PFC GLEN N. GREEN

G. N. GREEN IS PROMOTED

Marine Private First Class Glenn N. Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Green, Mobeetie, Texas, recently completed his initial training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif. Upon completion of this training he was promoted to the rank of Private First Class, an honor bestowed upon every Marine who finishes his recruit training with a clean record.

The young Leatherneck spent his first three weeks of training here at the post receiving instruction, map reading, military courtesy and infantry drill. The following three weeks the young Marine spent at the rifle range where for two weeks he was taught the fundamental principles of marksmanship and during the third week he made practical use of his training by firing the Marine Corps basic weapon, the M-1 rifle, for record purposes. The new Private First Class spent his last two weeks in the Recruit Depot doing additional subjects necessary to a Marine. These included bayonet fighting, combat formations of a rifle squad, digging of fox holes and a series of field problems where practical experience was gleaned through the application of classroom work. He has been transferred to a Casual Platoon here and will soon be assigned to one of the many duty stations where Marines serve their country.

STOLEN PICKUP IS RECOVERED

Sheriff Bus Dorman reports that Ernest Campbell, a negro employee of John Lister, stole a 1951 3-ton Chevrolet pickup from Mr. Lister Saturday afternoon, March 17, about 5:00 o'clock and was picked up in Phoenix, Arizona, Monday afternoon about 2:00 o'clock.

Campbell carried gasoline for the trip along with him in cans in the back of the pickup.

It was reported that Campbell was going to Phoenix after a negro girl whom he planned to bring back with him, a fact which helped in the quick apprehension of the thief.

Sheriff Dorman and Deputy Lake L. Black of Shamrock made the trip to Phoenix to bring Campbell back here. John Lister accompanied them on the trip to bring back his pickup.

Campbell has been turned over to Federal authorities and will stand trial in federal courts for transporting a stolen vehicle across state lines. He has been lodged in the Federal house of detention in Amarillo.

Baptists To Begin Revival Meet Friday

Rev. M. B. Smith, pastor of the Baptist Church, announced this week that the first revival meeting to be held in the new church auditorium would begin Friday evening, March 30, and last through Sunday, April 8. Services are to be held each evening beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Rev. Smith is scheduled to do the preaching and the singing will be under the direction of local men with Frank Wofford, R. B. Mann and Delmar Faught sharing the duty.

The pastor issued a cordial invitation for everyone in this vicinity to attend the services.

Lt. Ralph (Buck) Wheat who is stationed at Ft. Sill, Okla. spent the weekend here with friends.

FIRE DESTROYS GRASS, FENCES FRIDAY MORNING

A grass fire which reportedly started last Wednesday on the Wheeler Carwile place northwest of Wheeler rekindled Friday morning and burned off the greater part of five sections of grass land between Wheeler and Mobeetie. The farthest point south which was reached by the fire was the Pettit place.

The Mobeetie volunteer fire department working with volunteers succeeded in extinguishing the flames on the Pettit place. Had the flames jumped the road on the west side of the Pettit place, they probably would have gone all the way to the river since they were being whipped by a high northwest wind.

Fortunately very few buildings were destroyed by the fire and no livestock loss was reported. The heaviest loss to the land owners was the fences which were consumed by the fire.

Frank Mote, who lives in a rent house on the southwest corner of the Pettit place became so excited when he discovered that the fire was coming that way that he backed his pickup up to his house and began to load his furniture in an effort to save it; however, the fire never did get very close to his house, thanks to the good work of the volunteer fighters.

Mr. Henderson was born June 25, 1881 at Ducksberry, Texas and passed away at Highland General Hospital, Pampa, March 24, 1951 at the age of 69 years, 8 months and 29 days after a years illness.

Surviving are: His wife, Alpha, Pampa; three sons, Carl of Mobeetie, James of Pampa, and Claude of Wichita Falls; six daughters, Mrs. Mattie Lewis of Lone Grove, Okla., Mrs. Lillie Hunt of Kelton, Mrs. Nettie Walker of Mobeetie, Mrs. Betty Schaub of Pampa, Mrs. Nadine Jones of Amarillo and Mrs. Virginia Martin of Pampa; 22 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren and a host of friends.

Wheeler Schools Now Have Radio Program

The Wheeler High School Chorus presented the first in a series of school programs which has been inaugurated over Radio Station KEVA at Shamrock Tuesday afternoon between 3:30 and 3:45.

The program will be presented each week at the same time, Band Director Patrick Boddy announced.

Mr. Boddy states that he sincerely hopes that everyone in this vicinity will listen to the program, "Wheeler Schools on Parade", each week and become better acquainted with the schools as well as learn something of the happenings of the week from the newscast which is to be included in each of these programs.

Students who took part in the initial program were: Patricia Hubbard, Betty Jo Laycock, Louise Weeks, Fliptian Lott, Mary Helen Hefley, Betty Jo Trayler, Yolanda Dorman, Martha Chapman, Leveta Moore and Doyle Brown in the chorus. Von Eva Hooker acted as the Wheeler Star Reporter.

Easter dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Noah were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hardcastle of College Station; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sides and Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Noah and daughters and Mrs. Joe Hardcastle and Jo Ann, all of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wofford.

Wheeler Whisperings

By J. C. Howell

We have received word that the stork left Easter bunnies at the homes of two families who formerly made Wheeler their home Sunday. The long legged bird left a baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Mitchell in Amarillo—we understand that they have not named her as yet because they were expecting a boy and didn't even have a girl's name picked out, eh Charlie? Then we had an announcement from James Clepper's saying that the stork had left Douglas an 8-pound, 2-oz. sister on Sunday. The Cleppers have named their new daughter Rebecca Sue.

We received a card from John Carter, former conservationist with the local SCS unit here, early this week. The card was mailed from Tokyo on March 21 and stated that he was on his way home via Pan American Airlines; so he is probably back at his home base in Virginia before now. Anyway we were glad to hear from him and to know that he was on his way home.

Terrell Gunter tells us that Cue M. Tate, who is with the construction department of United Carbon Co. which is building the carbon black plant east of Shamrock, visited in Wheeler Sunday and told him he didn't see why the carbon company didn't build their plant over here instead of at Shamrock. Mr. Tate told Gunter that Wheeler was a fair little city in which anyone should be proud to live. Thank you Mr. Tate.

Our apologies to Delmar Faught. In telling about the Soil Conservation Service personnel helping George Gandy with his project at the Wheeler Community Building, we unintentionally overlooked mentioning that Delmar assisted in helping survey the ground which is being fixed up for the Dairy Day Show next Thursday. We understand that the boys at the office got quite a laugh out of the fact that we left Delmar's name out of the write-up and included Jack Crout's name in it when Delmar actually did the work and Crout never did even show his face over there.

Texas Senior Senator Connally was very nice to us this week. He mailed us a complete copy of the Congressional Directory, 82nd Congress, 1st Session, March 1951. Mr. Connally explains in a letter which accompanied the book that he purchased the new book which is just off the press and mailed it to us because recent additions to the government agencies, made necessary by expanded activities in connection with the world situation, might make it difficult for us to identify these new agencies and the officials thereof. How right he is. In case any of you would like to look up some of these agencies or find out something about the congress you are welcome to drop by the office and use the book.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis who are the proud parents of a new baby boy, who was born at the Walker Clinic Sunday morning. The boy weighed 9 pounds and has been named Michael Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Rogers are the parents of an 8 pound boy who was born at the Wheeler Hospital Monday afternoon.

High Wind Wednesday Upsets Young's Pickup

Thurston Young tells us that the wind was really blowing around here Wednesday... says he can vouch for that fact because an air current caught him just right as he was rounding the curve at the west edge of Wheeler on the Mobeetie highway Wednesday and turned his pickup over.

Young was not badly injured in the mishap but reports here that the pickup which he was driving was almost completely demolished.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Barry of Briscoe and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barry visited with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bush and Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Barry and family in Amarillo Sunday.

HEFLEY, MOSS ARE ATTENDING MEET IN AUSTIN

County Judge George Hefley and County Attorney Homer Moss are attending a statewide conference of prosecuting attorneys which has been called by Attorney General Price Daniel in Austin.

Two of the nation's top foes of organized crime will speak at the statewide conference of prosecuting attorneys called by Attorney General Price Daniel in Austin March 30-31.

They are Warren Olney III, chief counsel for the California Crime Commission, and Daniel P. Sullivan, operating director of the Miami Florida Crime Commission.

Both have had many years of experience in fighting the organized gambling rackets which invaded their states, Daniel said.

Olney served seven years as deputy district attorney, and three years as chief criminal deputy attorney general of California, beginning under Governor Earl Warren, while he was Attorney General of California.

Sullivan, a former FBI agent in Texas, has directed the Miami Crime Commission on its successful campaign to eliminate race horse bookies, slot machines, and other commercial vice from Miami. He will speak on "The Importance of Citizens' Crime Commission." Daniel said that he was calling the meeting of the state's 315 prosecuting attorneys to consider pending legislation and means of cooperation with law enforcement officers for the purpose of better enforcement of present laws and "to serve notice to the world that Texas will not allow the entry of gambling racketeers who are now being run out of other states."

Nash Appliance To Hold Demonstration On New Ironer Tuesday

The Nash Appliance and Supply Co. is holding a public demonstration of the new Ironrite Ironer at their store on the west side of the square next Tuesday, April 3, according to announcement in an advertisement on another page of this week's Times. There will be two demonstrations, one lasting from 10:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon and one from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m.

Miss Bernice Pfizemaier, a representative of the Ironrite Co., will be on hand for the demonstrations and the personnel of Nash Appliance and Supply Co. cordially invite all women in this vicinity to stop by and view one of the demonstrations. They wish to show you how easy it is to iron your complete laundry sitting down.

The 35 boys will be chosen in a subscription contest. Doyce will be in competition with the carriers at Higgins, Esteline, McLean and LeFors. The contest will end midnight, April 7. The winning carrier in this group will leave Amarillo on April 27 along with the 34 other winners. The boys will travel by chartered bus and will be accompanied by several members of the Globe-News circulation department. Stops will be made at all points of interest between Amarillo and Carlsbad.

Dean Tipps was high man in the contest.

Wheeler County Farm Bureau has posted $60.00 for prizes, ribbons and banners which are to be given away in the dairy judging contests which are to be held in connection with the Dairy Day Show. The Texas Jersey Cattle Club is also participating in the show.

Wheeler County has really come to the forefront in dairying during the past few years and some of the dairymen will show some of the best dairy cattle to be found anywhere in this Wheeler Show. Besides the individually owned dairy animals to be shown, 4-H, FFA and Veteran Dairy Circle heifers, their heifers, and their offspring will be shown at the show. Both the Wheeler and Shamrock Chambers of Commerce have sponsored dairy circles.

The 4-H and FFA dairy judging contests which are to be held in conjunction with the Dairy Day Show on Thursday morning are attracting entries from over a wide area. Robert Ledbetter reports that he has received entries from 4-H Club teams from Wheeler, Ochiltree, Lipscomb and Collingsworth Counties and FFA teams from Wheeler, Shamrock, Mobeetie, Canadian and Samnorwood.

Following the 4-H and FFA judging contests there will be a general judging contest in which the public is invited to participate. Any individual may compete in this contest; however, there will be two age groups, one for those under 21 years of age and one for those over 21. The four top individuals in each division will receive prizes.

Ledbetter and Siegmund state that they feel quite fortunate in having the following gentlemen to assist in putting on these contests: Don Powell of Shamrock who will handle the score sheet; C. J. Van Zandt of Mobeetie and Ernest Bryant of Wheeler who will give questions and take reasons; and John McDowell of Shamrock who will be a group leader.

In the afternoon, the dairy entries will be classified by R. E. Burleson, dairy specialist for the Extension Service from Texas A. & M. College. Ribbons will be awarded according to the merit of the animal. These ribbons will be furnished by the Wheeler County Farm Bureau with the Texas Jersey Cattle Club cooperating.

The seniors are working hard on their play, "Fancy Meeting You," and expect to present it on Friday night, April 6, at eight o'clock. The cast of the play is as follows: Ann Maxwell, a glamorous young actress, Patsy Johnston; Larry Bennett, her friend, Bobby Corcoran; Oval, the negro maid, Ann Nell Alexander; Nick Popopolis, a Brooklyn taxi driver, Joe Shelton; Mrs. Popopolis, Nick's wife, Evelyn Worthington; Aunt Honey, Larry's rich but dear aunt, Madge Patterson; Virgie Rankin, Mrs. Popopolis' friend from Valley City, Ouida Burke; and Wally Rankin, Virgie's husband, Edwin Sims.

All the characters of the play will furnish you plenty of laughs, but watch out for that negro maid and that taxi driver in particular. The admission to the play is 25 and 50 cents.

The seniors are being a little bit careful now; they are hoping they can fool the teachers just seven more weeks and then they can "collect" that diploma!

At present the seniors are to broadcast a program about happenings around our school at Shamrock on Thursday afternoons at 3:30 over Station KEVA. If you have any news we could use for this broadcast, give it to one of the seniors, please.

None of the seniors missed play practice till complications came up at home for Evelyn and Edwin. Evelyn said her dad had a birthday Sunday and she could not miss the birthday dinner. Evelyn, we did not want to practice till 2:30. Did Bob have to help fix the birthday dinner? Edwin, did getting a sister-in-law keep you away from play practice Sunday afternoon? If so, we hope you get used to her soon! By the way, Bobby, why were you not there that same afternoon? It's nice that all three of you missed at the same time.

Tommye White, Nelda Barton, Sally Cowan, and Gaye Robison tried out for declamation for interscholastic league last week. Gaye and Tommye had to give their declamations twice before it was finally decided that Tommye had won first.

Tommye White, Nelda Glyn Baird, and Nelda Barton have entered the eighth grade spelling contest for interscholastic league and two of them will represent the school at the district meet at Darrouzett, April 6th.

Excessive Pruning Not Good For Rose Bushes

Excessive pruning reduces the number of blooms and actually shortens the life of most roses. Heavy pruning takes off limbs which bear leaves and the leaves are the plant's food factory. The more factories the plant has working for it; the more flowers it can produce says Sadie Hatfield, extension homestead improvement specialist of the Texas A. & M. College. It's a proven fact, she says that roses that received little or no pruning at the Tyler Experiment Station produced many more blooms per plant than those that were pruned heavily.

Miss Hatfield recommends that pruning be done primarily to give the rose plants the desired shape; to remove long and unattractive limbs that have grown into paths and to remove dead or diseased wood from the plants. She adds that roses are pruned continually for when the blooms are removed—pruning is done. Pinching off the tender branches frequently will make the pruning job easier and will remove at least a part of the necessity for heavy pruning.

Severe pruning may produce larger blooms but fewer blooms and it can also cause severe losses from summer die back. Severe pruning may also cause the plants to form "water sprouts" instead of more blooms. Roses that are grown for cut flowers only points out Miss Hatfield should be planted in the service area for it may be necessary to frequently replace them.

She says it is true that some roses are so hardy that pruning seems to have little effect on them. The radiance roses are in this group. Weaker varieties, such as yellow and two-tone roses, may be weakened enough from heavy pruning to cause them to die or to cause the flowers to lose their rich coloring. It is best to shape the weak growing varieties without severe cutting and pinching the tender tips frequently is recommended. This practice will give the plants the desired shape and little wood will be lost.

The hardy climbing roses should be treated differently from bush roses, says Miss Hatfield. They should be pruned almost to the ground after they have bloomed in the spring. The less vigorous climbers should be pruned less severely; thin and cut back only enough to shape them. Miss Hatfield points out that since most roses are either grafted or budded, it is not a good idea to cut them back too close to the ground. In cutting too close to the ground, the budded or grafted part of the plant may be removed and thus the desirable part of the rose, so far as flowers are concerned, will be destroyed. Most varieties used for root stock bloom only once per year, says Miss Hatfield and such plants are less desirable than the continuous blooming roses.

The stronger sex is usually the weaker sex because of the strength the weaker sex has over the stronger sex; or is it because of the weakness of the stronger sex for the weaker sex?

Isn't it funny how women can talk on and on about things that left them speechless?

Slim And His "Ali Species"

Slim Baker, who's always doing something crazy, had a lot of people smiling last week because his entry won a ribbon in the Women's Club Annual Pet Show.

Seems as though Slim saw a strange-colored alley cat with no tail over at Central City and brought it home. He washed, combed, and brushed it and put a collar on it with a card reading "All Species." Then he enters it in the show.

Hanged if the ladies didn't think it was some rare kind of cat and gave it a special award! When one of them asked Slim where she could get one like it, he said, "It's all yours, M'am—I can get an 'Alley Cat' anytime I want!" From where I sit, some of us are pretty easily "taken in" just because someone else says it's so. Whether it's awarding prizes or passing judgment on a person's right to enjoy a temperate glass of beer—let's take a good look from stem to stern, and learn what it's all about before making up our minds.

HELEN KWALWASSER

Noted Violinist To Play At Shamrock Tuesday Evening

Helen Kwalwasser, dazzling young American violinist, will be the next attraction on the 1950-51 Wheeler County Municipal Concert Association series. The concert will be held at the Clark Auditorium in Shamrock, on April 3.

us by the violinist, Enesco, and conquered the skeptical New York critics at 19 when she first appeared at Town Hall. Now at 22 she has won fame in Europe during two extensive tours and is one of the most sought after young artists in this country.

On November 5th of this year, Miss Kwalwasser made her Montreal debut with the Canadian Broadcasting Orchestra, and as usual, her press notices ran true to form. Thomas Archer gave her a sparkling send-off when he wrote in "The Gazette": "The violinist best displayed her unusual talents as an executive musician in Mozart's Concerto in D Major, which was beautifully played both by soloist and orchestra. The concerto was a study in purity of style and precision of performance. Miss Kwalwasser's execution of the cadenzas was especially fine". The French Newspaper Lematin carried this report: "The brilliant American violinist, who is considered as one of the great virtuosos of her generation, gave a sensitive and thrilling interpretation. She truly merited the great applause that filled the concert hall long after she had left the stage... applause that said 'Please return to Montreal.'"

When Miss Kwalwasser makes her initial appearance in Shamrock, she will include on her program selections that have been favorites with music lovers all over the world. Members of the Wheeler County Municipal Concert Association will hear the works of such composers as Mozart, Chopin, Rachmaninoff, Kroll, Purcell, and Kreisler. She has specifically tried to include a wide range to fit the many different tastes of an audience—from the little known "Sicilienne" by Paradis to world wide favorite, "Estrellita" by Ponce-Heifetz. When she plays, she plays to each individual member of an audience, and her main desire is that each person go away with a warm spot in his heart not only for her as an artist, but for the sheer joy of the music itself.

April 3 will be a memorable night in this area when the Wheeler County Municipal Concert audience will see one of the few artists in the world permitted to use a genuine Stradivarius violin. Known as the "Dencla", Miss Kwalwasser's violin was made by the great master in 1710 during what was known as his "Golden" period. Another great violinist familiar to all concert goers, Mr. Nathan Milstein, formerly owned this priceless instruments.

This much looked forward to evening of music with Helen Kwalwasser will begin promptly at 8:15 o'clock. You are requested to present your membership identification cards in the Wheeler County Municipal Concert Association for admission. If you did not obtain membership this year, look for an announcement of next season's membership drive.

We have always wondered what would happen if a rattlesnake bit a drunkard.

For 52 years it was entitled "An Act to Establish a Uniform System of Bankruptcy Throughout the United States." Recently Congress changed the name of the "Bankruptcy Act." It's encouraging to learn that the government really isn't intent on bankrupting all business.

We feel better every time Eisenhower refers to our future generation. For awhile we doubted if there would be any.

Most drug stores could sell twice as much malted milk if they would only fill the glasses.

You Should Fumigate After Catching Illness

Speaking of the precautions that should be taken in households during and at the close of an illness from any of the "catching" diseases, which are prevalent at all seasons, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, said recently: "Any plan for the prevention or control of this sort, depends upon the intelligent cooperation of individuals and communities with the medical profession and the health authorities for its success."

"Those who are in charge of persons suffering from influenza, pneumonia, tuberculosis, scarlet fever, measles, infantile paralysis or any other of the diseases spread by discharge from the nose or throat, are warned that these discharges are sources of great danger, and are urged to have the patient use paper handkerchiefs or soft cheesecloth, that can be disinfected or burned or otherwise safely disposed of.

"The sterilization of dishes and utensils used in the sick room, by boiling after each use of them, and of the patient's clothing, sheets, towels, and pillow cases, are equally necessary. Then, at the close of the illness, a thorough cleaning of the room, bedding and personal belongings of the patient, scrubbing the floors and woodwork, and opening the place to the fresh air and sunlight, are urged as a final precautionary measure.

"Fortunately, the best disinfectants yet discovered are within reach of everybody. They are plenty of hot water and soap, fresh air and sunshine."

KITCHEN MEMO BY JEAN CLARKE

COMES the day when you're particularly busy, toss this recipe together to make a Skillet Dinner. Saves dishwashing, time and energy. Melt 2 tbsps. fat in skillet, add 1 cup chopped onion, 1/2 lb. ground beef. Cook until brown, about 10 mins. Add 1 cup sliced carrots, 4 ozs. wed. noodles, 1 qt. water. Cover, simmer over low flame 45 mins. Add 2 tbsps. Worcestershire sauce, 1 tbsps. salt, 1/4 tsp. pepper. Mix lightly. Serves 4.

Timely check: The filter on your gas furnace is bound to clog with dust from the air. About twice a year remove the filter and replace it because a clogged filter cuts heating efficiency.

A clove of garlic in olive oil, mix in 1/2 tsp. paprika, let set for five minutes, then brush over thick steak. Slide into broiler 3" from flame. Out of this world for flavor and crusty finish!

If it's washday in your house and you need plenty of hot water, don't worry about the 15 gals. of hot water your man uses up for his morning shower because your automatic gas water heater immediately starts to replace hot water as it is used.

Gentle reminder: Tepid soapy water and a cloth wipe up spilled food in your gas refrigerator more easily than if you wait for the food to harden.

Butterscotch toast: Spread toast with butter or margarine, sprinkle with brown sugar. Keep under broiler about 4" from the flame until it bubbles.

Families Of Deceased May Have More SS Due

The families of deceased veterans, including those who died in service, may be entitled to increased benefits under the 1950 amendments to the Social Security Act, according to John R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo office of the Social Security Administration.

The new law provides a social security wage credit of $160 for each month of military service during World War II. These credits are given to all servicemen whether they have social security numbers or not and regardless of their past employment.

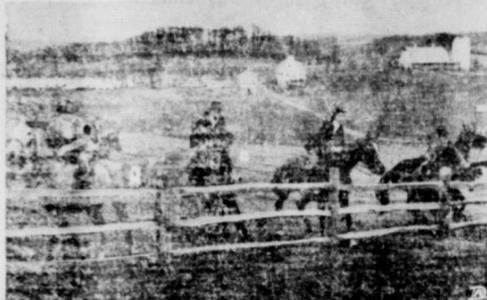

Widows and children of servicemen may be entitled to benefits until the children become 18. The children may qualify even though the widow has remarried. Parents who were chiefly dependent on the servicemen may also qualify for benefits in some instances.

It is not necessary that a living veteran take any action to get credit for his military service. The families of deceased servicemen or veterans should contact the Amarillo social security office if they have not done so. Proof of chief dependency of a parents of a serviceman or veteran who died prior to July 1, 1949, must be filed before July 1, 1951. For deaths occurring later, such proof must be filed before the second anniversary of the death.

Widows and children may also lose some monthly benefits if their claims are not filed prior to April 1, 1951, because a claim cannot be effective for more than six months before the date of filing.

CAMERA TOPICS

In action photography there isn't much time to wonder about exposure. You must learn to size the light up quickly and accurately. A prize-winner from the Graflex Photo Contest by Joseph A. DiPaola, Jr.

SHORT CUTS TO PROPER EXPOSURE

There are few mysteries to good photographic exposure. A photo-electric meter can simplify the job—if you know how to use it properly—but it isn't a must. You really don't need anything more than the simple free exposure table that is packed with every film and a little good judgment.

Black-and-white film has tremendous exposure latitude. That means you can make some terrible mistakes in judging light and still come up with a respectable negative. Color film is a little less accommodating, but it is amazing how wrong you can be with it and still get a nice picture.

Usually, it is wise to err on the side of over-exposure when using black-and-white film. Too dense a negative can always be doctored up in various ways. But under-exposure is dangerous because what didn't have a chance to register on the film will just never appear in your picture. That is one reason why professionals have a rule "always expose for the shadows and the highlights will take care of themselves!"

When you are computing exposure, there are two things to consider: the quality of the light and how much of it is on your subject. A sunny day in winter is seldom as bright as a fine summer day unless there is a lot of glare from snow. At the seashore any subject will appear brighter than in the woods or sitting on a shady porch. These are your two basic variables. From that point, it is just a question of interpreting the headings on the exposure chart correctly and reading off the proper shutter speed and "f" stop.

After you have made a few dozen pictures it is not hard to estimate that a certain scene is about twice as bright as one you shot yesterday at a certain exposure. So you just compensate accordingly and shoot.

Indoors exposure is even simpler since you usually know the exact power of the flash or flood lights being used. The manufacturers have worked out simple subject-to-light formulas for their lamps so all you need is a little simple arithmetic to hit the exposure right on the nose. You'll usually find the necessary data printed right on the lamp carton. Or your camera dealer will have

All Citizens Should Keep Towns Clean

"All citizens must cooperate with their neighbors and local authorities if Texas' towns and countryside are to be kept free of unsightly and health-menacing accumulations of garbage and rubbish," warns Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"Since garbage, rubbish and other types of refuse are of no value to the producer, by the same token they are of no value to a neighbor. Everyone is responsible for the waste materials which he produces and is under obligation to collect, store and dispose of these materials in a sanitary manner. The officials of every municipality or other political subdivision encounter the problem of collecting and disposal of waste materials discarded by their residents. "Improper disposal of refuse presents definite hazards to public health for such material create breeding places for rats, flies and other vectors of disease transmission. Odors, smoke and disagreeable appearance are other important considerations.

"The State Health Department and County Health Units are vitally interested in proper storage, collection and disposal of refuse and stand ready to aid towns or individuals in solving the problem. Receptacles for refuse should be of water-tight material with lids that fit. Finally, a serious and difficult problem which individuals and communities must solve according to conditions. Waste materials should never be dumped on the ground, but should be disposed of by burning or by other means. Waste materials should be disposed of by burning or by other means. Waste materials should be disposed of by burning or by other means.

Flanagan-Pierce Rites In Home Wedding

Miss Carol LaRue Flanagan and Kenneth Troy Pierce of Fort Worth were married Saturday, March 25, at 10:00 a.m. in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Flanagan in Mobeetie, by Rev. L. E. White, pastor of the First Baptist Church, in the presence of the immediate family and a few close friends. The double ring ceremony was used.

Tall white baskets of peach gladiolus placed on either side of the entrance to the dining room formed an altar where vows were said. Pink and white sweetpeas were used for decoration in the living room.

Miss Beverly Caldwell, the bride's cousin registered the guests in the Memory Book as they assembled. Pre-nuptial music including "Always", "Because", "Oh, Promise Me" and "Close As The Pages of a Book", was played by Mrs. Sam A. Thomas, Jr.

Weldon Bowman of Austin, a school day friend of the groom served as best man and Sid Talley of Miami was groomsmen.

IT'S A PUT-UP JOB!

This pretty homemaker was snapped by a passing cameraman as the first breath of spring inspired her to get busy at the annual job of putting up canvas awnings on her windows. She absorbs her quota of sunbeams in a brief shorts outfit made of cotton canvas, while she puts up the awnings to protect her home from the sun. She may be a put-up girl here—but she also qualifies as a pin-up!

Mrs. Sid Talley, a girlhood friend of the bride was matron of honor and Mrs. Weldon Bowman was brides matron.

Entering with her father to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," the bride was given by him in marriage. She wore a white linen suit with matching pumps, a sheer pink nylon blouse and a straw-lace picture hat. She carried a white Bible belonging to Miss Caldwell for something borrowed. It was topped by a corsage of pink rose-buds with white satin streamers and attached with a blue satin bow. For something old she carried an embroidered Irish linen handkerchief sent to her grandmother Flanagan by her father from Dublin, Ireland during World War I. For a good luck piece she had an English two-pence in her shoe.

At the coffee following the ceremony Miss Patsy McCauley served the tiered wedding cake with green and yellow decorations, topped by a miniature white wedding bell with maline trimmings, and Miss Shirley McCauley presided at the coffee service. The table was laid with a white embroidered linen cloth, with a centerpiece of yellow rose-buds.

The bride wore away a navy and white ensemble with a short white coat. After a short motor trip the young couple will return to Fort Worth where she is a senior at T.C.U. and Harris College of Nursing and he is employed at the Purina Milling Co. He expects to enter military service within a short time.

Our play will be presented on April 17. Our first rehearsal was the 21st.

Richard, we are all sorry you were sick, but its nice to have you back at school again.

Ruby, next time you bake a cake, use sugar instead of salt. It wasn't very good, was it Mr. Pad-dock?

Margaret, how do you like testing eyes? If it were just high school it wouldn't have been so bad, would it?

Bonita, didn't you know swiping billfolds isn't a good joke any more?

SENIOR NEWS

The seniors want to express their appreciation for all those attending their play. We hope everyone present enjoyed it as much as we did presenting it to you.

We wish to express our appreciation also to those helping us with numerous things. Mr. and Mrs. Knighton spent endless time with us to keep us from acting as if we had never seen the script the night of the play. We thank them very much for their kindness, for we couldn't have made the grade without them.

SET A SMARTLY STYLED BUFFET SUPPER

Plan a handsome and smartly styled buffet supper for easy entertaining. Gay and informal, buffet service is convenient and correct whether it's a small supper for the canasta club or a large anniversary or birthday celebration.

No stern rules of etiquette govern buffet arrangements and the table should be arranged for ease of serving and attractiveness. Add a festive note with a large bouquet of assorted flowers. Place the forks, knives, plates and napkins close together at one end of the table to allow plenty of room for the food. Serve a hot baked casserole as the mainstay of the menu along with sliced meat, salad, beverage, rolls and relishes. Hearty and delicious enough to please even the men is a supper of creamy baked macaroni and mushrooms, sliced tongue, cole slaw, rolls, pickles and tall glasses of cold beer. Serve generous portions of food so guests will feel free to help themselves to seconds and have an ample supply of chilled beer on hand to lend its mally goodness to the supper. Try this delicious casserole both for family meals as well as party suppers.

Macaroni and Mushroom Casserole
8-oz. pkg. elbow macaroni
1/2 lb. yellow cheese
1 1/2 cups milk
1/2 cup thinly sliced onion
1 teaspoon dry mustard
3-oz. can chopped mushrooms
Few grains cayenne

Bring 3 quarts water to rapid boil in large saucepan; add 1 tablespoon salt. Gradually add macaroni, so that water continues to boil. Boil, uncovered, until tender, about 9 to 12 minutes. Drain in colander. Arrange half of cooked macaroni in greased casserole. Top with layer of 1/2 the onions and drained mushrooms. Repeat layers. Blend milk with mustard and cayenne; pour over casserole. Cover; bake in moderate oven (350 F.) 35 minutes. Uncover and bake 10 to 15 minutes longer to brown top. Serves 4 to 6.

FAIR MATCH!

Blonde Sally Forrest, lovely REED movie star, is a fair match for any tennis champion. The attractive young star wears a trim tennis costume of white cotton with easy sleeves, shirtwaist collar, and broad skirt. Glamorous Sally was caught by the cameraman during a day of relaxation after her latest picture.
