QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—If the lender demands some security, can I use the bonds I get for my terminal leave as security for a G. I. loan?

A—No.

Q—Can I use the bonds I get for my terminal leave to pay premiums on my G. I. insurance?

A—Yes. The Act of Congress provides that the veteran may assign his bonds to the Veterans Administration to pay insurance premiums. An amount equal to the insurance premiums on United States Government Life Insurance or National Service Life Insurance will be deducted from the face value of the bond plus interest, each month.

Q—Can terminal leave bonds be used in payment of premiums after the insurance has been converted?

A—Yes.

Q—I am a totally disabled veteran and rated as in need of regular aid and attendance. Can I use my wife or daughter as an attendant?

A—It is not necessary for a veteran who is so rated to hire an outside person to attend him. He would receive the increased amount irrespective of who attends him.

Dietitians arranging meals for the 7,500 veteran-patients in the 11 Veterans Administration hospitals of Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi can sympathize with housewives about rising food prices.

It now costs VA 149 per cent more to buy food for a patient than it did in April of this year,

Museum Gets Largest Cut-Glass Bowl

The world's largest cut-glass punch bowl, valued at more than $25,000, is the new center of attraction at the Museum of Art, Toledo, O. Showing off his masterpiece is John Dezman, master craftsman who spent almost two months making the bowl and its matching goblets for the Libbey Glass Company 42 years ago. Winner of top honors at the St. Louis Exposition in 1904, the bowl is 25 inches in diameter and 24 inches tall. It weighs over 100 pounds and holds 16 quarts. Libbey recently presented the historic hand-made set to the museum where it will be on permanent display.

a survey by the VA dietetic division shows.

Nine of the hospitals reported increases in per-patient food costs since April. One hospital reported its food costs up 50 per cent.

Two of the larger hospitals showed reductions in food costs, but the decreases were slight.

GI Joe and GI Jane have gone back to school in a big way.

Veterans Administration says nearly as many veterans have applied for World War II education and training as served in the armed forces during World War I.

By September 30th a total of 4,549,654 of the nation's World War II veterans had asked for school, college or job training benefits.

This is an increase of more than 133,000 over the August 31 figure.

More than 18,700 veterans of the Dallas branch area have financed home loans with the aid of government guarantees provided under the GI Bill.

Slightly more than 1,200 have financed farm loans and 2,527 have gone into business via VA-guaranteed loans.

Total value of all three types of loans is $111,437,062.

Currently, veterans of the Dallas area are consummating GI loans at the rate of 1,000 per week in January of this year.

LIGHTING THE KITCHEN

THE kitchen is the workroom of the home. The average homemaker spends from five to seven hours a day in the kitchen. Yet kitchen lighting has been altered little in the past decade. Tests made in factories during the war proved that light is the greatest single factor in combating fatigue.

It is true that most kitchen planners nowadays locate the sink beneath a window, yet in actual practice not all kitchens lend themselves to this arrangement. In too many cases the housewife stands in her own light when she prepares foods and is consequently tired and nervous without realizing the cause of the trouble.

An inexpensive light fixture above the sink will pay dividends in convenience and increased efficiency far beyond the cost and trouble of installation. This is true even when the sink has a window above it, for at least a portion of all kitchen tasks must be performed after sun-down.

Fluorescent tubes recessed in the wall above the sink give excellent light and a look of streamlined modernism, but ordinary incandescent bulbs, properly shaded, are equally satisfactory. Well-insulated, shock-proof fixtures are a wise choice.

WORTH KNOWING

Q. Do pigs do better on coarse or fine oats?

A. According to the Journal of Animal Science, a test was made on pigs of 50 pounds initial weight, feeding them coarse, medium, or fine-ground oats, supplemented by proteins and minerals. Those pigs fed the fine-ground oats made the fastest gains. After 60 days of feeding, pigs fed coarse, medium, and fine modulus oats reached 121, 132, and 155 pounds liveweight respectively.

Q. How long should a cow be dry before she is due to calve?

A. A cow should be dried off about 60 days before she is due to calve. It is therefore necessary to keep accurate breeding dates. The Ralston Purina Company, St. Louis, Mo., issues a "Time Saver" herd record card which may be obtained free of cost from any of its dealers. This handy card may be hung in the barn and has blanks where breeding and calving dates may be jotted down.

Q. Of what value are sun porches on the front of the brooder house?

A. Sun porches provide more room and thus permit better feathering, save labor, keep the house cleaner, help prevent accidents, and help save feed.

Q. What is the cause of running fits in dogs?

A. Canine hysteria or running fits may be caused by several things, such as poor quality proteins, a lack of some of the essential vitamins, or a ration too high in wheat gluten. Many cases of so-called running fits are nothing but a digestive disorder. A dog is a nervous animal and throws a fit when he is in pain. At times, internal parasites cause enough pain so that a dog goes into a fit. The best way to prevent fits of any kind is to feed your dog a well-balanced ration, regularly, and keep him free of internal parasites.

Less than three out of every hundred Navy and Marine wounded died in World War II, as compared with more than eleven out of a hundred in World War I. Death from disease was less than one tenth that of World War I, despite the fact that fighting in the recent war took place in far more unhealthy regions.

In its program to assist contractors who were unable to obtain private financing, the United States Navy during World War II made advance payments and guaranteed loans totalling $4,236,814,002 at an overall loss ratio of only .00043.

From Pear Harbor to V-J Day, the United States Navy grew from fewer than 345 to 1,300 combatant ships, from 7,800 vessels of all kinds to nearly 93,000, from 425,000 officers and men to over 4,000,000 wartime peak strength, including Marine Corps and Coast Guard personnel.

A White Christmas for Gloves

This lovely model is wearing a pair of white glove, below-the-elbow length gloves. They are perfect for cocktails and formal wear too. Long gloves are not available in quantities today, but a shortie is as much in vogue. No matter what colors you plan for your holiday ensemble, you may be sure that white gloves are right.

Since the end of 1946 is fast approaching, most folks are thinking about Christmas and gala parties. This year, for the first time since pre-war days, men and women are looking forward to a season packed with formal functions. In selecting a winter wardrobe the smartly dressed woman will not overlook her accessories. Gloves, particularly, become most important with cocktail and evening clothes. An outstanding authority on glove wear, the National Association of Leather Glove Manufacturers suggests that, if mildy is in doubt, she select white, either in lace, suede or doeskin. For white is always socially correct. Even in sportswear, white pigskin adds a sparkling touch. White gloves of any type also make an ideal Christmas gift. You can now find white chamois or capeskin gloves for your best beau. Here is a present he will appreciate if he likes to get into white tie and tails.

Cash income of American farmers this year will be the highest

 What are farmers going to do with this bumper harvest of extra cash? Spend it on scarce goods at high prices, or salt it down against green won't be so plentiful, but will get you more for a dollar?

 Farm folks take pride in their common sense. Their only one common sense answer: PLAY IT SAFE. Save all you can while you've got it to save. Put it away like hay in the barnloft, to feed out when you need it. And be sure to put it in a barn that can't blow down in any financial storm that may come.
 The Department of Agriculture already is warning of a possible drop in farm income next year. A recent bulletin of the American Bankers Association's Agricultural Commission says: "Gross farm income remains high . . . but production expenses are increasing, so farmers need to be prepared for a net income which may be materially reduced. Previous experience, followed World War I, indicates that when . . . prices in general start to recede from wartime high levels, the prices of farm products drop faster and farther than the prices of things that farmers buy."
 This ABA bulletin shows how average prices for farm products, compared with the 1910-14 average as 100, hit a peak of 204 at the end of the first World War, dipped to 125 in the 1921 slump, climbed to 155 by 1925 then to-bogged to 70 in 1932-33. Translate those figures into terms of farm mortgage foreclosures by the hundreds of thousands and cash-hungry farmers by the millions and they point their own moral.
 A farmer needs a financial reserve; it's just as important to him as good land, livestock, buildings and equipment.

 The best reserve he can build up is a little bale of U. S. Savings Bonds. They spell security for old age, sound sleep o' nights, better education for the children, better buildings and equipment for farming and living and, always, funds to fall back on in case of need. The ABA bulletin advises bankers to "encourage farmers to retain their U. S.
 Savings Bonds and other liquid assets . . . A strong reserve . . . will enable farmers to buy needed material and equipment when available and will also provide a cushion against a drop in farm income."

 young men who volunteer for the 1st Cavalry, 11th Airborne, 6th, 7th, 24th or 25th Infantry Divisions.

What an opportunity . . . what a job! Training in one of these crack units will stand you in good stead wherever you go. Study a foreign language. Learn the fascinating details of Military Government—so vital to future peace and prosperity.

Japan's "Isles of Pines" are but a sample of the attractions of an Army career in the Far East. The Army has reopened comfortable hotels, theaters, swimming pools, tennis clubs, golf courses, ball parks. These—familiar haunts of pre-war tourists—and many new developments—provide a broad choice of recreation.

Not everyone can measure up to this job. Only 3-year enlistees who meet prescribed physical and mental standards can enjoy the benefits of such a job. High overseas pay, good food and lodging and a generous retirement plan make your future in the Army Ground Forces too good to miss!

New Jar Keeps Coffee Fresher; Easy To Open and Re-Seal

More than a dozen prominent brands of coffee are now appearing in new "ultra-vac" jar, with flexible, snap-on cap. Jar is easily opened by prying up cap with bowl of sturdy kitchen tablespoon.
 Wider opening of new container allows easy measuring (upper right). Airtight re-seal is assured by simply pressing cap back onto jar with palm of hand.

A new glass jar, with a flexible "snap-on" cap, is now being used to package more than a dozen prominent brands of coffee.
 The newly designed container is a boon to housewives because it brings fresher coffee into the home. Appropriately called the "ultra-vac" jar, it holds a peak vacuum to keep air—the element that stales coffee—away from the contents. This gives the housewife roaster-fresh coffee.
 The revolutionary duraglas jar is easily opened by prying up the cap with the bowl of a sturdy kitchen tablespoon. And it can be re-sealed airtight by simply pressing the cap back on with the palm of the hand. Another new feature is the wider opening which makes it easy to measure out the contents.

 More than two years of research by a glass container manufacturer and coffee roasters are behind the new jar. Shorter and lighter than the standard jar, it weighs approximately half as much as the glass coffee container in use a decade ago.
 Yet it is so strong that 120 jars per minute pass through the vacuumizing machine in coffee roasting plants. The vacuumizing machine also is a new development, operating twice as fast as pre-war models.
 The "ultra-vac" jar was first introduced to housewives in a few states. So successful was it that now more than a dozen prominent brands are available nationwide in the new container.

their work, but they will disturb someone else who would like to study. It is usually the ones who need to study that do not use their study hall period for its intended purpose. The reason for this seems to be that they need to study more because they talk in study hall and get behind in their work. If they spent all the time studying that they spend disturbing other people, they would make better grades and would not have to depend on someone else to get the assignment while they waste their study period, and then expect to copy it from their paper.

The teachers and other pupils do not have a very good opinion of the ones who spend their time talking and laughing instead of studying. You have many things to consider before you start this.
 You have other pupils, your reputation, your grades, and your teachers to consider. Your teachers do not enjoy teaching you when you do not try to study and learn. You are cheating yourself and your parents by not studying.

 You should consider others as well as yourself and study while in the study hall.

How to Handle a Fortune

Months ago I reported in the paper how Mel Bate's uncle died worth a fortune, and left him with a fortune.
 Generally, our town was curious to know how Mel would spend it: buying around the world... buying a new house or car... buying fancy clothes... or dining at cold pheasant and champagne...
 Now we report, Mel hasn't spent a bit! Drop in on him anytime and you'll find him in his clothes by the fire, chatting with the Missus, sharing a mellow glass of beer with friends.

 From where I sit, Mel has learned the art of handling money —as well as handling people. You don't let cash-in-the-bank push you around any more than you let people push you around. If you like the simple, homey life; companionship and quiet ways; a glass of beer and friendly talk—that's worth a fortune, after all!

When pupils go into the study hall, they should go with the in-misinterpret the use of the study hall. While they are there, they do very little studying. They talk, laugh, and visit. These things
