going love affair with "Levi Garrett" for nigh-on seventy years; not one of those torrid love affairs like they show in the movies, or in the romance magazines sold at the grocery store. As a matter of fact, she never met him or even spoke to him. But, she did give him a good bit of her money over the years and would always look for him, every time she went to town. I expect that by now, you've figured out I'm talking about the "snuff" she dipped most of her life.

I remember this snuff came in a small metal can about an inch and a half in diameter, and maybe two inches tall. She'd keep a little "dip" of that snuff in her lip nearly all day, but you'd never know it if you weren't paying a lot of attention.

One time she and uncle Jess went to Grandma and Grandpa's house for a weekend visit. It just happened that my folks and I dropped by for a visit the following day...a day I'll never forget.

When we arrived, we went on in to greet everyone. I didn't hang around very long because, I couldn't stay interested in grownup talk. So, being a hungry, growing, boy, I wandered in the kitchen to see if something good to eat Mom's, aunt Leona, had an on- might be setting on the stove or table. What I came across was a can of Garrett snuff; aunt Leona's, no doubt.

> I opened it up and took a look. That was the most dry-looking powder I'd ever seen. As you might expect, I decided to 'try' a little bit of it. Quietly, I went to a little shed outside...Not knowing how "snuff-dippin" was done, I just stretched out my lip with one hand and dumped in a load of snuff with the other. It hadn't occurred to me that I needed to hold my breath. I got a dust-cloud down my throat and thought I was gonna die! I even got it up my nose somehow! After I finally got over most of my coughing, spitting and sneezing, I started to get sick. I went over to the porch and laid down on the swing quite a while before I began to feel better ...

> No doubt about it, aunt Leona was just a lot tougher than me! I never felt inclined to try her "Levi Garrett," anymore.

And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. ITimothy 3:16

THE Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever. Psalm 23

O PRAISE the Lord, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people. For his merciful kindness is great toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever. Praise ye the Lord. Psalm 17

The weather in Allison on this Tuesday morning is very beautiful and not much wind as of yet and just a really nice day. Yesterday on Monday it was so very windy, we were in high wind warnings and in some places the wind blew at seventy miles an hour, wow. It was so windy that this reporter stayed in her house and didn't get outside for sure cause there could have been flying debris or limbs off trees. But we are thankful that we didn't have the tornadoes yet that Oklahoma experienced. They had a deadly outbreak of tornadoes all around in Oklahoma. We were surely praving for them while it was hap-

Leroy Huebner with Micle Investments met with the court to request the court's help in cleaning up the trash, and other environmental problems in Lela. The court told Huebner they would help in any way they could; but there is no action they can take at the present time.

Harrison Hall asked the court to look into doing some dirt work on "Thrill Hill" to eliminate the problem. He is aware there is no quick solution to the problem, but ask the court to look into taking the top off the hill and/or bring in some fill. He also wished those out for a "thrill" would travel to the end of the hill and make sure they are not meeting anyone. Harrison travels the road frequently and does not want to be on the back side of the hill when someone comes""flying" over the hump.

William Jordan, Panhandle CyberMedics met with the court to introduce himself. His company is qualified and licensed to handle any problems the county might have with their computers.

Daryl Snelgrooes, Commissioner, Pct. 1 asked the court's permission to purchase half a backhoe to share with Pct. 2. The cost is $16,000; the money would be taken from Pct. 1's Lateral Road fund and transferred tc Pct. 2's Lateral Road.

The court approved Tom Puryear's purchase of a truck for Pct. 2 at a cost of over $5,000.

The purchase of a 35-ton lowboy trailer for Pct. 3 was approved by the court in the amount of $14,505.00.

Hubert Moore was also given permission to purchase a 1993 International Truck for Pct. 3 in the amount of $15,036.49.

Pct. 3 requested permission to spend over $5,000 to trade a Cub Cadet front end loader for a newer, larger front end loader. The court agreed to the trade.

No action was taken on item #15 on the agenda: Commissioner Moore was to ask the court's consideration to purchase a 9,000 gallon tanker trailer for Pct. 3 and Pct. 4 at a cost over $5,000.

Ernest Henderson Services Are Wed.

Services were at 10 A.M. Wednesday in Shamrock First United Methodist Church with the Rev. Allen Brook and the Rev. Joe Jernigan officiating. Burial was in Shamrock Cemetery by Wright Funeral Directors.

Mr. Henderson was born August 24, 1914, in Hill County, the son of Nora Evangie Bruton Henderson and James William Henderson. The family moved to Wheeler County in 1917, settling on their farm in Twitty Community, which is between Wheeler and Shamrock. He attended and graduated from schools in Center and Kelton.

In 1934, Ernest married Era Jo Bryant of Wheeler. They made their home in Twitty and Shamrock communities of Wheeler County for 69 years. Upon the death of his wife in 2004, Mr. Henderson moved to Greenville, where he made his home for the past six years.

Mr. Henderson was a farmer and rancher who was very active in community and civic affairs. He served on the board of school trustees of the Kelton Common District; was a member of the board of directors of Shamrock Hospital; the board of directors of the Production Credit Association Oklahoma and visited Pearl of Canadian; board of directors of Rural Electric Administration of Wellington; board of directors of Red River Savings and Loan of Shamrock; a member and former director of Wheeler County Farm Bureau; board of directors of Shamrock Chamber of Commerce; and general chairman of the St. Patrick's Day Association Celebration. Ernest served on the Commissioners' Court of Wheeler County for 28 years, and during most of that time was a member of the Texas State County Judges and Commissioner Planning Association. Ernest had been a Mason since 1942. He was a 32nd Degree Mason of the Scottish Rite in Dallas. For a number of years he was an active member of Khiva Shrine of Amarillo. A member of Eastern Star, he served as chapter worthy patron a number of times as well as serving as adviser and "Rainbow Dad" with the "Order of the Rainbow for Girls." He worked with 4-H and FFA youth at the Wheeler County Agriculture Center and many school activities. He was instrumental in the building of the Prof. Weatherby Ag Center for the Agriculture Youth. He felt strongly about supporting youths in their endeavors. Ernest was a member of First United Methodist Church, where he served in numerous capacities. He was Sunday school superintendant, a steward, a district trustee and for decades was a member of the choir. He was listed in the "Who's Who in the Methodist Church" annual in 1966. Survivors include a son, James E. Henderson; his wife, Pat of Greenville; a daughter, G. Lee Gieseman and husband Jim of Denver: two sisters, Billie Jean Weisenbaker of Mesquite and Mildred Gierhart and husband Milton of Shamrock; nine grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; and a great-great-grandson.

Saturday afternoon, Chuck and Kim Thomspon and children Brittany and Chase of Amarillo, Texas and their daughter, Kimber Thompson of Lubbock, Texas, Sabrina Dupont and daughter, Makenna of Amarillo, Texas arrived in Allison, Texas to visit their mom and grandmother, Louise Boydston. Opal and Juanita Boydston visited them and ate a delicious meal and then Juanita had made some homemade ice cream and so they all enjoyed that as well. Had a good visit.

Sunday after church, those enjoying a delicious meal at Louise's house were: Louise Boydston of USDA Rural Development Rural course and Shirley Chadwick, Chuck and Kim Thompson and Brittany and Chase, Kimber Th-Sunday afternoon, Louise died Wednesday, April 21, 2010 in a local hospital. Services were Saturday, April 24th, at 12 noon at Caps United Methodist Church, with Thurl Reid officiating. Burial was in Elmwood Memorial Park. Robert was born June 13, 1989 in Abilene, and lived his entire life here. He was always laughing and smiling and loved his friends and family very much. Robert was very proud of and loved his sister, Courtney Thomas and his only niece, Londyn Kieschnick. His favorite hobby was dancing, (especially break dancing), and he aspired to be a dance instructor someday. Playing sports was another part of life that he enjoyed very much. He worked with his dad, Gary Thomas, at Burgers and Fries.

Services April 24 For Robert Thomas

Preceding him in death was his grandfather, Gary Thomas Sr. and his aunt, Mary Jane Thomas.

Survivors include his parents, Gary and Kathy Thomas; his biological mother, Brenda Thomas; his fiancé, Lucretia Seely; paterSabrina DuPont will graduate next time!!

Applicants Sought USDA Rural Devel.

Agriculture Secretary Tom USDA through these programs Vilsack announced today that USDA Rural Development is seeking applicants interested in increasing the production and use of renewable energy sources. Funding is available from the Energy for America Program (REAP) authorized by the Food, Conservation, and Energy Act of 2008.

"This funding will help spur investments in technologies that will reduce reliance on fossil fuels, conserve natural resources and help build a sustained renewable energy industry in rural America," Vilsack said. "Support provided by

nal grandparents, John and Barbara Beebe; maternal grandparents, Frankie and Linda Davidson; brothers, Kolby Thomas and Michael Andes; sisters, Kaitlin Andes and Courtney Thomas; niece Londyn Kieschnick; a host of aunts, uncles and other relatives may also be used to purchase energy-efficient equipment, add insulation, and improve heating and cooling systems. In fisca year 2009, this program helped fund 1,485 REAP projects in 50 states, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico and the Western Pacific Islands.

The program is designed to assist farmers, ranchers and rural small businesses that are able to demonstrate financial need. All agricultural producers, including farmers and ranchers, who gain 50% or more of their gross income from the agricultural operations are eligible. Small businesses that are located in a rural area can also apply. Rural electric cooperatives may also be eligible to apply. Typically eligible businesses have less than 500 employees and revenue of less than $6.5 million.
