TRUANCY: A CONTINUING PROBLEM

'Court Of Last Resort'

A 12-YEAR-OLD boy, his mother and a friend lowered their eyes to the floor as the judge pronounced sentence: "I find you a delinquent child and sentence you to the state school for boys at Gatesville."

Almost immediately the judge added: "However, I parole you to your parents who are instructed to see that you attend school regularly."

The scene took place Tuesday in Lamb County juvenile court, with Judge G. T. Sides presiding.

It is not a particularly unusual circumstance—it occurs regularly throughout the state of Texas.

Actually it is the schools' "court of last resort" for those children who habitually violate the compulsory school attendance law.

This PARTICULAR child, call him "Little Joe," must return to public school here regularly, or wind up at Gatesville.

His parole papers say that he must go to school and strive to make passing grades, and violate any other state laws or associations with any one who does.

All of this applies until he reaches age 17, when he will not be covered by the compulsory school attendance law.

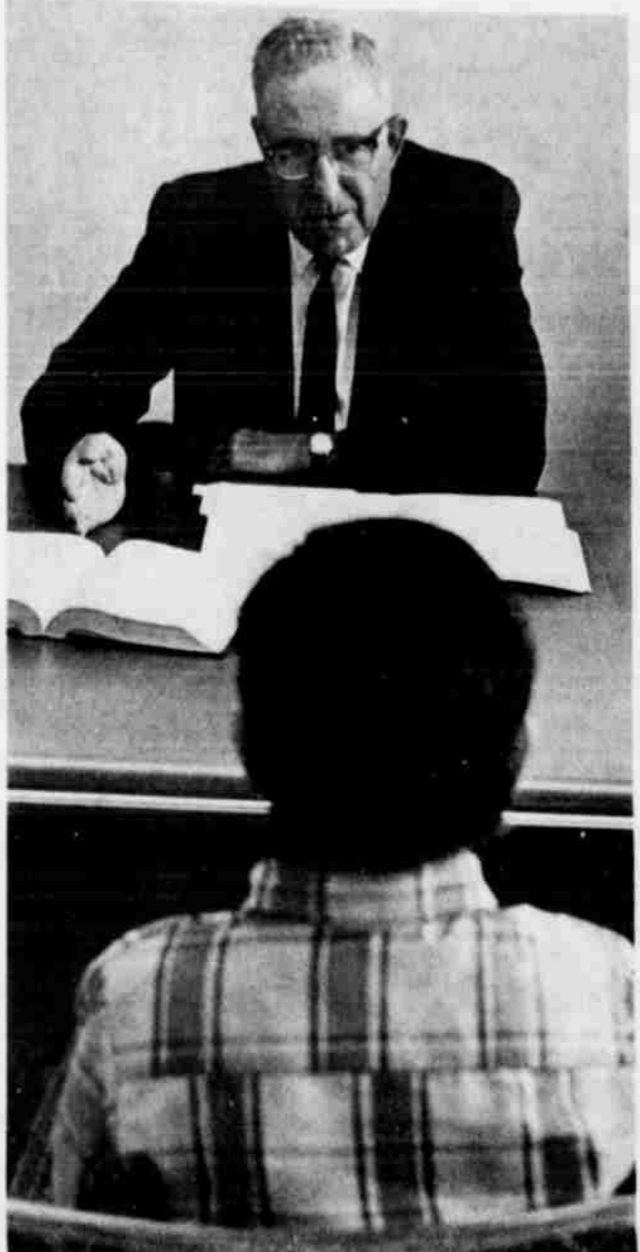

Not more than 20 minutes after the case against "Little Joe" was completed, Judge Sides received a call from school officials inquiring about the same procedure for another, older child.

One member of the school administration explained: "You see, the school is in violation if we do not enforce the compulsory school attendance law."

"We make a diligent effort to get a child back in school before we take the case to juvenile court. We use the court only as a last resort."

The CASE of "Little Joe," as an example, goes back to when he started school. "He has a long history of missing school," school official explained.

"Little Joe" is of Latin American extraction and comes from a large family. His mother speaks little or no English and his father is often ill, sometimes from heavy drinking. An older sister works, and other children in the family apparently go to school regularly.

The family isn't particularly well-off financially, but they have a TV set and a car. "Little Joe" has been brought to school many mornings with tears streaming down his face after he was dragged from the car by his mother.

Many times after he was in school, he would run away.

Last year, the school wrote a letter to the parents in an effort to get "Little Joe" to attend regularly.

This year, during the first 20 days of school, "Little Joe" was on hand for just six of them.

First a teacher talked with the parents, then the principal, and finally an attendance officer was called in.

When these efforts failed, the school then took its "last resort"—the juvenile court.

JUDGE SIDES talked to the boy for a time before passing sentence.

"Why don't you want to go to school?" he asked.

There was a steady quiet, and Judge Sides repeated the question: "Look at me and tell me why you don't want to go to school."

Finally, the boy spoke up in words to this effect: "Because the other boys pick on me."

Actually, said a school official, this is a common reason, one of many different kinds, given by youngsters who don't want to go to school.

"But if we can learn about any social problems a child may have at school, we try to correct them there, before the problem reaches the point of a child being afraid to go to school. And certainly, we try to correct these problems before they result in the child going to juvenile court."

Then he added: "We don't want to send any child away to Gatesville. We simply want him to attend school."

In "Little Joe's" case, school officials think "he can learn and become a useful citizen" if they can keep him in school.

Because of this, "Little Joe" has one more chance.

Education Film Important To Parents Slated Tonight

A film presentation at Littlefield Junior High School tonight will be an important event for all parents and others interested in education, school superintendent Paul I. Jones announces.

The film will outline and explain the main points in the report submitted to the governor after over three years of intensive study and research.

The special committee, for the purpose of formulating plans and recommendations to make Texas a national leader in public education, was established by the state legislature in 1965.

The panel of leading educators, under the chairmanship of Leon Jaworski of Houston, has been hard at work since that time formulating these plans and recommendations. Each of the 15 committee members was appointed by the governor and served without compensation.

The film outlines and explains the main points in the report titled "The Challenge and the Chance" which contains the long-range program for upgrading the Texas school system into a national leader.

The "Challenge" is a history of educational mediocrity which finds Texas traditionally ranked among the lowest one-fourth of the states in measures of educational achievement and financial ability.

The "Chance" will be offered in the next decade by a one-in-a-century combination of stable school enrollments, a projected 60 percent increase in economic activity and a rich harvest of prospective teachers produced by the population boom of the past 20 years.

To take advantage of its opportunity, "Texas must set its educational house in order, eliminate inefficiency and financial favoritism, and make an all-out commitment to excellence," the Committee warns.

The two showings of the film were scheduled so as not to conflict with the Pep Farm Dinner which is also scheduled for 8 p.m. tonight.

This is a rare opportunity for parents to obtain a look into the future of the education of their children in Texas, Jones said.

'69 County Budget Hearing Date Set

The date of October 14 was set by Lamb County Commissioners Court Monday for a public hearing on the county budget for the year 1969.

The hearing will take place in the commissioners court in the county courthouse beginning at 2 p.m. All interested persons are invited to attend.

In the meantime, a copy of the proposed budget is on file at the county clerk's office open for public inspection.

Setting the public hearing date was the only order of business considered by the court sitting in regular semi-monthly session.

W. W. Lewis, Precinct 2 commissioner, was absent due to injuries received in a recent automobile accident. He is reported still in critical condition at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock as the result of a collision near Earth Sept. 19.

County Judge G. T. Sides presided with A. J. Spain, Precinct 1, J. L. Yeager, Precinct 3 and Hubert Dykes, Precinct 4, in attendance.

Two Car Crashes Occur On Weekend

Two car crashes marred the weekend traffic scene in Littlefield with no injuries involved.

A Saturday evening crash at E. Delano Ave. and Highway 54 involved a Buick driven by Besie Strickland of Dimmitt and an Oldsmobile driven by Cecil Johnson of Anton, police reports show.

The Strickland 1962 Buick was reportedly traveling north on Delano and Johnson's 1963 Oldsmobile was proceeding west on H54 when the accident occurred.

Police diagrams indicate that Johnson pulled out into Delano and struck the other car in the rear door and panel with his left front fender.

Damage to the Buick was estimated at $120 and that to the Oldsmobile at $90.

The other accident occurred at the Bell service station on Hall Ave., just south of E. 8th, at 10:07 a.m. Sunday.

Police reports indicate that Louis Garcia, 16, of Littlefield, pulled his 1968 Chevrolet into the station and crashed into one of the gasoline pumps.

The pump was knocked over and an estimated $50 damage inflicted upon it.

There was no injury to Garcia and no damage to his car, according to the report.

smooth metal wheel in the front. In 1938 a Littlefield shop fabricated him a set of wheels with rims for mounting tires and that is the only set of rubber tires he has ever worn. The rear wheels were designed on the spot and the front double wheel was fashioned from a pair of Chevrolet automobile wheels.

In contrast to modern-day equipment, Parks' ancient machine lacks many of the modern conveniences, which bother him none at all.

In place of an automatic starter, it is equipped with a permanently installed hand crank and its only tendency toward air conditioning is the placement of the driver's seat—way out in the open.

All equipment pulled by the tractor must be raised and lowered with levers by muscle power, and they require a generous amount of said muscle.

Parks feels that a couple of hours wrestling time with his machine is equivalent to an all-day stint on one of today's automatic, power driven rigs.

Born in Liberty Hill in 1894, Parks moved to the Hart Camp area in 1925 and purchased his present 160 acres in 1929. However, he did not move onto the present location until 1938, and the tractor was delivered to a renter in January 1935.

He modernized the tractor, with the rubber tires, etc., when he took over the farm himself in 1938.

The proud owner is not quite sure now what horsepower his tractor was rated at, but is pretty sure it is right around 22. A check with a local equipment dealer confirmed that this could very well be right, based on low bar power and not engine horsepower.

"The original radiator is still being used and has never leaked a drop," Parks proudly brags.

Class Of 1958 Reunion Set

The November 8 Littlefield High homecoming will mark the reunion of the Class of '58.

Addresses of members of that class are being sought by a committee that they might be located and informed of the pending reunion.

Names and addresses should be turned over to Floyce Pierce, phone 385-4260, Mrs. Charles (Paula) Schroeder, phone 385-5324, or Mrs. John (Linda) Clayton, phone 385-3761.

A meeting of class members will be held this Sunday in the Security State Bank building to map out arrangements for the reunion.

Shake-Ups Prevail In Football Contest

Some real standings shake-ups took place last weekend in the weekly Leader-News football contest.

Lloyd Pollard, the leader going into the weekend along with Charles Didway, shucked off Didway, but picked up two other pickers.

The three money winners of the week are newcomers in that honored circle. And one of them entered for the first time.

Floyce Pierce became the only first place winner this fall to win top money without having to use the tie breaker scores. He missed two games. And it's a good thing, because he picked Texas University to win over Tech and failed to put down a score for the Dimmitt and Springlake-Earth game, which would have eliminated him had he been tied with anyone else.

Second place went to Dayton Kennemer, another Littlefield resident, entering for his first time. His tie breaker scores put him ahead of Ambers' Max McLelland, who took third place.

The Bula vs. Lubbock Christian High game was cancelled without notice to the Leader-News, and therefore that game will not count against or for

Full Slate Scheduled For West Texas Water Hearing

Final arrangements have been completed for the West Texas water hearing in Hereford Saturday.

People from all over West Texas who are interested in water resource development are expected to be at the Deaf Smith County Bull Barn for the all-day meeting beginning at 9:30 a.m.

The purpose of the hearing, to be conducted by the Texas Legislative Water Study Committee, is according to committee chairman Bill Clayton, "to find out how interested people in the area are in obtaining additional water supplies."

The water committee already has held public hearings on water problems in other areas of the State. "The problem in West Texas," Clayton emphasized, "is how can West Texas maintain and expand its thriving economy in view of its dwindling underground water resources?"

The agenda of the hearing sets out problems concerning underground water, the cost of imported water, willingness of the area to pay for it, and the need for an agency to contract and distribute the water.

In addition, the question is See HEARING Page 2

Downtown Rally Friday

A pep rally has been slated for the downtown area tomorrow afternoon in preparation for the Brownfield ball game.

In a continuing effort to whip up more and more support for the Wildcats, the Littlefield Quarterback Club has worked out arrangements with the LHS student council for the big event.

Slated for 4:15 p.m., following the regular weekly rally in the high school gymnasium, the rally will be held at the corner of 5th and Phelps Ave.

The general public is invited to attend and participate.

Farm Dinner Set Tonight

The long-awaited annual Pep Farm Dinner will be held tonight after a delay when the date was changed.

Originally slated for Sept. 26, the date was changed so as not to conflict with the teachers banquet held that night.

"TELEVIEW OF FLOWERS" is program theme for Littlefield Garden Club's annual flower show to be held this afternoon in the Willy Wirehand Room of the REA building. Mrs. Jack Fore, co-chairman of the show, chooses a rose for one of her entry arrangements. Four major divisions will be featured at the show, and entries will be accepted from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. They will be judged prior to public showing from 3 to 6:30 p.m.

West Texas Art Show Slated For Snyder

West Texas Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a West Texas Art Show Feb. 18, in the Snyder Coliseum, located 1 1/2 miles west of Scurry County Courthouse on Highway 84, at Snyder.

All artists 18 years old and over, who reside in the 132-county area served by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, which includes counties from the tip of the panhandle to the north, to Del Rio to the south, El Paso to the west and Fort Worth to the east.

Original paintings and drawings will be accepted in any medium. Rules state that works entered may NOT be copies, no class work, and that any work not in good taste may be rejected by the committee.

Subject for paintings and drawings will be restricted to West Texas subjects which relate to historical, scenic or tourist attractions. Any other subject will not be hung or considered for competition.

Best of show entry will be awarded with a $500 purchase prize by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, which will not include the frame on the winning picture.

First, second and third prizes of $100, $75, and $50 will be awarded in each division of oils, watercolors and other media.

The best of show award will be made in lieu of the first prize in one of the three classes named above.

One or more noted artists of the Southwest will judge the entries, and decisions of the judges will be final.

Rainbow Girls Visit Shut-Ins

EARTH—Ten Rainbow girls and three adults visited in homes of widows and elderly people Sunday afternoon.

Theme for the worthy advisor, Sharla Haberer, is "charity" and the visitation made by the girls was to put the theme into action.

Persons visited by the group were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Stockard, Mmes. Adline Newton, Nannie Ginn, Ida Allen, Harvey Hickman, Bud Gouch, L. H. Randolph, W. H. Braden, J. D. McNeal, Minnie Price, Bessie Cearley and Jarvis Angeley.

Adults who went with the girls were Mrs. Donald Kelley and Mrs. Forest Simmons.

Girls decided to continue the project and others in the community will be visited.

Officers of Rainbow for Girls will be installed in a ceremony Saturday evening, Oct. 5, in Earth Masonic Hall. The public is invited to attend.

Artists will be limited to two pictures and will be charged a $3 per picture entry fee.

Entries will be accepted on a first come, first served basis with no exceptions, as a total of 600 pictures will be the limit for the show. Entries will be considered in the order in which entry blanks are received and entry fees, made out to West Texas Chamber of Commerce must accompany entry blanks. Blanks may be picked up at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Entry blanks must be received in the office of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Box 1561, Abilene, Texas, 79604, not later than Jan. 15, 1969, or until 600 entries are received, whichever date occurs first.

All paintings must be framed and ready for hanging. No nails, strings or wet paint—and each entry should have attached to the back, a sheet giving artist's name, address, division, and if for sale, the price of the painting, with or without frame.

Work having won previous awards will not be accepted.

Annual Event Plans Start

An annual event for Littlefield entitled "Harvest Festival" will be staged next year during the early part of September.

The general theme and time were approved by a planning committee at a meeting at Thornton's Cafeteria Monday afternoon.

Suggestions for the affair, planned tentatively as a two-day attraction, included incorporation of the Sidewalk Art Festival at that time, subject to approval by the various art clubs.

It also was suggested that the "World's Tallest Windmill," soon to be erected here, might be dedicated during the Harvest Festival.

Future planning for the 1969 event will be continued Monday at noon at another meeting of the planning committee, which includes representatives of various civic organization here.

Slates Revival

Dr. Charles L. Allen, noted Methodist minister, author and newspaper columnist, will be guest preacher for "Harvest Revival" at First United Methodist Church in Lubbock, beginning Sunday evening, Oct. 6.

Dr. Allen was featured speaker at Littlefield's Chamber of Commerce banquet in January.

Guide to Glamor in Glasses

Face Shape	Characteristics	Beauty Aims	Recommended Style
SQUARE	Wide forehead, cheekbones, and chin line.	Reduce overall facial squareness, soften lines.
ROUND	Medium wide forehead and cheekbones. Rounded chin contour.	Narrow the appearance of the face. Minimize round look.
TRIANGULAR	Narrow forehead and cheekbones flaring to a wide chin line.	Increase width of narrow forehead. Minimize wide chin line.
OVAL	Moderately wide forehead, less wide cheekbones, tapering to narrowing chin.	Ideal facial type. Frame should not distort shape.
DIAMOND	Narrow forehead, high wide cheekbones tapering to a narrow chin.	Increase width of narrow forehead, minimize cheekbones.

Name of The Game is 'Frames'

On Twiggy they're a trademark. On the Princess of Monaco they're regal. When Sophia Loren wears them, she seems sexier and Lucille Ball looks like an adorable owl. But what about you?

WILL YOUR GLASSES add "spec's appeal" to your appearance? Of course they will if you'll take a tip from the beautiful people who now spend almost as much time choosing eyewear frames that are flattering—as well as far out, fun or just high-fashion—as they do selecting clothes, cosmetics and hair styles.

In fact, if Dorothy Parker were writing today she'd undoubtedly have to revise her famous lines to read: "MOST men make passes at girls who wear glasses."

Because most men are attracted to girls who know what the score is, they get with it. And these days, as you may have noticed, specs are making the scene from L.A. to London Town, from cover girls to campus queens, from discotheques to drawing rooms.

HOW DO CHIC TRICKS and mod moms manage to look so spectacular in spectacles? The secret lies in the word "frames". When you choose the right type of frame, your glasses will actually work for you, emphasizing your best features and minimizing your deficiencies.

They can also highlight your outfit, your image or your moods, helping you to make that quick switch from desk decorum to date devastation, from outdoor sport to candlelight coquette, from friendly pal to frame fatale.

How to choose an in-fashion frame which flatters? IT ALL STARTS with the shape of your face. Since the classic ideal of beauty is the oval face, your frame or frames should be those which—whatever your type—tend to create that illusion.

Pictured above are a few suggestions on high fashion frame-work as conceived by a group of leading beauty stylists working with frame designers.

IF YOU'RE LUCKY ENOUGH to have an oval face to start with, your frame should be gently rounded, almost understated, so that its shape does nothing to detract from that of your face.

A triangular face, as shown, looks best with a big, round-eyed frame; a diamond-shaped face will be most flattered by the new "hexagonal" eyewear; the length of an oblong face can be reduced by a square frame while the round or heart-shaped type should choose frames with a longish, slightly narrow look to minimize the width of forehead and cheekbones.

ONCE YOU HAVE DETERMINED your own frame fashion group, you still have a wide variety of styles, colors, materials, and trimmings to choose from.

Because, though few people are aware of it, the design of each new eyeglass frame is as thoroughly worked over and "prayed over" as the creation of any couturier's original.

For instance, frame designers follow Paris openings, consult with hair stylists, cosmetic and color experts as well as beauty and fashion editors...then create hundreds of new eyewear designs similar to those pictured.

THIS YEAR, the designers are concentrating on "geometrics", following the big trend in clothes, costume jewelry, fabrics and furniture with the result that frames in the shape of squares, diamonds, oblongs, hexagonals and oversized circles are very much in vogue.

As to colors, for daywear the experts advise a tone ranging from amber to black, the go-with-everything basics. But these from amber to black, the go-with-everything basics. But these colors include a wide choice—all the way from honey blonde to mock turtle and from sand gray to midnight jet.

Actually, just as in choosing a hat, a lipstick or face powder you'll be wise to sit down in front of a mirror and try on a number of shades in order to find the one most flattering to your hair, eyes and skin tones.

SPEAKING OF HAIR, you may be wondering how to find frames to fit your latest hair-do. Remember it's the shape of your face, not your hair, which should be the determining factor.

But many women prefer to have several variations of their style of frames—just as they use falls and switches to effect more elaborate coiffures for their after-dark personalities.

BI-FOCALS, by the way, can be fitted easily into the new big lenses and geometric shapes so that mod mothers can—and do—wear eyewear as flattering and high fashioned as their daughters.

When you stop to think that—even when you own several pairs—you probably wear your glasses more than any other item in your wardrobe, you'll see why it's worth the time and trouble to choose frames carefully with a weather eye toward comfort, cost, fashion, and flattery.

Miss Karen Bridges To Be Installed

"I help him out a good though, and when I do that tractor helps me help him," states. He lives alone on farm, having lost his wife, former Margarite Johnson Liberty Hill, in 1961.

His farming memories back well past the life of tractor, however, and he tells of the 4,000 head of cattle that were roaming in the area when he first arrived.

"They had a big round shortly after I arrived and gathered the cattle into Sod Hole Draw and drove them away. Then the country could be farmed with some hope of saving your crop from the animals," he said.

Parks and his tractor provide a nostalgic look into the past and their slow-paced ability a refreshing contrast to the hurly burly of the space world.

Hearing

Continued from Page 1 raised as to what terms should be included to receive imported water, and asks specifically, "should your county included?"

Other items relate to water pollution problems and changes in law concerning water distribution. On Friday, preceding the hearing date, the study committee members tour points of interest in area related to water conservation and use.

Included are visits to utilities of Water, Inc., the underground Water District, water research underway at Texas Tech.

Farming and agribusiness industries will be surveyed in the air, as the committee flies around the area, lands in Springlake to observe water conservation techniques. Special interest will be an experimental tail-water re-use system on Clayton's farm.

The committee will proceed by air to Amarillo for a conference at Trade-Wind airport then to Friona for a tour of the Missouri Packers' plant. Final destination is Hereford for reception and dinner Friday evening.

Saturday morning before the hearing begins, the committee will tour the Holly sugar plant. It is considered by Clayton showing the committee members this area of the state just one part of the selling plan that West Texas has to accomplish.

Following the committee's hearing in Austin during November, it will write its report and make recommendations to the next regular session of the Legislature.

Clayton urges West Texas "to take advantage of the hearing to place themselves on record in support of water development to meet the state's needs of the future.

To say the least, West Texas has to be unified for water transportation, and then in order to Texas to spend the kind of money we're talking about for the project, we are going to need a lot of down-state people on our side."

Stepping Stones Elect Officers

WHITHARRAL-- The 4-H "Stepping Stones" met Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 25, in the Lions Club Building for their first meeting of the season. New officers were elected. They are Joli Grant, president; Cynthia Wade, vice-president; Debbie Williams, secretary; Kathy Theford, treasurer; Cindy Tedder, reporter and Cynthia Wade, council delegate. Jean Smith, County Agent, met with the group and discussed the "Sew It With Cotton" contest, which was held in the Levelland High School Auditorium, Sept. 30 to Oct. 1. She also discussed duties of the officers.

During the first semester, 4-Hers will be working with foods and nutrition. Present for the meeting, other than officers listed, were Donna Avery, Brenda Polk and the 4-H leader, Mrs. J. E. Wade.

Betrothal Announced

John M. Boyles of Odessa, former resident of Spade, announces the engagement and approaching marriage of his daughter, Vickie Louise, to Ray Franklin Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Cook of Littlefield. The couple plans an Oct. 26 wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wave Boyles, 3250 Bolder, in Odessa at 8 p.m. The bride attended Spade schools and the groom is a 1968 graduate of Littlefield High School. He is employed by Western Uniform and Towel Company in Odessa. All friends and relatives of the couple are invited to attend.

Women Invited To AAUW Tea

Littlefield and area women, who are eligible for membership in the American Association of University Women, have been invited to attend the Lubbock Branch of A.A.U.W. tea honoring new members at Lubbock Women's Club Saturday, Oct. 5, at 2 p.m.

Special invitations are extended to women, who are eligible, where there is no organized branch of A.A.U.W. to attend.

Topics for this year's study in the Lubbock branch are: "The Growing Gap Between Rich and Poor Nations" and "Societies' Reflection in The Arts."

Emphasis will be placed on a fellowship program which should encourage women to return to college and prepare for careers in college teaching and administration.

Lubbock's branch of A.A.U.W. has contributed, for several years, to scholarships which have enabled women to return to undergraduate study in elementary education where there has been a shortage of teachers.

Reservations for the Oct. 5 tea are to be made with Mrs. R. W. Strandman, membership chairman, phone SH 4-6846 in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hedgpet were in Amarillo last week to visit their son Denny and family.

House guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hedgpet last weekend were their daughter and son, Mrs. Hal Beck and Zane from Coleman; Cindy Beck, a granddaughter who attends Tech and James Madegon from Stephenville, a student at John Tarleton.

Mrs. E. J. Newgent has returned home after having spent several weeks in West Texas Hospital in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hagler left Wednesday for Vernon to visit relatives and attend to business.

Supper Fetes Homemakers

WHITHARRAL--Young Homemakers met Tuesday evening, Sept. 24, in the Homemaking Cottage of Whitharral High School, for a salad supper. They honored Sharon Wade as "Little Sister", and presented her with a charm. Her name, date of presentation, and honor inscribed on it.

Present for the occasion were Sharon, her mother, Mrs. T. C. Wade; and Mmes. Bob Grant, Marion Polk, Don Avery, Lloyd Hood, John Dukatnic, Don Grant, Roger White, and the advisor, Mrs. Alicia Addington.

Mrs. A. Addington is Home Economics instructor for Whitharral schools. Young Homemakers will meet again Tuesday, Oct. 8.

Schedule Changed

Beginning Sunday, Oct. 6, time schedule for First Baptist Church will be changed.

Sunday School has been moved to 9:30 a.m. instead of 9:45 and morning worship service will be changed to 10:40 from 10:55. Sunday will be "advancement day" and the church will begin a new year.

Mrs. Eula Whitford Feted On Birthday

EARTH--Amherst Manor was scene of a birthday party Sunday afternoon, honoring Mrs. Eula Whitford of Earth, on her 89th birthday. She has been residing at the home the past few months.

Approximately 35 guests registered to help her celebrate. Her sons and daughters presented her with a large cake, decorated with red roses and an inscription, "Happy 89th Birthday, Grandma". The family has traditionally held a birthday dinner for her, but this year they celebrated with a party.

She received a corsage of white carnations, trimmed in better times pink, and received a pillow corsage of red carnations.

Helping her celebrate were sons and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Whitford of Knox City; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Boone of Springlake; Mr. and Mrs. Almond Whitford of Springlake; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Struve, Kerry and Kita of Dimmitt; Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Whitford of Earth; Mr. and Mrs. Keith Boone, Mark Michell of Springlake; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Boone, Banny, Joe Bob, Donnie and Danny of Lubbock; Johnny Eagle, Bernice English, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor all of Earth; Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Effie Vesch, and Mrs. Mildred Free of Amherst; and Miss Ellen Self of Dimmitt.

Activities

SATURDAY, OCT. 5
A MISCELLANEOUS bridal shower for Mrs. Gene Cotton will be given at 2:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. H. W. Bradley, three miles north and one west of Spade. All friends and relatives are invited.

MONDAY, OCT. 7
LAMB COUNTY Farmers Union will meet at 8 p.m. in the Willy Room of the RLA building. Guest speaker will be Dick Brown, candidate for Congress of the 18th District. The meeting will be open to the public.

Lyna Pitts Competes In 4-H Dress Revue

Lyna Pitts of Pleasant Valley will represent Lamb County when top Texas 4-H clothing girls will vie in Dallas Friday for annual 4-H Dress Revue honors.

Accompanying her will be County Home Demonstration Agent Mrs. Lady Clare Phillips.

Forty-six teenagers will model outfits they created as a highlight of the State Fair of Texas.

Judging will be at the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel, Friday, Oct. 4, preceding a press luncheon to announce the winners.

All contestants will be presented in two public fashion shows at the Women's Building Auditorium at Fair Park, 10 and 11 a.m., Oct. 5.

The champion will win a trip to National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, Dec. 1-5. An alternate winner will be selected, along with highest-ranking winners in all-cotton and all-wool divisions of the revue.

Finalists in the 4-H clothing activity represent approximately 20,000 Texas 4-H Club girls enrolled in clothing work this year, according to Fannie Brown Eaton, revue chairman and Extension clothing specialist at Texas A&M University.

Whitharral Band Parents Have Meet

WHITHARRAL -- Band Parents held their first meeting of the year, Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 24, in the school's band hall.

Blazers for 32 band members and what should be worn with them to compose a band uniform were discussed. A committee was appointed to measure band members Wednesday afternoon, so that the blazers may be ordered.

Band Parents discussed "Money Making Projects" and decided to continue with rummage sale or garage sale as they conducted last year.

They discussed having a supper before the homecoming game.

Proceeds from all projects will be used to provide a band trip for band members.

Present for the meeting were Mmes. T. C. Wade, president; Buddy Miller, Bob Grant, Robert Avery, J. E. Wade, Don Reding, John Dukatnic, Coy Howard and the band instructor, Charles Addington.

Class officers are Cynthia Dukatnic, president; Karen Hayes, secretary; Kathy Wade, treasurer; Rita Avery and Linda Wade, librarians; and Marla Sadler and Johnnie Graham, dog catchers.

What Are Your Rights?

Every year is filled with so many annual observances that few have much meaning. But one that should have true meaning is Constitution Week, the annual nationwide observance sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Constitution Week, just passed, was overlooked by most of us, but it still is a good time for all Americans to rededicate themselves to the basic principles laid down in our nation's most important document--The Constitution of the United States of America.

The Constitution means many things to many different people--but one of the most concise descriptions of the famous document was recently published by The National Republic. The article, which follows, is entitled "What the Constitution Means To You". Take time to read it.

"It establishes for you a stable and responsible government.

"It makes you a citizen of the United States, if native born.

"It gives you citizenship, if foreign born, on complying with liberal naturalization laws.

"It allows you a voice in the government through the officials whom you help to elect.

"It guarantees you life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

"It defends your rights, even against the government itself.

"It makes you equal with all men before the law.

"It confirms your religious freedom, and liberty of conscience.

"It accords you free, lawful speech.

"It guarantees you together with all people the right of peaceable assembly.

"It permits you to petition the government to right your wrongs.

"It guards your property rights.

"It prohibits the government from taking your property without due process of law.

"It lets you hold any office in the gift of the nation for which you are qualified.

"It enables you to become a citizen of any state.

"It prevents you from being held to answer to a complaint unless you have been lawfully accused.

"It ensures your right of trial by jury of your fellowmen.

"It grants you the right of habeas corpus, that is, the right to know why you are held a prisoner.

"It assures you a speedy trial.

"It permits you to have a trial in the state and district in which you may be charged with an offense against the laws.

"It lends you the power of government to compel witnesses to appear in your behalf.

"It relieves you from the compulsion to testify against yourself.

"It forbids excessive bail.

"It forbids excessive fines or cruel punishment.

"It protects you from slavery of any form.

"It keeps any state from depriving you of your constitutional rights.

"It sanctions your bearing arms for the protection of your life and home.

"It secures your home from search except by warrant.

"It guarantees you that the legal obligation of contracts shall not be impaired.

"It permits you to participate in amendment of the Constitution from time to time."

THE FARMER'S WIFE

War And Problems

BY LIBBY MUDGETT

I TOLD Dwight David at the time he sent our first specialist-advisors to Vietnam he was just liable to be starting something. I argued with John F. when he sent our first trickle of troops over, that there was apt to be no ending to that sort of thing.

Each time Lyndon escalated, I screamed for him to think about what he was doing.

EVEN AFTER I gracefully accepted the fact that we were in a mess that could have no other name than WAR I offered my advice and guidance, but was ignored completely by Robert S. We had a difference of opinion.

I thought that once you got into a war, you were supposed to win by any means possible. McNamara thought differently, but I never did quite get straight in my mind exactly what it was he did think.

Now then, three different little news items have proven me right. Aside from the fact that nobody seems to be winning and nobody seems to be losing, things are in a horrible mess from top to bottom.

ITEM NUMBER ONE has Clark Clifford announcing in no uncertain terms that nobody, including the Veep, had better predict when we can start having a gradual withdrawal of our boys from Vietnam.

In fact, he doesn't even want the word withdrawal spoken, and just to prove he means business, he insists that we are actually going to see a buildup of our troops to the authorized (who authorized that, anyway?) 549,000 men.

This means something and it ain't good.

ITEM NUMBER TWO is awful. It proves a breakdown in the whole system and I doubt if any veterans of World Wars One and Two will believe it.

In an Army stockade 18 miles north of Saigon named Long Binh Jail (LBJ) there are 700 GI's convicted of everything from AWOL to murder.

They rioted, which isn't unusual. They overcame 25 MP's, stole their keys, and left them bloody and beaten. Still nothing unusual. An hour later, MP reinforcements arrived, trained machine guns on the rioters with orders to straighten out. All but 250 of them did. So a phalanx of MP's waded into the hard-core 250 insurgents with fixed bayonets and tear gas canisters. In the ensuing melee, 17 MP's and 70 rioters were wounded, and one inmate was killed. So far, still pretty unusual.

BUT, after order was restored and 220 of the still "uncooperatives" were locked into an enclosed part of the stockade, guess what happened.

With the exception of three who were Puerto Ricans, all of the "uncooperatives" were black and the men in command at Long Binh Jail, fondly called LBJ, decided not to crack down on the militants but wait them out because, they said, they were "keenly aware of the civil-rights issue back home!"

THIS TALE GETS SADDER. The black militants, aware that they had already burned down the administration building that housed their records, gave false names and serial numbers.

Some of them shed their uniforms and tied white handkerchiefs around them for loin cloths, some made African-style robes out of Army blankets, and some just ran around in their birthday suits. Many beat out jungle rhythms on oil drums.

BY NOW, all of you old veterans are in shock, but even shockier is what follows. Scores of Army psychologists and stockade officials were sent in to find out what was bothering the poor dears. Reported one psychologist: "Most of them just wanted out of the Army and out of Vietnam."

Remember what used to happen to fellas like that?

I FELL UPON item number three with great joy. It was a list of what GI's in Vietnam wanted for Christmas. I already knew the Big Brass was nuts, wasn't TOO surprised at the lenient attitude of modern stockades, but felt sure that the average GI would always be the same.

He's not. He still wants poster-type pictures, all right, but not pin-ups of shapely females. He's requested stateside landscapes!

People, war is JUST NOT what it used to be.

Dear Turnrow Tunkel:

U. C. McBride

THE PARIS PEACE TALKS seem to be getting nowhere. Can you suggest anything that might help?

Yes--make the delegates on both sides pay their own expenses. With prices in Paris the way they are, a settlement would be worked out in a hurry.

I READ that Yippie leaders are planning a big demonstration at the presidential inauguration on Jan. 20, regardless of who is elected. Do you think it will be possible to avoid disruption of the ceremonies?

Easy. All they have to do is hold the inauguration in Chicago.

DID YOU KNOW that a French law requires all houses to be constructed to stand for 50 years?

That's not a bad idea. At least a fellow could count on having a roof over his head after the mortgage was paid off.

I SEE WHERE a psychiatrist says that if children spend too much time watching television, they lose the benefit of a close association with their parents.

He may be right. I'm thinking of limiting television watching at our home, in order to associate more with the kids. This policy will go into effect next Spring, right after the last football bowl game.

WHAT DO YOU THINK about that U. of T. professor who is calling for an outright revolution in the U.S.? I understand his contract will not be renewed.

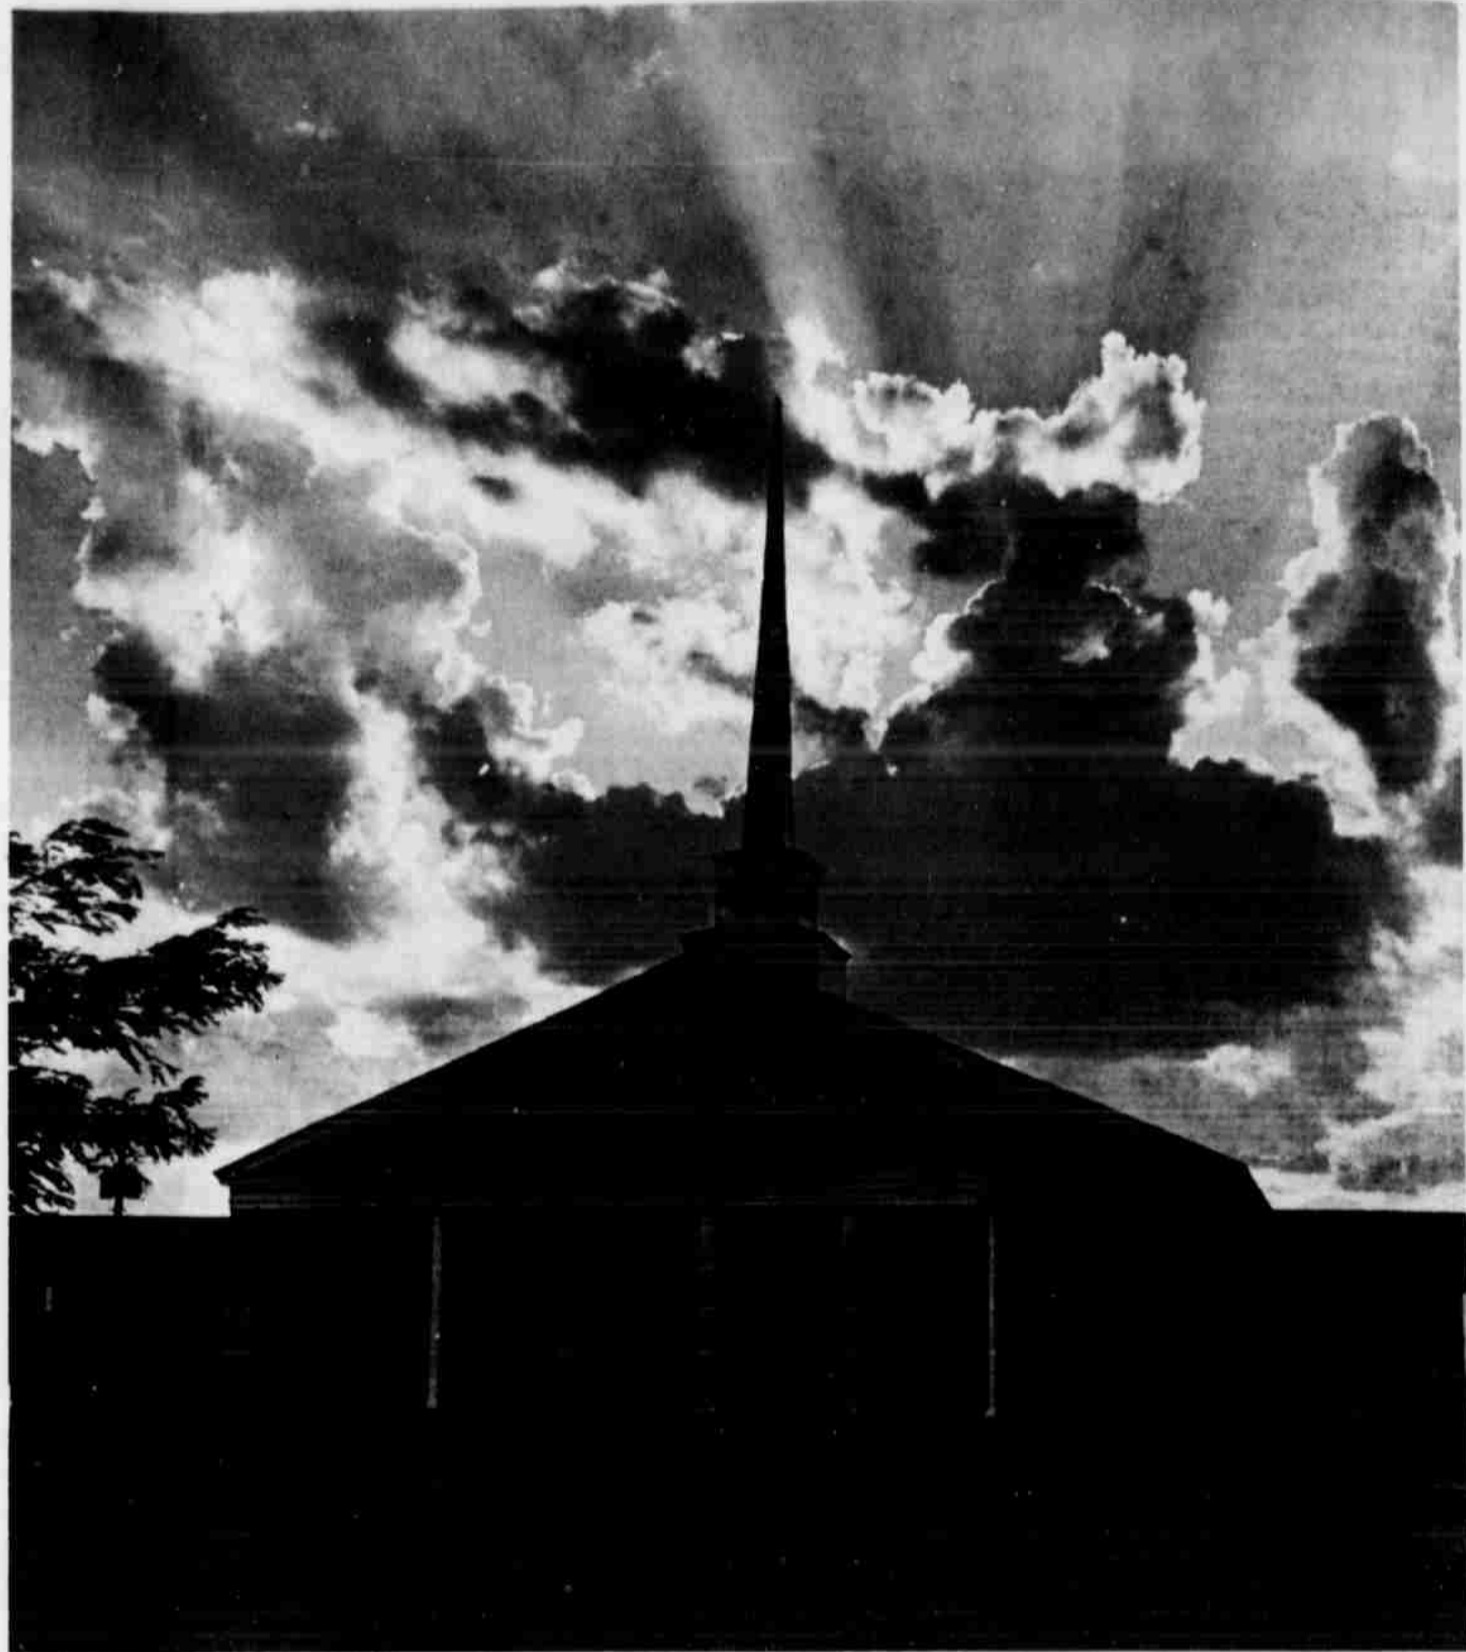

I think he deserves a new contract, but at a different institution--like, say, Leavenworth.

DID YOU READ that the AFL-CIO credits Hubert Humphrey with a 100 per cent pronoun voting record while he was a Senator?

I'm not against labor unions when they are operated properly, but I don't think they could have been right 100 per cent of the time. If Hubert voted that way, he was either simply after their support, or he didn't understand the issues.

PAUL HARVEY

Voters Holler

WHAT DO the politicians intend to do in Vietnam?

Never, in a national election, have candidates evaded the paramount question with such disgraceful double talk.

American mothers and their sons entitled to a straight answer to this and-death question: what do YOU, who to be President, intend to do about the in Vietnam?

MAYBE IN ANOTHER YEAR, says Bert Humphrey, we can start winning some Americans.

Already this war has dragged on for bloody years. Why should we suffer thru even one more?

And worse--the bait of "just one more year" which is being held out to American servicemen and their families is conspicuously nothing more than an election-sop.

RICHARD NIXON emphasizes "negotiation," promises he will "get us out of Vietnam honorably." How?

Running mate Spiro Agnew has said the Republican plan for Vietnam is being unveiled yet "for fear the rest of campaign would die of boredom." He proposes specific proposals before Election

If Nixon does not come up with a specifics pretty soon, voters must conclude that he has nothing better to offer than the discredited "sustained pressure policy" of the Johnson Administration.

Announced token withdrawal of American troops, reduced bombing, minimized casualty figures--these conspicuous election-devices only add insult to this agony.

EVEN GEORGE WALLACE modified "let's win" policy when advised that sensitive New York, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts are "afraid to aim to neck" Wallace, earlier, had offered a very sensible policy:

"As President I would call in the drums and ask if we can talk our way. If they said we could not talk our way I would call in the military experts and if we can fight our way out, if military experts say we can't win promptly and decisively with conventional weapons--then tell our sons to come home. We should have been over there in the place."

Recently, however, Wallace has been letting that third alternative in his past utterances.

RADIO HANOI, listening to the rapidity of our presidential hopefuls is boasting with increasing confidence they will oust us from Vietnam precisely as they ousted the French; not by force out--but BY WEARING US OUT.

The big three who want to be your President are seeking to divert attention to violence at home. Some of them manage to sound pretty tough when it comes corraling restive Americans.

BUT HISTORY will surely record much domestic restiveness derives from hopelessly prolonged foreign involvement which promise young Americans nothing but lifetime of uncertainty and probably premature death in places they can't even pronounce.

Demand a definite drive-it-or-park-it-mise right now--or you sentence thousands more American sons to die under this stalemate no-win policy for at least four bloody years.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Sacred Stewardship

BY BOB WEAR

MANY PEOPLE ARE HONESTLY CONCERNED about solving problems. They want to make necessary improvements, and generally do better with life, and with the world as the place where we live.

Many are not yet overcome with despair. Very few persons deliberately choose, as an intelligent act, to downgrade the living experience. They don't want to misuse and abuse natural resources.

It seems strange, then, that low grade living is so widespread, and natural resources are so misused and abused. There is something wrong that can be made right.

MUCH OF THAT WHICH WE RECOGNIZE as undesirable and would like to improve, can be accounted for on the basis of self-centeredness. There is too much of the feeling that "my life is mine to use as I please".

A companion viewpoint is the feeling that the world and the things therein belong to us, too.

THE EGO-CENTRIC VIEW of life and the world ignores the truth that neither life nor the world belong to us.

The concept of sacred stewardship seems to be almost unknown. If known, it has been rejected.

There can be individual improvement, and productive change in our use of natural resources to whatever extent we will begin to see ourselves as stewards.

Once we acknowledge our stewardship, and make it a sacred stewardship by accepting full responsibility for it, life will be better.

IT IS NOT EASY for us to accept personal responsibility, because we live in a society corrupted by the view that man is free to do as he pleases.

The view is that the individual is not accountable for the way he uses his life, or for the way he uses the blessings and opportunities provided by a benevolent Creator.

THE CONCEPT of sacred stewardship includes the self-control that all of us must have for effective, meaningful living.

Life is best lived when we accept it as a period of stewardship. We have been entrusted with the goods of another, and our Creator has been generous and benevolent in his endowments.

The land, and the substance thereof belong to the Creator. He says that the earth and the fullness thereof are his; he claims ownership of the gold and silver; and says that the cattle on a thousand hills are his.

No one can successfully dispute these claims. Therefore, we are responsible to him for the manner in which we use the land and its produce. Any other view makes worthwhile living impossible.

THE SACRED STEWARDSHIP embraces other things, too. Our lives, our time, energy, capabilities, opportunities and such like are most surely within its scope.

Stewardship, more than any other discipline, will help us to make the best use of these blessings.

Success in this stewardship demands faithfulness. The Creator of all things has said, "It is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful." To whatever extent, we accept this as a guiding principle for living, we are cooperating with the Divine order.

IF WE ACCEPT this guideline, we will not only have Divine approval in this respect, but will more nearly realize our intended fulfillment of life. We will also be more nearly discharging all obligations.

WE HAVE NO RIGHT TO WASTE or misuse what rightfully belongs to another. Living as stewards, we honor God, express appreciation for our heritage and show our interest in those who follow after us.

'69 Impala Custom Coupe

Just sitting there, this '69 Chevrolet can do four things competitive cars can't:

It can wash its headlights. It can apply liquid tire chain to its rear wheels. It can silently defog or defrost the rear window. It can keep you cool or warm automatically with Comfortron — the self-adjusting air-conditioning system. And once you've added all these wonderful devices to a new Chevrolet, you just can't imagine why anyone would give a second thought to a second-place car. The headlight washers and liquid tire chain for traction on slippery roads are operated at the touch of a button from the driver's seat. So is the silent new rear-window defroster. Invisible ceramic strips on the glass heat up to keep the window clear. Also available: Chevrolet's Light Monitoring System that lets you know from inside if all your outside lights are working, full four-speaker stereo, a smooth 3-speed Turbo Hydra-matic transmission. All in a car made quieter, made stronger, made more comfortable. Now at your Chevrolet dealer's. We've said it before, and we'll say it again. Back-To-School Parents Taught

What were those parents doing the night of September 24, 1968? Were they going back to school to learn? Yes! They were going to learn what their children are doing every day. One hundred and twelve parents were given a hearty welcome and general introduction by Beryl Harris, Littlefield High School principal. Back to School Night helps to communicate to the parents the purpose, goals, and methods used in different subject areas.

The Wildcat Band consists of 120 spirited members. Under the direction of Mr. Phil Anthony this band shows a great deal of the Wildcat spirit. The band performs at all the pep rallies and football games urging the students to put out all the spirit they have for the Littlefield Wildcats, and they give our boys the desire to go all the way and to try to do their best in every game that they participate in.

The band will attend the U.L.L. marching contest and also a U.L.L. concert and sight-reading contests. Mr. Anthony states that the band will do much better than last year in these contests. He says that the band has improved in every respect over last year. The Wildcat Band will also perform various concerts throughout the year. This band plays many types of music. During the marching season they play current pop music and standard numbers. During the concert season they play all types of music, from jazz to classical.

The marching of the band has improved a great deal from last year. Mr. Anthony states that they have a larger sound and there is much more enthusiasm than last year's. Mr. Anthony's description of the band's marching is described as GREAT!

The band council consist of: President, Allen Williams; Vice President, Gary Britt; Secretary-Treasurer, Janice Oldham; Senior representative, Connie Wimberly; Sophomore, Kay Armistead; and Drum majors, Diane Kesey, and Pat Chandler.

AND the BEAT GOES ON ***

BY DANNY GOWEN I can remember a time when all of us here at L.H.S. were in the Primary building. Life was so easy then and all that was required was to learn the alphabet. Back when a frog wasn't a specimen for Biology but an instrument of torture to be used during noon hour.

"Ah," those were the good old days when the lunch periods were long and hot roll fights were common in the lunch room. I can remember the well those great football games around the oil well, when a man really had to be tough. But then as always the bell rang and it was time to tame all of us football heroes with a little culture. It seemed that then culture only came in the form of a music class. After the first twenty minutes of stomach growls and spit was fought everyone settled down to hear some music. Of course we heard only the finer cultured music such as that by C. O. Tchowsky, whose name I still can't spell. Near the end of the period we got to sing all of the latest song hits such as Dear John and some Spanish song that no one understood.

"Oh well, enough of this foolishness. It's time to come back to high school and the reality of being grown up."

ATHLETICS IN ACTION

BY ROY BOLTON

The "Golden Trap" stays in L.H.S. for another year! Yes, the Littlefield Wildcats have done it again.

A spirited bunch of Wildcats went to Levelland with one purpose in mind; to keep the coveted "Golden Trap" in L.H.S. for another year. This was their goal and they met it.

The Lobos had a surprise in store for them in the form of senior quarterback Roy Burk. Roy, who was supposed to have played very little, if any at all, went most of the entire game at quarterback.

A large gathering of Littlefield fans witnessed the 'Cats score in every quarter as they beat the Levelland Lobos 31-6. Burk opened up the scoring on the 'Cats' second series of plays when he went over the goal line from the two. He then kicked the extra point.

Kenneth Twitty raced for a spectacular 62-yard score for the second Wildcat tally. Burk kicked the extra point. This made the score 14-0 at half-time.

After a questionable call on a fumble recovery, the Lobos went in from the Wildcat 46 on a pass play for the evening. David Perkins blocked the extra point attempt.

The questionable fumble recovery call came when the Wildcats fumbled on their own 46 yard line. When the pile was untangled, Jerrel Haberer, Wildcat guard, had very definite possession of the ball. However, the referee said it was a Lobo recovery.

Four plays after Levelland made their six points, Wildcat tailback T. J. Morgan bulldozed his way through the Lobo defense for a 28-yard T.D. Burk again booted the extra point for a 21-6 lead.

Early in the fourth quarter, Burk used his educated toe to add three more points by means of a field-goal.

Then, Travis Danford, who started at quarterback, outran overone from one side line to the other for an unbelievable 56 yard touchdown run. Randy "Red on the Head" Walker used his bare-footed socker-style kicking to add the final point of the game, making the final score 31-6.

Outstanding defensive play was turned in by Perkins, Vernell Kemp, and Windell Ashley. Lobo passes were intercepted by Kemp and Charlie Holt.

Tomorrow night the 'Cats take on the Brownfield Cubs in Wildcat stadium. The Cubs were rated third in this eleven team district by the Texas Football Magazine. It will be a tough game but the 'Cats plan to do their best to make it two in a row.

Keep up the GREAT school spirit and let's all go to the game. BEAT BROWNFIELD!

Athletic Banquet Set Up Under New Guide Lines

An athletic banquet open to the entire student body was the new decision made by the Student Council at a meeting Tuesday, September 24, in the Biology lab.

Members agreed that the annual event should include all students of L.H.S. The banquet will have the same primary purpose, that is to honor L.H.S. athletes. All athletes and presidents and vice-presidents of the various organizations of the school will be guests of the Council.

The new idea incorporated in the plan is to invite all students to attend the affair. Tickets for the event will go on sale at a later date designated by the Council.

LHS Has Part In Big Musical

The Lubbock Theatre Center's presentation of Rogers and Hammerstein's "The Sound of Music" last week included several people associated with Littlefield High. Mr. Dwayne Hood, who was choir director at L.H.S. last year, played the part of the messenger boy, Rolf Gruber. The part of Gretle, the youngest of the von Trapp children, was played by

It's Not The Cold Front- But Six Weeks Test Time

BRUCE TIMIAN and Kenneth Twitty are looking over the Golden Trap which was won for the fourth straight year by the Wildcats. The trap is a symbol of rivalry between the Wildcats and the Lobos. The 'Cats' swamped the Levelland team 31 to 6.

Coach Bartlett Now Teaching World History

Coach Jimmy Bartlett has returned to L. H. S. Yes, after a year of teaching health in junior high, Coach Bartlett is back teaching World History.

Coach Bartlett majored in P. E. and government in college. He attended Blinn College at Brenham, Tex., for two years where he received an A. A. degree. Later, he attended Sam Houston State College in Huntsville, where he received his B. S. degree. He has done graduate work at Stephen F. Austin State College in Nacogdoches, Texas, and is now working on his Masters degree at Texas Tech.

He and his wife, Mary Jane, have three children; Robert, 6, Mark, 5, and Karen, 4.

Coach Bartlett stands 5'11" has brown hair and green eyes. His hobbies are deer hunting, which he says is number 1, and also tennis and fishing.

Coach Bartlett likes the spirit of L. H. S., and the pride the students exhibit in the care of the buildings and equipment.

Dear L & M

I am 17 and last weekend I decided to try smoking. When I first bought cigarettes, I took off by myself to try them. I half expected to fall over coughing and give the whole thing up after the first puff. Unfortunately, much to my dismay, I like it! Now I don't know what to do about stopping. I want to become a minister, but here I am smoking and enjoying it. I don't want to tell my parents, because it will break their hearts. I don't want to go to my minister, because I'm afraid it would ruin his image of me. I don't want to go to God because I don't really want to stop. What can I do? J. W.

DEAR J. W.: Since you have only been smoking a short while, you should be able to break the habit easily. If your desire to become a minister is strong enough, you should be able to stop smoking with God's help. L&M

DEAR READERS: If you have any kind of problem and need advice, we would really be glad to help you. L&M

Wally Sanders Is Among Nation's Top Students

A letter of Commendation honoring him for his high performance on the 1968 National Merit Scholarship qualifying Test (NMSQT) has been awarded to Wally Sanders, Principal Beryl Harris has announced.

He is among 39,000 students in the United States who scored in the upper two percent of those who will graduate from high school in 1969. The Commended students rank just below the 15,000 Semifinalists announced in September by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC).

John M. Stalnaker, president of NMSC, said: "Although Commended students advance no further in the Merit Scholarship competition, their outstanding record in a nationwide program deserves public recognition. Their significant academic attainment gives promise of continued success in college."

"The Commended students should be encouraged to pursue their education since their intellectual talent represents an important and much needed natural resource. Our nation will benefit from their continuing educational development."

The Commended students' names are reported to other scholarship-granting agencies and to the colleges they named as their first and second choices when they took the NMSQT in February 1968. The reports include home addresses, test scores, and anticipated college majors and career intentions of the Commended students. NMSC encourages these students to make every effort to continue their education.

Your friendly weather forecaster predicts that many people will be staying indoors the next few days. Not, however, because of a cold front, because of the brain damage caused by too much studying the six weeks tests.

Even though many students deplore the tests they have been proven in the past to be beneficial to everyone. It is beneficial to the teachers because it informs them of the students ability to fully understand the subject. It is beneficial to the student in that he can limit his or her daughter's actions and concentrate them on certain subjects.

Six weeks test will start on 7 and continue throughout the week. So it would be wise to start studying now and plan any weekend activities you have planned. Remember the first impression you should be a good one.

STUDENT VOICINGS

If you were elected President in the November election what would be your official act?

"I would seek an end to war in Vietnam so that our national funds and resources would be kept at home instead of being going down the drain because that could drag on forever."--Vicki McKinnon (S)

"I would try to do something about situations in our country I think the most pressing problem is cure the disorders of distrust among the different races."--Dusty Angel (SR)

"My first official act as President would be to call the legislation on firearms because if anyone wanted to someone had enough they would not have to have a gun. There were no guns because people would have to fight to get them."--Terry Doshier (JR)

"I would either completely withdraw from Vietnam or even more troops. I would bring an end to the war way or another."--Rob Armistead (JR)

"Undoubtedly the first act of mine as President would be the problem of domestic tranquility. The situation of riots, demonstrations should be controlled. Although often seems the only way would try to promote togetherness of this country by agreement."--Curtis Timmons (S)

Wildcat Annual Receives Top Honor In Critique

"You have done an outstanding job with this book. I know that your students are proud of it. It represents superior achievement," reads Bill Dean's critique of the 1968 Wildcat. Mr. Dean, of the Tech Journalism Department, judged the annual at the Southwestern Council of Student Publications lab.

The 1968 Wildcat rated honor book in the 3AAA district with 1680 points. Mr. Dean complimented highly on the writeups, layouts, and photography in the athletic, administration and faculty divisions.

The 1968 annual staff consists of Milynda Morris (editor), Donarex Bowen (Business mgr.), Nancy Hall, Beverly Chisholm, Jo Reid, Gordon Sorley, Janice Oldham, and Jan Christian. At the present time the staff members are selling ads and the editor, Milynda, is working on the layouts.

Big Musical

Cindy Thrash, a second grader at Littlefield. Geofreen Grizzle, junior at L.H.S., was cast in the chorus of nuns, while Elton Boyd, a 1967 graduate, portrayed a Nazi soldier. Judy Penn played the flute in the orchestra and Jack King worked on the stage crew. Both attended Littlefield School before moving to Lubbock after graduation.

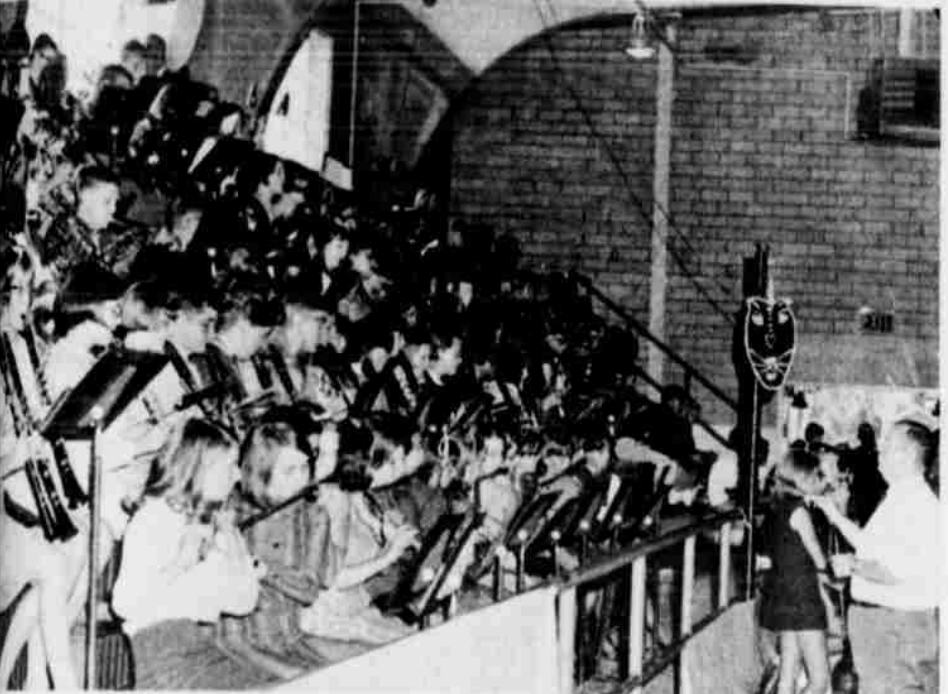

HONOR BOOK--Mrs. Lucille Betts, American History teacher and sponsor of the Wildcat annual, displays the 1968 Wildcat annual to Beryl Harris, L. H. S. principal. The book was awarded top honors by an evaluation team at Texas Tech--the second year in a row for a Littlefield book to gain such distinction.

NINTH GRADE TEAM INTRODUCED

NINTH GRADE FOOTBALL team of Littlefield High School was seated in its place of honor during a "very peppy" pep rally Thursday afternoon in junior high gym. Seated with the team is Coach Jerry Trees.

THE BAND IN ACTION

LITTLEFIELD JUNIOR HIGH BAND, directed by Phil Anthony, boosted the spirit for students at a pep rally Thursday afternoon in junior high gym. The ninth grade football team played Levelland there and the two eighth grade teams clashed with Levelland here.

Meeting To Reveal Water Plans

The President of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce has called a meeting of all interested agriculture and businessmen on the High Plains, to be held October 10, at 8:00 P. M. in the Muleshoe High School Cafeteria.

Colonel Cliff Chamberlain, Executive Director of Water, Inc., Lubbock and Mr. Harmon Elliott, Chairman of the Muleshoe Area Industrial Foundation, will present the Water Import Program.

Water, Inc. is a non-profit organization of farmers and businessmen representing the people of West Texas, Eastern

New Mexico, and Western Oklahoma. Its primary objective is to bring additional water supplies into the area through cooperation of the Federal, State, and local agencies.

A large membership is vital to the success of Water, Inc. This district is coordinating a drive with the other counties in this area to do what we can and what is expected of us as interested, concerned agricultural businessmen.

Water, Inc. is an expression of determination by civic leaders in this region to secure needed supplemental water supplies. Imagination and foresight of the area's leadership will result in the importation of the flood water of the Mississippi River by an open canal into this area.

The imported water will be beneficial to all concerned.

Anyone interested in the organization's work to import water into this area is invited to attend.

At the meeting, representatives from Water, Inc. will bring those present up-to-date on current developments concerning water import proposals.

Happiness Is ...

Beating Levelland! Kathy Turner

The reading public may never recover from the shock, but being of brave and stout heart, we do hereby embark upon our journalistic careers.

When that ought to impress our English teachers:

Interpretation: We is here, and this is the place!

For fun, good reading and out-of-this-world entertainment.....you'd better look no place else!

Perhaps we'd better explain why we are here. We sincerely believe that this advance our education, improve our minds and give us valuable experience. We also need the money.

Therefore, on bended knee we plead; turn your news. We need your help.

They thanks to Vicki Davis and Larry Birkelbach for their contributions this week. We really appreciate it.

In addition to this year's returning teachers, we wish to introduce our new personnel. They include Mrs. Barbara Harlin, Mrs. Dorece Jones, Mrs. Dorothy Simmons, Mrs. Grady Adcock, Mr. Jack Christian and Mr. Troy Carter. A warm welcome is extended to them.

This year the junior high choir directed by Mr. Troy H. Carter. We can all agree that the choirs are off to a good start.

Officers for the eighth grade choir are Larry Hoberstach, President; Shelly Grant, vice-president; Linda McNally, secretary, and Lynn Harry, librarian.

Officers for the freshmen choir are Chuck Adams, president; Kathy Turner, vice-president; Carol Chisholm, secretary, Beverly Thompson, librarian; Jim Graves, social chairman; and Linda Horn, Matt Giles and Ben Cosen, choir council. The seventh grade choir has not elected officers.

Lately, the choirs have been working on concert music.

The Jr. High Band is keeping in step by practicing for marching contests. They will compete in Levelland, Nov. 12. Mr. Anthony seems to enjoy raising his voice. ALABAMA, GET IN STEP!

Officers for the junior high band are High Funk, president; Jay Trammell, vice-president; and Linda Horn, secretary. (Bet you'll see them back next time, Kathy! Good luck at the contest)

BEAT LEVELLAND!

Thursday at 3:35 are Pep Rally days at 4:15. We invite all boosters to attend.

Helping at the Pep Rally is the band under the direction of Mr. Phil Anthony.

Leading cheers are Carol Chisholm, Beverly Thompson, Linda Horn, Shelly Grant, and Debbie Sorley. Majorettes are Carla Owens, Amy Owens, Wanda Cotter and Cheryl Carter.

BEAT LEVELLAND!

The eighth grade football team got off to a roaring start winning over Muleshoe, 14-8. They were defeated by Levelland. This Thursday they venture to Olton to get a cold!

Although the freshmen were defeated at Muleshoe, they played a great game at Levelland. This Thursday the Lobos will come to Littlefield to battle with the Wildkittens again. Coach Jerry Trees and Coach Jack Christian are doing a great job in working with the boys.

BEAT LEVELLAND!

A student council has been chosen by the teachers to represent our school during the upcoming year. They help plan assemblies, programs, etc. They are: Kim Jungman, Astollo Venzor, Gary Brown, Brenda Simington, J. E. Johnson, Randy Dayton, Martha Brown, Larry Birkelbach and Vicky Davis.

The Junior High had its first assembly Tuesday, Sept. 24. The talk presented by Mr. Bob Wear was enjoyed by everyone. A maroon sports coat was presented to the principal, Mr. Tommy Brawley, by the cheerleaders on behalf of the students.

BEAT LEVELLAND!

Coach Elliott: "Patricia, name the four seasons."

Patricia Wendel: "Salt, pepper, sugar and spice."

Beverly Thompson: "I've invented something which will allow people to see right through the walls."

Ethel Simon: "Say, that's great! What are you going to call it?"

Beverly: "A window."

Mrs. Simmons: "Robert Burns wrote, 'To a Field Mouse'."

Doug Allen: "I'll bet he didn't get an answer!"

Mrs. Brown: "I sure wish you'd stop reaching for things. Don't you have a tongue?"

Gary: "Yep, but my arm is longer!"

Ben McKinnon: "I'm looking for a beautiful girl."

Debbie Sorley: "Well, here I am."

Ben: "Swell, you can help me look."

Have a good week and.....

ORDINANCE NO. 263

AN ORDINANCE FIXING, LEVYING AND APPORTIONING AD VALOREM TAXES FOR THE CITY OF LITTLEFIELD, TEXAS, FOR THE YEAR 1968; FIXING THE DATE AND TIME OF PAYMENT THEREOF; APPLYING A RATE OF SIX PER CENT (6%) INTEREST ON ALL PAST DUE TAXES; FIXING A LIEN AGAINST THE PROPERTY ASSESSED; PROVIDING FOR THE COLLECTION OF SUCH TAXES, PENALTIES AND INTEREST; AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

WHEREAS, the City Assessor-Collector of Taxes has duly compiled and heretofore duly delivered to the Board of Equalization the tax assessment rolls and lists for the City for the year 1968 and said Board thereupon examined, corrected and approved such rolls and lists in the manner, and following the procedures, required by the City Charter; and

WHEREAS, the City Council has duly approved said rolls and adopted same as the assessment rolls to be used for collection of taxes for the year 1968; and

WHEREAS, such tax assessment rolls list real estate of the value of $13,911,440.00 and personal property of the value $2,758,540.00; and

WHEREAS, the City Council finds that the tax for the year 1968 hereinafter levied for current expenses of the City and the general improvement of the City and its property must be levied to provide the revenue requirements of the budget for the ensuing year; and

WHEREAS, the City Council further finds that the taxes for the year 1968, hereinafter levied, are necessary to pay interest and to provide the required sinking fund on outstanding bonds of the City issued for municipal purposes;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF LITTLEFIELD, TEXAS:

SECTION ONE
There is hereby assessed and levied, and there shall be collected as provided by law, an ad valorem tax for the year 1968, on all property situated within the city limits of Littlefield on January 1, 1968, and the rate to be applied to the value of such property shall be $1.09 per $100.00 assessed valuation, unless exempted by the Constitution of the State of Texas or otherwise.

SECTION SIX
The fact that the 1968-69 fiscal year and the budget therefor become effective October 1, 1968, before the next City Council meeting, and that this Ordinance establishes appropriations said budget, requires that this Ordinance be immediately adopted upon its passage and shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and adoption upon first reading publication twice in a local newspaper of general circulation.

PASSED, APPROVED AND ADOPTED on this, 19th day of September, 1968.
J. E. CHISHOLM, Mayor

Legal Notice
NOTICE OF BUDGET HEARING
Notice is hereby given in accordance with Article 689a-11, Vernon's Civil Statutes of the State of Texas that the Commissioners' Court of Lamb County, Texas, will have a public hearing on the Budget of Lamb County for the year 1969 on October 14, 1968, at 2:00 O'clock P.M. at the regular meeting place in the County Courthouse at Littlefield, Texas, for the purpose of considering the County Budget.

The proposed budget for Lamb County for the fiscal year beginning January 1, 1969, and ending December 31, 1969, will be on file with the County Clerk of Lamb County, and will be open to inspection to all the citizens of Lamb County, Texas. Any taxpayer shall have the right to be present and participate in the hearing to be held on October 14, 1968.
S/ G. T. Sides
County Judge
Lamb County, Texas

Denominators Of Inflation
The non-partisan National Industrial Conference Board has supplied two useful denominators of inflation.

It tells us that a $5,000 salary in 1959 was equal in purchasing power to a salary of $14,000 today. Inflation accounted for $7,258 of the increase; higher taxes for the rest.

More dramatic, perhaps, is the disclosure that the citizen who held a $10,000 life insurance policy when President Johnson entered the White House has seen that policy depreciate $917 in purchasing power. It is now worth only $9,083.

LEGAL NOTICE

SECTION TWO
The taxes herein are assessed and levied according to City's Charter and shall be payable on or before February 31, 1969, and all such taxes not paid prior to February 1969, shall be delinquent, there is hereby assessed and levied, and there shall be collected, a penalty of ten per cent (10%) and interest from the day of March, 1969, at the rate of one-half of one per cent (1/2%) per month until such time as the unpaid taxes and penalty shall be paid.

SECTION THREE
The taxes, penalty and interest, if any, shall constitute a first and prior lien against property upon which the taxes are assessed.

SECTION FOUR
All rights and powers are hereby granted to cities and towns as provided in the Constitution of the State of Texas and all laws for enforcement and collection of taxes, penalty and interest shall be available to said cities and officers to enforce collection thereof.

SECTION FIVE
That the tax so levied shall be apportioned to the following:

- A. For the purpose of paying the interest and providing a sinking fund for the payment of all standing general obligation bonds:
Total Bond Requirement $375
- B. To pay the general expenses of the City Government as provided by budget for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1969:
General Operating Expenses $715
Total Tax Levy $1,090

Mrs. Roberts 'Community Chorus' Takes Course To Begin Practice

Mrs. Wiley Roberts recently completed a six-day portrait painting course in Lubbock, under instruction of Viva Faye Lefler. Mrs. Lefler, of Springfield, Mo., is master colorist and master photographer, and is owner of Lefler School of Color in Missouri. She also is instructor of Winona Professional Photographers' School in Indiana, and taught six weeks in New Zealand this summer. Five other persons in this general area, besides Mrs. Roberts, attended the course at Lubbock. A "Community Chorus" will be rehearsing every Sunday evening at 8:15 in the Auditorium of First Baptist Church in Littlefield. The newly organized chorus will be composed of citizens in the area who are of high school age and up, and interested persons of all faiths are invited to participate. The "Chorus" will begin working this Sunday on Handel's "The Messiah" for a Christmas presentation sometime before Christmas. Al Jordan, minister of music and education at First Baptist Church, will be director. Tryouts will be conducted the next two weeks for solo parts. During the organizational meeting recently, Dr. Carl Nowlin was elected as president of the Chorus; Mrs. Phil Anthony, vice-president; and Mrs. Lonnie Sanderson, secretary-treasurer. Accompanists will be Miss Candice Porcher, pianist and Mrs. Troy Carter, organist.

OBITUARIES

Starr R. Haile

Services for Starr R. Haile, 68, longtime Littlefield resident and barber, were held Monday afternoon in First Methodist Church, with Rev. Wallace Kirby, pastor, officiating. Haile died at 4:12 a.m. Saturday in Baylor Hospital at Dallas following an illness of two months.

Burial was in Littlefield Memorial Park, with Hammons Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Born Aug. 26, 1900 at Sipe Springs in Comanche County, he came to Littlefield in the spring of 1924 as a barber. He began business in his present barbershop on Phelps Avenue in 1925, where he had been in business until his death—with the exception of a few years during World War II.

Surviving are his wife, Virgie; two sons, Bartee Haile of Dallas and Randy Haile of Littlefield; a step-son, S. Sgt. William C. Chapman of Hawaii; a step-daughter, Mrs. Waymon Messer of Littlefield; a sister, Mrs. W. D. Gilder of Kingsland; four brothers, Joe Haile of Gorman, Louie Haile of Midland, Sam Haile of Andrews and Lee Haile of Parker, Ariz.; and eight grandchildren.

Olton Baptists Schedule Revival

OLTON — Beginning with a "Prayer Breakfast" Friday morning, First Baptist Church of Olton will begin a two-day youth revival.

Travis Hart will be evangelist for the meeting and Bob Strait, minister of music and youth of the church, will be in charge of the music and activities.

Friday night, following the Abernathy and Olton football game, youth of the city will be feted to a fellowship with Travis Hart. "Six inch" hamburgers and all the trimmings will be served to the hungry youngsters.

Saturday morning at 10, youth will be involved in visitation, which will be followed by a lunch of chicken and dressing.

All fourth through eighth graders will be given a fete' champtre at 5 p.m. Saturday. "Come see what that is, kids!" say members of the revival team.

The revival choir will rehearse Saturday night at 7:15 and the evening service will begin at 8. A fellowship will follow the service.

Sunday's schedule will follow the regular format of Sunday School at 9:30, morning worship at 11, youth choir at 4:30, Training Union at 6 (during this time youth will be visiting), evening worship at 7, and a final fellowship that evening.

Travis Hart is a ministerial student at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth. He is married and a graduate of Wayland Baptist College. His home is Oklahoma City and is presently pastor of Jermyn Baptist Church at Jermyn.

While in Wayland, he served as youth director at both First Baptist Church in Tullia and Floydada.

Harold Dean Carson and Mrs. Bob Allford will be accompanists for the services. Special arrangements are being made for the employment of various other instruments in unusual and interesting musical activities during the services.

The Youth Choir will sing each night and plans are for portions of both "Good News—A Christian Folk Musical" and the choir's program, as presented at a meeting recently in Fort Worth, will be presented.

Pastor of the church is John E. Lewis, who issues an invitation to the public to attend each of these services.

"THE CITIZENS" of Abilene will be featured for entertainment at First Baptist Church Friday night following the Littlefield-Brownfield game. The group is composed of 20 high school students who are accompanied by three guitars, drum set and piano. All high school students are invited by the church to attend the after game fellowship, to be held in the basement of the church.

After Game Fellowship To Feature Singing Group

"The Citizens", an entertainment group from the First Baptist Church of Abilene, will appear at the "After Game Fellowship" following the Brownfield game in the basement of First Baptist Church. All high school students are welcome.

This group is part of the new "Mission-Action" program of the First Baptist Church, under the direction of Bob Burroughs, minister of music.

"The Citizens" grew out of a need to take the Church into the world—where the people live!

With this group, we can show that clean-cut, attractive young people can present a professional-type entertainment show without any gimmicks—and still maintain a daily Christian witness through Christ-like living on the high school campus", says Burroughs.

"The Citizens" are made up of 20 high school students, who give an hour per week to rehearsal and staging. Their program is fast-moving. Simple staging and movement of the group add life and luster to their show. Accompaniment for group is three guitars, drum set, and piano.

The group has sung at HemiFair '68, Knotts Farm, Baylor University, Hedin-Simmons University, many engagements with church and community groups in and around Abilene.

In June, 1969, the group will appear at the Southern Baptist Convention, in New Orleans at the invitation of the Southern Baptist Church Music Conference.

Area Teachers Aid Reading Conference

Two area teachers are playing important parts in preparations for a reading conference to be held in Lubbock Friday and Saturday.

Rita Traugott, Littlefield, and Mary Tollets, Sudan, are serving as committee members for the second annual Lubbock Area Reading Conference to be held at Coronado High School.

The conference is expected to draw more than 1,000 teachers and school administrators from throughout the South Plains and New Mexico.

Two nationally-recognized leaders in the field of reading, Dr. Bill Martin Jr. of a New York City publishing firm and Dr. Roy Kress of Temple University reading clinic in Philadelphia, are featured conference speakers. Dr. Kate Bell of Houston, widely known for her educational leadership in the southwest, will speak at a group meeting of intermediate eral chairman. Mrs. Bonnie McCullough of Lubbock is reservations chairman.

Committee chairmen include Mrs. Betty Stephens, luncheon; Charles Kennedy, exhibits; Miss Virginia Miller reception; Mrs. Bettye Scott, evaluation; Mrs. Bernice Railsback, interest groups and Mrs. Delphine Young, hospitality.

OLTON OPENS CONFERENCE

Bulldog, Wolverine Game Headlines Area Action

Hundreds of Littlefield area sports fans will turn their eyes toward a field in between two north Lamb communities tomorrow evening where considerable dust and yelling is bound to occur. It's the annual tussle between Amherst and Springlake-Earth, starting at 8 p.m.

The two clubs are probably more evenly matched this year than they've been in the past several years, in manpower, records and experience. They're both 1-2 for the season.

Hosting Wolverines are not likely to forget the 26-16 stalling they were handed by the Bulldogs in 1967.

In another area headliner, the Mighty Mustangs of Olton open their quest for a repeated District 3-AA crown when they host dangerous Abernathy.

To begin at 7:30 p.m., the Mustangs will be playing without the services of highly touted Benny Akin.

The run-run halfback sustained a knee injury against Muleshoe (won by Olton 49-7) and will be held out of this contest. Specialists say the injury is only a sprained muscle. The condition has been aggravated in all three games played, and wasn't new in the Mule contest.

Olton is rolling along with a 43-point clip per contest, while its stubborn defense is allowing only 5.3 points averaged against it.

Abernathy lost its first game of the season Friday night, 21-6 to Childress, and will be trying for the big upset of the year. The Antelopes count heavily on the passing of Jerry Fuller to All-South Plains splinter Clark Riley to counter the Mustang defense.

Next to winning the District 3-A title again, Sudan's proud Hornets want to beat the Seagraves Eagles.

It was the mighty Eagles last season who handed the Hornets a 22-15 loss in non-conference play, and then knocked Sudan out of the state playoffs at the quarter finals level with a 14-0 shutout on a cold, cold evening. Seagraves had 13 returning lettermen from that club. Both teams are expected to win their respective conference titles again this season.

Sudan thumped Morton by a 23-0 margin last Friday, while Seagraves was getting its first win of the season. But that was an impressive one. The Eagles knocked off previously undefeated and state-ranked Spur, 44-16.

That contest will be played at Seagraves.

The Whitharral Panthers, now 1-2 for the season, will attempt to knock Union from the ranks of the undefeated but once tied tomorrow night at Union.

The Panthers are 10th ranked among Eight Man clubs in the region.

PROFESSIONAL PLAYERS

Nutrition Is Their Goal

Supply half a ton of meat, nearly 200 dozen eggs, over 30 crates of fresh fruit, and 170 gallons of fruit drink, and what have you got?

The answer? The training table menu of a typical National Football League team for an average week during pre-season training.

Fueling a professional football team may involve some staggering statistics--both individually and collectively--particularly during the training camp period, when the teams eat three meals a day together. But underlying the quantity story is a great concern for the quality of nutrition.

Today's pros know that their performance on the field is directly linked to their physical condition, and this means more than just exercise--it means proper nutrition as well.

The diet for players on each of the 16 NFL clubs is closely supervised by trainers, team physicians, and food directors or dietitians. The result is a combination of calories, vitamins and proteins that enables the pros to sustain the hard knocks and all-out drives that make up the game.

Of course, while everyone doesn't have the nutritional requirements of a 280-pound tackle, a well-balanced diet nevertheless plays an essential part in every family fitness program.

The pro players themselves, for the most part, are well aware of what's good for them. They have learned to follow good food habits during the off-season as well as during the season. At training camp, however, conditions are designed and controlled for maximum nutritional benefits.

Calories are watched by pro footballers just as avidly as by non-gridders--but often for a different reason. In most camps, there are more players trying to GAIN weight than lose. Consequently, there is plenty of food available--and calories may range from 900 to 6,000 per day. The average pro consumes about 3,000 calories daily. But they aren't wasted. They're what the players need to keep changing through long workouts.

Training table diets may be adjusted to fit the needs of individual players. Some teams have separate "fat man's" tables for overweight players. These get skim or instant non-fat milk, no rich desserts, and smaller portions, to help them achieve their ideal playing weight.

With players on any given team coming from a score or more of states, there naturally are food preferences and prejudices. But without exception the teams rely heavily on meat, cheeses, and wheat cereals for protein; fruit juices, vitamin-fortified drinks, fresh and dried fruit, and light desserts for energy; and a variety of vegetables and salads for needed vitamins.

Because the players' weight may fluctuate 5-7 pounds during a long, hard workout, they consume prodigious amounts of juices. Starches, along with fried foods and heavy desserts are avoided, since the pro's gustatorial credo is to cut calories when they don't contribute to good nutrition.

If the training camp meals are the foundation for a player's season-long conditioning, the pre-game meal is the hi-octane icing on the cake. A typical pre-game meal, served about four hours before the Sunday afternoon kickoff, might consist of a thick New York steak, scrambled eggs, baked potato, hot vegetables, and plenty of fruit juices.

There are, of course, special requests. One star player insists on a pre-game meal of a plate of scrambled eggs, dry, with a side order of two raw eggs. Others stipulate liquid foods only before a game. "There's a lot of psychology involved in the pre-game meal," explains one NFL team physician. "There are a lot of fetishes and folklore tied up in athlete diets. A lot depends on where he's from, where he went to school, and what his high school coach may have told him. We just see that they get what they want, and lots of it."

All this, he adds, is to insure that the players go onto the field as mentally and physically prepared as possible.

At home or on the road, the pros occasionally indulge in their special favorites, which may run the gamut from seafood to Italian dinners. They, like any homemaker, know that variety is the spice of life when it comes to food.

Friday Last Day

Friday is the deadline for boys to enter in the annual Punt, Pass and Kick contest.

Registration is made at Mitchell-Ford. The contest will be held Oct. 12 on the junior high football practice field.

Levelland Sweeps Four

Though the varsity took measure of Levelland last week, the junior high, freshman and junior varsity were handed their knooks by the town to the south.

Playing double headers Thursday, two there and two here, Levelland won all four games.

The Littlefield Eighth Grade B team lost 18-6. Lenarl Lewis recovered a fumble by Arturo Soria in the end zone for Littlefield's TD.

Levelland roamed and ran to a 62-0 feasting over the locals in the Eighth Grade A game. Today, the two clubs travel to Olton where games between the two schools will start at 5:30 and 7:15.

Levelland scored on a 66-yard run the first play of the game in the freshman game Thursday, and fought off a determined Littlefield club to win 8-6.

Fullback Denny Estrada scored on an eight-yard run in the third quarter to narrow the gap. Then Estrada was called to try for the two point conversion, that would have told the difference in the game, but he was stopped a yard short on that run.

Dennis Hartley was the leading ground gainer for Littlefield, gaining 45 yards. Estrada was next with 42. Levelland had eight first downs to Littlefield's six, and led 169 to 150 in total yards gained.

The two Wildcat Junior Varsity will attempt to shake off the 20-0 shutout at the hands of Levelland when they travel to Plainview for a 7 p.m. game today.

DEFENSIVE BATTLE SEEN

'Cats Host Cubs Friday

The Littlefield Wildcats will attempt tomorrow night to raise their winning percentage point to .666 when they host the Cubs of Brownfield in the third District 3-AAA contest of the season.

Coach Raymond Birchfield is concerned about the Cubs, not only because of their returning experience from the club that whipped the Wildcats 24-0 last season, but because he feels his 'Cats were still looking back at Levelland during workouts early this week.

Kickoff will be at 7:30 p.m. at Wildcat Stadium.

The 'Cats lost their season opener against Estacado 51-0, then bounced back to run over arch rival Levelland 31-6.

Brownfield has played two tough clubs thus far, giving up 14 points to each. The Cubs lost a close one to Estacado 14-0, and then edged Colorado City 15-14.

The Cubs observed an open date last Friday, and will be well and ready for this game. Ten of the Cubs are seniors, lending age to their experience. The line is large and contains most of the returning lettermen. It is led by tackle Gary Baccus, 190, guard Gary Padlock, 167, and tackle Barry Morris, 190.

Coach Birchfield described the Cubs as having no real setbacks. Their speed is much like the Wildcats, pretty slow. The Wildcat mentor doesn't look for a high scoring ball game. He figures the Littlefield defense will have to hold Brownfield scoreless, and get at least a touchdown on the local side of the scoreboard.

Birchfield pointed out that Brownfield's touted defense held Estacado from scoring five times after driving inside the Cub 20 yard line.

Hoping to counter the Brownfield defensive efforts are a group of fine, hard-running Wildcat backs.

Kenneth (Twitty 'Cag) Twitty exploded for 127 yards and a touchdown last week against Levelland in his first offensive appearance of the season. After being hurt and unable to play offensively against Estacado, he averaged 6.3 yards per carry against the Lobos in 20 carries.

T. J. (Tomato Juice) Morgan is the workhorse of the Wildcat offense. He is averaging 4.6 yards on 23 carries in the two games he's played. And Travis Danford is averaging 6.7 yards in 12 carries thus far.

Starting quarterback Roy Burk, playing only about a half of the Estacado game before he was hurt and then most of the Levelland fracas, is averaging 3.5 yards per carry on 14 tries.

The Wildcats are averaging 227 yards total offense for two games, while allowing an average of 275 by their opponents.

The 'Cats defensive platoon, led by linebacker David Perkins, has picked off three opponent passes and covered two fumbles. Perkins has accounted for one of each, while Charley Holt and Vernell Kemp got the other two pass interceptions and Randy Walker the other fumble.

The defense has been greatly beefed by the addition of two returning regulars from last year, tackle Harold Lowery and linebacker Richard Ayala.

Lowery got back in uniform in time for the Levelland contest, and made several outstanding showings for himself, though not in good physical condition.

Ayala returned to his pads Tuesday afternoon. The junior who was a starter last season is not expected to see much action for a while, but will add needed experience depth to the 'Cat defensive secondary.

WILDCAT SUPPORTERS--Few football teams in this part of the country have the support that faithfully follows the Littlefield Wildcats. A small portion of the support is shown here, as the crowd attempts to find seating at Friday's game at Levelland. Already seated is the outstanding LHS band, and to its right is the enthusiastic section of students, LHS students adopted the "12th man" system at pep rallies and games. They are the 12th man of the football team and stand ready to cheer the team when needed.

They've Got That Spirit At Anton

They're on a spirit kick over at Anton...and it's all in support of the Bulldog football team.

The Spirit Club of '69 has been organized, under the leadership of Rita Pritchard, president; Keith McGrew, vice president; Eva Luna, secretary; Janie Cann, treasurer; Hilda Medrano, reporter; and Mrs. Bill Johnson, sponsor.

The organization meets every Thursday after school to get ready for Friday's pep rally. It also makes signs for the buses, pep rallies and decorations in the halls.

In preparation for the New Deal game Sept. 20, their project was to have the largest sign in the football stadium.

Then last week against Cooper, preparation was in the form of a snake dance with speeches.

The Bulldogs will have an open date this week, but for next week's project, a gymnasium sign contest is slated, followed by a teachers' skit before the Oct. 18 Hart game; freshmen and sophomores opposing the juniors and seniors in spirit demonstrations before the Oct. 25 game with Ropesville;

Most parents at pep rally will be the project for the Whiteface game; most parents in the victory line and most signs at the Nov. 8 Sundown game; classes will decorate halls before the Amherst contest Nov. 15; and car decorations contest will precede the Nov. 22 Meadow season ender.

Anton's cheerleaders, Genie Herrin, Ricki Herrin, Rita Monroe; Judy Grace and Debye Markham, are credited with the big push of The Spirit Club of '69, and infecting the "spirit disease" around the community.

Two Leagues Start Tonight

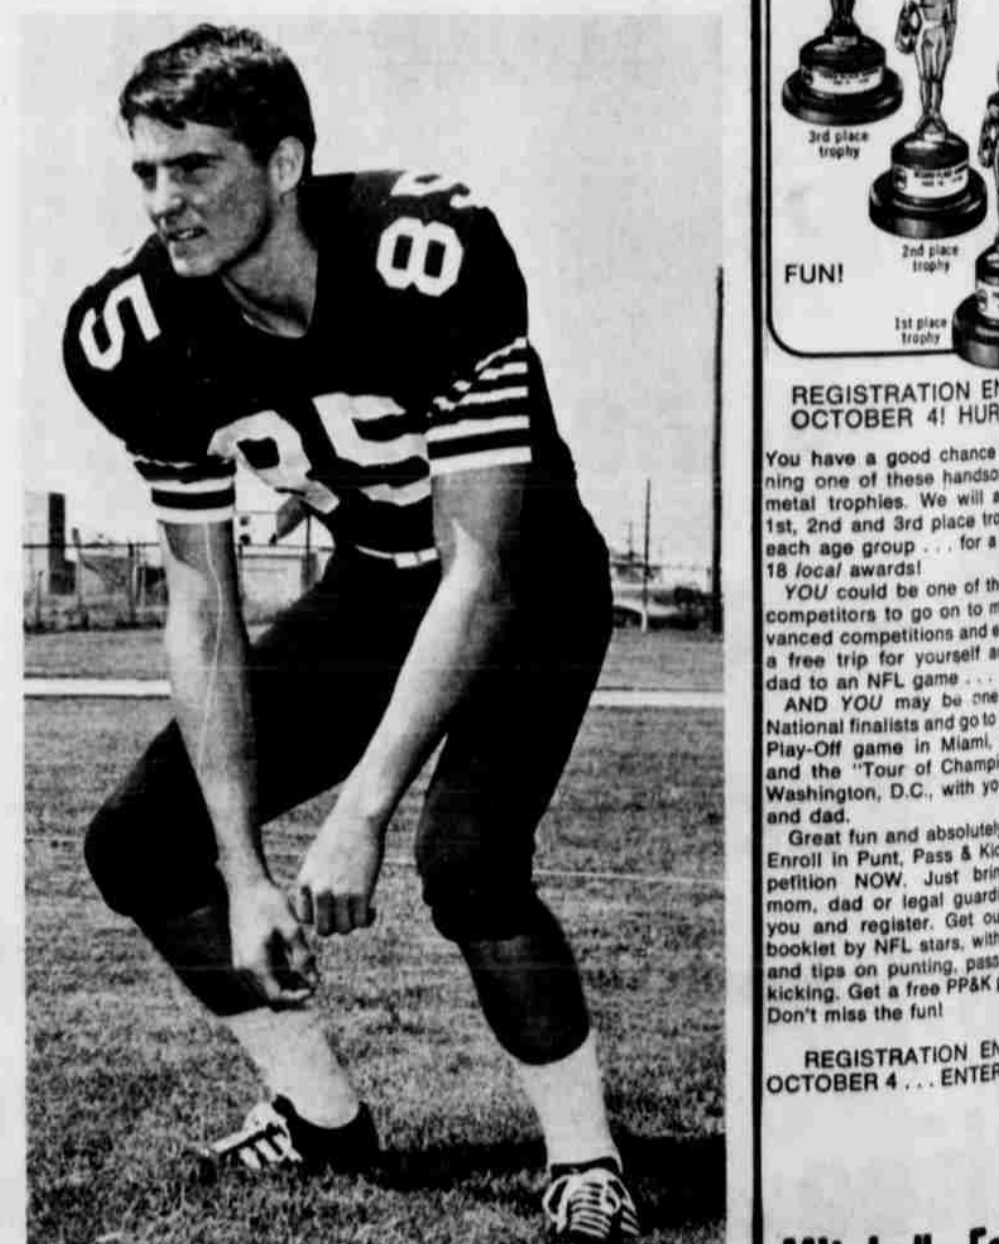

Two bowling leagues are slated for action this evening at Lamb Bowling Lanes.

The early couples league will meet at 6:45 to organize. Members are urged to come ready to bowl this evening.

The Town and Country Men's League will commence season competition this evening at 9.

A Housewife's Bowling league will meet at 6:45 p.m. Tuesday, and begin bowling after a short business meeting.

Levelland has a league bowling here on Wednesday evenings. That league bowled for its second week last night. The bowling alley burned in Levelland, and several leagues and couples are coming here to compete.

DAVID PERKINS is a defensive specialist for the Wildcat football team. The 164-pound senior letterman makes a habit of harrasing opponent ball carriers and intended pass receivers. Besides making several big tackle plays when he crashes through the wall of defenders, Perkins has covered an opponent's fumble and intercepted a pass in the two games played thus far.
