Former Mobeetie Man Killed Thursday Night

EMMETT C. SMITH RELEASED ON MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE

Funeral services were held at the Mobeetie Methodist church Monday afternoon for Tyson Jeffus, 42, of Wellington who was killed Thursday night on the Wheeler-Canadian highway about six miles north of Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffus were returning to their home from Mobeetie where they had attended the graduation of their daughter, Arletta, from high school there. The family formerly lived at Mobeetie, but Mr. and Mrs. Jeffus moved to Wellington the first of the year, while the daughter continued in school at Mobeetie. Jeffus stopped his car to see if he could be of assistance to three men whose car was in the ditch. While trying to help them, one of the men went to Jeffus' car, got in, started the motor and drove off. Jeffus ran back and jumped on the running board of his car. The man drove the car to the right side of the road, then to the left, stopping short of a gulley, and tearing through a barbed wire fence. Jeffus suffered a severed artery in his leg and bled to death within a few minutes. County officers investigating the tragedy said that Jeffus was thrown from the car and presumably run over.

Sheriff Jess Swink arrested the man, who gave his name as Emmett C. Smith, 25. Charges of manslaughter were filed and he was released on posting $3,500 bond.

District Judge W. R. Ewing stated Monday that Smith's trial would probably be continued to the next term of court since the present term of court, now in its sixth week, is nearing a close.

The two other men with Smith were identified by local officers as Wheeler county residents. Smith lives in Hereford.

Phillip Tyson Jeffus was born May 6, 1900 at Purdue, Okla., and died at Wheeler, May 15, 1942. He married Miss Arlie Baskin on September 12, 1922.

Besides the widow and daughter, survivors are his mother, Mrs. W. J. Jeffus, four brothers, Preston of Lordsburg, Ariz.; Aubrey, who lives in California; Paul and Doyle of Mobeetie, and one sister, Mrs. Tommie Tyson.

Jeffus had made his home in and around Mobeetie most of his life and was engaged in farming and ranching until he moved to Wellington to become engaged in the filling station business.

He will be missed by the entire community, as he was always congenial, accommodating and well liked by everyone. The Methodist church could only seat about a third of the people attending the services.

Services were conducted by Rev. Gilliam of Dodson, former pastor, assisted by Rev. G. W. McLain and Rev. Hardin.

Pall bearers were John Dunn, Buck Scribner, Ariza Corcoran, Tots Baird, G. Baird, Posey.

Interment was made in the Mobeetie cemetery with the Hunt Funeral Home in charge.

Two Couples Married Sunday at Elk City

Miss Lois Anglin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Anglin of Wheeler and Robert McCain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe McCain of Mobeetie, and Miss Virginia Lourie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lourie, and Dale Ladd, son of Mrs. Frances Ladd, of Shamrock were married Sunday, May 10, at Elk City, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. McCain are at home on a farm near Pampa, while Mr. and Mrs. Ladd expect to make their home in Shamrock.

Mrs. G. O. McCrohan plans to leave the latter part of the week for a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Phillips at Barmont, Texas.

POPPIES—OTHER FLOWERS BEAUTIFY DR. HALL HOME

A visit to the Dr. V. N. Hall home in the southeast suburbs of Wheeler will prove most interesting. Here, you will find poppies of many colors and types. They range in size to about as large as a saucer. Seed from which these poppies are growing came originally from the vicinity of Chattanooga, Tenn., and have been handed down from generation to generation in Mrs. Hall's family. Flowers are her hobby and this is her third season to pursue the hobby here.

Besides poppies, there are dozens of other flowers such as roses, iris, phlox, snapdragon, primrose, hollyhocks, foxglove larkspur, aster, moss, pinks and cananons. The huge beds of baby pansies are beautiful. Mrs. Hall naturally takes pride in her achievement, and she and Dr. Hall are most gracious hosts to those who come to view the garden.

Resolutions of Respect

In memory of George Seltz, who passed away April 13, 1942.

The death angel has visited our chapter and taken from our number one of our beloved members. This one who once met with us here and shared our joys and sorrows, is now awaiting us in the grand chapter above. We shall join them when we, too, have completed life's labyrinth.

Whereas, the Heavenly Father has called our respected and beloved brother home, and he, having been a true and faithful member of our beautiful order, therefore be it

Resolved, that Mobeetie chapter No. 554, Order of the Eastern Star, drape its charter in memory of this departed member, and that we tender to the family of our deceased brother our sincere condolence in their sorrow and bereavement, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent the family.

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord

They rest from their labors— And their works follow them."

Cold Storage Locker System Quite Probable

Local Lions club members interested in securing a locker system for Wheeler stated this week that it is quite likely that the plant will be installed.

An equipment representative visiting here Wednesday said the equipment was available but suggested that to be safe those in charge should make application to the war production board for an installation permit. This was done today (Thursday).

A desirable building for the plant has been obtained in case plans materialize.

It is planned to install 150 units at present with facilities for an additional 50 at a later date. Lockers will be rented for a rate of $10 a year and the committee handling the rentals advise that "first come—first served" will be practiced in renting them to persons.

Those interested in obtaining a locker are asked to see one of the committee composed of Raymon Holt, Jake Tarter and H. M. Wiley. No money will have to be invested by compartment renters until the plant is assured.

Essential Buildings For Farm Permitted

Recent War Production Board orders affecting construction of farm homes and buildings mean rural families in Texas may build little and repair much for the duration of the emergency. Purpose of the orders is to restrict the sale or use of materials necessary to the war effort.

There are a few exceptions to the order. For example, a farm building which costs less than $1,000 and will not be used for residential purposes may be built if materials are available. However, cost of several new buildings within any 12-month period must not exceed $1,000. All agricultural construction exceeding this figure must be authorized by the War Production Board. Individual applications should be filed with county USDA War Boards for transmittal.

New farm residential construction which will cost less than $500 is also exempt from the order. Mrs. Bernice Claytor, extension service specialist in home improvement, says this means many farm families will need to do considerable repair on their homes to keep them in good shape and to protect health during the war period.

Farm residences costing $500 or more must be approved by WPB unless buildings damaged or destroyed by "fire, flood, tornado, earthquake, act of God or the public enemy" must be reconstructed or restored. Then no permit is necessary.

The Wheeler county War Board is composed of Clarence Zybach, Jake Tarter, Frank Wofford, J. A. Bryant, and Marshall Howard, Lubbock.

COLE BROTHERS TRANSFER TO U. S. AIR CORPS

Connie Everette and Archie Lavaeu Cole, sons of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cole, who have been stationed at the naval training school, Bremerton, Wash., have joined the air corps and are to go to Corpus Christie for three months and then will go to St. Marys, Calif., for another three months training course.

Dyer Replaces Elliott On Wheeler Co. Board

Jesse J. Dyer, now acting county superintendent of schools under Allen Kavanaugh, who is in the United States army at Fort Bliss, has been appointed to the Wheeler County Selective Service board, taking the position of O. W. Elliott of Mobeetie, who has resigned and moved his residence to Olney, where he is to take over the management of the City Gas Co.

The local board regrets to lose the services of Mr. Elliott, who has served ably since the institution of Selective Service, but believes that in the appointment of Mr. Dyer a well-qualified man has been secured.

Dyer was born in Tennessee, coming to Texas in 1900. He is the possessor of a B. S. degree from the East Texas State Teacher's College of Commerce and an M. A. degree from the West Texas State college of Canyon. He saw twenty two months service in World War I, almost twelve months of that time was spent overseas in France. He came to Wheeler county in 1936 and taught three full terms of school at Twitty and began the 41-42 term, but in November of 1941 he went to Shamrock as a teacher in the high school there.

Following Allen Kavanaugh's recall to service in January of this year, Dyer took over the duties of Kavanaugh's office, in which capacity he has been quietly and efficiently carrying out the latter's policies.

Mr. and Mrs. Dyer reside in Wheeler and have a daughter in school at Canyon in the West Texas State college.

The board again desires to call the attention of all registrants to the importance of notifying it immediately upon any change of address, status or condition. This is particularly important now that General Hershey has stated that the calling of men with dependents may not be any further off than this fall or early in 1943. Occupational questionnaires, D.S.S. 311, have been mailed to all men who registered February 16. Just how, in what order of registration, and when other registrants will be sent such questionnaires the board does not know.

BOARD TO MEET TUESDAYS

Beginning next week the Wheeler county selective service board will change their meeting day from Wednesday to Tuesday of each week.

Thorban Harold Murry of Briscoe, Everet Smith, Obal Dollins and Paul Farmer of Wheeler and Merle Leroy Ford of Kellerville, left Wheeler Monday for the army induction center at Lubbock to enter the U. S. armed forces.

Si Marchbanks of Mobeetie enlisted in the navy last week.

CANDIDATE SPEAKING AND BOX SUPPER AT ROCK SCHOOL

A candidate speaking and box supper program is scheduled to be held at the Rock school house Friday night, May 29, it was announced this week by W. B. Wofford, sponsor for such occasions. The Home Demonstration club of the Rock community will have charge of the program.

Pampa Is Awarded Bomber Training School

SITE IS LOCATED ON PAMPA-WHEELER HI-WAY

Construction of an air force installation near Pampa has been authorized by the war department, the office of Rep. Eugene Worley at Washington informed The Times' editor by telegram shortly before noon last Friday.

Construction of the twin-engine bomber training school is to be supervised by the Tulsa, Okla., district office corps of engineers. Cost of the huge air force plant to be located southwest of Laketon will be less than $3,000,000.00, the official statement said.

It is reported that the airport and barracks will cover nearly 3,000 acres of land and that the project will bring 2,000 to 5,000 officers, cadets, ground personnel and construction workers to the Pampa area. Towns of Wheeler, Miami, Lefors and Mobeetie are expected to benefit from the school as well as Pampa.

Date of starting actual construction on the project has not been announced but with the arrival of construction officials in Pampa this week it is supposed that excavating and other preliminary work will start at once.

EVANGELIST LESTER HATHAWAY, above, of Mobeetie who is conducting a gospel meeting at the Magic City Church of Christ. Services are being held each evening at 9 o'clock during the week and 11:00 a. m. Sunday. The meeting, which began last Friday evening, will close Sunday night.

Rain Is Ideal for Row Crop Planting

An approximate inch of slow, ground soaking moisture fell through out this area Tuesday night and additional light showers Thursday added to the much appreciated fall as gardens and fields were beginning to need moisture.

It is estimated that one-third of the cotton crop has been planted and several acres of feed stuff have been planted and much of it is getting off to a good start.

There is only one draw-back to the cool dampish weather and that is the fact that spring barley patches infested with green bugs are said to be suffering considerably during such weather.

SPECIAL AWARDS PRESENTED HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS

The students receiving special awards at the Wheeler high school graduation, Thursday night were: S. D. Miller, an award for being a splendid class president; the student excelling in English and receiving the award was Glenda Schattenberg. Other awards went to Bill Cosper, track; Glenn Hale, mathematics; dramatics, Arlene Reynolds; F.F.A., Jim Johnson; best boy in school (citizen), W. A. Goad; and the high school student making the highest grade for the year and receiving the award given by the Wednesday Study club, was Louise Tillman.

FORMER CITIZEN DIES

W. F. Mason, former citizen of Wheeler, died recently at Bonham after a year's illness. He was a brother of Mrs. H. F. Johnson of Magic City. Mr. Mason's son, Robert, was killed in a car accident about two months ago at San Antonio.

Mr. Mason had made his home in Wheeler a number of years and will be well remembered by the old timers. He left here a little over a year ago, when he became ill and news of his death was not unexpected.

Mrs. Roe Green and daughters, Sharon and Priscilla, spent Sunday in Shamrock with her father, Mr. W. G. Mayfield. Mrs. Green's mother is in Wichita Falls with her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Fillmore, who has been very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Thompson of Raton, N. Mex., have been visiting in Wheeler since Monday, but plan to return to Amarillo Saturday.

PEEPING IN THE WHEELER TIMES WINDOW

Old Tack, well known columnist of the Amarillo News-Globe, will have to search no farther for his victory egg. It is on display in The Times window this week. Mrs. Louise Ealum, who lives 4 miles west of Wheeler, brought the egg, which is plainly marked with a "V," to the Times office Saturday.

Who knows. There might be one turn up some of these days with three dots and a dash.

Military authorities are said to believe that Hitler has the men and the equipment for one more grand offensive. If that offensive can be beaten, they reason the Fuehrer will be on the way to eventual defeat and disaster. That is why every effort is now being given to supplying Russia with an ever-increasing stream of the implements of war. Hitler must break Russia if he is to win his global war. The Russians seem completely confident of their power to stop him if they receive adequate equipment.

Stalin has said that American and English help has reached gratifying proportions. This year the destiny of half the world may be decided in the U.S.S.R.

EVERYBODY'S WAR

This is everybody's war—and everybody must help finance it. That is the gist of a recent statement by Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau in which he pointed to the need for increased purchases by individuals of United States Savings bonds.

During the next year, said the secretary, the nation will probably have to borrow upwards of $35,000,000,000. And then he made this pertinent observation: "If the government is compelled to go to the commercial banks for the bulk of these funds, the result will be to increase inflationary tendencies which are already serious.

"When bonds are purchased with savings out of current income, on the other hand, such savings help to reduce excess consumer income which, if spent for a limited supply of consumer goods, would tend to force prices up. It is for this reason, among others, that we are going directly to the people for as much as possible of the money needed for the war."

The banks cannot do it all—and in the interest of a sound national economy they should not do it all even if they could. It is the plain duty of everyone, out of self-interest if for no other reason, to put every possible dollar into the bonds which pay for fighting our enemies.

THE FRUITS OF HOARDING

A news dispatch tells of a man who registered for a sugar ration book and reported that he had 15,000 pounds of sugar in his possession. When questioned, he said that he had feared a shortage two years ago and had been accumulating his gigantic stock ever since.

That is a particularly glaring example of the kind of action that, if widely followed even on a small scale will make an extreme extension of rationing inevitable. In other words, hoarding makes scarcities—and scarcities, in turn, make iron-handed government control unavoidable. Some authorities have said that there would be no need for sugar rationing at this time had not purchases by the public increased to an abnormal level.

American merchants, including chains and independents, have been fighting hoarding. They have been urging the public to buy normally, and to pay no attention to wild rumors which say that practically everything we need will soon be unobtainable. That advice is 100 per cent worthwhile. If all of us follow it, there will be far fewer shortages, and rationing can be held to the minimum.

The American merchant, big or little, is the consumer's best protection. That's true whether the merchant deals in clothing or general merchandise or food or hardware or anything else. The merchant knows conditions. He is in a far better position than the rest of us to anticipate what the future will bring. And when he says, "Don't hoard!" he simply talks common sense.

END BOONDOGGING NOW

The House of Representatives recently reduced 1943 non-war appropriation bills almost $2,000,000,000 below the 1942 totals. That action was characterized by Kenneth L. Pray, secretary of the Citizens Emergency committee, as "the most forthright step yet taken by the federal government to control the impending inflation."

The house cut appropriations for practically all offices and activities which are not directly connected with the war effort. This money which will be saved is important. And what is far more important, is the fact that the officials who control the nation's purse strings are beginning to realize that we can't pay for the greatest war in history and spend endless billions for non-essentials, without courting disaster.

We hear much these days of reducing purchasing power as one means of preventing inflation. Lavish spending by the federal government in itself vastly increases purchasing power without a corresponding increase in the production of goods and services. If inflation is to be prevented the government, no less than industry and individuals, must pull in its belt to the last notch.

The house has made a fine start. Now let it go ahead and effect further economies. There are many notorious examples of glaring waste in governmental affairs. Very large sums of money are being spent on activities which could and should be paid for by private business. The goal must be to cut our government competition with taxpaying private enterprise, and to abandon or defer any and all political projects which are not absolutely essential.

In short, let our public servants practice what they preach to the people. The house has acted at last—and the kind of thinking that made the reductions possible must be encouraged and intensified. The boondoggling era must come to an end.

This sugar shortage isn't so bad. For one thing, it's caused me to renew acquaintance with East Texas ribbon cane.

And try sprinkling a little salt on your grapefruit instead of sugar. It's different—but good.

Only "fly in the ointment" is the rubber shortage—and me just having changed over from a belt to suspenders and acquiring the knack of thrusting my thumbs in them and rearing back with the feeling of importance which that gives. And when a fellow makes a point in an argument and then snaps his suspenders, that clinches matters. But I guess there'll be no more suspenders after the present supply is gone.

An inscription in a cemetery in France:

Here lies Pierre Victor Fournier, inventor of the Everlasting Lamp, which consumes only one centime's worth of oil in one hour. He was a good father, son and husband. His inconsolable widow continues his business in the Rue aux Trois. Goods sent to all parts of the city. Do not mistake the shop across the street for this.

Machinery has always mystified me, probably because there are only two machines I can operate: a typewriter and an automobile. The typewriter is operated on the hunt-and-peck system, using two fingers, one on each hand (and a thumb to hit the space bar); and I didn't learn to drive until I had been voting for 10 years.

How anyone, could have a steady enough hand, keen enough eyes and sufficient patience to take the delicate springs and screws of an ordinary watch out—much less one of these tiny wrist-watches—is beyond me.

My timepiece recently needed a little adjusting and I happened to mention to a Fort Worth jeweler that it had been overhauled recently in Austin. He named a shop there and when I answered "Yes," puzzled as to how he knew, he explained that, after such a job, the watch repairer scratches his initials—almost invisible—inside.

Interesting—or was he spoofing?

A gentleman slipped on the stair of a subway and started to slide to the bottom. Halfway down, he collided with a lady knocking her down, and the two continued their way to the lower landing.

After they had reached the bottom, the lady, still dazed, continued to sit on the gentleman's chest. Looking up at her, he finally said politely, "Madam, I'm sorry, but this is as far as I go."

Tom King, who was in the office of State Auditor longer than any other man, didn't grow up down along the Rio Grande. He was employed, quite a few years back now, to audit the books of a big mercantile establishment near the border, and he asked about a "miscellaneous" item of several thousand dollars.

"Oh, that's for peloan"—(this writer doesn't guarantee the spelling)—replied the manager.

Though having not the least idea in the world what peloan was, King didn't wish to betray the fact so he waited a while, then returned to the item and inquired cautiously and received the same replay. By now the manager had sized up the situation and was secretly amused. At last King had to come right out and ask what peloan was.

And for the first time he made acquaintance with one of the quaint customs among the Texas citizens of Mexican ancestry: when the family buys a week's supply of groceries for cash or settles a bill that has been running a while, the merchant "throws in" a sack of candy or some other little gift.

Pertinent Paragraphs from Panhandle Press

Items of interest culled from newspapers on The Times' exchange list.

In spite of all the reasons given as to why Federal Judge Allred and Ex-Governor Moody would not enter the senatorial race this year against Senator W. Lee O'Daniel; they both got in, which gives Texas prospect for another red hot campaign, even if it is war times.

Jimmy Allred is resigning his lifetime federal judgeship to make the race, and Dan Moody is breaking into what is declared to be the most lucrative law practice in the southwest by his entry.

It is hard to compare the strength of these two former governors who have never tasted defeat, and only time will tell who is the stronger. Dan Moody was one of the most fiery campaigners Texas ever saw, back in the days of Fergusonism, while Jimmy Allred was always able to set-up a colorful background for his campaigns. Dan is probably the most powerful personality, while Jimmy has the advantage of later contacts with the "deep peepul," and should have some remnants of organization upon which to build a whale of a campaign. Senator O'Daniel has been a whirlwind campaigner of the later "hillbilly band" type, but has never faced such political jousts as his two predecessors in the governor's race.—The Clarendon News.

"Well, our boys who bombed Tokyo not only covered themselves with glory but they helped their bank accounts as well. A half-million dollars now goes to them, this sum of money having been set aside by patriotic citizens and groups for the first American fliers to bomb the large Nipponese city. But you and I know that it wasn't the financial reward that provided the incentive for the aerial blow. Not at all. It was the stab-in-the-back Pearl Harbor attack that fired our boys to blast the Japanese capital.—The Vernon Times.

We cannot be very enthusiastic over the reports coming out of Berlin regarding unrest in Europe; the food shortage in Germany; the bgeach among Hitler's officers; and a lot of other unexplained reports which are issued as propaganda. America was kidded into the belief that Hitler did not have a united nation behind him; that we could whip the Japs before breakfast; that Europe was about to explode and blow Hitler to hades. In fact, we have been fed so much propaganda that none of it sinks very deep. The thing for every American to do is plan and work like the war is going to last for 10 years, and if we can whip the Germans and Japs before then, we are just that much better off.—The Canyon News.

Enthusiasm for the price control measures being taken now by OPA is going to grow, it is freely predicted. While the program is calling for much work and study on the part of your retail dealers this week, the pinch of the price ceilings will not be as severe as it was thought and many believe, the adjustment will leave the average dealer in much better position to meet competition. The average dealer has only enough money in his business to finance it under average conditions. The dealer with unlimited funds, on the other hand, goes into market, buys too much and hoards against price rises which the average fellow must take as he gets to them. Meanwhile the public is protected against the vicious circle, too. There is nothing to make the dealer sell at the "ceiling," he merely operates under the "ceiling." If it works out as beautifully as the theory has it everybody is going to be happy in this part of the world, except the cattle, sheep and hog men who bought to sell at a higher price. The price on these items is not likely to keep on jumping because the packer will have a "ceiling" and he is not going to bid on something at a price that won't show him a little margin, based on March operations.—Floyd County Hesperian.

If farmers could be turned loose to raise all they want to, the food problem would be solved. All they need is the word to go, with the assurance that a fair price could be obtained for their products.—The McLain News.

Nature teaches a forceful lesson during the hailstorm when the frozen pellets strike the yielding flower stalk without damage, yet destroy the older, stubborn plants which refuse to bend.—Douglas Meador in The Matador Tribune.

Gasoline rationing is now a fact in the eastern states. We can expect it to go nation-wide after the trial period in the east is ended July 1. Gas shortage is temporary but tire shortage is permanent for the duration. One main purpose of gas rationing is to save tires and enforce the stretch-out of tire supply until 1944-45.—The Ochiltree County Herald.

WHEELER

MAKE A GOOD SOLDIER, SON

A crumpled bit of paper was sent speeding to a lonely but determined youth in one of Uncle Sam's Naval Training stations recently and officers who read the hurried scrawl the scrap of paper bore, believed an American classic was penned in the parting moments of a father and son.

As noble as the advice Hamlet received from his father and as American as the flag was the crumpled letter which the boy lost in the Navy Recruiting Station in the Post Office at Wichita Falls.

The letter was from Jim H. Canon, Paducah, Texas, to his 19-year-old son, Jimmie Henry Canon, Jr., and written to the boy before he left Wichita Falls to go to Dallas for his final examination and to be sworn into service.

Brief and poignant was the letter of an American dad to an American son:

"Dear Son:
"I am sending you the papers which give my consent for you to join the Navy. I wish you the best of luck, and I want you to write your mother as often as you can. We both hate to see you go, but you go with our best wishes. We want you to try and be one of the best men in the Navy.
"Son, I would like for you to try and qualify as a gunner, then maybe you will have the privilege of firing a broadside right where it will do the most good—into a Jap ship.
"You are passing out of our hands now and will be under the care of the U. S. Navy. Always remember to obey your superior officers.
Be honest, apply yourself one hundred per cent to your job—and do that job well. It will be a long hard fight. We are counting on you and several million like you to do the job.
"Answer right back, we will be wanting to hear from you.

"Love,
"DAD"
Jimmie was transferred to a Naval Training Station on April 4, his letter turned up in the Middle of Navy files at Wichita Falls today. How it got there, no one knows. But the letter is going on to Jimmie ... it should be a big help in trying times to come.

"That letter," declared Lt. L. H. Ridout, Jr., officer in charge of the Dallas Recruiting Station, "is the type of encouragement boys need from home. 'America is just as strong as the number of dads and sons it has, like Jimmie, Sr. and Jimmie, Jr.
Jimmie and his father call Delvin, Texas, their home town and it is there the family reunion will be held when 'Jimmie comes marchin' home."

America's Confession and Prayer for Victory

Dear Lord, we confess we have wandered from Thee; That deep in sin's path we have trod; Lord, open our eyes and help us to see, How far we have wandered from God.

As a nation, Dear Lord, you have watched over us And blessed us with blessings untold; You gave us our Freedom and Liberty, too, And abundance of silver and gold.

Like Israel of old we have wandered away, We have trampled and broken your law; Now the mad dogs of Europe have invaded our land, And today we are plunged into war.

Angry war clouds darkened our beautiful skies, Our hearts are all bleeding and sore; Many of our boys will march to the front, And on earth we will see them no more.

We have trifled with sin and plunged deep within, We have worshiped our silver and gold; Like the prodigal son, Lord, help us return, As a sheep that has strayed from the fold.

We have gone pleasure mad; seeking honor and fame, We have forsaken the house of the Lord; We have neglected to pray In the old fashioned way, as recorded in God's holy word.

We have been more concerned about what we could earn, Or the wealth we might lay by in store, Than for lost souls around us who are wandering in sin; Drifting farther away from the shore.

We have given more to go to the picture shows, Where the crowds sit and frantically yell; Than we have given to the missionary or foreign fields Trying to rescue lost souls from hell.

Forgive us, Dear Lord, for the deeds we have done, Let Old Glory still wave in the breeze; For well we know if victory is won, Our nation must get on its knees.

Lord, may we just now at thy feet lowly bow, Confessing to thee all our sins; And in this great conflict of right against wrong, Please, God, won't you help us to win?

MARINES' NEXT VISIT TO JAPAN WON'T BE ERRAND OF MERCY!

The next time the United States marines march in the streets of Tokyo it won't be on any errand of mercy as was the occasion of their last visit.

Following the earthquake of September, 1923, U. S. marines aboard the USS Huron were ordered to proceed to Japan to set up a hospital camp and other quarters for Americans in the area. Upon arrival in Japan the marine detachment found it would not be permitted ashore to perform its mission. Japanese authorities objected.

A short time later, at the request of the American Embassy in Tokyo, a detail of marines was sent ashore. This detail was composed of a sergeant and two squads of marines. They established the camp and served as couriers and guards for the American colony.

Later an order was received calling for the erection of a second complete camp on the grounds of the American consulate in Yokohama. During their stay in these two cities of Japan the marines extended every courtesy and consideration to the Japs.

Tokyo newspapers praised the Leathernecks as "ambassadors of good will and amity from the Americans to Japan. They are upholding the traditions of the United States marine corps, while their chivalry, expressed in kindness to everyone and readiness to do everything possible for those seeking aid has already made them firm friends of the Japanese people."

After their relief mission had been completed, all the marines were withdrawn with the exception of a sergeant and eight men who remained behind to act as an embassy guard.

Since that time many marines have visited Japanese ports on navy ships, but now they are grimly determined that the next visit to the island will bring anything but relief to the Japs.

The earthquake of 1923 will fade into insignificance before the wrath of the fighting Leathernecks.

NEWS IN THE WORLD OF RELIGION BY W.W. REID

More than 1,500 members of Baptist churches in Greater Cleveland will take part in a pageant, "The Triumph of Religious Liberty," to be presented on May 30 in the public auditorium as a feature of the sessions of the Northern Baptist convention. D. D. R. Sharpe of the Baptist City Missionary society of Cleveland is the author. The pageant has seven parts: the Day of Pentecost Paul in Chains for his faith; a meeting in the Catacombs; in the Hippodrome, Constantinople, in 313 A. D.; in Rome in 1137 A. D.; in Plymouth Colony and Providence when religious liberty crossed the Atlantic; and in the modern world in May 1942.

Members of a Negro Baptist church and of a Jewish congregation joined together in a unique service in Springfield, Mass., recently, when they burned a church mortgage and prayed for peace and harmony throughout the world. In 1924 the Calvary Baptist church had purchased their church property from Beth Israel Synagogue. The Jews held a mortgage which it became increasingly difficult for the Negroes to pay off. The congregation of the Synagogue agreed to cancel the mortgage of $2,400 if the Baptists would raise $500 to repair the building. This was done and the celebration followed. Rabbi J. B. Freedman and Pastor Silas L. Dupree officiated.

A story of the tragic end of a number of German missionaries, who were prisoners of war in the Netherlands Indies when the war swept over Sumatra, is told by Dr. A. L. Warnshuis of the International Missionary council: "In accordance with the Geneva convention, German internees from Sumatra were being transported to British India. One of the ships was attacked and sunk by Japanese bombers shortly after leaving Sumatra. The 328 victims include a number of missionaries. The Basle Mission lost four or five; the Rhenish Mission lost five missionaries, including two superintendents; the Newkirchen Mission lost two; and Oegstgeest and the Indonesian church lost six.

From Kwato, on Sumarai Island, on the east end of New Guinea where the New Guinea Evangelization society is carrying on mission work, comes a story of the power of science. Dr. Berkley Vaughn, science instructor in a teacher training school, tells of his difficulty of making teachers realize the importance of germs.

"If germs were so small that they couldn't be seen, how did I know there were such things, was their unspoken attitude," he says. "I determined I would make it plain, so I kept a piece of meat until it really got 'high.' When I brought it into the classroom it caused considerable stir in more senses than one. I explained that bad milk, bad meat, and other rotten things owed their trouble to elusive germs and that I would let them see the offenders. I put some of the meat juice under the high-powere microscope and it was seen to be a shimmering mass. Two or three of the more sophisticated girls had a look and expressed due respect. Then came a girl who had spent most of her time in village schools. She took one look, and the next instant, with a whoop like a red Indian, she was out of the room and down the road."

"The best way for the church to deal with the post-war materialism of scarcity," said Bishop Francis J. McConnell, of the Methodist church recently, "will be to move positively toward the social control of wealth, with the purpose of the increase of wealth as an economy of plenty, with the old orthodoxy of the sacredness of monopoly in private hands cast out as a thing accursed, with the deliberate aim and attempt at a wider distribution of material goods. Wealth as an end-in-itself is worthy of all the blame that has been heaped upon it. Wealth as an instrument for the attainment of the higher goods can never be praised enough."

According to Dr. Leslie B. Moss of the Committee on Foreign Relief Appeals in the churches, these are some of the present casualties of the worldwide war: 50,000,000 people of China have lost their homes and been forced to find new means of livelihood; 5,000,000 prisoners of war need occupation for mind, body and spirit; 2,500 missionaries from Europe are in Asia and Africa without support from their constituencies; thousands of Christians in Europe are friendless and homeless; hundreds of thousands of children in Europe and China are undernourished, ill, or orphaned; thousands of Christian refugees have fled to America from Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Meek met their son, Joe Field Meek, in Dallas and visited there over the week end. Joe Field is employed by Humble Oil & Refining company and is located at Baytown.

GUARD AGAINST SUMMER COMPLAINT IS WARNING

The season of the year when the most complaints are received on account of diarrhea and dysentery or "summer complaint" is here and Dr. W. Cox state health officer, has issued a warning to parents in regard to this, and offers the following suggestions to prevent its occurrence among babies. The chief causes of diarrhea include impure milk, water and contaminated foods, overheating, fever from any cause, too much sugar or cream in the diet, overfeeding and underfeeding.

Mother's milk is the safest food. However, if other milk must be used, the supply should be clean and pure. The water should be clean, pure and boiled. Any other articles of food should be fresh and clean and no unsuitable articles of food such as cake and candy should be given.

If a feeding formula is used, it should be one prescribed by a physician and it must be prepared with extreme attention to cleanliness and kept cold until used. The baby should be fed at regular intervals and should not be forced to eat when he is not hungry. The baby should be kept cool and comfortable in hot weather, should not be over-clothed and should be given plenty of clean water to drink. Any infections which develop in the nose, throat, ears or other organs should receive prompt attention from a physician.

If diarrhea develops, feeding should be stopped or greatly diminished and an abundance of water should be given. Cathartics should not be given except on the advice of a physician. If the diarrhea does not improve within a short time, a physician should be called and a complete examination should be made.

The three F's, flies, fingers, and food are the three sources of danger to the baby. Flies carry disease germs to the baby and to its food. Fingers and hands that are not thoroughly washed before preparing the baby's food are likely to be germ carriers also. All milk and water that is intended for the baby should be boiled for five minutes then carefully covered and kept in a cool place until used.

County H. D. Group Review District Meet

"Work, Save, Share and Encourage" was the theme of the report of the District Home Demonstration association meeting in Amarillo May 7, as given by Mrs. Gus Wegner and Mrs. W. H. Murray, delegates, at the Wheeler county home demonstration council, Monday afternoon, May 18 in the club rooms in Wheeler.

Keep up morale, keep alive "Brotherly Love" by keeping our grievance to ourselves, therefore keeping down panic and making our homes pleasant were among things stressed at the convention, stated Mrs. Wegner.

Some of the things being done in other counties was reported by Mrs. Murray. Childress county has a co-operatively owned mill for grinding whole grain products; Potter county gives pioneer parties where all present are dressed as pioneers and old time games and folk games are played and Mrs. Wegner discussed Wheeler county health program.

Another interesting thing to Wheeler county club members was that district 1 will go together on their exhibits at the Tri-State fair and prize money will be equally divided among the 16 counties in the district for this year instead of each county having individual exhibits.

During the meeting Miss Lucile Chance, home demonstration agent, gave timely hints on spices.

"Spices will lose their tang if allowed to set on shelves too long," said Miss Chance, "so why not swap with your neighbor?" She also urged committees that had not had Red Cross first aid to do so as soon as possible.

Mrs. Denver May was appointed to succeed Mrs. Vivian Burleson as council reporter.

While hearing reports of other counties, Wheeler was not neglected. Mrs. J. T. Reynolds of China Flat, said their club members were exchanging "sugarless recipes" which is a timely thing for this day of sugar rationing.

Mrs. Luther Bullock reported the Davis home demonstration club and agricultural association were combining their meetings once a month and the last meeting had 78 present. June demonstration for club meetings will be on "salads and salad dressings."

Eleven clubs were represented and those attending were Mesdames Luther Bullock, Lester Johnson,

High School Girls Present Style Show

Friday morning during the assembly hour the high school girls presented a style show. A short play entitled "Peggy Learns How," which featured the style show had as its leading idea that it is not the price of the clothes we wear but their kind, as suited to the individual and on the occasion worn.

The background and setting for the show was white decorated with roses and other assorted white and red flowers.

As each model came down the white steps, Joyce Sorensen commented upon the style and points of interest of each dress.

Among the dresses modeled were two evening dresses, a slack suit, a play suit, eight school dresses, ten general wear dresses and a baby dress.

Home-Making Hints

Home Supervisor, F. S. A.

Cereal Desserts

"A cereal dish once a day, and sometimes twice," is good meal-planning in anybody's kitchen—double so when the food budget is a little cramped.

Corn and wheat, America's two

Everything Needed for a Successful Trip

Rods, Reels, Cotton and Silk Lines in different weights; Plugs, Flies and other lures; Sinkers and Corks—in fact everything the fisherman needs.

Whether fishing in waders . . . or over the side of a flat-bottom boat . . . or still fishing from the bank . . . or trolling . . . good fishermen know that good equipment is as necessary to good fishing as a swiftly moving stream is to rainbow trout. They know, too, that one of the best places to buy equipment is the Ernest Lee Hardware in Wheeler.

Another advantage in buying at home is the time and convenience in selecting just what you want—and the reasonable prices. It is far different to come in here and make selections as compared to some distant store where they probably never saw the customer before and likely will not see him again . . . and where—sometimes—the prices are based on keen demand and hurry and bustle. And, nine times out of ten, the local quality is equal or better and the price lower.

most common cereals, are on hand now in almost superabundance. Whole-grain forms are topnotchers when it comes to important food values.

Desserts may be made from either refined or whole-grain cereals. The latter are more valuable in low-cost meals, because they furnish some of the vitamins and minerals that are likely to be low when the quota of milk, eggs, fruits and vegetables must be kept to a minimum.

In general, whole-grain cereals are good sources of iron phosphorus, and vitamin B-1.

In the class of whole-grain cereals are all those that have had none or little of the branny layers and the germ part of the kernel taken off in processing. Naturally, the more of these left on, the better—as far as food value is concerned. For it is in the germ and in the branny layers of the kernel that grain plants store their vitamins and minerals.

Among the whole-grain cereals that make good desserts are whole-wheat-ground or cracked rolled oats, whole-wheat flour, whole ground corn meal, brown rice. Other more refined cereals, such as "enriched" white flour, other types of cornmeal and polished rice also make good desserts. Food value of desserts made from either refined or whole-grain cereals can often be bolstered further by the addition of milk, molasses, and other such food products.

In the class of easy-to-make cereal desserts are the bread puddings. Whether this be whole-grain or refined depends on the type of bread you put into it. Nearly any kind of bread may be used, but white and whole-wheat breads are most often used. Crumbs used in the pudding should be not too fine—little cubes about 1-2 inch each way are a good size. In this kind of pudding, dried fruit—raisins, apples, pitted prunes, peaches, apricots—may be added for variety and additional value. Be sure to stir the pudding well after it has partially set, so the fruit won't sink to the bottom.

Mr. and Mrs. John Paris and son, Dennis Dale, of Whittier, Calif., who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Lewis, near Twitty, and her grandmother, Mrs. Lewis in Shamrock, were in Wheeler Tuesday visiting friends. The Paris family will return home Friday after visiting relatives in Miami and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Green, in Borger.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Phillips and children, Mary Leota and Tommy, and Mrs. J. E. Cooke left Friday for a weeks visit in the home of Mr. Phillip's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Phillips at Bomarton, Texas.

Everyone reading The Wheeler Times today has either paid 5 cents for it, subscribed for it in cash, or has indicated intention to pay for it at the advertised rate of $1.50 a year in Wheeler county and $2.00 outside the county.

OUR FUTURE

(Excerpts from an address of J. Edgar Hoover, Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation, delivered at the commencement exercises of Notre Dame university, South Bend, Indiana, May 10, 1942.)

Today, as you leave college, you ask "What is my mission in life and what can I expect?" The answer is not easy, but of paramount importance at the moment is the necessity to win this war for America, to insure that opportunity and freedom may prevail. Unless we do, America faces inevitable doom.

In searching for the answers to your questions, seek the facts. Lack of accurate information is responsible for more mistakes of judgment than erroneous reasoning. The present state of world conflict is well known. Tomorrow's historians are best equipped to write of its causes. What is all important is the fact that not since those dark days at Valley Forge, when the immortal Washington prayed for victory, have our ideals and principles upon which our government is based been so dangerously threatened. The horror of Nazi destruction, Japanese plunder, and the Fascist echo of the Hitler call is no longer a fiendish nightmare but a grim reality that ruthlessly reveals our unhappy plight. There can be no middle ground. We will either emerge victorious or submerge to a state of serfdom. We are in the war—we Americans who love peace—but no matter what happens in the future we shall always keep our heads high for God and country.

Given the weapons of warfare, our country's soldiers, sailors and marines will vanquish the enemy. But they must be given every needful help. This is not the time for petty bickerings or internal strife. The day has passed when American can tolerate the ideological demoralizing cry, "Not a man, not a cent, not a gun for military preparations!" heard not so long ago. Today, that is treason. For can we as a nation tolerate the echoes of the Axis boast that what we need is a Hitler in America, nor the insidious plea that the Rising Sun of Japan heralds a better day for some Americans.

Free speech is the incomparable fruit of democracy which not only has the right but the duty to defend itself. Unless democracy jealously defends itself, the free speech and liberty that Americans in every generation have died for will become a meaningless mockery, a tragic memory in a hapless world of subjugation. Would it not have been better had a few Quislings and potential Fifth Columnists been deprived of their license rather than to place millions in a state of unendurable slavery in conquered countries? The happenings of the past coupled with reliable information of the present, point to the fact that the real Fifth Column does not reveal itself until the hour has arrived to strike.

One task before college graduates today is to apply their intellectual curiosity to exposing the motives of those who preach a foreign "ism," instead of good old-fashioned Americanism. When you hear wild tales which cause you to wonder, "What's the use?" find out what is back of these foul mouthings before you pass them on as the gospel truth. A rumor-monger can do as much damage as an armed invader. Make it a cardinal rule of your life not to become the innocent purveyor of specious gossip.

During the past two years, there has been a seething undercurrent of hysteria that has permeated every section of the land. The fact that our people have remained calm in their actions is a tribute to the faith and confidence they have wisely placed in constituted authorities that today are trained and equipped to do the job. Let us remain watchful and vigilant, but, at the same time, sensible and calm. The road to victory and peace is not the road of fanciful fears and suspicions.

Young men and women should embark upon a course of action exemplifying the highest principles, from which there should be no wavering. The necessity of this is most apparent in times of emergency. The past two years alone have witnessed an upward trend in lawlessness. Practically all war-torn countries are experiencing a tremendous increase in juvenile delinquency. The causes for this trend also exist in America. Increasingly, there has been a lack of parental control. We have been engulfed with all kinds of new theories, holding that self-expression should not be disciplined, whether it takes the form of petty lies, thievery or outright debauchery. Normal routines have been disrupted, wholesome recreational activities have been curtailed and there has been a growing spirit of general wartime abandon with its attendant philosophy of "Eat, drink and be merry," with no regard for the future and its enriching fruits.

Already, the press has told the story of broken homes. No nation is stronger than its homes. The home is the cornerstone of democracy. We hear much talk about rights of all kinds, but not enough about the right of a child to be brought up in an atmosphere of de-ciency in a good home. It is a lack of religious training in the home and in the school, that usually breeds criminals. If this country ever hopes to root out crime, it must begin at the cradle. We must instill a moral sense of responsibility in our youth, through religious instruction.

In the foolish and prosperous years of the past the seeds of lawlessness were being sown. Now, we are paying the price. Had not the palsy of pacifism swept some parts of the world, stimulated by a doctrine of hate and destruction, democracies would have been prepared and free peoples would have had the courage to say "No" to Nazism, Fascism, and all their fiendish principles and practices, when they started their onward march.

Man cannot violate the fundamental laws of God, or of life, with impunity. That "the wages of sin is death," is painted in the memory of some home within the acquaintanceship of every person here today. There was a time when sophistication was the earmark of smartness. Unfortunately, this is still the case in many quarters. Nations have paid the penalty for smartness which have worshipped at the idolatrous shrine of materialism and license. Let us determine that this can never be said of America. Surely, there is hope in quietude, we realize there is a Supreme Power and when, in the stress and strain of daily life we live in the pattern and seek the guidance of a kind Providence. But if God is good now, when we are facing tribulation, sorrow and sacrifice, so is He good in periods of peace and prosperity, if we would but give God a chance.

As you leave this great university, take with you the faith represented by the serenity and stability of this institution of learning. Take with you the lessons you have learned and the principles that brought this Christian institution into existence. You face uncharted paths that lead to oblivion or success. But, America is still free and we will win the war for democracy if we unite and courageously march forward because we are on the right side. Never was the opportunity for service to your God, to your country and to mankind greater. If that service calls for the utmost in sacrifice, be proud that your intelligence, your training and your courage enabled you to do your bit for America's future. Let us dedicate ourselves to insuring freedom and opportunity for those who follow you from the halls of Notre Dame. Remember that it has been written in the Holy Script—"And what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?"

Back in The Saddle

For Friday and Saturday, May 22-23, Gene Autry and Frog will be at the Rogue in a picture called Back in The Saddle, and we do not need to try to tell you what kind of picture to expect. You have all seen Gene and you well know why he ranks among the ten best stars of the screen. He is even more popular today than he was three years ago, and that is saying a lot. So we will be seeing you and you will be seeing Back in The Saddle.

Louisiana Purchase

Bob Hope is a big eye full and also a big ear full on any screen. But if you will mix a little technical color and Vera Zorina to the Hope wit and humor, you will begin to get an idea of just what is in store for you in Louisiana Purchase. The play date is Preview-Sunday-Monday, May 23-24-25 at the Rogue. We believe that this picture will go down in your memory along with Song of The Islands which we ran a few weeks ago with Betty Grable—remember? So be on hand when the box office opens for sale of preview tickets and get the choice of seats. It is a super show at regular admission.

Woman of the Year

The picture for Wednesday and Thursday, May 27-28 is Woman of the Year, and it has been called by some the Picture of the Year. And if you consider the cast which includes Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn you can readily see why it merits this title. The producers have placed it in the top allocation of all their products. However the writer of this column firmly believes that it is a woman's picture and advises all the men to stay at home. He believes that the ladies will go for it like they did Little Women and another one called The Women. So you be your own judge as to whether you see it or not.

YEARS AHEAD... by Our Calendar

Natural Gas in the Gulf South today was planned and provided for years ago. Fortunately this farsighted planning has made possible this efficient fuel for war production now.

It's a big undertaking to locate, produce and deliver a continuous dependable supply of Natural Gas for more than three hundred cities and towns and to industries in the Gulf South. It takes careful planning in advance to anticipate the needs of the future. It takes, too, the fine skill and knowledge of engineers, draftsmen, surveyors, prospecting and drilling crews and many other workers. All of these men work YEARS AHEAD of today's needs.

This has been made possible by seasoned management—men with vision—men with the ability to measure tomorrow's requirements today. Because of this preparedness your Natural Gas Service is not only DEPENDABLE today, but is efficiently serving industry with a minimum use of critical materials—materials vitally needed for production of guns, battleships, and other implements of war.

Old Age Assistance Recipients Increase

Texas Old Age assistance rolls for May gained 2,419 recipients above all losses due to death and ineligibility as compared with 1,643 the previous month, increasing from 169,905 to 172,324, the Department of Public Welfare announced today. The department will mail checks totaling $3,374,649, grants averaging $19.58. Received during April were 3,187 new applications for old age assistance.

The number of blind persons to receive aid in May increased from 2,816 in April to 2,999. A total of $68,661 will be distributed in average grants of $22.89. The department received 194 new applications for blind aid during April.

The aid to dependent children rolls continued to show the highest increase. A total of 2,986 families was added to the rolls to bring the April figure of 9,643 families up to 12,629 this month, representing 26,773 children. Grants for May average $20.73 per family and will total $261,806. The department accepted 3,093 new applications for aid to dependent children during the month.

Gives Emergency Aid

When a tornado struck Crowell, a town of 1,900 persons in Foard county, on the night of April 28, demolishing 200 houses and damaging 80 per cent of all buildings, at least eleven persons were killed and more than 125 persons injured. Some 1,600 persons were rendered homeless. Joe B. Owen, Wichita Falls, area supervisor of the Texas Department of Public Welfare, went immediately to the scene and assisted in arranging for emergency care of the storm's victims.

Surplus commodities, being held in warehouses in Fort Worth, Dallas, Lubbock and San Angelo for the school lunch programs, were quickly diverted to the disaster. Trucks were dispatched with wheat flour, prunes, dried beans, dehydrated soup, canned pork and beans, frozen egg yolks and apples. An emergency feeding program was set up to serve 1,000 of the storm's victims at a central feeding station, to continue for two weeks, in co-operation with other federal and community agencies and supervised by representatives of the army, Red Cross and Rotary club.

Scrap Metal Must Go To Mills Quickly

Local wrecking yard and scrap dealers this week received the following letter from Thomas L. Mulligan, senior commodity specialist Automobile Graveyard section bureau of industrial conservation, urging that loose scrap iron and steel be shipped quickly to steel mills for production of armaments.

The letter is as follows: Dear Sir:

"Your government is not satisfied with present efforts of all automobile graveyard operators in moving wreckable units and loose scrap out of their yards toward the steel production lines.

"Scrap dealers and buyers are being advised to contact you and all other auto graveyard operators and wreckers in Texas within 13 days from today. You, of course, may contact any dealer or buyer of your choice, but you must be able to exhibit a sales contract for your entire present yard contents, except loose salable parts by June 1, 1942. Accordingly, you will be permitted a maximum of 58 days to sell, wreck, and deliver your present scrap tonnage if you begin today.

"The penalty for not complying is explained by Mr. Donald M. Nelson, chairman, War Production board, who says, 'If you reject an offer the government will examine it as to its fairness, and in those cases where fair offers have been rejected, the government will if advisable, requisition the entire yard, including parts. The government is faced with the responsibility of seeing that steel mills and foundries are kept at maximum production.'

"Your attention is called to a recent order prohibiting the destroying of, by burning or otherwise, any article made wholly or in part, of rubber. Violation carries a jail penalty.

"Your delivery performance of at least one-sixth of your sales contract per week will be checked regularly out of this office. I suggest you contact your dealer now!"
