Andy Schlottman Sustains Injuries

Andy Schlottman, 30, sustained a broken collar bone and fractured skull Wednesday evening of last week when his automobile was in collision with a truck between Pep and Morton, about one mile south and one mile west of Hampton Gin.

The accident happened about 5 P. M. In an interview with L. L. Schlottman, father of the injured man, he stated that his son was resting very good, and making satisfactory progress towards recovery, and that they hoped to take him home sometime this week.

Leo Campbell Seriously Injured In Irrigation Pump Accident

To have his clothes completely torn from his body, with the exception of a shirt cuff, in the tumbling shaft of an irrigation pump, yet come out alive was the unusual experience of Leo Campbell 35, farmer, of 6 miles south 2 miles east and one mile north of Littlefield, early Thursday last.

Mr. Campbell, who is a large man weighing 240 lbs., was able, probably due to his size, to pull himself from the machinery, and drove home two miles. ## Littlefield Men Turn To Canasta When Weather Prevents Fishing

What was supposed to be a fishing trip turned into a long canasta game for four Littlefield men.

Ed Seely, Howard Reese, Herbert Dunn and Elmer Wallace spent a great deal of their fishing trip from March 23 to 29 sitting in their cabin on Buchanan Lake playing a long canasta because the weather refused to cooperate.

Mr. Seely when talking about the trip declines to say just how many fish they caught or how large they were, but like all true fishermen he insists that the big one got away.

The men used rods and reels and trout lines in trying for bass and catfish. They were successful enough to have a few fish to eat while they were on the lake and bring home a few more for each family but Mr. Seely claims that they really had to work for every fish they got.

The men usually get down to the lake west of Llano three or four times a year and have had some pretty successful trips, but he voices the complaint of all who like to fish. No matter how good the weather has been, when it comes time for a fellow to go fishing the weather just naturally turns bad.

Wayland College Basketball Team Honored Recently

The Wayland College Pioneer boys' basketball team were honored recently with a banquet in the College dining hall.

The welcome address was given by Dr. J. W. Marshall, Wayland President. He complimented Coach Harley Redin and the team for its brand of play and sportsmanship and outlined the Wayland athletic program.

Jack Payne handed the team more praise and predicted outstanding developments in basketball when better court facilities were obtainable.

Payne called attention to the fact that a large percentage of the nation's outstanding basketball players come from the Southwest and predicted Wayland would provide its share of these in the future.

W.C.O. Harris, director of high school athletics, spoke briefly telling the group that a team should be built around players who were considered first for character, second for scholarship, and third for their physical attributes.

Harris warned of the difficulties in pursuing an athletic career after graduating, either as player or coach and urged the Pioneer Squad to prepare for something more stable.

Following the speech by Harris, Coach Redin expressed appreciation for the college administration, the student body and fans. He pledged every effort to continue to produce better basketball each year. Redin closed with a commendation of the current squad, praising the players for both their spirit, hustle and hard work.

Lettermen E. Billings and George Goodson, co-captains this year, and Bill Knighton, Burt Burch, Leroy Green, Billy McClellan, Richard Walters, and Paul Young were introduced.

Individual honors were bestowed. Bill Knighton was presented a trophy for maintaining the highest academic average of any of the regulars. Ed Billings received a trophy for having been voted most valuable to the team.

The record for the honored team was commendable. Wayland had 19 wins to 16 losses, and averaged 56 points per game to run up to a total of 1959 points to their opponents 1720.

With most of the lettermen returning and a fine crop of freshmen players coming up, Coach Redin is looking forward to an ever better record for the 1950-51 season.

Personal To Women With Nagging Backache

As we get older, stress and strain, overwork, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting straight or frequent massage may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, clammy or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Courage Wins

IF YOU ARE worried because you lack a certain charm or great beauty, and if your heart is filled with envy over some other who has one or both, read the story of Lucy Foraker, Omaha, Nebraska, who conquered her own worry and most certainly is making of herself a person of beautiful character in so doing.

She was in an automobile that had a head-on collision with another car. As she was thrust head first through the windshield her face was badly cut. She lay in the hospital for weeks before she was pronounced "recovered."

Well, it didn't seem like a "recovery" to her, for there was a jagged V-scar on her forehead; her left eye was drawn upward on the inner side by stitches; a nasty cut on her lip distorted the shape of her mouth; and her entire face showed that there had been a mass of surface cuts.

Naturally, her self-confidence was shot to pieces. She had to face the problem of re-adjusting herself to society generally as well as to her friends and business associates.

After she started to work again, she overheard someone say, "Ask the lady with the scar." That remark completely unnerved her. That was her description, that was the way people regarded her now!

She slept little that night; the whole frightful nightmare had come upon her again with full force. Then courage raised its wonderful head. She got her mirror and studied her features. To herself she presented a hideous appearance. Then bravely she told herself that she would have to accept facts. From there she went on to say to herself, "Tomorrow you are going down the street with your head up, and you are going to look directly at everyone you meet. No matter what you heard said you are going to ignore it."

It didn't run too smoothly at first, and day after day she had to battle with herself. But time helped and finally she won and mother nature helped to lessen the disfiguration, while she herself developed strength as she carried out her resolve.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

State Health Officer Warns Against Flies

AUSTIN. — State Health Officer Dr. George W. Cox warns that hundreds of Texas children may become ill or die this year if Texas fails to develop the best sanitation measures against the common fly.

Typhoid fever, summer complaint, and other intestinal disease, can be traced to the common housefly as the carrier of infection, he said.

"Be sure that your windows and doors are tightly secured so that the stary flies from a careless neighbor will not endanger your family," Dr. Cox said.

"Be sure that flies are kept away from food, drinks and utensils, that outside privy vaults are tightly covered so as not to permit the entrance of flies.

"Infections from this source can be picked up and spread to human beings through contact with food, drink, and utensils," he said. "Keep all garbage covered until collected or buried."

The State Health Department will furnish upon request a pamphlet outlining safe and practical methods of fly control, Cox said.

New Weevil Control To Aid Cotton Farmer

Insect control will reward cotton growers in 1950. A new chemical, ALDRIN, better known as Compound 118, reported to have given excellent control to boll weevil and other cotton pests last year in the Mississippi-Delta Area, is available this year throughout the cotton growing states.

ALDRIN was thoroughly tested last year in the Delta where it gave spectacular performance against cotton pests at very low dosages. Only a 1/2-ounce of ALDRIN per acre in sprays and 2-1/2 1/2 control of boll weevil, thrip, cutworms, cotton fleahoppers, tarnished plant bug and rapid plant bug. No aphid buildup was reported and the addition of 1/2-pound DDT to the ALDRIN spray or 5 1/2 DDT to the ALDRIN dust controls bollworms later in the season.

ALDRIN is especially fast-acting.

Wyoming Land Open For Homesteadors

The day following application of ALDRIN dust or spray, dead weevils in great quantity can be found around the cotton plants.

ALDRIN is prominently mentioned in the U. S. D. A. Conference Report on Cotton Insect Research as an effective cotton insecticide and is recommended by the State Plant Board of Mississippi for cotton control in 1950.

Farmers Warned Against Infestations Of Insects

All Signs Point Towards Need Of Control Methods

County Agent Gives Information On Spraying Insects

Cotton farmers of the Lamb County area will have to be on the alert against infestation of cotton insects more than usual in the spring of this year, according to David Eaton, county agent.

Eaton said that according to a report from Guy Carpenter, associate county agent in Lubbock, all signs point toward an unusually heavy infestation of cotton insects. The increase in insects is due to several causes but mainly to the mild winter resulting in an overwintering of a large number of eggs and adult insects.

I REMEMBER...

By THE OLD-TIMERS

From Mrs. James C. Gaffney of Herington, Kan.: "I remember when the older generation used to put fresh straw under their ingrain carpets, which were tacked close up to the mop boards. The new velvets of today have nothing on them for comfort as you walked across the room."

From John Jarvis of Geneva, Ill.: "I remember the days before automobiles had gasoline gauges, when we would poke a ruler into the gas tank to see how much gasoline we had left."

From Mrs. Mary Stewart of Chicago: "I remember when most homes had 'folding' doors between the sitting room and dining room. I never could understand why they called them folding doors because they were doors on rollers which slid in between the walls. The parlor usually was shut off and used only for holidays, a visit from the preacher or to lay out the dead."

From Gardner Campbell of Wakefield, Mass.: "I remember when fast bicycle riding on the sidewalk was called 'scorching' and the subject of attention by the 'constables'—i. e., if any were around."

From Robert H. Sedgwick of Chicago: "I remember the days of 'century' riders—cyclists who would round out 100 miles on a Sunday. Some broke down and returned with water in their tires; some got 'cricks' in their knees and, unable to pedal anymore, wobbled back any old way."

From Mrs. Mary Stewart of Chicago: "I remember when Chicago winters were really cold. Deep snows covered the ground from November through February and sometimes through March. The old folks were always looking forward to the 'January thaw.' During January the housewives were busy running up sheets and pillow cases, trying to get the year's sewing out of the way before the big housework got underway in earnest."

From Mrs. Otto Haller of Springfield, Ill.: "I remember when my mother used to fill our straw ticks. I was a girl about 11 years old. We never had any mattresses, never even heard of such things. Whenever anybody threshed, Mother and I would take our empty tick to the scene to fill it with straw and carry it home, sometimes walking more than a half a mile each way. It was such a job, and oh, how I hated it! I also remember the 'bolster' which we also filled with straw."

From Robert H. Sedgwick of Chicago: "I remember those winter sleigh rides of 40 years ago and the group of joyous men and women who could keep the party laughing until everyone was played out. Who remembers riding in a cutter of a light drawn sleigh when it struck the switch of a street car track, overturning and dumping everyone into the snow? What a job it was to find the lantern!"

From Mr. Friendly of Frankfort, Ky.: "I remember when I had more contributions than space. How about it, folks? Send your memories of days gone by to me in care of Box 340, Frankfort, Ky."

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER CIRCLES GLOBE

IN THIS DAY of political cleavages, multiple religious ideologies and various Christian denominations—even split denominations in towns and cities—an encouraging sign of coming unity within Christianity is the world day of prayer.

It is a day set aside for Christians all over the world—in Pochontas, Iowa, and Delhi, India—to lift a common plea to Christ. The day has a long history.

As far back as 1887, Presbyterian women in the United States were summoned by Mrs. Darwin R. James, president of the women's board of home missions, to gather on a specified date in their own communities for united prayer. Such a day continued to be set apart annually. In the early nineties, foreign mission leaders named a day for united prayer. For many years, the home and foreign mission groups observed days of prayer separately, but in 1919 they came together. In 1920 they were joined by Canadian women, and the first Friday in Lent was chosen as the "day of prayer for missions"—home and foreign.

In numberless places, from missionaries returning to the homeland, the thought of a day of prayer spread until at the request of many, the "day of prayer" became in 1927 a "world day of prayer." By 1950 Christians in more than 90 countries joined in the observance of the day.

The day begins west of the date line in New Zealand and the Fiji Islands, and as the day progresses, new groups join in praise and prayer until some 40 hours later it ends at Gambell on St. Lawrence Island, off the coast of Alaska, 30 miles east of the date line and about the same distance from the Arctic Circle.

All these groups are praying that Christians may be one in service for Jesus Christ, that barriers of race and class may be eliminated and that all may truly learn to follow Him whose way is the way of life for all men—and that men may find the way by which individuals and nations may live together in peace and understanding.

In 1923 the first offerings of local day of prayer gatherings were received at headquarters. It had been early decided that all promotion should be directed toward the observance of the day and not toward the offering, but free-will offerings have increased from year to year until in 1949 they amounted to more than a quarter million dollars. Mission projects named as the recipients of such gifts are: in national missions, work among migrant and sharecropper groups and religious work directors in government Indian schools, and in the foreign mission field, Christian literature, the eight women's union Christian colleges in the Orient, and work among foreign students in U. S. A., thus furthering causes that, through the years, have become so dear to the praying women of the churches.

The world day of prayer programs have been prepared year by year by Christian leaders of various lands. The two mission groups in 1942 transferred to the united council of church women responsibility for the publication of the world day of prayer programs and their distribution to local interdenominational and other groups throughout the United States. All promotion and correspondence with foreign lands was left with the foreign missions conference. The committee on world day of prayer has on it representatives from the foreign missions conference and the home mission council as well as from the united council of church women.

The committee plans long in advance for the observance on the world day of prayer. First comes the task of deciding on the country to be responsible for the program and the finding of an author or authors. The service, when prepared, is mimeographed and mailed by the foreign missions conference in early June to representatives in more than 90 cooperating lands, where it is translated into the languages used in these areas.

It may be written originally in the language of the country where it originated, re-written in English, from which it is again translated into Hindi, Spanish, Greek, Arabic, Chinese, etc. The leaders in each land adapt the form and phraseology in order that the program may meet the needs of the groups by whom it is to be used. The world day of prayer committee prints and distributes more than two million copies of the call and prayer in the United States where some 10,000 communities observe the world day of prayer.

to the extent expected will depend very much on the weather in the near future. Eaton said that he did not want to alarm the farmers but alert them so that proper control methods may be applied before too much damage is done in the event that infestation occurs.

Heavy Grasshopper Infestation. Surveys have shown that the infestation of grasshoppers is especially heavy and he suggested that all farmers inspect the irrigation ditches where egg beds are usually found. Once the hoppers start moving away from the beds it becomes more difficult to institute efficient control methods.

Due to the cotton acreage allotments, it is more important than ever to be on the alert, he said, and especially for thrips and aphids after the cotton comes up.

The fleahopper infestation which did so much damage last year is expected to recur. The fleahopper will do its greatest damage after the cotton begins to square.

Need Insect Control

For insect control he recommended either dusting or low pressure spraying. The spray should be used at approximately six pounds pressure with about two to three gallons per acre. He warned against spraying when the wind exceeded 20 miles per hour or dusting with the wind over five miles per hour. He urged farmers to be sure and check on new insecticides available and to use only the recommended amounts.

"Insect control is one of the most important steps in a sound agricultural program" he said. It leads to a balanced production, lower cost, better cotton and higher profits.

Malaria Control Planned By Iran

TEHERAN, Iran—A full-scale malaria control demonstration program will soon be undertaken here with the help of the World Health Organization (WHO). The anti-malaria campaign will form part of a seven-year plan for economic development being carried out by the Government.

Malaria is considered the most serious public health problem in all rural areas of Iran and it is expected that a successful campaign will considerably improve the economic and social status of the rural population.
