GOOD PROGRESS REPORTED IN 7TH WAR LOAN CAMPAIGN

Is Awarded Purple Heart and Citation

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Porcher were notified last week that their son, Sgt. John Porcher, had been awarded the Purple Heart posthumously, and the Citation of Honor.

He had been awarded the Air Medal in November last. On November 29th, the crew of which Sgt. Porcher was a member, had their B-17 Flying Fortress shot down, and three of the crew are believed to have been wounded. One of this original crew is now in a hospital at St. Paul, Minn.

Apparently, according to Mrs. Porcher, three of the original crew were replaced by other flyers, because in the next picture Mr. and Mrs. Porcher received from their son, three new flyers appeared.

Mrs. Porcher received a letter Monday from Mrs. J. L. Lewis of Minneapolis, Minn., mother of Lt. Joe Lewis, pilot on the B-17 Flying Fortress with Sgt. Porcher, to the effect that she had heard nothing from her son, who was reported missing.

The telegram said: "Following enemy propaganda broadcast from the Japanese government has been intercepted: 'Dear Mom: 'Just a few hurried words to say that I am still well. You notice that I have a new address. I have been here in Japan for nearly a year now. I am hoping that everyone there is well and prospering and at the same time I am desperately hoping for a swift termination of the war. I long very much these days for the cheery comforts of home. Give my love to all the family and friends, especially I am hoping that my brothers are all making it through this fracas with flying colors. Tell dad that I am thinking of him constantly and praying for his continued good health. Once again love to all. Your loving son, 'Johnny'."

Since being taken a prisoner, Pfc. Lippard has been held by the Japs in the Philippines and in China, and was taken to Japan about a year ago. Pfc. Lippard is a member of the Marines, and has three brothers in the service, all on overseas duty.

The response to the used clothing drive in Lamb County was a huge success, reports G. M. Shaw, County Chairman.

Between 15,000 and 20,000 pounds of good clothing has been collected, and hundreds of pairs of usable shoes have also come in. "We are now in our final process of making the clothing ready for shipment," states Mr. Shaw. "It was impossible to secure shipping cartons to pack the clothing, so we called headquarters, and asked permission to put it up in bales as our cotton gins. This was granted and we were instructed to ship it to a warehouse in Oklahoma City, where it will stay until it is called into New York and made ready for shipment to the liberated countries in Europe."

National Cotton Week, 1945

As a war-torn world looks to America for food, clothing and shelter, the crop that supplies all three of these human necessities will be honored in the United States and Texas with the observance, May 21-26, of National Cotton Week. In 1945, even Old Man Texas, who grows more cotton than anyone else, finds cotton goods scarce; cottonseed oil food products rationed with rising point values; and cottonseed feed products far too limited to supply his vast livestock industry.

These conditions, so familiar to the Texas housewife and ranchman or dairyman, are echoed in the National Cotton Week theme, this year—"Cotton is fighting now—but better-than-ever cottons will be yours quickly—after the war."

Texas' part in the "fighting now" of this theme is suggested by figures of the War Cotton Production Committee of Texas showing that, since Pearl Harbor, cotton farmers of this State have supplied:

FOR SMOKELESS POWDER AND MUNITIONS—655,518,000 pounds of cotton linters.

FOR FEED TO MAKE MEAT AND MILK—3,412,060,000 pounds of cottonseed meal and cake and 1,830,554,000 pounds of cottonseed hulls (also used in war plants).

FOR SCARCE, RATIONED FATS—1,101,959,000 pounds of cottonseed oil.

FOR 11,000 DIFFERENT COTTON ITEMS USED BY THE ARMED FORCES—5,594,757,000 pounds of lint cotton.

Despite such production, achieved in face of appalling handicaps on the farm front, four of the five basic products of the cotton plant are still scarce; and Texan Marvin Jones, War Food Administrator of the United States, has recently issued a special plea to farmers of this state, stressing the importance of reaching 1945 cotton acreage and production goals and of improving the grade and staple of our crop.

The promise in the second part of the National Cotton Week theme, "better-than-ever cotton," is a major goal of the War Cotton Production Committee of Texas, which seeks cooperation of all Texans in making our most dependable "pay-crop" more productive and profitable in the future. Such a goal, directed toward the staple which for a century has been the "bread and butter" crop for the Texas farmer—and for the banker and businessman, and editor, as well—deserves universal support.

As we do without the cotton and cottonseed products we want and need, during National Cotton Week, 1945, all Texans can agree with the Texas soldier in Europe who wrote to a member of the cotton industry:

"I hope we have a good cotton season back home. I can see now why it takes so much cotton and cottonseed oil and linters. . . These countries where people don't have enough clothing or food products will give anything for some clothing or food. You should be proud to be in such an important business."

Waste Paper Is Vital

Residents of Lamb county can supply enough waste paper for 58,686 "suits of armor" for 105 mm. shells, if they will buckle down and save an average of 10 pounds of newspapers, wrapping and boxes a month. The 105's are the big ones that have been helping American forces in their advance toward Berlin and Tokyo.

Last year Americans saved 106½ pounds of waste paper per capita, or enough for about 35 containers each for the 105 mm. shells.

For each ammunition container or "paper suit of armor" used to protect the shells from salt water, dents, nicks and corrosive dirt, approximately three pounds of waste paper are required, according to W. J. Wardell, vice president of the American Can company, which is manufacturing millions of the containers. Ammunition container board, one of the principal materials used in making the "suits of armor," is made from mixed paper and old corrugated boxes, Mr. Wardell said. Another material used is called "tube and can stock," which is made from all types of waste paper.

Sgt. Calvin Petty Among Group Cited For Service

AN EIGHTH FORCE LIBERATOR STATION, ENGLAND—Sgt. Calvin W. Petty, Amherst, Texas, a technical-supply clerk at this B-24 Liberator heavy bomber base, is among the men honored at a special review commemorating the service of those who, through faithful performance of their duties, have supported the combat fliers of the 445th bombardment group in the course of 280 bombing missions during the past 17 months in England.

According to Colonel William W. Jones, station commander, "no one realizes better than those who fly in combat the essential role played by the men who back them up by work on the ground. Upon the performance of these soldiers, whose tasks are often tedious and seemingly remote from combat operations, has depended the welfare and safety of every combat crew and the successful completion of every bombing attack. They deserve great credit."

The 445th bombardment group has been cited by Major General William E. Kepner, Commanding General, 2nd Air Division, for "distinguished and outstanding performance of duty in combat" during a career that has included high-altitude bombing attacks on key industries, airfields, and transportation centers throughout Europe, on rocket-launching sites in France, and on tactical targets and troop concentrations in coordination with allied ground operations from the first landings in Normandy on D-Day through the Ardennes campaign and the Rhine crossings.

Sgt. Petty is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Petty, Amherst, Texas. He entered the Army in 1942, and has served in England since December 1943.

Lieut. Henry J. Koke Is Awarded Purple Heart

A VII FIGHTER COMMAND BASE ON IWO JIMA.—Second Lt. Henry J. Koke, 25, of Littlefield, Texas, pilot for a VII Fighter Command combat group, has been awarded the Order of the Purple Heart for wounds suffered on March 26, during a Jap banzai charge on Iwo Jima.

Lieutenant Koke's wife, Dora, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Koke, live on Route Two in Littlefield. He entered the armed service in January, 1941, and arrived in the Pacific Ocean Areas in August of 1944.

With South Plains Men In The Armed Forces

VICE COMMAND STA., FRANCE—Master Sergeant L. G. (Mike) Fowler, Sudan, Texas, stationed at this advance depot of the Eighth Air Force, is a member of the service team that puts battle-damaged bombers and fighter planes back into the air after they are forced down on the Continent.

This depot, commanded by Col. Howard A. Moody, Santa Cruz, Calif., was once a Luftwaffe airfield, but now serves as a supply and repair base, a re-fueling point, and as an emergency landing field for battle planes returning from a long mission over Germany. More than 600 combat aircraft have been repaired or re-serviced and returned to their British bases by this station's personnel, since shortly after D-Day.

Sergeant Fowler, who has completed 23 months service in England and France, aids in reclaiming parts from damaged aircraft; parts that will be used to rear other planes. In England he was chief of the sheet metal section at his depot, and while there designed and made equipment for use in treating trench foot at the station hospital.

KEY TO VICTORY
DIG DEEP FOR YOUR FOLDING MONEY

While a single foe of freedom remains, we must continue as we have begun . . . we must back up the fight with all our might . . . BUY TWICE AS MANY BONDS IN THE MIGHTY 7TH . . . THE BIGGEST, MOST URGENT WAR LOAN OF ALL!

GRAHAM'S SECOND HAND STORE

They raised the Flag again on Corregidor...

Let's raise the money in the MIGHTY SEVENTH

OUR FLAG flies once again over Corregidor. The cost was great in blood and pain, but our fighting men did not turn back. And on Iwo Jima, four thousand men—more and more—died to take the long step forward to Victory. Twenty thousand others suffered wounds. Yes, we're on the way to Tokyo!

At home, your contribution to Victory is measured in dollars.

The Seventh War Loan is the biggest in America's history because seven billion dollars must be raised from individuals alone. That means you must buy more and bigger War Bonds.

This is really two great loans in one; for this time last year you had been called upon twice to subscribe in War Loans. As our fighting men raise Old Glory all over the world—let's raise the money back home!

American Prisoners Say:
"WE WANT TO GET BACK AT THE JAPS!"

MATCH THEIR SPIRIT in the MIGHTY 7th WAR LOAN DRIVE

YES, despite their long months and years of privation and suffering, those gallant men, just released from filthy Jap Prison Camps, still have their good old fighting spirit. They're itching to get back into the fight and give the Nips a taste of their own medicine.

Let's show them that we're not quitting either! Let's match their spirit with our dollars! Let's make this MIGHTY 7th War Loan the mightiest of them all!

But to come even close to matching their sacrifices, everyone here at home must buy War Bonds until it hurts. Buy double or treble the extra War Bonds you've bought in any previous drive. Remember, this is really two drives in one. In the same period last year, you were asked to subscribe to two War Loans.

So let's go, Americans. Our hard-fighting Soldiers, Sailors and Marines are giving their ALL. The least we can do is to lend our dollars.

New Fruits, Vegetables Rack Is Installed

Extensive improvements have been made at the Piggly Wiggly Grocery & Market in this city.

Most outstanding in the improvement program is the installation of a huge fruits and vegetables display rack which extends 45 feet along the north side of the store.

This type of rack is 42 inches deep for its entire length of 45 feet and enables customers to readily and comfortably choose their needs. All merchandise is displayed in sections which slope toward the front of the rack. Mirrors extending the entire length of the rack and placed at an angle reflect the displays of merchandise and bring out the pretty colors of the various fruits and vegetables.

Additional racks have been installed for the display of merchandise in the grocery section, the turnstiles have been removed, new checking counters have been installed, and other improvements carried out.

W. E. (Bill) Humphreys and Clifford Williams, of Davis & Humphreys were in Littlefield over the past week end in connection with the improvement program at the Piggly Wiggly store.

Baccalaureate Address Sunday To Spring Lake Seniors

Examinations for the last six weeks of school were held in all departments of Spring Lake High school last week. But this is just the beginning of the ordeal—this week brought the finals, an examination covering the work done in the second semester of school. But to allay the bitterness of this pill it was sugar coated with activities other than class work. Sunday evening was Baccalaureate Service for our graduates. The sermon was delivered by Rev. T. M. McBrayer, pastor of the local Methodist Church.

A Mother's Day program sponsored by the Sophomore Class to which all mothers and dads of high school students were invited, was given in the gym Friday afternoon. In the early evening following this program an all High picnic by the Junior class was held for the high school and its faculty.

One week later Senior graduation takes place in the school gymnasium at which time diplomas will be presented to our graduates. The service spells finis to a most pleasant year's work for students and teachers of Spring Lake High.

Attend Legion Meet

At the convention of the 19th District held at Lubbock recently, Legionnaires elected A. C. Jackson of Lubbock as district commander for the next two years, 1946 and 1947, succeeding O. K. Woodall of Littlefield. Mr. Woodall presided at the meeting. Other Legionnaires attending from Littlefield were: Arbie Joplin, District Adjutant; Van Clark, commander of the local unit of the American Legion; Roy Blessing, Ed Drager, Julian Timian, and Marion Phillips. Attending the Auxiliary meeting held in conjunction with the Legion convention, from Littlefield, were: Mrs. Neale A. Douglass, and daughter, Miss Erna Douglass, and Mrs. Tom Matthews. R. B. Grindstaff of Morton was elected vice-commander.

A total of 157 members of the American Legion attended the convention, which included a meeting Sunday morning at the Hilton hotel and luncheon at the American Legion hall, followed by business sessions at the hall.

Speakers were Herman Nami of San Antonio, candidate for state commander of the Legion; Jack Rhindhart of San Antonio, chairman of the Legion committee for state oratorical contests for juveniles; Capt. Norman Snodgrass of Lubbock, who returned from the European theatre recently after serving 42 months overseas, and Cpl. Hop Halsey of Lubbock, who is home on furlough after 14 months overseas.

Sudan Votes Bonds
To Build Civic Center Building

Sudan property owners recently voted at the city hall a bond for a $35,000 civic building by a vote of 73 to 35.

M. C. Butler of Lubbock, architect, said the structure as defined by preliminary plans calls for an auditorium 50 by 120 feet, with a wing 50 by 54 feet. It will be an L-shaped building of tile and brick and structural steel on reinforced concrete foundations. In it will be the auditorium seating approximately 1,000 persons, and rooms for Boy and Girl Scouts, a recreation chamber for firemen, a kitchen and a dining room, possibly a library. The grounds, which will be selected on a basis of the greater number of persons to be served, will be landscaped. Approximately 100 working days will be required for completion of the structure.

Hugh Vincent, city mayor, and Clyde W. Robertson were election judges.

The issue had carried earlier 78 to 46, but it subsequently was found that an irregularity in publication dates of the election notice had nullified the election's effect.

Spring Lake Students Debate Monday

A pupil who is failing in a subject should be permitted to take in school athletics" was the motion debated by a group of sophomores Monday afternoon, May 15, in the English class room. This was followed a week's class work debate. Each student prepared a paper on some selected subject. The following chose the above question: Wainman Lewis, Don and La Moyne Bulla. Joyce D. D. Mix and Leon championed the negative side of the question and in a closely contested, well-prepared all-round debate won the decision of the judges. Kirby Kelly was chairman of the occasion, Melvin Bock was time keeper but the big job for the judges—five classmates, Packard, Clyde Davis, Billie Bonnie Cupp, and Jeanette

Doughty. After a deliberation of several minutes in closed conference the judges turned in a decision in favor of the negative speakers.

Spade Students Present Pageant

On Friday night, May 4, the third and fourth grades of the Spade school presented a patriotic pageant entitled "What So Proudly We Hail." About 50 pupils under the direction of Mrs. H. V. Lynch took part in the program. The pageant presented 15 songs, several drills, and an interesting theme in dialogue. Children of all nations were represented in addition to such characterizations as "Uncle Sam," "Peace," "Victory," "Liberty" and "The Unknown Soldier."

Sophomore Students Spring Lake School Are Entertained

Thursday afternoon, May 3, the Sophomores of Spring Lake High school were entertained on the lawn of the Alvis home by our two room mothers, Mrs. Bruce Higgins and Mrs. James E. Alvis. While this party was brief—just one class period—it was brimful of good things. Sumptuous servings of delicious delicacies were immensely enjoyed by this big class. All too soon the big school buses backed into formation which brought an abrupt finish to the lawn games—Spin the Plate, You're It, and Wink'em—which we were so thoroughly enjoying. After hasty goodbyes to our hostesses we rushed away—"we just had to catch that bus."

Oak Leaf Clusters S-Sgt. Brooks Has 4

AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE BOMBER STATION, England.—Thirty bombing attacks on military and industrial targets in Germany and enemy installations in the path of the advancing Allied armies have been accomplished by Staff Sergeant Ernest D. Brooks, Littlefield, Texas.

Sgt. Brooks, 21, holder of the awards of the Air Medal with four Oak Leaf Clusters to the Air Medal for "meritorious achievement... courage, coolness, and skill..." is an Eighth Air Force B-17 Flying Fortress aerial photographer with the 385th Bombardment Group, commanded by Colonel George Y. Jumper, Natoma, Calif. His group is part of the Third Air Division, the division cited by the President for its now historic England-Africa shuttle bombing of the Messerschmitt aircraft factories at Regensburg, Germany, in August, 1943.

Since arriving overseas in this toughest theatre of aerial warfare in August, 1944, the Littlefield airman has photographed the results of his group's bombings of such vital objectives as the industrial targets in Berlin and Munich, aircraft factories in Zwickau, docks and shipyards in Bremen, tank factories in Kassel, tire plants in Hanover, and oil refineries in Brux, Czechoslovakia. He has also flown on co-ordinated air-ground attacks on Nazi troop concentrations, bridges, railroads, and communication centers. The month of March, record month for the Eighth Air Force when all records for bombs dropped or sorties flown over Germany were shattered, included several of the sergeant's photographic flights.

"I suppose Fortresses have done backward somersaults, but not many have come back to tell of it," said Sgt. Brooks. "We made the loop and did get out of it. The trouble started while returning from a well bombed German target. The weather got bad, and we were trying to climb above it in formation. Suddenly the slipstream caught us, whipped us up and over on our backs, and then the fort started down in a screaming dive of more than 380 miles per hour. I guess it was a combination of good flying and superhuman strength that brought us out of the dive and back to England. The only damage was a few bruises to the crew from bouncing around in the plane, and some torn rivets in the tail assembly."

Son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Brooks of Route 2, Littlefield, he is a graduate of Austin, Texas, High school and was attending the University of Texas before his entry into the Army Air Forces in December, 1942. He won his wings in March, 1944, at Harlingen, Texas.

AGRICULTURE NOTES

Innoculation of peas, beans, and peanuts is a paying practice. There are 6 to 10 thousand acres of peas and beans planted in Lamb county each year. If these peas and beans were innoculated, this much land would be improved each year because the inoculator adds nitrogen to the soil.

Mr. M. M. White of Sudan recommends not to plant watermelons on the same land until at least 15 years have elapsed since watermelons were last planted there. This will control blight, which is a very common disease of melons in this locality.

The dockage farmers received for smutt in grain sorghum last year would buy enough chemicals to control it for several years, besides increasing the production. Several fields were affected with smutt as high as 25 per cent.

Mr. John Nix of the Amherst community has an excellent stand of Crested Wheat grass which was sown last August at the rate of 20 pounds to the acre, which is more than is necessary for a stand, because this grass was double sowed. This grass now has an appearance of a wheat field and it is heading.

Garden Insects

Small hoppers are eating the leaves of greens and radishes in gardens. They may be controlled by spraying with Prolite. Prolite is used because when vegetables are washed for use, it is readily dissolved in water and therefore has no ill-effect on people.
