Arthritis Meeting Draws Large Crowd

Agriculture Meeting Set Monday Night

Area agricultural producers in the Muleshoe area will have an opportunity to hear five important topics discussed in Muleshoe on Monday night, March 18, at 8 p.m. in the Mary DeShazo Cafeteria during a Commercial Agricultural Seminar. The topics for this meeting were developed and is being sponsored by the Extension Field Crops Committee headed by J.G. Arnn of Bailey County. This meeting is open to the general public and is free of charge.

As we try to meet the expanding needs of the commercial agricultural problems of Bailey County, we find solutions from time to time that need to be discussed and covered that will help producers realize more net profit. This meeting has been designed to help meet the needs of the commercial producer of this area.

DeMolay Week Will Be Observed Here

The Muleshoe Chapter, Order of DeMolay, will join more than 2,500 other chapters in the observance of International DeMolay Week, March 17-24.

DeMolays are aware and involved young citizens of the community. Civic and social activities and clean-up projects will be included in this 1974 week-long celebration. Public spirited young men between the ages of 13 and 21 will acquaint the public with the purposes and activities of DeMolays character-building programs.

Bobbie Henry, son of Mrs. Marcia Henry, and master counselor of the local Muleshoe chapter, said that the 1974 theme,

"A New Tomorrow with DeMolay Today" was chosen because the organization develops leadership and character in its members. He further stated that in addition to providing worthwhile activities for a young man, the Order builds character and leadership qualities while helping better the community in which we live.

During the week of special anniversary activities the Chapter's program of events will include a litter, clean-up campaign in the district, area and state conclaves, heart fund and muscular dystrophy drives and a representative DeMolay banquet.

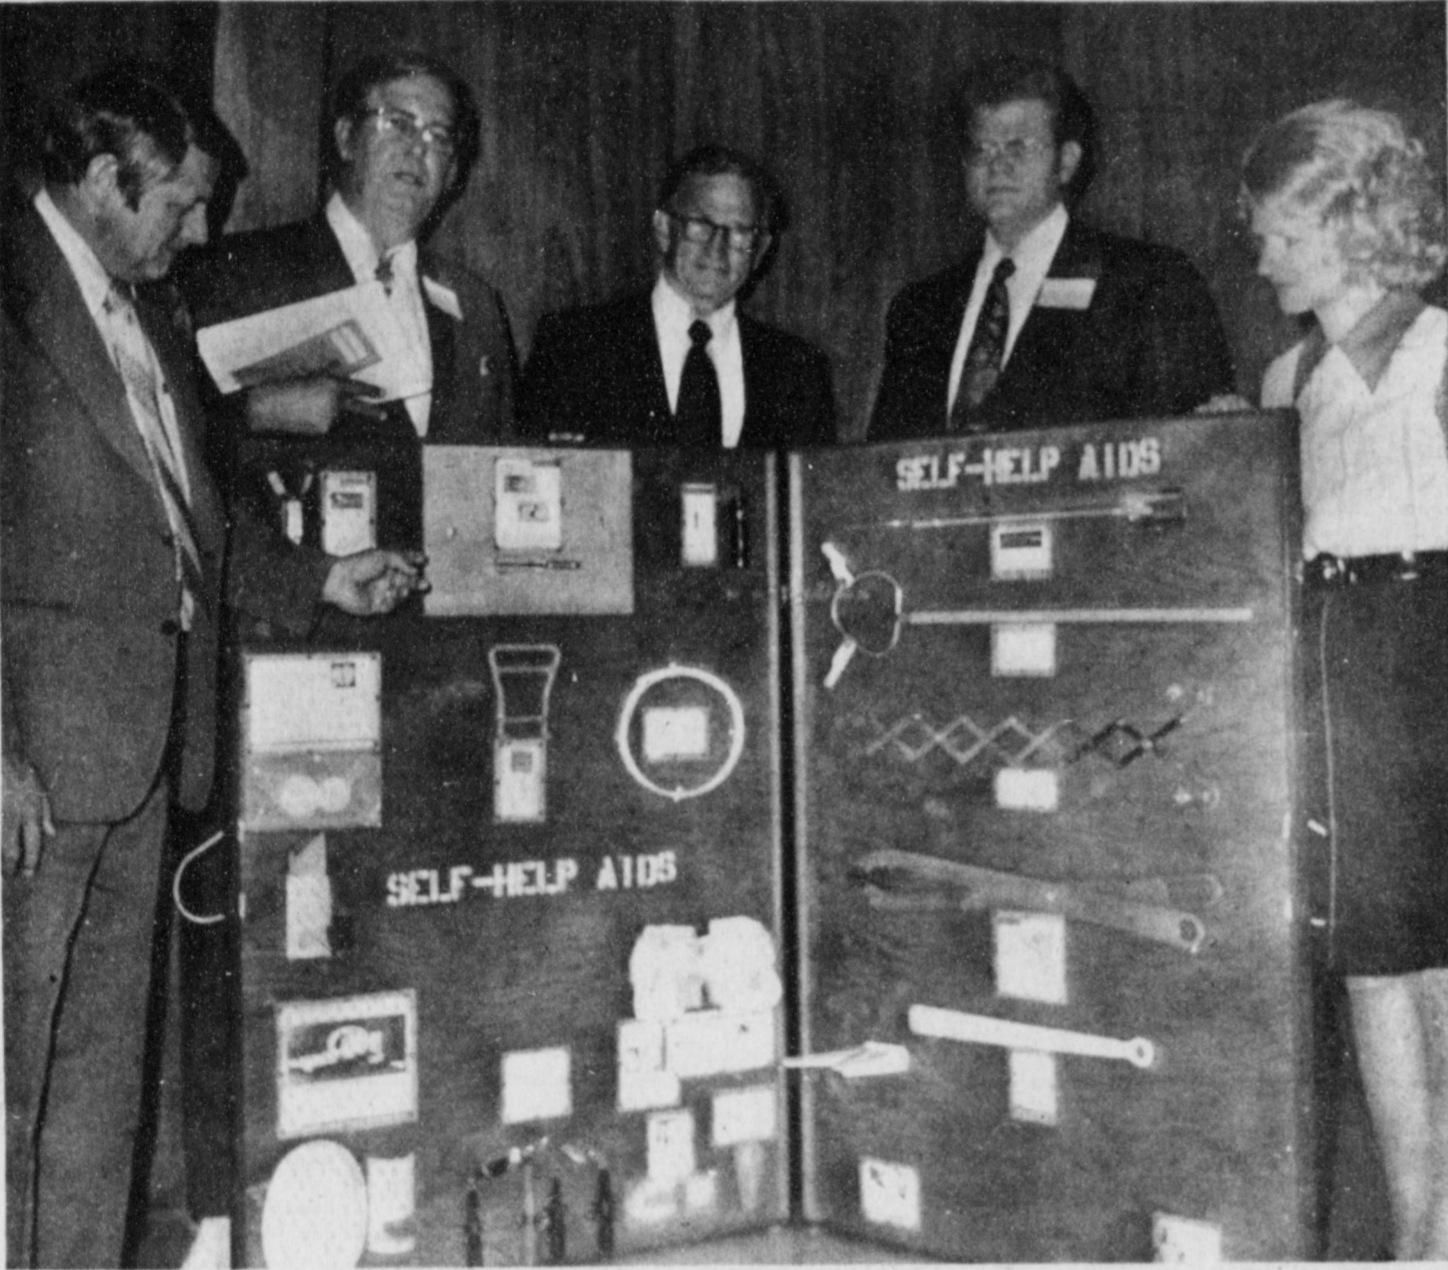

Wyle M. Bullock is the Chapter's advisor for the local DeMolay organization.

Frank S. Land and nine teenage youths founded the Order of DeMolay on March 18, 1919 in Kansas City, Missouri. Today, nearly three-million dedicated young men of action between the ages of 13 and 21 are members. Chapters throughout the nation and free world help make their communities better places to live.

Members of DeMolay International include John Wayne, Bob Mathias, Olympic decathlon champion and Congressman.

Recent kidnappings have dramatically underscored the need for a get-tough policy with those who brazenly abduct innocent citizens and subject their families to untold mental anguish. The Patricia Hearst case is particularly tragic. Here we have a case of kidnapping used as a tool of terrorism to achieve a radical political goal. This action, unless we act rapidly, may trigger a series of political kidnappings by fanatics or persons suffering mental illness.

The best way I know of to try to prevent a rash of kidnappings is to act quickly to toughen the penalties for that crime in hopes of deterring at least some of those who might be encouraged to attempt abductions themselves.

For this reason, I have introduced legislation in the House of Representatives which would toughen penalties in federal kidnap cases. My bill would restate the death penalty for cases in which kidnap victims are murdered or otherwise physically harmed. Also, it would provide a minimum 10-year prison sentence, with the possibility of life imprisonment, even in cases where victims are recovered safely. The current federal kidnap law simply provides for a year term of "any number of years." My bill would also specifically prohibit a suspended sentence in kidnap cases, and it would prohibit probation after sentencing. I admit that the penalties provided in my bill are severe, but we need stiff penalties if we are going to deter any future crimes. Too many criminals today feel there is a good opportunity for avoiding conviction or obtaining a light sentence if caught, and this mentality encourages further criminal actions.

A CONTROVERSIAL LAND USE BILL has been dealt a set-back by the House Rules Committee which recently voted to send the bill back to the House Interior Committee instead of onto the House floor for debate and a vote.

I had opposed this bill because of my concern that it spelled more federal control, and also might jeopardize private property rights.

The bill was designed to assist in the development of land use planning by providing federal grants to the states to aid development of land use plans. The bill did not require federal planning, nor did it require states to include all land in its plans. But landowners were quite legitimately worried as to how far the States, encouraged by this law, might go in controlling land use. Additionally, the bill would have spent additional millions of dollars and established more federal bureaucracy.

IF A BILL OF IMPEACHMENT against the President is delivered by the House Judiciary Committee, it might be considered to be exercising a double standard. Among the publicized charges against the President is that his campaign committee received a $400,000 contribution from the dairy industry and that the industry later benefitted from increased price supports. If the Committee includes this item among grounds for impeachment, then the double-standard question gains validity. The AFL-CIO has taken a leadership role in calling for impeachment of the President, as well as announced more federal controls a "veto-proof" Congress. In 1972, the AFL-CIO was a major contributor to a number of the members of the house judiciary committee, with the largest contribution, $31,000, going to committee Chairman Peter Rodino. For comparative purposes, it is proper to note that if the AFL-CIO had given a similar contribution to each member of Congress, the total nationwide contribution would have been over $12 million, far more than the $400,000 contributed to the President's nationwide campaign. In all, the total AFL-CIO contribution to Members of Congress who serve on the House Judiciary Committee comes to more than $185,000, and beneficiaries on the committee constitute a firm majority of the committee votes; 21 out of 37.

A POSITIVE STEP TOWARD CRIME CONTROL was taken recently when the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration (LEAA) awarded a $21.8 million grant to the State of Texas to continue crime control efforts statewide. Some $19,568,000 of the grant is to be passed on by the Texas Criminal Justice Council, a state agency, to local law enforcement agencies. The remainder of the grant will be used by the Texas Department of Corrections to improve the state's prison system.

LEAA was established by the Safe Streets and Crime Control Act which passed the Congress during the tenure of President Johnson.

The fertilizer situation will hit a critical point for the farmer by the Spring of this year. Production of fertilizer will continue to drop over the next six months, but the demand, both domestic and foreign, is climbing sharply. U.S. farmers will pay a record $4-billion for fertilizer this year, a 40% increase over last year, and the shortage will probably get worse before increased supplies begin to show up.

Producers say that the supply situation looks bad for fertilizer users through 1976. Many of the major fertilizer manufacturers have already put their long-term customers on allocations and there is evidence of price gouging at the retail level. Reports are coming in from some areas that fertilizer dealers are completely out of stock and no prospect of resupply.

Another solution is to discontinue exporting fertilizer, but this is definitely not in the best interests of this country. The U.S. was a net importer of fertilizer the last six months on 1973. We are dependent on Canada for potash and on Europe for urea, ammonia nitrate and anhydrous ammonia. But Canada is wholly dependent on the U.S. for phosphate rock for fertilizer use and we supply virtually all of the fertilizer needs of Latin America. Many of the Central and South American countries are trying desperately to buy fertilizer. The emerging nations of Asia are also a potent market. Ammonia is now selling at $210 a ton overseas and it is going for about $120 a ton in the U.S. Ammonia sold for $40 a ton in the U.S. before price controls were lifted last October.

There is no short-term solution to the problem and the only long-term solution is more fertilizer plants with guarantee supplies of natural gas so that there is no danger of production shutting down because of a fuel shortage.

CEILING ON METALS
The government has imposed a two-month ceiling on domestically produced copper and aluminum prices, claiming that price increases permitted last month were more than enough to make U.S. metals companies competitive on the world market.

The animals were auctioned Wednesday afternoon. Bailey County Extension Agent Spencer Tanksley stated that this show brought to a conclusion the long show circuit for local 4-H youths and he termed it a very successful year.

Tanksley stated that "the youths should be congratulated for representing their clubs and county so well at the various stock shows away from home this year. The youths have gained tremendous experience and the shows have been educational and rewarding and should benefit them in every walk of life."

He also stated that he was most proud and pleased with the cooperation shown by all of the families involved, assisting each other so the shows could be successful for all involved.

The word arthritis literally means inflammation of a joint. However, it is widely used to cover close to 100 different conditions which cause aching and pain in joints, and connective tissues throughout the body, not all of them necessarily involving inflammation.

It is reported that there are 17 million arthritis victims in the U.S. or one in 11, or one in five families affected. There are 250,000 new victims each year. Five million sufferers have rheumatoid arthritis, 10 million have osteoarthritis serious enough to cause painful problems.

Rheumatoid arthritis is the most serious, the most painful, the most crippling. It is inflammatory and chronic. It can affect the whole body, making the patient truly sick. Primarily, it attacks the joints, but it can also cause disease in the lungs, skin, blood vessels, muscles, spleen, heart and even the eyes. It tends to subside and flare up unpredictably, causing progressive damage to tissues. Women are affected three times more often than men. In children, it occurs in a form known as juvenile rheumatoid arthritis and can be quite serious. Osteoarthritis is also called degenerative joint disease. This is principally a wear-and-tear disease of the joints which comes with getting older. It is usually mild and is not generally inflammatory. It does not cause general illness. Sometimes there can be considerable pain. Mild to severe disability may develop gradually.

Arthritis warning signs include persistent pain and stiffness on arising, pain or tenderness in one or more joints, swelling in one or more joints, recurrence of these symptoms, especially when they involve more than one joint, pain and stiffness in the neck, lower back, knees and other joints, tingling sensations in the fingertips, hands and feet, and unexplained weight loss, fever and weakness.

Arthritis sufferers are the most exploited of all victims of disease in the country today. They spend an estimated four hundred million dollars a year on worthless remedies, treatments, devices and gimmicks.

Many products and treatments do no harm, except as they waste the arthritis money. But many others are dangerous if they are used as a substitute for the care of a qualified physician.

The Arthritis Foundation is the only national voluntary health organization which is trying to do something about this crippling disease problem, a disease long taken for granted and neglected. Its programs include support for scientific research, training of arthritis specialists, public information and education about arthritis, and help for arthritis sufferers in their own communities.

State and local chapters of the Arthritis Foundation exist first and foremost to answer people's questions about arthritis, and to help them.

Chapters of the Arthritis Foundation encourage and support a great variety of local services for arthritis victims. These include arthritis clinics, home care programs, rehabilitation services, and mobile consultant units.

The Arthritis Foundation, and the local chapter of it, are doing all they can do about this disease. Much more could be done if people gave it top priority for action. Contributed funds are needed of course. Equally needed are volunteers, people who will work through their Foundation chapters to ease human suffering and to eliminate this universal lifetime disease.

Mrs. Cox Lays It On The Line

Mrs. Laura Barbara Stoner Cox, a long time visitor of Muleshoe was recently interviewed by Kathy Duncan and the following is that interview as it appeared in a Missouri paper.

Being a resident of Excelsior Springs for sixty-six years entitles Laura B.S. Cox to have some definite opinions and observations about the town.

Mrs. Cox was born in Turney, Mo., in 1877, and came to Excelsior Springs in 1908.

"I've never lived more than 30 miles from where I was born, and I've never been kicked out yet," she says.

"Excelsior Springs has doubled and doubled and doubled," she commented, while reminiscing about what the town was like when she came.

"When I first came to Excelsior, the Elms Hotel was filled up in July, August, and September.

"People used to walk from downtown to the train depot. They would have had some of our mineral water on the way, and they'd stop here at my house (on Dumber) to use the bathroom, saying, 'Boy, I didn't know that mineral water worked like that.'"

Mrs. Cox was 96 years old on December 6, and she's still actively concerned about issues in the town and in the nation. Some observations:

On the new hospital: "I think we needed it. The last time I had to go to the hospital, I went to Kansas City, and it cost me $63 to get there and $63 to get back in an ambulance.

"I wouldn't want the new hospital downtown. There's too much traffic going every which way. It wouldn't hurt any of us to go very far."

On Excelsior's mineral water: "It's just too bad they didn't keep the tin cups . . . there used to be fountains and pavillions all over town, with tin cups for people to get drinks with. There was always a crowd around those fountains."

On the VA hospital: "I would like to see that put back for the soldiers. I've seen on TV where there's no place for the wounded soldiers from Southeast Asia—they're stacked on top of each other."

On the school system: "I think everyone should pay school taxes. I haven't had a child in school in years, but I still pay my taxes.

"I don't think these students ought to have to be hauled all the time or fed all the time. Their parents have some responsibility.

"I've educated all my grandchildren."

On farming: "I'm nothing but an old farmer. I love the farm and everything about it.

"My father divided his land between my brother and me. My brother got the land in Missouri, and I got land in Texas in 1912. Since 1918 until I sold the land last spring, I went down every year in September. I usually stayed a month.

"I think they should irrigate in winter, so that it would soak down into the ground."

On Missouri: "Missouri has beautiful scenery . . . the Ozarks. I think Missouri is a wonderful state. Missouri is one state, and Texas is another, that could live without any outside help."

On politics: "There's two things that people, especially women, should have their own opinion on, and that is their politics and their religion.

"I think we've got a president that they're treating awfully ugly. Under the circumstances, he's done an excellent job."

On fuel shortages: I think part of it could be charged to manipulation. There's lots of oil in Texas and Oklahoma. They don't let them pump it half the time."

On economics: "People don't want to work anymore. We need to go back to being common people."

On women's liberation: "Women should stay home with their children. If they don't, how do they know where their children are, and what they're doing?"

On Laura B.S. Cox: "I've had a very full life. I've had a lot of ups and downs, but I've survived them all so far. 'I'm quite an individualist. A woman can do an awfully lot if she wants to."

"I kept my name, Laura Barbara Stoner Cox, when I got married in 1900. There are a lot of Coxes, but I never get my mail mixed up. I've kept my Personal Identity."

Vicki enjoys HECE and likes her job as Nurses Aide.

Congratulations Vicki! The past week in HECE the girls have been studying telephone courtesy and the right way to answer a telephone. Since most all the girls answer telephones on the job, they feel this past week of studying telephone courtesy has really helped them.

FHA Has Area Meeting

On March 8 and 9, the Future Homemakers of America of Area 1 met in Amarillo, Texas, for their annual area 1 meeting.

The girls attending from Muleshoe were Donita Dale, Laura Beene, Carol Ware and WINS FIRST . . . . The Muleshoe High School Freshman Track Team won another first place at the Olton Track Meet recently.

An estimated 500 cotton producers and allied businessmen are expected in Lubbock on Tuesday, March 19 to hear three speakers outline a new course toward bigger and better markets for High Plains cotton.

The occasion is the Seventeenth Annual Meeting of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., beginning at 2:00 p.m. at Vann's Catering Service, seven miles from Lubbock's Tahoka Traffic Circle on the Slaton Highway. PCG, a voluntarily supported producer organization representing cotton growers in a 25 county area surrounding Lubbock, is embarking on stepped-up research efforts to promote the use of High Plains cotton by open-end spinning mills both on and off the High Plains and in other new textile processes now under development.

Speakers at the March 19 meeting will include Nick Hahn, Sales and Marketing Director for Cotton Incorporated of New York City and Raleigh, North Carolina; James Parker, Director of the Textile Research Center at Texas Tech University, and Paul Cook, President of Feather Fabrics, Inc. and the Textile Investment Group of Texas, both of Lubbock.

PCG President Ray Joe Riley of Hart has issued an invitation to all interested parties from throughout the area, stating that "the more people who know about and take an interest in this work, the greater will be the benefits that accrue to the High Plains cotton industry and to the area economy in general."

The 1974 loan rate for upland cotton, placed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture at 27.06 cents per pound, basis Strict Low Middling 1-1/16 inch cotton, 3.5 through 4.9 micronaire at average location, is 641 points or 6.41 cents per pound above the 20.65-cent rate for 1973. But for many staples and qualities of cotton grown on the High Plains, the increased loan rate will be more like 5 to 5.5 cents per pound, according to Donald Johnson, executive vice president, Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., because of greater discounts applying to staples below 1-1/16 inches and to grades below Strict Low Middling.

For example cotton stapling 31/32 of an inch and grading Middling White in 1974 will carry a discount of 310 points as compared to only 215 points in 1973. The same staple grading Low Middling Spot will be discounted 825 points this year, instead of the 675 points of last year. This will make the physical loan price increases for the two qualities in 1974 equal to 5.46 cents and 4.91 cents respectively.

Premiums and discounts that make up the loan schedule are developed from spot market prices recorded during the early months of the preceding marketing year, and prices for the upper level of qualities during this period of 1973-74, in relation to lower qualities, were considerably higher as a result of supply-demand factors.

Location differentials for the various U.S. warehouses have not been announced, Lubbock area warehouses in 1973 carried loans 10 points below the national average, which if continued in 1974 would give this area a base loan of 26.96 cents per pound.

Herbicide Application Hampered By Soil Conditions

LUBBOCK -- Lack of soil moisture is hampering land preparations for spring herbicide treatments, says a Lubbock based agronomist.

Land that now is being deep-broken or chiseled is causing considerable cloddy conditions, making nearly impossible the proper incorporation of preplant herbicides such as trifluralin and planavin. In fact, according to Dr. Robert B. Metzger, area specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, farmers actually may be losing money by applying these herbicides on extremely cloddy land with high amounts of plant residue.

"If the land is reasonably free of large clods, effective control can be attained," he cautions, "but one should make sure that any plant material is worked well into the soil. Considerable crop residue such as grain sorghum stubble that is left on the surface will tie up any herbicide that hits it before it gets into the soil."

Metzger advises that the spray should contact the soil for best incorporation. In many fields, he adds, plant residue is fairly heavy, limiting the operator in working it into the soil. Under these conditions, the applicator should probably increase rates of these herbicides by 25 percent.

"In many fields, it may become necessary for producers to use a preemerge herbicide at planting time," the specialist explains. "There are many herbicides such as Caparol, Karmex, Lasso, Planavin and Sandcap that may be applied in a band behind the planter. If these type herbicides are used, the label should be followed closely concerning rates to use in different soil types."

"Usually these herbicides give better weed control if some type of light incorporation is used," he continues. "These usually can be some type of drag behind the spray applicator."

"A producer must keep several precautions in mind. Usually these are listed on the label. Particularly, Caparol should not be used in very sandy soils, especially if it is planted down in the hole under very dry conditions. This may injure some cotton seedlings after a rain has leached the material around the seed. The same is true for Lasso, but both of these compounds cause no injury problem if sufficient moisture is available for germination and seedling growth."

Karmex is another material that should receive shallow incorporation, Metzger advises. It should not be applied on loamy sand or very sandy soil. Planavin can be used as a band behind the planter and should also be lightly incorporated. This gives fairly good control for three to five weeks and has been shown to be safe on sandy lands at rates of one pint per acre broadcast.

Another fairly new compound is Sandcap, primarily used on sandy land. It has shown good tolerance at recommended rates. This herbicide has given weed control, yet it is not as toxic to cotton as Caparol.

"Of course," Metzger explains, "using these herbicides and applying them at planting time simply does not do as successful a job as would broadcasting preplant operations. For that reason, it will not effectively kill some of the deeper germinating seeds such as volunteer grain sorghum and devils claw. Also, full season weed control can not be expected with the preemerge herbicides. It will not last as long as trifluralin or planavin applied broadcast. One of the advantages, of course, is that it is somewhat cheaper, because less preemerge herbicide per acre is used with the band application method behind a planter, and because this one operation at planting time saves labor and fuel."

"We hope that we can get some moisture that will speed up land preparations," Metzger concludes, "and that we can start preparing our land so that we can get maximum benefit from herbicides now on the market."

4 Accidents Investigated In County

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated four accidents on rural highways in Bailey County during the month of February, 1974, according to Sergeant Thurman Keffler, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in no persons killed and three persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first two months of 1974 shows a total of ten accidents resulting in no persons killed and four persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for February, 1974, shows a total of 322 accidents resulting in 10 persons killed and 208 persons injured as compared to February, 1973, with 380 accidents resulting in 10 persons killed and 173 persons injured. This was 58 less accidents, and 35 more injured in 1974 at the same period of time.

The ten traffic deaths for the month of February, 1974, occurred in the following counties: three in Young; two in Wichita; one each in Castro, Moore, Randall, Crosby, and Montague counties.

RECIPE

By Sarah Anne Sheridan

Eggplant Casserole
The eggplant is a vegetable whose flavor is enhanced and often more desirable when combined with a variety of ingredients. The versatility, therefore, makes it a queen among cooks who enjoy turning out delicious casseroles. This recipe while simple, is one designed for those who like the subtle taste of the eggplant.

- 1 large eggplant, pared and cut into pieces
- 1 medium onion, quartered
- 3 T butter
- 1 slice of white bread
- 2/3 c grated sharp cheese
- 1 egg, separated
- salt and pepper

Boil the eggplant and onion until tender. Drain well and chop finely. Add butter, crumbled bread, half of cheese, egg yolk, and seasonings to taste. Mix well. Beat egg white until stiff and fold into first mixture. Pour into a buttered, shallow dish and sprinkle remaining cheese on top. Bake for 1/2 hour at 300 degrees.

The Consumer Alert

By John L. Hill Attorney General

AUSTIN -- If you're one of the many Americans who have a weight problem, you've probably often wished for a quick easy way to overcome it.

Remember that your doctor is the best source of information about how to lose weight or inches. He most likely will tell you that proper diet and a program of exercise tailored to your individual needs are the only effective ways to deal with the problem.

Many legitimate health salons or athletic clubs offer facilities designed to make exercise more inviting. These establishments do not claim to work miracles with special treatments or machines, although they may offer them to customers who request them.

There are some establishments, however, which tout such "Passive" processes or devices as the ultimate answer to weight control. This is an appealing prospect to many overweight persons.

Attorneys in my Consumer Protection Division investigated numerous complaints about such businesses and their claims in a special court of inquiry held in Dallas recently at my request.

If you're considering using such methods or machines, you can avoid disappointments and possible health hazards if you know how they work. Then you and your doctor can judge whether they would be of any use to you in your weight control program.

Of the number of passive exercise machines, the hip, stomach, or thigh roller is probably the best known and most widely used. This machine has a series of revolving rollers that supposedly "roll" the pounds away.

While they are said to help break up concentrations of fatty tissue and make it easier for the body to utilize it or carry it away, they must be used in conjunction with exercise or a diet for maximum effectiveness. Physicians testified to cases of results of dangerously excess fatty tissue in some persons' bloodstreams.

Vibrating belts and tables are also often used by some dieters. These reportedly produce a sensation of exercise but do very little toward taking off pounds or inches.

Several years ago, certain types of machines that used electrical impulses to trigger muscular response were quite popular. However, some of them were found to have possible dangers for persons with heart and circulatory problems and most health spas have discontinued their use.

Massages by professionally trained masserers or masseuses are used not only by persons wishing to lose weight, but by athletes and dancers. Massages can relax muscles, improve circulation to extremities, and bring a healthy-looking, although temporary, glow to the skin. But they cannot take away pounds or inches and are no substitute for diet and exercise.

The newest "passive" weight control method is a process called "body wrapping." The procedure varies but may involve spreading a cream over the body, applying some type of plastic wrap, the them wrapping the body tightly in elastic bandages. The person is left in the wrap for varying lengths of time.

This procedure is frowned upon by the Food and Drug Administration and the Federal Trade Commission.

The FTC recently got a court order requiring Louisiana health spas to issue warning that such wraps may be dangerous to the health of certain persons, and that doctor should be consulted by anyone considering the process.

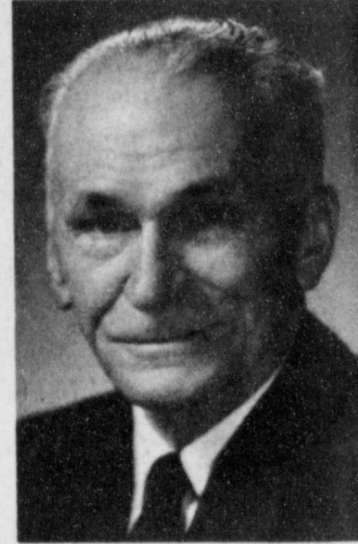

Physicians testified at our Dallas court of inquiry that the procedure can be extremely hazardous to individuals with certain circulatory problems and that it produces only temporary changes in body measurements.

If you're considering a health spa that offers these methods or machines, consult your doctor before deciding to use them.

If you have any question about health spa claims, feel free to call my Consumer Protection Division, your county or district attorney, or your local Better Business Bureau.

ON EDUCATIONAL COSTS

Undergraduate educational costs at taxpayer-supported institutions has continued to climb in the academic year 1973-74. The American Association of State Colleges and Universities has reported that the average tuition and fees charged to in-state students was up 3.6 per cent from last year and tuition for out-of-state students was up 10.43 per cent.

Of The Texas Department of Agriculture
John C. White, Commissioner

Numbers Down, Value Up... Feed Grain Stocks... See Your County Agent... Red Meat Production Declines.

While the number of sheep and goats in Texas is about the same now as a year ago, the number of sheep farms in the state dropped 1,000 compared to a year ago and 2,500 compared to two years ago.

All sheep and lambs in the state totaled 3,200,000 head, about the same as a year ago. The number of sheep farms in Texas is estimated at 12,500, compared to 13,500 a year ago and 14,500 two years ago.

The number of goats and kids on Texas farms and ranches as of January 1 was 1,350,000, down 16 per cent from a year ago.

Nationwide, the inventory of all sheep and lambs is down seven per cent from a year ago. Texas has about 20 per cent of all sheep and lambs in the nation.

The total value of all sheep and lambs at $32.70 per head means a combined value of more than half a billion dollars. A year ago, the value was $468,000,000, or an average of $26.40 per head.

STOCKS of the four feed grains—corn, barley, oats, and grain sorghum—totaled 288,000,000 bushels in Texas, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service notes.

Wheat stocks held in all positions are estimated at 53,000,000 bushels compared with 87,000,000 bushels a year ago.

Grain sorghum stocks are set at 233,000,000 bushels, down 242,000 bushels from a year ago.

Corn stocks at 37,800,000 bushels compared with 25,800,000 bushels a year ago.

Nationwide, January 1 stocks of all grains except grain sorghum and soybeans were below year earlier levels. Stocks of the four feed grains were seven per cent below those of a year ago.

FORTY-FOUR are approved for use of the M-44 cyanide chemical control device. Livestock producers in 44 Texas counties can use the M-44 provided they meet certain qualifications.

Producers in the 44 counties can use the M-44 provided they attend a training school on use of the M-44, and then provide records of experience with use of the device.

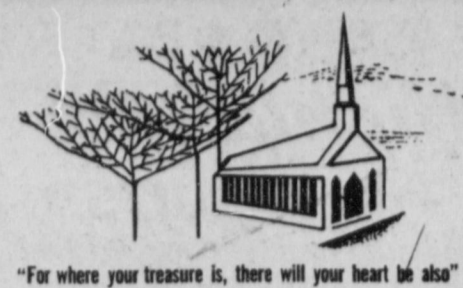

Counties which are approved for the experimental predator control program are Cottle, King, Dickens, Borden, Scurry, Mitchell, Taylor, Callahan, Midland, Glasscock, Sterling, Coleman, Crane, Upton, Jeff Davis, Pecos, Presidio, Kinney, Uvalde, Medina, Bexar, McCulloch, San Saba, Mills, Stephens, Erath, Brown, Comanche, Hamilton, Bosque, Coryell, Lampasas, Bell, McLennan, Burnet, Williamson, Hood, Milam, Jim Wells, Nueces, Kleberg, Kenedy, Brooks, and Willacy.

Check with your county agent for complete details on a training school in your county if you wish to use the M-44 in predator control.

The Texas Department of Agriculture is in charge of the program on a state level. Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said the experiment will help the $85,000,000 sheep and goat industry in Texas stay in existence. "The project also means more suits, sweaters, and lamb chops for the consumer," he said.

COMMERCIAL slaughter plants in Texas produced 169,200,000 pounds of red meat during December, 1973. This is down eight per cent from the previous month and four per cent below the total produced a year ago.

An investment in Your Future ...ATTEND CHURCH

"For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also"

PARROTS DO TALK... But!

SO DOES A RECORD PLAYER

Our Nation faces a serious threat of communism just off our shores. At the same time within our nation, they are seeking to undermine our faith in God. There are many sayings and expressions going around in our country that are communist inspired. In order to prevent "parroting" these sayings, that weaken our nation... attend church regularly, and study God's word so that the truth is more easily recognized.

"Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

March Declared As Nutrition Month

School students, like most everyone else, often eat what they like and not necessarily what is good for them. So feels Martin Garber, regional administrator for the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Food and Nutrition Service (FNS). March Nutrition Month, a nationwide campaign to promote better nutrition, is aimed at people with poor eating habits in hope their eating habits can be changed.

School cafeterias operating under the National School Lunch Program offer nutritionally balanced meals and milk to all students. The lunch program for public schools in Texas is administered by the Texas Education Agency, in cooperation with FNS. Children whose families can't afford to pay full price for the lunches get them free or at reduced cost.

Some 1,328,000 students in Texas eat school lunches each day.

The nutrient value of foods is something everyone should know, says Administrator Garber. Teaching this information to school age children will guide them as they form eating habits which last a lifetime.

Lunches produced under the National School Lunch Program are a good means of imparting nutrition education. Each Type

A meal must meet standards established by FNS. Each Type A meal consists of meat or other protein-rich food, vegetables and/or fruit, bread, butter or margarine and milk.

Texas' chairman for March Nutrition Month is Dr. Barbara Mitchell, who is also president of the Texas State Nutrition Council.
