The Tax-Paying Voters of Wheeler:

We, the Wheeler Volunteer Fire Department, realizing that we are a servant of the people and NOT a political group, wish to express our attitude in the vitally important Bond Referendum to be voted next Tuesday. Being interested in the prevention and control of fire, we wish to point out that our present water supply is very inadequate. Much of the city is too far from fire protection with inadequate service lines and a very limited supply of water with which to extinguish a fire during much of the dry season each year. Fire insurance rates are based on the ratio of net premiums paid and fire losses in the city along with the physical requirements for adequate fire protection. Hence the necessity of trying to maintain adequate supplies of water and fire plugs at all times. We, the Fire Department, feel that the voters should, without equivocation go to the polls Tuesday and vote FOR the Sale of the bonds and AGAINST their cancellation. Any improvement obtained in the water situation in our city will be a help in controlling fires and holding insurance costs to a minimum. We do not know exactly how many plugs will be installed nor where they will be located. We do know that any relief will be a help. Your Volunteer Fire Department urges you, individually and collectively to go to the polls Tuesday and vote FOR the Sale Of The Bonds.

MARCH 30 LAST DAY FOR TAGS

The deadline for purchasing 1957 license plates for motor vehicles is Saturday, March 30, which means that motorists have only two more days to purchase their tags. The last day that 1956 license plates can be used legally is Sunday, March 31, which falls on Sunday. The tags may be purchased at the office of Thurman Rives, Wheeler County Tax Assessor-Collector, in Wheeler; are from Lyman Benson, deputy collector, at Benson Hardware & Furniture Company, in Shamrock. Sales are running a little ahead of last year, but many motorists still haven't purchased their plates. The law says that failure to have the 1957 plates on motor vehicles by the required time could result in a fine and a 20 per cent penalty over the price of the plates. Owners of vehicles are reminded that they must have the title to the vehicle and the receipt for last year's plates when they apply for new plates.

He stated that he would be here each second and fourth Wednesdays hereafter. The office here has been closed for several weeks awaiting the assignment of a new examiner after the former one transferred to the inspection division. Mr. Hacker will live in Pampa where most of his work is located. He will also serve Canadian, Higgins, Miami, and McLean as examiner. Mr. Hacker has just completed Drivers License School and this is his first assigned station.

In the bond referendum there are four propositions on the ballot. Since the bond issue was voted as two propositions, Water and Sanitary Sewer, any action pertaining to them must be voted in the same manner. Hence the two propositions on the sale of the bonds and the two propositions on revocation or cancellation of same. Elsewhere in this issue is a sample ballot marked to vote for the sale of the bonds and against the revocation or cancellation of them. In marking the bond referendum ballot you can express any one of three ideas pertaining to either one or both of the bonds. If you vote against the sale of the bonds and against the revocation or cancellation of them you are telling the council not to sell the bonds now but to keep them for sale at a later date.

SAFE DRIVING NOT A HABIT

How good are you in a highway emergency? Would you know what to do if a car you were trying to pass speeded up, leaving you too little room ahead to pass safely?
Knowing the answer to questions such as this and reacting correctly and quickly when confronted by such a situation could save your life.

E. C. McFadden of Dallas, Vice President of Employers Casualty Company and President of the Texas Safety Association, reminded motorists of this fact today as he urged them to drive defensively. McFadden spoke in behalf of the defensive driving program which the Texas Safety Association is conducting through March in cooperation with the National Safety Council. This is part of the nation-wide Back the Attack on Traffic Accidents campaign aimed at cutting the scandalous traffic toll. The spring phase of this campaign stresses the moral responsibility of drivers for their own and others' safety.

McFadden explained that the defensive driver is one who drives in such a manner as to avoid accidents by anticipating and allowing for hazards created by the unsafe acts of others and adverse traffic and weather conditions.

"If a defensive driver suddenly found he did not have enough time to pass safely, he would not step heavily on the gas and take a chance on making it," McFadden said. "He would slam on his brakes, let the car he was trying to pass move ahead, then drop back behind it."

The defensive driver realizes that in addition to turning in a top-notch driving job himself, he also has a responsibility to make up for the shortcomings of others, McFadden said. He pointed out that such an attitude comes naturally to persons accustomed to accepting their moral responsibilities in other departments of daily living.

"Unsafe actions of other drivers and pedestrians are not the only hazards that may confront the motorists," the TSA President warned. "He must also be alert to the dangers presented by adverse traffic and weather conditions."

McFadden said drivers should be aware of the emergency situations that can arise when they're behind the wheel and should know how to cope with them. It is equally important to be constantly alert to anticipate danger and act quickly to remedy it, he said.

Awards For Texas 4-H Alumni

Arvie S. Elliot Mrs. Schaffner R. E. Hartman Mrs. L. C. Huff

The 4-H Alumni Recognition award for 1956 was given to four outstanding Texans who have carried the 4-H ideals into their home, community and business. Former Texas 4-H Club members, they were selected by the Extension Service of Texas A. & M. College for this honor.

They are: Arvie S. Elliot, 812 Progress, Edna; Mrs. A. W. Schaffner, Box 267A, Cuero; R. E. Hartman, 238 Westrafe Drive, Corpus Christi; and Mrs. Lewis C. Huff, Box 43, West Columbia.

A handsome inscribed burnished copper plaque was presented to each by the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation.

Mr. Elliot worked as extension agent in four Texas counties, developing 4-H Club programs among farm boys. He financed many 4-H demonstrations for deserving members. His record as a 4-H boy and his everyday practices indicate his strong belief in 4-H youth training. As a member, he was chosen the outstanding 4-H Club boy in his state.

Mrs. Schaffner is a leader in 4-H Club work. As a girl, she rode horseback four miles to attend 4-H Club meetings. She received her 20 year diamond 4-H pin last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartman are both adult 4-H leaders and their two children are members of a 4-H Club. Mr. Hartman assists in selecting animals for 4-H demonstrations. He helps at livestock shows, teaching 4-H'ers how to groom and show animals.

Teachers are glad to avail themselves of his counsel. The family also participates in church and community work.

Mrs. Huff is an outstanding 4-H leader. She was also a member of the executive board of the ing aid and great ability in 4-H and community have endeared

Ancient Art Still Tops Modern Science

Lacquerware, like precious jewels, is an ancient and highly developed art. In the Imperial Palace at Tokyo, Japan, there are priceless examples of this art, thousands of years old.

But besides being a fine art, lacquerware has more ordinary, practical uses. It is acid, stain and alcohol-resistant and can stand a temperature as high as 150 degrees Fahrenheit. Modern science has yet to come up with anything that equals the combined usefulness and artistry of this 2,000-year-old craft or the clean beauty of its high-gloss finish. And now comes the news that lacquer masters are experimenting with new methods and materials and coming up with new designs for modern American homes.

Most people are acquainted with attractive cigarette boxes and trays or charming pieces of furniture. Not so many know the elaborate boxes for jewels or highly ornamental decorative screens. Many American servicemen who brought home beautiful specimens from Japan now cherish them as their most prized possessions. With them grew a taste and demand for more and now leading stores everywhere import a variety of interesting lacquerware.

Lac is the sap of the tree Rhus Vernicifera, and similar trees which grow in the Orient, principally Japan, the only country which today manufactures fine lacquerware. Japan's climate lends itself to the peculiar needs of lacquerware. Pine wood is most commonly used as the base. One of the most complicated of arts, lacquerware requires forty different steps for the completion of gold lacquerware and as many as one hundred and fifty layers of lacquer to provide a perfect piece. And because fine specimens must still be made by hand in this electronics age, it is becoming scarcer. The most expensive and elaborate lacquer work may require hundreds of coats and several years of tedious work. When dried, the surface is polished with pulverized burnt hartshorn in a dust-proof room. The coats of lacquer are carved through in a design which show up in relief the delicate shadings of colors.

Today, as 500 years ago, Japanese craftsmen still turn out fine lacquerware, which may cost anything from $3 for a charming ash tray to $300 or more for an elaborate jewel chest. Since output is limited, buyers regard their purchases as treasures, to be cherished in the same way as precious heirlooms.

TV PROGRAM TO HELP TEACHER SHORTAGES

Jesse J. Dyer, Co. Supt. of Public Instruction, urges college graduates in this area to give serious consideration to opportunities available to them in the teaching profession. Superintendent Dyer explained that the need for teachers is especially critical in some areas of the State and that more than 2,000 persons have had to be assigned to teaching positions this year on the basis of emergency teaching permits.

"I especially want to call your attention to the state-wide teacher education courses now being presented over television," Superintendent Dyer said. "A person with a college degree can enroll in the Let's Teach television series and begin his preparation for teaching. Even though a teaching vacancy may not be available to you at the present time, credit for the Let's Teach series will enable you to qualify for an emergency teaching permit which will be valid from one to three years in any school district in Texas which has been unable to find enough fully qualified teachers."

Any person desiring complete information about the Let's Teach teacher recruitment series may inquire at the office of his local school superintendent or address Let's Teach, Texas Education Agency, Austin, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Roberts of Denver, Colo., and Mrs. Beuna Gardner, of Lemoore, Calif., visited in the home of Mrs. Dora Roberts several days last week.

Wheeler County Soil Conservation District News

Continued rains are making prospects for the coming season much brighter. It is now time to be thinking about deferring any grassland that has a good stand of any grass that can be seeded. All kinds of seed are in short supply and the shortages are likely to continue for another year. Even if yields are not too heavy, grass seed will make a more profitable cash crop than any other crop grown here.

The rain has made the patches of rye seeded in cotton look very good. It looked like a very long gamble to seed cover crop last fall but it is making a good soil improving crop for those farmers who had enough nerve to go ahead and plant.

Soil Conservation Service personnel assisting the district are running terraces for Taylor Turnbow and B. A. Schlegel west of Shamrock. Construction has been delayed by too much rain for the first time in a very long time. Waterways have been designed for Max Baird of Kelton, J. R. Hefley

IF YOU ARE A TAX PAYER

VOTE FOR JUDGE RALPH YARBOROUGH

If you pay county taxes, our senators race is an important election from a financial standpoint. This race has narrowed down to two men, Martin Dies and Judge Yarborough. If Mr. Dies is elected it will cost us from $250,000.00 to $300,000.00 to hold an election to pick his successor as congressman-at-large. If Mr. Dies did not want the congressman job, he should have stayed out of the race and let us elect a man for this office last fall. Mr. Dies has this job let him stay on it.

Judge Yarborough is much closer to us ordinary folks than Mr. Dies. He has worked in the harvest fields, rough necked in the Borger oil fields and knows how rough life can be. He did his part in the army, and as an Assistant Attorney General, prosecuted successfully the so called "strappage" case before our Rail Road Commission. This was the practice whereby the oil companies deducted 1% from the production figures before paying the land owner his one eighth. This alone has saved land owners millions of dollars in Texas. There is room in Washington for both of these men.

COMPENSATION CHANGES MADE

Three of every five widows of veterans who died to service-connected causes before January 1, 1957, have failed to apply for the increased dependants' compensation payments. Veterans Administration announced this week the Servicemen's and Veterans' Survivor Benefits Act, which authorizes the new payments, became effective January 1, 1957.

Widows of veterans who died of service-connected causes before January 1, 1957 may elect to receive the new payments or to continue under the old death compensation, which ever is higher.

In most cases, VA said, the new act provides for higher payments to these widows, than were granted under previous laws.

Any of these widows who wish to receive the higher benefit must apply for the new compensation payments, even though they already are on VA rolls.

Application cards have been sent to 114,000 of these widows who may be eligible for increased payments, VA added.

If a widow is eligible for an increased monthly payment under the new law, VA said, such payments will be made retroactive to January 1, 1957, provided she applies by July 1, 1957.

With certain exceptions, applications received after July 1 will be effective as of the day they are received, VA emphasized.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryon St. John and family of Dumas visited last week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. St. John and his sister, Mrs. Louise Hogan and children.

POSTAL RATE BILL STARTED

At long last the Administration submitted its recommended postal rate increase bill to Congress. Identical bills were promptly introduced in the House and Senate to carry out the recommendations. Hearings are expected to be started soon by the House Post Office Committee. The Senate committee has received a report on postal policy from its Citizens Advisory Committee and will hold hearings on this report before considering any rate increase proposals.

The administration abandoned its drive for a five cent combined first-class-air-mail rate and settled for one cent increase. First-class mail would be increased from three to four cents, and air mail from six to seven cents. Regular postcards would be increased from two to three cents and air post cards to five cents. The administration optimistically has set July 1, 1957 as the effective date for the rate increase.

Eaves Flashing Guards Roof Deck When Gutters Dam

If you are about to re-roof your house, be sure to have an eaves flashing strip installed.

Flashing is the best insurance against leakage at the eaves, one of the most likely trouble spots of a roof. Trouble there is more likely to occur in winter than any other season. The gutters dam up with ice. Then a thaw arrives, melting snow on the roof. This run-off, unable to enter the ice-dammed gutters, backs up the roof. It may seep underneath the shingles, and if there is no flashing to withstand it, it may seep through to the inside of the house.

Sometimes it takes weeks till the home-owner recognizes something is amiss. Then he sees the unmistakable clues—plaster may crack, paint bubble, wallpaper stain and an electric circuit short.

Proper application of asphalt shingles requires that a flashing strip be installed. The flashing is made of asphalt roll roofing. Laid along the eaves under the shingles, it runs upward from the eaves at least a foot inside the inner edge of the wall.

As an added safeguard, many roofers install a metal drip edge along the eaves and rakes. Four inches wide, made of rust-proof metal, it is bent down over the edge, preventing water from entering the end of the roof deck.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Psalms	62	1-12
Monday	Isaiah	1	1-20
Tuesday	Lamentations	3	22-26
Wednesday	Matthew	5	39-48
Thursday	Matthew	18	21-35
Friday	John	8	1-11
Saturday	Romans	12	14-21

Our verdict had been given. With a word of commendation the Judge discharged us, the ladies and gentlemen of the jury. The completed duty brought little relief. Instead there was a burden, a spiritual weight. Days of testimony and hours of deliberation had given an oppressive sense of the world's sin and suffering.

The door of my church was open and I slipped inside. I was alone as the rays of the setting sun enhanced the rich colors of the windows. All was quiet. I dropped to my knees.

Gradually in the solemn beauty of that sacred place I found peace. Here was sanctuary for me and for all who would come in faith believing.

Thankfully I arose; my heart and mind felt calm and refreshed. I could go home now, but I would return often. In glad fellowship with God's people I would worship the Christ who died that men might be forgiven.

Silver Kept Ready For Special Occasions

Why trade the silver in your shining serving pieces for all the tarnish in the air? Just a short period of exposure to normal atmosphere causes ugly discoloration on silver surfaces that can be removed only by laborious polishing.

But just the tiniest forethought and the simplest precaution will keep your silver service brilliant, and dustproof too. The handiest household help is the ideal answer... transparent plastic film. All you have to do is tear a piece of Saran film from the roll, wrap it around each piece of silver to be stored... or sets of tableware... and the work is done. Self-adhering, moisture-proof, it will protect your finest pieces from dirt, retard tarnish and have them ready for instant use when that "special occasion" calls for special elegance. There is only one precaution to observe. Make sure the articles to be wrapped have been thoroughly washed and dried following polishing. Then there is no need to rinse or dust them before use.

Inexpensive and so simple to use, this transparent film is a staple item in most kitchens... its uses as versatile as the homemaker's imagination... and represents no extra investment in money or shopping time. What's more, its look-through clarity does away with the problems of locating the special pieces desired, without disturbing the entire storage area. Saran is available in 12-inch and 18-inch widths at leading supermarkets and grocers.

THE DRIVER'S SEAT

Like to have a million dollars put on your doorstep every morning for the rest of your life?

All you have to do is devise a way to eliminate automobile accidents for one year, receive as a reward usually lost in a single year's accidents and invest it at normal interest rates.

That's the way one safety expert dramatized the annual economic loss—more than $6,500,000,000 —in the United States because of automobile accidents. However, he cautioned that, should you have a million dollars delivered to your home every morning, you probably wouldn't have room in which to live after a few weeks 'the dollar bills soon would take up every space in your home, because you wouldn't be able to spend it fast enough.

But maybe you're the kind who doesn't want to be the richest person in the world. Perhaps you would rather use the money saved by the elimination of automobile accidents to improve the nation.

For example, say you wanted to solve the problem of our jammed schools. According to estimates of the United States government, more than 995,000 classrooms, costing a total of $16 billion, must be built within the next four years.
Considering that its costs approximately $30,000 to build one schoolroom, the job is relieving our crowded schools is a staggering expensive one.

Yet, if automobile accidents were eliminated, the money saved would build all the classrooms necessary, and money for approximately 620,000 extra classrooms would be available.

Other things could be done with the money. For example, cancer research could be conducted forever with the money saved in just one year by the elimination of automobile accidents. Invested at normal interest rates, the $6,500-000,000 savings in one year would return twice as much as the amount now spent annually for all cancer research.

But no magic solution to the highway accident problem has been devised. More than $18,000-000 a day continues to be lost as speeding cars crash together all over the United States. And safety experts quietly concede that the crowded highways will continue to cost thousands of millions of wasted dollars a year. About the only way you can save money is by devising ways for you to avoid accidents.

Texas Is Entitled To More Senators

This is how we can get them

An error made by the framers of our constitution, is over eight million Texans to only two Senators.
Arizona with 435 thousand population, Delaware 266, Nevada with only 110, Wyoming with 290 are two Senators. Now comes our Republican friend suggest that Ala-ka's 290 thousand and Hawaii 506 thousand be given statehood and allowed two Senators to come to Washington and tell us how to run U. S. A.
Such action would give these 1,740,000 people two senators, a senator for each 144,163 population.
For like representation, Texas would have to have two senators, but our constitution does not allow this.
Our only remedy is to have our state legislature continue the practice of not redistricting our state into congressional districts. The 1960 census will give us two or 2 more congressmen-at-large along with Mr.
Martin Dies. The term of congressman should be raised to four years; those men, by representing the whole state, could do us as much good as a senator, we need able men such as Mr. Dies in the lower house.
Sam, a wonderful man is getting a day older each day, and Mr. Dies is the logical man to take his place.

Should we elect Mr. Dies senator, it will cost Texas over a quarter million dollars to hold an election for another congressman-at-large. Voters who pay taxes should consider this phase of our responsibility. This quarter of a million dollars can be used to better advantage elsewhere.
The senate race has narrowed down to Mr. Dies, Mr. Yarborough and the Republican candidate, and we, as Democrats certainly do not want to help elect the Republican by voting for one of the other good men in the race. Any of these men will be suitable material for our next Congressman-at-large when 1960 census is taken; most of them are running to get their names before the public for the purpose of running for governor in 1958 or 1960.
We should elect Ralph Yarborough senator, not only to save ourselves the $250,000.00 to $300,000.00 another congressman-at-large election would cost, but because he is closer to the ordinary folks of Texas than any other man in the race, he is honest and sincere and knows how to think. Let's keep Martin in the House where he is doing wonderful work, and put Ralph in the senate.

answered the wishes of those who desire an early garden, but hesitate to challenge the unpredictable Spring weather.
An electric hotbed can give your seedlings the necessary early start and healthy growth to produce nutritious, vine ripened tomatoes by early July. For that matter, you can have a full garden of any number of vegetables that can easily be transplanted, such as lettuce, eggplant, peppers, etc.
Your hotbed installation requires only a small investment and it can be used year after year to give you early garden produce. One 60 foot electric soil heating cable will dissipate 400 watts on 110 volts, and will heat 36 square feet of soil.
For July 4th tomatoes you need to start your seedlings in the latter part of February.
These seeds germinate readily at soil temperatures between 68 and 75 degrees F, but when the seedlings appear above ground the temperature should be lowered slightly to prevent weak and spindly growth. Generally a soil temperature of 65 degrees, with plenty of light and moderate watering, will produce good stocky seedlings, but the air temperature should not go above 70 degrees at any time.

Germination is in five to eight days. Transplanting to the open garden in late May can be done without loss of growth.

In locating your hotbed it is advised to select a sunny exposure on well-drained soil, protected from cold winds by shrubby or by partial burying in the ground. Follow the hotbed instructions for each of the annual seedlings planted.

Your farm equipment dealer can give you any information you might need on hotbed installation and operation, or check with your power supplier.

An electric hotbed can produce a fourth of July salad of nutritious, garden ripened vegetables from any home plot.

CAR INSPECTION DEADLINE SOON

Only two-thirds of the total number of vehicle owners in Texas have received their 1957 vehicle inspection stickers. Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety said today.

He warned against the last minute rush at inspection stations at the close of the inspection period, April 15.

"Of the more than four million vehicle owners in Texas only about 2,500,000 have had their cars, truck and other vehicles inspected leaving more than 1,000,000 to act within the remaining two weeks."

The state police director reminded motorists of the impending deadline with a note of concern. He suggested that automobile owners visit a near-by inspection station now before inspection lines become long and they suffer an undue loss of time and effort.

In commenting generally on the inspection program Col. Garrison said the correction of mechanical defects in vehicles operated upon our state highways plays a substantial part in preventing traffic accidents.

You Will Be Sorry

If you are a tax payer in the town of Wheeler, and want to help build a bigger and better Wheeler, you will turn out April 2nd., and vote for cancellation of the ill advised bond issue we have before us.

Not one of the six men who signed the original Chamber of Commerce petition to the City Council knew what they were signing, and not one of the three now living in Wheeler can explain it to you at this time with any degree of intelligence.

Not one of the twenty voters who recommended the ratification of this bond issue at the recent meeting of the Chamber can explain their action today. They, like most of us, want a bigger and better Wheeler, this is a case of the tail trying to wag the dog.

The plan for our water and sewer extensions were drawn by a bunch of fellows up at Amarillo who wanted plans to spend every cent they could, so their commission would be big, they were not street builders, so wanted all our bonding capacity spent on water and sewer.

It will cost the town over $100.00 per year per customer to tie on and furnish sewer to the few houses west of the Thomas Garage who will tie on the sewer. Their septic tanks can be cleaned for $5.00 per year. If tied on the city sewer they would have to pay $12.00 per year in addition to their city tax.

We should lower the sewer line across the highway to Dons Courts, furnish sewer for the people on South Shamrock street and a few other places. A small expenditure will furnish them all the water they want.

The fire boys should have some more six inch line fire plugs to help carry on their present efficient service.

The members of our city council and chamber of commerce boosters now acknowledge that with the advance in price of material, labor and money, we cannot build half the project promised by the bond boosters and the city council say they will have to cut back a lot of the project promised. When they attempt to do this, there will be a lot of hard feelings and perhaps a few law suits which will tear our town to pieces

The only way we can do the honest thing, is to cancel both the sewer and water bonds. Then allow every new comer who wants to do so, to get outside the corporate limits. Then get up a sensible bond issue which will give us all the water and sewer we need at this time, and allow a margin for street improvements.

When we start building water and sewer systems out in all our outlying farms and cow pastures, we are throwing money down the drain. This money should be spent topping our streets to keep the sand from blowing, our streets are an eye sore to any one looking for a place to live.

When our water and sewer talk started, we had a lot of wild oil talk going on, several wells drilling and several houses under construction. Not one house is now being built, not one well being drilled on the north side of the county, we may soon see some houses coming out of Wheeler.

Nothing will kill a town quicker than high taxes and a bunch of disgruntled tax payers. You are not voting for Wheeler when you vote to spend town money out in a bunch of farm patches and cow pastures for the purpose of helping some one sell some building locations, when no one wants to build a house. If the present bond issue is ratified, you will see your tax rate raised from the present $1.00 to $1.50 and your valuations doubled Ordinary residences will be paying up to $100.00 per year city taxes. We have over 100 building sites inside the old corporate limits adjacent to both water and sewer, don't believe the talk that we need this bond issue to let the town grow
