Merry Christmas from the... Stas Family

The temperature on the WBC sign showed 67° Monday afternoon. That is going to make the next cold front that much worse.

— cwe —

We did have snow Friday morning. There was probably an accumulation of about 2". The moisture content was 0.19".

— cwe —

We needed to be in OKC for Seth's Christmas program Friday afternoon, so we left in the morning with the snow falling.

— cwe —

We went through Shamrock and ran out of snow about 2 miles south of Wheeler. Then back into snow as we approached Elk City on I-40. (Continued Page 12)

STORM REPORT

As Reported by...
Stormie Meriwether,
First Grade Student

Dear Friends, One day we made gingerbread houses at school. It was so fun! We put white icing on the house and put candies all over. I very wanted to eat the candy!

It's almost Christmas! The lights are so pretty! Ms. Henson and her mother (Delores Simmons) have beautiful lights! I love the big 'Tivity' scene with the camels!

Ms. Shafer has all the pretty trees and fun things in her yard. She used to have a witch at Halloween. Now it's all 'bout Christmas!

I love the snowflakes at Ms. Means house!

Christmas is almost here! I ask my dad if I've been good. He says, "I'm not sure yet!" I hope so Santa thinks I'm good!

Monday is wear pajamas day at school. We have to go to school forever, but I don't think we will do any work. We will watch movies, read books, eat candy and just do fun stuff before Christmas.

This is so great! Wes (Campbell) and Shantell (Meek) got married! Shantell was so beautiful!

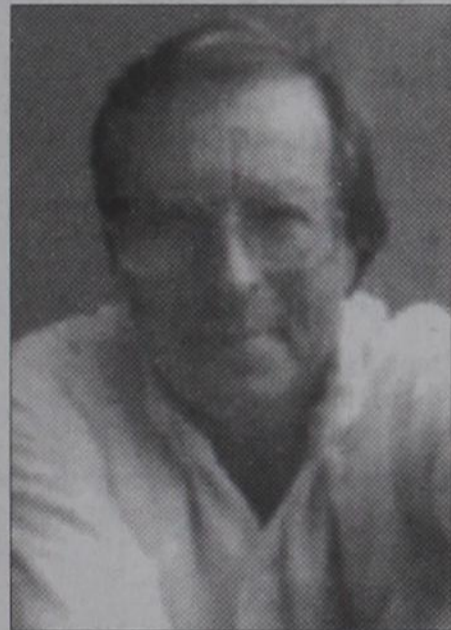

You can't believe the cakes! One was big and white with brown lacy icing. It had a cowboy like Wes and a cowgirl like Shantell on the top. The other cake was Wes on a bucking horse! I didn't know you could make a cake like that!

After they got married there was a big dinner. Then we had cake (Continued Page 12)

Local Troop Makes Donation To T. for T.

Recently, Wheeler Daisy Scout Troop #5248 presented the Wheeler Toys for Tots with a check to help with purchases this holiday season. Accepting this check on the behalf of the Wheeler Toys for Tots project is Wheeler's own Nurse Britt. The Daisy Scouts raised money this year through a bake sale and donated their proceeds to the Toys for Tots project. The girls have been working hard this year to make the World a Better Place. Along with raising money for the Toys for Tots, they also did several Operation Christmas Child boxes to donate Christmas gifts to needy children around the world. If you see any of these Daisy Scouts give them a big hug and let them know how much you appreciate them. They have done an outstanding job this year!

Recently the Wheeler Daisy Scout Troop #5248 helped the community via a bake sale. How does a bake sale help the community do you ask? Well it helps when the girls putting the bake sale together donate a large portion of their proceeds and put it back into the community. Troop #5248 helped by raising money for the Wheeler Toys for Tots project and the Wheeler City Pool project. When asked why they thought these projects were a good idea this is what they had to say. 1st graders Hadlee Gomez and Lexi Puryear thought that raising money for kids who can't afford gifts was a good thing. 1st grader Ranaely Dyck said it's fun to give because it makes the kids happy that can't buy toys. 1st grader Karleigh Wood and Kindergartener Leslie Mendoza said it would keep kids from being sad on Christmas. 1st grader Kylee Burrell thought it was cool to make sure all kids had presents (Continued Page 8)

A Very, Merry Season To All You Gentlefolk!

Christmas was a simple affair,
A time filled with friends family and prayer.
A time when strangers were welcomed with open arms
A time to sing God's many praises in hymns and psalms.
In these modern times, it's good to remember.
The gentler days of past Decembers
Though some things never change, it's true...
Like our deep felt thanks for friends like you!

On the first day of Christmas you gave me an I-pod touch. On the second day of Christmas you gave me two pets, and an I-pod touch. On the third day of Christmas you gave me three golden doves, two pets and an I-pod touch. On the fourth day of Christmas you gave me four horses, three golden doves, two pets, and an I-pod touch. If you can't get that it's OK, I am not that greedy, but please do your best with the I-pod and the pets.

Have a Merry Christmas, and a Happy New Year!
Sincerely,
Mykah Jasman

Dear Santa,

I have been a good girl this year. Hope you can get me a pet. I love Christmas. It's the best time of the year! Have a Holly Jolly Christmas! What I've really been wanting for Christmas is a dog. There are a lot of dogs, but I really like Collies and Shelties. You're the best! Your like Rudolph? I sure do. He's the best, he saved Christmas. Every kid likes Christmas, especially me. Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year! I've been wanting a horse also, but don't forget, I want a dog more. Jingle Bells, Jingle Bells you know I've been good!

Have a Merry Christmas!
Love,
Hannah Shephard

Sincere sympathy to family and friends of Carol Delashaw Laney, 72. Delashaws lived near us for a while and kids attended Briscoe School and had many friends. Sweet people. So sorry about Carol's death. Her parents were Thomas Benton Delashaw and Evelylin Delashaw, both deceased. Carol's husband, James Laney, is also deceased. Living are Carol's daughter, Vickie Wilson and stepson, Michael Laney and wife, Karen, and others.

I've enjoyed so much the sweet cards and notes from each of you. Sorry I'm so "poky". Always remember, I love you and hope to get notes off to all of you. God bless you, everyone! Hope you have a wonderful Christmas and a great year ahead with the blessing of the Lord!

I was told that Maxey's would close at 5:00 p.m. on Christmas Eve and be closed Christmas Day, Dec. 25.

"The Lord" is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom should I be afraid? Though an host should encamp against me, I shall not fear" (Psalm 27: 1,3).

Nice to have three beautiful young ladies come Monday night bringing goodies and smiles and hugs. Thank you! God bless you. They were Jane Dukes, Jacey and Shelly. Food was very good.

Several from Wheeler Baptist Church and others went to Elk City Tuesday. They enjoyed supper at Western Sizzlin', seeing the beautiful lights at Ackley Park and the good fellowship. Rick Bond drove the church bus (good job).

Nice to have a surprise visit from old friends, Lee and Pat Murray of Pampa Tuesday. We had a good visit and Lee fixed my "grandma" clock so it works now. Lee grew up east of Briscoe and attended Briscoe School. Poor guy, had me as a teacher one year. They had been to a funeral somewhere Tuesday. Lee is still active in Gideons, a fine organization. We used to go, as did Marion and Ethel Grimes.

Some others going to Elk City Tuesday to see the lights and enjoy the fellowship were Betty Howard, Leona Coates, Bob and Evangeline Wills, Wesley and Helen Steen, Martha Meek and maybe others.

I recently "boogered" up one of my car tires and it had to be replaced. Thank you, Cheryl Fraley and son, Shawn, for coming to my rescue. Many thanks! Sue Chandler came later and washed my car. Thank you! Aren't friends great!

Nice to have Sue Chandler come take me to lunch at "The Spot" Sunday. Nice to see Bob and Evangeline Wills, H.B. and Kathryn Krug, Rick and Tina Bond and Abby, Joyce Perkins, Earl and Betty Huestead and others there for a nice time of fellowship.

"Come on, ring those bells; Light the Christmas tree, Jesus is the king, born for you and me.

Come on, ring those bells; Everybody say, "Jesus we remember this your birthday."

Stacy Horton and Mindy Morgan, teachers at Wheeler School, were in charge of the Wheeler Baptist Church musical program. It was all very good and enjoyed by all.

Thanks for the nice watermelons, Sue Chandler; a great Christmas treat!

Those visiting Jim and Beth Alvey for the Thanksgiving holidays were their children: J.B. Alvey from Lelia Lake; Dan and Marie Ramsey from Alvarado; Marissa Bonner and Jady Parker from Cleburne and Drew Bonner. Also visiting were Todd and Misty Alvey with children, Paegge, Payton, Patterson and Preslee and guest, Austin, from Pampa and Tina, Chuck and Emilee Dale from Arkansas for a good time of visiting and lots of good food, music and fellowship.

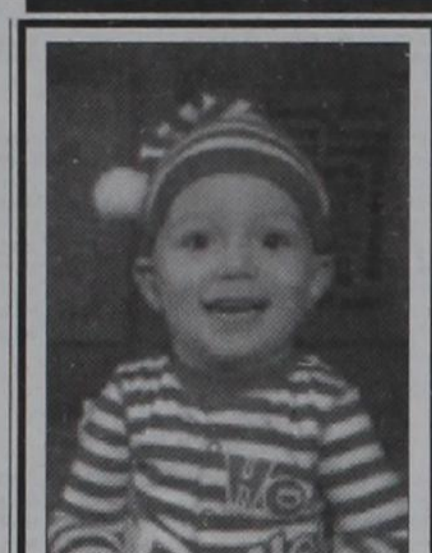

There was a nice wedding shower at Fort Elliott School Cafeteria Sunday, Nov. 14, from 3 to 5 p.m., to honor Shantell Meek and Wes Campbell. God bless you! Best wishes!

There was a good wedding shower Sunday, Dec. 12, at Fort Elliott School Cafeteria at Briscoe to honor Raysha Vandever and Justin Walker. Best wishes! God bless you!

So many pretty lights all over Wheeler. Thank you! You will want to drive around town and enjoy seeing everything. So much work involved for much beauty. Very enjoyable.

"God be with you till we meet again."

Maurita Stribling spent Saturday and Sunday in Happy with Debbie and Buddy Stribling. All their family was there. She went to church with them Sunday.

Ada Lou Lester went to Brownfield this last week to the Plains Trail Meeting. They were invited to attend a fundraiser at Texas Tech Collections. It was an in-house concert by Arthur Michael Murray. She enjoyed it. They also attended the stamp cancellation for Brownfield. It was a 2-day trip.

Hugh and Mae Bailey went shopping in Pampa on Monday.

Word on Loretta Risley is they removed the shuck from her head. It was full of infection. So far, it is draining o.k. without the shuck. She was allowed to go home at Katy Friday. Remember her in your prayers that it keeps draining and they won't have to do more surgery.

Wednesday, Dale and Melba Corcoran visited in Wheeler with Pauline Barnes and Joey Stone. They enjoyed playing pinochle.

Bernice Hefley and Melissa Rogers went to Houston Friday to attend the graduation for Heather Hampton from college. They also visited with Bryan and Tiffany Johnson and children that night and came home Saturday.

Those going to the Care Center for church services Sunday were Doris Finsterwald, Bro Don and Mayme McElroy, Charlie McDermott, Marion Grimes and Arica Lancaster. There was a good turnout there.

Danny and Betty Rogers left for Indianapolis to visit their daughter, Vickie, and family for Christmas. Danny said they might come home by way of Florida and see Danny, Jr.

Our sympathy goes out to Bobbie Walker and Gina Seitz on the death of their uncle, Herman Ledbetter of Pampa, this past week.

Parkview Artery Abuse around the Holidays

While many view the winter holidays as magical, wonderful, and a joyous time to be with family, the holidays can in fact be extremely stressful and fraught with turmoil. And that the additional stress of the holidays, combined with increased alcohol consumption can cause a tipping point for domestic violence. There's a lot of stress associated with the holidays, from pressure to provide for the family and money issues to spending more time with distant family. Domestic violence often revolves around high stress times. Additionally, people tend to drink more alcohol around the holidays, and about half of all domestic violence occurs when either the perpetrator or victim is under the influence of alcohol. It's important that family members be aware of signs of abuse. Bruises, cuts and broken bones are the most obvious signs. Be on the lookout for people who frequently skip family gatherings and provide excuses and stories that just don't add up. Low self-esteem, fear of conflict, and excessive self blame are other red flags. Thanksgiving and Christmas are prime times for abusers who use control over their victims. The abuser knows the victim wants to be with family and friends, but many abusers use this to get a tighter grip on their victims causing even more stress. While there isn't research to support the idea that instances of domestic violence increase during the holiday season, there can be pressures for victims not to report such violence during the holidays. If you do find yourself in an abusive situation, it is critical that you stand up and get help. Many feel that the holidays can "just get to someone," but it is important to keep yourself and your family protected. Go to a relative or friends house. Abuse is abuse no matter what time of year it happens.

OLD TIMES NOT FORGOTTEN

By Roland Miles COX'S MAILBOX AND JAN. 8th, PRIMETIME CAMPOUT

It seems like Jimmy and I went about seventeen. On several of these trips we had complications of some sort. One of them was when my horse, Goober, ran away with the Cox family's mailbox. Jimmy and I had agreed to meet a mile east of my house at the road which eventually went to Uncle Burl's. Just as we got to the intersection where Cox's mailbox was, we saw some kind of critter cross the road; maybe a skunk or something. Not to let a good "hunt" get away from us, Jimmy tied his horse to a fencepost, which was a good idea and I tied mine to the mailbox post, which as it turned out... was a bad idea.

We each had our .22 rifles with us in a saddle scabbard, so we took them out and went to see if we could find what had crossed the road. We went a little way out into the trees and bushes on each side of the road, but never found any critters, so we went back to our horses. I walked up beside ole "Goober," who was still tied to the mailbox post, raised up my rifle to put it in the scabbard and he panicked, big time! I tried to grab the reins, but he was gone in a flash. I was left standing there, holding my rifle, as he tore down the road. Pretty soon, the mail box fell off the post, but he continued dragging the post about a quarter of a mile more. He finally stepped on the it which caused the rein to break and the post slid to a stop in the road. Finding himself free of that stuff he thought was chasing him, he ran out into a maize field and just stood there looking back toward us. Jimmy got on his horse, rode over to Goober and brought him back to me.

Well, we surveyed the scene for a bit, gathered up the mailbox and post and laid them where they had been originally, just not upright. After some discussion, we decided that it was too far and too late to ride down to Cox's house and tell them about their mailbox. We'd just wait until tomorrow evening when we were on our way home. Just seemed like the sensible solution to this situation. We'd only been at uncle Burl's a short time when Jimmy's dad drove up. He told us we needed to go with him and explain to Mr. Cox what had happened, because he was really mad. He thought we had roped the mailbox for fun and tore it up. After we explained to him how it happened, he calmed down quite a bit. He probably realized that we weren't smart enough to make up a story that complicated; and besides, neither one of us even had a rope with us. We made our apologies and Jimmy's dad took us back to uncle Burl's.

It seems that Sweetwater Creek had a special attraction, not just for me, but all my cousins and friends, also. One time, Jimmy Hill, Bill Caswell and I decided while at school, that we'd ride our horses down to the creek the very Cards were played Monday evening. Barbara, Dwight and I won two of the three games. Rhonda, Patsy and Leroy won the second game.

decided on however, there was no backing out of the deal.

When the day finally arrived, Bill rode his horse to my house and then we rode on down and met Jimmy. We each brought along a potato and a candy bar or two, to eat. We'd heard that you could pack mud around a potato and cover it up with campfire coals to bake it. Campers did this, we were told, but we didn't have any idea how long they needed to stay in the coals to bake. This was just one small part of our lack of organization.

Late in the evening, it began to get much colder than when we all came up with this plan. We each had a jacket on, but as we were to find out, that too, wouldn't be enough. I'd brought a blanket that we tried to share, but Bill seemed to wind up with most of the time. We'd stumble around in the dark gathering wood for the fire. It felt nice and warm while the fire was going good, so we'd drop off to sleep. In no time, it seemed, we'd wake up freezing cold. This was repeated over and over all night long. I don't think I've spent a more miserable night before or since that January 8th.

The next morning we put our potatoes in the coals and burned them to a crisp. After that, we gave up and went on down to uncle Burl's house. It was only a quarter mile or less and we figured on mooching something to eat and drink from him. As always, he was glad to see us and seemed pretty amused to hear our sad story.

for Christmas. 1st grader Brooklyn Buckingham said I am glad to give to Toys for Tots because it will help buy gifts for kids and I help make them happy.

1st grader Reese Foreman said it will help kids that might not have anything for Christmas get a present. 1st grader Rhaelee Adams says that giving to others makes us feel good.

1st graders Litzzy Garza and Sadya Hernandez felt really bad for kids who don't get anything for Christmas. They also had some great ideas of why donating to the Wheeler City Pool project was a good cause.

Kindergartener Leslie Mendocza simply said it was a good idea because she likes to swim.

1st grader Ranaely Dyck wants the swimming pool to look nice and clean.

1st grader Kylee Burrell wanted to help clean up and make a better pool for the town.

1st grader Reese Foreman said it will help build a better fence around the pool.

1st grader Lexi Puryear wanted to help because she said the Daisy Scouts are nice.

1st grader Litzzy Garza wanted a nice place to go and play.

1st grader Karleigh Wood thought that this would make Wheeler a better place.

1st grader Hadlee Gomez wanted Wheeler to get a high, high dive.

1st grader Brooklyn Buckingham said I am glad to give to the pool project because it will help to build a new fancy pool.

And Sadya Hernandez said that Wheeler needs a new slide. As you can see we have some very helpful little girls who are taking an active interest in their community. Their goal is to make Wheeler a better place for everyone. Today Wheeler and tomorrow the World!

Highway Patrol To Target DWI During Holidays

In addition to their traditional increased patrols for the Christmas and New Year's holidays, the Texas Highway Patrol will conduct focused DWI patrols in high-risk locations during the times when alcohol-related crashes are most frequent. These special DWI patrols are thanks to a TxDOT grant targeting impaired driving.

The targeted DWI patrols will run from Tuesday, Dec. 21, to Saturday, Jan. 1.

Highway Patrol troopers also will have all available troopers out patrolling Texas highways from Friday, Dec. 24, to midnight on Sunday, Dec. 26.

"We'd prefer that drivers obey the traffic laws on their own, but we'll be out on the roads to ensure that travelers are as safe as possible," said David Baker, Assistant Director for the Texas Highway Patrol. "We'll be looking for intoxicated drivers, as well as speeders and seatbelt violators."

During the Christmas holiday last year, DPS troopers arrested 350 drivers for DWI and issued 9,212 speeding tickets and 658 safety restraint violations.

DPS offers the following advice for holiday travel:

- Drive with courtesy; it's contagious. Remember, it's the holidays!!!
- Buckle up everyone in the vehicle. (Slow down—especially in bad weather, construction areas and heavy traffic.)
- Don't drink and drive; get a designated driver.

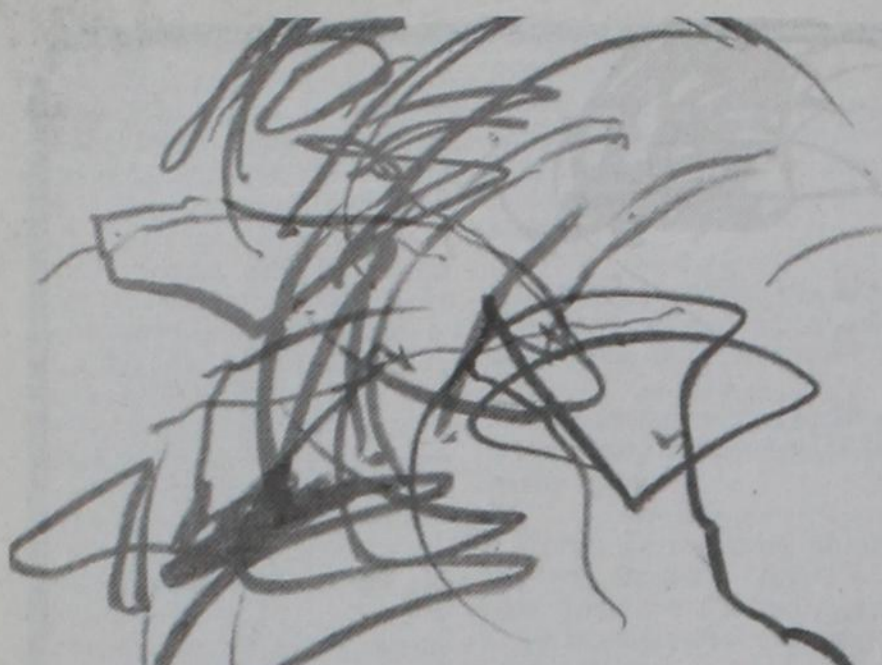

(Keep cell phone chatter to a minimum. Don't text and drive.)

- Avoid drowsy driving.
- Make sure your vehicle is properly maintained.
- Be sure to turn on your headlights in inclement weather.
