Allison Young Man Loses Life in Shotgun Accident

Lorel Bird Succumbs Short Time After Charge Tears Gaping Hole in Abdomen

Occurred Late Tuesday

Victim Was in Field Near Home Hunting Rabbits When Tragedy Befell

Death, in tragic mood, reached forth its clammy hand late Tuesday evening and snatched from the Allison community one of its highly-respected and promising young men, Lorel Bird, 20, when a shotgun with which he was hunting rabbits was accidentally discharged, the contents of a 12-gauge shell tearing a gaping hole in the right side of the abdomen.

Young Bird, who lived with his parents two miles south of Allison, had gone a short distance from the house to look for rabbits. In order to obtain a better view of the surrounding terrain, he climbed onto a cultivator left in the field. In some manner the shotgun was dropped to the ground or perhaps struck on a part of the implement, causing the explosion.

After the accident, Bird walked or otherwise made his way about 300 yards toward the house, finally attracting attention, when he was unable to proceed further, by waving his hat and calling as loudly as he was able. Only women of the family were at home and they started to his aid.

A passer-by, A. C. Rollins, noting the commotion, stopped to learn what was wrong. Sizing up the situation hurriedly, he hastened to the home of a neighbor, Carl Hanks, for assistance and transportation for the injured man. Unfortunately the Hanks car had been driven away shortly before. A. M. Abernathy was the next place of appeal. He furnished a car and Bird was started toward Wheeler for treatment, but died en route. He was brought to the Wheeler hospital, where life was pronounced extinct.

The body was taken in charge by the Hunt Funeral home, under whose direction the funeral was held at Reydton, Okla., this afternoon with Rev. A. C. Wood of Wheeler in charge.

D. W. Bird, father of the victim, was in Oklahoma City at the time, helping to move a daughter and her husband to this county, it is said. He was notified as quickly as possible and came at once.

Besides the parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Bird, Lorel is survived by several brothers and sisters, whose names were not obtainable for publication at this time.

The Bird family is well and favorably known, having lived in various parts of Wheeler county over a period of years. At one time they were located quite near Wheeler.

This tragedy, with its shock to the sorrowing relatives, is indeed a lamentable occurrence and one in which the deepest sympathy of a host of friends is extended to the bereaved.

Widely-Known Pastor Wins Shamrock Bride

Rev. A. C. Wood and Mrs. Ollie Hendrick Wed on Sunday September 26

Mrs. Ollie Hendrick of Shamrock and Rev. A. C. Wood of Wheeler motored Sunday, Sept. 26, to Bethel where they were united in marriage by Rev. H. A. O'Neal, a Baptist minister. Although no apparent attempt was made to keep the incident a secret, the fact of its occurrence was learned here only this week.

Mrs. Wood is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Casey of Houston. Her childhood was spent at Elgin, where she received her education. She has been a resident of Wheeler county for several years.

Wood is widely known in different sections of Texas and especially in Wheeler county, where he has lived about 17 years. He started teaching school in 1915, but was ordained as a Baptist minister several years previously. He has held county office and was admitted to the bar six years ago, and expects to maintain a law office at his residence in the west part of Wheeler. He has also recently accepted pastorate of the Baptist church at Durham, Okla., part-time.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wood will extend hearty wishes for a happy and contented married life.

County Entomologists Place Third in State

Boys 4-H Club Team Contests in State-Wide Meet, College Station, Saturday

An entomology team from Wheeler county, composed of 4-H club boys, entered a state contest at College Station Saturday and won third place. First place went to a Hidalgo county team and second to Nueces county, both in extreme south Texas. This geographical location had much to do with results of the contest, states Jake Tarter, county agent, who accompanied the local group.

Rating was based on knowledge of the subject and collection of specimens of insects. Naturally those from the southern region had access to a much larger variety, some of which are distinct pests, even though it enabled a "bug-ology" team to place higher. One of the higher placing teams had more than 700 specimens, while nearly 200 was the best that Wheeler county's boys could do.

From an academic standpoint and technical knowledge, the local team equalled any participating in the contest.

Comprising the Wheeler group were Bud McCarroll and Darrell Atherton, both of Briscoe; J. C. Erskine, Lela, and R. C. Hawk, Shamrock. Besides Tarter and the boys, Elmo Scott, science and math teacher of Briscoe, made the trip. The party returned Sunday.

County School Board to Hold Call Session

H. M. Wiley, president of the county school board, has issued notice of a called session of that body for 9 a. m., Wednesday, Oct. 13, for the purpose of attending the Panhandle-Plains County Superintendents and County Boards association meeting of some 38 counties, which assembles in Pampa Wednesday forenoon. Primary purpose it to effect an organization through which an additional appropriation for bus transportation may be secured.

The county board will transact such business as may properly come before it as well as attend this very important meeting at Pampa.

Moore Boys in Accident
Leo Moore and brother, Marion Moore, narrowly escaped serious injury Friday evening when Leo, who was driving lost control of the family car in which they were coming to Wheeler on the highway near the E. A. Jaco farm, west of town. The car turned over and was so seriously damaged that it was traded in on a new one Monday. Both boys escaped with only minor scratches and bruises.

The Wheeler County Recreation association will meet Tuesday evening, Oct. 12, at 7:30 in the American Legion hall. The Wheeler Home Demonstration club members will act as hostesses. All delegates of the county clubs are urged to attend this meeting.

Honest Man 'Cheats' Wheeler Times

This seeming paradox is explained as follows: Late Wednesday evening Mrs. C. N. Wofford came to The Times office and announced she had lost her purse, a valuable article in itself which contained a sum of money. She ordered a wanted run in the paper, seeking recovery of the lost property. The wanted was prepared for publication in this week's issue. An hour or two later Mrs. Wofford phoned the office and reported that Jim Risner had found the missing purse near the Baptist church grounds, where the owner had dropped it unnoticed, and returned it.

Therefore, an honest man "cheated" The Times out of the price of a wanted. But the paper is very glad Risner found the missing purse and restored it to its owner.

The moral is: Even the contemplated use of a Wheeler Times wanted is sometimes effective and actual use nearly always so. And if the reader will pardon a touch of commercial, these wanteds cost only 5c a line in this newspaper.

Wheeler Clubwoman in High District Office

Mrs. Jim Trout Wins Coveted Post of District Vice President in Recent Election

Mrs. Jim Trout, chairman of the Wheeler County Home Demonstration Council, was elected vice president of District I at a meeting of the Texas Home Demonstration association in San Antonio, held Sept. 28-30.

This office carries not only a distinction but also a heavy responsibility, since the district is the largest in the state, consisting of 22 counties. That Mrs. Trout is eminently fitted for the post, none will dispute. For some time she has been an enthusiastic member and worker in demonstration club circles, thoroughly acquainting herself with all phases of the organization. Wheeler county has been honored in having this honor conferred upon one of its clubwomen and fine citizens.

Thirty-five women from the Panhandle of Texas attended the San Antonio meeting, 25 of these being election delegates.

Those who went from Wheeler county were: Mrs. Lula Mae Farley, Wheeler club; Mrs. Glen Bell, Country Neighbors club; Mrs. Howard Leake, Shamrock club, and Mrs. Trout, representing the county council.

LIONS CLUB HOST TO PAMPA GUESTS, TUESDAY LUNCHEON

With a large attendance of members present at Tuesday's luncheon in the Methodist church basement, the Wheeler Lions club had as special guests, "Hub" Walker and Garnett Reeves of Pampa, who were in the city on business. Walker is postmaster at Pampa, a member of the Lions club there, and president of Adobe Walls council of the Boy Scouts. Reeves is president of the Chamber of commerce in the Gray county capital.

Principal feature of the local entertainment committee's program was a vocal number, "Headin' for the Last Roundup" by Taft Holloway, with Mrs. G. O. McCrohan at the piano. Holloway also gave an encore. Mrs. McCrohan was a luncheon guest of the club.

Harry Wofford and A. B. Crump were appointed as entertainment committee for the next meeting. Taft Holloway and C. J. Meek were named as Boy Scout committee members.

Chairman Nicholson called for a report from the Highway 41 committee, which revealed progress. Reeves volunteered the information that Pampa is working for further improvements on this road in Gray county and toward the west.

Harry Wofford and F. B. Craig, solicitors for expense money of the Wheeler band on its trip to the Tri-State fair, announced the full amount was raised. These two were retained to act in a similar capacity to encourage the band's attendance at the Kelton Community fair tomorrow.

As a group to investigate school matters pertaining to this district, Lions Wiley, Crump, Holt, Howe and Porter were named by President Nicholson.

Ray McPherson Back at Service Station

Through the medium of a display advertisement elsewhere in this issue, Ray McPherson, service station operator of wide experience and many friends throughout the community, announces his return to that vocation. He has bought back the station on the east side of the square where he was located last while in business here and which he developed, beginning about a year and a half ago. It is now known as the Panhandle Service station and features Panhandle gasoline and an array of popular lube oils and greases.

The many friends of the McPhersons are glad to again have them as residents of Wheeler but regret the occasion that contributed to their return, which was the loss of crops in their farming venture northwest of town when hail devastated that area some weeks ago.

R. L. Scott, who has recently operated the station, plans to engage in trucking and feed buying here, according to a statement made today.

Women Attend Flower Show

Wheeler was well represented at the Shamrock Garden and Civic club flower show, held Wednesday afternoon.

Those attending from Wheeler were Mesdames J. M. Porter, J. E. Crowder, Jim Trout, John Ficke, Holt Green, C. B. Witt, M. L. Gunter, J. F. Witt, J. A. Dixon, Lynn Gott, O. O. Sandifer, J. H. Watts, Loula Mae Farley, Jim Risner, J. H. Templeton, and Misses Willetta Templeton and Dalton Burleson.

Kelton Community Fair is Tomorrow

Annual Event of Eastern Wheeler County Promises to Be Record-Breaker

Under direction of J. Z. Baird, general chairman on arrangements, preparations are reported complete for Kelton's Annual Community fair, to be held at that eastern Wheeler county community center tomorrow (Friday).

Starting at 10:30 a. m. with a softball game, the all-day session will get under way, affording ample opportunity to view the exhibits of livestock, dairying, farm crops, fruits and women's farm club entries. It will also permit neighbors and old friends a chance to meet and visit to their heart's content.

Much interest in the fair has been shown all over the county. Splendid exhibits, combined with the large attendance expected, promises to make this year's event a record-breaker.

First, second and third place ribbons will be awarded to winners in the several classes.

Briefly outlined, the day's program includes besides the softball game starting at 10:30, the following:

1:00-1:30 p. m.—Concert by the Shamrock Irish band.

1:40-2:00—Talk "Community Cooperation," W. O. Puett, county judge, Wheeler.

2:00-2:20—Talk "Current Events for Community and Agricultural Progress," Atty. J. B. Clark, Shamrock.

2:30-3:10—Address by Mason King, Tri-State fair association, Amarillo.

3:30—Football game between the Kelton Lions and Pampa Gorillas.

Other departmental heads to assist General Chairman Baird are: Concessions, George Henderson; horses and mules, White Whitley; dairying, T. C. Webster; agriculture, George Henderson; fruits and vegetables, Jim Henderson; women's department, Mrs. Jim Henderson and Mrs. Eddie Wall.

Chief director of entertainment, especially the football game, is George Gandy, member of the Kelton school faculty.

Square Deal Produce Has Service Station

As originally planned when establishing their Square Deal poultry and cream buying business just west of the Fred Farmer garage at the northwest corner of the square a few weeks ago, Messrs. O. D. Arganbright & Son now have the adjoining service station in operation. This combination, they declare, will give their customers at either place the maximum convenience.

At the station, which was overhauled and had driveway improvements made, is found Mobilgas and Mobiloil, Magnolia products. H. T. Shields, bulk station agent from Shamrock, was a visitor at the station Wednesday.

DAUGHTER OF A. C. WOOD MARRIES IN CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Ovilla Williams, San Francisco, and Dr. Ernest G. Baker of Oakland were quietly married on Tuesday, Sept. 21, in the latter west coast city.

Mrs. Baker is a daughter of A. C. Wood and a sister of Mrs. Gordon Stiles, both of this community. She has spent a number of years as teacher in the schools of Berkeley and Oakland and is now employed in that capacity at San Francisco.

Dr. Baker is a dentist, with several years practice in Oakland, where the couple will make their home.

WHEELER TIMES DISPLAY WINDOW HAS QUIET WEEK

Only a small number of exhibits have greeted observers of The Wheeler Times Window during the past few days. Fruit is largely gone and other products not quite ready—a sort of in-between season.

Yet a pair of the nicest heads of forage grain, hegrira, was brought in recently by T. G. Tinsley, living 1½ miles west of town, who says he has a good crop of the grain.

One contribution, not adapted to display purposes, but greatly prized by The Times family was made Saturday by W. O. Brodnax of the Locust Grove community. This offering consisted of several fine, meaty ripe tomatoes and a "whopping" big sweet potato, for all of which thanks are tendered.

But hold a minute—that "old reliable"—L. W. Newkirk again sacrificed a dandy watermelon on the altar of friendship by presenting it to the office force, Wednesday.

Boy Scouts . . . Front and Center!

Every Boy Scout in Wheeler and vicinity, at present or in the past a member, and all other boys interested in the organization are requested to meet in the basement of the Wheeler Baptist church at 6:30 next Monday evening, Oct. 11. Every boy of eligible age throughout the entire community is urged to attend this meeting. This notice is authorized by a member of the committee appointed to reorganize and "pep up" the Boy Scout movement in this part of Wheeler County.

Many County Horses and Mules Afflicted

"Sleeping Sickness" Victims Total Large Number—Vaccine Holds Death Rate Low

Approximately 170 cases of "sleeping sickness" among horses and mules of Wheeler county have been reported to his office, announces Jake Tarter, county agent, with more cases being reported daily. This epidemic reached alarming proportions in the county during the latter part of September. As soon as proper serum could be ascertained to combat the disease and a supply of the medication became obtainable, vaccination was resorted to as a preventive and curative measure.

About 850 animals have been vaccinated, with only one known death among those treated. Nineteen deaths of untreated stock have been reported.

N. L. Lewis of Lubbock, district veterinarian, visited Wheeler early last week and recommended the use of botulinus anti-toxin to combat the malady. He inspected 17 sick animals while in the county.

Botulism, cause of sleeping sickness, states Tarter, is a poison present in grazing feedstuffs. According to tests, native grasses contain greater quantities than does sudan. More stock in this county feed on sudan, however, than on any other form of pasture.

It has been observed that usually only one or two individuals in a herd contract the disease. It is probably due to preventive measures that a larger proportion do not become infected, states the county agent. The disease is said to be subsiding somewhat at this time, due to vaccination and close observation. It is believed that a sufficient supply of serum will be available from now on to check further spread of sleeping sickness and prevent appreciable losses.

School Group Meets Wednesday at Pampa

Plans Made Friday at Canyon for Event—Supt. Rucker Has Place on Program

Program plans for a fall meeting of the Panhandle Plains County School Boards and Superintendents association was outlined Friday at the office of J. B. Speer, Canyon, deputy state superintendent.

Those attending were J. O. Bass of Tulsa, president of the association; B. T. Rucker, Wheeler county superintendent; secretary Frank R. Phillips of Canyon, immediate past president; and Carl G. Clift, Potter county superintendent, besides Speer.

The meeting will be held at Pampa next Wednesday, Oct. 13, beginning at 10 o'clock and lasting until noon. The group will be welcomed by W. B. Weathered, Gray county superintendent, and County Judge B. C. McCaslin of Swisher county will respond. Speer will discuss school problems and Rucker will talk on county school organization. County Judge Wilson Cowan of Dallam county will speak on school organization of the Panhandle and how it should function. Duties of county school boards will be the subject of County Judge Walker Lander of Parmer county. Round table discussion and a short business session will conclude the meeting.

About 100 persons are expected to attend. The association's major session is at the spring conference for education at West Texas State college, but the fall meeting was called to familiarize members with their duties and possibilities at the beginning of the school year.

OKLAHOMA AND NEW MEXICO FOLK VISIT RELATIVES HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson of Granite, Okla., and their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Anglin and daughter, Elmarine of Clovis, N. Mex., were week end guests of the former's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Badley, and Mr. Anglin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Anglin.

Cotton Loan Rules Cover Wider Scope

Change in Regulations to Permit Participation by Wheeler County Growers

An announcement this week by the Commodity Credit corporation, a governmental agency under whose supervision plans for relief measures for cotton growers faced with lowered prices as the result of a large crop, brought a ray of hope to producers of this region in the new 6-cent loan provision.

The new ruling by the credit organization is a system of loans for cotton which fails to qualify under the regular 9-cent loan program. The new brackets are:

Strict low middling with seven-eighths inch staple or better, 8½ cents.

Strict low middling with staple below seven-eighths, 7 cents.

Low middling with staple below seven-eighths, 6 cents.

This broadening of the loan set-up will mean many thousands of dollars to farmers of Wheeler and other cotton growing counties of Texas and Oklahoma, particularly in the short staple areas. The former 9-cent loans are made only on cotton of middling grade or better, with at least seven-eighths staple, which made untenable huge quantities of cotton for loans at all. Also only strict low middling meeting the seven-eighths requirements had previously been eligible for loans in the lower classifications.

Under the new rules practically all cotton in the Panhandle will be eligible for loans, whereas under original provisions of the loan act, a large percentage of cotton grown in this section would have been unable to meet the requirements.

Some routine details regarding grading and classification of cotton tendered for loans, storage, shipment, etc., yet remain to be fully clarified but it is predicted that early action will clear up the situation to the point where great benefit will accrue to local cotton growers.

An interesting by-play is found in the efforts of individuals and groups to secure this much-desired change in loan regulations, and possibly reap a little credit for the part played. While all were working toward the same objective, and in full accord, achievement of the end sought appears to be largely the result of concerted effort.

To Congressman Marvin Jones has been accorded a portion of the honor. This office is in receipt of a resolution sent by Gene Worley, representative, as adopted by the state legislature now in session, a copy of which was transmitted to Secretary of Agriculture Wallace. Another important factor, and said to be the deciding one, was a group of 19 delegations from West Texas cotton growing areas which attended a conference on the loan question at Memphis, Tenn., last week. And definite credit is given the Wheeler county group, composed of Melvin Pillers, Zeb Baird, Lawrence Davis and A. P. Bumpers. The Wheeler delegation's position as "key" men had much to do with the outcome at Memphis.

These men made their report before a meeting of the Wheeler County Agricultural association at the court house here Tuesday evening.

After all, the question of who "got the job done" is not nearly so important as the fact that they did get it done, and it is hoped for the betterment of all concerned.

The following report of Tuesday's meeting has been submitted for publication by Mrs. Hester Dodson, reporter for the county association:

"Through the efforts of the committee sent to Memphis, Tenn., to represent this county, it was made possible to obtain a 6-cent government loan on all cotton less than 13-16 low middling, so stated M. A. Pillers Tuesday night at the County Agricultural association meeting in the court house. Also the farmer should bear in mind that he must co-operate with the 1938 cotton program if he obtains this loan.

"J. Z. Baird stressed the point that the farmer should keep in touch and co-operate with government men to accomplish the desired effect. Lawrence Davis gave a short talk on necessity for farmers to hold membership in the local organization. A. P. Bumpers offered a sketch of the trip as it appeared to him, finishing with a song they grew very fond of on the trip.

"A. G. Schattenberg, shelterbelt director for this district, briefly discussed that subject as related to farms. Miss Clara O'Gorman was elected secretary-treasurer of the county organization.

"Something like 150 men and women were present."

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

Fire prevention week is here. What are you going to do about it? If you are short-sighted, you will do nothing. If you have any interest in protecting your property and your family's lives, you will use Fire Prevention week as an occasion for taking the simple, essential measures that usually suffice to make homes and places of business safe from the most common and dangerous fire hazards.

Fire Prevention week is not designed to sell anything. It is designed to serve—to conserve—to protect. During the week insurance companies, civic bodies, fire experts and public officials will use the radio, newspapers, displays and printed literature in an effort to make you think and make you act.

In the average home grave hazards exist of which the owner knows nothing. Ignorance, as well as carelessness, is a prolific source of destructive fire.

The simplest and most easily corrected causes are responsible for the great bulk of fires in dwellings. A slight fault in a heating plant may devastate a home. Accumulations of papers, clothes, furniture and other odds and ends require only a spark to burst into flame. Improperly stored fluids such as gasoline, benzine and kerosene are a constant menace. Amateur repairs of electric appliances and light cords causes millions of dollars loss annually. Paint or oil soaked rags are often the cause of spontaneous combustion. An improperly protected hot electric iron, or cigarette ashes invite fires.

It costs you nothing to eliminate these hazards, and takes little time. That small effort may save you thousands of dollars—and infinitely more important, save a life. Fire Prevention week was inaugurated to serve you. Make the most of it.

"EQUAL AND UNIFORM"

Taxpayers of Texas find themselves in an uncomfortable situation this week when the legislature meets in special session to consider Governor Allred's message to raise $15,000,000 additional revenue in order to keep state expenditures from piling up an enormous deficit.

The News believes with a great section of Texans that the additional revenue can be found without adding any more taxes, which are becoming a great hindrance to profitable business in this state. We believe that since the Texas constitution provides that "taxation shall be equal and uniform," that it is time that something is done about the huge proportion of real and personal property in Texas which today escapes any form of taxation through the bunglesome system now in vogue. The Texas Tax Journal says that it "ventures . . . more than one-third of the property is escaping taxation."

The Galveston News, arguing along the same lines, says "it is notorious that collection of taxes against personal property is almost a farce. The Tax Journal suggests that the state would recover millions of dollars by amending the law to make a tax lien against personal property a first lien, just as in the case of real estate."

"The outstanding fact is that one legislature after another has dodged the issue of tax reform, taking the line of least resistance, until the tax system has become a travesty on the

REQUIRE DILIGENCE OF THEM

We would not have you think your governor, your representative and your senator are not doing their level best to give you a good administration of the state's affairs. We doubt very much that there is anything like the "wanton waste" and "political extravagance" that has been charged. Always, where there are millions to spend there are hangers-on and grafters who get their beaks in, we admit, and there is no reason to think that in Texas is the exception.

But for hard work, pure patriotism in service, we commend the legislature to its home people, and high in the ranks our senator and our representative. When and if you write them, do so commendably but firmly insisting that they "have a looksee" before they vote for a single item of increased taxation in your state.

It is as much their duty to look at tax levies they have already made and are not collecting as it is theirs to look for more ways to take money off the taxpayers who are paying for those who are escaping.

One alert business man recently told me this: "You can't afford to let yourself get in the dumps. There is and will be business for the man who goes after it. A good many men have ruined their business by singing the blues during the past few years. There is something in what he says. The stores that are doing the business are the ones that keep trying.—Deck Wells in Wellington Leader.

The engineers have a swell method of testing their liquor. They connect 20,000 volts across a pint. If the current jumps across it, the product is poor. If the current causes a precipitation of lye, tin, arsenic, iron slag, and alum, the whiskey is fair. If the liquor chases the current back to the generator, then they've got good whiskey.—Claude News.

Club Notes

Happenings of Interest by and for Home Demonstration Club Women of the County.

"The neighbors laughed at me and said I would never get my seed back when I planted potatoes last March," stated Mrs. Ferd Bones, member of the Ramsdell Home Demonstration club.

"I bought a peck of Early Rose variety seed, paying 60c for them and when harvest time came I dug a bushel which was worth $3.00 at that time. We had been eating potatoes for two months and gave more than a gallon of them away," she continued.

Mrs. Bones has more in her pantry this season than she has ever had. She figures that her grocery bill will be cut in half this year.

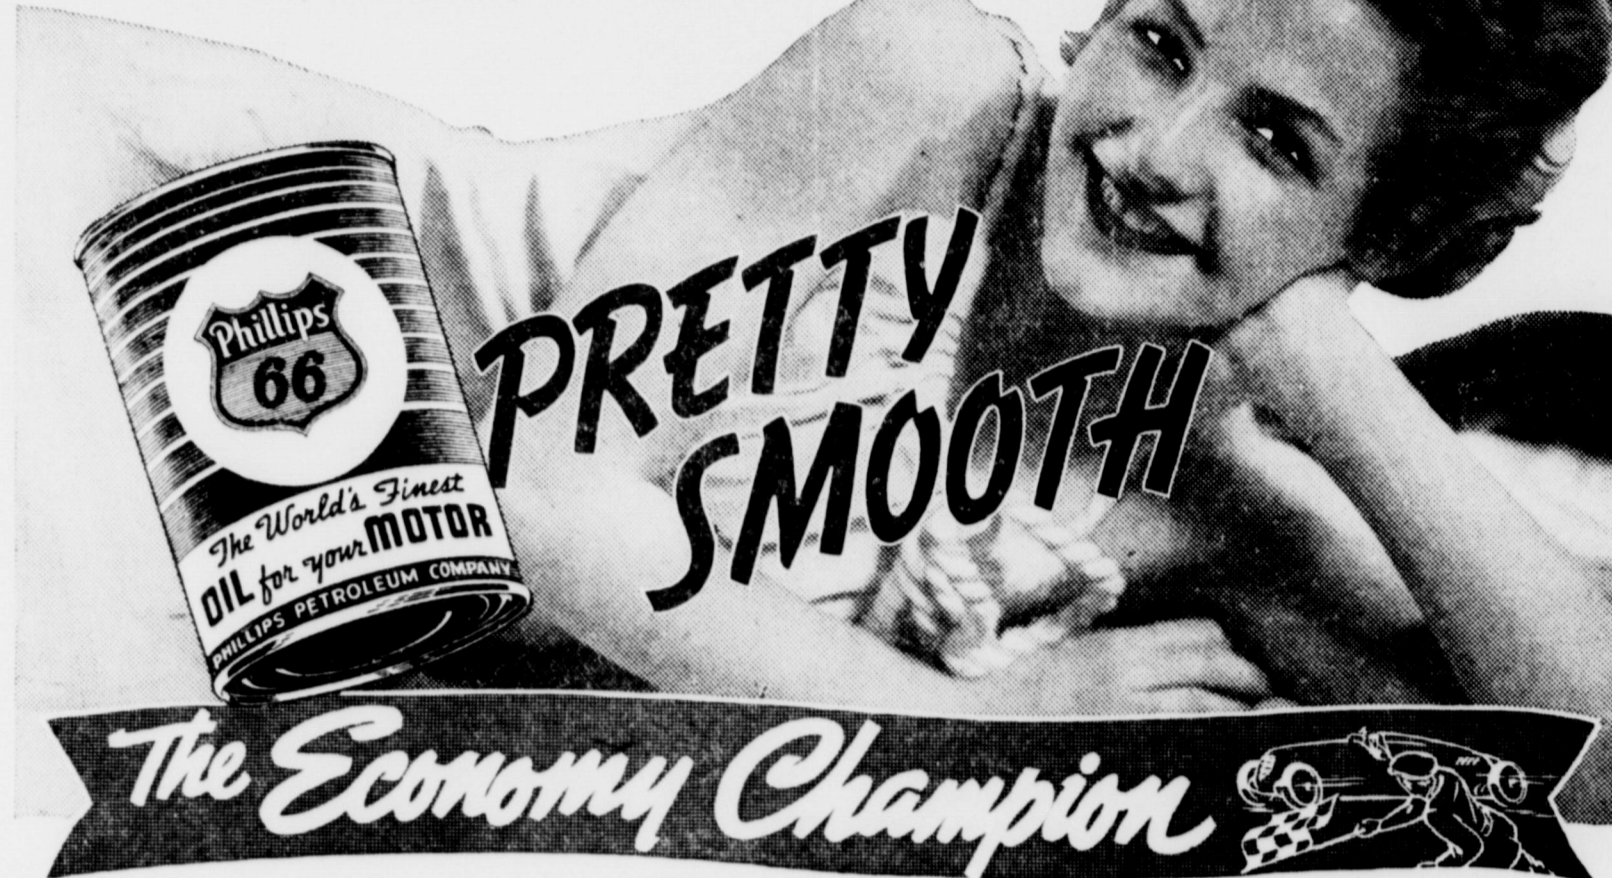

"We have never been able to have an early garden until this year. I built a frame garden 12 by 24 feet," said Joy Bill Riley, garden demonstrator of the Briscoe Girls 4-H club. "Because of the sand storms we have in the early spring I put old boards and materials around the garden. The frame was a foot high. In the center I put poles in the ground and on these poles I put a board to which I attached a cover. The cover was made of old sacks and sewed together with binder twine. I fastened it to the ridge roll in the center and rolled it down over the garden when the sand blew. I planted beans, English peas, carrots, beets, lettuce, onions, potatoes, spinach, parsley, radishes, mustard, cabbage and tomatoes in this frame garden. The lettuce was the first lettuce I ever had to head. Of course I had a larger garden down by the tank in which I planted larger quantities of vegetables and vegetables which the wind would not bother, such as rhubarb and asparagus." Joy Bill canned a total of 599 quarts of food this year.

A garden containing okra, peas, cantaloupe, squash, beans, pepper, tomatoes, cucumbers and watermelons was planted by Bernice Burrell, member of the girls 4-H club at Center. She reports that this garden cost her $10.20 to work, plant and for seeds. The total vegetables gathered was worth $59.00. From this garden she canned 94 quarts.

Two hundred fifty-eight quarts of fruits and vegetables have been canned this year by Gladys Erskine, member of the Lela Girls 4-H club. She made a planting box and planted enough vegetables to supply her family with leafy green and yellow vegetables through the year. She has served vegetables 22 times this year.

Besides her gardening she has made 24 garments in sewing which cost her $5.73. She estimates that the same garments would cost $12.71 if she bought them already made.

"I planted 30 feet of carrots, 200 feet of blackeye peas, 200 feet of green beans and 50 feet of okra," reports Nellie B. Candler, member of the Briscoe 4-H club. "I have canned 201 quarts of tomatoes, peas, peaches, beans, carrots, relish, green tomato pickles, apples, jelly, preserves and cucumber pickles this year," she continues.

She made a planting box in which to protect her plants until they could be set out in the big garden. She proudly stated she was pantry demonstrator at one time and the whole family took a part in the work and she says "We have tried to make it a living demonstration and have it in fair condition at all times. We almost have our canning budget completed for this year."

Our New Curriculum

Many questions have been asked concerning why so few grades on our report cards. At this writing we wish to explain why the curriculum has been reorganized or regrouped. This movement is state-wide.

Take the language arts, reading, language, and spelling. The purpose of this program is to help each child meet as effectively as possible life situations involving the use of language.

To be effective, the language arts program must make provisions for the use of language in getting ideas and in expressing ideas. We get ideas from our reading. In order to express our thoughts we must use grammar, spelling, and writing. We think by grouping these three together that the life situations of school children will be better met than under the old system of having each one taught separately.

What is true of the grouping of the language arts is true with social science, history and geography. The grouping of these, we believe, will better meet those situations involving human relationships with which the child is confronted. This grouping is an endeavor to make it possible for the pupil to grow in his willingness and ability to think his way through life situations involving human relationships, and to grow in his ability to co-operate.

In grouping of science and arithmetic we have again tried to better meet life situations of the child. The program endeavors to meet the needs of the pupil now, preparing him for situations that he will meet daily.

Sixth Grade News

This sixth grade is making plans for an International banquet. Each child will wear a costume typical of a country. In our program we shall have songs, customs, games and stories representative of each country. Our menu will consist of dishes typical of these countries.

4-H Club Girls Meet

Miss Burleson talked to the girls about table etiquette. There are 12 regular members in the Briscoe 4-H club.

Briscoe Boys Win Trip

Darrell Atherton and Bud McCarroll, 4-H club boys of Briscoe, won a trip to A. & M. for an entomology contest. They were accompanied to College Station by Jake Tarter, county agent; Elmo Scott, science and math teacher of Briscoe, and J. C. Erskine and R. C. Hawk of Shamrock, 4-H club boys.

Darrell Atherton had 91 bugs of different types in a case made in manual training class. Each bug was labeled and named. Bud McCarroll had 93 bugs in his collection. Darrell's exhibit may be seen at any time now in the Briscoe trophy case. The team won third place in the contest.

"THE REST OF THE RECORD"

By JAMES V. ALLRED
Governor of Texas

One of the ablest groups of newspapermen in America is reporting the present legislative session from the capitol pressrooms. Keen and intelligent, they do a good job of covering and reporting the daily happenings of the legislature.

It is no criticism of their fine work to say that often the average newspaper reader loses sight of the real issues in the mass of conflicting statements and reports which must be carried by the press. An example occurred this week when a good farmer friend wrote me that the farmers of his section "strongly opposed any increase in taxes, especially on farm real estate and taxes that affect farmers as a whole."

Now I have never had any desire for the legislature to pass that kind of a tax program nor have I ever sponsored such a plan. The record shows that I cast my vote with the state comptroller to lower the state ad valorem tax to 7c which is the lowest in over twenty years.

As I told my farmer friend, I am urging a tax program to raise money from only a small, under-taxed and over-privileged group—interests able to pay the cost for financing old age assistance, aid to needy blind, dependent children, and teacher's retirement. An example of such a group is that of five major pipe line companies who in one year reported a total net profit of forty-one million dollars but paid altogether to the state the "tremendous" sum of $5,647.99 in franchise taxes.

These are the kind of folks I want to see taxed—not to penalize them, but so they will bear their portion of our state government cost.

The only group that I know who want to levy taxes that "affect agriculture as a whole" are the "sales-taxers." A sales tax would fall squarely on the shoulders of the farmers and the working people.

Lobbyists for all the big pipe line companies and other special interests watching the legislature favor a general sales tax. Spokesmen for this group are saying no new taxes are needed. Such statements are simply a smokescreen to defeat the people's program. Every one of that group would vote tomorrow for a general sales tax if I would agree to it.

Their strategy is to stave off any taxes as long as possible until our state is in such a terrible shape that some future governor out of desperation may turn to a general sales tax. To carry out their plan, this group has organized a campaign of propaganda to frighten the farmers and little business men into thinking that my tax program is going to hurt them.

They raise the hollow charge that I want to levy more tax burdens on the people. The taxes I propose would fall on the shoulders of the over-privileged groups which are able to pay.

At the Churches

Mullins' Preaching Appreciated at Church of Christ

The audiences were never very large, due to the nature of the times in which we are now living, but we are glad to know that those who did come greatly appreciated Bro. Mullins' preaching. The meeting had just begun when Bro. Mullins had to leave to begin a meeting with his own congregation in Abilene.

When people find out that a man really has a message and that his life is in perfect harmony with that message, they are willing to give him serious consideration. The audiences greatly appreciated the spiritual atmosphere of Bro. Mullins' preaching and yet his sermons on prophetic subjects were more effective. We pray that the Lord may grant us the opportunity to have Bro. Mullins with us again next year.

Next Sunday morning I shall speak on the subject of "Prophetic Persons." You will be surprised to learn how God portrayed the person and work of the Lord Jesus Christ in the lives and messages of some of His prophets of old. It is wonderful and wonderfully strengthens our faith and renews our hope in the promises of God. I have planned to deal with some phase of the prophetic Word for several weeks. We will greatly appreciate your presence at these services.—C. M.

Brevity and speed are the criterions of our age. This holds true not only in business and social life but in courtship and marriage. If the results were as good it would make no difference but a mushroom can be produced in a while but an oak takes years.

Aristophanes said of his age and so may we say of ours: "Whirl is King, having driven God out." Have we not gone gyroscope—wheeling, whirling and spinning at a dizzy rotation of nervous excitement, seeking one thrill after another? And thrills are like opiates, their usage lessens their force and they must be increased or new ones sought for the desired results. Only a few know where they are going but all are on their way. Most of us are in the streets of "By and By" which lead to nowhere. People panting and out of breath have a hectic tone and a pallid expression of exhaustion. What a cost is civilization!

Is it worth it? Shattered nerves, insomnia, irregular heart, blasted digestion, loss of peace of mind, and the quiet beauty of soul is buried in furor. The command of old was, "Be still and know I am God." The Nazarene said, "Peace I leave with you." What shall we do about it? Nil.

But the worship of the church is a good place to correct this but much of the time this same spirit invades worship and tends to hurt it.

Our church school opens at 9:45; at 11 the pastor will preach on "Methodist Yard Sticks." Leagues at 6:45, and church at 7:30. Women meet at 2:30 Monday; midweek meeting at 7:45; choir Thursday 7:45.

We need you to worship with us.

Mop-up Memphis—Mustangs!

SPORT SLANTS

By a Mustang

Astonishing—Two members of last year's eleven are doing quite well on college teams this year. Olen Maxwell, former Mustang end, is making the starting lineup on the West Texas Buffalo freshmen team this year. W. J. Ford, last year's all-district fullback, is captain and is a first-string man on the Hardin-Simmons university frosh team.

Why not a name for the football stadium? The Mustangs have been playing on an unnamed field for three years. On this gridiron they won the only conference championship ever achieved by a Mustang eleven. So come on, students and faculty, and help us select a name for the field.

Some tough opposition is on hand for the Mustangs Friday night. The Memphis Cyclones are the only team in the conference ever offered a chance to enter Class A competition. Cyclones are due to be the next victims of the strong Mustang eleven.

Carruth, Pirate fullback from Lefors, is suffering a broken collarbone as results of his encounter with a swirling cyclone from Memphis last Friday night. The Cyclones emerged victorious over the Pirates in a closely fought contest which ended in a 6-0 score.

The Wellington Skyrockets who are doped to win the conference, came through with another victory last Friday night when they defeated the Lakeview Eagles 44-0. This indicates that they have not weakened since they handed the Clarendon Bronchos a 71-0 defeat and the Mustangs a 33-6 jolt.

So far this season the Mustangs are the only team in the conference that has scored on the powerful Skyrocket aggregation from Wellington.

The Mobeetie Hornets went to McLean last Friday night where they were swarmed by the McLean Tigers, 39 to 6. As McLean has a strong ball club this year, they have good chances of winning the conference.

The Wheeler girls are taking a lot of interest in basketball this year. They have started working out at activity period and the last period in the afternoon.

CORRECTION

Due to a misunderstanding last week an error was made in an announcement about reserved seats at the football games here.

"There will be no season reserved seat tickets this year," the statement should have been instead of "There will be no reserved seats this year."

Reserved seats are not included in the general admission tickets. Neither can they be bought for the season, as was the custom last year.

These seats may be purchased at the stands, according to Coach Stina Cain.

Mustangs Stampede to 26-0 Victory Over Clarendon Bronchos

Weeks, Groves Star in Backfield; Pitcock and Page Shine in Line

Having never been defeated by the Bronchos, the Mustangs stampeded to a 26-0 victory over Clarendon last Friday night on the Wheeler gridiron.

The Mustangs scored in the first and fourth and piled up two counters in the third quarter. After a hard struggle, neither team was able to penetrate in the second quarter.

Early in the first quarter the Mustangs started a touchdown drive. After marching down the field for three first downs, Weeks carried the ball 37 yards for a counter. The try for point was no good.

Although both teams fought very hard in the second quarter neither was able to score.

In the third period Green, Wheeler quarterback displayed some very good plays. Mustang center blocking up the line, intercepted a pass about the middle of this quarter and raced 15 yards for a touchdown. A pass from Weeks to Puckett was good for the extra point.

The Bronchos received but were held in their own territory. They kicked out on the Mustang's 47-yard stripe. After the Mustangs kicked, the Bronchos made an excellent return.

Another counter came in the third period after a fumble on the 8-yard stripe. Noah recovered the ball and a short pass from Weeks to Pitcock was good for another touchdown. Kick for point was blocked by a flock of Clarendon linesmen.

The Bronchos received after the score was made and were very successful in completing a 30-yard pass which put them deep into Mustang territory. With the Mustangs successfully holding the Bronchos, the third quarter ended with the ball in the possession of Wheeler's eleven.

Weeks succeeded in plunging through the line for another score in the fourth quarter. Green carried the ball in the third quarter for two neat 10-yard gains.

Weeks and Groves starred in the Wheeler backfield, while Page, acting-captain, and Pitcock shone most brilliantly in the line.

Wheeler's starting lineup follows:

- L.E.—G. Weeks.
- L.T.—Page.
- L.G.—Barnes.
- C.—Stephens.
- R.G.—Passons.
- R.T.—Compton.
- R.E.—Pitcock.
- Q.B.—Green.
- H.B.—Groves.
- H.B.—Shipman.

Hardin-Simmons University Paper Calls Former Mustang Promising Player

W. J. Ford, Wheeler graduate of '37, is captain of the freshmen string at Hardin-Simmons university, Abilene, Texas.

Ford went to Wheeler high school four years. He played center on the basketball team and fullback on the football team last year. He was the captain of the Mustangs.

W. J. was the only person from Wheeler to go to the state in track. He went to Austin last year, but failed to place in the short-put division.

Emler to See Service in Game for First Time this Season

With victory fresh in their minds, Wheeler Mustangs have been busy the past week preparing for their coming encounter with the Memphis Cyclones on the local gridiron Friday night.

Memphis boasts a team of eight veterans back from last year's starting lineup. They will outweigh the Mustangs five or more pounds per man. Their backfield will average 160 pounds and their line will also average that much.

Reports from Coach Hubbell are that he will arrive Friday morning instead of that afternoon.

Both teams won victories last Friday night. Clarendon suffered defeat at the hands of Wheeler, while the Lefors team met too much opposition when they ran up against the heavier Cyclones.

The Mustangs will likely center their attack around Weeks, fullback. Memphis will feature two extraordinary ball carriers in Hall and Pounds who are the spearheads of the Cyclone offense.

Emler, who because of a sprained ankle has not seen service this season, will be in the lineup for the Mustangs. He will be in a halfback position.

Because of the satisfactory line play last week, Shipman will remain in the backfield. He was in the blocking berth last Friday night. The change seemed to strengthen the Mustangs both on offense and defense.

These two teams have met the last two years and both have won one game each. The Cyclones took their first game and the Mustangs emerged victorious in last year's battle.

General admission tickets will be 25 and 50 cents. This does not include reserved seats. Tickets for seats can be purchased at the entrance to the grandstand. The game is called for 8 o'clock.

The starting lineup follows:

Wheeler	Position	Memphis
Puckett	L.E.	Evans

Stephens	C.	Robertson
Passons	R.G.	Clark

Officials for the game will be Daniels from Miami, Penick from Clarendon and Van Noy from Plemons.

YES, THE STAFF MAKES MISTAKES IN THE CORRAL BUT—

We made a mistake in last week's issue.

The same day there was a letter in our postoffice box that didn't belong to us. Our desk mate arrived too late to catch the bus and had to walk home. We purchased a lunch and some candy at noon and there was a mistake of five cents in our favor.

We answered the question asked by the professor. The instructor said we had studied our lesson when we didn't even own a book.

One of the bus drivers said that his bus engine was missing because the valves needed grinding. He installed a new distributor cap and it has been running ever since. A bus got stuck in a sand bed the other morning and was late for school.

We called telephone number 105 and they gave us 109.

An American interpreter of the Spanish language said to a group of Spaniards: "Senoras y caballos"—"ladies and horses." He meant: "Ladies and gentlemen"—"Senoras y caballeros."

Yes, we made a mistake in the last issue of the Corral.

A FEW DON'TS TO PRACTICE FOR FIRE PREVENTION

Last week a foul odor broke loose from gas lines located over the campus. In connection with the new fluid that is being used in gas lines, attention might be called to the fact that President Roosevelt has proclaimed from Oct. 3-9 as Fire Prevention week.

A new law has been passed recently that requires all Texas gas companies to put a malodorous fluid in the gas lines. The fluid has an odor which, when it escapes can be smelled very easily. We can be grateful to science for this malodorant. It may save many lives. If the law had been on the statute books a year ago it might have prevented the New London School disaster.

Last year two of our neighboring schools suffered great loss by fire. Briscoe gymnasium and the old Kellerville school building burned.

To prevent a similar occurrence on our own school grounds we might

Brave Girl Slays Amphibian Visitor on School Steps

A different visitor at school? Why not? Who ever heard of a snake's visiting? Well, sure nuff, he came along last Thursday 'bout the middle of the day. A group of students were yellin' so it seems as if their lungs would shatter. The poor little creature with his slick, brown coat was so scared he just scooted back against the cement walk waitin' for the mob to disperse.

Just about this time a high school girl fetched a rock and smacked the reptile right on the jaw. Then he began to wriggle on up the steps toward the door. Here the girl got a piece of cement with which she lashed the amphibian on the dome.

After the beast was already dead a few little boys began tossing rocks at it to show their bravery.

CLASS ADJOURNS UNTIL NEXT MONTH

"The class is adjourned until next month," said Amos Page on Thursday, Sept. 30, in plane geometry.

Everyone wondered what he meant. The class began rejoicing over an unexpected holiday.

After he explained to a "dumb class" (as he called it) that Thursday was the 30th and that the next day would be Friday, Oct. 1, they were all disappointed.

MEET THE FACULTY

"I was born at 3 o'clock in the morning, Nov. 13, 1910, at Moreland, Okla.," states W. C. Zirkle, vocational agriculture teacher at Wheeler high school.

When he was a mere infant, his family moved to Enid, Okla., where he attended school until completing the fourth grade. In 1919, his family moved to Perryton, Texas, where he graduated from high school in 1929.

While in high school Zirkle participated in football and basketball. On the football squad he played tackle and center. Guard and center were his positions on the basketball team. However, the highest athletic honors he ever received was district winner in tennis singles.

After graduating from high school he attended Texas Tech at Lubbock in '29 and '30. From '31 to '32, he took a post-graduate commercial course from Perryton high school. He graduated from Texas Tech with a B. S. degree and a major in vocational agriculture. While in college he belonged to the Agriculture club. "Uncle Bill" (as he is affectionally called by most of the agriculture boys) has for his hobbies hunting, and fishing, and making a scrap book of agriculture materials.

Kay Francis and Pat O'Brien are his favorite movie stars. Collier's is the magazine he reads most but he also likes the Farm Journal.

He isn't very much of a politician, (he says) but he thinks there is too much sympathy shown the Chinese. He also believes that Mr. Black should be removed from the supreme court bench.

"Pa" Zirkle always wears a pleasing smile, and is never seen with a frown. He weighs 195 pounds and is 6 feet, 2 inches tall. His hazel eyes are always twinkling and his mouth is never seen without a smile.

The 13th seems to be his lucky (or is it unlucky?) day, since he was born and married on that date. Before coming here Zirkle taught vocational agricultural, bookkeeping and typing at Meadows, Texas.

Lee Guthrie, manager of the Rogue Theater, will present a March of Time news reel once a month at the theater free of charge.

High school students were guests this Monday. The pictures this week were on pests and the Sino-Japanese war.

MUSIC INSTRUCTOR ORDERS NEW BOOKS FOR GLEE CLUBS

"Program Choruses" is the title of a book to be ordered by Mal Wynne for use in the Glee clubs this year. It contains suitable selections for both boys and girls glee clubs and quartets.

This book is published by Hall and McCreary, Chicago, Ill. Members of the club are urged to bring their 20 cents as soon as possible so that the books may be ordered without delay.

SNUBBING POST

After our bragging last week about its being time for winter, it suddenly turned 4th of July here in October.

Ruth Barr, Meta and Betty Gene seem to get hungry often. They even eat during journalism.

The color "brown" is very becoming to Coach Stina Cain. Our home economics teacher has the ability of "wearing anything she pleases."

A certain young couple were seen holding hands on the campus last week. Tisk. Tisk. What's becoming of our younger generation?

We wish to know why is Irene always talking about some kind of bread.

Don't look now, but if you'll notice there's that love light in Joe Markham's eye. He even looked kinda pink around the gills last Monday.

Would someone please explain to Bernice what a new-fangled radio is?

Virginia and Dorothy must have the singing fever.

The seniors had a class meeting last Monday. When discussing a football queen someone suggested James Passons! A couple of our football heroes captured the offices of president and vice president.

Speaking of football, "We won, by golly, we won"—and what's more "We'll win, by golly, we'll win."

We wonder why the students are calling Marion and Marilyn "Goldust." It is said that they think their pictures should be on the new dollar bills.

We wonder who was riding around with Gordon Tolliver last Sunday afternoon.

Alvern Hampton has both a bow and a beau. She really should give some of us poor unfortunate girls the little red bow or the boy friend—don't you think so?

"I think you are a silly, crazy, stupid, ignorant, horsey and sappy. You should be ashamed the way you make fun of me after I get out there and make myself sick yelling for you, but heck no. You think you are so cute. You would be if you had a brain. What do you think?"

The above is a note written to Herbert Green by Imogene Jamison and found by a snooping journalist.

"So Rare" is a song with a magic rhythm and a haunting tune.

As the word "Goldust" has been mentioned, perhaps it would be well to say in passing that there is a set of negro twins called the "Goldust Twins."

Lavell Jaco's hair is suddenly turning red, here in her old age too.

Albert Gunter says some people don't even leave the other half of the worm when you offer them a bite of an apple. Well, after all, a half apple a day would keep half the doctor away.

Betty Gene's want for pennies is driving everyone crazy.

Herbert Green must be "teched in the haid." Last Tuesday he was over heard calling Imogene "Betty Gene and Betty Gene "Imogene."

150 Pupils Enrolled in History Classes

Every Student Must Have Two Years in this Course

History is a subject which every high school student must take at least two years. There are 150 students enrolled in this department.

Miss Bernie Addison is teaching world history to two sections of history I.

Her students have two voluntary oral talks each week relative to the unit under discussion.

They are also learning to do reference readings, to take notes and work up papers by outside reading and to take class notes.

Later they plan to have a class notebook that contains material about the countries studied. This scrap book will include pictures and newspaper clippings of current happenings.

Miss Winona Adams teaches two sections of history II and one each of history I and II. History II students have been working on their notebooks containing maps and outlines.

Those taking history III which is about the United States, are now studying the Revolutionary War and are drawing maps. History I students are learning about Greek civilization.

All pupils in Miss Adams' three classes give an oral report each six weeks.

Principal C. B. Witt teaches Texas history.

His students have been studying the background for Stephen F. Austin, whom they are now discussing. They are also studying colonization.

Oral themes are of chief interest to the class. History clippings are also collected.

Most of this class consists of juniors and seniors. A scrap book, which contains clippings and pictures from papers on this source, is being made.

TWO GROUPS MEET AT ACTIVITY PERIOD TO ORGANIZE CLASSES

Geraldine Lewis, a member of the Home Ec. club, was president of the freshman class. She served on the program committee of the sophomore class last year.

Miss Holbert was secretary of the senior class in high school. In West Texas State college she was society reporter for the Prairie and a member of Alpha Chi. In both high school and college she belonged to the choral club.

While in college she won two prizes on essays of her own composition. One was first prize from the Texas Intercollegiate Press association on an essay she wrote while a senior. The other one was written the same year and won third prize in a contest for Texas college students.

Miss Holbert served as senior sponsor last year.

Canyon Homecoming Seeks Beauty Queen

Contest to Feature Most Elaborate Festival Ever at W. T. S. C. on October 23

Little Johnny went home from school and told his mother that teacher "sure was pretty." And now Johnny's teacher is going to be sent to West Texas State Oct. 22 to represent her county in a contest for queen of the annual homecoming, Oct. 23. Selection of the queen will take place at a carnival-program at Cousins hall, a girls' dormitory, on the eve of homecoming.

A faculty committee on alumni affairs, headed by Miss Anna I. Hibbets, is co-operating with an ex-student committee named by Supt. J. L. Gilmore of Wheeler, alumni president, in planning the most elaborate homecoming festival the college has ever known. Mrs. Tommie Montfort is chairman of the alumni committee.

Cousins hall will be gaily decorated for the grand "mixer" to which students, ex-students, and the public will be invited. Admission will be free. The dining room will become a cabaret, or night club, with tables, kitchen service, a floor show, and dancing. The main reception hall will feature fine arts, including music by a college orchestra, solos and group numbers, and an exhibit of art done by ex-students. The ball room will become a typical western rendezvous, with oldtime fiddling and square dancing.

A program by student and visiting talent will be heard. The lounge of the reception hall, named "Peacock Alley" for the occasion, will become a promenade between the shows. Troubadors will wander from room to room, and there will be uniformed guides and ushers. It will be an informal occasion. The audiences will move about as they wish.

Crowning of the queen in the fine arts room will be the climaxing event of the evening. After the promenade of beauties through the several rooms, secret judges will announce their decision and the chosen beauty will be crowned with appropriate ceremonies. Other contestants automatically will form a beauty court, which will be honored on homecoming day.

Homecoming will officially open at a program in the main chapel at 11 a. m., October 23. A noted speaker, likely to be General Smedley Butler, will be heard and ex-student notables will be introduced. A barbecue will be held on Buffalo field at noon, with entertainment in connection. At 2:30 p. m., the Buffaloes will play Northwestern Oklahoma Teachers college of Alva. A homecoming ball in the evening will close the program.

Ex-students in the various counties of this section are to meet this week and name their choice for queen of the homecoming. The name of the unmarried teacher selected, and her picture, should be sent at once to Mrs. Montfort at Canyon.

HOME EC. CLUB GIRLS MEET TO COMPLETE ORGANIZATION

THE CHRISTIANS IN GOD'S KEEPING

Lesson Text: Jude 1-4, 17-25.
Lesson Scope: Psalm 121; Jude 1.
Devotional Reading: Psalm 23.

An Approach

Only he is a Christian who has accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Saviour being washed in His blood and born of the Spirit from heaven. All others who profess to be Christians, but who cannot rightfully lay claim to the above conditions, are possessed only of self-reliance and will ultimately be disappointed in it. And the sooner such an one becomes disappointed in himself, even in his own religion, the better it will be for his soul and his life.

No sooner does one become a true Christian than he is, confronted with the opposing forces of the "trinity of evil"—the World, the Flesh and the Devil. The world from without appealing to the "desires of the flesh and of the mind" within, and overruled by that dictator, the devil.

Many a battle has been lost by underestimating the power of the enemy. Satan's trinity is powerful with a super human power. Therefore, watch your weaknesses. He will quickly find them. Reinforce your strength there. But do not forget that there is One above you and who is even yet more powerful than Satan, "for greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world" (1 Jno. 4:4).

THE HEART OF THE LESSON

The Holy Spirit is directing the author of this short letter to write unto "them that are called . . . and kept for Jesus Christ." "Called" out from the world (Acts 15:14) and "kept" safely to be presented unto Christ without blemish at His second coming (v. 24 and Eph. 5:27).

This letter presents an antithesis which is not uncommon to the New Testament. Jude addresses them as those who are kept by the power of God and he closes with a benediction to "Him who is able to keep them" and, yet, throughout the letter he admonishes them to keep themselves from the evil. Here is another such an antithesis, "Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God who worketh in you both to will and to do for his good pleasure" (Phil. 2:12, 13). Our Golden Text says, "Keep yourselves in the love of God." Rom. 8:31-39 and John 10:28 teach that such are secure and absolutely safe in the Father's care.

More Pressing Things

How fine it would be if the Lord's servants could always and only speak of the lovely and of the agreeable and of the pure with no reference to the disagreeable and the impure, as though everything were ideal. But taking things as they really are, there is urgent need for warnings and admonitions against evil aptitudes and tendency. The Holy Spirit here directed Jude that the latter was the more urgent (vs. 3, 4).

Contend Earnestly

They were warned against laxity and to "contend earnestly" for the faith once for all delivered unto the saints." But, for just this in our modern day, we are condemned as uncouth, unkind and dogmatic who would dare to follow this admonition. It is unkind, say they, to speak of earnest souls as in error. It is unkindly to accuse honest men of slyly slipping in to do you hurt. Nevertheless, God's word is full of such warnings in all ages. Will we listen to God or to the false veneer of men? Men who turn the grace of God into lasciviousness (v. 4).

Angels Also

He reminded them that not only did God's people of old fall, but angels also sinned and were imprisoned until the day of execution (vs. 5, 6, 14, 15). "But ye, beloved, remember ye the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; that they said to you, in the last time mockers shall come walking after their own ungodly lusts (vs. 17, 18). Connect this with 2 Pet. 3:3-7 and see what you can get out of it. Be on your guard.

Guard Yourselves from Stumbling

It is only apparent contradiction in their being admonished to keep themselves from evil and then that only God could so keep them. Surely they are not to keep themselves "by the ideals of Christ" for that would indeed make the contradiction real. Taking the "ideals" of Christ as a "code of ethics," a law, and hoping thereby to make one's self agreeable and acceptable unto God is wholly contrary to all that is taught concerning the grace of God. Paul, in Gal. 3:21 said, "For if there had been a law (code of ethics) given which could make alive, verily righteousness would have been of the law" In Rom. 3:21-26 and 4:1-8 Paul shows by what means the believer stands before God the sure to read those references).

Keeping one's self in the love of God, hating all corruptions of the world, the flesh and the devil will place one in the position where one will realize one's need of a refuge—the Lord Jesus Christ. Thus, and only then, may one be secure.

FIGHTING EYES . .

Eyes that strain and squint, fighting for clear vision, are not efficient eyes. The very effort they exert in piercing "overbrightness" or glare means a drain of vital nervous energy that rightfully belongs to other parts of the body. Such eyes need the protection of neutral, glare-reducing lenses like Soft-Lite Lenses.

87 SPEED RECORDS BROKEN TO MAKE TIRES SAFER FOR YOU

Never Before Have Tires Been Put to Such Gruelling Torture

Ab Jenkins, World's Safest Driver, Establishes 87 New Records for Safety, Speed, Mileage and Endurance . . . He Drove 3,774 Miles in 24 Hours on the Sharp Granite-like Surface of the Bonneville Salt Beds at Average Speed of 157.27 Miles an Hour

AT SPEEDS as high as 180 miles an hour—with the hot, coarse, abrasive salt grinding, tearing, scorching his tires—Ab Jenkins' special racer, weighing nearly three tons, pounded over the Bonneville Salt Beds last week at such terrific speed that it caused the surface to break up. Before the end of the run the track was so pitted and rough that it was almost impossible to hold the car on its course. Yet Jenkins set 87 new World, International and American speed records on Firestone Tires.

Building tires capable of establishing such records is made possible only because of patented Firestone manufacturing processes. These exclusive features enable Firestone to provide car owners with tires that are extra safe.

For the greatest protection of yourself and your family equip your car with Firestone TRIPLE-SAFE Tires. By TRIPLE-SAFE we mean—

1 PROTECTION AGAINST SKIDDING—The scientific tread design gives longer non-skid mileage and stops your car up to 25% quicker.

2 PROTECTION AGAINST BLOWOUTS—Firestone Tires run up to 28 degrees cooler because every fiber of every cord in every ply is saturated with liquid rubber by the Firestone patented Gum-Dipping process. This counteracts the internal friction and heat that ordinarily cause blowouts.

3 PROTECTION AGAINST PUNCTURES—Two extra layers of Gum-Dipped cords under the tread add strength to the tire and give extra protection against punctures.

Now is the time to make your car tire-safe for fall and winter driving. Join the Firestone SAVE A LIFE Campaign today by equipping your car with a set of new FIRESTONE TRIPLE-SAFE Tires—the safest tires that money can buy!

Last year highway accidents cost the lives of more than 38,000 men, women and children and a million more were injured! More than 40,000 of these deaths and injuries were caused directly by punctures, blowouts and skidding due to smooth, worn, unsafe tires!

Left is a section cut from a smooth, worn tire, with non-skid protection worn off. Tires in this condition are liable to punctures, blowouts and skidding.

Right is a section cut from a Firestone Triple-Safe tire. Note the thick, non-skid protection against blowouts and punctures. Come in and see a demonstration.

"Always Something New"

Croquet Whimsy

"Tell 'em Bob Holt's gang got beat in that croquet tangle terminating last Thursday night," stated an informant when asked for details of the fray which stirred much interest.

With 14 men to the side, one lot led by Bob Holt and the other by Bob Rodgers, the series started Tuesday night. When asked about it, Holt snorted: "Well, it was a mighty small victory margin, but they beat us."

Captain Holt had the following helpers: Morris and Troy Burgess, Oneal Bowerman, Bill Rowe, Reuben May, Holt Green, Robert Guynes, Ernest Dyer, W. Veale, H. E. Young, "Tater" McClain, A. L. Bean, Odean Jones.

Captain Rodgers' crew: Tom Crossland, Barney and Watson Burgess, Homer Jones, Otis Reid, E. H. Herd, J. M. Burgess, Carl and Truman Wright, Floyd Long, Mr. Mallory, Amos May, Ernest Lee.

What promises to be a 3-game grudge battle started Tuesday night when Bob Holt and H. E. Young challenged Bob Rodgers and his choice—which happened to be that amiable hardware vendor, Ernest Lee.

Holt declares he and his teammates intend to win the series—even if it becomes wicket and they have to resort to mallets.

Tom Crossland swears Holt and "Brigham" choked completely down Tuesday night, and he doubts if either of them will ever be able to beat a kindergarten pupil from now on.

Accident Takes Life of Kellerville Boy

Garland Wesley Smart, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Everette Smart of Kellerville, was instantly killed about 5 o'clock Monday afternoon when a revolver, believed to be unloaded, was accidentally discharged in a Kellerville boarding house operated by the child's mother.

The gun belonged to Jack Powell, Amarillo blanket salesman, who was a business caller at the boarding house.

Garland and another youngster named Martin, were playing with a "nigger shooter" in the kitchen of the boarding house when Powell entered. He chatted with the children about their toy and told them he had a gun in his car which would really shoot.

Powell brought the pistol to the house, thinking it was unloaded, but when he took the gun from the holster, it was accidentally discharged, the bullet passing through the Martin child's hip and causing a deep flesh wound, and striking the Smart child in the left chest, the bullet lodged beneath the shoulder. He died almost instantly.

Investigation made by Justice of the Peace B. B. Walker, Shamrock, and Sheriff Raymond Waters, Wheeler, revealed the shooting was entirely accidental.

The body was taken to a Pampa mortuary pending arrival of the father, employed in a Kansas oil field. Two other children besides the parents survive.

UNUSUAL PHOTOGRAPHY IN HARLOW'S LAST PICTURE

Those who have seen Jean Harlow's last picture, "Saratoga," showing at the Rogue theatre Saturday night preview, Sunday afternoon and Monday, declare its producers, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, resorted to the use of some very unusual photography to bring this picture to the theatre-world. Miss Harlow's untimely death found most of the picture finished; but a few scenes were lacking. The producers decided to scrap the film in its entirety, but the public would not permit it. Whereupon, M-G-M had to devise means of completing the unfinished sequences without Miss Harlow. With the assistance of rare photography, the desired results were accomplished.

This Year's Kelton Fair Declared Best

More Exhibits of Higher Quality and Good Program Attract Large Attendance

Universally acclaimed by those attending it as much the best of the three annual events held so far by that thriving community, Kelton's Community fair on Friday of last week is conceded a signal success.

Many enthusiasts assert it easily leads similar undertakings throughout the Panhandle by a comfortable margin. Quantity, quality and variety distinguished farm products and live stock entries, with forage grain surpassing anything shown in the county for a long while.

Hefner, Childress county farm agent, and his assistant, Bill Dryden, judged the farm products. Howard Weatherly and W. C. Zirkle, vocational agriculture teacher in the Wheeler schools, judged the live stock. Canning and needlework entries were judged by county home demonstration members.

Interesting Program

Conceits were offered by the bands from Wheeler and Shamrock and talks were made during the afternoon by County Judge W. C. Puett, Wheeler; Attorney J. B. Clark, Shamrock, and Mason King, Tri-Stat fair official.
