BORER KILLING TIPS ARE GIVEN

You fruit growers might like to have a tip as to how to kill the insect that eats you out of plenty of dollars every year, this insect being the borer. You might use paradiichlorobenzene or ethylene dichloride.

Treatment for the borer immediately will kill him out before the real damage is done. First, you'll want to check to see if you've got borer trouble . . . and this consists of taking a look at two or three pieces of wax which comes out of the tree down near the ground line. If tiny sawdust particles are mixed in the wax, you can start treating, because you've got borers.

To apply the paradiichlorobenzene, you first want to take a hoe and pull the soil back from the tree, down to the crown of the root system. Scrape off all gum and loose bark. Then pull your soil back up around the tree, to a height of about six to eight inches, and smooth off the top of the mound. Then apply your material . . . one ounce of paradiichlorobenzene for a tree that's over three years of age. Pour it in a circle, about two or three inches from the tree. Don't let it contact the tree or burning may occur. Then cover the material with a half-inch of soil and the job is done.

If you use the ethylene dichloride, you can pour it around the body of the tree without preparing a mound of soil to hold the gas. The usual treatment is from one-half to one pint of the material per tree, depending on the age and size of each.

Both of these materials can ordinarily be bought at your local drug store or seed store. And at a cost of only a few cents per tree, borer damage can be eliminated.

MUSTANGS TIE BRONCHOS 12-12

The Wheeler Mustangs and the Clarendon Bronchos fought to a 12 to 12 tie here last Friday night in a contest that had no bearings on the standings in the district races because it was a non-conference affair.

The Mustangs outplayed the Bronchos throughout the contest and came out on top as far as first downs were concerned, with penetrations all even at 2-2 and probably would have won the contest but for a minute of indecision on the part of some Mustang players.

The Mustangs scored first, the Bronchos then pushed over a counter and on the ensuing kickoff, kicked over the Mustang goal and while three local players gathered around the pigskin to protect it from the wind, which was rather chilly. Heavily rushed in to cover the ball for a Broncho touchdown.

Following the streak of luck for the Bronchos, the Mustangs buckled their belts a little tighter and tore down the field for their second score with Bill Robertson ambling the last 25 yards across the goal on an off tackle smash.

Bill Robertson also made the first Mustang counter going over on a 45 yard ramble early in the second period of the contest.

Doyle Waters, Mustang guard, was the outstanding defensive lineman on the field Friday night and he had some very able assistance from other members of the Mustang forward wall.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Reid returned home Monday after visiting in East Texas a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Risner, Adrian and Henry have just returned from a two weeks vacation in New and Old Mexico, points in Texas, Tennessee, Arkansas and Oklahoma.

CATTLE GRUBS CAUSE LOSSES

At the market, cattle with grubs are docked from a half cent to a cent and half per pound. This means around $3.86 per animal, says C. A. King, associate extension entomologist of Texas A. and M. College. And that amounts up to quite a bit when you're the owner of a big herd.

Two million Texas cattle are slaughtered every year, and over one-third of these are grubby cattle. A more direct loss to the farmer in feed. He has to feed his cattle about 15 percent more than usual just because of the grubs.

The fall and early winter is the best time to treat cattle for grubs because this is the time of year the grubs mature and fall off the animals to the ground, says King. The stockman has three choices of controlling grubs—dust, spray or dip. If you use the first method, dust the backs of the animals thoroughly with one part of 5 percent rotenone and two parts tripple earth or talc. King suggests using a fruit jar with 15 holes in the lid one-fourth inch in diameter. Rub the dust into the hair with the fingertips.

For a spray, mix seven and a half pounds of 5 percent rotenone in 100 gallons of water. Wet the backs of the animals thoroughly with a sprayer that has at least 250 pounds of pressure.

Both lice and grubs can be controlled in a dip containing one pound of 5 percent rotenone and 10 pounds of wettable sulphur in 100 gallons of water. It'll take two dips 17 to 21 days apart, and the first should be made 10 to 24 days after the grubs are first noticed in the back.

Here's another way to picture the grub losses. Enough leather is lost each year to furnish shoes for one million people for a year.

The milk flow is reduced around a quarter, says King, but most important of all, is the five million dollars lost by Texas farmers.

That's a lot of money to pay for grubby cattle.

MUSTANGS TO PLAY IN THE 'GAME OF WEEK'

The Wheeler Mustangs will participate in the game of the week in District 1-B Friday night when they meet the powerful Panhandle Panthers in a conference contest at Panhandle.

The powerful Panthers are undefeated in conference play and have to their credit a 6 to 0 win over the current leaders and apparent winners in District 2-A, the Lefors Pirates. The Panhandle eleven lost early season contests to the high flying Phillips Blackhaws and the McLean Tigers.

It is reported that one of the Panhandle coaches casually mentioned that he thought his charges would have little or no trouble in licking the Wheeler Mustangs since they had already been beaten by the White Deer Bucks.

Except for the usual colds and bad weather ailments which usually beset a football team along in November the Mustang eleven will be at top strength for the encounter since the players came out of the Clarendon tussle unscratched, Coach Bernie Smith reports.

The Mustangs will still hold a possible chance at a tie for the championship of District 1-B providing they win Friday night's contest because the White Deer Bucks still have to encounter the rapidly improving Canadian Wildcats and the Panthers.

A large crowd of Mustang fans is expected to follow the team to Panhandle Thursday night and Supt. W. O. Carrick has stated that he will run one or two of the school busses to the game if enough people are interested to make a full load. Carrick states that everyone who wishes to ride the bus should let him know by noon Friday. The charge for the round trip will be only $1.50 Carrick stated.

Pension Payments Total $30,177 In Panhandle

Monthly payments in the form of Old-Age and Survivors Insurance amount now to $30,177.00 in the Texas Panhandle area, according to a statement from J. R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo Social Security Field Office. This represents, according to Sanderson, an increase of 20 percent in total payments and 16 percent in the number of payees as compared with July 1, 1947.

In the 26 counties served by the Amarillo office there are 1,886 persons drawing monthly payments. 639 of these are retired workers, 192 are wives of such workers, 798 are children of retired or deceased wage earners, and 237 are widows of deceased wage earners.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kavanaugh spent the weekend in Dallas.

For the meal and at intervals through the program music will be furnished by Miss Ruth Merrill, Wheeler piano instructor and some of her students.

TO MAKE FARM MACHINERY

The automobile industry, according to Harry Ferguson, Irish-born inventor, should stop making automobiles and make more farm machinery.

Mr. Ferguson says that there is a world market for 80,000,000 tractors and asserts that between forty and fifty million automobile vehicles "create not only one iota of basic wealth."

Mr. Ferguson has a company in England making tractors and a plant under construction, near Detroit, to turn out the same product. It may be, as he suggests, a tremendous market for farm machinery throughout the world but we differ with his assertion that the automobiles do not create any wealth.

In fact, the invention and development of the automobile has revolutionized the social and economic life of the United States. It has undoubtedly made possible a development which is, in many ways real wealth.

GOD LEFT OUT; EQUALITY IN

A two-day argument resulted before the Social Committee of the General Assembly of the United Nations when Brazil suggested an amendment to the declaration on human rights asserting that all human beings are "created in the image and likeness of God."

The Russian delegate objected, asserting that in his country the postulate that man is created in God's image is "much disputed." Argentina, Columbia, Bolivia and Venezuela supported the Brazilian amendment, but the Chinese, British and Indian delegates urged that reference to God be omitted because of the difference in the religious beliefs represented.

Finally, the Committee reached agreement, asserting that "all human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights."

This did not end the debate because Chile suggested an amendment to insert the words "and remains." Surprisingly, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, of the United States, said that it was "ridiculous" to say that all men "do remain free and equal after birth." The lady did not say so, but it is equally "ridiculous" to say that all men are equal at birth.

AIR SHUTTLE SUCCEEDS

With American and British planes carrying close to 5,000 tons of food and supplies into Berlin every day, the Western powers have announced that the daily rations in the three Western sectors of Berlin will be increased by two hundred calories.

The approach of winter and the probability that house-heating will be a rarity in the three Western sectors of Berlin make it necessary to increase the food ration.

The action of the Allied Forces of Occupation seems to indicate some confidence that the air shuttle has beaten the Russian blockade.

Dr. Poulter Explains New, Quicker Method Of Searching For Oil

A charge of dynamite, set off in the bleak region near the South Pole during the Byrd Expedition of the early 30s, set off a train of events which today gave promise of making the search for oil in Wheeler County quicker and cheaper.

The explosion was set off during the Byrd Antarctic Expedition of 1933-1935 by Dr. C. Poulter, second in command and scientific advisor of the expedition, as part of some seismic measurement experiments.

Dr. Poulter, nationally known scientist who now is the associate director of Stanford Research Institute, Palo Alto, Calif., last year presented his new method of seismic exploration to the Institute of Inventive Research, San Antonio. Dr. Poulter then was on the staff of the Armour Research Institute, Chicago.

The Institute of Inventive Research is a non-profit public service organization endowed by Tom Slick, Texas oil producer and rancher, to provide aid for inventors. The Institute agreed to underwrite further research on Dr. Poulter's new development, provided he would conduct the experimentation.

On Thursday, November 4, at Essar Ranch near San Antonio, the new way of making seismic tests for oil was unveiled. Dr. Poulter and Dr. Harold Vagtborg, president of the Institute held a press conference.

Then newspaper men were taken into the mesquite brush on the ranch for a demonstration. Light charges in the explosive pattern were set up on stakes above the ground, spread around the area to be tested, and all were exploded together.

The new method contrasts with the present system of firing a single, large charge in a hole of considerable depth. The Institute staff sees the principal advantages of the Poulter method over those currently in use as being the elimination of shot holes and their attendant costs, and the greater speed with which areas may be mapped.

Seismic recording equipment identical with that now generally in use is employed by the new method. Tests have shown, Dr. Vagtborg said, that the above ground method reduces danger of damaging nearby structures of concrete or other solid material. It also eliminates the dangers of falling stones. Applications for patents on the method have been filed.

Don't throw the celery tops away. They can be saved and chopped up fine or dried for future use in soups, stews, creamed vegetable, dressing or vegetable loaf.

PRICE SUPPORT PROGRAM IS DISCUSSED

There will be a price support program in 1950 according to a bill introduced in the House by the last session of Congress. But—just what does the program stand to gain from it? It is into consideration that only about 18 percent of the population of the United States are farm people, yet they and well being of the nation depends upon the support of the people. This support must be in the form of food and clothing, but they must have a fair price for their products that will enable them to buy machinery, repair their own living or the will be thrown into an economic crisis similar to the one that is now being experienced. This new price support program unless amended will give 60 percent and 90 percent of parity according to production. Production in times of good prices and normal rainfall continues to increase as it did during the war years from 1940 to present times. Conditions on the farm keep the average farmer trying to produce as much as previously, if not more, even after the prices start down. Even the lower prices, good seed, conservation practices and good management keep production up.

According to this new bill, and provided that it had been in effect during the 1948 and 1949 marketing year, which it isn't of course, cotton figured on 1938-1947 level and adjusted to the 1909-1914 levels multiplied by the index of prices paid, interest, and taxes for January 1948 gives us a formula of .2701 whereas transitional parity prices would be 95 percent of the present formula of .3112 in those cases where that is higher than parity prices according to the new formula. All this with a supply percentage of about 110 percent of the level of support would be 67 percent of parity which would make the loan price of cotton 1810. Percentage of parity would be raised by 20 percent, however, on all crops that the farmers vote marketing quotas on, which if marketing quotas were in effect would raise the price support level of the cotton to .2172. Wheat and other crops would be figured accordingly.

Cotton and wheat as well as other crops have been selling at about loan prices, naturally if price support went down we could expect market prices to decline accordingly. Let's not get the idea, however, that price supports are keeping the price of the things they're merely to defend the farmer as well as the nation against a sudden depression. If wheat were lower his cost in producing that all other products can be figured in the same manner. There is a price support on cattle and hogs but market price for these animals is about twice what the support levels are, so we couldn't say that price supports are holding the price of meat up.

Farmers are not the only people benefiting from price support—think of the difference it would make in the country as a whole, if cotton were selling this year for 18 cents instead of 30 cents. That 12 cents per pound for 10,000 bales (probably 60 percent of Wheeler County cotton crop) would be about $600,000. This figure on cotton alone not counting the other principal crops in the county, would lower the volume of business considerable. That amount of money would keep business operating, keep salesmen busy. It could put new machinery on the farms, in homes, in businesses. Help keep better schools, hospitals and churches. Help keep taxes from becoming delinquent and thereby build toward a more perfect government. Is this price support program costing taxpayers? The price support levels generally set the market price at the time of harvest. Naturally after harvesting operations are over, there is more competition for the product causing prices to generally go up allowing the producer to pay off the loan with interest and still sell at a profit. How are we going to keep the price support program at 90 percent of parity as it is in 1948? We could all write our Congressman.

Ice crystals in ice cream can be reduced by fast freezing or stirring, adding air by beating or by adding whipped egg whites, whipped cream or gelatin.

Child Should Be Kept Clear of Communicable Diseases When Possible

In a statement on controlling communicable diseases issued by the Texas State Department of Health, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer states that if every case of suspected communicable disease were seen promptly by the family physician and definitely diagnosed, thousands of susceptible persons would be protected from these disabling diseases.

"The theory is a good thing for children to have these catching childhood diseases and get them over with, has long since been proven an error which may actually endanger a child's life," says Dr. Cox. "The longer he can avoid having these diseases, the better it is for him. Every child should be protected by immunization against all diseases where an immunity can be established."

Prompt diagnosis, isolation and good medical care give the patient the best chance for a satisfactory recovery without the serious complications that sometimes accompany even the milder forms of communicable diseases. Dr. Cox emphasized that obeying the public health laws regarding isolation quarantine protects not only the patient, but helps to prevent the spread of the disease to other persons.

"The State Health Department," Dr. Cox said, "does everything within its power to protect the health of the people of Texas, but the cooperation of every individual in protecting his own health and that of his community will do more than anything else to successfully check the spread of communicable diseases among our people."

A youngster had reached the age when he liked to show off to his mates his knowledge of big words.

"I'll bet you," he said to the neighborhood toughie, "that you don't know what 'expectorate' means."

"A sure I do!" said the other lad. "It's the slang word for 'spit'."

Looking for a dessert to bewitch your Halloween bridge party? Try this then. Make a Cocoa Ring and top with Shiny Chocolate Frosting. And make Orange Spanish Cream (your favorite cook book will have the recipe) and spoon in the center of the ring. So good to eat and so party-pretty, too.

Speaking of desserts, remember that vitaminized margarine is tops for cakes and cookies as well as other baked products, for it gives a wonderful flavor and texture, and so economically.

To Dunk or Not To Dunk?

Dunking doughnuts is Sober Hopkins' favorite morning pastime... and for a long time Ma Hopkins has been trying to break him of the habit. Feels it sets a bad example for the children.

So one morning she puts a heavy frosting of chocolate on the doughnuts... figuring that will stop him. Sober thinks it over for a while and then: Dunk! Taste? Smile!! And Sober compliments the missus on the lovely mocha flavor!

I guess there'll always be two schools of thought: to dunk or not to dunk. But from where I sit, it's a matter of personal choice and taste—like some folks prefer beer to cider, ale to beer. And the less we criticize those differences of taste, the better.

PATSY MCCAULEY AND DONALD WATERS WIN CORONATION CONTEST
 The closing of the king and queen, prince and princess contest came at 9:30 Friday evening at the carnival. Through an error in checking the money, the senior candidates were chosen winners. However, a later check on the receipts gave the junior candidates their rightful distinction. These candidates, Patsy McCauley and Donald Waters, will be pictured in the school annuals as Queen and King of the school carnival. Lavada Hogan and Waylon Newman won the contest for junior high school princess and prince with Jeanie Gudgel and Tommy Corcoran winning that honor for the grade school. Slightly more than $250 was received in this contest.

GOSSIP

Armistice Day

Thirty years ago today the "Cease Fire" command ended World War I. And that day we honored those who had fallen in the service of our country. Today added to that honor roll are those who gave their lives in the second great world conflict. It is not enough this Armistice Day to honor the brave dead of two wars by bowing our heads in prayer. Only by each of us working assiduously to prevent another war—working to build an everlasting Peace—can we pay them deserving tribute.

HOW A PIPE LINE WENT TO Sea...

Underwater crossings of rivers and swamps are all in the day's work for builders of United Gas pipe lines...but one project called for utilization of all their ingenuity and ability. That was the submarine crossing of Lake Ponchartrain, just north of New Orleans. A 14-inch steel pipe line was laid 25.5 miles across this vast body of water—to provide more adequate natural gas service to a score of cities and towns along the Gulf Coast. Construction of pipe lines is only one of many functions of the United Gas organization, all of which have the ultimate purpose of providing a continued dependable supply of natural gas for our customers.

2,000-foot sections of pipe were shoved out into the lake, where tugs towed them to anchored barges.

Cranes lifted each new section of pipe to a position on the barges where it could be welded to the section already laid.

Joints were carefully water-proofed, then the pipe was lowered to the bottom and the barges moved to their next location.

CRIME PAYS FOR HIM
 Tokyo — A Japanese youth walked into the office of the Attorney-General and asked for the payroll of the crime-detection division. An official handed him the payroll, 434,000 yen ($1,607 United States). The youth calmly signed a receipt, wrapped the money securely, stuck the bundle under his arm and sauntered out. The only hitch was that, in a few minutes, the real payroll clerk appeared for the payroll.

They said they went on a joy ride, but that shouldn't cause Dorothy's black eye. We need a better explanation than that. Yes, 2 to 1 isn't fair Dorothy.

For Maximum Milk PRODUCTION FOLLOW THE PURINA DAIRY CYCLE PLAN

Here's the Purina Program which is making milk for thousands of dairymen across America:

- Purina CALF STARTENA
Builds big, husky calves. Costs half as much to feed as milk.
- Purina DRY & FRESHENING CHOW
An extra 100 pounds of condition in the dry cow with "D & F" means 2,000 extra pounds of milk during the next lactation, according to Purina Research Farm records on Holsteins.
- Purina COW CHOW
If you have grain, feed a Purina supplement or concentrate. If not, feed Cow Chow straight with proper roughage.
- Purina BULKY LAS
Feed to help out poor pasture or hay. It helps keep up milk flow when summer pasture dries up. Mix with oats for heifer or dry cow feed.

FEED COWS MORE GRAIN

This fall and winter it may pay Texas dairymen to feed their cows more grain. Of course, it's a good idea for dairymen to always feed their cows well, says G. G. Gibson, extension dairy husbandman of Texas A and M College. Give them all the good roughage they will eat and feed them more grain, especially the higher producing cows.

This year there is a rather special situation. Texas has had a long drouth, but in some places light sprinkles are trying to put an end to it. With labor still a problem, the high prices for meat have caused a cut in the size of dairy herds. Gibson says that farmers now have about four percent fewer milk cows than a year ago. And if the total milk production is going to meet the big demand that customers are calling for, then dairymen will have to get more milk from the cows they have.

Gibson says that up to a certain point, each pound of grain added to the ration will boost the milk production a little higher. He points out that how much extra grain they get depends on how much they are getting now, and on the local price of grain compared to the price of milk.

In line with this idea of more grain for the cows, Gibson says the present butterfat-feed ratio for 1948 of 25.7 pounds of feed to one pound of butterfat compared to 20.5 pounds of feed to one pound of butterfat in 1947 further bears out the possibility of feeding more grain under the present conditions.

This butterfat-feed ratio means just this—at present prices, 1 pound of butterfat will buy 25.7 pounds of grain. And last year 1 pound of butterfat would buy only 20.5 pounds of feed. So that's an increase in the butterfat-feed ratio of 5.2 in a year.

There are large supplies of feed grains, and prices are more favorable now to heavy feeding than during the early summer. Research shows that when cows are fed 10 percent above the standard level, the average cow produces just four-fifths of a pound of milk for each pound of grain fed. And when you get to feeding up to 30 percent above the normal level, the average cow produces only half a pound of milk for each extra pound of grain, says Gibson.

That gives some guide in feeding for more milk. It's just the old law of diminishing returns working again.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Williams returned home Tuesday from Mountainair, N. M., where they visited with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Williams and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Estes Wilsford visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carlton in Shamrock Saturday.
