Engineer Says City's Growth Demands Plan

Dallas Engineer Homer A. Hunter, Thursday night recommended a $1,625,000 water and sewer improvement program to Littlefield city commissioners as a "bare minimum to catch up and get started" with present needs of the city.

Hunter's report, the culmination of a two-month study of water and sewer facilities in Littlefield, came in a special called session before city officials and about 15 interested citizens.

The Dallas engineer, estimating water and sewer needs on the city's present population, declared that the "future welfare of the city and actually its very life depends upon a courageous approach and solution to the problems of adequate water and sanitary sewer service."

Hunter estimated Littlefield's present population at 8,800, based on a comparison of water meters in 1950 when an actual "nose count" was taken and the number of such meters today. He predicted that Littlefield's population in 1960 would be 11,000.

Citing the "tremendous growth" of Littlefield in the past ten years, Hunter said the city now has "twice as many gas users, three times as many telephones, and uses twice as much electricity."

"This improvement program," he said, "is tied into expected population and I wouldn't be surprised to see these estimates surpassed."

Hunter's population predictions were projected as far as 1990, when he said he expects this city "to have 32,000 people." He said he considered this estimate to be conservative.

Tracing the history of water facilities in Littlefield, Hunter said "four wells of the 10 drilled here have been abandoned because they began making sand. The maximum production of these six wells at present is about 250 gallons per minute."

"Take your No. 5 well, for instance. It was drilled in 1945 to a depth of 178 feet. It had 70 feet of water bearing sand. In 1949, 1500 gallons a minute were pumped from it and in 1955 you were able to get 300 gallons a minute out of it. Today it is abandoned because of dewatering of sand due to irrigation and other causes."

He said also that the city's water distribution system is outmoded, with "the smallest pipelines" serving many residential areas.

Where the city's maximum daily use of water is today about two and one-half million gallons, he predicted a maximum of 14,000,000 gallons a day in 1990.

"But what we are concerned with is today. I don't believe in building that far ahead," Hunter declared.

The Dallas engineer then proceeded with what he considered the immediate needs of Littlefield.

"Your city commission acted wisely when it acquired water rights on 11 sections of land in the Sandhills. There is no question that you can make good wells there," Hunter continued.

He said that test holes had been drilled there as far as his study, and that he had found approximately a strata 150 of water-bearing sand there.

"In the next 55 years, you will use 42-45 billion gallons of water in this city. I estimate there are 135 billion gallons stored under your water rights in the Sandhills. You would use only one-third of that storage," (Continued on Page 6)

Civic Clubs Take Over Final Push

Operation Mop-Up' will get underway early Friday morning as civic clubs take over the reins to give a final push to the city-wide clean-up campaign.

"The civic clubs are going all-out to make it a big day," Clean-Up Chairman Howard Horne said Wednesday as he praised the organizations, city officials and citizens for their unusual cooperation.

"There's no doubt now that the majority of our citizens want to live in a clean town. All we need to do is make it 100%," Horne continued.

An estimated three-quarters of a million pounds of trash have been hauled off during the past ten days. Officials estimate that that much more will be cleaned out by the end of the drive.

Horne asked for the help of every citizen who still has trash and weeds on his property during the final push.

Each of the civic clubs are mapping out details of how best to handle the final mop-up in their sector which will be the wind-up on a two-weeks' battle against weeds, and trash in the city limits.

The special crew which the city has had working for the past two weeks got farther behind last week end in their trash collection.

"Even with the help of the Civic Clubs Friday, we may not be able to complete the job this week," Guy McCraw said.

"However, we won't quit until the job is completed," the city official promised.

McCraw requested citizens to call his office if there is any special problem concerning the collection of trash.

The city took the lead in the "housecleaning" campaign by giving special attention to the city park this week. In addition to cutting weeds and grass, the large elms surrounding the Community Center were pruned.

Robertson Case Still Is Unsolved

The Hollywood Mystery thriller of "Who Shot at Eugene Robertson?" was still unsolved Wednesday.

Hollywood Detective Sergeant Bud Schlottmiller said that the department was awaiting a statement on whether Robertson will file a crime report on his story that two men took pot shots at him while he was driving along the Hollywood freeway July 16.

Robertson was to have made a statement Monday, but attorneys told Schlottmiller that day that the statement will be made late this week.

Robertson was feared dead when police found his bullet-riddled sports car in a Hollywood alley the night of July 16. The car had four bullet holes in it and patches of blood on the front seat. It had been abandoned with the lights on and the radio still blaring.

Police took up a search for Robertson until he suddenly appeared in Hollywood Thursday, July 19. He then told police of two men taking shots at him and that he had ducked the shots. Robertson said that he hid in a hotel overnight and caught a train for Lobbok Tuesday morning, July 17. He stated that he then heard Hollywood police were searching for him and that he headed back to Hollywood to straighten things out.

Two Lamb County Farmers Dead After Tragic Mishaps

Two Lamb County farmers died in tragic accidents this week, one while he stopped along Highway 84 to render aid to stalled travelers and the other when his tractor overturned on him while he worked in his field.

The Sudan farmer, who came to Lamb County in 1925, was injured when his pickup was hit from behind by a car driven by E. L. Marshall of the Hub community.

Marshall said Reed must have stopped to help some Latin Americans whose car was stuck in the sand along the highway. Marshall said he was attracted by the stuck car and when he looked back Reed's pickup was stopped in front of him.

The impact of the collision spun the truck around in a circle and Reed was thrown out. Reed's injuries were later diagnosed as a crushed chest and head injuries.

Fatally injured in an accident about six miles southeast of Muleshoe, Reed died in an ambulance that was taking him to West Plains Hospital in Muleshoe. Investigating officers said he was still breathing when he was placed in the ambulance.

Commissioners To Hear Petition For Water District

Petitions for the establishment of a Lamb County Water Control and Improvement district will be heard at a meeting of county commissioners Tuesday at 10 a. m.

If the district is created, plans are to call an $800,000 bond election for the purpose of purchasing water rights on 24,000 sandhills acres.

The plan is an outgrowth of Lubbock's purchase of water rights in Bailey county. Lamb County Water Association officials believe that such a step is necessary to retain these water rights in the county.

Soil Bank Deadline Is Friday, ASC Reminds

Applications for the soil bank plan ended Friday, barring another extension of the deadline.

With the deadline originally set for July 20, farmers got an extra week when the plan was extended to July 27. When final results are in, applications are expected to total nearly 150 in Lamb county, according to ASC representative Charles Hill.

Soil Substation To Be Discussed Here Tuesday Night

Springlake has been mentioned as a possible site for the station. The establishment of such a field would make it possible for soil in this area to be studied for ways to gain maximum agricultural output.

Of Suffering

WHAT they did in ancient times without the automobile machine it is hard to imagine. If a modern church executive said to his secretary, "Miss Jones, take a letter and get it out to all the Christians in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia," Miss Jones would hardly know what to do without a typewriter and carbon paper at the least. She might wonder, "What Christians in places as unorthodox as Bithynia might have in common with Christians in Asia. However, when Simon Peter wrote his letter, he knew what all those Christians had in common. 'Now for a little while the meant to the end of their lives) you may have to suffer various trials . . . Trouble, trials, affliction, suffering—how many words there are for it, how many different kinds of it! St. Peter's letter, written so long ago in Greek, now in English has a fresh contemporary look about it. For trials and troubles are very ancient, but they are as new as the morning paper, they are as universal as the human race.

Dr. Foreman

Suffering and Prayer

Christians in particular are bothered, when they think about suffering—especially their own or that of other Christians—in two ways. What is the use of suffering? Why should Christians suffer? These are the problems which Peter brings into one problem: What use is it to Christians, to suffer? He brushes off one kind of suffering when one gets into trouble on account of one's own wrongdoing. That is no puzzle. The puzzle comes when the good man, the Christian suffers perhaps because he is a Christian and for no other reason. One use of suffering Peter remembered from his own experience. When he was in jail in Jerusalem, the church held a prayer-meeting for him. Some-what to their astonishment, their prayer was answered. Can we suppose that Peter himself had not been praying? His trouble, in fact, had brought both himself and his friends to their knees: it had made them acutely aware of their need of God, and God in turn had made them know his power. Some people make fun of "foxtrot religion"; but isn't it better than none?

Genuine Faith

Faith that has never been tested can't be real; but only God knows if faith tested by suffering, when it endures, demonstrates how real it is. A missionary in India was trying to talk to an Indian about Christ. The Indian, who had just lost a wife he deeply loved, cried, "You lead a happy life, everything comes your way. If you had to go through what I go through, you'd not talk about faith!" Within a few months the missionary too lost his wife by death. At the funeral he stood by the casket and said, "If the man is here who told me 'I'd never been through what you go through, I want to talk to you after this. Now maybe he'll believe me.' To make the story short, the Indian did come to believe as a Christian.

Everybody Has a Heartache

Whether we suffer for suffering is that we open the heart wide. It does not always do this. Suffering by itself has no magic. It is only when the sufferer reaches up in trust to God that anything like "magic" comes to pass. But when one who has placed trust in God even though he may not have his pain—physical, mental or spiritual, what if it be removed; but he will find that he has joined the great majority of pain. His heart hitherto turned inward, now turns outward. He knows the password to every human heart. For every one has his own heartache, and those unacquainted with grief find no entrance. Your own heartache is the key to the hearts of all men everywhere. Suffering "as a Christian"; this above all, as Peter says, is a mark of brotherhood throughout the world. The minister in Mississippi who loses his pastorate because he says a word of sympathy for wronged Negroes; the Indian who is stoned from the village well because he has turned from Mohammed to Christ; the Spanish Christian who is not allowed to worship except in forms approved by the government; the Chinese Christian who is forced to march in a parade at the hour of church worship; do we not suffer with them? For they are our own.

SONEE WEST of Levelland, who has recorded "Sweet Rockin' Baby" and "Rock-O-La Ruby" for Pop Records will be the guest star tonight at the Palace Theatre on the "Rock 'n Roll Jamboree" and the show tonight will bring some new faces and new talent to the stage of the Palace. Wayland Jenning and Larry Cox are among the local amateurs who will vie for the three trophies, along with a number of out-of-town performers.

TEXAS FARMERS

Don't be misled by the current words of "Friendliness" to your Price Support Program NOW being UTTERED LONG, LOUD and OFTEN, by "SLIDING SCALE (Price) DANIEL"

Here Is The Record!

He voted with BENSON AND THE REPUBLICANS — and against the FARMERS and DEMOCRATS when he voted for the Sliding Scale Price Support Program (S3032) on August 9, 1954. (Congressional Record, Aug. 9, 1954, Page 13152). This was a party line vote and "Sliding Scale Price" voted for it.

After he helped lower grain sorghum prices to less than 70 percent of Parity, he NOW tries to claim credit for raising it part way back to where he found it.

"Sliding Scale Price" again voted with the REPUBLICANS and BENSON on August 10, 1954. (Congressional Record Page 13256) and two times again on March 9, 1956 (S3183, Congressional Record March 9, Kerr Amendment and the Humphrey Amendment).

NOW - on this BENSON - REPUBLICAN RECORD "Sliding Scale Price" is trying to be Governor as a Democrat!!!

Although work is not entirely completed at the new location, the firm is open for business.

According to Myron Fenton, owner, the formal opening date will be announced soon. Grand opening of the new, modern building for Fenton's Shoe Store in Lamesa will be held Friday.

Improvement

(Continued from Page 1) even if you had not make-up in rainfall and provided you could recover all the water that is there," Hunter remarked.

Mancil Hall, a member of the city advisory board, then asked "if there is a possibility of going to a tract of city land that is now being used for grazing land."

He was told by city commission members that there are "only 160 acres there and it is irrigated on all four sides. That land would support about four wells, but only for a short period."

Hunter said that six wells are needed in the sandhills to cope with "your growth." He proposed a 20-inch transmission line from the north end of the field to the present field. Cost of this was estimated at $457,000.

In regard to water storage facilities, Hunter said that "you should have a storage capacity of 475,000 gallons of water—you now have a 225,000 capacity, less than half."

He said that improvement of sanitary sewerage would cost $91,000, and would extend the service to areas of the city that are not served presently.

"Your present plant is adequate for 3500 people, less than half of what you need," Hunter commented.

Hunter broke the $1,625,000 water and sewer figure down into these categories:

1. Six wells in the sandhills—$203,000.
2. Transmission pipeline—$457,300.
3. Pump station in town—$63,000.
4. 1,600,000 gallon ground storage reservoir—$60,100.
5. Elevated storage of 750,000 gallon capacity—$138,800.
6. Correct water distribution system—$156,900.
7. Sewer mains—$91,000.
8. Sewer plant addition—$58,300.
9. Now outstanding water and sewer bonds—$372,000.
10. Premium to recall outstanding bonds—$14,000.

The engineer said financing of this money could be done in one of two ways.

"You can handle about $1,200,000 in revenue bonds under present water rates. The other $425,000 would have to be in tax bonds," Hunter said.

"If you raise water rates 25% at the most, then all of the funds could be financed in revenue bonds," he added.

In the second method, the city would pledge only the revenue from the new system to pay off the bonds.

"Your average customer now pays about $60.00 per year for his water. If you used the second method and raised water rates, your customer would average about $75 annually. It might be, however, that rates would not have to be raised the full 25%," Hunter stated.

over the county that I do not know at present but I assure you I will know you when I get in office.

If you believe in giving a fellow a chance to earn a living for his family and give his children at least an average education and an average chance in life; if you believe in electing a man who is fully qualified; who is familiar with farm and business problems and valuations; who will practice economy at all times and on all matters; who has lived an honest life in your county; who has always worked for a living and intends to continue working; if elected your Tax-Assessor Collector, then I certainly want and will appreciate your vote and any kind word you can speak to a friend in my behalf will be greatly appreciated and I will try, if elected, to show my appreciation by giving you efficient courteous and economical service as your Tax-Assessor Collector.

Church of Christ, was born Dec. 22, 1896. He moved with his family to Petersburg in 1919 from Oklahoma. He has been a resident of Plainview for the past 14 years.

He is survived by his wife; five sons, Houston, Earth; Cleburne and Leroy, both of Lubbock; Harold, Oklahoma City; and Sgt. Oden; a daughter, Mrs. Howard Henkins, Plainview; a brother, Ed, Lubbock; a sister, Mrs. Allie Har-

How many hens are needed to provide a living income for the producer? The answer to this frequently asked question involves not only hen numbers but more important, says Ben Wormell, extension poultry husbandman, is the number of eggs required each week to earn the expected living income.

... when I authorized the voters of Lamb County to elect my name in the Political as a candidate for Tax-Assessor Collector I did so after the matter much thought he request and solicitation from friends from all over the county... many of people, who solicited me, when me since I was a very boy; were familiar with the wledge of Taxes and Valuations and felt that I knew the needs of both the farmers and the merchants and thereby was I and capable of giving the county the type of service I am justly entitled to. I am 34 years old; was born in Hall County, Texas, on Dec. 21, 1920 and moved with my family to a farm in Lamb County when I was 4 years old, where I grew and raised on a farm—my grade and high school in Littlefield, Texas. My ambition when finishing high school was to become a Tax Technician but due to lack of money I was unable to give up attending school but I have gained valuable information by studying taxes, valuations and home appraisals and valuations at home. I married Francis Savage of Texas (daughter of Mr. Ernest Savage formerly of Wellington, Texas) and we have two small daughters. My experiences on a farm and working for the following firms, which are all in Littlefield, Texas, in the sales departments: Gears Appliance Co.; Tom Chevrolet Co.; Garland Co. and Batson Motor Co., all of these firms I give preference. My only source of support for my family and my children is from my own earnings. 3 1/2 years in the service of World War II, part of which was spent overseas. During the voters and people of Lamb County to elect me as Tax-Assessor Collector I do so with the full knowledge that the office belongs to the people of Lamb County and not to the person who is elected to serve them. I am fully aware of the importance of the office; the realities it has, the salary it pays and my every act and decision will have to be with the consent and approval of the people (the people who hired me) and the action of mine shall be in a selfless desire that is in the good of the County and its voters. I will give the my full undivided attention to Tax Rolls and books will be made to the people of Lamb County at all times. I assure you when elected that I will work myself and the office in a manner that will never give me a reason to regret my election. I elected your Tax-Assessor and I want you to know that I will be of service to you whether it pertains to the or not feel free to call on me. There are many people

When Tony Estrado knocked his third home run of the season against the Rotary in Tuesday afternoon's game, it was the twentieth ball to go over the fence for a round-tripper this season and it put the Jaycees into a tie with the WOW for the lead in team home runs this season.

Both the Jaycees and the WOW have put six over the fence while the Lions has a total of five, Foust Food has one as do the Lowe & Co. and VFW teams.

Only five home runs were knocked the entire season in the Rodeo Arena last year.

Van Ashley of the WOW and Tom Lewis of the Lions are tied for the individual lead with four each.

Below are the names of the boys who have put the ball over the fence this season:

WOW—Van Ashley 4; Roger Morris 1, Kenneth Moore 1.

JAYCEES—Tony Estrado 3, Mike Steffy 2, Pedro Contreras 1.

LIONS—Tom Lewis 4, Jimmy Melton 1.

LOWE & CO.—Roy Gene Edwards 1.

VFW—Joe Huber 1.

Jaycees Hold Onto League Lead With 4-1 Win Saturday

The Jaycees pulled two full games ahead of the second place WOW Saturday night as they handed the Woodmen a 4-1 victory in one of the best pitching duels of the season.

Both hurlers was backed by fine defensive play as most of the "big" hitters failed to get a hit. It was Billy Halton and Charlie Robinson that accounted for all four of the Jaycee runs while Keith King made the lone WOW score after being driven in by Junior Hodge's double in the third inning; the Woodmen's only hit of the game.

Van Ashley, league-leading home-run slugger and Keith King failed to get a hit for the WOW while Tony Estrado, who has put three out of the park and Mike Steffy failed to worry the WOW. Steffy managed to get a single in the last inning and was driven home on Billy Halton's double. Halton scored twice and Pete Estrado once with Halton and Robinson getting credit for all the RBI's.

Steve Short and Roy Dale Pierce scored the two VFW runs while Hodge, Moore, Brestrup, Ashley Morris, McKinny and Douglas accounted for the Woodmen tallies.

Hodge, McKinny and Ashley were the hitting power for the WOW, all getting extra-base hits. Billy Thompson got credit for the lone single of the game in the third inning.

Winning Pitcher, Van Ashley (4-0); Losing Pitcher, Joe Huber (2-4).

BIG BOB ORTON

Orton Meets Judo Expert Tokyo Joe For Championship

Big Bob Orton, the towering tornado from Kansas, will put his Southwest States Junior Heavyweight championship squarely on the line Saturday night at the Littlefield Sports Arena. The challenger will be the Japanese karate and judo expert, Tokyo Joe.

The batt's supreme will highlight a ten-patch double main-event that brings back to Littlefield after a few months absence, one of the best in the professional wrestling ranks, popular Gory Guerrero, the Mexican jumping bean. Guerrero will oppose hefty Lou "Shoulders" Newman in the opener of the twin-bill.

Orton and the Japanese chopping machine were partners in the local arena until two weeks ago when a miscue by the original resulted in the two resolving their partnership in rapid fashion. Joe smacked Orton flush in the face with a small sack of salt that was intended for the eyes of Luis Martinez and Orton blew his stack.

He punished Joe with brutal fist smashes and ran him into the corner post of the ring splitting Joe's head open. It that wasn't enough, Orton then refused to let Joe return to their dressing room and conked him on the noggin a few times with a chair as the determined Joe tried vainly to get to the safe sanctuary of his dressing quarters.

It is the result of this split among friends that primarily brought on the title match. Orton had promised promoter John U'ssery he would defend his title in Littlefield in the near future providing a suitable opponent could be found.

ELECT IVAN FOWLER for Commissioner Precinct 3

OPEN LETTER TO ALL VOTERS

As a candidate for your next commissioner of Lamb County, Precinct 3, I stand on a platform of progress. Progress is Lamb County's most important product. Progress stands for many things - new industries, development of vegetable farming, and live stock feeding. All of this demands better roads - both county and state.

To have these improved facilities I propose, first, the establishment of a county shop, centrally located, with a good mechanic and tools to maintain, repair or overhaul the twenty to thirty pieces of very expensive road equipment which the county now owns and haphazardly maintains. WE MUST NEVER AGAIN BE FACED WITH A CRISES SUCH AS WE HAD IN FEBRUARY OF THIS YEAR - WITH MAINTAINERS DOWN AND BULL DOZERS PARKED IN DITCHES IN STATES OF DISREPAIR. These repairs need to be made at home, thereby giving regular employment to our own men and, at the same time, effect a great saving of money and time.

We should be ready to take advantage of whatever opportunities are afforded us by our Federal and State Government in highway construction. We should stand ready to go forward as far as our county's responsibility toward road construction on farm to market roads.

The Commissioner's Court should be responsible for the establishment of a long range planning board and zoning board.

I advocate a County purchasing Agency, and I take my stand that the purchase of all equipment, insurance, supplies, be handled on a BID basis.

I propose that county business be summarized at regular intervals, and that this summary be published in the local papers. The County's business is YOUR business, paid for by YOUR taxes; and as thinking citizens you are entitled to know what is going on at all times.

I favor constant and efficient road maintenance in our precinct, and feel that I am qualified to supervise such operations due to thirty years farming and business experience. During this time I have become familiar with soils and weather conditions here. Through years I have either overhauled, or have supervised the repairs on machinery of all sizes, shapes and conditions.

My farm is rented to an excellent farmer thus enabling me to give full time to this commissioner's job of precinct 3, which is IMPORTANT ENOUGH to demand THE FULL TIME of a commissioner.

I present this platform to you for your careful and thoughtful consideration.

May I ask you once again to vote for IVAN FOWLER in the primary on Saturday, July

Andy McGehee Seeks Co. Commissioner's Post

To the voters of Lamb county, Precinct No. 3. I have tried to see every voter, during my campaign, but owing to the great number of voters, and also owing to the fact that many were not at home when I called, I am sure that I missed seeing many of you, but to each of you, whether you have personally talked with me or not, I take this opportunity to ask you for your vote and influence in the coming Primary Election.

To those who do not know me personally, I invite your investigation into my moral, physical and business ability. I have lived in and been in business in Littlefield for the past 24 years. I believe that you will find that I am well qualified to serve you as your Commissioner.

If elected, I promise you that I will serve you to the best of my ability, and will discharge the duties of the office in an honest, fair and efficient manner, and for these reasons I am asking for your support, and vote in the coming election.

administration of the Tax Office

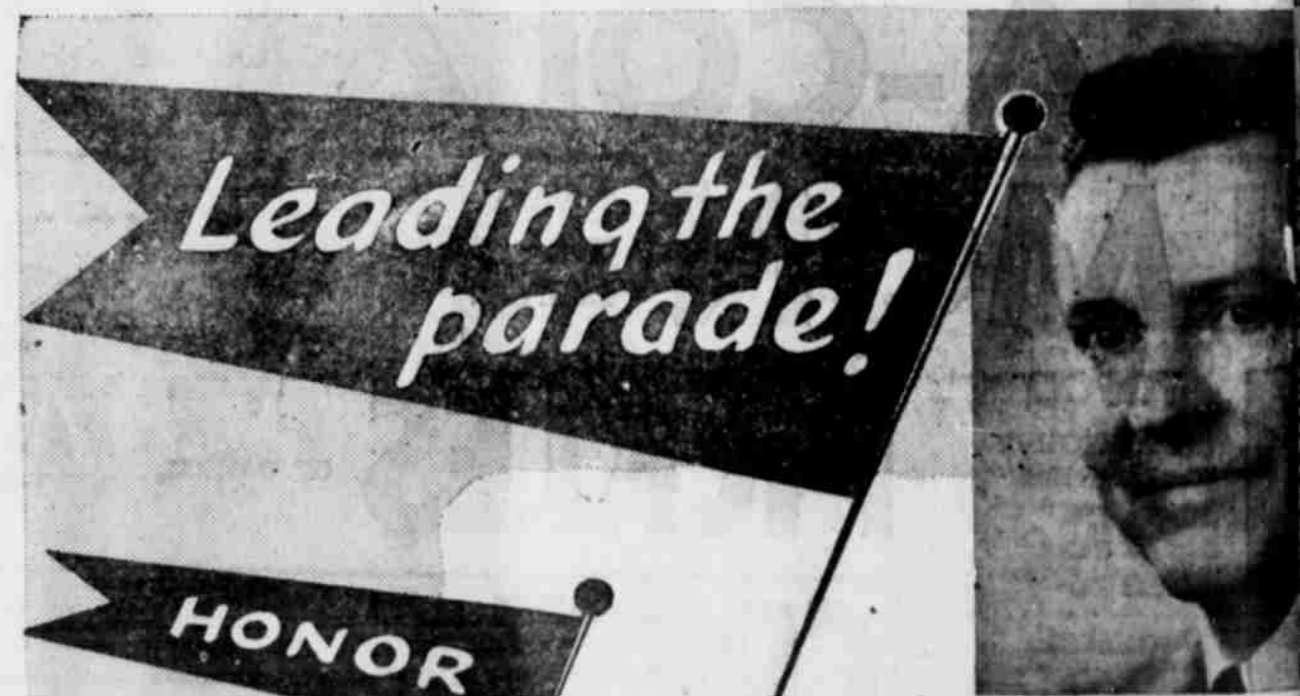

To The Voters...

During the four years I have been in the Tax Office, it has been my constant endeavor to render courteous and efficient service, always tried to be fair and reasonable in my dealings with other people. I will continue to be my policy.

I do not believe a person should try to perpetuate himself in office and certainly that is not my intention, but since the length of term of office has been changed from two to four years, I believe being unreasonable in asking for a second four years. I believe competence in operating the Tax Office for the past four years will enable me to render better service during the next term.

Because of the duties of the Tax Office, it has been impossible to see each of you personally to solicit your vote as I would like to do. I wish to take this opportunity to ask for your support in and to say that I will appreciate your vote in the coming election.

Marshall Formby Explains Interstate Road System

The Interstate System of highways, so much in the current news today, is a special 41,000-mile road system selected by the Federal Government and approved by Congress in 1945. Highway Commissioner Marshall Formby of Plainview explained today.

Formby said that he had been flooded with questions from people asking the difference between the Interstate System and the regular primary or trunk system of highways.

He said many people thought that any US highway that traversed several states was an interstate route. While that may be the true meaning of the word "interstate", he said it is not the meaning that the Federal Government and Congress applied to the Interstate Road System.

The 41,000-mile system was selected as one that connects 90 percent of the cities of the United States with a population of 50,000 or more. It is a system of roads that is designed for military purposes in case an emergency should arise.

It is to carry traffic from border to border and coast to coast. The total number of miles on the system is set by Congress and can only be changed by Congress.

Texas has 2,900 miles of the Interstate System and right now Formby said he sees no hope of additional miles being given to Texas.

"There are more than 22,000 miles of primary routes in Texas that are not on the Interstate System and the people should not think these roads will be forgotten," Formby said. "We are going to build an adequate highway system for 'all Texas.' As a matter of fact, some of the primary routes will be built to the same high standard as the Interstate System."

Formby said the Interstate System would be built to the highest standards possible with 300 feet of right-of-way required in most places, no left-hand turns allowed, with overpasses at intersections, with the Federal Government putting up 90 percent of the money for these Interstate routes, he said the Federal people will make every effort to control the exact location of the road. It is feared that some of the smaller towns will be by-passed by the Interstate.

The Interstate routes that were selected in Texas are generally described as follows:

U. S. 66 across the Panhandle.
U. S. 80 from the Texas-New Mexico border near El Paso to the Texas-Louisiana border near Marshall.
U. S. 290, State 27, and U. S. 87 from near Van Horn to San Antonio.
U. S. 90 from San Antonio to the Texas-Louisiana border near Orange.
U. S. 81 from the Texas-Mexico border at Laredo to Fort Worth.
U. S. 77 from Hillsboro to the Texas-Oklahoma border near Gainesville.
U. S. 67 from Dallas to the Texas-Arkansas border at Texarkana.
U. S. 75 from Dallas to Gavaston.
U. S. 377 from Denton to "No. 1" Worth.

Fall Seeding Best For Alfalfa

COLLEGE STATION — Alfalfa is a crop of varied farm uses. It is important in Texas as a source of hay, pasture and seed and also as a soil improving crop. Its blossoms provide bees with a prime source of nectar for honey.

E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist, says the supply of high quality alfalfa hay never seems to be adequate. As a pasture crop, it is excellent alone for hogs but for cattle and sheep is usually used in mixtures with grasses. Its excellence as a soil improving crop is well established.

Alfalfa does best, says Trew, on fertile, well drained soils which are neutral to alkaline and of medium texture. With applications of lime and plenty of fertilizer, it is being grown on acid, sandy soils in East Texas.

The most widely adapted varieties are the "Common" varieties, Texas, Southwestern and Barstow. These varieties are recommended for all of Texas except for the area south of a line east and west through College Station and San Antonio. For this section, Hairy Peruvian, Indian and African make more winter growth and more total yield than do the "Common" varieties. Arizona Chilean may also be used in this area.

Ranger and Buffalo are grown in the Rolling and High Plains areas for seed, but have no advantage over the "Common" varieties in forage production. Prostrate varieties for pasture have not been successful in Texas, says Trew.

Fall seeding is best for establishing alfalfa stands. The seed should be firm, clean and moist. Seed may be planted in dead stubble in areas where wind or blowing sand is likely to damage the young plants. Alfalfa needs plenty of potassium and phosphorus as well as calcium. A soil test will determine these needs.

Trew says from 15 to 20 pounds of good seed should be seeded per acre. If planted in 36 to 42 inch rows for grazing in dry areas, from two to three pounds of seed per acre should be used. Only certified seed should be planted and it should be inoculated just prior to planting. And finally, Trew says, don't plant alfalfa on land infested with cotton root rot.

TO MY FRIENDS, THE CITIZENS OF LAMB COUNTY

As election time draws near I just want to thank each and every one of the citizens of Lamb County for the support given me in the past, as well as for the wonderful cooperation that I have received from the public in general.

I have not waged an active campaign as I certainly did not want to neglect my duties as your County Attorney.

I still, as in the past, do not make any promises, but I pledge that I will continue to do my best to work with all of the other law enforcement officers, the merchants, farmers and other citizens of the County, and I will attempt to strengthen the weak points in my administration, especially the handling and processing of cases involving hot checks, which is one of the biggest problems of this County.

I extend a very cordial invitation to all of the peoples of this County to come to my office at anytime I can be of service, and I will appreciate your vote and influence in the coming primary election. I certainly hope that I may use my past experience to make you a better county attorney than I have made in the past.

Very sincerely yours,
CURTIS R. WILKERINSON
County Attorney.

STATUTORY DIVISION OF SEPARATE ESTATES EXPLAINED

The death of an intestate person (one who has made no will) may give rise to many problems regarding distribution of his separate estate. In the preceding column we investigated the manner of dividing the community estate upon the death of a husband or wife. Now we shall see that, where separate property is involved, a completely different set of rules applies in determining heirship and apportioning the estate among the rightful claimants.

It may be well to recall that the separate estate of a husband or wife includes property owned by either before marriage, and that which is acquired after marriage by gift or inheritance. Any other property acquired after marriage is presumed by law to be community property until the contrary is clearly proved.

Now, here is a general idea as to how your separate property will be divided if you do not make a will with contrary provisions prior to your death.

If your husband or wife survives and if the children and their descendants of previously deceased children, the children and their descendants immediately obtain a full (fee) title in two-thirds of the real estate involved. The surviving spouse receives a life interest in the remaining one-third of the real property, which passes on to the children and their descendants upon the death of the spouse.

The rule for distributing personal property—cash, stocks, bonds, furniture or any other items not constituting real estate—is different. Here the surviving spouse gets full ownership of one-third, and the children and their descendants inherit the balance.

Now suppose your husband or wife survives, but there are no surviving children or their descendants. In this case the surviving spouse inherits all of the personal property involved.

With regard to real estate, the survivor obtains full title to one-half, and the other half is divided between your mother and father, if both survive you. If only one of them survives, he or she receives only half of this portion, and the other half (or one-fourth of the entire real estate) will be divided among your brothers and sisters (and their descendants) who survive. If there are no surviving brothers and sisters and their descendants, then the one surviving parent inherits the full one-half.

Where no parent survives, but there are brothers and sisters and descendants, the full one-half is divided among these survivors.

And, if there are no parents or brothers and sisters (and their descendants) surviving, then the surviving husband or wife inherits all of the real estate.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application to the law.)

Standing in a single line of march formation, Red Cross volunteers who served during the past year, would form a line 800 miles long, the approximate distance between New York City and Chicago, Illinois.

VOTE FOR

Judge Alton B. Chapman
Floyd County

For Associate Justice
Court of Civil Appeals

"We can do nothing but predict a victory for Judge Chapman in his race for Associate Justice. Judge Chapman is as capable and deserving a Christian man as we have ever known. With the courts of our land in hands as devoted and capable as the hands of Judge Chapman American Justice in both criminal and civil courts will continue to be a lighthouse throughout the world."

The above quote was taken from the July 16th issue of the Texas Spur, a newspaper in the town where Judge Chapman finished high school, where he served as County and District Attorney and for the last 19 years as District Judge.

His record on appeals, when the cases he has tried and disposed of are compared to the cases reversed, is better than 98 per cent perfect.
