WILL U.S. HELP AGAIN?

Third British Bid For Dollars Seen

LONDON, (AP)—Even in the view of the most ardent supporters of Labor, it is already too late to remedy the British situation without additional U. S. aid.

The Majesty's Government may have to go a third time to Washington to ask for more dollars.

Will the American people, it is asked here, give and give again? Are they ready to embark upon bigger and costlier Marshall Plans? Those who believe that the security of a democratic Europe depends largely on a strong Britain hope that the United States—their own security if for no other reason—will be generous a third time.

In order to achieve a mythical socialism, Lenin had Stalin after him thought little of sacrificing the Russian people. In the Soviet "experiment," the ordinary Ivan became a tiny screw in a vast totalitarian machine. But Britain was and remains one of the most democratic states of our time.

The common people count in the security of those who govern them. And the British people, after a decade of austerity and belt-tightening, are physically and morally tired.

The top labor leaders are tired, too. The casualty list among them is extremely high. Little new blood has been injected into the Labor Party during the past four years.

Should the present leadership be forced to retire, there would be none to replace it.

Wiser heads, like Herbert Morrison, Labor's brilliant Parliamentary whip, and Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, foresee the dangers of rapid over-nationalization. But they were too weak to resist the pressure of the Harold Laskis and the other "Marxists" who clamored for "socialism in our time."

Thus, England is today neither socialist nor capitalist. The well-to-do are still able to live lavishly on their past earnings and even on their present profits, however restricted and diminished. The middle class is being taxed out of existence. The standard of living of the orders—on whose behalf the Labor Government is courting all this trouble—has not declined. But it also has not improved much over the wartime surplus level.

Ever since the arrival in Europe of John Snyder, U. S. Secretary of the Treasury, persistent rumors are current, both in London and Paris, that the State Department is about to abandon its support of the "non-Communist Left," as represented by the Labor Government and Henri Quastelle's middle-of-the-road coalition in France.

These rumors are partly attributed to a statement made by Henri Reynaud, former French Premier, following his return from Washington some weeks ago.

According to Reynaud, the days of the Quastelle government are numbered because Congress is now on the warpath against state planning and the nationalization of industries in Europe.

Well-informed diplomats doubt these rumors. The State Department, they say, is only too well aware that the death of the "Third Force" governments would create a vacuum in Europe which only the Communists would be in a position to fill.

Nagasaki, Blasted By A-Bomb, Called 'World City Of Culture'

NAGASAKI, Japan (AP)—To an overwhelming majority of its voters this atom-bomb-blasted city has become the "International City of Culture." It marked its new status with a three-day cultural festival on the fourth anniversary of the bombing.

The vote climaxed a four-year feud between Nagasaki, the second Japanese metropolis to feel the A-bomb's might, and Hiroshima, the first. Both cities wanted recognition as the "City of Peace." The dispute went to the Diet, and the legislators worked out a compromise. Hiroshima won the "Peace" title, and Nagasaki was given the "Culture" crown as a consolation prize.

After the citizens of Nagasaki approved the arrangement, with even the Communists joining in to support it, Mayor Hiroshi Ohashi announced that he felt the alternate title more fitting.

"I now think it is much more appropriate for Nagasaki to be called a 'City of Culture' because western civilization was first introduced here," he said, adding "Hiroshima has been a military city for decades and is not equipped with culture."

Plans for the city's future, to keep in step with the cultural motif, are not complete. But among the first suggestions was one calling for the erection of an international hospital to replace the Nagasaki University Hospital, which was destroyed by the bomb. Another possibility is a huge auditorium and library to hold international meetings.

But, says City Planning Director Morizo Shinohara, "We have too many plans and ideas. Everything depends on the condition of the national treasury. I am interested in making Nagasaki a 'City of Culture,' but I think we should devote our efforts to reconstruction, rehabilitation and reconversion at the present time."

Shinohara, a 36-year-old former bank official, pointed out that the once-prosperous city was now seeing dark days. Unemployment is growing, reconversion has been proceeding very slowly and "the city's economy has suffered severely."

While Hiroshima is teeming with researchers studying the effects of atomic radiation on the people and the city, there is apparently only one such project underway in the area better. "I firmly believe," he says, "that radioactivity from an atomic bomb hastens the growth and increases the yield of most vegetables."

Australian Mailmen Have Long Circuits

SYDNEY (AP)—Around 1,104 miles long is the postman's Meekatharra-Marble Bar circuit in the center of Western Australia. Lengths of some of the other 200 road mail routes in Western Australia's north are: Carnarvon-Yardie Creek, 384 miles; Leonora-Lawlers-Wiluna 482 miles. Mail contractors in the area cover 2,276,130 miles a year—almost all rough bush tracks in some of the world's most sparsely populated country.

Only four years ago the postal authorities dispensed with pack horses in the North Kimberleys area. In the monsoonal season these horses often had to fight through floods, plod through deep mud, swim swollen rivers. Mailmen might go 50 miles to deliver half a dozen letters. But air services have now taken such hazards out of mail deliveries in many parts of Australia's north.

Scientific Noah's Ark Found In Atomic Lab

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
STNS
WASHINGTON—The latest semi-annual peek into the mysterious atom laboratories, revealed by the Atomic Energy Commission's progress report to Congress, shows a modern Noah's Ark.

Animals are first used to study atoms extensively at the Bikini tests, where goats, pigs and cows were placed aboard—the target ships to see how they would fare in the blasts. Since then, AEC's use of animals has been greatly increased and now also includes work on bugs, fish and birds.

During the last six months, among other things, they've been putting tiny lead shields around the rats' endocrine glands, and exposing them to radiation. Endocrine glands furnish some vital juices to the blood of both rats and humans. As a result of this work, it has been discovered that rats so protected live longer than the ones whose endocrine glands are left exposed. Goal of this line of research is the improvement of treating radiation sickness in humans.

STUDY BATS
At the Argonne Laboratory in Chicago, they're studying the effect of radiation on the circulation of blood in bats. A bat's wing is thinner than tissue paper and the blood flowing through it can be easily observed. The report says, "After the bat was exposed the circulation of the blood slowed down, largely because broken cells and other organic debris clogged the blood vessels."

At the same place frogs were given the equivalent of a fatal dose of X-ray and then frozen immediately. While chilled they lived for months. When allowed to thaw out they died quickly. This study has revealed that cold packs help in treating persons who are only partially burned by radiation.

In their efforts to make the detection of radioactivity more sensitive, scientists have found a new technique involving hornets. The common hornet tends to concentrate barium—a product of uranium fission—in its body. By placing hornets at key points near an atom reactor, the scientists have been able to detect radio-barium leaks long before they could be detected by Geiger counters.

Innocent victims of the first atomic bomb blast in New Mexico in 1945 were some cattle who were exposed to dust made radioactive by the test. Most immediate effect noted was that their hair turned gray.

CALVES NORMAL
"Forty-nine of the 50 cows have produced calves, all of which are normal," the report says. "A total of 57 calves have been produced and 48 are on hand. One of the exposed bulls was bred to exposed cows and from these matings 33 normal calves were produced. There is no evidence up to date of any adverse effects on the fertility of either the exposed cows or bulls."

It is planned to autopsy several of the steers for possible internal injuries and experiments will be made to determine if there is danger in eating the meat of such animals.

Even fish are doing their bit to further the AEC's work. Giant squid are being exposed to radiation in an effort to determine how the delicate sheaths which surround nerve cells are affected. And several generations of salmon and rainbow trout are under study to see what exposure to radio-active substances does to marine offspring.

First results show "the larger the dosage received by the first generation of rainbow trout, the more descendants will die or develop abnormalities."

The clue is something in rabbits that retards the hardening. Up to now there has been only one main clue, cholesterol, a substance in many foods from animals. It is normally present in blood and deposits in the walls of

MICHAEL L. BENEDUM

With $75 Million And At Age 80, Mike Benedum Still A Busy Man

By JAMES L. HOLTON
By The Associated Press
PITTSBURGH.—A restless itch to discover oil keeps Michael L. Benedum on the jump—even though he has piled up an estimated $75 million and has just passed his birthday.

Benedum—erect and agile and "too busy to grow old"—personally directs the two biggest projects of his fabulous prospecting career. One is in the Tundra of North-western Alberta, Canada, and the other in the Tidelands of the Gulf of Mexico.

But "Creekology"—a hunch-plus common sense method he developed while plodding the streams of his native West Virginia—has been abandoned in favor of modern electronic devices and even helicopters. Benedum is virtually unknown outside Pittsburgh and the oil industry. Yet he has been one of the most important men in recent industrial history, and is regarded as one of the ten or 12 wealthiest men in America.

He came by his nickname, "the greatest wildcatter of them all," during some 40 years of discovering new oil fields on three continents. Benedum celebrated his 80th birthday July 18. Some 200 government, industrial and civic leaders gathered in Pittsburgh to do him honor.

NOTHING TO FEAR
"We have nothing to fear from the future," he told the gathering. "Things aren't so good right now, I suppose. But if we can just look a little beyond these rough spots and keep faith in our country we'll come through all right."

"When I look back over the last 30 or 40 years at the changes that have taken place—especially the great industrial strides we've taken in this country—I began to think maybe I'm older than Methuselah."

"But, I guess I'm too busy to grow old."

The bespectacled octogenarian spends eight or more hours a day poring over charts, maps and other data on his far-flung operations in his 15th floor downtown Pittsburgh office.

There he directs the organization which began on a shoe-string investment with his late partner, Joe Trees, 49 years ago and since has carried its bits and derrick into Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico,

Canada, Colombia and Romania. Pleasant and soft-spoken, the man who successfully defied the budding petroleum monopolies at the turn of the century says he employs his spare time in "relaxation," which he explains this way:

"There are new things to be learned every day. When I'm not involved in oil problems I try to catch up with everything that's going on around me in other fields."

Benedum—who is as democratic and obliging as the cab driver and charwomen with whom he jokes—began his legendary career as the son of a farmer and storekeeper near Clarksburg, W. Va. His schooling was equivalent to an eighth-grade education. His first job was in a grist mill for $25 a month, and within five years he had worked his way up to management of the mill and had amassed $500 in savings.

He banked the money, and it—plus more than the original sum in interest—remains untouched in the original account.

His politeness in offering a seat on a train to John W. Worthington, superintendent of the South Penn Oil Co., was the act which launched Benedum's career in oil.

Worthington gave the youngster a job, and the latter responded with a short, but meteoric rise within the firm.

A few years later, Benedum decided to strike out for himself. Not long afterward he met up with Trees and formed the partnership. The Benedum-Trees combination opened up the great West Texas oil fields known as the Permian Basin and the rich Ploesti area in Romania, target of a memorable raid by American bombers during World War II.

Many times during these pioneering years Benedum risked his mounting fortune. But somehow the "great wildcatter" always seemed to make bigger and richer discoveries.

He and his wife—the former Sarah Nancy Lantz whom he married in 1896—live alone, except for servants, in their hill-top mansion, Greystone. Their only child, a son, died in his youth.

Soldier Disguise Now Is Genuine
WILLIAMS AIR FORCE BASE, Ariz. (U)—An escapee from a Nazi labor battalion who disguised himself as an American soldier to get to the United States, is now second lieutenant in the U. S. Air Force. The young man is Borivoj Kubeika, late of Czechoslovakia.

He received his gold bars and silver wings as a jet fighter pilot. When the Germans invaded Czechoslovakia they permitted Kubeika to continue his medical studies at the University of Prague until 1942. Then he was sent to a munitions factory near Berlin. Three years later he escaped and made his way to Paris. He tried to enlist in the United States Army but was turned down. He went to Le Havre, embarked on a U. S. troop transport.

Kubeika cleared himself with the U. S. Immigration and Army authorities by reporting of Ellis Island. A short time later he was released and on Dec. 18, 1945, was sworn in as a private in the U. S. Air Force. A year later he was promoted to corporal, and received his U. S. citizenship papers. At the Morrison Air Force base in Florida he was promoted to sergeant. His application for pilot training was accepted.

Clue Found To Hardening Of Human Arteries

MONTREAL (U)—A new clue in the search for the cause of hardening of arteries has been discovered at McGill University. This work was done in the Department of Pathology, Pathological Institute, by Doctors G. Lyman Duff and Gardner C. McMillan.

The clue is something in rabbits that retards the hardening. Up to now there has been only one main clue, cholesterol, a substance in many foods from animals. It is normally present in blood and deposits in the walls of arteries. Then hardening and narrowing of arteries starts in the place where cholesterol is deposited.

For years it was thought that the answer to human artery hardening would be found in excessive cholesterol in the diet. Eggs are so rich in this substance that for a time some persons, who knew about the experiments, were afraid to eat eggs. But this fear passed when it was found that the amount of cholesterol in food seems to have no direct relation to hardening of arteries.

Something unknown is at work to bring about the first step in cholesterol deposit. For a time it was thought diabetes might reveal this missing link, because in human diabetes, hardening of the arteries is likely to be faster. This applies especially to the coronary arteries which are the seat of coronary heart attack. But the study of diabetes has failed, up to now, to reveal the cause of the acceleration. One handicap in the diabetes study was the fact that animals, including rabbits, do not have diabetes naturally. Rabbits are the main guinea pigs for cholesterol studies. Recently a way was discovered to produce diabetes in rabbits by giving them a chemical called alloxan.

At McGill, rabbits were made diabetic, and then were fed cholesterol. What happened was a surprise and just the opposite of expectations. Diabetes, instead of accelerating the hardening as it does in humans, protected the rabbits. The rabbit arteries failed to harden even when they were fed excessive amounts of cholesterol.

Now that it is clear the diabetic rabbits possess something which retards hardening of arteries, it may be possible to find out what this factor is. The retarding effect in rabbits is not a cure. After a rabbit's arteries have hardened, diabetes will not bring them back to normal. The new factor seems to be a preservative.

Resident Nine Wins 15-12 Sluggest From Odessans

Pascual Bangs 17th Home Run

In a fantastically bad ball game, the Big Spring Brones outlasted Odessa's Oilers, 15-12, here Wednesday night.

The visitors staged a rip-roaring finish, piling ten runs in the final two frames and, for a double play started by Ray Vasquez, might have scalped the Steeds.

Pascual Perez had to come in and put out the fire and he succeeded only after he got his fingers burned. The Oilers had ridden themselves of Ernie Mayrho in the seventh and made merry with Manny Rodriguez's offerings before Perez came along.

Odessa also used three hurlers, or two hurlers and Manager Alex Monchak, who went to the pitching rubber to finish up after Everett Yeach and Marty Diaz had failed in that order.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Next week, Pat Stacey and his Big Spring Brones strike out on a road trip that will make or break the locals in the Longhorn league scrap for first place.

So far, none of the other seven teams have been able to offer much of a challenge to the Cayuses. However, the Cayuses have been playing only ordinary ball especially on the road, and could easily go into a tail spin.

Starting Wednesday, Aug. 17, the Big Springers will be gone for eight days. During that time, they call on Roswell for three days, move to San Angelo for two and then drop in on Ballinger for three final appearances of the year.

Once home from that expedition, the locals have only seven more games on the road.

What will make the eight-day jaunt so tough is that all three of the teams—Roswell, San Angelo and Ballinger—are either scrapping to be in the first division or trying to broaden their claims on their position.

Bill Weis, who served the Longhorn league as its official statistician last year, is now operating in a similar capacity for the California league, a Class C outfit.

Incidentally, Bill Garbe, a one-time Big Spring first sacker now playing for Fresno in that league, is hitting .348. That's the third best average in the league.

Monchak SHOULD SET NEW HOMER RECORD

Odessa's Alex Monchak, who hit his 30th home run against Sweetwater Monday evening, should break the Longhorn league's record for round trippers with yards to spare.

Bob Cowser, then with Sweetwater, banged out 37 four-basers in 1947. Kenny Peacock, also with Sweetwater, tops the long ball hitters in the circuit last year with 34 homers. Had Monchak had the old Sweetwater ballpark as a home base, he might have clouted 80 or more for the year.

Pat Stacey's league record for two-base hits (48), set last year, appears note to secure. At the latest count, Stu Williams of Ballinger had 28 to his credit and had nearly 90 games to play.

One mark that appears safe is George Calala's triple mark, also set last year. Calala, then with Del Rio, banged out 18 three-basers. Les Palmer of Odessa has ten to his credit and has an outside chance at the mark.

Cowser's slugging marks (RBI's and total bases) appear safe, at least for this year. Big Bob has 375 total bases and 178 runs batted in back in '47.

BREWER COULD FILL STEER'S BILL AS BACK

Bert Brewer, Big Spring high school's new assistant football mentor, gives the appearance of being one mentor who could step into the shoes of one of his charges and do the job to perfection, whether it called for blocking, running with the ball, going down on passes or tackling some opposing player.

He was a great player in his time—the records will prove that out—and he doesn't appear to have lost much of the physical trim that made him the athlete he was.

If Coach Carl Coleman had a back with his qualifications, the Steers could swing from the heels with any prep eleven in this section.

Statistics Lie, Junior Circuit Battle Proves

By JOE REICHLER AP STAFF

By all the laws of baseball statistics, the Boston Red Sox, not the New York Yankees, should be leading the American League today.

The Red Sox own the circuit's top batter in Ted Williams. They possess the league's "winningest" pitcher in Mel Parnell. In Williams and Vern Stephens, they have the one, two leaders in home runs and runs batted in.

In addition, they lead in team batting and slugging, and rank third compared to the Yankees' seventh in team fielding. Shouldn't that rate them the No. 1 spot in the standings?

Yet the Red Sox find themselves in third place, six and a half games behind the front-running Yankees, who also own a five and a half game edge over the runner-up Cleveland Indians.

There is only one answer for this strange, and for Boston, and state of affairs. The Red Sox don't have Joe Judge and the Yankees do. It's as simple as that.

Yankee Manager Casey Stengel, who once made headlines by pulling a bird out of his cap, doesn't have to resort to magic when trouble looms. He simply calls on Joe Judge.

Take yesterday's important game between the Yankees and Red Sox in Boston. The Sox had drawn first blood Tuesday, winning the first of the three-game set. They needed the next two to get back in the running.

A three-run rally in the top of the seventh, highlighted by Hank Bauer's two-run single, had given the Yankees a 3-1 edge over Joe Doobson. Stephens clipped Yankee starter Ed Lopat for his 29th homer in the last half of the inning to make it 3-2. After Lopat survived a shaky seventh inning, Stengel excused his lefty for the day and summoned his trouble-shooter—Page.

Joe retired the dangerous Sox with only one harmless infield single in the eighth and ninth to preserve the Yankee victory. It marked the 34th relief appearance and the 20th game he's saved. Page's record is 10-4, but he's saved seven others for another Yankee starter, Allie Reynolds, and two for Tommy Byrne. Page has been in only 11 losing Yankee games.

The Indians lost ground when they were edged out, 5-4, by the lowly St. Louis Browns in a night affair. Dick Kokos, former Indian chieftain, homered in the ninth off Bob Lemon to snag a 4-4 tie.

Washington's Senators and Chicago's White Sox pulled a couple of upsets. The Nats shaded the Philadelphia Athletics, 8-7, and the Chiex topped the Detroit Tigers, 6-3, in 10 innings.

Sherry Robinson's grand slam homer in the fourth, and six Washington double plays won for the Nats. Hits by Charlie Kress, Eddie Malone and Herb Adams, plus a wild pitch by Dixie Trout, gave the White Sox three 10th inning runs and a win for Mickey Haefner.

The Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals remained dead-locked for the first place in the National League for the fourth straight day. The Brooks needed a ninth inning home run by Jackie Robinson with one on to beat Philadelphia's Phil T. The Cards, behind the six-hit pitching of Lefty Al Brazil, took an easy 8-0 decision from Cincinnati.

Southpaw Warren Spahn turned in his 14th victory as he pitched the Boston Braves to a 4-1 triumph over the New York Giants and Doyle Lade pitched the Chicago Cubs to a 2-0 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Ezzard Charles Sells Self To Fight Fans With Win

By JACK HAND AP STAFF

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. — Ezzard Charles has sold himself to New York as the best of a poor lot of heavyweights.

The lean Cincinnati Negro still lacks New York State recognition as world heavyweight champion but he rules the 47 states under the NBA. Most of the 16,300 sweltering fans who saw him make Joe Lesnevich surrender at the end of seven rounds last night at Yankee Stadium, seemed willing to accept him. The next move is up to Eddie Egan, chairman of the State Athletic Commission.

Maybe it's best to hold off until 25-year-old Charles meets the winner of the oft-postponed and still vague Bruce Woodcock-Lee Savold "title" fight in London. That's what Egan plans to do. But for all practical purposes, Charles is the champ.

The doubling Thomases who still hold out are looking for another Joe Louis. Brother, there just ain't another Joe Louis around. You might as well get used to Eazy for he may be with you for a long, long time.

It is hard to criticize Charles for his performance in stopping Lesnevich. Certainly he was hit and hurt when Durable Gus shot his bolt in his only flurry of the fight in the sixth round. But Charles fought back gamely under fire. At the end of the next round, Gus' manager, Joe Vella, asked Referee Ruby Goldstein to stop it.

The International Boxing Club, promoting its first New York fight since buying out Mike Jacobs, must have dropped a bundle on the show which grossed only $75,832 plus $17,500 for radio rights.

Lesnevich took such a slashing around the eyes that it may well have been his last fight.

The fight went just as it figured. With Charles absorbing early punishment but opening the old scartissue around Gus' eyes.

Charles met Lesnevich's first round rush with a sustained attack that made Gus' knees buckle. It was the same story in the next three rounds until the fifth when Gus landed a stiff right hand.

The battered 34-year-old former light heavyweight king rushed with a stiff right to the head. Charles seemed to wilt under pressure and slumped down but he had Gus missing badly at the bell.

The fighters suffered from the intense heat of the hottest day of New York's hottest summer.

Most everybody, including the judges, had Charles out from 6-1 in rounds at the end.

Charles weighed 180, Lesnevich 182.

Shirley Waits For Opportunity To Start Swim

DOVER, Eng., Aug. 11 (UP) — Shirley May France will celebrate her 17th birthday today while she still awaits an auspicious day to start her channel swim.

She will be as cautious about eating her birthday cake and other rich foods as she has been patient in her training and waiting for the sea to settle down.

Her coach, Harry Boudakian, says she will go into the water again today for more practice, as if the day was nothing special. Since she arrived in England nearly a fortnight ago, the water has been too rough for anything more than training dips within the Dover breakwater.

She will have at least one long swim in the open channel before she makes her attempted crossing from Cap Gris Nez, France, to this side. So there is time today to relax at her party.

Last night more than a score of birthday cablegrams and three bouquets of roses and carnations arrived for the pretty Somerset, Mass., lass. A second birthday cake is on the way. Her mother is putting it on a plane in Boston today.

In contrast to the delicacies of a birthday table, Shirley May will drown some concentrated liquid food, one glass of which is said to be equal to a steak dinner, before she attempts to swim the channel.

But unlike the pioneer channel swimmer, Capt. Nath Webb, she will have no alcoholic lift. Capt. Webb stored up on brandy and strong ale, in addition to beef tea and cod liver oil, before he swam it in 1874.

Boudakian said Shirley May is

Coaches Gather For Grid Clinic

The fast-growing Six-Man Football Coaches association stages its first coaching clinic beginning at the Settles at 5 p.m. today but for Big Spring, it's familiar stuff. For the third time, Big Spring is hosting the school, which annually attracts between 75 and 100 coaches and officials of the abbreviated sport from throughout Texas. In 1947 and '48, the American Business club sponsored the course, but the coaches organized in 1948 and obligated themselves with the task of planning the clinic.

This year's school will be highlighted by all-star football and basketball games. The cage classic, which, like the grid game, pits the East against the West, will be played at Sterling City Friday night. The football game is scheduled for the Forasan field tomorrow night.

Welcome Turn In The Tide; Reduction Of Oil Imports

The oil shortage system was devised to protect American petroleum producers against each other. In the old days, free days of unlimited production, with huge new fields coming into being all over the place, all got down to a dime a barrel with no taxes.

A bright little ray of sunshine appeared this week with announcement by the nation's No. 1 oil company, Jersey Standard, that it is importing no more oil from Arabia. Mideast oil never has been the competitor South American oil has become, experts say, but it has annoyed American producers more. Other importers of Arabian oil have not followed Jersey Standard's suit, but may do so.

RIBBON RAMBLINGS
By Mildred Young

We've watched with interest the exchange of pros and cons from various people, local and national, concerning the recent letters written by Eleanor Roosevelt and Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York.

Both writers state that they believe in religious freedom and equal opportunities for all of America's children. Such beliefs on the part of all people are necessary in the building of a real democracy. But it seems to us that federal aid to education is not necessarily a religious question. It seems to us that the cardinal was saying that simply because some one is taxed for a service they should receive it. But how many church members, especially in the Protestant groups, contribute to offerings, portions of which are used in the field of education, and never make an attempt to interest their children in the church schools which they are supporting in a material way. They are spending money for the education of other people's children and no one considers it unjust. Church schools are available for the children to attend, it is up to the children and their parents to decide where education should be sought.

The same principle applies in regard to state schools. Citizens are taxed for the support of the public schools, they may attend such schools, but the attendance is voluntary. It seems to us that the important question is not so much what is available, but whether or not all people are free to take advantage of available opportunity.

If church-going students prefer the advantage of the public schools, they have the opportunity to do so. If they prefer the church-supported schools, they have that opportunity also. Real education is education whether it is provided by the church or the state. But it seems to us that public schools are the public's responsibility and the church schools, the churches' responsibility. Both educational opportunities should be open to all who seek them. We agree with Mrs. Roosevelt that parochial means any school organized by any sectarian group and not exclusively Roman Catholic School. In this sense, we doubt that few Protestants or Catholics really want to be taxed for funds to provide aid to church-sponsored schools other than those of their own faith. We think this would not only be true in Protestant-Catholic situations, but also in the many divisions of the Protestant church.

Being a church member, we have from time to time contributed our "two-cents" to the support of church schools. We have never taken advantage of such "voluntary" taxation. Our choice has always been in favor of the public school over the church school whether that school was of our own or another denomination. The important thing to us is the fact that we had a choice. For those who prefer it, we think church-sponsored education is fine, it has our good wishes. But it still seems logical to us that the source which sponsors the educational system, whether public, church or private, should be responsible for the support of their own institutions. Other groups, in our opinion, should not be called on for any support other than that which they decide voluntarily to give. Worthy citizens should be willing to support projects designed for the general welfare whether the projects are educational or of some other type. Their support of private schools is their own personal choice and responsibility.

Do You Really Want to Take Off That Ugly Fat?

Recently there has been a number of new reducing preparations on the market, some of them based on the diet and vitamin plan. It is obvious that vitamins will not reduce the body weight, so one must depend on diet to reduce. But it is also obvious that one cannot go on a strenuous diet over a protracted period and any weight lost will be regained if the former eating habits are gone back to.

So what to do? Well, here is a tip to you "overweight girls" who want to lose "the Ball of the Bust." In a different way. Ask any well-stocked Texas drugist for four ounces of grapefruit juice and take two tablespoonsful twice a day. This preparation contains nothing harmful and the malonate agents in refined sugar in the very best bottle if it does not show you the way to lose ugly fat and help you slim down more gracefully. Incentive is lost in new and is not based on the diet and vitamin plan. You need never know a hungry moment while retaining with heretofore.

Johnson Goes To Canada For Talks

OTTAWA, Aug. 11. (AP) — Louis Johnson, United States defense secretary, is scheduled to arrive here today for talks with the Canadian government.

His itinerary calls for a meeting with the cabinet defense committee shortly after his arrival at Rockcliffe Airport.

Two members of the top advisory board on continental defense also will attend the meeting.

They are Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, Canadian chairman of the joint defense board, and Maj. Gen. Robert Walsh of the U. S. Air Force, an American member.

Disclosure that they will attend caused immediate speculation about the meeting — No members of the board attended a similar meeting last year when the late James Secretary, visited Ottawa.

Official announcements have said only that Johnson and the government will discuss "matters of mutual interest." That covers a lot of territory.

Possible topics are joint Canadian-U. S. planning for defense of North America and planning by the signatories of the Atlantic Pact.

There is also the possibility they will discuss Canadian procurement of U. S. military equipment. This has been made difficult in the past by U. S. legislation.

Canada and the United States already are firmly linked in continental defense planning. Plans call for "virtuous integration" of the forces in defense of the continent and there are also plans for increasing standardization of equipment.

Wife Of Texas Supreme Court Justice Dies

DALLAS, Aug. 11. (AP) — Mrs. W. M. Taylor, wife of a Texas Supreme Court justice, died in a hospital yesterday after a long illness. She was 68.

Mrs. Taylor came to Dallas July 13 to stay with her daughter, Mrs. J. V. Edmonson. Judge Taylor remained at their home in Austin.

She was born in Denton and attended the old Terrell teachers school there. She later taught in Denton public schools.

The Taylors were married Dec. 26, 1906, while he was teaching in Denton schools and studying law. They later moved to Snyder, in Sevier County, where Taylor started his law practice.

The couple came to Dallas in 1913 and moved to Austin five years later when Taylor was appointed to the commission of appeals.

Taylor served as a district judge at Dallas, returning here in 1921. He went back to Austin on the commission of appeals in 1935. Ten years later a constitutional amendment made all commission of appeals judges automatically members of the Texas Supreme Court.

Mrs. Taylor was active in women's club circles. She was a member of the Dallas Lawyers Wives Club and a former Dallas Federated Women's Club member. She belonged to the Austin Women's Club, the American History Club and the University Methodist Church.

Survivors include her husband, daughter, a son, W. M. Taylor, Jr., Dallas, four grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. W. V. Roy, Justiceburg, Garza County; and two brothers, Will Hoffman, Fort Worth, and Luther Hoffman, Wichita Falls.

Soap Still Is Europe Luxury

VIENNA (AP) — Soap is still a rich man's luxury in many European countries. Even in those countries where it is not rationed, the price is generally higher than low-income groups can pay. Hospitals and other public institutions still depend on charity shipments from abroad for the bulk of their needs.

CARE officials throughout Europe report the use of inferior quality soaps in institutions is a serious menace to child health.

An Associated Press survey showed France, Italy and the Scandinavian countries as the brightest spots on the European soap map. Britain, Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia are at the other end of the scale. Between those two extremes are countries like Poland, Austria and Germany where you can buy all the soap you need if you have the money.

In Czechoslovakia the soap ration is one bar of toilet soap every three months. There is also a small ration of laundry soap and soap powder. The government had promised to put soap on free sale but the price will range from 30 to 60 cents a bar. The average British ration is seven small bars of toilet soap every two months. In Yugoslavia it is half a pound per month per person, and the supply is irregular. In Poland a bar of toilet soap costs 25 cents.

Austria has in it poor quality. A bar of American soap on the black market costs 50 cents. An inferior type of soap is still rationed in Germany. To supplement their one small rationed bar, Germans pay 30 cents a bar for American soaps which are on sale almost everywhere.

CARE officials in Vienna say the real need in Europe is for better distribution of good soap to low-income families with children and to public institutions.

Policewoman Gets Lovely Black Eye

SINGAPORE (AP) — A 38-year-old woman vegetable seller earned the questionable distinction of being the first person in Singapore to give a member of this island's new women police force a black eye.

Lee Choo was sent to prison for six weeks for assault and was fined $10 for hawking without a license.

Policewoman Miss Susi Gan was the chief witness against Lee. Wearing a definitely discolored left eye, Miss Gan said she tried to arrest the vegetable seller only to receive a sharp left to the eye. Miss Gan had to call a police constable to bring assistance of order.

Fertilizer Fire Damages Ship At Galveston Pier

GALVESTON, Aug. 11. (AP) — A stubborn fertilizer fire burned for more than 24 hours aboard a steamship at a Galveston pier.

Flames from 12 Galveston fire stations and the city's fire boat fought the hard-to-reach blaze in the No. 2 hold of the SS Palmetto.

Fire Chief William Henderson said the burning material was ammonium sulphate fertilizer. He said it is not explosive, unlike ammonium nitrate, the fertilizer which exploded and burned aboard two ships during the Texas City disaster in April of 1947.

Australian Coal Strike Settled

SYDNEY, Australia, Aug. 11. (AP) — Australian coal miners, who have been on strike since June 27, will go back to work Monday.

The Central Executive of the Miners' Federation ordered the men back to work after New South Wales miners voted 6,168 to 2,226 against continuing the walkout.

The vote was a defeat for the Communist-influenced central executive. The men will return to work under terms laid down by Prime Minister Joseph B. Chifley at the start of the strike—the claims are to be left to arbitration.

The miners called the walkout to press demands for a 35-hour week instead of 40 hours and a 15 per cent pay increase.

The strike crippled many Australian industries dependent on coal. Some 600,000 persons were out of work at one stage.

Red Leader Hit For Attack On MacArthur In Conspiracy Trial

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. (AP)—One of America's top Communist leaders, who fought with the U. S. Army in the Pacific, was rebuked by a federal judge yesterday for commenting on the witness stand that his former commander, Gen. Douglas MacArthur "was not a liberal man."

"You don't need to toss those dice in," said Judge Harold E. Medina.

The slap at MacArthur was made by New York State's Communist Party Chairman Robert G. Thompson who also fought with the Republican Army in the Spanish civil war.

Thompson declared that the slogan, "My country, right or wrong," is "one of the most vicious and harmful in the world."

"It is the slogan of big business-monopoly capital," the defendant at the Red conspiracy trial declared.

"I hate it more than anything else in the world," he said.

"The reason I hate it is because I had to kill many young Germans, Italians and Japanese who believed in it."

Thompson, 34, who won the Distinguished Service Cross for heroism in New Guinea, is the fourth defendant to testify at the seven-month-old trial.

He and 10 other Communist leaders are charged with conspiracy to advocate violent overthrow of the government.

Thompson's testimony was largely a repetition of a speech he made to 1,000 party members here in 1947.

He denied testimony by Balmas Hidalgo, Jr., an FBI informant and prosecution witness, and said Hidalgo had given a "manufactured version" of a Thompson speech be-

Homesick Bride Joins Husband

PARRIS ISLAND, S. C. (AP)—Fort Royal, S. C., a sleepy little town but the second oldest in the United States—was unknown to Australians until recently. A girl who was married to a Marine sergeant in Melbourne, has changed that. When the sergeant returned to the United States for duty, she joined him, sharing his life at the Parris Island Marine base. Here she became homesick. She sent an advertisement to the Melbourne "Sun" reading: "OFFER: I would be happy to exchange with some 50-50 reader U. S. papers and magazines for a few copies of the Sun, Woman's Day, and other illustrated papers for women—Mrs. E. Mayne (Box 132, Fort Royal, S. C., U.S.A.)." Within the week Mrs. Eileen Mayne and her husband went to the Port Royal Post Office and Mrs. Emily K. Bishop, postmistress, presented them with nine mail sacks heaped to overflowing with the magazines and newspapers.

Eileen has already answered 75 letters and fulfilled 33 requests for publications but Mayne is finding the financial outlay prohibitive for a staff sergeant in the Marine Corps.

Blake Paintings Go For Nothing

LONDON (AP)—Six British museums bid $18,000 for paintings by artist and poet William Blake at an art auction and then got them for nothing.

A secret clause in the will of the late Graham Robertson, London playwright who collected Blake's works, specified that "institutions serving the public should have free of the works for which they were prepared to pay considerable sums."

The sale of Robertson's collection of paintings by the 19th Century artist brought a total of $246,396. Those not taken by museums and art galleries were bought by private collectors.

Greek Army Steps Up Its Campaign Against Guerrillas

ATHENS, Aug. 11. (AP)—The Greek army stepped up its campaign against Communist-led guerrillas today by storming the rebel stronghold in the Vitsi triangle near the Albanian and Yugoslav borders.

Informers reported that Greek troops seized four strategic heights in the heavily fortified area where 7,000 guerrillas are believed entrenched.

The Vitsi Triangle is about 60 miles north of the Grammos Mountain area where a major Greek army offensive was launched last week.

Commandos who staged moving last night were reported to have seized fortified heights of Baro and Lesiti, overlooking the main road from Kastoria to Florina. Heights at Glavata and Pelenata, which are east of Baro, also were reported captured.

Infantrymen were being rushed to the heights to meet an anticipated violent guerrilla counterattack.

The initial successes were regarded by military observers as highly significant because the Vitsi Triangle is bristling with fortified positions defended by machine-guns, mortars, minefields and an estimated 100 artillery pieces.

Nov. 8 Election Set For Education Board

AUSTIN, Aug. 11. (AP)—Official proclamation was issued yesterday calling a statewide election Nov. 8 for selection of a 21-member board of education of 10 proposed constitutional amendments.

Gov. Allan Shivers issued the order, as directed by newly enacted laws. The official state seal was affixed by Secretary of State Ben Ramsey.

One member to the education board is to be elected from each of Texas' 21 congressional districts under the new Gilmer-Alkin education laws. Candidates are required to file application with the secretary of state between Sept. 8 and 19 or a petition bearing the names of 100 qualified voters may be filed instead between the same dates.

Perth Acquires Old British Battleship

PERTH, Australia. (AP)—Perth nearly got the old British battleship Royal Sovereign, 30,000 tons, to keep the city's lights burning. However, the cost was too great.

Perth needs a new power station, and this will not be finished until next year. The city also has had blackouts because of the Australian coal miners' strike.

The price for the Royal Sovereign was $365,000, plus $228,000 for towing to Perth. The State Government thought over the idea, then decided against it.

Jones Is Buried After Execution

WICHITA FALLS, Aug. 11. (AP)—W. Fred Jones, executed for slaying of H. C. Love, Jr. in 1946, was buried in Floydada late yesterday.

A 50-minute funeral service was held here for the grocer who was convicted for shooting his employee at Floydada.

Jones, given a last-minute, three-day reprieve last Sunday morning, was executed early yesterday morning at the Huntsville State Prison.

Present for the services were Jones' wife, Mrs. Thelma Jones; his father, Edgar F. Jones; and two brothers, Glenn and Ralph. All but Ralph, who lives at Memphis, are from Stockton, Calif.

Three ministers who spent the final hour with Jones officiated, assisted by a fourth who had known the man after he was in jail. They were the Revs. Mont M. Walker of Lubbock, Noel Guice of Vernon, Roy C. Ling of Wichita Falls and Leonard Gleason of Fort Worth.

HOOVER'S SPEECH DRAWS MINGLED PRAISE, BLAME FROM LAWMAKERS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11. (AP)—Congressional reaction to Herbert Hoover's assertion that the U. S. is "on the last mile" toward the all-powerful state followed the usual economic grooves today.

Republicans and southern Democrats generally held the former President was exactly right when he said in a 19th birthday address in Palo Alto, Calif., last night that "through government spending and taxes our nation is blithely driving down the back road" to collectivism.

Administration Democrats disagreed vigorously. As an example, Sen. Myers of Pennsylvania, the party's assistant leader in the Senate, told a reporter:

"On the economic front, Mr. Hoover has learned nothing in 16 years. He is raising the same cry that he and those of his political views have raised for 16 years. The whole structure of the government is so much sounder and more stable than it was in 1932, when he was President, that I think no other answer is required."

Sen. Taft of Ohio, chairman of the GOP Policy Committee, said that Hoover again has raised the fundamental issue of personal freedom as he has so often done in the past.

"It is the great, fundamental is-

Texas University Student Found Dead

DALLAS, Aug. 11. (AP)—A young university of Texas student was found dead on the floor of his parents' bedroom yesterday, a hole from an open gas jet inserted into the all of an inexpensive diving mask covering his face.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Douglas found their son, Robert Douglas, Jr., 18.

"It must have been an accident," Douglas said. "He was a swimming fan and was probably trying an experiment with the mask and it got away from him. The parents said their son had been in good spirits."

No notes were found.

SEPTEMBER CONFERENCE SET

Acheson, Bevin May Seek To Co-Ordinate China Policies

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—Secretary of State Acheson and Foreign Minister Bevin probably will seek to co-ordinate American-British policies on China and the Far East in their conference here early next month.

It was learned also today that Ambassador John Leighton Stuart, who returned yesterday from China, may not go back to his post and may not be replaced. Thus the United States would cease for the time being to have an ambassador in China.

Well informed speculation on both these developments grows out of the publication of the Truman administration's "white paper" which (1) marked the end of the policy of active support for the Chinese Nationalist government and (2) cleared the way for the development of new policies to deal with a situation in which the Communists are over-running most if not all of China and may threaten other Far Eastern countries.

With respect to the Bevin-Acheson talks, diplomatic informants recall that Acheson has laid down as a principle of future American policy that this government should coordinate its moves with those of other Western Powers. Consultations among the western capitals and western diplomats in China actually have been underway for several months. It is considered probable that insofar as British-American relations with China are concerned these will reach a climax during Bevin's visit here.

The expectation that Stuart will prove to be this country's last ambassador in China for some time grows out of the attitude taken by the United States toward both the Nationalists and the Communists.

On the one hand, the white paper presented the Nationalists as a dying regime no longer meriting American support and incapable of withstanding the pressure of the Red armies. On the other hand, the Communists themselves do not yet have a government and even if one is formed, as seems probable this fall, the State Department presently takes the view that the United States should be very slow in making any move to recognize it.

Stuart's position in the country in recent months had been unusual. He was accredited to the Nationalist Government but had, on State Department orders, declined to follow that government when it fled to Canton. He has maintained his official residence instead in the Communist held city of Nanking. Upon his arrival at Washington National Airport yesterday afternoon, he declined to discuss the China situation in any way. Evidently he had been instructed to make no public statements until after a talk with Secretary Acheson.

State Department officials said he would see Acheson today (probably in the afternoon) and subsequently would report to the President. He will then participate actively in advising on the development of new anti-Communist policies toward China and the Far East.

Whether he will continue for some time to hold the title of ambassador to China, whether he may eventually resign and remain in this country or whether he will want to return to the Far East as an educator remains closed. He became ambassador in mid-1946 after approximately 40 years as one of the most prominent American educators in that area of the world.

Meanwhile this country's diplomatic representation in the war-torn country is in the hands of 35-year-old Lewis Clark, a professional diplomat. He headed the section of the embassy staff which established headquarters at Canton to be near the Nationalist Government.

Sexual Misc duct Reported In California Juvenile Institution

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 11. — Official inspectors will be made today of a Campo, Calif., juvenile institution from which 16 boys and girls were removed on court order after reports of sexual misconduct.

Dr. Louis Joseph of the state department of mental hygiene said today's inspection will be the third he has made since the Mary Burke Foundation opened in January.

He said he would not make a decision on revoking the school's state license until after visiting it today. "On this inspection I will determine whether the foundation has complied with recommendations made on the last inspection in June," he said.

Superior Court Judge Raymond McIntosh, sitting in juvenile court here, yesterday ordered the removal of 14 boys and two girls who had been sent to the institution from Los Angeles County.

Two employees of the foundation were arrested last week on charges that they arranged a love tryst between a 16-year-old boy and a 21-year-old woman, both inmates.

The two are the head matron, Mrs. Mary Akers, 37, and Clinton St. Clair, 51, formerly in charge of the boys dormitory. In a statement presented at their preliminary hearing, Mrs. Akers said the tryst was never consummated, however, because another employee intervened. Both are awaiting trial in San Diego on charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

McIntosh ordered an investigation of the two girls removed from the school yesterday and said that if they are pregnant charges will be filed at once.

Variety Of Peach Recipes Usable Now That Fruit Is In Abundance

PEACH COBBLER
... Topped With Cream Sauce

Luscious peaches are getting more plentiful on the market and now is the time to enjoy them in many different ways, in baked dishes as well as fresh.

Sugared peaches as the topping for an upside-down cake will soon be as big a favorite as pineapple upside-down cake. Many people like this type of cake served warm with a topping of whipped cream or ice cream.

None will go to waste, and it's so simple that it can be made often and as needed for dessert.

Peach Upside-Down Cake
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons brown sugar
1/2 cup sliced peaches
1/2 cup sifted enriched flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1-3 cup sugar
2 tablespoons shortening
1/4 cup milk
1/4 teaspoon vanilla extract

Melt butter or margarine in eight-inch round baking pan. Stir in brown sugar and arrange peach slices on bottom of pan. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Add shortening and two tablespoons milk. Stir well and then beat two minutes. Add remaining milk, vanilla extract and egg. Mix well, then two minutes more. Pour over mixture in pan and bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 25 minutes. This cake serves four.

Peach Mousse
2/3 cup cold water
1-3 cup sugar
1 cup ripe peach pulp
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 cups heavy cream, whipped
Put the gelatin in the top part of a double boiler; pour in the cold water; let stand at room temperature for five minutes. Add the sugar; stir over boiling water until the sugar and gelatin are dissolved; remove from stove; add fruit pulp that has been pressed through a coarse sieve; then add lemon juice. Put the double boiler into a pan of very cold water until the mixture is of the consistency of an unbeaten egg white; fold in the whipped cream. Pour into a mold and freeze without stirring.

Uncooked Peach Pie
Allow 1/4 to 2 peaches per serving; slice; sweeten. Shortly before serving, fill a large baked shell or individual shells with the peaches; serve with cream or vanilla ice cream.

Peach cobbler is another of the dessert favorites. Fresh or canned peaches may be used.

Peach Cobbler
1 can yellow cling peaches or equal amount of fresh peaches
1-3 cup sugar
1 egg
2 tablespoons shortening
Homemade biscuits
Beat egg and sugar together. Add drained peaches. Pour into a greased baking dish. Dot with shortening. Cover with canned dough or regular homemade biscuit dough. Bake in oven 375 degrees about 40 minutes. Serve with cream sauce.

Cream Sauce
2 tablespoons shortening
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup hot fruit syrup (peach)
Juice 1/2 lemon
1/4 cup cream whipped
Melt shortening in double boiler; stir in flour until smooth. Gradually add hot syrup, stirring, cook over boiling water until smooth and thickened. Add lemon juice. When cold add whipped cream.

Molded Rice Pudding

Summer desserts need that cool refreshing yet sturdy quality of this molded rice pudding. With a generous supply of this fruity mixture in the refrigerator you can then sit in the sun or swim in the surf all day with assurance that your hungry family will be happy with dinner. For the rice in the pudding makes a "stick-to-the-ribs" meal-topper that is just what active families need during July and August.

Rice dishes of all kinds are excellent hot weather additions to the menu; for remember, rice adds needed calories, combines with other favorite food flavors, is inexpensive. Don't forget rice in your hot weather meal planning!

Ingredient:
2 cups cooked rice
1 No. 2 1/2 can apricots
2 tablespoons gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
2 slices pineapple, cut up
1 cup whipping cream
2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
Preparation: Prepare the Fluffy White Rice. Put 1 cup of white rice, 1 teaspoon salt and 2 cups cold water in a two-quart saucepan. Cover with a tight-fitting lid. Set over a hot flame until it boils vigorously. Then reduce the heat as low as possible and simmer for 14 minutes more. During this time the rice will absorb the water and come out deliciously tender. Remove the lid to permit the rice to steam dry. Lift rice with a fork to test its consistency. Never stir rice while cooking, and the grains will be separate and tender. Makes approximately 3-1 1/2 cups fluffy white rice. Keep leftover cooked rice in a covered bowl in refrigerator—you'll find it handy next time you're in a hurry to fix a quick meal.

Method
Add the juice from the can of apricots to the cooked rice. Stir over a low flame until rice has absorbed the juice. Soak gelatin in cold water. Stir into hot rice. Add all except a few apricots (saved for garnish) which have been rubbed through a sieve. Mix in pineapple. Mix lightly so as not to mash the rice. When mixture begins to set, add whipped cream which has been mixed with sugar and vanilla. Pour into a cold greased mold and allow to chill.

Note: Cover and store in refrigerator until used. Sauce may be stored for 2 weeks.

*Salt pork lard is made by boiling 2 strips (1 1/4 x 5 x 1/4-inch) salt pork in 1 1/2 cups water for about 5 minutes. Drain off 1 cup liquor.

Commie College Has Stiff Course

SEOUL, Korea (U)—The "political college" of North Korea puts its students through a rugged curriculum, but graduates face a risky future. A copy of the training schedule used at the college in Pyongyang was found recently on one of the graduates who had infiltrated into the American-sponsored Republic of Korea south of the 38th parallel.

The schedule shows that students spend four and one-half months learning military discipline, marksmanship, guerrilla fighting and sabotage methods to use in the south. They get in a full day, 5:30 a. m. to 10:30 p. m. Communist politics and Russian history also were listed courses.

About half of the class of 800 that was graduated May 17 is believed to have entered southern Korea. One hundred and twenty were women. Others got into the mountainous and sparsely populated Kangwon province, 90 miles northeast of Seoul. Mopping them up will take weeks.

A few have reached the guerrilla bands that have been operating in the hills of the extreme south. Others may have settled down and become farmers, since many of them once lived in the south.

Captured guerrillas said they were sent south in "battalions" of 50. Their mission was to recruit southern Koreans to bring each battalion up to a strength of several hundred. Southern officers say this had proved a flop.

Repatriation Ship Held Up At Shanghai

SHANGHAI, Aug. 11. (U)—Neither Chinese Nationalists nor Communists have yet agreed to permit the U. S. liner Gordon to enter Shanghai as a repatriation ship.

Floyd Downs, American President Lines Shanghai manager, said today both the company and the U. S. State Department had asked the blockading Nationalists for safe conduct. The line hopes to have the Gordon here Sept. 15.

The Communists were asked permission for the ship to enter Shanghai. When the subject was first broached, they said they expected to reach a decision Aug. 30, eight days before the Gordon is to leave San Francisco for the Orient.

Some 1,700 foreigners, most of them British and American, have asked for passage on the liner. At the present rate the Reds are issuing exit permits, very few of that number will be cleared. The Reds grant between eight and 10 permits a day.

MacArthur Ignores Demand For Return

TOKYO, Aug. 11. (U)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur today ignored requests for comment on the demand of 10 U. S. senators that he go to Washington to testify on the arms aid bill.

His last visit to the states was in 1957 when he was married. Since the war he has declined all invitations to return.

Sources close to the general have made it clear that unless he receives a direct order from President Truman or his Army superiors he intends to remain in Japan until his job is completed. He has said he will consider that job done when a peace treaty is signed.

Falls From Bed To Death In Backyard

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. (U)—Samuel Goppelberg, 24, one of the millions suffering from New York's heat wave, moved his bed over near a window last night to get a bit of air.

His sheets woke the neighbors at 4 o'clock this morning.

Rolling over in his sleep, he fell out the window to death in a rear yard five floors below.

LEGION LETTER By KAY BUGG

Joe Sparlock of Fort Worth was elected commander of the Texas Department of the American Legion last Sunday. Jack Reinhart of San Antonio, World War I veteran, was named department sergeant at arms. He won over Neel Barnaby and Bob Dark of Tyler.

Miss Carrie Wilcox was re-elected department historian and W. F. Spelge was elected department treasurer for the 22nd consecutive year. Leighton Cornett was unopposed for department judge advocate and Horace H. Shelton was named department chaplain by acclamation. Only one bid was received for the convention city next year and that was from Beaumont. If Beaumont's bid is turned down Fort Worth has indicated it would take next year's convention.

Specs And I See Eye To Eye

Asked Specs Allen to go hunting last week. Knows him all my life, so I wasn't surprised when he showed up with no gun. Specs doesn't like to kill anything.

Couldn't ask for a better hunting companion, though. We tramp around the woods, and whenever the dogs flush a bird, I blow away while Specs just watches.

Told him once I was surprised he went along... feeling the way he does about shooting anything. "Well, Joe," he says, "you do what you think is right and I'll stick to what I think is right. I've no call to dislike you for not seeing everything the way I see it."

From where I sit, open-mindedness is a wonderful quality. There are plenty of things Specs admires that I don't care for. Like his fondness for butter milk. I'd rather have a glass of beer anytime... but Specs Allen and I don't let little differences get in the way of something big like friendship.
