CHEST X-RAYS BE TAKEN WEEK OF SEPT. 10

The week of September 10, has been set as the date for the annual chest-X-ray campaign in Wheeler County, according to Sanitarian W. R. Ritter.

Mr. Ritter has received a letter from the Texas State Department of Health stating that Wheeler County has been placed upon the itinerary of one of the mobile X-ray units.

This will be the fourth annual county-wide X-ray campaigns in this county.

Since the State-Line Free Fair will not be held this year, Mr. Ritter said a place more centrally located than the Community Building has been selected for making the X-rays in Shamrock.

The Lewis Mootor Co. building, 300 North Main Street will be the scene of the clinic in Shamrock, Mr. Ritter said.

In Wheeler, the local gymnasium will be used, while the X-rays in Mobeetie will be made at the old Legion Home.

The letter from the State Department of Health, written by Phillip W. Gauss, Jr., supervisor of operations of the Tuberculosis Division, stated:

"Once again we would like to express our appreciation to you for your never ending interest in this program. As in the past, this department will do all within its power in order to assist in this project."

JOHN DEERE DAY TO BE TUESDAY

No less than six brand new movies are on the program for the Annual John Deere Day show to be held for farmers and their families on Tuesday, January 30, at the Rogue Theatre according to Holdeman Implement Co., local John Deere Dealer and sponsor of the affair.

In addition to the big free movie program, Clarence Holdeman, owner of the Holdeman Implement Co., has announced he will serve free coffee and sandwiches at his store on Highway 83 here in Wheeler beginning at 10:00 a.m. on John Deere Day and invites all farmers and their families to visit the showroom at that time.

The feature picture of the day, "One Happy Family", stars Don DeFore and Marjorie Reynolds and is the story of a small-town family and the things that beset them when they win the title of "Family of the Year" in a contest conducted by a national magazine.

"Those who attend this year's John Deere Day," says Mr. Holdeman, "have a real treat in store for them, a day so packed with entertainment for the entire family that they will remember it with pleasure for months to come. Don't miss it! Get your tickets on your next trip to town!"

Nash To Attend Maytag Dealer Meet In Dallas

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nash and members of the sales department of Nash Appliance and Supply including Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Shelton Nash, are traveling to Dallas next week to attend a meeting of more than 700 Texas Maytag appliance dealers.

Fred Maytag, of Newton, Iowa, 40 year old president of The Maytag Company, will attend the meeting and will be the guest speaker at a dinner held Wednesday night. The occasion will also mark the formal dedication of the new $250,000 building of Maytag Southwestern Company of Dallas, distributors in Texas of all Maytag home appliances.

"We're going to discuss the effect of the national emergency on the appliance business with Mr. Maytag himself," Mr. Nash said. "Maytag dealers sold more than five and a half million dollars worth of appliances in Texas last year and we're going to do everything we can to keep up that kind of a record."

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nash and children, Mrs. C. B. Nash and Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Pettit and son, spent the weekend in Duncan, Okla. with relatives.

SCHOOL HEADS ARE CRITICIZED BY NEWSPAPER

The Canadian Record which is published at Canadian came out last week with a double-column front page story and an editorial jumping on Wheeler school officials quite ruthlessly alleging that the Wildcat Cagers were unceremoniously "bounced" out of the Wheeler Invitation Tournament.

As can be ascertained from the following article which was written by Supt. W. O. Carrick, the Canadian "B" team was refused the right to participate in the tourney because Mr. Carrick had asked the Canadian coach not to send a "B" team to the Wheeler Tournament.

Mr. Carrick's article follows: It is with much regret that we note in the Canadian Record of January 18th the attitude being taken by the Canadian School officials and the Editor of the Record, relating to, as they termed it, the "bounce" given their team in the Wheeler Annual Invitation Tournament.

Any action taken by the Tournament Officials was taken in the behalf of the coaches, players and the supporters of these teams that by choice had chosen to come to Wheeler and play in the Tournament.

We felt that very few coaches would want to enter a tournament and play their best boys against someone's second team. In this particular tournament, a number of the schools entered have only enough boys to have one team. We also felt that if these supporters were going to come and pay a good admission price they were entitled to see the best representatives of the school and not their second best.

We had read in the Amarillo Globe News where Canadian was entered in the Starford Tournament which was scheduled for the same weekend as the Wheeler Tournament. It was at a meeting in Canadian on Wednesday, January 10th that Coach Hansard was asked about his intentions and after being unable to determine just what his intentions were, we asked that he not send a second team to the Wheeler Tournament.

No more thought of this until gym Friday morning with the Assistant Coach from Canadian, and these boys were not the same boys we had played at Wheeler before the holidays as the Canadian team, but we did play these same boys, with the exception of one, as a "B" team.

We regret very much the incident having happened, and wish to say we are sorry from the standpoint of the Canadian players and also the parents who accompanied them here. We feel that we made sufficient effort to have prevented it, but undoubtedly due to misunderstanding by Coach Hansard or his disregard of our request we were forced to take the action we took for the betterment of the Tournament.

Our relations with the Canadian School will remain the same as if this incident had not happened, and as the exchange of games, we are willing to continue playing "A" or "B" games AS SCHEDULED AS LONG AS THEY ARE SCHEDULED "A" OR "B" GAMES.

We are of the opinion that there are two sides to any issue (Continued on last page)

Mobeetie Meditations

By Mrs. H. L. Flanagan

Mobeetie grade school youngsters taking part in, and winning the Quizdown against Silverton, at Amarillo last Saturday were: Gary Kent and Aaron Davis fourth grade, Ellen Corcoran and Carroll Whittenburg fifth, Jay Godwin and James Willard Sixth, Laura Lancaster, Tommy Corcoran and E. W. Riley alternates.

Aaron and Gary turned in perfect scores and Ellen a near perfect score, bringing about the defeat of Silverton. Aaron's score ranked among the best for Quizdown of the whole year and Ellen turned in more questions for use on the Quizdown than any other school child in the Amarillo area.

Mobeetie people who accompanied the youngsters included Principal J. A. Neece, Mrs. H. L. Trimble and Mrs. Charlie Seitz teachers, Mr. Seitz and son, Wendell, Mrs. John Kent, Mrs. Willard Godwin and daughter, Maurea, and Tom Stanley Beck.

The Workers Conference of the North Fork Association held at the First Baptist Church last Thursday was well attended with 141 registering from the various churches over the district. The theme of the program for the day was "Evangelism". The local pastor spoke on the "Meaning of Evangelism," and Misses Madge Patterson and Maurea Godwin rendered special music during the morning session. Others appearing on the program during the day were Henry Davidson, Robert Webb, James Todd and A. G. Roberts.

Mrs. John Kent was hostess to the Blue Bonnet Study Club Thursday afternoon. An interesting program on "Education" was enjoyed, with roll call being answered by giving a desired educational improvement, which created much discussion as to local improvements and conditions in general. Mrs. C. J. Van Zandt gave a part on "The Needs of High School Students," and Mrs. Bud C. Scribner on "The Outlook from the Teachers Standpoint." Mrs. H. E. Matthews read the poem, "In School Days," by James Whitcomb Riley. Refreshments were served to the following members: Mesdames C. J. Van Zandt, Bud C. Scribner, H. E. Matthews, E. E. Johnston, John Dunn, Art Carmichael, J. H. Scribner, H. L. Flanagan, H. J. Taylor, Sam A. Thomas, Sr., J. T. Johnston, Sam A. Thomas, Jr., and the hostess, Mrs. Kent.

Mrs. Willard Godwin was the principal speaker at the Good Neighbors Club that met in the Barney Burgess home west of town Tuesday afternoon. She gave an interesting review of the book, "Papa was a Preacher," by Alene Porter, a story of the trials of a minister's family, written with first hand knowledge, as the author is the daughter of a country preacher. Mrs. Godwin was accompanied by Mrs. Tom Beck.

CORRECTION:

Due to a slight mixup in our mechanical department, the advertisement of the Rogue Theatre states that "Kiss Tomorrow Goodbye" starring James Cagney will show at the preview Saturday night, Sunday and Monday and that "Sands of Iwo Jima" starring John Wayne will show next Wednesday and Thursday, January 31 and February 1 which is just the opposite of what it should be.

"Sands of Iwo Jima" is showing at the preview Saturday night, Sunday and Monday and "Kiss Tomorrow Goodbye" is showing next Wednesday and Thursday. "Sands of Iwo Jima" is showing in the place of "Breakthrough" which was originally scheduled for that date.

The 1951 March of Dimes Campaign is now in progress. Through the mediums of newspaper and radio everyone has been made aware of the above fact. Harry Wofford, finance chairman for Wheeler, reports that an intensive drive for funds will be made within the next few days with the hope that this drive can be completed by January 31.

Coin cards have been delivered to the schools for the donations of the school children and it is expected that we will receive a good sum from that source, Wofford reported. However, many more funds will be needed than that which will come in from this source. In order that everyone will have the opportunity to contribute to this worthy cause in the fight against Polio, The American Legion headed by H. W. Coffman, commander, and the American Legion Auxiliary headed by Mrs. H. W. Coffman, president, have assured the responsibility of contacting everyone possible. On Saturday, January 27, members of the local post of the American Legion Auxiliary will, with the assistance of the Girl Scouts, make a contact of the homes and maintain a booth on the street near the First National Bank for the convenience of those that will care to contribute.

The National Foundation does not set a quota for chapters. However, the Wheeler County Chapter has set their goal at $6,000.00 and in order that this goal may be met everyone must give freely of their dimes and dollars. Therefore, when these people who are giving their time approach you for a contribution for this March of Dimes Drive, please be courteous and make your contribution cheerfully.

The money you give might help your child to walk again.

Harry Wofford, Chairman of the Wheeler County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Inc. this week announced the appointment of the following persons as Finance Chairmen in their communities for the 1951 March of Dimes Campaign: Lee Barry, Briscoe; Rena Johnson, Kelton; and Mrs. Ray Brown, Allison.

People in the above communities are requested to make any contribution they might make to the 1951 Campaign to the above named persons.

BEST MEANS ONLY TIDELANDS ISSUE

Justice to Texas and Texans in the tidelands case presents two pressing issues which should be neither confused nor regarded as entirely separate. Texas wants restored to it a time-confirmed ownership title that by every concept of right, law and morality has been taken from it by judicial expropriation. At the same time, production in the disputed submerged areas is of vital importance to everyone concerned.

The Truman administration is in the legal position of having jumped the Texas claim with this highhanded act sustained by final court decision in which the labor and tortured language utilized to evade law and justice proclaims the bias of the men that wrote it. The only protection left Texas rights is the refusal of Congress so far to pass an enabling act under which the Federal Government can profit from its outrageous seizure.

Under any sense of federal justice and integrity, Congress should restore title to the tidelands. Senator O'Mahoney's proposal to give the states a percentage of the revenue from tideland oil recovery is tempting bait to expedite oil operations under federal leases, replacing those of the states. Oil companies can undertake no new drilling until the issue is settled. They regard themselves as innocent victims of the argument, as indeed they may be. They approve the O'Mahoney bill because it will restore operation now. But Texas and Texans must consider the good of the state.

Land Commissioner Bascom Giles is right in predicting that interim agreement can easily set the pattern for final decision. What Texas concedes now might prove permanent. So it is of the utmost importance that Texas agree to nothing that will permanently impair its interests.

Texas does not claim title to the tidelands to the edge of the continental shelf. Texas does maintain that the ownership it brought with it into the Union and of which it can not be justly deprived by any specious phase of a biased Supreme Court extends 10.5 miles from the shore line. Within that area, Texas should have a 100 percent ownership and revenue. So it is obvious as Atty. Gen. Price Daniel and Commissioner Giles are agreed, that even interim agreement should give Texas at least 50 percent of the revenue derived from that source.

GAIN IN HOME OWNERS

Since 1940 the number of home-owning American families has nearly doubled. That is one of the most hopeful signs of the last decade. The man who owns his home doesn't want to rock the boat. He doesn't go chasing after political gadflies. He favors stability in government and in the economic system.

With home owners now more numerous than tenants, demagogues who want to upset appreciators may have more trouble in finding followers. The present national emergency has put a damper on home building, but this is not likely to be more than temporary. Freedom-loving Americans want homes of their own, no matter how small or how mortgaged. They will begin building again as soon as the skies are cleared of the present war clouds.—Dallas News

The Veterans Administration Hospital in Big Springs has issued an urgent appeal for more doctors and nurses.

Dr. L. B. Andrew, manager of the recently activated V-A hospital, said that he plans to open an additional ward as soon as enough professional personnel can be obtained.

The installation was designed for 250-bed hospital but is not operating at full capacity. Dr. Andrew said, because of a shortage of doctors and registered nurses.

Nurses' salaries range from $3,400 to 5,400 per year depending upon experience, education, and training, he said. Doctors' salaries also vary with qualifications.

Application forms are available at any major V-A installation. Dr. Andrew said, and completed application forms should be sent direct to the Big Springs V-A hospital.

Wonder if they call marriage an institution because you have to be crazy to enter?

SENIOR PLAY NEWS

Quite some time ago the senior class ordered a Mystery Play entitled "Tiger House" for the annual senior play. The books have now arrived, the cast selected, and preparations are well underway to make this an entertainment feature long to be remembered. Our plans now are to present the play Friday night, March 2. In the meantime the seniors will be selling tickets on a toastmaster as a future means of raising funds.

JUNIOR NEWS

The juniors have charge of the assembly program Friday afternoon. For our music of the afternoon we are going to have a four-piece band consisting of Buddy Wilson, Jane Ann Zybach, Imogene Pannell, and Thomas Roy Helton. In addition to this, we are featuring S. W. Dougherty, Tolene Parker, Van Maxwell, and Douglas Robertson in a one act play.

GOSSIP

S. W., who is the fair lady you have been seeing at Wheeler? Tooter, when did you start going with girls at Canadian? You should publish an information bulletin. Buddy, have you recently started liking a senior lassie? Tolene, how are the boys from Allison? Douglas, why do all the girls at Canadian seem to know you? Imogene, who brought you home Saturday night?

SOPHOMORE NEWS

We are very proud of Lucy Barnett for winning a silver basketball at the Canadian Tournament. Patsy went to Miami to the dentist Friday. It didn't hurt, because Tommy took her. The Homemaking girls are ready to make their dresses.

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

This question is asked, "Will the government's action taking over purchase of all rubber result in tire rationing?"

From the facts on record, there should be no tire rationing. This current government action should avert such a move, provided the government acted in time to stop the situation.

In World War II the tire shortage almost brought all production to a stop. Workers, suppliers were unable to move. Here are some of the facts that caused the government to act:

Tire stocks, all kinds, on Oct. 30, 1950, were estimated at 4.4 million units, compared to 10.9 million units at time of Pearl Harbor. In December 1949, U. S. production of synthetic rubber was 3,000 tons annually. In October 1950, synthetic rubber production was 45,000 tons. In June 1951, it is hoped to produce 65,000 tons. In October 1950 total rubber consumption was already up to 112,538 tons per month.

Here's the 504 question around Washington. During World War II synthetic rubber production was high. Yet by October 1950, synthetic consumption outstripped production. What happened in five years?

Sincere government career men fought to build up synthetic production; were sniped at by the big American, British and Dutch factors that have a monopoly on natural rubber.

The motive for monopoly opposition? National Federation of Independent Business.

ation to continuing synthetic production has now become clear.

In June 1950, just before Korea, crude rubber was 28.6c per pound. By October it was 78.1c.

This runs into important money. For example, one of the "Big Three" in American rubber operating plantations reveals it is now producing 61 million pounds annually in Liberia. Thus the virtual tripling of price means another $32 million yearly to this corporation.

So here's the way needless tire rationing can be avoided:

Everybody who depends on automotive transportation, in business or on the job, should demand their Congressmen make a full investigation; rush production of synthetic rubber. The result would be some scandals, but far fewer pedestrians.

The move to end or curtail the Marshall Plan is gaining impetus in Washington. Paradoxically, government hired press agents for the Marshall Plan are doing a great deal in this direction by disclosing what is going on.

For example, ECA Bulletin 1963 reveals that, although copper is supposedly critically short, over a million dollars worth was given to Holland this month.

And at a time when more taxes are asked for defense, the same bulletin covers this item:

French North Africa has just been given $200,000 worth of tobacco.

These reports are the basis for a new slogan around Washington paraphrasing a Churchill wartime speech:

"Never before have so few given so much to so many."

We've gotten our patterns and material.

Bobby, what color was your face when you got the team's sportsmanship trophy? (Purple?)

Pete, what did you say a pentagon was? We didn't know either. Mary, why do people keep asking you the same question every day?

Maureta, did you have fun Tuesday night and Sunday afternoon? Nice going.

Patsy and Tommy, Jayne Ann and Bobby, and Mary and Carol were together Wednesday night.

W. L., does your girl friend have soft hands? Pete, what is this we hear about this Mexican girl?

Cleavene, when was the last time you saw that Allison guy? Tommy went to Amarillo last week, visiting his mother.

Juanell, where did you get the pink eye? We are glad you are well.

Lucy and Maureta, why did you want to stay for Samnorwood's boys game?

BOYS SPORTS NEWS

HAVE YOU MADE YOUR CONTRIBUTION TO THE MARCH OF DIMES

ARE SOON
New Case

was the Case "NCM" Slicer introduced about ten years ago that revolutionized the method of making superior hay.

Harold Nash of Nash Appliance and supply pointed out this week. Prior to the introduction of that machine farmers had visualized the opportunity, presented by the new machine and the Case System of Making High Quality Hay, to "package" their own hay when it was in the best possible condition, thereby preserving its maximum food value at a minimum of cost. Thousands of "NCM" Slicer Balers have been made and used to provide the advantages of "packaged pasture" to hay growers everywhere. Furthermore, no better method than the Case System has been developed for making high quality hay.

From time to time we have received inquiries and requests for self tying balers, Mr. Nash, local Case dealer, pointed out. Throughout this period we have consistently maintained that, whenever an automatic tying device comparable to the "NCM" Baler in simplicity and superior performance was developed, we would build it. This has now been accomplished. In the new Case "NCM-T" Baler will be found all the advantages of the famous Case "NCM" Slicer Pick-Up Baler, plus a simple, dependable, self-tying device.

Mr. Nash pointed out some of the outstanding features of the new machine as being the following:

1. Bales are Sliced, Ventilated and Tied—To Stay Tied.
2. Makes Firm, Neat, Full-

Weight Bales.
3. Baler Simplicity Boosts Capacity, Holds Down Labor Costs.
4. Improves Hay Quality by Faster Baling.

Dyer-Barker Vows Are Exchanged At Wheeler

Miss Edna Mae Dyer, niece of Miss Annie Risner of Allison, and James Barker, son of Mrs. Emma Barker of Samnorwood were united in marriage at the Methodist Church in Wheeler Sunday, January 14, with Rev. D. L. Egger, pastor, officiating.

The bride was attired in a street length dress of light blue brocaded satin with black accessories.

Mrs. Barker graduated from Allison high school with the class of '48 and has been employed at the Hobart Risner Cafe there since her graduation. The groom attended school at Childress and served three years in the Navy. The couple will make their home at Samnorwood where he is engaged in farming.

Those attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Risner of Shamrock, Mr. and Mrs. James Hall and Miss Annie Risner of Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dorman of Wheeler and Miss Helen Marie Marshall of Allison. Funny world: A man won't kiss his wife for years; yet he'll shoot the first man who does.

Everyone loves a circus—but it takes a lot of performers and a lot of good acts to make the big show a success. That's the way it is in the natural gas business, too. We of United Gas have thousands of employees performing hundreds of acts every day in the production, transmission and distribution of natural gas. The result—dependable natural gas service for some 400 cities and towns and more than 2,000 industries, many of which are being called upon to help strengthen the defense of free nations against aggression. This is our biggest act of all—the delivery of adequate, dependable supplies of natural gas to those industries.

HEALTH DEPT. MAKES PLANS FOR DEFENSE

It is hoped that we may achieve orderly thinking and make concrete suggestions for use by local and state committees in planning the medical phase of civil defense and disaster relief in the very near future, said Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer and State Medical Defense Director.

No community can prepare itself to provide these additional health services that will be essential for civilians subjected to disaster, without a great deal of forethought, prolonged training and development of systematic performances, drills, tests, etc. When the average community prepares itself for disaster, the effort of each citizen and every profession must be fitted into a coordinated system.

There is no easy way to prepare for disaster, it is all hard work. There are two opinions as to local disaster planning. One maintains that no local planning should be done until the central agency prescribes a uniform pattern for each locality. Such a regimented approach would result in a speedy realization of the desired total readiness. Certain elements of local plans would depend upon such a system if mutual support between communities are to be achieved with a maximum of economy and efficiency. Such a system is the only one likely to survive national disaster.

A second group maintains that each community should proceed immediately with its own preparations for meeting disaster. Such a plan would not interfere with a national program. Each team can lay the necessary ground work on plans and at the same time, improve its own and others' readiness to meet any problems that may require community participation. Above all, much time and effort can be saved because such planning will be required with or without a universal national pattern.

MR. AND MRS. W. A. FINSTERWALD AND JACK

Finsterwalds Builds Safety In New Farm Home

By Katharine Randall
Jack Finsterwald disproved the adage "Jack of all trades and master of none."

You would agree, could you see the beautiful home Jack built. Of course his dad and mother, the W. A. Finsterwalds, helped. The only outside labor was for kitchen cabinets and hall closet.

The Finsterwald's house burned to the ground two years ago. "Everything was lost except this little vase," said Mrs. Finsterwald, pointing to a what-not shelf.

At the time of the fire, son Jack was a freshman at West Texas Teacher's college, Canyon. He was studying general building trades, and getting some practical experience building a teacher's house with his class.

Immediately after the fire he started talking building plans with his mother and dad. Together they studied plans in every magazine and lumberyard pamphlet.

One of Jack's classmates who was studying architecture drew their blueprints. "It was a good thing to have them," advised Jack, "for we studied them carefully as we went along and avoided costly mistakes."

Immediately after the fire the neighbors came over to help build a garage for the Finsterwalds to move into. This was home base while they built the new house and made their crops.

They have wheat and row crops on their two sections, 700 hens, 60 Herefords and a few Jerseys for home supply.

They built on the old site which was conveniently located in relation to the barns and the road. Pipes and plumbing were already there.

There's little danger of a similar tragedy, for the new stucco house is completely insulated—walls and ceiling—with fire-proof spun glass. Jack must have studied his plumbing and wiring lessons well, for he installed all the pipes for gas and water and did all the wiring.

"See," proudly explained Mrs. Finsterwald, "Jack has three-way switches at each location. And they're all so handy. Some of them turn on floor and table lamps too."

Mrs. Finsterwald shared in the work whenever possible.

She certainly won her laurels in interior decorating. Beauty of the blonde woodwork is enhanced by the grey and coral wreath pattern paper in the living room, rose-beige chair and davenport, and soft blue drapery which can be pulled across the picture window.

Mr. and Mrs. Finsterwald have pink rose pattern paper and modern blonde furniture in their bedroom.

Jack's room has blue paper with dilly-of-the-valley print. The masculine-type furniture in here is blonde "tobacco oak." On the wall is a copper plaque which his mother made.

Third bedroom has soft grey floral stripe paper with yellow roses, yellow curtains, mahogany furniture.

"This is for my daughter and her husband, John Vise, when they stay over night," said Mrs. Finsterwald.

Each bedroom has a generous closet with shelves and built-ins. And there's a double closet in the hall for wardrobe and extra storage.

As Home Demonstration Agent Emma Hastings and I entered the kitchen, Mrs. Finsterwald beamed. "This is my room. I really like it—it's so convenient."

She added, "I owe much to Mrs. Hastings for the details. She helped me plan them."

And she proudly pointed out divided drawers, horizontal dividers for platters and trays, step-shelves, sliding towel rack, cabinet for glasses and china near dining room.

In the kitchen is a large refrigerator with frozen foods compartment—a double-oven range, fluorescent lights over sink and range, in addition to the central ceiling fixture.

Cabinets are natural wood. Work surface of cabinets are covered with dark red rubber sheeting edged with chrome. Lower wall is covered with white enameled tile board. Upper wall has colorful Dutch paper—light grey background with royal blue and red birds and hearts. Walls and ceiling are treated to prevent spotting.

Another kitchen door opens into the utility room. "That was Jack's idea," explained his mother, looking pleased with her son's foresight.

"He wanted a place to wash when he comes from the fields. And a closet for guns and fishing paraphernalia. Dad likes it too."

"This beautiful, comfortable home houses a deserving family. 'They're good neighbors and good citizens,'" said Home Agent Hastings.

"The entire family is active in the Briscoe church. Mrs. Finsterwald is a good Home Demonstration Club member and Jack was a member of 4-H and FFA during school days."

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Right Under Our Nose!

Sometime back, we got word from the Governor, asking if we wanted to use the State Fire Inspection Team—a group of experts they send around to communities to inspect public buildings.

We sent a letter saying: "Okay! Give us the once-over!" They came down, all right—last week.

After the inspection, we got their report. Came out pretty well, all told. Town Hall and the School were O.K. Post Office just needed more sandbuckets. In fact, everything got a clean bill of health, except—the Fire Station!

From where I sit, we volunteer firemen had just been too busy keeping everyone else on the ball—and not realizing our own firehouse was not up to snuff. Like the man who worries so much about his neighbors—about whether they work hard enough, about whether they can really afford their new car, about their enjoying a temperate glass of beer—that he forgets to take a good critical look at himself now and then.
