Miss Earle Attractively Gowned In White and Apple Green

By O. R. P.

Although more than 400 women give the first lecture of the Herald Charm School in the Crystal Ballroom of the Settles Hotel, we know that twice that many nore wanted to come.

We are, therefore, going to give you a few of the highlights of yesterday's talk so that you will feel you have not lost out entirely. You can pick up the thread now, if you wish, and join the crowds for the last three lectures and benefit yourselves greatly.

To begin with, the Crystal Ball-

The was bitterly cold both nights we were stranded there in the sand. As we huddled in our coupe at night our breath formed a coating of ice over every particle of glass and metal inside the car. It was mpossible to see out without opening a door until the sun each day became sufficiently.

The was bitterly cold both nights of the state of a mile from the head-diagram and string to persons who desired an audience to prove it had shown any evidence to prove to prove i

Half-Breed On Stand In Uhr Murder Trial

BAN ANTONIO, Jan. 21 UP-A BAN ANTONIO, Jan. 21 GP—A tragic story of conspiracy and murder followed from the lips of Lexis Jones ,part Indian, in district court today when he gave his version of the death of Daniel Uhr, for whose slaying Mrs. Clara Uhr, his widow, is being tried.

Jones said he was hired by the promise of $55 from Mrs. Uhr to kill her husband and gave a dramatte recitation of the murder of matic recitation of the murder of the fifty year old paralytic whils he slept. Jones, who has not yet been tried for the murder, was preced-ed on the stand by Robert F. Uhr, brother of the stain man, and Dr. R. A. Goeth.

Dr. Goeth testified he was at the Uhr house between 8 and 9 o'clock on the morning of the murder and that Uhr was dead. The witness said Uhr had a crushed skull.

Bob Uhr, county commissioner, testified Mrs. Uhr had called him to the house and upon his arrival between 6 and 7 o'clock he found his brother dead. He testified he took charge of the affairs of the family, among which were three insurance policies of Daniel Uhr. with Mrs. Clara Uhr as the bene
