MUSTANGS WIN FIRST DISTRICT GAME

SHAMROCK IRISH NEXT FOE FOR MUSTANGS

Three fumbles and two interceptions? And, the Mustangs still won 14-13? Yes, that's correct football fans, the Mustangs opened up district play last Friday night and defeated Sunray 14-13. No, it wasn't pretty, but it was still a win and we'll take it. There was no doubt in any one's mind that the football god's were watching over the Mustangs. However, adversity seem's to continue plaguing the boys in black in every game they play. It's like a soured stench, that can't be gotten rid of — To Many Mistakes — Again, we did win and one reason was tremendous defensive play.

The game began with Sunray in possession and Keith Rose picking off a Bobcat pass. A couple of plays later, Travis Stevens took the pitch from Dusty Case and rolled 20 yards into the end zone. Stevens also added the extra point for a quick 7-0 lead. Wow, what a start! And, on the Bobcat next possession the Mustangs held with super defensive play by Ledbetter, Case and Fletcher, resulting in super field position on the Bobcat 24 yard line. After a couple of offensive efforts the Mustangs coughed up the football, not once but twice in the first quarter that allowed Sunray to score a defensive touchdown and take a 7-7 tie into the second quarter.

The second quarter remained scoreless with Wheeler still unable to effectively move the football up the field. "The Bobcat defense was not driven back from the line of scrimmage like they should have been," according to Coach Scott. The Mustangs have to continue and dominate the line of scrimmage throughout the entire game.

Upon the beginning of the third quarter, the Mustangs moved the ball well as quarterback Dusty Case scrambled for a 17 yard T.D. Phil Wiggins set the younger Case free with a tremendous block against one of the Bobcat defenders. Stevens added the extra point to put the Mustangs ahead 14-6.

The fourth quarter remained close, but the Bobcat defense prevented any additional Mustang scores and Sunray added another T.D. with 5 minutes to go in the fourth quarter. The Mustang defense had faltered and did not wrap up Robert Vargas of Sunray as he scored on a 5 yard run. The key of the game came on the extra point as Dustin Weatherly blocked the extra point kick keeping the stangs up 14-13.

Then came a heart breaker for this reporter. The Bobcats received control of the ball again by stripping young Francis of the football and running it back for a T.D. But No! An illegal block in the back on the touchdown run brought it all back to the Mustang 30 yard line. The Mustang defense held and all Sunray could do was attempt a 36 yard field goal with 22 seconds to go. As you all know, it was just short (by a frog's hair) and so the Mustangs came away with their first district win.

The Mustangs rushing statistics were as follows:

Andy Francis—15 carries for 35 yds.
Travis Stevens—4 carries for 27 yds.
Jarrod Ledbetter—12 carries for 45 yds.
Dusty Case—8 carries for 9 yds.
The receiving statistics were:
Stevens—1 catch for 11 yds, Hefley 3 for 25 yds.
Wiggins—1 for 23 yds. and Ledbetter, 5 for 46 yds.

Dusty Case finished the night at 12-27 for 113 yards and two interceptions.

Defensively the Mustangs held Sunray to 72 yards rushing and 70 yards passing, intercepting 2 passes and recovering 1 fumble. Special defensive starters were Corey Case 6 tackles, 6 assists and four of those tackles behind the line of scrimmage. Cliff Fletcher 3 tackles, 3 assists and 3 of those behind the line of scrimmage.

Other defensive statistics are as follows:

Name	Ta	Ass	Int	CE	QB	QBS
Francis	2	4			2
Stevens	2	4
Ledbetter	4	4
Hefley	1	3
Stiles	1	1	1	1
Flanagan	3	2				1
Weatherly	2	3
Harrison	1	3
Ferguson	2	1
Wiggins	3	6

No need to say that next Friday's game against the Irish is a big one - so get your front row seat early and support the Mustangs. If the Mighty Mustangs can cut down on their mental mistakes and improve offensively this will be the game to see.

Wheeler Girls Tie for Third at Stampede

Fort Elliott Boys Tie for Second Place

CWE CHAT WITH EDITOR
By Louis C. Stas

Way to go, MUSTANGS! Now, just keep rolling and come home victorious from Shamrock Friday night.

Take note, Fort Elliott's Cross Country Boys are rated third in the state. Congratulations!

Have you made your donation toward the courthouse square lights. Remember how nice the courthouse used to look, when the lights were put into place. Let's show those who can't remember.

We had some frost in the county Monday morning. Bob Stiles reported ice on the windshield, when he came in to help 'put out' flags.

This weekend sounds busy for the area towns. Shamrock will be holding their annual Octoberfest and Canadian will be hosting their annual Fall Festival—fall foliage and homes tour and crafts show.

It sure would be nice if Shamrock's spirits were dampened a bit with a defeat Friday night.

We made the trip to Oklahoma over the weekend. No big news there. We didn't play cards and didn't make ice cream—we're slipping.

The third annual Mustang Stampede was held Saturday on the Wheeler I.S.D. campus. This was the largest meet that has been held at Wheeler with 18 girls' teams and 12 boys' teams entered. Several of the top ranked teams in the state were present in

Fund Established For Lajuane Alexander

A fund has been established at the First State Bank in Mobeetie and First State Bank Mobeetie, Wheeler Branch for Lajuane and Don Alexander. Lajuane has been battling the ravages of Diabetes for many years. Her deep faith in God and her optimistic outlook have helped Lajuane through many hospitalizations, the loss of vision in one eye, many months of dialysis, and finally a kidney transplant, with a kidney donated by her husband, Don. She has been in the hospital for over a month now fighting a blood infection.

This fund has been established to give everyone an opportunity to express their love and concern in a material way, so this Special Couple will know that they are not facing this adversary alone, but have the support and prayers of the people of this community.

If you would also like to send a card, Lajuane is on the third floor in St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo.

Canadian's Fall Foliage Festival October 15-16

Canadian's Fall Foliage Festival '94, October 15th and 16th, will offer visitors an opportunity to view the colorful and lush foliage of the Canadian River Valley for the 37th year. The activity, begun in 1957, is one that draws many thousands of visitors, (over 5,000 in 1993) to Canadian for an experience not usually found in this region of the country. Originally begun as just an opportunity to see the beautiful colors of fall, the Festival is now a two-day event offering visitors a wide variety of activities to enjoy.

The foliage drive is located along the 8 mile drive to Lake Marvin and through the entire lake area. Walking trails are also available with foliage marked for the visitors. The unguided tours can take as little or as much time as the viewer requires. Lake Marvin is a US Forest Service property that offers many species of wildlife for viewing. (See attached story for details) (Continued Page 10)

Wheeler Chamber Plans To Replace Xmas Lights

The Wheeler Chamber of Commerce met at noon Wednesday for their regular monthly meeting. The lighting of the square was the topic of discussion.

The group decided to buy new lighting for the square to replace the system now in use. These lights have been in place for several years and are to be replaced with a system more suited for use outdoors. In addition, lights will be purchased to circle the top of the courthouse and possibly outline the brick columns at the corners.

At the time the lights on the square were put in place, the merchants occupying the buildings paid $15 for each 25' of lights used. This time, the merchants are being asked to make a donation, keeping in mind how nice the square looks during the Christmas season and the new lights are more expensive and should last several years longer.

In addition, the fund at Wheeler Banking Center remains open for any donations toward the decoration of the courthouse. It is hoped to raise enough money to encircle the columns with garland and lights. Donors are reminded that it takes time to order lights and get them in place; the square is lighted each year the day after Thanksgiving and that is a little over a month away. Please be generous.

Fund Established For Joyce Pettit Estate

CattleWomen Meeting

Top O' Texas CattleWomen met on Monday, October 10, in Pampa for their regular monthly meeting. Bethel Robinson, president of the group called the meeting to order, and welcomed our guest. She asked Amelia Sims to give the invocation, with the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting following. The minutes were approved as read. In the absence of the treasurer, she called for committee reports. Lilith Brainard was chairman of the follow-up Style Show, but she said they did not have a report ready to present. A letter from Cora Carroll was read thanking the group for their trip to Las Vegas she had won in a drawing at the Style Show.

The Fall Festivals at Canadian and at Shamrock were discussed, and the committee made their reports, with a time schedule being set up for working.

It was stressed that each committee chairman get their report sent to their state chairman, so they could be included in her report at the state meeting, instead of each of them giving their reports orally there. The State CattleWomen's meeting will be in conjunction with the Texas Cattle Feeder's meeting in San Antonio Nov. 13-15. The State President is Anita Brown of Wheeler and will be conducting the CattleWomen's meeting. We are urged to get our registration fee and the Awards Luncheon and the Beef Cook-off tasting Luncheon fees in to the State right away.

Those present were guest, Rose Mary Vise, Louise Coulter, Bonnie Abraham, Sandra Christner, Amelia Sims, Bethel Robinson, Lilith Brainard, Jay Lynn Wright, Berklee Clements, Amy Brainard, Sally Wicker and Nadyne Williams.

Let's all go to State and back our member President.

GET REVENGE AGAINST BUSHLAND EAGLES

Wheeler Colts were entertained last night by the Bushland Eagles at Stadium (if you could call it a stadium) who had been beaten in their first game of the season. The Colts were ready for a little revenge and they got it. "Revenge is sweet!" they say. The Colts amassed a total of 442 yards of offense and soundly defeated the Bushland Eagles 38-0. That's right sport's fans 38-0! The game began with young Dunnam and Childress rushing for 21 yards on three plays, but since the Eagles seemed to be keying Dunnam, Kyle Masters took a quick dive over big Juan Salas and Will Woollard, scoring on a 45 yard jaunt. Dunnam added the extra point to take a quick 8-0 lead. After that one score the mighty Colts never looked back.

Thanks to tough defense by Ben Dollar, Casey Childress, Kirt Boedeker, Aaron Dunnam and Will Woollard the Colts took over possession of the ball again and on the sixth play Dunnam scored on another 46 yard burst around the right end to take a commanding 16-0 lead.

The Colts continued to run over the fine blocking by the offensive line consisting of Britt, Montgomery, Gill, Salas, Woollard, and Hillhouse.
To sum it all up and as said before the Colts had complete control of the game, but still had one big play left. Towards the end of the game, Aaron Dunnam intercepted a sure Eagle T.D. pass and began the long 88 yards to run it back for another final T.D.,

But No! Aaron dropped the ball on the Eagle 15 yard line. (Memories of Leon Lett came to mind).
Anyway young Dunnam rushed for a total of 194 yards, Kyle Masters carried the ball six times for 112 yards and Casey Childress 6 times for 24 yards. The Colts, all the Colts played very well in last weeks game.
The Colts next game is at home this week against the Irish of Shamrock. A 7th and 8th grade game will both be played.

SWEETWATER NEWS

By Lois Flowers

We went to Sayre Friday for the getalongs about nine a.m. and it rained all the way, and all the time we were there. Coming home it lightened up around the 283 store. Got home at one to find the sun shining and .15 in the gauge. Saw Helen Smith, Teola Husband, Faye Mong, and Flossie Thompson in the store.

Faye has Tommy Abshier of Richardson, TX visiting. Tommyspent Friday with Inez Coffey. Other visitors of Inez were Beatrice Boyd and Edith Sanders of Satanta, Kansas.

James and Sue Keathley hosted a surprise birthday party September 23 for Tammy on her 16th birthday. Those attending were Mandy Carlson, Lana Keathley, Gayla Pennington, Vicki Pennington, Katrina Wash, Michael Chandler, Joey Cockrell, Les Pyatt, Keith Smith, Kyland McArthur, Kristin McArthur.

That little whiff of frost really brightened the landscape. The sumac, chinaberries and such have been strutting their stuff. However, the beautiful leaves are fast going with the wind.

Had quite a fire over northeast some days ago. Seems the Bud Walkers were baling hay when it started. Several other firemen came to help the Sweetwater Volunteers. Everything is very dry and ready to go.

Sweetwater made the big time this week. The Smithsonian Magazine had an article about some storm chasers who cover the Tornado Alley in the spring hunting storms. There were several pictures of Oklahoma lightning and clouds. One half page picture was labelled Storm at sunset in Sweetwater, OK. No tornado in it.

Most of the sick folks are home. Iva Thompson is better. Ray Smith is home but had to go back a few days to OKC to get his pace maker rewired. Leonard Bryan is home from Amarillo. Bertha Coffey is able to walk a little.

Bertha's visitors have been Curley and Esther Burris, Hammon, Iva Thompson, Sayre, Rena Walker, Clyde and Ethel Dodd, and Juanita Coffey. Visiting the Leonard Bryans were Dale, Misty, and family, Kent and Connie, C.W. and Anabel Atha, Kenny Newell, Y.C. and Donaleta Fuchs.

This is national 4-H week. Our local club sent us a lovely sympathy card signed by the members.

A group of some 30 young people and ten adults from the Baptist Church went on a hayride last Friday night with Greg Henson and Lynn Hagerman acting as chauffeurs. Wound up with a Weiner roast on Lynn's farm. Only one minor mishap. One trailer stuck in the sand and had to be pushed out. All had a fine time.

All you NO PAYS please send Arnold your NTV dues. Be a dull winter with just Ch 12 and Captain Kangaroo. Yes, I have my cancelled check.

We visited Birdie Whipkey, Bertha Coffey, Alma and Doyle Richardson one day. Eb and Eva Atkinson were over to see us.

Randy McEntire is on the SWOSU rodeo team. He won 4th at Pratt, Kansas this weekend. Richard and Phyllis were there to cheer him on.

Leann and Lana Keathley went to a tri-state rodeo at Dumas, TX. They tied for all-around cowgirl, receiving engraved bracelets. Leann won the pole bending and was 6th in barrels. Lana got 3rd in poles and goats, and 8th in barrel racing. They wound up with 13 points each.

The Kitchen Band went to the Erick Nursing Home Tuesday to entertain. Joe Evans was having a 94th birthday. They sang Happy birthday to him. Bertha Smith and Priscilla Evans of Elk were there with cake, punch and ice cream for everyone. Other visitors were Lori Taylor, Bill and Gloria Rutherford, Mrs. Merle Coulter, Joy Brookshire, Johnny and Maudie Martin of Burns Flat, Paula Harris and Baressa, and Mary Bollen. We were very happy to have Junior Sandusky along to play. Other Band members were Basil and Billie Doss, Roy Swagger, Richard Crawford, Iona Miller, Margaret Hiller, Hazel Francis, Joe and I, and Ole Five String. Our friend Wanda Bird is a new resident there. Good to see her.

The Tignor family had a fish fry and reunion recently in the home of Pat Tignor at Sayre. Seems Ernie was quite a fisherman and had frozen a lot for them to have. Those present were Clarence, Sam, and family, Bushland, Dickey, Sharon, and boys Frankie, Kim, and family, Stan and Cindy Perry and children, Glen, Robin, and family, and Bunk Tipton.

We received word of the death of my cousin, Rufus McCathern at Pama. Funeral services were Saturday there.

Orville and Stella Matlock have been on a trip to Texoma where they saw some of my kin. The J.E. McCatherns, I think.

Patsy McArthur is having a national holiday for her birthday this week. Of course, Columbus didn't really sail the ocean blue till the 12th. Other birthday people are Jerry Sanders, Raymond Pickering, Blanche Smith, Isaac Schmidt, H.E. Smith and our Samy Steward, Cottonwood, AZ. Having anniversaries are Ronnie and Fern York, Royce and Lavina Rose.

FFA boys Brendon Atkinson, Dusty Elam, Colby Hagerman, Brad Atkinson and Ag teacher Ed Elam are at Tulsa fair with their animals. The FFA members are selling Blue and Gold sausage and German sausage now. The slave sale and supper is October 24.

Jackie and Harvey North visited Tyle at OKC over the weekend. Elmarine Burnam and Eva Cott were out to see the Ed Logans and Dovie Wilson. Iona

Miller spent the weekend at Hydro with Keith and Bill.

Nice piece about Cousin Nyla Tenney in the Democrat and here years with the ambulance service. We have Sally Sites, Greg Henson and Glenda Calverley as EMTs. Laquense McArthur and Tommy Calverley are First Responders.

Sincere Sympathy to Doc Wilhelm and other family and friends of Jim Bob Wilhelm, 67, of Hollis, a cousin to Doc. He was Sheriff of Harmon County, Okla. He had a stroke. Doc visited him at Lawton Hospital Thursday and was planning to go to the Dryden Cemetery near Gould to graveside services on Monday.

Nice to visit with Geneva Snelgroves, Kenneth and Frances Nelson at Wheeler Dairy Queen, Wednesday. Also LaNora Morse with Vance and Carolyn Boydston, Dick and Cletus Green and Jamie. It was Roy Morse's birthday. He is dead, but they were meeting in his memory. Ramona and Jason Nelson are living with their Grandma Nelson at Ralls near Lubbock. Jason and Ramona are working and Ginger is going to college at Lubbock. Geneva is still working three days a week at Shamrock Hospital as an R.N. Think she has been working over 50 years as a nurse. She graduated from Briscoe about 1936 or 7.

We enjoyed very much going to the Farm Bureau banquet at Shamrock High School Saturday night. Steve and Joyce Walker served a delicious barbeque meal as always. So many people we knew there to visit a little with. Lots of door prizes were given out. B. and Maurine Brotherton, Barry Price, Michelle Moore, Preston Glazner, Tom and Alice Bell Helton, Willis Fillingim, Glen and Nona Elmore.

Fat and Wanda Childress went to Pampa Friday and shopped some and ate at Furr's. They also visited Wynola Sanders. Later they visited with John and Carolyn Stokes and ate supper at the Coney Island.

Nice to have Barbara Austin come Thursday to visit us a few days. Friday we went swimming at Pampa. Saw several Lefors ladies and visited with them. Friday night we all enjoyed going to XYZ at Mobeetie. Big crowd there, 35. I think. Three tables of 42 after supper and devotional.

Enjoying a 42 party at Edna May's home Thursday night were Nova Powledge, Leonard and Bertha Hollis, Homer Sanders, Barbara Austin and Willis and I.

Saturday, Barbara Austin visited Larry and Melissa Lister and girls at Kelton, friends at Lefors and spent Saturday night with her sister, Mert Laffin at Pampa. Sunday, she headed back to Snyder to be there to teach at the prisons as a substitute.

Bouquets to Tony Griffin. He got my vacuum cleaner to working. He is pretty handy at fixing things. Pray for Tony. He hasn't been feeling very well.

Sincere sympathy to family and friends of Mary Bowen in her death.

Immigration Reform And Control Act

Ignorance of the law is no excuse even though it's probably a major reason why employers in Texas and elsewhere are having difficulty complying with the anti-discrimination provisions of the 8-year-old Immigration Reform and Control Act.

In an effort to help employers better understand IRCA, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service has teamed with the U.S. Department of Justice and the Texas Office for Immigration and Refugee Affairs in mounting an awareness campaign through the news media this summer. The campaign asks employers to "Look at the facts, not at the faces" and thereby reduce hiring discrimination and other unfair practices against workers.

IRCA requires employers to verify identity and work eligibility of all workers. The law also prohibits employers from treating workers and prospective workers unfairly.
Special Council William Ho-Gonzales of the U.S. Department of Justice says discrimination is "an altogether too common phenomenon." Fear of penalties, combined with ignorance of the law, are at the root of the pattern of illegal behavior by employers, the attorney says. Violations are common in every sector of the economy.

"This is not unique to the agriculture industry," Ho-Gonzales says.

The law requires that employers fill out an I-9 form on each new employee, confirming that proper work documents have been presented, said Dr. Richard Edwards, an agricultural economist and expert on IRCA for the Extension Service.

"For the first five years of the act, the focus was primarily ensuring that employers adhered to their responsibilities relating to completing I-9's, and maintained these forms for the prescribed length of time," he said.

Now the law's anti-discrimination provisions also are being emphasized. Prior to the enactment of IRCA, Edwards explained, there was worry that employers would try to skirt the new law by refusing to hire people they considered "foreigners."

"Congress reacted to these fears by writing penalties into the act which would be imposed if employers were found guilty of discrimination during the hiring process," Edwards said. "Unfortunately these fears have proven to be well-founded, as recent studies have shown that 19 percent of employers nationwide admitted to discriminatory hiring practices."

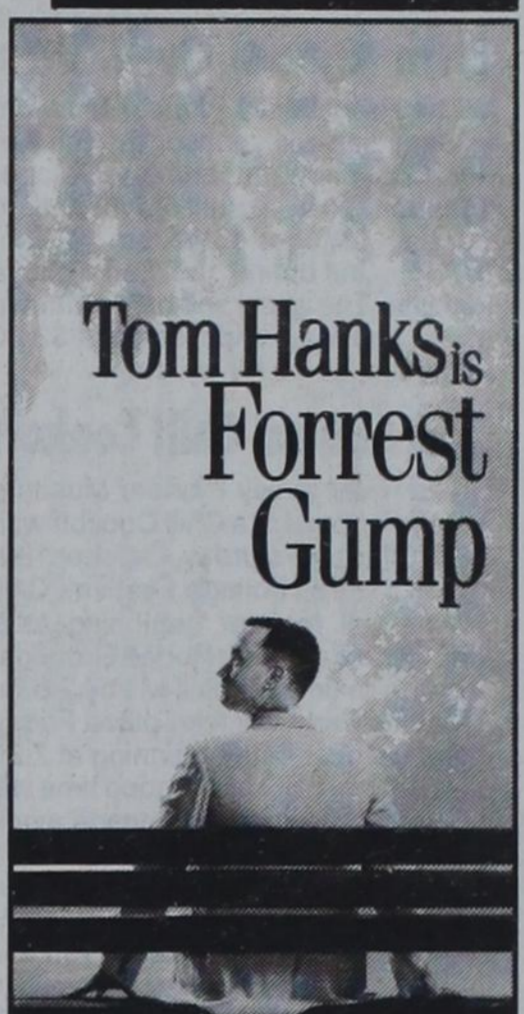

In Texas, that proportion jumps to 28 percent.
The statewide information campaign this summer is directed particularly at employers in small businesses who may not be well informed about IRCA provisions. Information packets are being sent in late July to local chambers of commerce, trade associations and other employer groups, especially in rural areas.

An informative brochure about the law and an instructional video are available through local offices of the Extension Service. The video may be borrowed from a county Extension office, or employer organizations may request a copy in English or Spanish in limited supply from the Department of Agricultural Communications, 201 Reed McDonald, College Station, Texas 77843-2112.

IRCA-related questions also are handled by the Employer Hotline in the Office of Special Council for Immigration-Related Unfair Employment Practices at (800) 255-8155.

Recognition Given Area Schools

(Editor Note) This article was taken from the Amarillo Daily News Opinion Page, Friday, October 7, 1994.

In the season of pigskins and homecoming parades, a school's success often is gauged by victories won on the field. While a winning season boosts community morale and pride, over the long term nothing is as important as recognition in the classroom.

That's the purpose of the Texas Education Agency's Successful Schools Award Program. The TEA this week released a list of 971 schools - including 45 in the Panhandle - that will receive cash awards for their outstanding academic performance, measured primarily by the Texas Assessment of Academic Skills.

Monetary awards were given in three categories: exemplary, recognized and significant gain. Exemplary awards went to schools with at least 90 percent of students in each demographic group passing the TAAS. Drop out rate must be less than 1 percent and attendance rate must be at least 94 percent.

Recognized awards went to schools where at least 65 percent of students passed TAAS, the drop out rate was 3.5 percent or less and the attendance rate was at least 94 percent.

Cash awards for significant gain went to schools that posted an overall TAAS performance improvement in the top 10 percent of their ranking group. All Texas schools are ranked in groups of schools with which they share similar characteristics.

The Successful Schools program is a positive way to draw attention to the schools that have made either significant progress on the TAAS test or have maintained high performance. Granted, the TAAS isn't the only legitimate measure of student performance, but most educators believe the test is valuable both in teaching students how to take comprehensive exams and in guiding curriculum.

Students, teachers and parents at Panhandle schools on the TEA's list can be proud their hard work has paid off. Community residents should make sure their students' performance is cheered on as much as an undefeated football squad on Friday night.

White Deer Elementary School was the lone winner of an exemplary award in the Panhandle. Schools named as recognized include: Allison School; Crockett Middle School, Puckett, Ridgecrest, Sleepy Hollow, South Lawn and Windsor elementaries, all in Amarillo; Booker Junior High; Baker and Canadian elementaries and Canadian High School, all in Canadian; Gene Howe Elementary School in Canyon; Darrouzett Elementary; Hillcrest Elementary in Dumas; Follett School; Fort Elliott High School; and Aikman Elementary in Hereford.

Also, Nazareth School; Panhandle Elementary and Panhandle Junior High; West Texas High in Plemmons; Stinnett-Phillips CISD; Rolling Hill Elementary in River Road; Silverton School; Sudan High School; Texoma Elementary; Wellington Elementary and Wellington High School and Skellytown Elementary.

Schools that received cash awards for outstanding gains include: Caprock High School and Coronado, Eastridge and Lamar elementaries, all in Amarillo; Central Elementary in Borger; Bovina High School; Oscar Hinger Intermediate and Rex Reeves Primary in Canyon; Childress High School; Grandview Junior High School and Grandview High School; Kelton School; Memphis High School; Panhandle High School; Sanford-Fritch High School and Stratford Junior High School.

From The Ministers Desk:

Joe Slater, the minister of the Augusta Church of Christ in Augusta, Kansas, recently wrote an article that taught a very important lesson. This article was entitled, "Bragging Rights" and it said:—

"Someone said that egotist is like a ship in a fog—always blowing his own horn! Scriptures concur: "All the workers of iniquity boast in themselves." (Psalm 94:4) We usually think in a negative way of bragging, and much bragging is condemned by God's word; but did you know that Christians do have some bragging rights?"

"Certainly we should not boast of our personal goodness. Not one of us is "good enough" to deserve eternal life with God. "For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast." (Ephesians 2:8-9) Keep in mind that the "works" Paul mentions here are works of merit, works which would "earn" God's favor. He is not teaching that we are passive in receiving salvation; but he surely is teaching that we cannot pull ourselves up by our own boot straps. Not even the great Abraham could "pay his own way." Again it is Paul who points out, "For if Abraham was justified by works he has something of which to boast—" (Romans 4:2) And the rest of the verse makes it clear that not even this faithful friend of God could place his confidence in his own goodness."

"When we see the wickedness of the world around us, it's tempting to feel smug about our own righteousness. The Gentile Christians in Rome faced the same temptation as they considered how God had cast away the unbelieving Jews. Paul admonished them, "do not boast against the branches." (i.e. the Jews who had been cut off and cast away) (Romans 11:18)

"Nor are we to have "confidence in the flesh" (Philippians 3:3). If anyone could have had success boasting in the flesh surely it would have been Paul: "circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the Hebrews; concerning the law, a Pharisee; concerning zeal, persecuting the church; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, blameless (Philippians 3:5-6) Some still put their confidence in their ancestry. But dozens of faithful Christians in the family tree will not make you right with God."

"Didn't I say a while ago that Christians have bragging rights? Yes, but not in themselves. We "Rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh" (Philippians 3:3) To put it another way, "God forbid that I should glory (boast) except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world" (Galatians 6:14). In I Corinthians 1:21 Paul quoted the prophet Jeremiah, "He who glories, let him glory in the Lord: "Looking back to the passage in Jeremiah we see a fuller picture: "Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom. Let not the mighty man glory in his might, Nor let the rich man glory in his riches; but let him who glories glory in this, That he understands and knows me. That I am the Lord, exercising loving kindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth. For in these I delight." (Jeremiah 9:23-24) There are your bragging rights, Christian. Let us glory in the Lord."

A lighter Mozzarella is good news for pizza lovers

WASHINGTON (AP)—In a nation where the average citizen eats nearly eight pounds of mozzarella each year and the country consumes the equivalent of 100 acres of pizza daily, a tasty low-fat cheese is welcome news.

Scientists from the USDA's Agricultural Research Service have developed a mozzarella cheese that has 12 to 14 percent less fat than the ordinary pizza topping, said an article in Agricultural Research journal.

Existing low-fat varieties of mozzarella have about 17 percent fat by weight, but consumers complain that the low-fat mozzarella is a less stringy, less meltable and less desirable alternative to the real thing. Regular mozzarella has all the right sensory satisfactions, but delivers 22-24 percent fat.

Until now, cheese pizza lovers, who consume 1.8 billion pounds of mozzarella annually, have been stuck between the proverbial rock and hard place. But no more.

"We have developed a type of mozzarella containing only 10 percent fat by weight that has melting properties similar to those of commercial full-fat mozzarella," said Edyth Malin, a chemist at the ARS Eastern Regional Research Center in Philadelphia.

"It is a significant accomplishment," she said. Among those who will benefit are children who head straight for the pizza line in school cafeterias.

So the extra-low-fat cheese is being evaluated for possible use in the National School Lunch Program. Scientists, parents and school officials hope the new cheese will resolve the dilemma of offering children dairy products rich in the protein and calcium they need but low in dietary fat.

USDA Assistant Secretary for Food and Consumer Services Ellen Haas sees the 10-percent-fat cheese as the best alternative to a school pizza serving with more than 40 percent of the calories contributed by fat.

"New low-fat products like this are important as we work to provide children with appealing meals that comply with the dietary guidelines. Common sense tells us that when the market learns that USDA wants to buy low-fat mozzarella, there will be plenty of low-fat mozzarella to buy," she said.

So far, the cheese has passed one great hurdle of consumer satisfaction. Children at Shawmont Elementary and Jones Middle School in Philadelphia tried out the new mozzarella last May and gave the healthier cheese a "thumbs-up."

"It was pretty good," said 14-year-old Jones student Nekesa Parks. "It had a real cheesy texture."

And that is the mark of success ARS chemist Michael Tunick was seeking when his research began.

Tunick, Malin, and co-inventors Virginia Holsinger and Philip Smith produced the special mozzarella using normal cheese-making procedures, equipment and cooking time.

They discovered that lowering the cooking temperatures from 110 degrees

Fahrenheit to between 95 and 99 degrees helped maintain levels of certain enzymes that break down milk proteins into smaller peptides—a process called proteolysis.

"The increased proteolysis of milk proteins

Female Medflies vs. new USDA trap

WASHINGTON (AP)—The USDA is testing a new, easy-to-use trap that catches both male and female medflies.

Attracting female flies is one of the new trap's main advantages.

According to Agricultural Research Service chemist Robert Heath, the new trap is better than existing traps, including the McPhail trap commonly used in the U.S. and the Jackson trap used in Guatemala.

Since the trap relies on dry bait and is made of light plastic, Heath said it's preferable to the liquid protein bait found in the heavy glass McPhail trap, which is cumbersome and lures large numbers of other insects.

The Jackson trap, which is easier to handle than the McPhail trap, attracts mostly male medflies, leaving female medflies to makes a softer cheese with texture and melting characteristics of regular mozzarella," said Malin. Refrigeration right after production, at 40 degrees Fahrenheit for up to six weeks, enhances the cheese's meltability.

The research team has applied for a patent for the molecular model it created to turn a low-fat cheese into a pizza topping with the texture and taste of regular mozzarella.

lay hundreds of eggs on fruit.

But the new trap can target female flies during any of their many stages reproductive development.

"The trap can be 'tuned' to capture young females before they've mated," Heath said. "One female can lay from 300 to 1,000 eggs in her lifetime. So if we can trap them before they mate, we can make a much bigger dent in the fly population."

The new trap uses a synthetic blend of chemical scents and colors to entice medflies into a plastic cylinder where they feed on a deadly mixture of sugar and insecticide.

The bait is a combination of ammonia and putrescine, both of which are found in decaying fruit. Depending on the flies being targeted, the trap comes in bright orange, yellow (which males seem to prefer), or green, which female flies prefer.

Heath and entomologist Nancy Epsky, who created the trap at the ARS Insect Attractants Laboratory in Gainesville, Fla., are seeking a patent for the invention, which also has applications for the pesky fruit fly.

It is being tested on medflies in Florida, Hawaii and Texas and on both pests in California and 10 foreign countries: Chile, Costa Rica, Greece, Guatemala, Honduras, Mexico, Morocco, Pakistan, Spain and Turkey. All 10 countries have fly eradication programs that could benefit from the improved trap.

NAFTA sparks increased U.S. beef exports, better relations

WASHINGTON—Cattle producers reaped benefits in the first six months under the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), including huge increases in U.S. beef exports to Mexico and the formation of a working trade group consisting of beef producers from each country.

The value of U.S. beef exports to Mexico increased 54 percent during the first six months of 1994 as compared to the same period last year. The total volume of U.S. beef exports to Mexico increased 35 percent during the same period.

Additionally, cattle producers from each of the three NAFTA countries have formed a voluntary alliance to review beef industry disputes among the countries prior to seeking government resolutions. Formally referred to as the NAFTA Beef Working Group, the coalition consists of members of the National Cattlemen's Association (NCA), the Canadian Cattlemen's Association and the Mexican Confederacion Nacional Ganadera.

The group has met three times since NAFTA was implemented on Jan. 1. It was ratified by the U.S. Senate in November 1993.

U.S. Lists Assessments for Tobacco Growers
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department says Kentucky and Tennessee producers of dark air-cured and fire-cured tobacco will be required to pay a crop assessment to qualify for price support loans for 1994.

USDA's Commodity Credit Corp. said the no-net-cost assessment and the 1994 marketing assessment total 2 cents per pound and will be collected from producers of types 35-36 of dark air-cured tobacco and types 22-23 of fire-cured tobacco sold this year.

No-net-cost assessments are nearly 1.4 cents per pound for air-cured tobacco and nearly 1.3 cents per pound for fire-cured tobacco. USDA said the fees will cost taxpayers nothing. Marketing assessments on dark air-cured of nearly 1.3 cents per pound and nearly 1.5 cents per pound for fire-cured tobacco are also due. Producers and buyers will share the costs, each paying 0.64 cents per pound for the dark and 0.74 cents per pound for the fire-cured tobacco.

All buyers and producers of 1991 through 1995 crops have been and will continue to pay a marketing assessment of 0.5 percent of the national price support level for both types on each marketed pound. The CCC consulted with the Eastern Dark-Fired Tobacco Growers Association, the Western Dark-Fired Tobacco Growers Association and the Stemming District Tobacco Association, producer-owned organizations through which price support is made for the Tennessee and Kentucky tobaccos.

Vietnam 'Moving Wall' to be in Amarillo

AMARILLO—The "Moving Wall", a replica of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington, will be in Amarillo for a week beginning Saturday and lasting through Oct. 21.

An opening ceremony is planned for 10:30 a.m., Saturday, at Llano Cemetery, where the Wall will be displayed while in Amarillo. How to exercise while dieting

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Many medical experts recommend that a person should raise his or her heart rate for 20 minutes a day, three times a week. Well, I've been doing just that. I work out with a low-impact 40-minute aerobic tape and a 30-minute aerobic tape with 5-pound hand-held weights six to seven days a week. In addition, I walk whenever possible. My weight will not come off. Am I losing inches or do I need to increase my routine?

Home Tips

A LESSON ON THE ENVIRONMENT - I just read a home tip from one of your readers who eliminates the box when Christmas wrapping. She says it's easier to clean up without the boxes and she saved another tree by not using boxes and so much tissue.

I would like to remind you and your readers that most paper in this country is made from the by-products of sawmills. The trimmings and edging from the manufacture of lumber are chipped up and sold to pulp mills to make paper.

If your readers are interested in saving trees (as if they live forever!), they need to stop living in wooden houses and using wooden tables, chairs, cupboards, shelves, cutting boards, picture frames, etc. This, however, would only shift the manufacture of these products to other non-renewable resources such as oil, coal and minerals.

Trees are one of the few renewable resources we have. If they are managed and conserved properly, as they currently are in this country, they can provide us with beauty, shade, wildlife and wood products in perpetuity. Steve C., Ketchikan, Alaska

DEAR READER: Many people mistakenly believe that moderate, regular exercise will burn off fat. It isn't so. Although such exercise is healthful, as I'll describe in a moment, strenuous activity is not the key to losing weight.

A pound of fat contains 3,500 calories. Therefore, in order to lose a pound of adipose tissue, a person must expend 3,500 calories while exercising. This is, believe me, strenuous - on the order of two hours of competitive tennis singles on a warm summer afternoon.

In addition, you have to take into account what the person would eat that day! On average, about 2,000 calories. Consequently, to lose a pound, our prospective athlete would, in reality, have to burn off closer to 5,500 calories, a daunting prospect for most adults.

Reducing dietary calories is a much more efficient way to achieve weight loss. If, using our example, a person were to reduce dietary intake by 500 calories a day, he or she could lose a pound a week (500 X 7 = 3,500), regardless of exercise. Such a goal can be accomplished by reducing dietary fat to a minimum, eliminating alcohol and sweets, and consuming modest portions (no seconds).

With respect to exercise, you're correct that many medical authorities endorse it. Exercise has several salutary effects that include improved circulation, reduced blood fats, more efficient sugar/carbohydrate metabolism, enhanced blood flow to heart muscle, lower blood pressure, and a heightened sense of well being, to mention a few.

Also, because moderately strenuous exercise releases endorphins (chemical stimulants in the brain), such activity often relieves depression, anxiety and stress. Therefore, irrespective of weight considerations, regular exercise benefits the heart, the body and the mind.

In your case, your unwanted extra weight may be a genetic characteristic that you'll have to address, using the dietary modifications I mentioned. If you continue to be hungry (as you may well be, especially after exercise), snack on sugar-free sweets, fruits and raw vegetables. Stay away from candy, sugar, "junk foods," and the like. Continue to exercise - even increasing your work-outs to five or six days a week. To avoid boredom, vary your program: an hour of brisk walking one day a week, skiing or swimming another day, bicycling (try a stationary model while you watch the evening news, if weather doesn't permit outdoor activities), using weight machines or a treadmill at your local fitness center once or twice a week.

In short, you will enjoy better health if you exercise regularly. Coupled with dietary restrictions, this activity should help you to lose weight and, most important, keep it off.

To give you more information, I am sending you free copies of my Health Reports "Calorie Wise Cooking," "Winning the Battle of the Bulge" and "Weight Control Through Calorie Control." Other readers who would like copies should send $2 for each report plus a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to P.O. Box 2433, New York, NY 10163. Be sure to mention the tidbits.

New USDA procedure could benefit mothers, dieters, kidney patients

WASHINGTON (AP) - Obstetricians, dieticians, internists and heart specialists someday may all rely on a simple procedure developed by the Agriculture Department to monitor the health of their patients.

Scientists at the Agricultural Research Service's Human Nutrition Research Center have developed a technique that measures water inside and outside of cells.

"I see it having widespread use in clinical application, for expectant mothers, in weight loss programs, in these large nutritional surveys monitoring the American population," said research psychologist Marta Van Loan.

The technique, which she and a team of nutritional scientists have developed to monitor water gain, is called bioimpedance spectroscopy, or BIS. Quick, simple and painless, it uses electrodes placed on the hands and feet, and a spectrometer hooked to a personal computer to send harmless multi-frequency currents through the body.

Measuring resistance to the electrical charge, scientists can determine how much water there is both inside and outside the cell walls. A computer prints out the results.

It's not a new technology, said Van Loan, but it is one with many applications.

"The use of electric current to monitor things like body water, body fat and body lean weight has been around for quite some time, but it has been somewhat limited in its application," the scientist said. "BIS is the next step further, using multiple electrical frequencies to monitor fluid inside cell and outside cell."

Pregnant women and kidney patients frequently experience painful swelling in the ankles caused by a buildup of extra-cellular water. Having their water gains measured could eliminate that condition, known as edema, and determine how much water has been gained or when patients should be taken off dialysis.

Van Loan tested BIS on 10 volunteers, aged 20 to 37, before, during and after they became pregnant. She found that water gain ratio was an effective measurement of infant-related weight put on during pregnancy.

While Van Loan established baseline values before pregnancy, she found fluid balance changed so little during the first trimester that obstetricians could use those figures to compare to weight gained during the second and third trimesters.

"The larger the weight increase, the more the fat increase," she said. "At the low end of the (recommended 25-35 pound) range you find mostly water gain. But the greater the weight gain, the greater the amount of fat gain not necessarily associated with the infant anymore."

"It's more than can be accounted for in the infant and related fluids."

The research is good news for pregnant women concerned with losing the weight after delivery and dieters looking to lose fat or gain only lean muscle.

"It could help monitor how fat and lean the American public might be," Van Loan said. "In individuals losing weight, you could monitor how much fluid is being lost. The rate of fluid loss indicates of how much lean mass vs. how much fat is being lost."

But the procedure is not yet widely available.

"We're still in the research phases with it," Van Loan said. "You're not going to be able to get this from (your) dietician."

SAFETY TIPS FOR CATS: * If your cat wears a collar, use one made of elastic. This allows the cat to free itself if the collar gets stuck on a tree branch.

* Cats are attracted to warm sleeping quarters. Keep the door on the dryer and lid on the washer closed. Make sure to check inside before using. We've heard horror stories of cats being washed or dried to death - literally!

* Outdoor cats have a tendency to hide in the engine compartment of cars in winter. Tap the hood of the car before getting into it and wait several minutes before starting the engine.

* If you have a rocker or reclining chair, check to be sure the pet isn't in the chair before sitting down to rock or recline.

* If you have a sofa bed, don't fold it up until you know where your cat is.

OUTPATIENT CATARACT PROCEDURE OFFERED! NO Eye Injections NO Eyepatch NO Heavy Sedations

Dr. John Belardo of the Western Oklahoma Eye Center in Elk City is now removing cataracts without using injections or heavy sedation. Consultations provided at Mangum, Elk City, Cordell, Shattuck and Altus with surgeries done at Elk City, Altus, Cordell and Shattuck.

He uses the phacoemulsification method which uses ultrasound to break down the cataract. Eyedrops numb the eye, which means no injections and no need for an eye patch after the procedure! This eliminates the risk of ocular perforation or hemorrhage and promotes a quick patient recovery.
