THURSDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1942

A two-day nation-wide observance of the anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor will be sponsored by the Office of War Information. Joining in the observance will be the War and Navy Departments, all other war agencies, war plants, labor, schools, colleges and numerous other organizations.

The anniversary will be observed Sunday, December 6 and Monday, December 7, wherever there are Americans around the world. The inclusion of Sunday is doubly fortunate, both because the original attack fell on a Sunday and because the tone and religious ceremonies of the Sabbath are in keeping with the spirit of rededication to a high purpose which will characterize this anniversary.

The OWI proposes that the nation, under the cry of "Remember Pearl Harbor — Work — Fight — Sacrifice!" will:

Honor and remember the men and women who have already given their lives in this struggle.

Give thanks to God for the nation's survival of the unprovoked attack of ruthless enemies.

Clear-headedly assess what has been done in one year of war, and what lies ahead to be done in terms of "Work — Fight — Sacrifice."

Rededicate the nation's strength its time, its wealth and its very life to preserving a concept of life more precious than individual life itself; to work, fight, sacrifice for all that it contained in the Bill of Rights and the Constitution of the United States of America.

The OWI proposes that Sunday be dedicated to solemn memorial for those who died at Pearl Harbor and those who have died since, to Thanksgiving for our survival during the first critical year of the war, and to rededication of all our resources to the spiritual values which are at stake in this war.

It is proposed that the rallying cry, "Work — Fight — Sacrifice!" be sounded on Monday and that national rededication be in that key. These words must surely bring to every man and woman a realization that this is a war that touches all of us, personally and intimately. It is a part of the observance of the anniversary of Pearl Harbor that all of us should take stock, both of the material achievements and shortcomings of our war effort during the past year and of our spiritual attitude toward the essential values of national and international life.

The hour of the Pearl Harbor attack (2:20 P. M., E. W. T.) December 7, will be specially marked, but no ceremony should delay war production.

The man who gets along best in this world is the one who can look happy when he isn't.

To the majority of unprejudiced observers, the recent election expressed the opinion of our citizens in no unmistakable manner on some very elemental problems the country faces.

Without going into any partisan political angles, the handwriting on the wall is clear for Republicans and Democrats alike, as well as for any group seeking special privileges or favors at the expense of all the people.

The vote seemed to indicate plainly that above all else we want the war pushed to the limit of our ability with politics eliminated; that the people are tired of labor policies that put a

Pertinent Paragraphs from Panhandle Press

Items of interest culled from newspapers on the Times' exchange list.

We cannot contemplate the feeling of a Frenchman like Lavel who is willing to sell his nation out to the enemy for the mere promise of a reward—when the war is won. Looking scornfully at Lavel from this distance is an easy matter; but is he any worse than an American who lays down on his job during the war; strikers in defense jobs; wasters of time and money in non-essentials; those who wreck or wear out their cars in useless driving; those who hoard essential commodities which the government needs; those who refuse to pay their taxes, or buy War bonds? Let's all take a look at our own sins before condemning Lavel who was tempted by a rich reward—even though Hitler will never be able to deliver the reward—The Canyon News.

In Germany and occupied France persons listening to radios are arrested by the police and shot. In this country one can listen in perfect safety to any radio program he chooses, but we sometimes think that some of the performers ought to be liquidated in some manner.—The Tulsa Herald.

While good news comes from both the Pacific and the African fronts, we are warned not to be too optimistic. It seems that war officials are afraid the American public will let up in its war effort. Yet it is generally known that a winning team fights harder than if it feels it is losing. I think the end of the war in Europe is in sight, but driving the Japs back in Tokyo is another matter and one that will take time and lots of lives. The Japs will fight to the last man, the Germans only until they see that they can't win.—Ed Bishop in the Dalhart Texan.

An Amarillo party phoned a doctor. "Hey, come quick! My wife has the appendicitis!" "Nonsense," said the doctor. "I took out your wife's appendix three year ago." Then the old boy yelped back at the doctor. "Say, dock, I've changed wives three times since you cut out that appendix! This is the one that rat poison would not kill, but her appendix is in darn bad order."—The Donley County Leader.

premium on restricted production when increased man-hours are imperative; that the social reformer and business baiter be put on the shelf for the duration.

To put it in fewer words, as Dave Boone expressed it in the New York Sun, the people want to make sure that they continue "to live under a democracy and not under a don't list."

In Oakland, Calif., 200 women were sworn into serve as policemen in case of emergency. If nothing else, they'll arrest attention.

As "Gone with the Wind" is making the third showing around the land, this review, written by a "country editor," Jack Tarver of Lyons, Ga., becomes timely again: There was a land of cotton fields and cavaliers called the Old South. A land of Lords and their Ladies, of Master and of Slaves. Look not for them hereabouts for they are no longer to be found. Male and Female, Black and White, Youth and Age, they are all down to the picture show seeing "Gone with the Wind."

Katherine Scarlett O'Hara was our Shero. A winsome wench with a figure like a marble statue and a head as hard.

Gerald O'Hara was her pa. By nature he was most animal-like. Proud as a peacock; he roared like a lion and rode like a dog and pony show. After Sherman came, he was crazy as a bedbug.

Anyhow, Scarlett was in love with Ashley Wilkes, who was in love with his cousin, Melanie, who was in love with Ashley, and so they were married. (Ashley and Melanie in case you're getting confused.)

This irritated Scarlett no end and so, in quick succession she married, for spite and cash, respectively, a couple of fellers whose names we didn't get. But then, neither did Scarlett for long.

The other major characters were Rhett Butler, Belle Watling, was a colored lady exactly like the one on the flapjack box.

Rhett, who was somehow strangely reminiscent of Clark Gable, was a cross between Jesse James and Little Boy Blue.

Uncle Lum considered playing Rhett, but turned it down when he found there wasn't anything but mint in the mint juleps.

If Rhett had joined the Lost Cause in the second reel instead of after the intermission, the Confederacy would have won the war.

And Belle. You'd have loved Belle. Everybody did.

During the siege of Atlanta only three things were running; Belle's Place, Prissy's nose and the laundry that kept Rhett's white suits snow white.

Melanie's baby arrived about the same time Sherman did. Both equally welcome to Scarlett.

It was, so far as our painstaking research has revealed, the first baby ever born in technicolor.

Anyhow, the South lost the war again in the picture (What could you expect with a lot of yankee producers?) and Scarlett married Rhett to get even with him.

Their married life was just like sitting in hell's fire and listening to the heavenly choir.

Finally, after Melanie died, Scarlett realized that she didn't love Ashley but Rhett. Scarlett was as changeable as a baby's underwear.

However, Rhett had enough of her foolishness and, when she told him, he said, "Frankly, my dear, I don't give a d...."

"35 won't hurt your car if you're careful at 00 miles an hour..."

"Couple of my customers could even get a new car last longer yet, if you don't get them careful with the car they've got—doing under 35, same as others in wartime. That's the spirit!"

"And this 35-mile 'tops' can make your car last longer yet, if you don't hunt up grief at 00 miles an hour! That's no wisecrack—00 miles an hour. It's when you car is standing and your engine is starting cold, needing lubrication the worst of ever. So I don't just change your oil. I change you to an OIL-PLATED engine with my Conoco Nth oil that attaches OIL-PLATING inside your engine, sort of by 'magnetism'—keeping OIL-PLATING from all draining down to the crankcase overnight, and all day, etc.

"Sooner than you're in the car, OIL-PLATING is up where you need it—instead of taking time getting there. You've had lots of people's word besides mine, that the worst danger of wear comes in starting cold. But what's plainer to get around that, than OIL-PLATING your engine with Conoco Nth oil? I'm extra glad I've got it for you now in wartime."

MOVIE CHATTER

(By a Rogue)

Joan of Ozark
Friday and Saturday, Dec. 4-5, the Rogue offers a real hillbilly feature picture. It was made in the heart of the Ozarks and is called Joan of Ozark. The stars are Judy Canova and big-mouthed Joe E. Brown, the two biggest names in comedy. We do not offer anything but fun, but we guarantee that you had better bring along an extra funny box because you are going to need it. The whole thing is corny, screwy and ridiculous, but you will enjoy it.

Eagle Squadron
Eagle Squadron is not just another airplane picture, but it is an outstanding accomplishment. It is the story of our own American group of fliers who are known as the Eagle Squadron of the Royal Air Force. These boys, you will remember, were the volunteer group whose exploits of daring will be written on the pages of history for all time to come. And furthermore, the film is authentic because it was made in connection with the British Royal Air Force and shows actual combat in the air. We truly believe it is the best story of this type that has ever been made. We believe you will like it as well as Sergeant York. Some of those who have seen the picture say it is even better than York, but at any rate we offer it to the public with much pride. The date is Preview-Sunday-Monday, Dec. 5-6-7. Come early and be assured of a seat. Admission will be regular, no advance.

You Can't Escape Forever
George Brent and Brenda Marshall offer a wonderful piece of entertainment in You Can't Escape Forever, which comes to the Rogue Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 9-10. Those who like their emotional melodrama with plenty of burning romance will find this one ranking among the top pictures in the category. It is comparable to Crossroads, which you saw last Sunday and Monday, and we believe you will enjoy it very much, and, incidentally, it is a rather new picture which you may start inquiring about after we have run it. So take advantage of your opportunity to see it on one of those business trips to town. Stay over for the show while you are here. It will not take any more gasoline to go home at night. In this way you get double out of your precious gas.

Guests at the A. J. O'Brien home Thanksgiving were Mr. O'Brien's daughter, Joan and mother, Mrs. Elva O'Brien of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Cox of Holdenville, Oklahoma. Anita O'Brien returned to Holdenville with Mr. and Mrs. Cox for a few weeks visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Finsterwald and Mrs. W. A. Finsterwald made a business trip to Pampa, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Finsterwald had as their guests Thanksgiving, Mr. A. Finsterwald, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Finsterwald, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Finsterwald, Clara Finsterwald and

Mr. and Mrs. Farmer Hefley.

John Baird and family of Kelton and Gilvie Baird of Wheeler were guests of G. Baird, Sunday.

Billie Jean Baird spent the weekend with Inez McCraw of Gageby.

Mr. and Mrs. Peyton Wofford of Amarillo arrived Monday for a short visit with his father, Ben Wofford and family. They were en route to Arkansas Pass where Mrs. Wofford will make her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Burke as Mr. Wofford is entering the armed forces.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Zirkle and son, Larry Don, spent Thanksgiving in Perryton as the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Zirkle.

THE MOST IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT EVER MADE BY THE U. S. TREASURY DEPARTMENT

The 9 Billion Dollar Victory Loan Drive Is On!

This week the United States Government begins the task of borrowing nine billion dollars from accumulated savings and idle funds in the next several weeks as an essential part of winning the war more quickly and more completely.

During these critical weeks you probably will be visited by a representative of one of the securities firms or banks which are contributing their time and effort — without compensation of any kind—to the Victory Fund Committee. He will explain to you, for instance, the benefits that you can obtain from the new Victory 2½'s—available for the first time. Welcome him as a war worker when he calls. If you miss him, ask your banker or securities dealer for full particulars. There is no limit to the amount that you can purchase.

Today many American families are torn apart. Millions have left their homes or their jobs; thousands have given their lives and many more are prepared to do so.

But the government, your government, is not asking you to give anything to this Nine Billion Dollar Drive. It is asking you to lend it all of the money you can possibly invest in what is the safest investment in the world—at a good rate of interest.

When the Victory Fund representative calls, please remember this: it is in your own interest, as well as that of your country, to listen to him—and to invest.

BUY THESE VICTORY 2½'s NOW

Twenty-six year 2½ per cent bonds due December 15, 1968, callable December 15, 1963. Issued in coupon or registered form at the option of the buyer. Commercial banks will not be permitted to hold these bonds until ten years after the date of issue. There is no limit on the amount any eligible investor may purchase. Interest is paid semi-annually, June 15 and Dec. 15. The bonds will be sold in denominations from $500 to $100,000. In the event of the death of a holder, the bonds may be redeemed at 100% and accrued interest for the purpose of satisfying federal estate taxes.

Two series of shorter term obligations:
(a) 1½ per cent bonds due June 15, 1948, and
(b) ½ per cent certificates of indebtedness due one year after issuance. These securities are open for subscription by banks, and also by all other classes of investors, whether private, corporate or institutional.

Other Treasury Securities offered to investors through the Victory Fund Committee are Treasury Tax Savings Notes A and C, and U. S. Savings Bonds, Series F and G.
