Growing Of Okra May Develop Into New Farm Income, Another Industry

With cotton acreage reduction by government control a certainty, attention is being turned to other possible means of farm land utilization in this section.

One of the studies being carried out is the planting of okra for cotton oil mill processing.

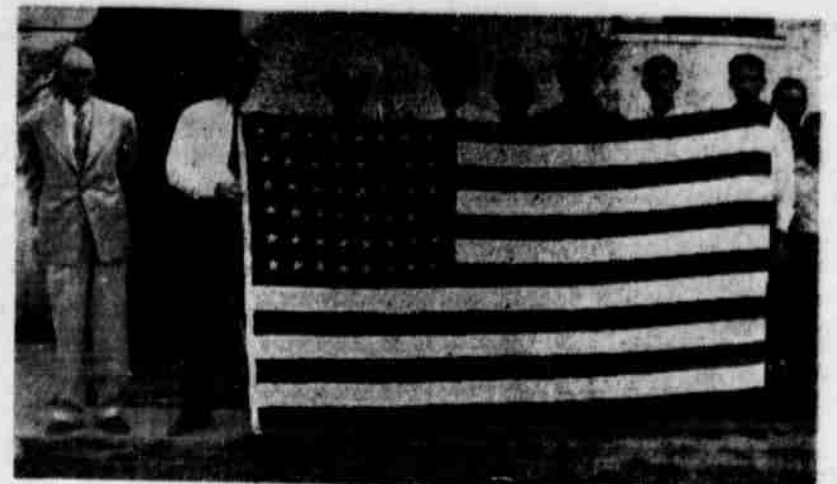

First announcement of such a study was made Monday night at an open forum meeting of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce by W. C. Cannon, manager of the Littlefield branch of the Western Cottonoil Mill.

20 One Acre Test Plots Arrangements have been made by the Littlefield branch for the planting this year of 20 one-acre test plots of okra in the area served by the local mill. These plots will be planted with the round, long pod, edible, non-shattering type of okra, and the seed is being furnished by the Western Cottonoil Mill.

The first plot was planted Tuesday 10 miles west of Wolforth by Arnold Glenn.

The plots will be studied with much interest, and if the tests turn out successful a new farm crop and virtually a new industry will come into existence for this territory. Part of the tests will be dry land and part Continued On Back Page two postcards anent his gulability for the purchase of a donkey for children. Nursemaid to the donkey for one week is the penalty for limited attendance at Jaycee meetings.

And, incidentally, we have found out the gender of the donkey. It's a boy. Just as soon as we get better acquainted with this animal we'll do a Walter Winchell and report his approximate age.

Jim Crump was nursemaid to long ears for a week, and last Thursday night the Jaycees got Earl Rodgers out of bed, all togged out in his nightie, and gave Mr. Donkey into his custody for a week.

Presented with this illuminating article is a night life scene in Littlefield. This picture was made in the dead of the night by Jaycee Ace camera man Sherman Delbert Stephens, otherwise Automobile Man "Steve" of Banks-Packwood.

This outstanding work of the photographer's art presents Earl Rodgers in nightie taking delivery of the donkey for one week. At the right is Jim Crump, making the presentation, and Nelson Naylor, all togged out as "Available Jones" for participation in some sort of a play he was starring in.

Among others who participated in presenting the donkey to Earl were Jaycee President Rhenri McCary, Pete Owens, Merlin Yarbrough Hugh Byers, Jack Alexander, Jess Laman, and T. G. Shaw.

Earl Has Hectic Week

Earl has had a hectic week, in fact his furniture business has been considerably neglected. About the first day at his new temporary home the donkey got loose. And he did what any Jackass would do, he went on a bender, fell in a few flower beds and generally got himself in wrong with the women.

Advancing Agriculture Of This Area Chamber Of Commerce Meeting Topic

Possibly more was accomplished in behalf of the work of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce at Monday night's forum meeting than at any gathering in a long time.

Two facts were prominent: That the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce is anxious to expand its program in behalf of agriculture, and that the organization must have increased financial support if the best work is to be done.

The thought of the meeting appeared to be that the Chamber of Commerce wants to go aggressively forward in behalf of its agricultural program, and was perfectly willing to be judged by its work as regards financial support of its activities.

Vegetable Growing

The chief agricultural matter before the chamber at this time is the program to establish the growing of lettuce, carrots, etc. on a commercial basis, similar to the Dimmitt area activity.

When the matter first came up for consideration several months ago, 200 farmers told the Chamber of Commerce that they were willing to plant lettuce, carrots, etc.

But before any steps can be taken these farmers must be assured a directed program and an efficient marketing organization and facilities. That is what is now occupying the attention of the chamber. Several marketing concerns have expressed their willingness to come into this territory, and their applications are now receiving consideration.

David Eaton, county agent, brought out the fact that this is one of the few areas in the United States in which vegetables mature at the right time for successful marketing.

Another speaker declared that growing and marketing organizations had their eyes on this section.

Dairying Important

The importance of dairying in the general progress of this section was brought out in the discussion.

The statement was made that, like most other parts of the country, there are too few dairy cattle in this area.

Government reduction of cotton acreage is almost a certainty, and that situation is prompting an increased interest in other branches of agriculture.

The forum feature of the program was preceded by talks by Joe Walters, president; Pat Mann, manager; Hardy Shelby, who discussed the finances of the Chamber of Commerce, and Jack Christian, who was the directing head of arrangements for the meeting, and who presided over the forum discussion of various matters.

Mr. Shelby said that the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce had a budget of $8,000 and that to do a better job that figure should be increased $4,000.

The meeting was held at the school cafeteria, and was preceded by a Dutch style meal.

High School Operetta To Be Held Tuesday

A Junior high school operetta, "Hooray for Youth", under the direction of Mrs. L. B. McClain will be presented at the high school auditorium Tuesday night, May 10th at eight o'clock. Admission will be 50 cents for adults and 35 cents for students. The proceeds will be used in buying robes for the junior high school chorus.

The play deals with young people who have decided to rid the town of juvenile delinquency by furnishing a good clean entertainment for the tough characters across the tracks. The Youth Center proves that there is no such thing as a bad boy or girl, but that there are only misguided ones.

Tascosa Site For Proposed And Bridge Over Canadian River

Littlefield Chamber of Commerce acting as an open forum in a school cafeteria Monday afternoon in favor of locating the Canadian river dam at Tascosa.

Commerce acted on the suggestion of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce, which sent a telegram to the local booster organization.

The Hereford Telegram
The telegram received from the Hereford Chamber of Commerce reads as follows:

"The board of directors of this chamber strongly recommend that your chamber and as many individuals as you can contact write your congressman and senator urging that the Canadian river dam be located near Tascosa for following reasons:

"Water sands of Canadian are probably a continuation of water sands of entire High Plains irrigation area comprising one tenth of all irrigated areas of United States and could effect entire economy of a great area.

"Dam at Tascosa would make it possible to have low water bridge across Canadian at one fifth cost of high water bridge.

"Water would have gravity flow to Amarillo, Plainview, Lubbock.

"Dam in other location would cause expensive removal and relocation of pipe lines already laid across Canadian.

"This must be accomplished before final location made by U. S. Department of Interior May 15. Urge you use every entry possible for this location."

Fourteen Honor Students Named

Fourteen members of the graduating class of 1949, Littlefield High School, two boys and twelve girls, are being honored this week, after having been designated the top ranking students of the school, having averaged a grade of 90 or better during their four years in High School.

Breaking away from the custom of years standing in the school, which has given public credit and acclaim to only the top two ranking students, the faculty this year is giving recognition to all students who are successfully achieved the coveted 90 averaged grade.

The two boys are Gene Blackwell and Ernest Mills. The girls listed in this honor roll are: Laverne Fowler, Mary Helen Holteamp, Connie Hopping, Helen Johnson, Ellen Webb Massengill, Arlene Packwood, Imogene Roberts, Billy Pat Robinson, Thetogene Ross, Edith Vidler, Dorsetta Wilson, and Donna Richardson.

Next week, the faculty will select the two highest ranking scholars from the above group, and to these two, of course, will go the coveted honor of becoming class Valedictorian and Salutatorian at the annual Commencement exercises on Friday night May 20.

The entire school is this week extending congratulations to the fourteen high ranking students, and there is much speculation and excitement as to which of the group will get the coveted positions. The names of these two will be released for publication next week.

will be under irrigation. Facts About Okra
Here are a few facts concerning okra:

The oil content of okra compares favorably with cotton seed; also the quality of okra oil is comparable to cotton seed oil; Okra meal contains 40 to 43 per cent protein, about the same as cotton seed meal;

Limited feeding trials to date indicate a feeding value comparable to that of other protein concentrates;

If planted early okra needs very little cultivation, probably not more than two or three cultivations;

Plants are allowed to grow all summer, remaining in the fields to be killed by frosts;

Okra should remain in the field about a month after a killing frost, or until stalks are thoroughly dried;

The ordinary grain combine available on most farms is recommended for harvesting.

BULL LAKE PHILOSOPHER IS UP IN ARMS OVER THREAT OF PLUMBERS TO COME OUT AND INSPECT HIS PLUMBING

Editor's Note: The Philosopher on his Johnson Gross farm on Bull Lake probably is over-exercised about the matter he discussed this week, but we're publishing his letter to keep him quiet.

I was out here the other day enjoyin spring unfold for me, watchin my Jerseys steers gettin fat for me, listenin to the bees makin honey for me, watchin the grass come up of its own accord, which is the ideal way to farm, eliminates machinery-break-downs worries, ulcers, over-production, etc., and wasn't bothered about anything when I stumbled on a copy of Star Telegram and while ordinarily I don't let a newspaper, a politician, or my wife's naggin interfere with my peace of mind, I read something in that paperr which has me disturbed. Accordin to it, the big, city plumbers are trying to get a law passed requirin country plumbin to be inspected by licensed plumbers, sittin up minimum standards, etc. They want to do this they say, to protect the health of the people who live outside cities and towns, the fact that it would increase the plumbin business not enterin in to it at all.

Now while I appreciate the fact the city plumbers is interested in my health, and while still and at the same time I ain't noticed plumbers bein any healthier than farmers or city folks bein healthier than country folks don't make no difference if they do drink out of inspected faucets, what worries me is the trend. Everybody wants to license somebody, then hire somebody, maybe their relatives to come around and inspect em. Thunder, you don't hear farmers arguin for the right to come around and inspect city people. The way we look at it is, if we grow the stuff and you city folks ain't got enough sense to handle it, you can just choke on it. Ain't our business. And if I want to try to run water up hill or draw it out of a well with ballin wire and a leaky bucket, I ought to be able to attempt it without a city permit. I imagine there's lots of plumbin in the country which a licensed inspector would jerk out by the roots, but on the other hand there may be lots of plumbers for example who ain't takin care of their teeth properly, but who wants a law tryin to make em go to the dentist? I may feel sorry for a plumber with a tooth ache, but I don't want a law passed makin him do something about it.

It ain't that I got much plumbin to be inspected and it ain't that I'd do anything about it if somebody came out here and said it was put in all wrong, but if they can even try to make me change my plumbin, they might decide they could make me change my method of farmin, and then as far as I'm concerned all h— has busted loose.

First thing you know, somebody will want to require a license to shoe a horse, fix a flat, change a plow point, crank a tractor, milk a cow, stop a hog, hang a gate, patch a roof, open a bottle, doubt a politician—there ain't no limit to this sort of thing. You got a license to edit?

You can tell them city plumbers my plumbin suits me and if they're bustin to inspect somebody, try Russia. Understand the plumbin over there is awful.

Yours faithfully, J. A.

GEMS OF THOUGHT COURAGE

I would define true courage to be a perfect sensibility of the measure of danger, and a mental willingness to endure it.

—W. T. Sherman

That courage is poorly housed which dwells in numbers.

Aaron Hill

A great deal of talent is lost in this world for the want of a little courage.

—Sydney Smith

Truth comes from a deep sincerity that must always characterize heroic hearts; it is the better side of man's nature developing itself.

Mary Baker Eddy

Courage consists not in hazarding without fear but being resolutely minded in a just cause.

—Plutarch

Christians Will Suffer
Lutheran Pastor Says

Being a member of a Christian Church will in itself not bring suffering, but being members who confess with word and deed, lip and life that Jesus Christ is their and man's only Savior from deadly sin and everlasting death will bring much suffering upon themselves, Pastor Heckman declared recently from the pulpit of Emmanuel Lutheran church. Jesus has promised His believing Children that the world will hate them just as it hated Him. They will feel this hatred just as did the Savior.

Many live in the hope of the resurrection to eternal life, the pastor continued. They alone will realize this hope who because of their faith in Jesus and their confession of this faith are willing to suffer ridicule, hatred, disgrace, social banishment. Much more necessary than countries armed to the teeth are men and women and children who are a living confession to the power of God in their own lives even though it means much suffering.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Adam and Fallen Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ Scientist, on Sunday, May 8.

The Golden Text is: "As in Adam all die even so in Christ shall all be made alive" (1 Corinthians 15:22).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage" (Galatians 5:1).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "It is only by acknowledging the supremacy of Spirit, which annuls the claims of matter, that mortals can lay off mortality and find the indissoluble spiritual link which establishes man forever in the divine likeness, inseparable from his creator" (page 491).

The company will exhibit dairy, poultry, range livestock and dog cottonseed meal and pellets. The exhibition, which will be staged in the main chambers of commerce building, is one of the most important industrial might of the West Texas division.

There will be one of hundreds of exhibits over Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana. The exhibition, which is one of the products made, processed and sold in the Southwestern region.

During his firm's participation at the L. L. Adams, assistant manager of the formula feed department of the West Texas division, Dr. Nowlin believes this type of Exposition will help to bring the people of the section closely in contact with manufacturers and acquainted with products produced in their area. His acquaintance will help him to see the possibilities that now exist and will give them some idea where they may obtain the best of materials and equipment. Think such an Exposition as this will give people visiting this area a new idea. The southwest is capable of doing more than the extensive developing made in this area."

West Texas will be well represented in the hundreds of interesting exhibits which will include almost everything for farm, ranch, home and industry. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is one of the regional sponsors of the event.

EASTER BONNET . . . Margaret Truman's Easter bonnet didn't have any bird on it, but this is how it would have looked to a bird if he had happened to be around. Like any other American girl, she got a big bang out of a becoming bonnet.

THIS IS AMERICA

This is freedom—many religions, many races, living in harmony together. For freedom is more than a way of life. It is a state of spirit—and our richest asset.

Under freedom of religion, Americans attend more churches than any other nation. Under freedom of speech, we have more newspapers, more radio stations than any country in the world. Under freedom of opportunity, our children attend more schools, have more chances to succeed in life.

We are only 7% of the world's people, living on 6% of the world's land. Yet we in America have the highest standard of living the world has ever known.

Under freedom of enterprise—you may call it Democracy, or Capitalism—we make just about one-third of the world's goods, mostly for our own use. We drive three-fourths of the world's autos, use about half the world's electricity. Our homes are unrivaled for comfort and labor-saving devices. We eat more meat, buy more clothes, see more shows, own more insurance. We even save more money.

Yes, freedom pays—in the coin of tolerance and understanding, and in the coin of progress and prosperity.

Advertisement for THE NEW 54 COTTON PLANTING SEED NOW AVAILABLE

The NEW Paymaster "54" is now available for the 1949 planting season—ready for farmers who want more profit from Cotton. This quick-maturing, high-yielding, better-staple-producing planting seed answers the demand for a variety that is tested and proved for West Texas growers. It is the result of scientific selection and painstaking experiments to develop a seed that will produce more money per acre planted.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache; headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

SPOTLIGHT on Sport
By Bacon Jones
THE FLYING DUTCHMAN
I think it is only fitting that we keep alive the immortal stories of the great men, and the grand old men, of the sports world. What an inspiration they are to us all, and especially the youngsters with an enthusiastic eye for a sports career. And, I think, no discussion of grand old men can be complete without a story about the eternal shortstop, Honus Wagner.

He could do everything on the field but "catch", when he was in his prime. From far back of third base, he could throw out runners at first after miraculous catches that left him sitting or lying on the turf. He was the most feared right hand batter in the game . . . was even better as a fielding shortstop . . . and a ball of fire at running bases. But what makes this a story is that his personal character matches or betters his ability. There never was a more inoffensive player than old Honus Wagner. He was proud, fair, loyal, and a true sportsman. He would actually allow himself to be put out, rather than run the risk of injuring a player, if such happened to be the case.

"Our two Ford BIG JOBS have given better performance than any trucks we ever owned"

OUR OLDEST 145-horsepower Ford F-7 truck has given us 80,000 miles of the most satisfactory service with a minimum of expense," reports Jno. B. Stephens, Jr., owner of the E-TEX PACKING COMPANY.
