Just like people, a tire can get old before its time.

For example, the life of a tire may be shortened as much as 25% merely as a result of chronic underinflation. Over-inflation is bad, too.

Best way to avoid premature aging of your tires is to let your Phillips 66 Dealer take care of them for you. He'll check them frequently, make sure they're properly inflated, and repair them if necessary. And, if a tire becomes unsafe, he can provide a new and dependable Phillips 66 Action-Tread Tubeless Tire.

Ever look into the bright, expectant faces of hungry children eagerly awaiting a freshly-baked cookie? Or see the downcast, disappointed look that only kids can show when the cookie supply is "all out?" Mrs. Detton knows that look - that's one reason she's so pleased with her electric home freezer. She bakes large supplies of cookies, in advance - then freezes 'em. The happy faces of her grandchildren stay happy because Grandmother Detton just never runs out. She's always good for a fresh cookie, thanks to her electric home freezer - the first upright model in the Panhandle of Texas.

Mrs. Detton's Recipe fo

APPLE STRUDEL

Beat one egg in cup. Fill cup with lukewarm water. Add 2 cups of flour (a good pint). Add a pinch of salt and mix well. Beat and knead (by picking up dough and throwing or hitting it on table) until white blisters appear. Divide into 4 parts and cover each. Let stand 2 hours. Roll and pull tissue-paper thin. Spread with sliced apples, sugar, cinnamon, butter and sour cream. Roll up - place in greased pan. Bake in moderate oven for one hour, besting with hot milk. Apple strudel may be frozen unbaked. After removing from freezer, bake, basting with hot milk.

Bake slightly longer than one hour.

Wheeler Church Of Christ

Rev. A. J. Bolt, pastor of the Missionary Baptist Church in Wheeler brings the message of the week in the fifteenth of a series of commentaries by ministers of the area and presented on this page through the cooperation of the firms and individuals listed below

THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD

"The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. - - He prepareth a table for me in the presence of mine enemies. - - He annointeth my head with oil. - - my cup runneth over, surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life." The famed words of the twenty-third Psalm can have a meaning to you if you repent, and a deeper meaning to you if you have already repented and confessed. For "Except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish."

Confess to the Lord your weakness, ask His forgiveness, abandon yourself in His infinite goodness and mercy to do with as He sees best. Far from the heavy chastening that we feel that we deserve, Our God, full of grace and mercy will embrace you with love, and with His own hands feed you at His table, converse with you without ceasing in so many ways, and make you feel that you are His favored one. For it is thus that we know the very presence of God. for God dwells within us.

Look for Him in your heart, if you do not find Him there, open your hearts door, and call out to Him, He will hear, He will enter and possess you. Let Him share with us our homes, our business, our property, our sorrows, our joys and happiness. Make room for Him in our lives.

but there was room for Him on the cross, and He occupied the place that only He could fill. He bridged the gulf that stood between man and God. He occupied the middle cross dividing between the man who would accept Him and the man who would not accept Him. He came to divide and divide He did.

It is no accident that caused us to trust God, but rather the acceptance of a plan that was worked out in detail for us in the Annals of Eternity, even to the smallest detail. Let us then think of God as often as possible, in fact every otherwise idle moment should be, forcible if necessary, occupied with the thought of God and to God, to the intent and purpose that we will and can, in moments of extreme danger or decisiveness subconsciously be in communion with God, while we consciously keep our minds doing what is at hand to do, confident that God is guiding our thoughts. Any short communion with God is acceptable to Him, when offered in humble submission, and is rewarded with the sweet spiritual communion that transpires between man and God. For "His spirit beareth witness with our spirit that we are sons of God, heirs and joint heirs with

Let Him be your Shepherd, let Him open the doors to His treasure house, let Him lead you, feed you, guide you and keep you.
