Duggan in last year's convention Tuesday as the new president of the Texas Chamber of Commerce is a former president of the Chamber of Commerce School Board at that place. Duggan's committee also presided over the convention. Names of 32 vice-presidents, the secretary and the delegates for ratification of the constitution were given by D. It was estimated that more than 40,000 attend throughout the convention. Secretary of Labor Davis, of Washington D. C., and Dan Moody, of Texas, delivered inspirational and instructive addresses.

hurry trip to Washington personally report to President and recommend the construction of a dam at the mouth of the Mississippi river, as shown above, to work.

Many unhesitatingly declared that Mr. Duggan had unquestionably made the best president throughout the entire history of the organization. Others pointed to the fact that many of the accomplishments of the organization, under his direction and through his personal labors, were to be of the most lasting effect. Especially commendatory were many delegates regarding the results obtained regarding the state wide revision and equalization of the subject of taxation. This is a matter that has been a bone of contention for many years past. Numerous efforts have been made, in years gone by for a more equitable administration of taxation, all of which have been futile. There is little doubt now but that the recent action of the Legislature in this direction will be fruitful. A Committee of 16 prominent state citizens, of which Mr. Duggan is one, has been appointed to make a complete survey of the tax situation, and a vote of the citizens at large upon a constitutional amendment which will permit the Legislature to make the suggested change, has been called for early in August.

Because of his outstanding successful work as president of West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Duggan has been tendered the opportunity of re-election to that high office another year. Many of the nominating committee have urged his acceptance; but on account of the press of private interests Mr. Duggan has refused the re-election. Whom his successor will be is not known as this paper goes to press.

All-day Sunday the delegates were pouring into Wichita Falls, coming on trains, stage and auto. Early Monday morning when the editor left, it was estimated that fully 40,000 visitors had thronged the city, and it was then being prognosticated that in all probabilities there would be 60,000 visitors present during Monday and Tuesday—the largest attendance in the history of any convention of the organization.

BOB SLAUGHTER'S WIFE CAPTURED BY YAQUI INDIAN BANDITS FROM RANCH NEAR BORDER AND HELD FOR RANSOM

No details of the abduction of Mrs. Bob Slaughter Jr., by Mexican bandits from their ranch near Douglas, Arizona have yet been received by Littlefield friends and citizens of the family, tho the fact of Mrs. Slaughter's abduction as reported in the daily newspapers has been known for some days.

The ranch on which Mr. and Mrs. Slaughter live is located about 150 miles south of Douglas. It is known that it was raided by a band of 32 Yaqui Indians who carried Mrs. Slaughter away as the subject of ransom during her husband's absence. Slaughter returning a few hours later organized a band of citizens, cowboys and miners, starting in pursuit of the Indians. His posse never succeeded in overtaking them, as he was met by an emissary of the outlaws stating he would be permitted to enter their camp unarmed and alone to negotiate with them the terms of ransom demanded for his wife.

The Indians' first demand was for $500, all of the horses he had on the ranch and 50 blue denim uniforms for their warriors, but he finally compromised with them by paying the cash demanded and turning over to them 15 horses and the 50 uniforms. The raid on the Slaughter ranch was made in connection with a fight staged between federal troops and the Yaqui warriors on an American owned ranch south of the international border, and following the battle several automobile loads of wounded fighting men were taken to Nogales, Arizona for medical treatment.

"PEOPLES STORE" IS MOVING INTO A NEW LOCATION

The "Peoples Store," under new ownership and the management of Homer Hall, is this week moving into the building formerly occupied by the Model drug store.

This new store is the outgrowth of the stock of goods formerly owned by Tom Barnes, now of Kings Mills, Texas. Since it was taken over by the creditors of Mr. Barnes and placed in the hands of Mr. Hall, the business has taken on new emphasis and former creditors have been eliminated. Mr. Hall states that under the new ownership he will now be in position to make of the establishment something that will be entirely first class and to be appreciated by the buying public of this vicinity.

The stock is to be considerably enlarged and will be of general mercantile nature, specializing, however, upon women's ready-to-wear goods. Mr. Hall states that a large shipment of new goods have already arrived from the eastern markets and, in a few days he expects to be able to offer the new and old customers a complete line in every department.

FUNERAL OF MRS. SNOWDEN HELD HERE LAST THURSDAY

Mrs. H. M. Snowden died last Thursday, May 12th, age 28 years, three months and 25 days. The funeral services were held in the Littlefield Baptist church, Rev. W. B. Phipps, pastor, officiating and interment of remains made in the local cemetery. Many of the business houses closed their doors during the funeral hour, the services were largely attended and one of the longest processions ever held in this little city turned out to follow the remains to its last resting place.

The deceased is survived by her husband, three little boys and a baby girl, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Vance, also, five sisters and three brothers. Aside from her immediate family none of the other relatives were able to attend the funeral on account of flood conditions in the Mississippi valley.

Mrs. Snowden's maiden name was Lilla Mae Vance, and she was born January 16, 1899, at Union, Mississippi, also the home of Mr. Snowden. There they grew up together, the friendship of youth ripening through the growing years into a love that eventually drew them together as husband and wife. For the past 12 years she has been a member of the Baptist church. It was only a few months ago that they moved to Littlefield, where Mr. Snowden entered the grocery business with his nephews, the Jones Bros., of the M system stores. During this brief residence both won to themselves many acquaintances and friendships who extend their deepest sympathies to the bereaved husband in the untimely loss of his beloved wife.

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

He that passeth by and meddleth with strife belonging not to him is like one that takes a dog by the ears.—Prov. 26:17.

We should enjoy more peace if we did not busy ourselves with the words and deeds of other men, which appertain not to our charge.—Jeremy Taylor.

CAUSE OF ACCIDENTS

We have taken occasion to question several Littlefield auto owners recently with a view to learning, if possible, just what causes the greatest number of accidents. While some attribute them to a lack of courtesy on the part of a certain type of driver, and others believe it is the willingness of still another type to "take a chance," a majority seem to be of the opinion that defective headlights are responsible for the greatest number of mishaps.

One sees all sorts of varieties of headlights in the course of a night ride, even though the ride be of short duration. There are blazing one-eyed lights, burning so that approaching drivers cannot tell whether it is the right or left light that is going. Then there is the extreme high-powered bulb, and the spot-light so placed that it reflects directly into the eyes of an approaching driver. And the general plan of "dimming" for an oncoming machine seems to be going out of style.

For country driving bright lights are necessary, but it is not necessary to direct the beams into the faces of other drivers or to use illegal lights or lenses. Motorists who do these things deserve to be hailed into court to explain their actions. There is no desire on anyone's part to make trouble for their fellow-motorists. But when so many agree that in attention to headlights, and refusal to use them properly, is the cause of most mishaps, then such strenuous methods as stiff fines and an occasional jail sentence would seem necessary.

The trial at Detroit in which Henry Ford was a defendant turned out to be a fliwer.

A NATION'S JOB

The disastrous floods in the Mississippi valley have served to show the entire nation that such events are far more than local and that the work of preventing them in the future rests with the U. S. government. The waters of 32 states drain into the Mississippi. Such floods as this one decrease the production of commodities, and that hits the pocketbooks of those in every state. Raising $5,000,000 for relief is a noble thing; but there should be some method whereby the government itself can send ten times that amount, if that much is needed, within an hour after news of such a calamity reaches Washington City. We're spending millions to protect a few Americans in China—but we have to depend upon free will offerings to feed and clothe the thousands of refugees in the Mississippi Valley. That's all wrong. And the quicker our national congress wakes up to the fact that there should be a common fund for use in such disasters the greater our nation will become.

The Father of Waters doesn't seem to behave much better than some other parents when he gets full.

OLD BOOKS BEST

United States Senator Willis of Ohio is advocating a return to the old school readers used back in the eighties. He contends that nothing before nor since have approached the old McGuffey readers in merit, and that the readers used today are made up of a lot of literary jazz and poor philosophy. He points to the patriotic lessons, sound philosophy and high moral tone of the old readers, of the wonderful selection of poetry and the strong lessons that impressed the boys and girls who read them so faithfully as to make them of untold value during their later lives. We know there are hundreds around Littlefield who can readily recall the old school readers, but few who know just what the readers of the present day look like or contain. It is interesting to know that a U. S. senator has taken the time to look into the modern ones. It is of even interest to the older generation that the boys and girls of today should be using the same ones their fathers and mothers used.

Gas tax on politicians would bring in lots more money than gas taxes on motorists.

GOOD THINGS COST

We occasionally hear, when we ask a Littlefield citizen why this or that improvement is not being made, that "it costs money." And we consider it about the flimsiest answer that could be given. Community betterment does not mean extravagance. Every improvement comes under the head of a good thing, and of course good things cost money. But don't we get our money's worth out of them? There can be no progress without expense; we cannot have comforts and the things we ought to have without going into our pockets for them. Public improvements come under this head. No one wants to see a town go past the danger point in the matter of debt. But there is such a thing as "false economy." If we are going to stand still, block progress and be content to do without the things we ought to have simply because "they cost money" then we're falling into a rut we'll never get out of.

London is observing the 100th anniversary of the invention of the match. Mothers were making them long before that.

GOOD EXAMPLES

Every day now sees new cars on our streets and highways, men or women or boys or girls just learning to drive. This means the experienced driver will have to exert a little more precaution. But that is easy. And it ought also to be easy to remember that these new drivers are going to follow the example of those who already know how to operate a car; they are going to do what they see the experienced drivers doing. Here is your chance to get them started by setting them good examples. Use the hand signals on all occasions; be courteous to others on the road; be patient and give the other fellow the benefit of the doubt. All of which will be copied by the new drivers—they learn by imitating others. You'll get your reward through having helped to clear the highways of careless and reckless and inconsiderate drivers. And that in itself is an abundant reward.

No married man can understand why every bachelor isn't a millionaire.

LITTLE LEADERS

Doubtless the self-made man thinks he could make a better job of it if he had another chance.

Dr. Frank Crane Says

Capital Punishment Is Wrong

"The question of capital punishment is opposed to because nobody is willing himself to kill a man. Killing certainly does the man no good. It doesn't reform him, and he doubts whether it does society any good," says a well known public man.

When a man reaches the point where he wants to kill another man he doesn't care whether he himself gets killed.

This thing of inflicting the extreme penalty upon a man is a practical one. It is not based upon consideration for the man, but upon regard for society. It is supposed to deter others from serious crimes.

Opponents of capital punishment say that as a matter of deterrent it does no good. They bring statistics to support this argument and claim that the more severe punishment the wider is the spread of crime. Those in favor of capital punishment deny this.

About the worst thing that could happen to most men is to lose life. People who are afraid of nothing else fear death.

In its effort to protect human life, society uses the old argument of fear and claims that people will be prevented from killing others best of all by being in danger of being killed themselves.

It is all a piece with the whole fear argument. Time was when men were supposed to be made better by the fear of hell and youth is supposed to be kept in check by the fear of their evil deeds in later life.

A man will risk his life where he will not risk his property. If we want to stop crime the thing to do is to remedy the conditions that make crime and not merely indulge in the vengeance of killing.

Killing is vengeance only. It is not punishment.

The argument against imprisonment for life has its chief support in the fact that by and by the prisoner will be pardoned by the Governor. Take this pardoning power away from the Governor for the present and lodge it in a board selected by the courts. Have all pardons issued by this board and relieve the Governor of the pressure that is brought on him to issue pardons.

In this way imprisonment for life will be made surer and one will not receive a pardon unless he is properly entitled to it.

How Smart Are You?

Test O' Ten

What Is Your Average?

TEST O' TEN QUESTIONS

Here is a test of memory, intelligence, and general knowledge, that will provide fun and entertainment for all by giving you an opportunity to test your knowledge in competition with others. These questions will cover a wide range of information. How many of them can you answer without peering recourse to the encyclopedia or dictionary? The answers will be found on the last page of this newspaper.

In selecting questions for "Test O' Ten" we have tried to choose questions whose answers at some time or other have been available to the majority of readers—therefore the range of subjects covered is most general in nature. There are questions that everybody can answer—the trick is to see who can answer the greatest number. Can you score 100 per cent this week?

1. Where did Columbus land on his first voyage to America?
2. To whom is the phrase, "There's one hour every minute" accredited?
3. What was the name of the woman who betrayed Samson?
4. What is wampum?
5. Who invented the telephone?
6. When did the United States enter the World War?
7. What is the name of the Mohammedan god?
8. What American city is famous for its stock yards?
9. What animal is called the King of beasts?
10. Who discovered the Pacific ocean?

A man takes a day off when he celebrates his birthday, and a woman takes a year off.

If nobody was foolish, newspapers would have a lot more space in which to print other things.

A scientist says it takes 175,200 kisses to shorten a life time by even one year. But what's a year or two between friends?

It is now reasonably certain that the two party platforms next year will deal with every public question but the principal one.

Occasionally you see a Littlefield man driving a car so carefully that you can't help thinking he must have paid all cash for it.

Among the others who have lots to learn, count in the Littlefield girl who thinks a good-looking man always makes a good husband.

A secret is what one Littlefield woman tells another not to tell because she promised some other woman she wouldn't tell it.

Is there anyone around Littlefield who can remember when a really good road was one a horse could pull a spring wagon through after a heavy rain.

There's one thing about the Littlefield boy who drives carefully on a slippery road. He won't need to worry about who's going to care for him in old age.

Life must be easier for the dress-makers these days for they can now make one with one-fiftieth the stitches it used to take—and then get more for the dress.

We'll have to agree with the bright Littlefield boy who said recently that we ought to be thankful for an ocean big enough to hold all the water that the Mississippi river pours into it.

FOR WORKING PEOPLE

The best of workers get out of sorts when the liver fails to act. They feel languid, half-sick, "blue" and discouraged and think they are getting lazy. Neglect of these symptoms might result in a sick spell, therefore the sensible course is to take a dose or two of Herbine. It is just the medicine needed to purify the system and restore the vim and ambition of health. Price 60c. Sold by STOKES & ALEXANDER Drug Co.

AMERICAN LEGION TO HOLD MEET IN LUBBOCK MAY 21-22

Lubbock, May 18.—All is in readiness for the Fifth Division convention of the American Legion here Saturday and Sunday, and the first vanguard of the several hundred expected to attend already have registered today. Large delegations from surrounding towns have signified their intention of attending, and with all details of preparation for the convention behind the several committees that have worked for several weeks on plans, one of the most successful sessions in the history of the Legion in the state is anticipated.

The post at Lubbock this week has conducted a registration campaign of all ex-service men in this immediate vicinity, and registration of these will be out of the way of the regular convention registrations that open Saturday at 9 o'clock at the Hotel Lubbock, headquarters for this branch of the convention.

A special entertainment program for Saturday afternoon, in addition to band concerts and other forms of amusement has been arranged, including a "rookie drill" of several squads on the down town streets and other similar features. Every minute of the entire two days will be well occupied either with amusement or business of the convention.

Following the banquet Saturday night, to which registration badges will admit all who attend, a dance will be held at the Lubbock Hotel, and the registration badge will entitle the holder to reduced rates for the dance. For those who do not care to dance, a program of entertainment will be offered in the Legion hall in the Temple Ellis building.

It is expected that bands will be here from Floydada and Stamford, the latter the official band of the Texas department, and these with possibly others, augmented by the Lubbock High School and Tech College bands, will keep this department well alive.

Speakers for the convention include R. C. Winters, state commander, of Abilene; Reed Johnson, head of the Veterans Bureau, Dallas; Phillip B. Stapp, national director of the Legion Endowment fund; W. J. Buick, commander of the Fifth Division; and for ladies who are members or qualified for the Ladies Auxiliary, Mrs. Harding, state president, will speak. The ladies will conduct programs simultaneously with the Legion.

has responded to the various calls, unhesitatingly, and has given of his

The constructive ideals of Presiall things, but so earnest and conscientious that his work has attracted general attention.

As an advisor and friend, I have learned to respect, honor, and admire President Duggan. As a worker, he has had no superior, and few peers.
His finished addresses, sometimes approaching the classic, have made deep impressions upon all who have heard him. His unerring judgment, his zeal and earnestness have given West Texas a leader, of which she is justly proud, and his ideals will be an inspiration to future generations of the West.

S. J. R. No. 24.
Proposing an amendment to Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of Article V of the Constitution of Texas for the purpose of providing a more efficient judicial system.
Be it Resolved by the Legislature of
the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. That Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended so as to read as follows:
Section 2 (of Article V): The Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and eight Associate Justices, five of whom shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of five Judges shall be necessary to the decision of a case. No person shall be eligible to the office of Chief Justice or Associate Justice of the Supreme Court unless he be, at the time of his election or appointment, a citizen of the United States and of this State and unless he shall have attained the age of thirty years and shall have been a licensed lawyer for seven years and,
during that time, shall have been a practicing lawyer or Judge of a court of record, or such practicing lawyer and Judge together said Chief Justice and Associate Justices shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State, at a general election, and shall hold their offices six years, or until their successors are elected and qualify, and shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law. In case of a vacancy in the office of Chief Justice or Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, the Governor shall fill the vacancy until the next general election for State officers, and at such general election the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be filled by election by the qualified voters of the State. The Judges of the Supreme Court who may be in office at the time this amendment takes effect shall continue in office until the expiration of their terms of office under the present Constitution and until their successors are elected and qualify. When this amendment takes effect, the Governor shall immediately appoint six additional Associate Justices of the Supreme Court for terms of office so that the terms of two of such appointed Associate Justices shall expire with the term of office of each of the present members of the Supreme Court, and, upon the qualification of such new Justices, the Commission of Appeals of the State of Texas shall terminate.

SECTION 3 (of Article V): The Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction only, except as herein specified, which shall be co-extensive with the limits of the State. Its appellate jurisdiction shall extend to questions of law arising in the cases in the Courts of Civil Appeals in which the Judges of any Court of Civil Appeals may disagree or where the several courts of civil appeals may hold differently on the same question of law, or where a statute of the State is held void, and to questions of law arising in such other cases of which the Courts of Civil Appeals have appellate jurisdiction as may be prescribed by law; provided, that the Legislature may authorize direct appeals from the County and District Courts in any case where a statute of the State has been declared void. The Supreme Court and the Judges thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus as may be prescribed by law; and, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, the said Court and the Judges thereof may issue the writs of mandamus, procedendo, certiorari, and such other writs as may be necessary to enforce its jurisdiction. The Legislature may confer original jurisdiction on the Supreme Court to issue writs of quo warranto and mandamus in such cases as may be specified except as against the Governor of the State. The Supreme Court shall also have power, upon affidavit or otherwise, as by the Court may be determined, to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the proper exercise of its jurisdiction. The Supreme Court shall be open at all times and shall sit at the State Capitol for the transaction of business at such times as may be designated by the Court. The present statutes defining the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court not in conflict herewith shall continue in effect until repealed or altered by the Legislature. The Supreme Court shall appoint a Clerk, who shall give bond in such manner as is now or may hereafter be required by law, and he may hold his office for four years, and shall be subject to removal by said Court for good cause entered of record on the minutes of said Court, and who shall receive such compensation as the Legislature may provide.

SECTION 4 (of Article V): The Court of Criminal Appeals shall consist of three Judges, provided that the Legislature may increase the number to five, and a majority of the Judges shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of a majority of the Judges shall be necessary to the decision of any case. Said Judges shall have the same qualifications and receive the same salaries as the Judges of the Supreme Court. They shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State, at a general election, and shall hold their offices for a term of six years. The Judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals who may be in office at the time this amendment takes effect shall continue in office until the expiration of their terms of office under the present Constitution and laws.

SECTION 5 (of Article V): The Court of Criminal Appeals shall have appellate jurisdiction co-extensive with the limits of the State in all criminal cases of whatever grade, with such exceptions and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, and the Legislature may confer original jurisdiction upon it to issue writs of mandamus, procedendo and certiorari in criminal cases. The Court of Criminal Appeals and the Judges thereof shall have the power to issue the writ of habeas corpus and, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, issue such writs as may be necessary to enforce its own jurisdiction. The Court of Criminal Appeals shall have the power, upon affidavit or otherwise, to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the exercise of its jurisdiction. Said Court shall be open at all times and shall sit at the State Capitol, at the transaction of business at such times as may be designated by it. Said Court shall appoint a clerk, who shall give bond in such manner as is now or may hereafter be required by law, and he shall hold his office for four years, unless sooner removed by the Court for good cause entered of record on the minutes of said Court,
and said Clerk shall receive such compensation as may be prescribed by law.

SECTION 6 (of Article V): The Legislature shall, from time to time, divide the State into such number of Supreme Judicial Districts as it may deem necessary, not exceeding twelve at any one time, and shall have the power to re-district the State at any time, and shall establish a Court of Civil Appeals in each of said Districts, which Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and not less than two Associate Justices as the Legislature may provide, who shall have the qualifications as herein prescribed for Justices of the Supreme Court, provided that the aggregate number of Judges of all of the Courts of Civil Appeals shall never at one time exceed thirty-six. Each of the existing Courts of Civil Appeals shall continue until otherwise provided by law.
The Courts of Civil Appeals shall have appellate jurisdiction co-extensive with the limits of their respective districts, which shall extend to all civil cases of which the District Courts or County Courts have original or appellate jurisdiction, under such restrictions and regulations as may be prescribed by law; provided, that the decisions of said Courts shall be conclusive on all questions of fact brought before them on appeal or error. Said Courts of Civil Appeals shall hold their sessions at such places as may be designated by the Legislature and at such times as may be prescribed by
law. Said Justices shall be elected by the qualified voters of their respective Districts, at a general election, for a term of six years, and shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law. Said Courts shall have such other jurisdiction, original and appellate, as may be prescribed by law. Each Court of Civil Appeals shall appoint a Clerk in the same manner as the Clerk of the Supreme Court, which Clerk shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by law. The Judges of the Courts of Civil Appeals who may be in office when this amendment takes effect shall hold their offices until their respective terms shall expire under their present election or appointment.

SECTION 7 (of Article V): The State shall be divided into as many Judicial Districts as may now or hereafter be provided by law, which may be increased or diminished by law. For each district there shall be elected by the qualified voters thereof, at a general election, a Judge, who shall be a citizen of the United States and of this State, who shall have been a licensed lawyer for four years next preceding his election, and during that time shall have been a practicing lawyer or Judge of a Court of record or such practicing lawyer and Judge together, who shall have resided in the District in which he was elected for two years next preceding his election, who shall reside in his District during his term of office, who shall hold his office for the term of four years, and shall receive for his services such compensation as may be prescribed by law. He shall hold the regular terms of his Court at the County seat of each County in his district at least twice in each year, in such manner as may be prescribed by law. The Legislature shall have power, by general or special laws, to authorize the holding of special terms of the court or the holding of more than two terms in any County for the dispatch of business. The Legislature shall also provide for the holding of District Court when the Judge thereof is absent or is, from any cause, disabled or disqualified from presiding. The Supreme Court or the Chief Justice thereof may assign any District Judge to any District in the State other than that for which he was elected, with all the powers of a resident District Judge of the District to which he is assigned, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Legislature, or by the Supreme Court in the absence of such regulations enacted by the Legislature. The District Judges who may be in office when this amendment takes effect shall hold their offices until their respective terms shall expire under their present election or
appointment.

SECTION 2: Said proposed amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the electors of this State qualified to vote on constitutional amendments at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Monday in August, A. D. 1927, at which each voter op-

4, 5, 6, and 7 of Article V of the

the Constitution of Texas for the purpose of providing a more efficient judicial system."
If it shall appear from a return of said election that a majority of the votes cast have been cast in favor of said amendment, it shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Texas.

SEC. 3: The Governor shall issue his proclamation calling said election and have the same published and said election held in accordance with this resolution and the Constitution and laws of this State; and return shall be made and the votes canvassed and counted as provided by law; and if said amendment is adopted by the required vote of the qualified electors of this State, the Governor shall issue his proclamation as required by law.

Lubbock, May 18.—All is in readiness for the Fifth Division convention of the American Legion here Saturday and Sunday, and the first vanguard of the several hundred expected to attend already have registered today. Large delegations from surrounding towns have signified their intention of attending, and with all details of preparation for the convention behind the several committees that have worked for several weeks on plans, one of the most successful sessions in the history of the Legion in the state is anticipated.

The post at Lubbock this week has conducted a registration campaign of all ex-service men in this immediate vicinity, and registration of these will be out of the way of the regular convention registrations that open Saturday at 9 o'clock at the Hotel Lubbock, headquarters for this branch of the convention.

A special entertainment program for Saturday afternoon, in addition to band concerts and other forms of amusement has been arranged, including a "rookie drill" of several squads on the down town streets and other similar features. Every minute of the entire two days will be well occupied either with amusement or business of the convention.

Following the banquet Saturday night, to which registration badges will admit all who attend, a dance will be held at the Lubbock Hotel, and the registration badge will entitle the holder to reduced rates for the dance. For those who do not care to dance, a program of entertainment will be offered in the Legion hall in the Temple Ellis building.

It is expected that bands will be here from Floydada and Stamford, the latter the official band of the Texas department, and these with possibly others, augmented by the Lubbock High School and Tech College bands, will keep this department well alive.

Speakers for the convention include R. C. Winters, state commander, of Abilene; Reed Johnson, head of the Veterans Bureau, Dallas; Phillip B. Stapp, national director of the Legion Endowment fund; W. J. Buiek, commander of the Fifth Division; and for ladies who are members or qualified for the Ladies Auxiliary, Mrs. Harding, state president, will speak. The ladies will conduct programs simultaneously with the Legion.

DO YOU KNOW? IF NOT, YOU SHOULD!

THAT to buy any car, other than the FORD, you have to pay an average of at least $162.14 more as purchase price than the FORD.

THAT the FORD is the only car now equipped with the Vaporizer, which has so greatly increased mileage per gallon of gas?

THAT the FORD is the only car under the $3,000.00 class equipped with a Dual Ignition System, so when complicated delicate battery system is out of order or battery is low you can continue using the car with its old reliable magneto ignition system?

THAT the FORD has more horse-power (A. L. M. A. M. rating) each 100 lbs of weight than any other car?

THAT the FORD has more square inches of tire surface per lb. of weight than any other car?

THAT the FORD has more piston displacement per 100 lbs of weight than any other car?

THAT the FORD has more braking power for each 100 lbs of weight than any other car?

THAT the latest model FORD has 80% increased braking power on the foot brake and 130% increased braking power on the rear wheels?

THAT the FORD planetary transmission costs more to manufacture and is simpler to operate than a sliding gear transmission?

THAT at 35 miles speed you can instantly go into reverse with the FORD and not hurt the transmission—as an open gear which will ruin a sliding gear transmission?

THAT material used in the working parts of the FORD are the best quality known to engineering?

THAT 43% of FORD parts are sold at 15 cents or less?

THAT $1.00 worth of FORD parts is the equivalent to $3.00 worth of the parts of other cars.

THAT the FORD has a torque tube drive, found on such priced cars as Lincoln, Rolls-Royce, Marmon, etc?

THAT the FORD has the Thermo-Syphon cooling system, which needs no pump with its numerous parts and attachments?

THAT in FORDS the gas flows by gravity to the carburetor, requiring no moving parts, with no chance of vacuum tank connection troubles?

THAT the FORD has an all-steel body—the most rigid known?

THAT the FORD is a 3-point suspension car, the advantages of which are too great to detail, but will gladly demonstrate.

THAT the new Pyroxlin Lacquer finish on the FORD car cannot be affected by acids or even hot water? You can clean off boiling tar on it and soak it off with gasoline without affecting its lustre.

THAT the Pyroxlin Lacquer finish on FORDS is the most durable finish known?

THAT FORD cars take more abuse and show less depreciation than any other car?

THAT the FORD has the quickest get-a-way in traffic and easiest parked in congested districts?

THAT more wealthy people, who can afford any car, are buying FORDS than ever before?

THAT many a man has suffered loss of a good job, saving sometimes good reputation by trying to own and operate a higher priced car in both purchase price and upkeep than could afford?

THAT high priced cars need high pressure salesmen to prevent discussion of high automobile costs?

THAT automobile depreciation increases with investment?

THAT the FORD dealer receives the smallest discount given any car dealer by any manufacturer?

THAT the FORD is really ONE PROFIT car, because Ford Motor Company controls its basic sources of supply for raw materials.

THAT the FORD car can break the speed limit on any highway in America?

THAT there have been 163 improvements in the FORD car during the last 12 months?

THAT all FORD dealers' service stations operate on a flat-rate basis—no haggling or arguing—no undercharging one customer and overcharging another?

These facts have reference to cars manufactured in the United States of America.

Proposing an amendment to Sections
2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of Article V of the Constitution of Texas for the purpose of providing a more efficient judicial system.
Be it Resolved by the Legislature of
the State of Texas:
SECTION 1. That Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 2 (of Article V): The Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and eight Associate Justices,
five of whom shall constitute a
Justices shall be necessary to the
eligible to the office of Chief Justice
or Associate Justice of the Supreme Court unless he be, at the time of his
election or appointment, a citizen of
the United States and of this State and
of thirty years and shall have been a
licensed lawyer for seven years and,
practicing lawyer or Judge of a court
and Judge together. Said Chief Justice
receive such compensation as may be provided by law. In case of a vacancy in the office of Chief Justice or Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, the Governor shall fill the vacancy until the next general election for State officers, and at such general election the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be filled by election by the qualified voters of the State. The Judges of the Supreme Court who
amendment takes effect shall continue
in office until the expiration of their
Constitution and until their successors are elected and qualify. When
this amendment takes effect, the Governor shall immediately appoint
six additional Associate Justices of the Supreme Court for terms of office
so that the terms of two of such ap-
with the term of office of each of
the present members of the Supreme Court, and, upon the qualification
of such new Justices, the Commis-
shall terminate.

Section 3 (of Article V): The Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction only, except as herein specified, which shall be co-extensive with
Courts of Civil Appeals in which the
may disagree or where the several
courts of civil appeals may hold differently on the same question of law,
jurisdiction as may be prescribed by law; provided, that the Legislature
may authorize direct appeals from the County and District Courts in any
case where a statute of the State has been declared void. The Supreme
have power to issue writs of habeas
corpus as may be prescribed by law; and, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, the said Court
and the Judges thereof may issue the
writs of mandamus, procedendo, cer-torari, and such other writs as may be necessary to enforce its jurisdiction. The Legislature may confer
original jurisdiction on the Supreme
be specified except as against the
fidavit or otherwise, as by the Court
matters of fact as may be necessary
to the proper exercise of its jurisdiction. The Supreme Court shall be
open at all times and shall sit at the State Capitol for the transaction of
business at such times as may be de-
statutes defining the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court not in conflict herewith shall continue in effect until repealed or altered by the Legislature. The Supreme Court shall ap-
Court for good cause entered of record on the minutes of said Court,
and who shall receive such compensation as the Legislature may provide.

Court of Criminal Appeals shall consist of three Judges, provided that

the Legislature may increase the num-
Judges shall be necessary to the decision of any case. Said Judges shall
ceive the same salaries as the Judges of the Supreme Court. They shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State, at a general election, and
shall hold their offices for a term of
six years. The Judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals who may be in
takes effect shall continue in office
office under the present Constitution
and laws.

Court of Criminal Appeals shall have
such exceptions and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law,
and the Legislature may confer original jurisdiction upon it to issue writs of mandamus, procedendo and cer-torari in criminal cases. The Court of
necessary to enforce its own jurisdiction. The Court of Criminal Appeals
Court shall be open at all times and shall sit at the State Capitol for the
as may be designated by it. Said
give bond in such manner as is now
or may hereafter be required by law,
and he shall hold his office for four
years, unless sooner removed by the Court for good cause entered of record on the minutes of said Court,
and said Clerk shall receive such com-
law.

Section 6 (of Article V): The Legislature shall, from time to time, divide
the State into such number of Supreme Judicial Districts as to it may seem necessary, not exceeding twelve
at any one time, and shall have the
time, and shall establish a Court of Civil Appeals in each of said Districts, which Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and not less than two
may provide, who shall have the
Justices of the Supreme Court, provided that the aggregate number of
Appeals shall never at one time exceed thirty-six. Each of the existing Courts of Civil Appeals shall continue until otherwise provided by law.
civil cases of which the District Courts
or County Courts have original or ap-
pellate jurisdiction, under such re-
prescribed by law; provided, that the
clusive on all questions of fact brought before them on appeal or cert. Said
signated by the Legislature and at
such times as may be prescribed by
law. Said Justices shall be elected by the qualified voters of their respective Districts, at a general election, for a term of six years, and
shall receive such compensation as
Courts shall have such other jurisdiction, original and appellate, as may be prescribed by law. Each
a Clerk in the same manner as the
Clerk shall receive such compensation
as may be fixed by law. The Judges
ment takes effect shall hold their offices until their respective terms shall
appointment.

Section 7 (of Article V): The State
shall be divided into as many Judicial Districts as may now or hereafter be
creased or diminished by law. For
general election, a Judge, who shall
be a citizen of the United States and
of this State, who shall have been a
that time shall have been a practicing
lawyer or Judge of a Court of record
the District in which he was elected
for two years next preceding his election, and shall receive for his services such compensation as may be
the regular terms of his Court at the County seat of each County in his
district at least twice in each year,
in such manner as may be prescribed
authorize the holding of special terms
than two terms in any County for the
dispatch of business. The Legislature shall also provide for the hold-
the State other than that for which
he was elected, with all the powers
of a resident District Judge of the District to which he is assigned, under such regulations as may be pre-
Supreme Court in the absence of such
regulations enacted by the Legislature. The District Judges who may
until their respective terms shall ex-
appointment.
