SHORT ITEMS

Home Air Conditioning Needed, Wives Agree

The Federal Housing and Home Financing Agency's detailed publication on the Women's Housing Congress shows that seven out of every ten housewives who attended believe that central air conditioning is a necessity rather than a luxury and want provisions made for it in their future homes.

Six out of ten agreed that these provisions should include insulation in walls and ceilings. Research has shown that a thick barrier of mineral wool—six inches in ceilings, four inches in walls, and two inches in an unheated floor—makes smaller, less expensive air-conditioning systems possible and greatly reduces operating costs. The house will be more comfortable in winter, too.

BARBECUE GOES FAST

An outdoor barbecue can be built in less than an hour with cinder blocks and fire bricks. The cinder blocks are stacked without mortar leaving a U-shaped opening at the top which is lined with the fire-resistant bricks. Top the finished job with an iron grate.

PAINT-SAVING TIP

Paint will not form a surface crust while stored if a small amount of mineral spirits or turpentine is poured on top of the paint before the can is re-sealed. Care should be taken not to shake the can when it is put away.

CHAIR SEAT WOVEN

Plastic clothesline in white or colors makes an ideal textured seat for a chair. The clothesline is laced from front to back across the seat, then woven from side to side. Ends are tacked to underside of rungs.

PROTECT SCREEN DOOR

The screen in a screen door won't be bulged out by young children pushing against it if a piece of fencing with half-inch-square holes is tacked over the lower inside area of the screen.

BALL EASES PAINTING

A sponge rubber ball fitted over the handle of a paint brush makes painting less tiring by providing a larger, pliable grip. Hole is cut in the ball with a sharp, pointed knife.

Carriage House Goes Modern Sad Shack Becomes Showplace

Taking a vivid imagination along on their house-hunting trip helped a New York physician and his wife come up with just what the doctor ordered in the way of a modern home.

They spotted an aging carriage house on Long Island's south shore and used their imaginations to visualize what the decrepit little building could become with modernization. The picture clicked, and they bought the carriage house, plus an acre of land, for $9,000.

That was in 1951, and today, at the end of a five-year plan designed to make financing easier, the doctor and his family have a rambling, comfortable home with four bedrooms, two baths, two-car garage, modern heating and plumbing and other up-to-date features. They estimate the remodeling cost $11,000.

This included building a long, low wing housing the master bedroom and garage, converting the open "carriage" area of the original main floor into a 20-by-20-foot living room with fireplace, a large kitchen and bath, and adding three bedrooms and a bath on the original second floor.

A new roof of asphalt shingles was applied to give the house long lasting protection from Long Island's rugged weather, and a white cupola was placed atop the garage.

Asphalt shingles are particularly effective for remodeling because they can be applied directly over the old roofing, eliminating the mess and expense of tearing off the worn out material.

Heating seemed to be a problem at first. The original building was built on a concrete slab, and floors in the living-kitchen area tended to stay cold. This was solved with baseboard heating which warmed the air in the rooms by convection and heated the floors by radiation.

The heating was made even more efficient by installing thick mineral wall insulation in walls and ceilings. The mineral during, by keeping heat inside during Long Island's harsh winters, makes the house more comfortable and helps cut fuel consumption. If he ever decides to air condition the house, the thick insulation will mean less of an initial equipment investment for the doctor and lower operating costs.

Among other features decided on during the careful, five-year study of building materials and ideas, were double-hung wood windows for the new wing and to replace the carriage doors. The windows match those in the original house in appearance and retain the early American decor.

Double-hung windows of ponderosa pine are as popular for remodeling as they are in new construction. One reason is that they come in units with frame and sash fitted together at the factory. This makes them easier and less expensive to install, and assures smooth operation.

teams are last names only and your editor with the help of Ira Passons and Virgil Jamison have tried to insert the first names of the players. If we have made errors we are sorry. The clipping follows:

BOYS SCRIMMAGE ON LIGHTED FIELD

In order to get accustomed to playing under lights, the Mustangs had a scrimmage game on the new lighted gridiron Thursday of last week. The boys were divided into two teams, the White Shirts and the Yellow Shirts. No admission was charged the crowd of approximately 150 people. Robert Mayne refereed the game.

Starting lineup for the White Shirts was as follows: c. J. N.

Tucker; lg. O. D. Conner; lt. Troy Shipman; le. Amos Page; rg. James Passons; rt. Clifford Tillman; re. Olin Maxwell; qb. Curtis Weeks; hb. Wallace Pendleton; hb. Dippy Ray Norman; fb. W. J. Ford.

Starting lineup for the Yellow Shirts were: c. Larry (Snuffy) Deering; lg. Cecil Sherwood; lt. Ford Newkirk; le. Herbert White; rg. John Sims; rt. Bob Tillman; re. Alton Weeks; qb. Ocie Pace; hb. Lewis Cain; hb. Jack Tate; fb. H. E. Young.

The final score was 6 to 0 in favor of the White Shirts. The counter was made in the last play of the first half, when W. J. Ford caught a pass from rebound. The extra point was not gained.

Worms Affect 1957 Deer Crop

Although range conditions are the best in years the Texas deer crop this season may be badly affected by screw worms, according to the Director of Law Enforcement of the Texas Game and Fish Commission.

"Many fawns and does are dying," the Director said. "These worms also are hitting the bucks when their new horns become irritated or injured. There is just nothing to be done about it."

The Director said ranchmen also are concerned with their cattle, sheep and goats.

CHILDRESS SAYS THANKS

Mayor C. B. Kirk received a letter from the City of Childress thanking Wheeler for the help rendered in the search for the bodies of two people drowned recently in lake Baylor. The letter follows:

June 25, 1957

The Honorable Mayor
Wheeler, Texas

Dear Mr. Mayor:

The City of Childress wishes to express its sincere appreciation for the wonderful cooperation and help received from your fine City during our recent tragedy at Baylor Lake.

It's a wonderful thing to know that in times of stress and need, we can count on our neighbors to give unselfishly of their time and equipment.

The City of Childress wishes you to know that should the time come when we can in any way be of help in any emergency, you need but to call and we will be there.

Sincerely,

Mayor H. C. Preslar
Chief of Police Roy Hassell
Fire Chief John Ballew
City Manager Louis Sally

and other mechanical features, & start your vacation on the right foot — which is a light foot on the gas pedal.

Slow down in bad weather, on bad roads, in heavy traffic or if visibility is poor.

Don't swim alone, too far, or after dark. Know the waters' depth.

Rest after eating. Take sunbathing a little at a time — better pale than parboiled.

Watch out for fish hooks.

Select boats carefully. Observe standard boat safety rules — no standing, overloading or horseplay. Stay with your boat if it overturns.

Some items vacationers often forget, the Council said, include:

Clothing. Select it properly.

Water. If its purity's in doubt, boil it.

Fires. Keep them small and guarded.

"Vacations can be fun — or glum, depending on you," the Council said.

APPLICATIONS BEING MADE

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, has announced that there are openings for 50 men in the Driver License Division of the Department.

The positions are that of Driver License Examiner. Applications will be accepted through July at the department in Austin or by DL Examiners throughout the state. Those persons selected will be paid during the six weeks training period that starts in early September.

Col. Garrison pointed out that examiners are thoroughly trained in all phases of traffic laws, highway law, driver license law and other subjects pertaining to the job before being assigned their stations.

He said applications mailed to Austin should be addressed to A. F. Temple, chief of the Driver License Division.

Applicants applying for the position of DL Examiner must be between the ages of 21 and 35, be a graduate of high school, physically fit and of good moral character and weigh not less than two pounds or more than three pounds per inch of height.

Be Safe, Not Sorry On Your Vacation

"...The skies are blue and the trees are green.

"And I long for a long vacation."

So wrote poet Edwin Meade Robinson. And the longing for a vacation — though it's usually only two weeks "long" — is one many persons will satisfy during summer months.

How safely they'll vacation depends on whether they take along a little common sense with the suntan lotion and the insect repellent, according to the National Safety Council.

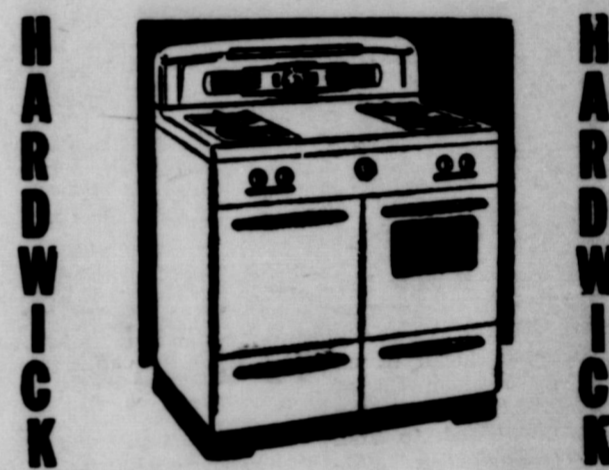

If vacationers play safely, they'll probably send scads of "wish-you-were-here" cards home. If they don't, they'll probably do their writing propped up in a hospital bed.

Traveling, fishing, swimming, boating, cooking outdoors or working around a house — all can be hazardous, the Council said.

Vacationers can make merry their two weeks off — or they can make mishaps. "Have a good time," the Council said, but plan safety into your vacation by follow these rules:

Check your car's brakes, lights

BOY SCOUTS TO HOLD JAMOREE

America's youngest, newest and busiest city for over 50,000 persons will team with excitement next July 12 to 18. At the moment it doesn't exist.
 A 1,500-acre tent city will house the Fourth National Jamboree of the Boy Scouts of America at historic Valley Forge in Pennsylvania. In its boys from all walks of life, of all races and creeds will live together, exchanging skills, swap home-town products, and learn about the customs and traditions of many sections of the nation.
 "The purpose of the jamboree," says Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America, "is to strengthen the program of the individual unit and to provide an opportunity for boys to be associated with scouts from all parts of their own country. This living together in a spirit of brotherhood and friendship is one of the continuing objectives of our movement and the basis upon which we undertake this gigantic task."
 Valley Forge Park is owned and maintained by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania which invited the Scouts to camp there. After the jamboree the Scouts will have the grounds restored to their original condition.
 Survey parties are allocating 1,292 troop camp sites each 90 feet by 90 feet. There will be 38 sectional camps each comprising 34 troops of 37 Scouts or Explorers and three adult leaders, and also a sectional staff of forty leaders.
 The Scout city will have its own water, electric power and telephone systems, post offices, fire departments, medical facilities, an amphitheatre seating 55,000 persons and even its own trading posts.
 It will be a self-sustaining venture with each participant paying his own way.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Psalms	130 1-8
Monday	Genesis	4 1-17
Tuesday	Deuteronomy	32 1-7
Wednesday	Samuel	22 1-33
Thursday	Psalms	119 1-24
Friday	Psalms	145 1-14
Saturday	Revelation	3 15-22

Samuel Francis Smith was a student at Andover Theological Seminary when he wrote "My country, 'tis of thee." That was in 1832, two years before he was ordained a minister.
 "America" never became our national anthem—probably because it is sung to the tune of the British anthem, "God Save the King." But it has remained one of our greatest hymns, its words familiar to almost every American. In a simple, moving way it seems to express both the spirit of our nation and the faith of our churches. And in its stirring climax, addressed to the Author of Liberty, these become one.
 Samuel Francis Smith, with other great Americans, taught us to seek our national welfare in constant religious devotion. He saw no denial of America's freedom—but rather its fulfillment—in the humble acknowledgment:
GREAT GOD, OUR KING!

Windstorms
Don't Worry
'Tight' House

You can run for shelter when a hurricane or other severe wind-storm strikes, but your house can't.

For this reason, it's a good idea to get your home ready now for late summer and early autumn storms—possibly even a hurricane or two.

What can you do? Begin by checking the roof, since it is a home's first line of defense against weather of all kinds.

A careful inspection is important, because an old, weathered roof is an open invitation to severe interior damage during and after a windstorm. High winds can weaken portions of the worn material so much that heavy rains following the winds can soak through into the house.

To be certain your roof can "take" high winds and rain, call in a roofing contractor to give it a professional inspection. If he recommends a new roof, asphalt shingles can be applied in a weathertight covering which will last for years. This type of roofing can be applied to resist even hurricane winds and usually can be put on directly over the old roofing, eliminating the labor and mess of removing the weathered material.

Other windstorm preparations you can make include checking the house for loose shutters, window boxes, siding, TV antenna—anything that might be ripped away—and making sure that doors and windows are weather-stripped to keep out driving rain.

It's also a good idea to look for cracks around the foundation, windows, and doors, and to fill them with caulking compound. Young trees and shrubs should be staked, and older trees should be pruned of dead limbs.

Cooler Cows
Give More,
Tests Show

Dairy cows give more milk when they are housed in cool barns, according to tests conducted at the University of Missouri.

The tests showed that a temperature of 45 to 50 degrees is ideal for high milk production. Holsteins averaged just under 50 pounds of milk daily at 50 degrees. Production dropped to less than 40 pounds at 60 degrees and to 46.5 pounds at 70 degrees. Agricultural authorities consequently urge farmers who want to boost dairy production to:

1. Adjust the breeding cycle of the herd so that most of the cows are dry during the hottest summer months.
2. Insulate dairy barns so that they'll be cool in summer and so that proper temperatures for production will be maintained in the barns in winter.
3. Make sure barns are adequately ventilated to permit summer heat to escape.
4. Use light roofing colors to reflect radiant heat from the sun.

Barns can be kept cooler during the summer with thick mineral wool in walls and ceilings. The insulation acts as a barrier to heat, helping the barn maintain the coolness of the previous night by blocking entry of daytime heat. In winter, the mineral wool keeps the animals' body heat inside the barn, making it possible to maintain proper temperatures for milk production. In extremely cold climates, additional heating is advisable.

To reflect the heat of the summer sun, many farmers have re-roofed their farm buildings with asphalt shingles in one of the many light colors available. The roofing is durable, can be applied to resist high winds, and the color brightens the entire farmstead.

A barn, like a house, should have a pitched roof with an open attic space so that air can circulate freely and heat can be expelled through louvers in the gable ends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Riffle of Petersburg visited the Clyde Johnsons Thursday evening. Ronnie & Wallace, who have been visiting the Johnsons, returned home with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Truett Jennings, Jimmie, Harold, Alma Jean, and Jaunell have moved to Amarillo to make their home. Mr. Jennings has been employed at the Cicero Smith Lumber Company the past year. The Jennings will make their home at 1410 West 19th Street.

CHEVROLET OFFERS 'LITTER BAG'

Coming at the outset of the vacation travel season, introduction of a new Chevrolet accessory—the Litter Bag—calls attention to the year-round responsibility of keeping streets and highways free of trash. A purse-style plastic container which fits beneath the glove compartment and slips off easily for emptying, the Litter Bag is demonstrated here by Barbara Sias. The accessory helps combat a highway littering problem which cost taxpayers over $30,000,000 last year. States levy stiff penalties against those who toss litter on the highways.

TEXAS' SERIOUS WATER PROBLEM—What Texas should do about its water problem will be told Texas publishers when they meet in San Antonio, June 28-29. The speaker will be Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas, chairman of the Water Resources Committee. The occasion will be the 75th annual summer meeting of the Texas Press Association.

Scout Jamboree Opens July 12

More than 50,000 boy scouts and adult leaders are assembling at Valley Forge for a big national Scout Jamboree. The group started arriving this week and will be in session until the 18 of July when they will start disbanding. The Wheeler and Kelton troops from North Wheeler County are represented in the assembly.

The jamboree campers will be at least twelve years old, holding Second Class rank or higher. The jamboree is a self-sustaining enterprise made possible by the fifty dollar jamboree fee paid by each participant.

National, state, and local health and protective agencies are cooperating to give the jamboree a health and safety record better than the average city of 50,000 population. Doctors from home areas will travel and live with the contingents. Each jamboree Scout and Explorer is checked by a physician at home and again upon his arrival at the jamboree.

Already completed is a stage 300 feet wide and 100 feet deep in front of a natural amphitheatre that will hold about 55,000 jamboree campers and guests. Spectacular programs are planned for the opening evening, July 12, and the farwell program on the evening of July 18. Outstanding Americans will participate in both programs.

There will be other Scout shows in sectional arenas. Campfires and daytime demonstrations will give each Scout a chance to show his stuff or be entertained and instructed by the other fellow's skills.

Each night, radio-controlled trucks will deliver fresh dairy products, meat, fruit and vegetables to commissary refrigerators. It will be high-quality food, bought by the carload, to fit well-balanced menus.

Troops will get their food and cooking supplies before each meal at sectional commissary tents. Jamboree campers will cook their own meals and share the daily camp chores. Each patrol or crew member will share such tasks as fire builder, cook, and "clean-upper." Thanks to the use of over one million paper plates there won't be a dishwashing problem.

The jamboree camp inhabitant will have plenty of time to pick up camping techniques through inter camp visits, displays, campfires and demonstrations. There will be excursions to historic shrines in and near Philadelphia.

Sunday, July 14 will bring one of the most impressive thrills to the jamboree. In several religious services, each conducted in designated areas simultaneously, the more than 50,000 boys and leaders will worship according to their own faiths, all united in the freedom of their right to worship God.

The sprawling tent city will be governed by the Scout Oath and Law administered by teams of national, sectional, and troop Scout leaders. Scoutmasters and their assistants are being carefully selected locally for the responsibility and honor of jamboree troop leadership.

For many of the 50,000 participants it will be a "once in a lifetime" experience seeing America and camping with others from all parts of the nation.

Mrs. Clyde Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wyrick and Gail Holde-man visited Mrs. Bert Wyrick in Amarillo Saturday.

U.S.—Bulwark of Freedom

BIRTHDAY OF A FREE NATION as the Declaration of Independence was presented to Congress in 1776. Contrary to popular belief, this historic document was not signed by Congress on July 4th. Instead, the Act by which the original 13 states broke colonial allegiance to Great Britain was approved by Congress July 2, proclaimed on July 4th, and signed at various times up to Nov. 4.

SYMBOL OF HUMAN RIGHTS and freedom, the Liberty Bell in Independence Hallrang out at every festival and anniversary of Independence until it cracked in 1835.

BIRTHPLACE OF OUR NATION was Independence Hall, Philadelphia, where Continental Congress met, Declaration of Independence adopted and proclaimed, Washington appointed Commander-in-Chief, and U. S. Constitution framed.

WHEELER CO. PRODUCE ASS'N. CHECKERBOARD NEWS By THURSTON YOUNG

CONDITION COWS NOW FOR FALL CALVING

Many of you dairymen have cows that will freshen this fall. The question is: How much milk will they give.

On the Purina Dry Cow Program they may give up to a full ton more milk during the coming lactation than they ordinarily would. On Purina's Dry Cow Program you feed your dry cows Purina Bulky-Las with oats or barley. This bulky ration will help them build the body condition they need to give you extra milk at freshening time.

Bulky-Las conditions cows economically. It helps give cows the extra energy they need to build a strong, healthy calf. And, all-important, Purina Bulky-Las will help start and maintain a full flow of milk during the coming lactation; because, Bulky-Las may help your cows let down as much as a full ton more milk during her next lactation.

Now is the time to look ahead to fall and winter milk prospects. Now is the time to feed Bulky-Las to your dry cows.
