SALE NOW

The Wheeler High Annuals have arrived and are on sale now. There has been a little difficulty in the bookkeeping system this year. Therefore, the staff does not have a list of all the persons who have a yearbook. If you have your receipt, please be sure to bring it when you come to purchase your yearbook. This will allow the sale to go smoother. The annuals will be sold at the Wheeler School in the secretary's office.

Annual Signing Given for Britt

NEW SEATS

The Rogue Theatre was closed for remodeling with the showing of "100 Rifles" Saturday August 1. The removal of the old seats in the theatre began Wednesday. Two hundred newly reconditioned seats will replace the old seats. The new seating will spaced wider, offering more leg room and more comfort to the movie goer. It is hoped the theatre remodeling will be completed by September 1. The management, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hanks ask their patrons to have patience and encourage their return to the theatre with the completion of the work. Shown above are Bill Hanks, right, and Clyde Jaynes, working on the removal of a row of seats.
