NEWS FROM— County Agent's Office

By E. D. Slegmund and Robert Ledbetter

The assistant county agent and C. J. Van Zandt of Mobettie were at Samnorwood last Saturday attending the first boys livestock show put on in Samnorwood. Mr. Van Zandt, former county agent and vocational agriculture teacher, judged the show. The show was very successful and a compliment to the boys leaders of that community.

The heaviest pig farrowing season for this county is just about over and this brings up the problem of stomach worms in pigs. Hog stomach worms are expensive to feed, and besides this, they slow the growth of pigs to large extent. Sodium fluoride at the rate of one teaspoon per pound of feed is the cheapest and best way to rid hogs of the worms. Care should be taken as sodium fluoride is a strong poison and excessive dosage will cause death. Wormed hogs should be moved to clean ground to prevent reinfestation. If they are not moved, it may be necessary to treat them again at a period of two weeks.

With cotton planting time right on us, it is time to remember that the cotton seed should be treated before it is put into the ground. Good seed is too scarce this year to take any chances on not getting a stand the first time it is planted. Ceresan gives excellent results and on fuzzy seed the treatment should be 9 ounces per 100 pounds of seed of the 2 percent and 4 1/2 ounce per 100 pounds of seed of cesran M. On mechanically and acid delinted seed the recommended dosage is different so be sure to follow the directions on the container. Most time the delinted seed are treated at the time of delinting.

Mrs. Porter To Lead Fellowship Discussion

Mrs. J. M. Porter will lead the adult group of the Evening Fellowship Sunday night at the Methodist Church. Her subject will be "The Organization of the Methodist Church". There will be charts and diagrams showing the government of the entire church from the local church to the General Conference. Such questions as these will be answered: How does a Bishop in the Methodist Church get his office? Why have a District Superintendent? How are local pastors given their appointments?

The young people will meet with Mrs. Darris Egger, and the children will meet with Mrs. Lyndon Sims, Mrs. Luther Parks and Mrs. Al Thomas. The time is 7:15 Sunday night. The pastor also announced that due to the Baccalaureate services Sunday morning that there would be no morning worship but he urges all to attend Sunday School as it will be dismissed in plenty of time to get to the high school for the services.

C. F. Hubbard Serving Aboard USS Leo

Charles F. Hubbard, seaman, USN, of Wheeler, is serving aboard the Navy's attack cargo ship USS Leo, attached to Service Squadron 3, which is supplying United Nations warships in the Far East.

Attack cargo ships were converted from merchant vessels at the beginning of World War II and were equipped to carry combat cargo at high speeds. Booms were added which made possible the carrying of landing craft for amphibious assaults. To outfit their complete battle effectiveness, special fire mains and firefighting equipment were designed for the ships and radio and radar equipment was put aboard.

DEVELOPS THROUGH AGES

While we do not know as much as we would like to know about the early history of the human race, it is apparent that somewhere, sometime, the tribes of the pre-which led to the cultivation of the soil and historic ages developed a primitive plow, made it possible for men to live in permanent, populous communities.

Agriculture has made tremendous strides since the first man fashioned a plow from some forked tree. It is a long way from this tree-type of plow, which is pictured on Egyptian monuments, to the modern plow used in this country. We must remember that in some backward areas of the world, the tilling of the soil continues in primitive fashion.

Even in the most advanced countries, where civilization has developed, its full benefits have been slow to reach the tillers of the soil. Thus naturally resulted from isolation but countries with good roads, telephones, radios and newspapers, exhibit an accelerated progress in agriculture.

Because modern agricultural machinery costs money, it is possible for the average farmer, in many instances, to take advantage of the developments of science. It is necessary for farmers to foster mutual cooperation and, through farm organizations, to make available to all members the use of the best and most modern machines.

Another development in modern agriculture is the appearance of the specialist. This often occurs when some individual purchases modern farm machinery and makes it available to other farmers, either by rental or by undertaking a specific task for a specified amount. This practice should be encouraged wherever necessary to make modern machinery available to the farmers of any community.

ELECTRONS TO PRESERVE FOODS

Just about the time everybody has, or wants to buy, a deep freeze along comes the news that a short-burst of high-speed electrons, shot through meat, fish, fruits and vegetables, will keep them, without refrigeration, for years without change of appearance or loss of essential nutrients.

This piece of information comes from the N. Y. Journal of Commerce, which says that the foods will keep indefinitely without changing their taste, odor or appearance. So what? Well, it seems that one needs a machine, called a capacitor, to do the work. How much does one cost? We do not know but probably a lot more than a deep freezer.

Nature is grand until the weeds begin to grow.

The only trouble with the jury system is the jurors.

Advertising is most expensive to those who neglect it.

The only trouble with getting ahead in life is staying ahead.

 Gene, are you going to Arkansas this summer, or are those boys still teasing you?
 Billy, do you have all your poetry in?

APPROPRIATIONS BILLS: The economy knife of this Congress is still sharp and there is no let up in the severe cuts in the appropriations bills. Most of the committees have been economy minded and have made sizable cuts in the appropriations bills before presenting them to the House. However this has not fully satisfied the membership and further cuts are being made on almost all of the matters not directly connected with defense. For instance, the Independent Offices Appropriations Bill as reported by the Committee on Appropriations was 666 million dollars less than the budget estimate. Further reductions were effected by rescission of contract authorization for public works advance planning, rescission of uncommitted authorization to make loans for prefabricated housing, and reduction in loans in public housing; the total further reduction amounting to approximately $747 million. This Congress is not only looking to the big reductions, but is fully aware of many small items that can be cut from these appropriations bills. For instance, $85,000 was taken away from the Atomic Energy Commission. This had been earmarked for building a dog and cat hospital. $114,000 was taken from the appropriation for preliminary work on flood control surveys; $245,000 from salaries and expenses of the Federal Trade Commission; $575,000 from salaries and expenses of the Federal Communications Commission; $1,426,000 from expenses of the General Service Administration; $500,000 from general expenses of the Interstate Commerce Commission; $1,050,000 from salaries and expenses of the Civil Service Commission. An amendment was also placed on this bill that would prohibit the use of the funds by any of the departments for publicity or propaganda purposes designed to support or defeat legislation pending before the Congress. Prior to consideration of the Independent Offices Appropriations Bill the Congress had made other cuts that bring the total savings to date to approximately one billion dollars. At the rate we are now going there should be a reduction in the overall budget estimates of between eight and nine billion dollars. I do not want to overburden you with this type of information, but it is most important and certainly of interest to every American citizen. Many of the cuts in these appropriations are long overdue.

PRICE CEILINGS: The price ceiling orders continue to confuse the public and create burdens that the people are going to resent. Many of the small merchants have found it impossible to provide the information required by some of these orders. It seems that many of the bureaucrats think that the average business man has nothing to do but fill out forms and provide information for government employees to tabulate. Apparently it has never occurred to these bureaucrats that the business men must devote some of their time to making a living and trying to keep their doors open. Many of the members have told me that they realize now that the powers created for stabilizing the economy were too far-reaching in many instances and that there must be some limitations put on them. My reason for talking to many of the members about this is because I wanted to find out firsthand just exactly what was happening at the time those powers were created. The ceiling price regulations on beef are not going to help the housewife. The only people that I can see who will be helped by this order are the packers, or the so-called middlemen. The roll-back on the producer eventually is going to amount to approximately 27 percent, and any person in the cattle business knows that a man cannot stay in business and suffer such a setback as that. An additional damage that is most important is the fact that much of the beef will be slaughtered before it has attained its full weight, and the result will be that the surplus in beef that has been built up in this country and continuing to be built up, will be dangerously reduced and this reduction will be felt within a short time. The result will be that the shortages will create a much higher demand and the possibilities of an uncontrolled black market will certainly be great.

Announcing our appointment as Dealer for FERTILENE LIQUID FERTILIZER

We are proud to make this announcement in the interest of our customers who are always looking to us for better methods of improving their yields. We are convinced that with the use of the new liquid fertilizer FERTILENE you might increase your production from 10 to 300 per cent.

Recent scientific tests by university experiment stations and farmers show evidence of marked increases in small grain yields when seed grain is treated with liquid fertilizer before planting.

Fertylene liquid fertilizer is a highly concentrated compound made of the finest raw materials needed for plant growth. It is a "super-charged" solution containing 7% Nitrogen, 14% Phosphorus, 7% Potash, plus trace elements of Boron, Magnesium, Manganese, Zinc, Calcium and Iron.

Tests Suggest That Phosphate Soaked Into Seed Is "60 TIMES MORE EFFICIENT" Than When Applied To Soil In The Regular Way

By applying Fertylene to your seed grain, you add a great deal of nourishment—ready for the seed to use immediately after germination. This helps develop better root structure and top growth in the early stages. It makes possible an impressive increase in your yield. Fertylene is not a cure-all. But where either the soil or the seed is deficient in elements necessary for growth building, the results have been outstanding.

COSTS LESS THAN 60¢ PER ACRE

One gallon of Fertylene is diluted with 1/2 gallon of water. It will treat 12 bushels of wheat, oats, rye or barley seed. The cost is generally less than 60¢ an acre.

EASY TO USE—NO SPECIAL EQUIPMENT

It is easy to apply Fertylene. Just sprinkle over your seed grain, mix thoroughly on barn floor, tarpaulin or in cement mixer, and allow to dry before planting. Treated seed runs freely through the drill. Fertylene is safe from freezing to 40° below zero.

WHEAT GROWER SAYS:

About your fertilizer, have noticed that the wheat came up faster and grows faster than the unfertilized. And also the best stand I believe I ever had so far. For example, my neighbor planted 80 acres and used the fertilizer and it came right up and kept growing. And in the center he ran out of fertilizer, so he went ahead and planted without the fertilizer. It took that wheat (unfertilized) about a month to come up to where it looked like any stand at all, and very slow growing. My, what a difference!—G. Gages, Tergarden, Okla.

LANGDON, NORTH DAKOTA, EXPERIMENT STATION

Superintendent, Victor Sturlaugson, says: "Recent tests showed a 41.7 bu. per acre wheat yield with application of liquid fertilizer to the seed and 39 bu. per acre from untreated seed—an increase of 2.7 bushels per acre."

Quick-Frozen Orange Juice Concentrate Adds to Happy Birthday Refreshments

With a puff and blow the candles are out, and then the real party begins. It's somebody's birthday, and it's time for refreshments.

It isn't just the food that makes refreshments so important to children. It's the snapping crackers and the candlelight, the paper caps and the favors that all go to build up a feeling of party. And the refreshments help, of course!

Orange juice, sparkling cold and flavorful, is sure to bring requests for more when you serve it at a party. And if you serve the quick-frozen kind, it means only the flip of a can opener, the addition of water, brisk stirring or shaking, and the lovely golden drink is ready. It's a thrifty treat, too, so you can be generous in granting seconds and then thirds without worrying about an upset food budget. And it's certainly one of the healthiest drinks, safe as safe for children.

Cake, of course, is part of the birthday entertainment tradition. That's easy, too, if you make it with a mix. Frost it lavishly and decorate it with pretty candies—bright red or pale pink, blue or green. There are all sorts of amusing candleholders: flowers and small animals, plastic numerals and birds.

Remember, whether you're preparing orange juice for breakfast or a party, that it must be thoroughly stirred or, better still, shaken, to restore the air removed when it was concentrated just before quick-freezing. The compact, six-ounce cans of orange juice concentrate, stored in the freezing compartment of the refrigerator, are relitified with three cans of cold water. It takes only a few seconds to open a can, mix the contents with three cans of water, and shake enough to restore the air.

Barbara, we think your part on the radio was cute.
 Everybody surely is having to write a lot of themes in English class. Aren't they Nep, Ines and Mearlene?

Patricia, did Walter tell you to ask Barbara for a date when he called you Friday?
 Wendell, where were you Friday? Aunt Elsie was looking for you.

SPORTS NEWS

The Mobeetie boys played Panhandle Thursday afternoon. They were defeated by a score of 5 to 1. We play them at Panhandle

Monday. If Mobeetie wins that one, the other game will be played Tuesday, probably at Pampa.

2nd Temperance Theme Presented

TEMPERANCE IN THE TRUE SENSE
 (By Neil McQueen)

Webster states temperance is habitual moderation in the indulgence of appetites and passions and is used loosely to mean abstaining from the use of liquors. Did you ever think of temperance in this sense that every thing you do in life might be done in a temperate way? Do you not eat too much or drink too heavily? Do you not smoke too much or spend more money for some things than you should? Do you not work too much or too little? Are we not intemperate? It is indeed a rare individual who does not fall in some of these.

Smoking has become quite a fad in this 20th century. It is bad enough for grown men to smoke for even they cannot do so without sustaining injury. But the boy who becomes addicted to cigarettes is injured to a much greater extent. During the years before full physical and mental maturity has arrived, the poisons of tobacco do irreparable damage. They dull the mind and stunt the growth of boys and girls. Thomas Edison once said, "I would rather see a boy with a revolver than a cigarette. I employ no person who smokes." One noted doctor thinks that if there was an instrument to measure tobacco damage, the non-smoker would be 15 percent more efficient than the smoker.

As for athletes here is the advice of Walter Johnson, one of America's best baseball pitchers! "I strongly advise any boy who hopes to become an athlete to let cigarettes alone." It is an established fact that tobacco is more harmful to women than to men.

Because of their more delicate nervous mechanism, women become more adept slaves to cigarettes than do men. This country spends three billion dollars annually on tobacco. What is your

KITCHEN MEMO
 BY JEAN CLARE

IF Friday is fishday in your house and plain old fish gets a little boring, try Broiled Filets with Cheese. Brush 4 fish filets with 2 tbsps. melted butter or margarine. Broil until flaky—about 10 mins. Combine 2 tbsps. melted butter or margarine, 1/2 cup tomato puree, 1/2 tsp. salt, dash pepper, 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce. Cook over low simmer flame until heated. Put broiled fish in oven dish, pour sauce over it. Sprinkle 1/4 cup minced onion, 1/2 cup grated cheese on top. Slide into broiler under medium flame, cook until cheese is melted. Serves 4.

A thermostatic control, or oven temperature regulator, is now required equipment on gas ranges by the American Gas Association's Testing Laboratories. For consumer protection all gas ranges approved by the Laboratories are labeled with the blue Seal of Approval.

Steam bread slices in a colander over boiling water for a minute or two to make them easier to roll for sandwiches.

There's no special plumbing needed for gas-fired incinerators which can be hooked up to any gas line in kitchen, laundry or utility room, even the back porch or garage.

As high as 180° hot water is required to thoroughly sterilize dirty dishes and for some types of home laundering. This demand for higher temperature hot water is available through the new automatic storage type gas water heaters.

To freshen rolls, put in paper bag, twist the top to close it, heat in gas oven at 400° F. for about 15 mins.

Waste baskets are easier to clean if they have a good coating of wax rubbed on the inside.

"SMALL BUSINESS"
 BY C. WILSON HARDER

Last week this column related part of the weird story about Western States Refinery, an independent oil refinery in North Salt Lake, Utah.

This refinery was located near Colorado and Wyoming fields to ship refined products via pipeline to the Pacific Northwest, but before it was completed two years ago it required vigorous measures by both the Senate and House Small Business Committees to see C. W. Harder cure steel for the plant.

In nearby Geneva, Utah, US Steel has the steel plant built by the government during the war. This plant has to date supplied 285,000 tons of steel for the Arabian oil development.

By a strange coincidence the company developing Arabian field controls with a subsidiary and another oil major, the big Northwest market which is supplied by tanker.

But despite this and other handicaps, the plant finally got into operation. Because of limited finances a cracking plant to produce high octane blending stock for making ethyl was not built. Arrangements were made to secure this stock from other sources.

When Korea started Western Refining was notified supply of high octane stock would be cancelled. In meantime, Washington decided plant is vital defense need, encouraged management to erect own cracking plant.

©National Federation of Independent Business

Plans were made. Late in February the Reconstruction Finance Agency released a story to all newspapers that Western Refinery would invest $300,000 and RFC would loan $720,000. Of this loan $300,000 would be a regular RFC loan, the balance a loan under the defense plants construction program.

A week later the National Security Resources Board granted a certificate of necessity. A priority for steel from the National Production Authority followed. The company signed firm contracts for the construction work.

The ink was barely dry on the contracts when the weird part happened.

A letter was received from a Mr. Bruce K. Brown, deputy for the Petroleum Administrator for Defense, Dept. of Interior, stating the $420,000 portion of the loan was turned down because "the urgency from the national defense standpoint does not appear to be sufficiently great to justify such action."

This action after public announcement of the loan was made puts the company in so tight a spot it may have to close down.

No one knows how Mr. Bruce Brown arrived at his decision after all other defense agencies gave the go ahead signal to the project.

In fact, Washington is not quite clear just who Mr. Brown is. Some think he is a dollar a year man on loan from a major oil company. Others say he is not, but his superior is.

But the investigation that will ensue will surely establish identities.
