CLAUDE WINS SUNDAY, 5-4

The Wheeler Independents lost a really good ball game to Claude here Sunday. The game was played at the American Legion Park in Wheeler at 3 p.m. last Sunday afternoon. The cellar team of the Caprock League, Claude handed the Independents an unexpected defeat by a score of five to four. David Britt connected for the loop in the fourth but Wheeler's nine hits only accounted for four tallies.
Claude came up with a better spacing hits or more luck in garnering runs by scoring five times on ten hits.
Next Sunday will see the strong Hedley team in action here at 3 p.m. The Hedley team defeated the local nine by a score of four to three when they met in the first round of play. This should be a good game and either team has good possibilities of being the winner.

Claude 110 100 002 -5

COTTON LOOKS GOOD TO AGENT

As a result of timely rains and excellent growing conditions, cotton seems to be off to one of the best starts in many years, according to County Agent Ray D. Siegmund who has checked several farms during the past week.
"Squares are forming well down on the stalk and I saw one field already in bloom," said the County Agent.
"The rains and showers are causing the cotton to really grow, and it might be a good idea to watch for cotton insects such as the flea hopper, plant lice, boll worm, and leaf worms."
"I have checked quite a few fields during the past week and have found no fields that had enough insects in them to cause them to need to be sprayed."

Birthday Party Plans Growing, Date Nears

A Reunion of ex-students has been added to the program of Wheeler's 50th Birthday Celebration and gives promise of bringing in scores of additional former residents for the red-letter day of August 20.
R. J. Holt, Jr., Harrison Hall and A. E. Brown volunteered to serve on a committee to take charge of a gathering on August 19 and 20 of all former students of Wheeler schools, until permanent organization can be effected.
A meeting was to be held Wednesday night of this week to set up plans for a program of entertainment. Questionnaires are being prepared for distribution to all former students with known address. The association wants the blanks from both local and out-of-town former students filled out and returned.
A permanent ex-students association will be formed and tentative plans call for annual or bi-annual meetings after the organization meeting. Those proposing the ex-students association point out Wellington, Shamrock, and Sayre, Okla., have built the reunions into large affairs and they see no reason why Wheeler cannot do likewise.
Other plans for Wheeler's gigantic birthday party on August 20 are moving along smoothly, with prospects for a packed day of entertainment in a carnival-like atmosphere. R. J. Holt, Jr., is heading the program committee, Virgil Jamison is in charge of the big barbecue set for noon Saturday, and numerous other committee heads are making preparations to see that all assignments are carried out smoothly.
There will be a registration of Old Settlers, an Old Fiddlers Contest, a public dance, and many kinds of rides and concessions for young and old.
Monday, July 25th has been designated "Mail a Postcard Day" in Wheeler, and an appeal has been made for all residents to call at the First National Bank or the Wheeler Postoffice and address cards which were prepared, inviting everyone to come to Wheeler's party. The cards are only 2 cents each and may be sent to former residents who have moved away, relatives or friends. All you have to do is address the printed card. "It's Easy to Cook—"

When the Range is ELECTRIC!"

says MRS. M. H. SANDERS of ARTESIA, NEW MEXICO

"I wouldn't trade my electric range for any other type of cooking in the world. It's so easy to cook electrically. The oven bakes wonderful cakes. The deep well is keen for beans, stews, and foods like that, and everything is done so evenly when I use the broiler."

You'll eventually cook electrically, for it's the modern way. Why not now?

A REDDY KILOWATT HOMEMAKER

When you cook on a surface element on an electric range, all the heat goes into the pan — it cooks the food. And, in an electric range over there's complete insulation, no oxygen is needed to support flameless cooking. The result? Cool, clean cooking, and the best meals you ever prepare

Social Security

Wheeler County at the end of the year 133 retired workers receiving $6,702 in monthly security payments, according to figures just released by Sanderson, District Manager of Social Security Office.

In addition to the retired workers themselves, 107 people were receiving $3,337 a month as dependents of the retired workers or survivors of deceased workers.

Although this is a considerable amount as compared with pay-year ago, it is certain that people will receive larger amounts in years to come because of changes in the Social Security Law in 1954. Sanderson among the major changes are the following:

1. Extension of payments after "burning out" up to 5 years of social security covered.

2. Extension of social security to more farm workers and self-employed farmers, as well as many other kinds of work.

3. Raising of the maximum wages toward benefits from $4,200.

4. Enabling disabled workers to draw their social security wage while disabled.

5. Increasing the amount of earnings a retired worker can receive and still get all or a part

C of C Notes

By DICK GUYNES, Sec.

Minutes of the regular monthly meeting and luncheon of the Wheeler Chamber of Commerce, at Nora's Cafe 12th, 1955.

There were 25 members present, and four guests, Alton Nations of Oklahoma City, Ken Daughtry of Wheeler, Robert Laycock Manager of the Shamrock C of C, and Cris Guard who is with the state board of water engineers. He gave a short outline of the work to be done by his department in making a survey of the water resources of Wheeler County.

Grainger McIlhany in his address brought the membership an interesting, and informative talk on the work done by the last legislature. We understand that Grainger did a little extracurricular work while down at Austin by maneuvering a lovely young lady into the position of a August 20th, bride.

The Mayor speaking for himself, and the City Council, thanked the Chamber of Commerce for the manner, in which the annexation project was conducted, and promised the full support of the Mayor's office and City Council on any civic improvement to the extent of their abilities. Public thanks are due the Mayor and City Council for their cooperation in all phases of civic improvement.

We want to welcome the new citizens into the corporate limits of the City, great things can be done to make Wheeler a bigger and better place to live in if everyone will work together to that end.

Plans for the 50th celebration were further advanced by action of the board of directors in their monthly meeting following the luncheon.

We want to welcome Bro. Carlton Thomson as a new member of the Chamber of Commerce. We consider him an asset to our city, and organization.

Harvey Wright, N. D. Ware, Jr., and J. D. Beaty attended the Fireman's Training School at College Station last week. They report a very good school with lots of heat and humidity in the area.

Engine Wear Reduced 40% with Trop-Artic Motor Oil

(THE DIFFERENCE IN WEIGHT IS A DIFFERENCE IN WEAR!)

IT'S PERFORMANCE THAT COUNTS!

The difference in piston ring wear illustrated above proves an important point about the performance of motor oils:

Most engine wear occurs when you first start your car or under stop-and-go driving conditions with an engine that hasn't warmed up. It takes a very special kind of oil to flow quickly and protect your motor when you start, and then to protect moving parts from sludge and varnish after the engine heats up. TROP-ARTIC All-Weather Motor Oil gives you this double protection. Compared to older types of oils, it can even double engine life.

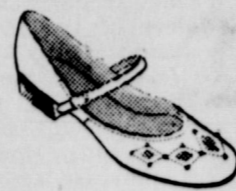

In a motor oil it's performance that counts. And TROP-ARTIC gives super performance! You'll get easier starting... save gasoline... and you can save 15% to 45% on oil consumption. Get TROP-ARTIC from your Phillips 66 Dealer.

Eggs

Due to the hot weather, which causes a lot more BAD eggs, we have started candling all eggs. Dirty eggs, small eggs, cracked eggs and eggs that have been too hot, or any other poor quality eggs, will be graded as No. 3's.

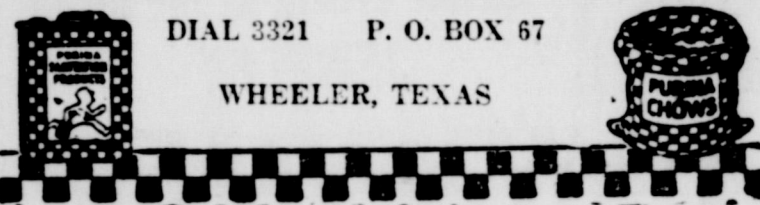

Only Fresh Clean Eggs Will Be Bought At No. 1 Prices

If you wish to sell quality eggs, do these things.

1. Gather eggs at least three times a day.
2. Place in a cool damp place (but not wet).
3. Keep some kind of good nesting material in nests at all times.
4. Sell eggs often (2 or 3 times a week).
5. If you have roosters, sell or kill them, anything, just so you get rid of the roosters.

If you wish to keep your egg production up this summer, be sure you keep plenty of feed and water out. Don't make Mrs. Hen go to water and feed — place it where she is loafing — wherever it may be.

Preparation For Survival

CHICAGO, THE "I WILL" city of food and transportation, steel production and manufacturing, does not intend to knuckle under to any disaster. The city's recent participation in the national Civil Defense "Operation Alert" civilian preparedness exercise showed results of planning.

WHEN "AIR RAID" warning" sounded, children fled from classrooms, quickly and orderly on signal.

KEY CITY officials set up emergency quarters outside city and prepared to restore service.

SCHOOLS WERE EVACUATED in disciplined manner with boys' safety patrol, teachers and traffic officers cooperating. City's new International Rescue Trucks participated, showing Chicago's preparedness is beyond paper stage. Over 500,000 children took part.

Your Congressman's Letter

By WALTER ROGERS

The cancellation of the Dixon-Yates contract by the Federal Government was no doubt a pretty stiff blow to the Dixon-Yates combine. One of the clouds had a silver lining for Mr. Dixon. There is a founding home in Washington that was raffling off an automobile. Chances were being sold for one dollar each. Several Members of Congress who have adopted children from this home were helping to sell these chances. Someone sold a chance to Mr. Dixon, who was no doubt in town trying to defend his contract. On the day of gloom when the contract was cancelled, the drawing at the founding home was held and the winner of the Mercury automobile turned out to be Mr. Dixon. One fellow told me that they had hopped Mr. Dixon would turn the car to them so that they could raffle it off again. However, this was not the case according to this spokesman. Mr. Dixon traded his new Mercury in on a plush Lincoln, according to reports. We are glad that Mr. Dixon won the car, and certainly think he is entitled to keep it or trade it, as he might desire.

The story is that the telephone in the office of Congressman Yates, of Illinois, rang and was answered by his secretary who said, "Mr. Yates office." There was a pause for a moment, and then the voice at the other end of the line said, "I'm sorry, I was trying to get hold of Congressman Dixon."

The proposal to free producers and gather of natural gas from federal control continues as one of the hot issues on the Hill. Although the bill does not solve the problem in the same manner as I would have preferred, it nevertheless has my wholehearted and unqualified support. The bill frees the independent producer and gathered from federal control. This is what I wanted to see done. Other provisions of the bill provide a somewhat indirect control that is intended to protect the consumer. I certainly do not object to the consumer being fully protected and therefore do not oppose these additional provisions.

My personal feeling is that the best protection the consumer can have is the non-regulation of the producer and gatherer. This is undoubtedly true for the following reasons: There are three stages in the gas business. Number one is production and gathering, which has not been federally regulated. Number two is the interstate transmission, which is and has been under federal regulation. Number three is the distribution of gas to the consumer, which is and always has been regulated by a local government regulatory body. Take Washington, D. C., for instance. The consumer pays an average price of $1.37 per cubic foot. Out of this amount the Washington, D. C. distributor gets 96 cents; the interstate pipeline company gets 29 cents, and the producer gets 12 cents. The point is that the two segments of the industry who get the big chunk out of the consumer's dollar are regulated by government agencies and always have been. The one segment that has not been regulated up to date (the producer) gets the disproportionate small amount.

Recently an ocelot (wildcat weighing about 30 pounds) escaped from a Washington pet shop, killed two dogs, and disappeared in the tall timber of the Naval Observatory grounds. Everyone joined in the hunt, but no results. One fellow brought in his hounds, who picked up a scent, and charged off through the woods at full bay. The scent turned out to be that of an over-ripe halibut instead of the ocelot. Nothing further has been heard from the hunter nor the hounds. After several days' searching with no results, the ocelot meekly surrendered, weighing less than half its former weight and with one broken leg. He has been properly hospitalized and is no doubt now reconciled to civilization.

Library News

The Wheeler Library reading program has only two weeks to run. The last day and the day of the presentation of awards will be July 30th at 4:30 p.m. in the library. Everyone who has been reading in this program is asked to be there at this time for treats and awards.

Since no one has entered this contest in the 17 and 18 year old group there is an extra prize. This prize is going to be used as a runner up prize in the 11 to 12 age group since there are so many participants in this group.

The story hour at the City Park has been well attended and enjoyed by all the children. Remember there are only two more of these story hours in this present series. These dates are July 22 and July 29 from 4 until 5 p.m. All children from 5 thru 9 are invited to come and listen.

YOUR FEET TELL WHERE YOU ARE FROM

If you live in New England, chances are good that the shoes you wear are from one to two sizes smaller than those worn by the rest of the country's population. But if your residence is in the upper Midwest or the deep South, your feet are probably a size or so above the national average.

A recent comparison study by The Scholl Mfg. Co., Inc., Chicago, has revealed that foot sizes show slight but very definite regional trends throughout the United States.

Dr. Scholl

sharply from one state to the next," said Dr. William M. Scholl, company president, "but we did find that there very definitely do exist distinct regional patterns."

Dr. Scholl explained that the study, based on thousands of individuals' measurements taken across the U.S., shows the average size worn by men is 9D and that the typical American woman wears a 7C. Averages for states, however, range from two sizes smaller to two and one-half sizes larger than the national norm.

The smallest average feet are found in the New England states. Men in Vermont, New Hampshire and Rhode Island are lowest of all with an average size seven. And women in Delaware and Rhode Island encase their dainty feet in petit fives. Generally, sizes in the northeastern part of the country are consistently below the national average. As we look further west and south sizes begin to increase. The midwestern states run about average. However, below the Mason-Dixon line, feet apparently are of more ample proportions, reaching their peak in Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia, where the average is a full size above the country's. Louisiana is an exception where women's feet are at exactly the national average and men's one-half size below the mark. In the southwest and on the Pacific coast, measurements show the national average to be about standard for those states. But in the upper Midwest, the Dakotas, Minnesota, Montana, Wyoming and Nebraska, feet definitely are larger. In these states, both women's and men's feet are at least a full size above the national average with the prize going to Wyoming where men's lower extremities are a full size and one-half above the norm—an average man in the cowboy state wears a hefty 10½.

Honors for women with the largest feet are divided among Washington, Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, South Dakota, Nebraska, Minnesota, Arizona, Alabama and Georgia. Eight is the average size shoe for each of these states.

As in any survey of this type, Dr. Scholl's researchers ran across individual extreme cases.

Largest male feet spotted by the Scholl men was on a North Carolinian who sported a pair of 16EEE's. Men with size 15's were found in Georgia, Massachusetts, Virginia and Wyoming. These are in contrast to the Alabama man who wore a 4C.

A West Virginia woman who wore a 14½EEEE shoe was closely pursued by a Kentucky lady with a pair of long, narrow 14AAA's.

Prize for the smallest pair of female feet went to an Indiana lady who wore a diminutive 2AA. And California, Iowa, Tennessee, Colorado, Kansas, Wisconsin, Illinois, Massachusetts and Ohio all had women who wore 2½'s.

"We found that in metropolitan areas where the population is composed of persons of many nationalities and racial types," said Dr. Scholl, "that the average just about approximates the national norm."

"In other areas where the population is more stable and dominated by a particular nationality group, there usually is a variation from the countrywide average. This is true in the case of the Dakotas and Minnesota where the population is predominantly Scandinavian. These people generally are larger and bigger boned than average and it is normal that they should have larger feet."

KIWANIS NOTES

By Dr. C. C. Merritt

Well, things are getting back into the swing again after the "summer slump". We had several guests. And two of the guests and the program, Francis Fride, vice-president of the Key Club of Wheeler and William Whitener, Lieutenant Governor of the Key Clubs. They had been to the International Convention at Detroit and were at the Kiwanis club Monday to tell us of their experiences on that trip. They did an excellent job, too, and we enjoyed it very much. This club with their leadership will make a success here in Wheeler.

Then there was that excellent dinner. No gravy (and that wasn't good), but they made up for it with a very fine strawberry short cake. Alright, ladies, we will forgive you for the lack of gravy this time.

You know what? The soft ball season is fast slipping by. It won't be long now until we will be watching the tournament games.

I want to say a word about the "Summer Play House". That was a fine play last month. I'm writing these notes on Monday, so I'll have to wait until next week to tell you about the play that came off Tuesday evening. The Kiwanis club of Wheeler is sponsoring the Key Club of Wheeler, the soft ball field and games and the Summer Play House. And we are very proud of our projects. And I'm sure every one in this community can also be proud of the work that is being done in these projects. The Wheeler club would have to hang its head in shame if it were to lower its banner or fall down on the job now, for all know what can be done and what we are doing.

"Insects found were flea hoppers up to 10 per 100 stalks of cotton; a very few boll worm eggs; a few plant lice; several leaf worms; and a few web worms. The web worm damage seems to be over unless a fresh cycle hatches out."

"I plan to be in other parts of Wheeler County during the week to make insect counts."

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Summer Sore Throat

A sore throat in the summer time is your body's warning signal that you might be coming down with a serious illness.

A sore throat at any time can warn of an impending cold, or a more serious respiratory tract infection such as influenza or pneumonia. However, these illnesses usually strike during the cold, wet months of winter and rarely occur during the summer.

A summer sore throat may be the first sign of measles, diphtheria or poliomyelitis. If it is coupled with fever, you should call your physician immediately, for prompt medical diagnosis and treatment can stop a potentially serious illness from getting too deeply rooted.

However, most summer sore throats are merely symptoms of the common cold. Although antibiotics are of great value in controlling serious respiratory infections, they are largely ineffective against the common cold.

In fact, scientists have yet to discover any completely effective agents for the common cold—summer or winter variety. Although unable to prevent or cure them, physicians can help to remove much of the sting from common cold symptoms.

For the headache and muscle fatigue accompanying a cold, they recommend aspirin. For the stuffed nose often accompanying the cold, they may prescribe the nasal decongestant Tyzine. For the patient, they advise patience—for the cold-causing germs, no matter what the medication, can persist in your body for as much as a week, or longer.

We can do little to prevent summer sore throats, but with proper care, we can prevent more serious illness from developing after the first warning signs.

entire show and to lead the downtown street parade at 4 p.m. on Wednesday, August 3. The band will be under the direction of Lt. Milton Stern.

Hollywood's popular TV, radio, movie, and recording star, Jimmy Wakelley, will be in Pampa for the entire week and will appear on each night's main show as well as the rodeo dances. Background music for the Wakelley act will be provided by Billy Foust and the "Circle Arrow Boys." All dances will be held in the new National Guard Armory on the Rodeo Grounds, Wednesday through Saturday nights.

"The Henry's Speciality Dog act" has been looked for appearances on each night of the show. The act consists of twenty highly trained dogs—big dogs, little dogs, middle-sized dogs—doing everything in the books.

The Cutting Horse Contest, which has been a popular at the Top o' Texas Show since its beginning in 1945, is expected to attract an all-time record number of contestants. The purse money has been increased to $500.00, plus all entry fee of $50.00 per horse. Judges for this contest will be Sig Faircloth of Eastland and J. D. Craft of Jacksboro, Texas. Both the Cutting Horse judges will also judge all other contests of the show.

Jake Mitchell, popular bull-fighting clown from the home of the XIT in Dalhart, will clown the show.

All the regular rodeo events will be included—calf roping, bareback bronc riding, saddle bronc riding, bull-doggin', bull riding, double muggin' and the Cutting Horse Contest.

The Cowgirls' Contest will again provide glamor for the show, as some forty girls are expected to compete for the beautiful hand-stamped saddle, first prize, silver buckle and belt set, second prize, and a pair of shop-made cowgirl boots, third prize. All entry fees of $7.50 each will be returned in cash prizes.

Special reserved seats for the big show will go on sale in Rodeo Headquarters in Pampa on July 25. Anyone wishing reserved seats may write Box 1942 or call Rodeo Headquarters.

a special souvenir edition to be mailed on August 11, a week before the celebration, and many local people plan to send complimentary copies to former residents and friends in the hope they will come to the celebration.

Copies of the souvenir edition carrying caricatures, features and entertainment news of the town's Golden Anniversary, will sell for 15 cents over the counter, or 25 cents if wrapped, addressed and mailed. Copies should be reserved in advance, not later than July 27, when presses will start rolling out the first selections.

Advertising columns are closing this week end for the special section of the edition and anyone wishing caricatures or more people in their firms represented in the section or those who have been missed please call the Times. We do not want to miss anyone but time is running out so we must ask all those who have the questionnaires and have not filled them in to do so at once. Thanks.

How Iced Coffee Began

We can thank the French for iced coffee. More than 125 years ago, French colonial soldiers stationed at Mazagan, Algeria, found that drinking coffee syrup mixed with cold water made the desert heat more endurable. The soldiers carried the vogue back to Paris, where it is to this day called Cafe Mazagan, with the added fillip of ice in tall, frosty glasses.

Americans ice their coffee for summertime meals, socials, or coffee breaks. Perfectionists make it double strength to avoid dilution, and pour it hot over ice, while others brew their coffee as usual, and allow it to cool before serving.

Many hostesses make coffee regular strength, and use coffee ice cubes. Cream and sugar may be used with iced coffee as preferred.
