MUSTANG BAND EARNS FIRST IN STATE IN 1-A

By Louis C. Stas

CONGRATULATIONS! Mustang Band, Lady Golfers and Smith Brothers. You represented Wheeler very well at State.

Remember the band concert tonight, Thursday, May 19. The best 1-A band in the state will be on stage. Also performing will be the elementary and junior high bands. See you there.

Band Director, Manuel Martinez, commented at the Band Banquet Monday night that he was very proud of the band. The group competed against 'A', 'AA' and 'AAA' bands and brought home the highest score awarded a 1-A school. With three judges, the score was two 1's and a 2, which gave the band a 1. The students have a "desire to win", stated the band director.

in't It The Truth By Ab Gunter

By Ab Gunter

I got to thinking about a friend in Amarillo, George Autery that had the Russell Stationers. He was a very nice person and one day I was visiting withhim and Uncle Wes Issard the Editor of the Daily. They were trying to talk me into writing a book with all the marlarky I put out, the funny part is I told them I wasn't a book riter, just a durn fool spoutin off. They had agreed to even pay for the publishing of it but I got to thinking that maybe I should have and by now got all that melarkie out of my system. I got a book that George had written "Much Obliged" that George's son King had sent me after George passed away. I treasure it, I only have a few things that Uncle Wes put on type but he was a dandy. Wonder where fellers like those two are in our present society. I wouldn't give you a penny for the Amarillo Daily these days, all junk that they copied from someone else. Where are these Amon Carters of the Star Telegram, the Frank X Tolberts of the Dallas Times, trhe Wes Izzards of The Daily. Maybe too lazy er don't give a durn, I don't know but seems like we got a better view of the surrounding country by a few words from Wes. I have even asked the Dailys Big Birds why there is no Tackless Texas er A to Izzard and they said that times have changed, maybe they have but people ain't, least not that much, we still like to see our name in print. I enjoyed Bob Izzard as a News Analyist, I think he was one of the best in the Panhandle and there was Cotton John and his show and the Little Weather Reporter that had to stand on a box, and then Honest Jess with his wit and wisdom.

Clark and Marita Bumpers a little closer to home on the radio, they worked so hard and entertained so many folks with the news and music. You could keep up with things that were happening and still do the ironing and house cleaning er whatever you were doing listiening to the Bumpers program.

What's that you say Mr. Stas, no I ain't fergetting you and that Black headed Irishman there at the Texan and Ben Ezell at Canadian, thank goodness for your small town papers that is where the news really begins, there at home. I member one time Ben got in a squabble with one of his biggest advertisers and didn't back down when the advertiser said he would quit advertising. They finally got back to being friends but Ben stuck by his guns.

Better hush for now. Hello to Sally Harris and Laura and the other Ladies that contribute to the Times...

Love to all, Ab and Benita

OH, MY ACHING BACK

If you're like a lot of people, you may have occasional or persistent back pain and wonder what caused it. You try to think of some incident in which you may have strained your back, and come up with nothing. But there must be some reason why you have back pains. The truth is that even the simplest of incidents may be the cause, such as reaching high on a shelf to get something. Or stooping suddenly to pick up something that has fallen. Or maybe you need some tips on good posture.

Whatever the cause, the problem may be that your spinal column is out of alignment...No pain-killing drug can cure the CAUSE. It can dull the pain of awhile and give you temporary relief. But if your back is out of alignment, the pain will probably not go away unless you get the treatment you need. No symptom can be more depressing than persistent back pain. Don't delay treatment when help is readily

Chamber of Commerce Has Called Meeting

The Wheeler Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday for lunch at Sparlin's Restaurant on Tuesday. The subjects of discussion were the recent consignment auction, the park "Shelter" and the fast approaching 4th of July Celebration.

The Chamber did quite well with the consignment auction, considering the number of people in attendance. The organization greatly appreciated the cooperation and donations for the event. The consignment auction is held bi-annually in the spring.

PARK "SHELTER"

The "Shelter" committee reported work is to begin the first of the month on the "Shelter". The building will be located in the southeast corner of the park, across the creek and next to the ball park. The 40x70 structure will be constructed of steel "I" beams and covered with metal. The funds available will pay for the materials for the shelter, but additional funds are needed for the walk and the bridge for easy access to the structure.

When completed, use of the "Shelter" will be handled through the City Office. A schedule of reservations on a "first come, first serve" will be kept.

Contributions to the "Shelter" fund can be mailed to the First National Bank in Wheeler, Box 1040, Wheeler, Texas 79096.

We had a change in plans. This was scheduled to have been the "Graduation Edition", but that was before the band took state honors. The area seniors will be honored next week, the week of graduation.

The band banquet was very enjoyable. Eddie Hughes made his debute as the Master of Ceremonies and did an excellent job. The meal was catered by Maxey's Steakhouse; it was delicious. The Band Boosters are to be complimented for a successful event.

Harold Dodson brought by some pictures from the "Bass Tournament" sponsored by the local Lion's Club and the "Perch Rodeo" sponsored by the scout camp. We have not lost the pictures and ask permission to hold them until another edition.

It took two years or more, but I finally have a name for the individuals seen at the airport in Amarillo. Faces, I can remember, but names escape me. On one of our trips a while back, we met Mamie and Eldon Walser as they were returning from a trip also and I recognized them as being from this area and tried to tie them the Mobeetie. They live 15 miles south and 1/4 west of Canadian.

Personal Dynamics "The Goal Achievers"

PERSONAL DYNAMICS of Amarillo will be offering "Adventures in Growth" (for ages 8-12) and "The Making of a Champion" (for ages 13-18) in Wheeler this summer. These unique programs are a fun way of helping children develop a personally satisfying and productive lifestyle. The convenient format encourages the entire family to participate.

To introduce these programs to the community, an open house will be held on Friday, May 20, at 5:30 p.m. at the Wheeler School cafeteria.

TEXAS BEEF COOK-OFF WINNERS NAMED

Lines From Linda A not-your-regular contestant named her recipe Not-Your-Regular Brisket and came up with the winner of the 1988 Texas Beef Cook-Off.

Her fork-tender brisket, simmered in brown sugar sweetened soy sauce laced with apple slices and raisins, earned Dr. Miriam M Kaye, an Austin psychiatrist, $500 and a trip to Jackson, Mississippi, where $32,000 will go to winners in the National Beef Cook-Off to be held September 20-22.

Second place in the 11th annual state contest sponsored by the Texas Cattle-Women was Joel Allard of San Antonio, with Beef Loaf Florentine, a ground round steak loaf with a spinach and cheese filling. His prize XI Upsilon Eta was $300 in beef gift certificates.

Gini Bouzard of San Antonio placed May Meeting third and was awarded $100 in beef gift certificates for Indian Beef Curry Festival using cubed round steak cooked with zucchini, green pepper, raisins and pineapple and served with topping choices of bananas, green onions, peanuts, chutney, coconut and hot chili sauce.

Honorable mention and $50 beef gift certificates were awarded to Gayle Evans of Dallas for Tenderloin Tip Salad with Raspberry Vinaigrette and Kathleen Setiz of Pasadena for Filet of following year. Beef Bohemian.

time to enter a recipe competition. And she may be the first contestant ever to have spent five years in a reform school.

She tantalizes with this information Three members were absent. before explaining that it was her first five years and that it was because hr her father was resident medical director at a New Jersey reform school. Her medical training was at the University of Pennsylvania and the New York Psychoanalytic Institute Wednedsday in the home of Eula in New York City. She has been in practice 24 years and has lived in Austin since 1974.

During the last 20 years, while practicing medicine and mothering two sons, one now a medical student and the other a business school graduate, she has found time to cook at least one or two briskets a month and maybe a ton of pot roasts.

Practice made perfect. The judges agreed her dish made the best use of the chosen cut of beef, that it was cooked to just the right degree of doneness and she managed a happy marriage of the beef with the support- In Singles Tennis Meet ing ingredients.

All five of the final recipes were well within the guidelines of the American Heart Association for a healthy diet: relatively low in calories, sodium, fat, and cholesterol and high in protein, iron and other minerals.

So what made Dr. Kaye's recipe the winner and what tips can an aspiring beef cook glean from eavesdropping on the judges?

First, and maybe foremost, don't overcook the meat. Tenderloin, for example should still boast a bit of pink. Overcooking tends to toughen.

Keep the recipe relatively short. Too many ingredients and complicated preparation discourage a prospective cook and dismay contest judges.

Preparation shouldn't take longer than today's busy cook is willing to spend. Cooking time is less important if it frees the cook while a great dish gets itself ready for the table.

Beef should dominate the finished dish. Don't let other ingredients overwhelm the meat.

Season judiciously. Underseasoning makes for a bland and boring dish. Overseasoning jars the taste buds. Garnish with a light touch. It's a good idea to use an ingredient that's been cooked in the dish in its fresh form as a garnish. And remember that a little bit of parsley goes a long way.

Judges were Jacquelyn Brown, editorial assistant for Southern Living Magazine in Austin; Lionel Chambers, editor of Texas Cattleman Magazine; Kitty Crider, food editor of the Austin American-Statesman; Karen Haram, food editor of the San Antonio Express-News, and Sue Sims of San Angelo, gourmet cooking teacher and food consultant.
