Cupid

By GRACE McKINSTRY

(© 1925, Western Newspaper Union.)

IF YOU had been in New Orleans on All Saints' day—the "silent carnival of flowers"—and had passed a red-eyed, tearful Jane Emerson in Jackson square, what would you have thought? Perhaps that she, like all the world in New Orleans (and none of the world outside) had just come from her All Saints' day visit to the cemetery.

Entirely wrong. Jane was just from Massachusetts, and knew nothing of the observance of All Saints. She had simply mistaken pepper sauce for tomato catsup.

A French restaurant with bewildering creole dishes in rich red sauces;—she had scarcely dared try them and had ordered cold roast and a salad. A glance around for the dish of pickles Boston would have offered. Well then, a little tomato catsup instead—and she tipped the good-sized bottle over her plate. After that the deluge—a deluge of water down Jane's smarting throat, and tears in Jane's eyes. She paid her bill hastily, almost ran to a sheltered bench in the square, and gave herself up to mopping her streaming eyes.

If you had seen, soon afterward, a slender, black-eyed young man striding rapidly past Jane's bench, his frown, his compressed lips, his tensely-clasped hands registering suppressed emotion, you would have said, "Poor young man, he has laid a wreath upon the tomb of Madame, his mother. His sorrow almost overcomes him."

Entirely wrong again. Vincent LeBlanc's family circle was intact. Vincent had been elsewhere. He was not merely grieved, he was perplexed, disappointed, hurt and—yes, even angry.

Not pepper sauce—he had been brought up on that! But New Orleans was responsible for his acute discomfort also, though he was holding Jane Emerson accountable.

He had known her one happy summer that he had spent "up north." Her name was austere, but she was dainty, gentle, altogether angelic. What joy, now that she had come to New Orleans for the winter! "I shall call upon you tomorrow evening—it is a legal holiday, you know, and I have leisure," he had phoned her.

In Boston, evening is evening. In New Orleans it is afternoon as well;—any time after lunch, but Jane didn't know it. So she hadn't thought of staying home to receive Vincent at three o'clock.

"No, sub, she sho' ain't leave no message," insisted the colored girl at Jane's boarding house. "Will you-all wait for Miss Emerson?"

No, Vincent wouldn't wait. He was distinctly annoyed. "It's not necessary to tell her I called," he told the maid. "I can telephone her."

Behold Vincent then, hastening through the old square. Not so fast, though, that he failed to observe Jane, weeping. Was it Jane, really? He hadn't seen her for several years—he couldn't be sure. But the sight was so disturbing that he turned around and he went home. Jane hadn't seen him, for she was dabbling her streaming eyes.

"I shall wear my light blue voile tonight when Mr. LeBlanc calls," mused Jane. She was only thinking of the evening. And after the late dinner when the thick velvet darkness of Louisiana had fallen down with its usual suddenness, she poked up the pleasant little fire in the stately parlor of her boarding house and awaited Vincent LeBlanc.

"Very well, Mr. LeBlanc, if that is all you care for your engagements," she said to herself, bitterly, as she took off the blue voile. "I've had enough of your insincere French ways." But Elsie noticed her dejection.

Elsie Atwood, her roommate—also a New England girl—was consolingly sympathetic. "Yes, but Jane, you've forgotten that today is All Saints. I understand it's really a sacred day to people in New Orleans. They spend as much of it as possible in the cemeteries. I suppose Mr. LeBlanc had to take his grandmother to some cemetery miles away (Elsie was drawing on her imagination now) and couldn't get back. Cars and trains are frightfully crowded at such times. He will come tomorrow night, I'm sure."

Jane cheered up perceptibly. And if you could have looked in upon Vincent LeBlanc at dinner that evening (real evening), you would have heard him explaining to his mother—

"N-no, I didn't find Miss Emerson at home. It was mighty strange, when I had told her I'd call. At first I was provoked. I felt almost insulted. But do you know, mother, I'm almost sure I saw her a few minutes later on a bench in Jackson square. And she was crying. Of course, I didn't make myself known. What do you suppose was the matter?"

Mrs. LeBlanc was distinctly sympathetic. "Why, today is All Saints, and she must have been overcome by remembrances of some dear one buried in a little New England graveyard." (Mrs. LeBlanc was drawing on her imagination now) "She is not an emotional girl, I know, and yet—"

Vincent cheered up perceptibly. "Better go again tomorrow, about eight o'clock in the evening," suggested Mrs. LeBlanc. "She'll be through her sightseeing and her dinner then. No doubt she'll be expecting you."

"I will," said Vincent, as he added some pepper sauce to his slice of meat.

and cities they had visited present tour that here in Littlefield there was double the activity shown by any other, in the larger cities.

Geo. H. Carter, of Marlin was accompanied by Judge Belden as a leader from Marlin, also a financier. But the Judge had acquired the Colonel had acquired this finances from other members of the party since the tour began, considering the number of banks that the party represented immediately concluded by some local citizens that the gentleman Marlin must be "pretty well off" by this time. Mr. Carter had been 33 years since he came to this country. At that time he had a lad passing through here with a bunch of cattle to the ranch. He declared we had not the desirable natural resources of the highest type of development but also that quality of citizenry with the necessary character and initiative to bring things in prompt manner. A few years, in his section of the state, were many skeptics regarding the country of West Texas, he had now their doubts had all dispelled. He explained the organization and business methods of the company he represented, how it was bringing into this new country thousands of dollars for investment, thus adding materially to the sum total of the company's funds and improvement. "We are here for the purpose of getting first impressions of this far-famed section," declared the Colonel. "Of our party have never been here before, and it is a wonderful revelation to them." (Incidentally it might be said that Judge Belden, Caskill and J. B. Scott had come up to have the Colonel assist in getting Laurance White, of Mass., and J. J. Frey, of St. Louis, to join them in a badger hunt.

Members of the party made addresses echoing the sentiment of Col. Carter, expressing their appreciation of the local hospitality and their supreme and great interest in the marvels of Littlefield.

highway will become an important link in the state system. Another state highway has been designated, leading out of Lubbock, passing through Hockley and Cochran counties, and intersecting the Del Rio highway at Emzy, New Mexico. The counties through which these two highways pass are now considering the matter of hard surfacing them in part, if not in whole. It is clearly evident, if the citizens of Lamb county fail to grasp this opportunity, not only will this $300,000.00 go for the improvement of other competing highways, but as a result, much of the traffic now passing through this county will also be diverted to the better improved roads leading in the same direction but missing this section entirely.

It is understood that the Commissioners Court of Lamb county will meet November 9th, at which time it will be presented by a sufficiently signed petition from the citizens of the county calling for an election for the purpose of meeting the state requirements in this matter.

CHRISTIANS BEGIN MEETING

Evangelist Curtis and Singer Begin Service Here Sunday

Evangelist C. C. Curtis, of Fort Worth, with his singer, who are working under the direction of the Texas Christian Missionary Society, have been secured to lead in a revival with the First Christian church to begin here Sunday.

Through the courtesy and brotherliness of the Presbyterian church their building has been secured for the meeting.

Evangelist Curtis is reported to be a great preacher, a fine singer himself and a real man among men. He came to Texas from the Pacific Northwest, where he did a great work both in the Evangelistic field and in some of the large pulpits. His work in Texas has been very successful. He is Biblical in his preaching, exalting Christ, condemning sin, pleading for righteousness and always courteous to all.

All people are urged to plan now to hear him and help in the meeting.

DUCK HUNTING IS GOOD

Citizens of This Vicinity Take Advantage of Game Season

Numerous citizens of Littlefield and surrounding vicinity are now taking advantage of the opening game season to change their bill of table fare, and every day now, some one or more come in from the fields with trophies of the hunt. On account of the fine fall rains of this section the surrounding lakes are full of water while their placid bosoms are dotted here and there with numerous bunches of wild ducks and some geese. Several covays of mallards are reported and very tame.

Scattered here and there with numerous bunches of wild ducks and some geese. Several covays of mallards are reported and very tame.

It is thought that the large grain crop that is now maturing in this section is perhaps the cause of so much wild game tarrying in this vicinity on its southward journey.

Automobiles For All Purposes And All Wishes

In introducing our line of cars to the buying public of Littlefield and vicinity, it has been the purpose of the Crockett-Blair Motor Co., to place here a variety of makes and models of the highest order and that will meet the desires of every car-buyer.

Our line of Chrysler cars challenges competition both as to quality, workmanship, power, speed and endurance. We have them in both four and six-cylinder types, and in snappy roadsters, handsome coupes and superb sedans. For the person desiring a car of this class there is nothing can be bought any ways near for the money where so much real satisfaction and value is received.

For those desiring a somewhat cheaper all-purpose car, we have the agency for the "Star." A fresh carload of them has been received this week. For the money invested there is no car on the market that begins to compare with the Star. Cheaper than the Chrysler to be sure, but chock full of value, and containing more refinements and conveniences than any other car of its class on the market today.

IT DOES NOT COST A SINGLE CENT TO LOOK

And our auto parlors are open every day for your convenience. We invite you to call and see our line of cars, let us explain to you the merits of each, give you a demonstration, then you be the judge of comparative values of our lines with others represented in this section.

We also handle International trucks—standard the world over.

CAMPAIGN IS ON FOR DRIVING SAFETY

For National Automobile Driving Signals

Traffic experts in all parts of the United States are virtually agreed that a "National Code" of driving signals must be adopted and schooled into drivers of automobiles.

The reason for this is that the sale of automobiles each year is far outstripping the development of new roads; the congestion is becoming worse and worse; and the increase in the number of accidents is growing at an alarming rate. This, too, despite the fact that the automobile is becoming so common that virtually every driver is a good driver.

In some cities and some states speed limits have been raised in the effort to "get traffic out of the way." This seems to be practical—and would be more so were all drivers operating their cars under a national code of signals—so that all drivers would know at all times just what other drivers were going to do.

There is now a movement on to this end. Collier's, The National Weekly, has taken the lead in the movement and in its issue of August 1, presents and recommends four simple signals—which if adopted nationally—and used by drivers everywhere would insure comparative safety and permit drivers to operate their cars with a feeling of confidence.

The editor of Collier's has gone to

Illustrated Above

- 1 Turning left corner—in plenty of time thrust out your arm with index finger extended and point to left.
- 2 Turning right corner—raise your forearm from the elbow and plainly point the index finger to right.
- 3 "Pass me"—thrusts out hand and wave it with forward motion. Be sure to sound horn when passing from rear.
- 4 Stopping or backing—thrust out hand with palm forward and hold that way. Look around before backing.

no less person than Tommy Milton, the world's fastest automobile driver, for facts about handling the car—and suggestions for the simplest and best signals for general driving.

"Carelessness kills, not speed"—says Milton, who is in full accord with the idea that a national code should be adopted.

"Of course there is a limit to speed," continues Milton, and this applies to racing as well. At 100 to 110 miles an hour any racing driver can handle his car on a decent track

—even if he does have a blowout. At 130 to 135 miles an hour he's almost helpless."

"In general driving it isn't speed—so much as recklessness that kills. When America, the first nation that took to wheels, learns the "inside" of driving—we will all know as an axiom, that it is not necessarily the fast driver, but the selfish, reckless or ignorant driver that kills."

Then Milton suggested, and demonstrated, four simple driving signals—as illustrated here.

"Signal in plenty of time," says Milton, "Don't flop out a lazy hand at the last moment. Remember—you are trying to tell somebody behind you that there is danger ahead. Your signal is just as important and just as life-saving as a railroad semaphore signal. On your lazy-minded days—when your brain—your arms—and hand feel floppy and flabby—DON'T DRIVE. The time will come that lazy-minded and floppy-armed signalers will have their license and perhaps their cars taken away from them."

The Collier's Motoring Signals—illustrated with photographs, have been made into large posters for display in garages and filling stations. There are smaller prints to be carried in the pocket or pasted on the windshield.

"PAY YOUR BILLS PROMPTLY"

"Pay your bills promptly" is a national movement to emphasize the importance of paying charge accounts promptly. Prompt payments speed prosperity—from consumer to merchant—from merchant to manufacturer—thence to producers and workers of the raw materials.

Credit is the faith man has in the integrity of his fellow man. The way you pay your bills and meet your obligations is known by the merchants of your town, and of course determines the amount of credit you are able to obtain. You never know when you are going to need credit more than anything else in the world so it behooves you to meet all obligations promptly or make satisfactory arrangements with your creditor. He credits you in good faith. Are you going to betray that trust? Men who for one moment wouldn't hazard their gold, hazard their credit, when credit even buys gold. Therefore credit is more valuable than gold. Men who would hold up their hand in horror at the thought of stealing Gold steal CREDIT in so doing they help to undermine the very fabric upon which the industry of the world has grown—"the faith man has in the integrity of his fellow man."

Each individual can be measured on a credit basis. Each carries a plus or minus sign—each is born into the world with an equal call on credit. It is withheld from none, but open to all. It is merely a matter of integrity linked with a determination to be honest.

CONGRESS WILL WIELD AXE IN CUTTING TAXES

Congress appears to be ready to reach out for all the political glory possible in reduced taxes. The Coolidge administration will have its hands full restraining congress from making too great a cut in government revenues.

That's the outlook as the way and means committee prepares for its sessions next week to consider a new revenue bill. Secretary Mellon of the treasury department will not lay down a bill as in previous years but will "aid and advise" which means that he will be kept on the alert preventing extreme cuts in revenue. So he is starting out conservatively with a prediction that the government revenues will not stand more than a $250,000,000 cut.

But the republican leaders have gone higher than that in their estimates of what could be cut and the public has been educated to believe something around $400,000,000 is not an impossible figure.

When the time comes, congress will write a bill that calls for at least $350,000,000 reduction in taxes if not more and then it will be a battle of statistics and estimates between the treasury department and congress as to the practicability of the plan. Already the democrats and western republicans are doing in on the administration supporters from the east with broad hints that smaller incomes will have to receive the benefits of the cut.

Representative Garner of Texas democrat, who is the best posted man in his party in the house on taxes is talking of exempting everybody with a $4,000 income and married men with $5,000 incomes. This will be vehemently opposed by the administration on the ground that too many people would be relieved altogether of the obligations of citizenship.

Small sums from 3,000,000 persons however negligible are considered better for the cause of good government than exemptions for the many and tax burdens on the few. Politically such an argument is not so powerful especially as the congressional elections are coming on soon and more voters would be inclined to express gratitude for being totally exempted than for a cut which they will be asked to believe could have been made to reach the vanishing point.

It would cost about $100,000,000 to exempt the persons in the classes referred to Mr. Garner and that's why he would add to the $250,000,000 admitted by Secretary Mellon as a basis for cutting. Even if revenues do shrink whenever there is a tax cut the democrats are getting ready to argue that it isn't necessary to make such large annual payments on the war debt and that it should be spread over sixty two years as is being done with the foreign debtor.

More per Cow Rather than More Cows Says U. S. Bureau Chief

Dr. C. W. Larson keeps track of milk cows on farms of the country, and how much milk they give.

In a Chicago address, recently, Dr. C. W. Larson, Chief of the United States Bureau of Dairying, made a plea for greater production per cow rather than an increase in the number of cows.

The average cow in the United States yields annually only about 4,000 pounds of milk of which 2.7% is butterfat.

Careful breeding and elimination by test in the milk herd makes an increase to 8,000 pounds of milk annually per cow not impossible with the average dairyman. This would net the milk produced $75.00 above feed cost per cow as compared with the present average of only $26.00.

Membership in a cow-testing association and the maintenance of herd records are extremely desirable. The system of records should at least include an identification rec-

COUNCIL MEET OF COMMUNITY CLUBS HELD MONDAY

A general council meeting of the various community clubs over the county was held here Monday afternoon, at the office of Miss Ezra Grimes, county home demonstration agent.

Representatives from a number of clubs were in attendance and a splendid session was held, wherein a program for the entire year of 1926 was completed and committees were appointed to solicit advertisements from all the towns in Lamb county to defray the expense of having the year books printed.

The purpose of the year book is to enable each woman belonging to the club to have a complete outline of the work in case she should miss a meeting.

At the last regular meeting of the Spring Lake club a millinery lesson was taught, with Miss Grimes in charge, and eight hats were made over, one new hat completed and a number begun. Hat patterns and foundation patterns were studied and cut, also various means of trimming making over trimming and flowers.

Their next regular meeting will be held next Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock at which time a lesson in Christmas gifts will be taught, and a special meeting will be held next Monday for a canning demonstration at the home of Mrs. Priddy at that place.

TO BROADCAST FORMULA

At last the "cat is to be let out of the bag". Gus Shaw, Littlefield's well known barbecue chef, has finally succumbed to the wooing of the world and will reveal the hidden secrets of the formula which has made Littlefield renoun to her myriad guests during chicken festivities.

Three years ago, according to report, the said G. M. Shaw in company with one P. W. Walker, set about to prepare a formula that would be ultra-attractive to all epicurians. That they succeeded eminently there is no doubt, for multiplied hundreds will attest the fact that they never sunk their molars into more deliciously flavored chicken than that which was roasted over the local pits and basted with the mysterious concoction of their pharmaceutical skill.

Tuesday Shaw left for the eastern markets, stopping that night in Fort Worth at the Star-Telegram office where he broadcasted to the world the wonderful recipe which has been so carefully guarded these years gone by. No doubt now, the infringements will be great and plenty; but Littlefield has a new wrinkle up her sleeve, and while the rest of the world eats barbecue chix a la Lfd style, we will be entertaining our guests with another course the name of which this newspaper is not yet permitted to divulge; but that it smacks of the flavor of celestial nectar permeating the food on which angelic beings repast, all will agree—when the time comes for them to sit down as our guests on some local occasion.

You Have Heard of Our

Crop Payment Plan

This Plan Is Sweeping the Country
It Is the Safest and the Best

This Plan Provides a Way to Make "Your Dreams" Come True

The New 18,000 acre subdivision of Enochs lands gives you another chance to acquire a home by this most unusual plan.

This 18,000 acre subdivision is the last of Enochs lands, and will likely be your last opportunity to own a home on our crop payment plan, so you must act quick.

More Than One-Half Million Dollars Worth of Land Sold to Real Dirt Farmers Is Our Sales Record for One Month

With our crop payment plan yet in effect you still have the same opportunity given those who bought the above one-half Million Dollars worth of land within a thirty day period.

In this last subdivision we have some farms which contain both agricultural and grazing lands at very attractive prices ranging from $7.50 per acre up.

In this crop payment plan you are required to make only a small cash-down payment, which is one-sixth the total purchase price. For example:

160 acres of land $30.00 per acre amounts to $800.00 down
160 acres of land $22.50 per acre amounts to $600.00 down
160 acres of land $15.00 per acre amounts to $400.00 down
160 acres of land $ 7.50 per acre amounts to $200.00 down

Some of the tracts contain 177 acres or more, and the cash-down payment is in proportion to the size and price of the farm.

The crop payment feature of our plan gives a period of 20 years, if necessary, within which to pay for your home

After making the cash-down payment as shown above, you apply one-third and one-fourth of your crops each year on the interest and principal due us until your home is paid for in full.

Improvements: None required.

You must act at once if you are going to buy land on our crop payment plan. Don't wait to finish gathering your crop before coming to buy. If you don't have the full cash-down payment come on just the same and make your selection, and we can arrange to take care of the cash-down payment to suit your convenience. Come in and let one of OUR OWN REPRESENTATIVES explain our plan to you.

The Blalock Company

LITTLEFIELD, TEXAS

NOTICE: If for any reason small annual payments are preferred instead of crop payments you may buy under contract, paying one-sixth of purchase price in cash.—Make two crops, then pay the balance due us, $1.00 per acre annually, beginning January 1st, 1928.

PANHANDLE, SOUTH PLAINS AND WEST TEXAS COUNTIES LEAD IN THE PRIZE AGRICULTURAL EXHIBITS AT DALLAS

Scoring 928.85 out of a possible 1,000 points, Harrison county was adjudged winner of the first place in the county agricultural exhibits at the state fair of Texas, held at Dallas following the official tabulation of the score sheets Wednesday night. In addition to the distinction of being adjudged the best county exhibit of the 1925 showing, the Harrison county display will receive the $350 cash prize that was hung up for the winner of the first place.

Garza county won second place with a score of 915.35 points.

Hartley county came in for third place with a score of 910.43 points and Dallam county won fourth place with 909.43 points. The close race between Hartley and Dallam counties was given added interest by reason of the fact that these two panhandle counties are adjoining counties and the exhibits of both stressed the land colonization movement that is being urged by these two largely in a co-operative way.

Smith County Fifth
 Smith county with a score of 904.5 points won fifth place, while Gray county with 904 points, only one-half point less than Smith county, won sixth place.

Of the first five prize winners the first and fifth—Harrison and Smith—are east Texas counties, while the other three, winners, of second, third and fourth places, are panhandle and south plains counties. Garza winner of second place, is a south plains county, while Hartley and Dallam, winner of third and fourth places, respectively, are panhandle counties.

Panhandle Leads
 As winner of second place, Garza county will receive cash award of $300, Hartley county with third place $285, Dallam county with fourth place $260 and Smith county with fifth place $245.

Other prize winners were: Gray, sixth place, $215. Randal, seventh place, $215.

Hale (winner of first place in 1924), eighth place, $200. Haskell county, ninth place, $190. Deaf Smith, 10th place, $180. Anderson, 11th place, $170. Gregg, 12th place, $160. Floyd, 13th place, $150. Hemphill, 14th place, $140. Henderson, 15th place, $130. Dawson, 16th place, $120. Briscoe, (first appearance as exhibitor), 17th place, $110. Eastland, 18th place, $100.

Of these counties which won the first 18 places, panhandle counties lead in number, with seven, these being Hartley, Dallam, Gray, Randall, Deaf Smith, Hemphill and Briscoe. East Texas counties are next in number with five, these being Harrison, Smith, Anderson, Gregg and Henderson.

South plains counties in the first 18 prize-winning counties number four, these being Garza, Hale, Floyd and Dawson.

West Texas counties in the first 18 prize winners number two, being Haskell and Eastland.

Other counties beside those mentioned that came in for prize money are as follows: Wood, Carson, Crosby, Brown, Howard, Lubbock, Collin, Cass, Hill, Bowie, Franklin, Angelina, Lamb, Cherokee, Lynn, Midland, Nolan and Zavalla.

All the latter counties received cash awards of $50 each, the exhibits shown being of such high quality that none was barred from money awards.

The official tabulations shows that 36 county exhibits, all of which were in the money award class.

"Bids were also invited by advertisement and proposals were submitted for three types—the Ford, Star and CHEVROLET. The highest bid was accepted for the purchase of the CHEVROLET, and Judge Ginn, in passing on the disbursement of public funds involved, said in a decision of May 23 last:

"There was advertising (required by law) and the question is whether the Star, Ford or CHEVROLET touring cars are equally adapted to the needs of the Umatilla Indian agencies; that is, which of the three makes of automobile is the best—and if the CHEVROLET, whether it is worth $170 more than the cheaper of the other two makes. The direction to the superintendent must be accepted as a determination by the Secretary of the Interior that the CHEVROLET would best serve the interest of the Indian agency, and there appears no reason to now question that determination in view of the advantages to be found in the CHEVROLET car for the service required."—Army and Navy Journal, August 8.

Ellwood Farms

In Lamb County on the South Plains of Texas

—Fifty thousand acres being surveyed into 160 acre farms, 20,000 acres of which are now available for immediate sale and settlement.

—All fine Cat-Claw land, lies rich and level in a well proven agricultural section, where climate is ideal, water pure and abundant, rainfall sufficient and diversified crops assured annually.

—The first subdivision of this well known ranch, consisting of 45,000 acres, was thrown open for settlement October 6th, last year, and by the first of the following January was practically all sold out. This second subdivision is the same kind of land, just as favorably located, and will be sold as quickly.

RESERVATIONS NOW BEING MADE

—This land is being sold at the very reasonable price of $35.00 per acre; $5.00 per acre cash payment, balance due in fifteen years—fourteen years at $1.00 per acre, and last payment of $18.00 per acre due the fifteenth year—six per cent interest on deferred payments.
—In this proven new agricultural country that is now attracting such wide attention, a man with small means can easily buy and pay for a home. After the first payment is made, the annual crops received from off the land insure all future obligations. There is no reason for anyone being a hireling to some landlord when a home of their own may be secured so easily.

As the Editor Sees It

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint.—Isaiah 40: 30, 31.

Man, by living wholly in submission to the Divine Influences, becomes surrounded with and creates for himself internal pleasures infinitely greater than any he can otherwise attain to—a state of heavenly beatitude.—J. P. Greaves.

THE GAME HOG

The hunting season is now open, hardware stores are advertising and selling rifles, shotguns and ammunition in large quantities, and the game hog will soon be in his element.

We believe that as a rule Littlefield men who go hunting stick close to the law, and we do not believe they will kill just to see how much game they can slaughter. But this is not true everywhere, and that is why it is getting harder and harder for the hunters of this country to enjoy a good day's sport.

The right kind of hunter does not shoot a bird and animals whose killing is prohibited by law. He also respects the limitations placed on the number that may be legally shot. The game hogs does neither. He shoots birds and animals in excessive numbers and kills game that is supposed to be protected by law. Good sportsmen have contempt for the game hog but too often they maintain silence and as a result the game laws are not enforced as strictly as they should be.

If our good sensible hunters would take to reporting the game hogs it would go far toward restoring good hunting throughout the various states, and would bring the sport back to something like it used to be. At the rate we have been going—letting the game hog slaughter unlawfully without fear of prosecution—the next generation will find that hunting has become a lost art, and they will have anything but pleasant words for us, because we could have stopped the nefarious work of the game hog but didn't.

NEWSPAPER ETHICS

Seldom a week goes by but some one asks regarding some news story they happen to know about, but which is not generally known to the public at large, and that person wants to know why it is not published. There is always a reason for it, and that reason generally is the simple fact that the story is not ready for publication. If anyone knows about it, it is generally because a leak in someone's confidence.

Of course it is the business of a newspaper to publish news, rather than to suppress it, and every newspaper wants news while it is news. On the other hand, there are times when it is proper to withhold certain news items for later issues. Sometimes the giving publicity to news items may hamper certain business deals, embarrass parties interested in them, or perhaps, interfere with the deal entirely. On such occasions, if the editor is advised, he will generally respect the wishes of the participating parties and withhold the story until the proper time for its publication. This is done as a matter of good business, and not for any reasons of partiality.

Every newspaper editor has the utmost respect for his sources of information. No reputable editor will betray that trust, and about the best way to temporarily withhold a story from a newspaper is to tell the editor all about it.

I'LL SAY HE WAS

"All men are created free and equal"—who ever said that was a bachelor.

FREAK ADVERTISING

Never a week goes by in Littlefield but the business men of this town are confronted by some form of questionable advertising. Hotel menus, restaurant room cards, road group signs, placard advertising of various kinds wherein the promoter puts over his idea and reaps a handsome graft, and various other sorts too numerous to mention, fall to the fate of new towns. Most of it is of small value, some of it none whatever to the advertiser, and all of it could be accomplished in better and more productive manner.

Many of the South Plains towns have been so overrun with this kind of graft that their chambers of commerce have appointed committees whose duty it is to pass on all transient advertising schemes before they are sanctioned, the business men gladly abiding by the decision of the committee. These committees have meant much saving to the business interests of these towns. Such a committee functioning in the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce would doubtless be of great value.

ANY AROUND HERE?

We notice where a North Carolina girl has a perfect score to show for the full 12 years of her schooling. In all that time she has never been absent for a single session, nor has she been tardy, and she ranked considerably better than the average in every study.

As we read it we wondered if there is any boy or girl around Littlefield who can equal or approach her record. It would be interesting to both old and young in this country, to know just what school child can hand up the best record for attendance.

We would be glad to have our boys and girls look over their report cards and figure up their attendance, and then, if that attendance seems unusual we would like to have them write and tell us about it.

We throw the contest open to the entire county, and any boy or girl who has a long attendance without a break is invited to submit their figures.

OLD KING COTTON

A half-dozen foreign countries are trying hard to snatch Uncle Sam's title as the king of cotton growers, but it doesn't seem possible.

Last year America produced 13,619,000 of the world's 24,700,000 bales of cotton, and this season, it is declared, the crop production will be similar.

This year an immense cotton producing empire is being opened on the South Plains, multiplied thousands of acres yielding the fleecy staple for the first time. Conditions for growing it here are as near ideal as may be found anywhere in the south or southwest. Here the boll weevil is unknown, here it does not have to be chopped out, here the growth goes into lint instead of stalk, consequently the production is cheaper and more certain. The sound of the cotton gin whistles at this time of the year is the most delightful music one can hear.

DUMB DAN SAYS

"I ain't agoin' to shiver again this winter. My new two pants suit keeps me just twice as warm."

RADIO ON THE FARM

Uncle Sam has taken a census of the radio owners of the country, and finds that nine per cent of our farms boast of radio sets.

He says 550,000 farmers own sets, and that more than half of the total is concentrated in six states, mostly lying in what we know as the "corn belt". Illinois leads with 46,000 radio sets on farms; New York is second with 39,000; Iowa has 38,000; Missouri, 37,000; Kansas 35,000; Nebraska, 34,000. Today the progressive and prosperous farmer is in close touch with the outside world through his radio set, and he counts it a blessing and an investment instead of a luxury.

He farms better when he knows what is going on around him; he is in closer touch with his country's problems, and with weather and market conditions. Texas now has thousands of radios, and in this new country of the South Plains there are thousands already installed and giving service. Drive out in any direction from Littlefield and the aerials may be seen swinging over the farm houses. There are agencies now in Littlefield selling reputable sets of this kind, and it will not be very long we believe before they will be as common in the country as telephones now are.

THEIR FALL DRIVE

If the Littlefield business men will do a little looking around the local post office they will observe a big lot of third-class mail coming into this section. That means that the mail-order houses are at the height of their fall and winter campaign.

From now on until after the first of the year they will be flooding the mails with catalogues and tempting "pay-nothing-down" offers, and there is but one way to meet such competition—through the advertising columns of your home-town paper.

The home paper goes to the same people these catalogues go to, so why not give them a chance to read your message, too? Tell them how fully you can meet their wants, how you are right here to make good if they are not fully satisfied. Some of the business men are doing it, and they tell us they are getting the desired results. Mail order houses can not possibly exist without advertising, so advertising must be the best thing to fight back with.

MORE POULTRY NEEDED

Several thousand baby chicks and numerous settings of pure bred hen eggs were shipped into Littlefield last summer, but still there is great need for many more. At the present time the local production is not sufficient to meet local demands. A "fryer" simply cannot be purchased in Littlefield, while eggs are being shipped in by the case weekly.

In addition to having a cow or two and a sow or two, every farm in the Littlefield community ought also to have a hundred or so hens. They furnish one of the nicest side lines possible, add much toward paying for the family needs and assist materially in conserving the family bank account.

SIDEWALKS NEEDED

With the coming of the fall months there also comes the indications of plenty of rain and snow for the winter time.

Littlefield, while making rapid strides in many ways, has been slow in building sidewalks. These will be greatly needed this winter. Wading thru mud and slush in winter time is anything but pleasant. A sidewalk to the school center should be built immediately; there are still sections on Main street where walks are badly needed, and throughout the residence portion there are very few homes that have walks in front of them.

A sidewalk campaign is next in order, and should be launched without delay.

About Your Health

Things You Should Know

by John Joseph Caines, M. D.

Danger in 6 O'clock Dinners

In this letter, I would like to record some observations gleaned from many years of first-hand experience. Suppose I meet with one hundred men, all over sixty years of age, and find them without exception, capable, busy, and happy. What more natural thing, than to inquire how these men attained such magnificent power. They must have lived right, for penalties are sure if men live wrong. Here are the outstanding facts: They are all breakfast-eaters. Not one of them indulges in six-o'clock dinners! A gentleman of one hundred and one years, told me he never started the night on a full stomach—his warning was "he couldn't sleep after a full supper." A lady of ninety-two informed me that breakfast was her best meal, and that the harder she worked, the less she ate at night. At my interview, she was alert, steady-nerved, keen of hearing, and looked a woman of fifty.

On the other hand, suppose I am consulted by a hundred men, aged from forty-five to sixty, all with dangerous symptoms and compelled to "lay off business." Every man with high blood-pressure, many with hopelessly damaged kidneys, some with paralysis, most of them city dwellers, all of them overweight, all of them stricken down "in the harness." Dietary about like this: A hurried cup of coffee and a splash of cereal for breakfast ere the car for the office; a busy forenoon, and lunch down-town; A "hot dog" or a pie-counter abomination; a heavy afternoon's mental toil; a dinner beyond competition in all that the land affords. To bed at midnight, or later—up at nine o'clock next morning,—and repeat. These men never reach eighty. We may draw our own conclusions.

Next week—Tubercular germs are not inherited.

PAVEMENT PICKUPS

"Another thing about cooler weather," says Jimmie Beebe, "is that five toes in one shoe don't seem as many as in the summer time."

Bob Smith says it looks like some folks were trying to wear their Fords, judging from the way they run out of gas on the highways.

"Any man with money to burn", declares Wade Potter, "can always find some fellow who is anxious to loan him a match."

"Judging from appearances," asserts a Littlefield citizen whose name we dare not quote, "many a shingled head of hair covers an empty garret."

"I never thought I'd live to see the day," says E. L. Maxey, "when nothing could make a man madder than to be told that his wife can drive an auto better than he can."

feeling is to get away out on the prairie where one don't have to dodge

"Some people are so certain salvation is free," said the Sudan preacher at the Methodist church last Sunday night, "that they often forget to put anything in the contribution box."

Buleson-Mason have introduced an innovation in the furniture line, a "can of salmon" goes free with every kitchen cabinet purchased. Ask "Burlley" about it, he will be tickled to death to elucidate the subject.

"It's my opinion," says Max McClure, "that most wives would think more of evolution if it taught men how not to be monkeys instead of that they descended from 'em."

We heard a stranger remark on the street the other day, that nobody can have darker days than the fellow who marries a light-headed woman. If we "got him" correctly, that applies to both blonds and brunettes.

Another trouble with life," assets the Secretary of the local Retail Merchants Association, "is that too many men are worrying about what the world owes them instead of what they owe the world."

J. W. Horn says if the fellows contend the world is flat, really want to see something that is flat, just let them wait about six weeks and take a look at Dad's pocketbook after the family has got through buying Christmas presents.

LITTLE LEADERS

Littlefield people should do their Christmas thinking early and avoid the rush.

One way for a Littlefield man to keep a stiff upper lip is not to exercise it too freely.

Maybe the reason some Littlefield people don't use their own advice is because they give it all away to other people.

About the biggest fib a Littlefield woman can tell is when she says she doesn't care what the neighbors say or think about her.

Fishing stories are now being crowded out to make room for the stories about the largest number of cotton bolls per stalk.

Some Littlefield girls took as they had fallen into the flour barrel, the few of them ever get that close to the kitchen.

WEST TEXAS NEWS

Throckmorton—Survey of the proposed new Post-Fort Worth line of the Santa Fe is progressing rapidly. Three gangs are pushing the work and at the rate the work is moving the gang should be in Fort Worth within a fortnight. One of the gangs which ran a line from Double Mountain formed a liaison here with the other two gangs indicating that the line might run direct from Haskell here. No public announcement of the Santa Fe policy will be made until the action of the Interstate Commerce Commission on the Denver case has been taken.

Drady—Abolition of meter rents and material reduction in water and light rates have been announced by the City Water Board. Water rates receive a flat fifty cent per 1000 gallons cut while light rates are designed to benefit large users of electricity.

Amarillo—The Southwest is growing better according to Judge Wilson. The extremely light criminal docket of the United States District Court reflects the prosperity of the Southwest and crime has all but disappeared. Good crops and plenty of work for all labor is the answer.

Brownwood—The Brownwood Bulletin popular central Texas daily newspaper celebrated its twenty-fifth birthday with a special edition. The Bulletin was founded October 15, 1900. Harry Schermer printer who started with the newspaper is still on the job. Hervey Mayes original business manager retains his former position.

Austin—A deficiency appropriation totalling $58,180 has been granted to Texas Tech by Governor Ferguson. The money is to be used to pay instructors salaries and defray the general expense of the year.

Tahoka—This city has decided by election to sell the municipally owned light and ice plant to the Mutual Light & Power Co., of Amarillo. The consideration is approximately $66,000 and the new owners will take charge about Nov. 1.

Slaton—The City Commission has called an election for Nov. 17 to pass on a proposed $100,000 paving program here. The Slaton Public Square will be the first unit paved.

Snyder—The R. S. & P. Railway here is erecting a modern depot adequate to take care of Snyder and the city's needs. This City is making great strides in civic progress and the new station is necessary in order to keep pace with the growth of the city.

COWMAN REGRETS RANGE PASSING

Pool Earnest, manager of the Scrape Out headquarters of the Slaughter ranch near Bledsoe, the terminus town of the Doud line of the Santa Fe, spent yesterday looking business in Lubbock.

Earnest stated that range conditions are better along the Texas-New Mexico line at this time than has been the case during the past 20 years, and pointed out that these favorable conditions will be valuable to cattlemen who have been compelled to place their herds on much smaller acreage since development of that territory by farms two years ago.

"Of course the farmers are taking the country at a fast rate, but we cattlemen have not been run entirely out of West Texas yet, in fact, some traces of the cattle industry will remain on these plains for many years yet," Earnest said.

Earnest is one of the pioneers in the cattle business on the plains. He started "herdin' em" at a very early age, in fact, his coming to the plains predates the fencing of the range and it is with a tone of some regret at the rapidity with which the thundering herds are passing out of view in West Texas that he speaks of those good old days when cattle barons were the principal monarchs of the range and when cotton farming was looked upon with distaste by the ranchmen, whose only knowledge of that phase of farming was gained through accounts of farming brought here by adventure seekers from the eastern part of the state.

The Scrape Out headquarters of the Slaughter ranch are so near the new town of Bledsoe, that farms will occupy its pastures before many months, and the straggling herds of white face cattle will of necessity be shipped to markets.—Lubbock Avalanche.

The regret of Earnest is not only serious but pitiful. A few months ago his wife and daughter came to Littlefield and opened up a very prosperous business here. Pool occasionally tears himself away from the "doggies" long enough to pay them a few hours visit, he has made considerable investments in property here and, doubtless it is a matter of time until he will be rearing a delightful mansion here for the reunion of his family, tho he will probably always wear his boots and never forget the jingle of spur-music.

Notice to Farmers

Due to the extreme and unwarranted publicity given the grain crop in the Panhandle this season, the maize head market has gone all to pieces. We suggest that you stack your heads, which will brighten them, and thresh all heads that are not perfectly sound and mature.

A bushel of Red Maize, which is fifty pounds, is bringing five cents per bushel more money than the Iowa corn farmer is getting for a bushel (56 lbs.) of shelled corn.

The farmers in the dry area are going to need our heads badly before the next crop goes into the ground.

AMERICAN YOUTH SCORES ONE WHEN PRESIDENT CHOOSES McNIDER FOR AN ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF WAR DEPT.

"He may be the baby of the President's little family, but we at least now have a man helping direct the War Department who has smelled gunpowder and knows what it is all about." So remarked a grizzled regular army sargeant stationed at the barracks here, relative to the appointment of Colonel Hanford MacNider of Iowa as the new assistant Secretary of War.

Summed up, that frank expression of the veteran just about indicates the national satisfaction in the appointment of the youthful and unmarried Iowan to his important post.

The resignation of Secretary of War Weeks, long anticipated, brought about a quick change in President Coolidge's Cabinet, the under-secretary, Dwight F. Davis taking up Weeks' folio as secretary, and the naming by the President of MacNider as Assistant Secretary. The latter is already in Washington, sworn in and busy on his new job.

Youngest in "Little Cabinet"
Colonel MacNider was born at Mason City, Iowa, Oct. 2, 1889, so almost to the day on his 36th birthday he assumed his new duties. He is the youngest man ever to hold this important War Department post and also the youngest member of "the President's little family"—as the under-secretary group of all department heads are known.

Colonel MacNider did not receive his spurs through other than a path of fire and personal achievement. His record since 1917 has been a steady climb upward, promotion and new responsibilities falling to his lot with each new achievement.

Graduated from Harvard in his early twenties he took up banking in Iowa and was making a name for himself when the United States started some military activities in Mexico—aimed principally at the capture of Villa.

His Test of Fire.
MacNider, a first lieutenant in the Iowa National Guard was sent to the border. In 1917 he was appointed second lieutenant in the A. E. F. and real action started for him. For six months he was military instructor in large training camps here at home, then came the order for over-seas duty.

At Chateau Thierry, St. Mihiel, the Meuse and in the Argonne he was with the American troops in the thick of these desperate and decisive battles. Then he went with the American army of occupation to Germany. He accounted for himself so well that he came out of the army in 1919 with the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel. On his breast was pinned the Distinguished Service Cross, Chevalier Legion of Honor, and the Croix de Guerre.

Out of service and back into the banking business he did not lose interest in his buddies. He helped organize the American Legion—and in 1922 was elected National Command-er.

Legion is Elated
Colonel MacNider was originally recommended for this new post by Senator Cummins of Iowa. His appointment by President Coolidge has been received with great satisfaction by officers and members of the American Legion. They feel that in this selection from their organization for such an important post, they at least have been fully recognized.

War Secretary Davis has already announced that there will be a change in policy of conducting the Department. He has said that Assistant-Secretary MacNider will have active charge of the military, leaving him free to devote his time to the bigger problems of national defense.

The War Department is now in the hands of two mid-westerners. Secretary Davis is from Missouri—and MacNider from Iowa.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE BLEDSOE DISTRICT BY THE Whicker Land Company

1. Where is the Bledsoe district?
The Bledsoe district embraces a large area of good agricultural cat-claw land located in the central west portion of Cochran County.

2. Where is Bledsoe?
Bledsoe is the terminus of the Santa Fe Railroad running west from Lubbock. It is a beautiful town site and is from ¼ to 7 miles distant from the Whicker Land Co., holdings.

3. What is the nature of the soil?
The soil is very rich. It is from 3 to 6 feet deep, and varies from a chocolate color to a red sandy loam, with a clay subsoil. There is just enough sand in this loam to scour a plow. There are absolutely no rocks or gravel.

4. What is the altitude of the Bledsoe district?
It averages about 3300 feet above sea level.

5. Is it hot there in summer?
No. According to Government statistics the AVERAGE TEMPERATURE through a period of ten years for June is 72 degrees; July 79.1 degrees; August 76.4 degrees. There is no humidity and the sensible temperature is less than the thermometer indicates. In this thin atmosphere the summer nights are always cool and invigorating, cover being necessary for comfortable sleeping.

6. Are your winters long or severe?
For this altitude the winters are exceptionally short. They may be considered mild, since a winter seldom contains more than 48 hours altogether, of weather as cold as 10 degrees above zero. The thermometer rarely reaches zero, and then only for a few hours. There is occasionally some snow, but it has never covered the ground more than a day or so that stock could not graze.

7. What is the length of your growing season?
Six to eight months.

8. Is your section generally healthful?
Remarkably so. But few sections of the country have as low a death rate. The sanitary conditions are such that there is practically no danger of any epidemic.

9. Do you have malaria, tuberculosis or asthma?
The only cases are those which have come here from some other locality to be cured, and they are usually successful.

10. Do you ever have cyclones in the Bledsoe district?
Not within the memory of the oldest inhabitants.

11. What are the disadvantages of this country, if any?
The only one that could be found is perhaps 10 to 15 windy days in February, March and April, when the wind blows sufficiently hard to make it disagreeable to work in the fields. With over 325 sunshiny days every year this small discomfort amounts to nothing.

12. What is your rainfall, and when does it come?
Twenty-two inches per annum for a period of the last 25 years. Most of the rain comes between April and October, during the growing season.

13. What is the depth of your water?
One hundred and fifty to two hundred and forty feet.

14. Is there any alkali in the soil or water?
None.

15. Have you good drinking water?
The water both from the shallow wells operated by windmills and the deeper wells is approximately 90 per cent pure. It is soft, cold and practically the same as rain-water.

16. Can fruit be raised on your land, and what varieties?

This section is ideal for fruit growing. Practically all the leading commercial varieties of apples, peaches, plums, pears, pecans, cherries, berries, grapes, prunes and apricots flourish here.

17. Do vegetables do well there, and if so, what kinds?
Experienced truck growers get almost incredible yields from such crops as strawberries, cantaloupes, water-melons, pumpkins, asparagus, beans, peas, cabbage, sweet and Irish potatoes, beets, parsnips, carrots, turnips, onions, tomatoes, celery, pepper, cauliflower, artichoke, rhubarb, cucumbers, eggplant, radishes, kale, lettuce, mustard, okra, parsley, spinach, squashes, sugar beets, etc. It seems that practically all vegetables do well here, and it is almost impossible to overtax this virgin soil.

18. Do you grow any corn or cotton?
Both make very satisfactory yields. Indian corn has averaged 40 to 75 bushels per acre—1 to 1½ tons of maize or kaffir are not uncommon. Especially adapted to cotton growing and wonderful possibilities for this crop. Owner of this land will make affidavit to the fact that there has not been a crop failure on his farm of 250 acres for the past TEN years.

19. Have you a successful stock raising country?
This section has always been famous in that respect. Feed is plentiful, horses, mules, cattle, hogs and sheep are extremely healthy, and they neither suffer from heat in summer nor do they have to be housed during our mild winter months. Every well-rounded farm contains sufficient live stock to consume the surplus and waste from truck, fruit and general farm crops.

20. Do hogs have cholera in the Bledsoe district?
No case has ever been known here. Should infected hogs occasionally get through Texas' strict quarantine laws, the disease can easily be stamped out, as the health conditions are as near perfect as possible.

21. Have you the dairy cow in your country?
Within the past few years large numbers of fine dairy cows have been imported, and dairying is becoming one of our most important industries. Tuberculosis never bothers the herds.

22. Does poultry do well in the Bledsoe district?
This is one of the most profitable poultry raising sections of the United States. Poultry is practically free from disease, and all varieties of fowls thrive here.

23. Have you good railroad and marketing facilities?
The best there is, as we are on the Santa Fe Railroad.

24. What is the nature of the country roads?
The Bledsoe district has the best natural roads in the United States. They are kept in perfect condition by the county.

25. How are your farms located with reference to railroads?
Every farm offered for sale by the Whicker Land Company, is situated from ¼ to 7 miles from the railroad depot.

26. How about rural schools and churches?
The townsite of Bledsoe is donating land for the purpose of churches and independent schools. Both will be developed to the high standards of Texas people.

27. Are your lands increasing in value?
At the present rate of increase, land here should double in price in less than 5 years.

28. What are some of the popular varieties of shade trees?
Locust, maple, elm, walnut, cottonwood, poplar and cedar.

29. How is this land divided?
Surveyed in tracts of 123 acres each. One to four tracts make a fine farm.

30. What are the prices and terms?
$30.00 to $35.00 per acre. Some few pieces at $25.00. Cash payment $10.50 per acre. Balance of consideration divided into 14 equal notes. First note due two years after cash payment, and one note due each year for 13 more years. Each note due December 1st, at 6 per cent interest, on or before. This gives a chance for TWO crops before a payment is due. Cheaper than rent.

31. Can a man pay in full for his farm at any time?
Yes. All notes are payable "on or before."

32. Are there any livery charges while inspecting your lands?
No, we have a number of good automobiles free for your service, and will be glad to meet you at the train if you will notify us as to the date of your arrival. We raise more cattle, sheep, hogs and poultry at less expense than any state. Texas land never decreases in price. Why not get the increase which is sure to come, soon.

D. 1928, respectively, payable to the order of George W. Littlefield, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from date to maturity, and from maturity until paid at the rate of ten per cent per annum, and stipulating for ten per cent on the amount of principal and interest then due as attorney's fees, if suit is brought or if same are placed in the hands of an attorney for collection; whereby defendant became bound and liable, and promised to pay to George W. Littlefield the sum of money in said notes specified, together with all interest and attorney's fees due thereon, according to the tenor and effect thereof.

5. That said property, Labor No. 7, League No. 687, was heretofore, to-wit: On the 8th day of May, A. D. 1918, conveyed by George W. Littlefield to the defendant Millard Farden by his deed of writing of that date, in consideration, among other things, of the ten notes herein described; and that said Labor No. 8, League No. 687, was heretofore, to-wit: On the 18th day of June, A. D. 1918, conveyed by George W. Littlefield to the defendant, Millard Farden, by his deed of writing of that date in consideration, among other things, of the ten notes herein described, and that in both of said deeds of conveyance a lien was reserved thereon to secure the payment of said notes.

6. That notes No. 4, No. 5, No. 6, No. 7, No. 8, No. 9 and No. 10 of each series are due and unpaid, and defendant, though often requested, has failed and refused to pay said notes or any of them or any part thereof, but the same remain still due and unpaid.

7. That on the 17th day of July A. D. 1920, defendant, Millard Farden, conveyed all of the above described land to J. C. Whicker, who assumed the payment of all of said notes. That on the 3rd day of November, A. D. 1920, J. C. Whicker conveyed all of the above described land to E. M. Davis, who assumed the payment of all of said notes, whereby he became liable and bound to pay to George W. Littlefield or his order the sum of money in said notes specified, together with all interest and attorney's fees due thereon.

9. That notes No. 4, No. 5, No. 6, No. 7, No. 8, No. 9 and No. 10 of each series above described have by due assignments and transfers been conveyed to the plaintiffs for good and valuable considerations, and the plaintiffs are now the legal holders and owners of notes No. 4, No. 5, No. 6, No. 7, No. 8, No. 9 and No. 10 of each series.

10. That said notes have been placed in the hands of E. S. Rowe, an attorney, for collection, and plaintiffs have contracted to pay him the ten per cent attorney's fees stipulated therein, the same being reasonable and the usual and customary fee.

Wherefore, plaintiffs pray the court that all of the defendants be cited to appear and answer this petition, and that a guardian ad litem be appointed to represent the minor heirs, and that they have judgment for the foreclosure of their lien on the above described land and premises to satisfy their debt, interest, attorney's fees and costs of suit; and that the same be decreed to be sold, according to law. That the sheriff or other officer executing said order of sale shall place the purchaser of said property sold under said order of sale in possession thereof within thirty days after the date of sale; for such other and further relief, special and general, in law and in equity, to which they may show themselves justly entitled.

Money Spent For INSURANCE
Is An Investment

—Whether for Life or Fire Insurance, money expended in this wise should never be charged on the debit side of the ledger—for it is invariably a good business investment.
 —For the comparatively small amount insurance costs, no man can afford to be without it. Both property and life should always be kept well insured.
 —We have known instances where fire has reduced a man to poverty, and within a very short time afterward he died, leaving his family penniless. Insurance would have averted such a calamity.
 —We represent leading strong companies of America. Better drop into our office immediately and talk the matter over with us.

LOOKING BACK
FIFTY YEARS

Fifty years ago this year a national banking system was started in the United States.
 Today Americans have on deposit and subject to check or drawing interest the unheard of sum of $60,000,000,000

If you do not own a part of that vast sum, you can still profit through the experience of others. You can still make your dollars work for you—and a working dollar is the only dollar worth having.

Or you can do your boy or girl a wonderful favor by taking even one dollar and starting an account for them—and then teaching them how thrift and saving has made the United States the most prosperous, the most contented, the happiest nation in the world.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lamb county—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Orville Tice by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if there be no newspaper published in the Sixty-Fourth Judicial District; not, then in any newspaper published in the nearest district to said Sixty-Fourth Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the district court of Lamb county, to be holden at the courthouse thereof, in Olton, on the fourth Monday in November, A. D. 1925, the same being the 23rd day of November, A. D. 1925, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 7th day of October, A. D. 1925, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 134, wherein Grace Tice is plaintiff and Orville Tice is defendant, and said petition alleging that on or about the 8th day of December, A. D. 1924, plaintiff was married to defendant in the county of Palmer, in this state, that at the time of said marriage plaintiff was an infant under the age of eighteen, to-wit: of the age of about sixteen.

That for a short time after said marriage plaintiff cohabited with defendant, but plaintiff and defendant have not cohabited as husband and wife for any time or in any manner since defendant left the plaintiff, to-wit: on or about the 5th day of January, A. D. 1925.

That plaintiff is desirous of having said marriage between herself and defendant dissolved and declared null and void by a decree of this court.

That soon after plaintiff and defendant were married as aforesaid defendant commenced a course of harsh and unkind treatment toward this defendant without cause or provocation on the part of this plaintiff. This plaintiff was at all times kind and affectionate to defendant and managed the household affairs with prudence and economy, but defendant unmindful of his marital vows and disregarding his obligations to treat plaintiff with kindness and affections caused her great mental anguish and humiliation by his misconduct and was arrested on numerous occasions for various offenses and placed in jail and now has several felony charges against him and has among other charges the offense of forgery, swindling by means of giving bad checks and has gone away and left this plaintiff and she does not know of his whereabouts and have not heard from him since said time he left her.

That on the account of the cruel and mistreatment of this plaintiff by the defendant, and his total failure to regard her in her feelings and causing her unbounded mental anguish and suffering as aforesaid has made their living together as husband and wife insupportable. And plaintiff has been compelled to return to her parents and depend upon them for her support and protection and that it is impossible for plaintiff to live again with defendant as her husband.

Wherefore plaintiff prays judgment of the court that defendant be cited in terms of law to appear and answer herein and for judgment dissolving said marriage relations, and that said marriage and for other and further be granted a divorce dissolving ther relief, special and general, at law and in equity to which she may be justly entitled, etc., and that she be restored to her maiden name of Grace Clark.

The Texas Utilities Company

It Supplies Light and Power
Without Effort on Your Part

That is one of the reasons why service of electricity is growing so fast. It meets the definition of "an essential public service."

No community that expects to grow can get along without electric light and power. No community can grow unless its electric service grows ahead of it to make its growth possible.

Supplying electric power and light is not selling a commodity. It is doing service. This service must be ready every minute of the day. It must be ample to meet all demands. It must be supplied to all alike.

These things about this service lend it the great public interest that attend it. They are the things that make it desirable for the community and its people and electric utility management to understand each other fully and be perfectly frank with each other.

This company seeks that kind of co-operation with the people that it serves.
