

Revolution Threats In Mexico Increasing

GOV'T FORCES PREPARE FOR REBELLION

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 5 (AP) — The administration of President Cardenas took extraordinary precautions today to forestall a possible armed attempt to seize power which a leader of General Andreu Almazan's party declared might begin "within the next 10 hours or two days."

A statement by Angel Trechuelo, who claimed to be an executive of Almazan's party, that an armed attempt to seize power might shortly begin was repudiated by the Almazan party. Emilio Madro, head of the party, said he "never heard" of Trechuelo, and had heard no such reports.

The government patrolled highways, watched airports and kept all trains under surveillance to check on movements of Almazan's followers, while responsible sources reported troop reinforcements were being moved to northern Mexico, regarded as an Almazan strong hold.

Graciano Sanchez, head of the National Confederation of 3,000,000 peasants, announced 80,000 trained members were ready to take up their rifles in support of the administration, which backed Manuel Avila Camacho against Almazan in the disputed and bloody July presidential election.

REPORTS DISPUTED
NEW YORK, Sept. 5 (AP)—Mexican Consul General Rafael de la Colina today disputed reports of revolutionary outbreaks in Mexico and asserted government officials in the Mexican capital had assured him by telephone that "complete tranquility reigns."

At the same time, Manuel Reachi, aid to Gen. Juan Andres Almazan, opponent of the administration, denounced a version of purported plans for a revolution planned in Mexico by Angel Trechuelo, described there as an executive of Almazan's party.

"Trechuelo is not a member of our party," Reachi said. "We do not know him and we know nothing of him."

Italian Raids Successful

ROME, Sept. 5 (AP)—A series of furious naval and air engagements with British forces in which Italian mas (motor torpedo boats) participated "successfully" was reported in Africa and the Mediterranean by the Italian high command today.

It told of British air and naval bombardments of Italian bases off the Dodecanese Islands, off the coast of Turkey, and Italian attacks on three British naval and merchant ship formations.

Six British naval ships, including two cruisers, were damaged by aerial bombs in two of these actions, the high command said, and 17 British planes destroyed in this and other combats.

In addition an Italian torpedo boat "successfully attacked" a British cruiser and two destroyers, the Italian communiqué said, and Italian planes "seriously hit" a British merchant ship.

Italian losses were listed as one mas boat, and four planes. The action ranged from off the coast of Algeria in the western Mediterranean, through the Aegean to the Red sea.

Spirits of flame shot high from the deck of one of two British cruisers "violently" attacked off the coast of Algeria by Italian bombing formations, the high command said.

Slight damage to dwellings and wounding of a few of the civilian population was caused before dawn yesterday by a naval bombardment of the island of Boar-panto, the communiqué said. A British attack by the bomber formations on airfields at Gadderma and Marizza, in the same Dodecanese Islands, resulted in the wrecking of two Italian planes on the ground.

This action, the Italians said, was set off when their air force pursued a large British merchant convoy in the Aegean. It was followed by five successive bombings in 10-15 hours of the British fleet which attacked Dodecanese, and by spirited assaults by Italian torpedo boats.

Wickard Sworn In WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 (AP)—Claude R. Wickard of Indiana was sworn in as secretary of agriculture by President Roosevelt today.

Wickard succeeds Henry A. Wallace of Iowa who resigned to campaign as the democratic vice-presidential candidate.

SCENE OF THE OLD GUARD—Here are two of the old type United States destroyers, the U.S.S. Leary and U.S.S. Shubrick as they lided at anchor in the New York navy yard. They are the same type of reconditioned over-age destroyers going to Great Britain in a swap for island bases.

NAZIDOM'S EMPIRE TO FADE QUICKLY SAYS CHURCHILL

LONDON, Sept. 5 (AP)—Winston Churchill declared to his parliament today that the British-American exchange of destroyers and defense bases will enable the United States "to take danger by the throat" whilst it is still hundreds of miles away. "but he warned the British to remember that America is not in the war."

The prime minister, speaking for a time during a general London air raid alarm, declared, however, that Hitler "no doubt will pay the U. S. out if he ever gets the chance."

Nevertheless, he expressed his boundless confidence that the empire of the third reich "will pass away as swiftly—perhaps more swiftly—than did Napoleon's army, although, of course, without any glitter and glory."

Churchill told the house of commons that no one must read into the British-American agreement anything more than is on its face, and he stressed that it did not affect "in the slightest degree the non-belligerency of the United States."

Turning to the battle of England, even while it raged above the capital itself, the prime minister declared the Germans had used a greater proportion of their air strength already than the British; warned of heavier fighting to come, and predicted:

"The whole nation will stand up to it, grim and gay."

While he was speaking the deep blast of the London sirens sounded the "all clear."

British crews already are taking over the first of the 50 over-age American destroyers which are being transferred to Britain in exchange for western hemisphere defense bases in a deal announced only Tuesday Churchill reported.

That, he said smilingly, "is a case of what one might call the long arm of coincidence."

Churchill concluded that Hitler should be able to "magnify and multiply" his air onslaught on Britain this month, but he added: "We can stand it."

Then he gave the British civilian air raid casualties for August as 1,075 dead, slightly more than that many wounded and said 800 houses were destroyed.

Again, he warned the people that the danger of invasion is not passed, and called for "the greatest vigilance." But he insisted the problem of invasion, for Hitler, was vastly harder in September than in June.

Dealing briefly with the Balkan territorial changes, Churchill said that Britain intended to recognize no such changes "unless they take place with the free consent and good will of the parties concerned."

He turned to the Near East to disclose that the eastern Mediterranean fleet had been almost doubled by the addition of powerful vessels. The Italians, he said, knew this, "but we were unimpaired."

Heavy fighting is coming in the middle East, he said.

Firstfight Highlights The Debate On Conscription Legislation
WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 (AP)—With the spectacle of a hard-hitting fistfight on the floor to testify to the sharpness of some tempers, the house began its final drive today for a decision on the Burke-Wadsworth compulsory military bill.

The chamber settled down to consider the measure section by section and to act on the scores of pending amendments. The vote on conscription was expected tomorrow night or Saturday.

Bullets Fell Two Arkansas Fugitives

Another Reported Taken, Only 11 Now At Large

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 5 (AP) — Bullets today cancelled two more convicts' names from the "wanted" list of Arkansas' wholesale, Labor Day prison break.

State patrol headquarters here announced guards from the Cummins prison farm shot to death two of the fugitives in a gunfight in a rural southeastern Arkansas, and reported recapture of another felon.

Patrol Radio Operator Luke Barber said those killed in a battle at a cabin between Winchester and Tillar were James Scott, 21, and Raymond Harrell, 23. He said the man recaptured was B. G. Holtzclaw, 47, a convicted slayer.

This left at large only 11 of the 36 men who broke from the Cummins farm Monday after killing a guard. Four have been shot to death, 21 recaptured.

The Columbia, La., section breathed easier after the release unharmed, of three high school students kidnaped by six convicts all of whom now are dead or taken.

A report earlier today told of five or six convicts being surrounded near Watson, and it was believed the two reported killed may have been part of this group. Still another was reported spotted near Natchez, Miss.

Frank Conley, 34, a ringleader, was killed by possemen near Columbia Tuesday a few hours after Frank Gartman, Columbia automobile dealer, was fatally wounded while hunting the desperadoes. Another convict, Bruce Fowler, 28, was shot and killed at the Vicksburg, Miss., river bridge yesterday.

Conley and Fowler were two of six felons who kidnaped Voncille Williams, 16, Gladys Diamond, 15, and Jerry Harrigill, 17, high school students, Monday and held them captive in the swamps near Columbia until 1,000 possemen closed in yesterday and rescued them unharmed while capturing three convicts.

The other desperado of the six was with Fowler, and surrendered when the shooting started at the Vicksburg bridge. Mrs. E. L. J. Williams of Denison, Tex., and Mrs. C. E. Eldridge of Monroe, La., escaped unhurt, but their nephew, Woodrow Wall, suffered a scratch bullet wound.

ELECTRA NITRO PLANT WRECKED BY EXPLOSION

ELECTRA, Sept. 5 (AP)—A nitroglycerin plant 15 miles from here was wrecked this morning by an explosion.

The blast was heard 40 miles away. Three men who were mixing explosive fluids escaped injury by running when fire broke out nearby. They were 300 feet from the plant when the blast went off. Debris was blown over an area of a mile.

The plant is located on the Wichita river near an oil field. Damage was estimated at more than $3,000 and included the loss of 300 quarts of nitroglycerin and some dynamite. The operating firm is the Texas Torpedo company, managed by Mrs. Edna Rapp and her son, Paul.

Court Work Is Continuing

Hearing evidence on scores of complaints which had been filed since last May, the grand jury convened for the new term of 70th district court here continued at its work Thursday, the third straight day of investigation.

It was considered probable by some court attaches that a report would be delivered to Judge Cecil Collings during the afternoon; at least by Friday morning.

Meanwhile, a jury was chosen in one civil suit, the case of W. E. Allison, et. ux. vs. Cunningham & Phillips, a litigation for damages. Plaintiffs allege that Mrs. Allison suffered injury through swallowing of glass that was in a bowl of sherbet purchased from a C&P store in July of last year. Preliminary issues were heard by the court during the morning, and the jury was dismissed to report back at 3:30 p. m.

Judge Collings granted two divorce decrees, in the case of Norris Morgan vs. Charles Morgan, and in the case of George G. Hall vs. Olive Hall.

Abdication Of Carol Believed Near, Antonescu In Office

MONARCH IS STRIPPED OF ALL POWERS

BUCHAREST, Sept. 5 (AP) — Haggard from the struggle to preserve his dismembered, anarchy-riven realm, King Carol II, of Rumania surrendered his vast powers of state today to a new strong man and was authoritatively reported to have consented to banishment of red-haired Magda Lupescu.

Government quarters expressed belief that Carol might abdicate soon.

Madame Lupescu, his long-time friend, was reported already aboard the royal yacht, now anchored at Istanbul. She was said to have left Bucharest four days ago.

With the coming of dawn, the 46-year-old monarch who had lived down the name "playboy prince" with a decade of strong-handed rule, reached a "royal understanding" with a tough, strategy-minded general, Ion Antonescu, whose price for success was a transfer of power.

Only General Antonescu called "royal graciousness," Carol signed a public declaration which was a clear acknowledgment that the essence of rule had changed hands and Antonescu proclaimed a nationalistic program "to heal the wounds, collect our strength and assure our future."

Carol found himself only the figurehead ruler of what had been left of Rumania after vast territorial losses under pressure, to Soviet Russia and more recently to Hungary, which had the backing of the Rome-Berlin axis—now holding merely such powers as the right to hand out medals, coin money, pardon criminals and lay out cemeteries.

One of the general's first acts after taking oath as premier, at dawn was to order the arrest of General Banliu who, as chief of gendarmes, supervised the mass execution of the Iron Guard assassins of former Premier Armand Calinescu. Banliu was Calinescu's brother-in-law.

At the same time Antonescu issued a proclamation which made clear that "persecution" of the Carol-outlawed Iron Guard, (a fascist organization) would cease at once.

The proclamation inferred that members of the Iron Guard who organized Monday night's putsch and were accused of the attempt to assassinate Carol would not be punished. Although not a member of the Iron Guard, Antonescu has its support.

Raids From Baltic Sea To France Reported By RAF

Berlin Raids Acknowledged

BERLIN, Sept. 5 (AP)—Six British destroyers have been credited recently by U-boat and torpedo boat flotillas the high command said today, as Adolf Hitler's Volkischer Beobachter, bellwether of the German press, declared Britain's acquisition of 50 United States destroyers might be used "only to cover the eventual glorious retreat" to America.

The high rate of destruction of Britain's smaller warships was emphasized by the high command as German planes striking back at the British whose bombs killed a score of persons in raids last night on Berlin and other parts of Germany, were reported centering day attacks on airports in the suburbs of London.

The high command's communiqué said "numerous fires" were started at Britain's ports, air bases and industrial centers—Liverpool, Swansea, Bristol, Weymouth, Poole, Chatham, Tilbury, Great Yarmouth and Hull—in night raids, while an airplane motor factory at Rochester, a plane factory at Weybridge, munitions dumps and hangars were hit in day raids.

Good weather, the first reported here in weeks, permitted numerous German battle planes to resume the attack this morning.

Eighteen civilians were killed by a British bomb in a northern German town last night, the high command announced, and two men were killed in a two-hour raid on the Berlin area.

The command asserted the British attack on the capital "founded" in "a sense of strong defenses."

German Fliers Take Beating In Offensive

LONDON, Sept. 5 (AP)—British planes last night bombed a power station and a plane factory in Berlin during widespread raids extending from Stettin on the Baltic coast to Cherbourg, France, an air ministry communiqué said tonight.

Five more German raiders were reported to have been shot down over southeast England towns this afternoon, making the day's unofficial total 14.

The government announced that seven additional German planes had been shot down by British fighters in the southeast of England. Three British planes were reported missing.

The government's announcement said that reports of yesterday's air battles over England showed that 54 enemy planes had been shot down and 17 British planes lost. Only five British pilots died, however.

Waves of enemy aircraft had crossed the southeast coast at a great height and some of them were approaching London when the alarms were sounded.

Anti-aircraft batteries and British fighters went into action. The raid was one of a series over England at widely-spaced objectives, some planes of one group penetrating the outskirts of London and dropping bombs, and others doing considerable damage in the northwest.

The air ministry said preliminary reports indicated no great harm was done in London, but gas and water mains were broken, a hospital was hit, and another narrowly missed during the attack in the northwest.

Several casualties resulted from the bomb hits on the hospital. One Messerschmitt fighter crashed in a thickly populated southern area during violent air fights over the Thames estuary. Another German fighter also was shot down.

No one was hurt from the crash, but one woman was wounded by a stray machinegun bullet as dog-fights swirled over the fields. Farm workers were forced to take shelter as metal rained from the skies.

Both incendiary and explosive bombs fell in the London area, but most of the raiders were dispersed before they could unload.

Some of the Nazi fighters attacked the protective balloon barrage as they fled, and one balloon was shot down.

U.S. Protests To Jap Demands On Indo-China

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 (AP)—Japanese demands on French Indo-China evoked strong opposition from the United States and new attention to its interests in the Far East today.

Secretary Hull sought to check threatened Japanese military moves into the French colony by a statement late yesterday that it was "a matter to which this government attaches importance."

He reminded Japan again that it was committed like the United States to the principle of the status quo in the Pacific.

FRANK WALKER NOMINATED TO CABINET POST

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 (AP)—Frank C. Walker of New York City and Scranton, Pa., 54-year-old lawyer and theater owner was nominated by President Roosevelt today to be postmaster general to succeed James A. Farley, resigned.

Walker is an old friend of the president's and is a former head of the national emergency council.

He also served as treasurer of the democratic national committee in the early days of the first Roosevelt term.

British Industry Is Functioning Normally Despite Nazi Raids

MANCHESTER, Eng., Sept. 5 (AP)—The great Manchester industrial area—one of the world's most densely populated—is functioning normally despite three weeks of sporadic bombing by German night raiders.

On an unimpeded tour of this area I have been unable to find a single factory that has been hit. All were working full-blast.

Before coming here I completed a survey of the Birmingham area, another of England's big production centers. There I saw only two factories damaged enough to cause total disruption and they were small.

Volunteers Would Fight

CLUJ, Transylvania, Sept. 5 (AP) — Unconfirmed reports from the Transylvania border today said 2,500 demobilized Rumanian soldiers have volunteered for membership in a "death legion" to resist Hungarian occupation of the territory.

The men were said to have pledged to return to the concrete forts of the Carol line in the vicinity of Oradea which is not due to be turned over to Hungary until tomorrow.

Behind the fortress walls volunteers were reported ready to fight to the last man "to show the world that Rumania has courage."

A Rumanian official here asserted he had heard nothing of any organized resistance, but reports in Hungarian and Rumanian circles said a Colonel Strat would head the "death legion."

This, it was said, was regarded by Rumanian general staff as "a purely private undertaking."

The funerals of four Rumanian students and one Hungarian killed in fighting between the two nationalities were held privately to avert a renewal of street clashes.

The imposition of martial law is believed to have eliminated probability of more outbreaks.

As General Ion Antonescu assumed dictatorial powers in Rumania, the army command at Cluj posted notices in Hungarian forbidding political meetings or the gathering of more than three persons in one place in the street.

AN ANALYSIS OF THE WAR DEVELOPMENTS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Herr Hitler's sportsmanlike speech last night reaffirmed his promise to the German people that England would be smashed—but he didn't say when.

The Fuehrer employed the same slanting, crowd-appealing technique which I have seen him use with great effect from that same rostrum before this. Somewhat, however, it didn't produce the impression of being an announcement of the war's end.

From his reference to a protracted conflict one gathers that perhaps he expects a long grind yet. Maybe the Fuehrer meant that the hour is at hand. The first of the week they told us in informed Nazi quarters in Berlin that the British air force couldn't survive another fortnight of the German attacks—a claim made in connection with the official assertion that the retch now has mastery of the air over England. Undoubtedly Hitler had mastery at the outset of the war and for long months after that—but he didn't take advantage of it. Now it is fair to say that if the Germans do indeed have mastery, it is potential and rests in power which hasn't yet been brought into play.

However, I think we must accept as a possibility (I don't say probability) that the next chief may be getting ready for his big fling—a crushing blow on England from the air, and then invasion with troops.

We have been talking a lot about the bad weather intervening at the end of September to give England a breathing spell. But how about the weather being used by Herr Hitler to save himself from a spot of bother?

It strikes me as possible that his strategy involves taking advantage of the break in the weather. He may be planning to use it as a shield in case his grand coup fails. We mustn't forget that if and when Hitler tries an invasion of England he will be undertaking one of the most hazardous of military projects. The only way he can achieve it will be first to blast Britain into near insensibility from the air. Unless that were done, the great British home army and air force in all likelihood would pour terrible disaster on the head of the invading troops.

This means that when invasion is attempted, Hitler must fling into the air all the big reserve which he may have been holding for this purpose. In thus filling the sky with planes over England he will be taking the chance that the British may shoot them down in such numbers as to shatter his air force.

Should this happen he would have no adequate weapon for the defense of Germany against British bombing. He would have placed himself in England's hands.

But supposing he waits until almost the time of the change of weather for his assault. Either he smashes England quickly and the war is over, or he himself is flung back in heavy defeat. If he encounters a crushing blow, the weather intervenes to save him from being finished off on his own home grounds.

I am not advancing this idea as a probability, but as a possibility that holds water.

Cattle prices on the local market were up on most classes this week as a strong offering moved through the auction ring of the Big Spring Cattle Auction company, Wednesday. Fat cows went under the hammer at $5.50; stocker calves, up from last week sold at $9 to $10. A run of yearlings brought $9 and $9 and butcher yearlings cashed in for $8.50 to $9. Canners and cutters sold from $2.50 to $4.50. There was a strong demand from the stands for all classes of cattle, particularly stocker material.

This marker also indicates the birthplace of Chief Quanah Parker.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are bothering you seriously, don't just complain and go on about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking poisons out of the body. They help most people pass about 2 pints of urine daily.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste builds up in the blood. This causes not only backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of appetite and energy, but also such serious conditions as the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or steady passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Backache Kidney Pills. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters get back to work.

Year-Around 'Home Market' Made Available To Farmer Through The Use Of A Freezer-Locker Plant

(Currently being talked in Howard county is the establishment of a freezer-locker plant. The Herald asked County Agent C. P. Giffitt to give a detailed explanation of the advantages and plan of operation of such a plant. The article herewith is one he has prepared in compliance with this request.)

From the standpoint of public welfare, the freezer-locker plants will fill an urgent need. The farmer's market has become more and more limited in recent years. At the same time his ability to produce has greatly increased. Lower prices for cash crops such as cotton and wheat were inevitable. At great expense, the government has tried to remedy the situation by a system of crop control. Today, the income from cash crops is pretty definitely fixed at prices too low for the average farmer to buy a good living.

Under these circumstances many of the farmers who are able to do so are either buying, or renting more land in order to produce bigger crops for themselves. But there is not enough land to go around, consequently, for each farmer who increases his production by securing additional land, there is a less fortunate farm family pushed off the land and denied any opportunity to make a living by the occupation for which they are fitted.

But in our effort to expand the farmer's markets and find new markets, we have overlooked a market closest to the farmer. I refer to the farmer's home market, especially food for his own table.

Preservation
Most farmers of Howard county produce some meat, milk, butter, eggs and vegetables, necessary staples that help to make up a wholesome diet. However, only a very few produce a year round supply. And when the home supply gives out, there is a large percentage of farm people whose income is too low to permit of their buying all the food that they need for health and efficiency.

But why do farmers not produce a year around supply of meat and vegetables? The answer is to be found in methods available to farmers for the preservation of foods. There is a lot of meat lost from spoilage. And if it does not spoil the warm weather, during summer makes it rancid, sometimes unfit to eat. Then too, the fact that animals can be slaughtered only in winter has made the meat supply like that of vegetables, seasonal, and confines many families to bacon and pork as their only meat supply. Canning of both meat and vegetables is being used, to some extent, by most farm families. This method is both laborious and expensive. If an adequate supply were canned for the average size family, the cash outlay would be greater than that for the refrigerated locker. Besides being more economical, the freezer-locker method, recently developed, preserves foods without destroying any of their value or palatability. Practically all of the vitamins are also preserved. Canning meat, as well as most vegetables, requires high temperatures, which destroy part of the food value, as well as vitamins, and make the food less palatable. Thus the freezing process is found to be far superior to canning as a method of food preservation.

A modern freezer-locker plant includes chilling, aging and quick freezing of meats. There may also be provision for curing pork. Any kind of meat or fish lends itself to the freezing process.

The carcass is first chilled to a temperature little above freezing. It is held at this temperature in an aging room to make the meat more palatable. Then it is cut ready for cooking, and wrapped in packages of a size to suit the family that is to use it. Those small packages are then spread out in a "quick freeze" room, where the temperature is well below zero so that it freezes quickly. This "quick" freezing prevents the forming of ice crystals in the meat and disarrangement of the parts of the meat. Meat carried through this freezing process is actually improved. When thoroughly frozen, the packages are taken out of the "quick freeze" room and placed in the customer's locker. The locker room is kept at a temperature only slightly above zero so that the meat remains frozen until the customer takes it out. Three seems to be less difficulty about handling meat out of the freezer-locker than one would expect, if we take the word of people who have used them for several months. First, a home where there is a refrigerator can keep the frozen meat safely for four or five days after taking it out of the freezer. Then too most farmers come to town often; and many plants, through cooperation of ice routes, milk routes and Star mail routes, have established systems of delivery of frozen foods to the farm homes.

Vegetables, Too

All that has been said so far has been about frozen meats, but many vegetables may be preserved with all of their freshness and vitamin content. Turnip greens, mustard, spinach, green peas and beans as well as roasting ears may be stored in the freezer-locker. The same is true of most fruits. A few of the vegetables have not, as yet, been frozen successfully, among these the tomato, which, because of its water content, cracks open upon being frozen. Investigations are under way, however, to find a way to freeze all vegetables.

If there should be a merchant who reads this story and concludes that his trade would be injured by the building of a freezer-locker plant, let him answer these questions: Which had you rather have for your customer a farmer with $250 in the bank and nothing else, or one with $250 in the bank and a potential supply of those articles of food we have mentioned? How can the government, in the face of the national defense program, continue to borrow immense sums of money each year to keep up the farmer's buying power? If the government should lessen or discontinue pay to farmers, are we prepared to stand the economic shock that would result? And after all, will freezer-locker plants bring about less trade or will it just result in better living and greater efficiency for the farm people?

(This story will be followed by one which will give the plans of Howard County Land Use Planning Committee for building a freezer-locker plant.)

Midway Due To Have Big Enrollment

Midway school will open at 8:40 a. m. Monday, Sept. 8, for the beginning of the 1940-41 school term. Due to an extremely large class of beginners and a large number of pupils who have moved into the community since the last school year, school officials expect the largest first day enrollment in the school's history.

Extensive work has been carried on for the past six weeks in order to have the school in readiness for the new term. The physical equipment of the school is in better condition than it has been in for many years. The floors in all the class rooms, in the library, the auditorium and the gymnasium have been cleaned and refinished. All the weeds around the school have been cut and the grounds have been graded and leveled.

A new 60-passenger school bus will serve the community this year. Most of the local pupils and the forty high school pupils who attend the Coahoma high school will have free transportation on this bus.

Since the board of education recently passed a ruling which prohibits the enrolling of pupils who have not been vaccinated against smallpox, it is urged that parents have all pupils vaccinated before school begins if that has not already been done.

Vincent School To Open Next Monday

Monday, Sept. 9 will mark the opening of Vincent school. A short program will inaugurate the new term. Opening address will be given by Cliff Wiley of Big Spring. Mrs. Jim Hodnett will begin her eighth term as primary teacher. She is a student of Texas Tech. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sweatt will begin their fourth term as intermediate teacher and principal. Mr. Sweatt is a graduate of W. T. R. T. C. Canyon, and Mrs. Sweatt is a graduate of Sam Houston State Teachers college, Huntsville. The friends and patrons are cordially invited to be present for the opening exercises.

More than 400 American manufacturers are registered with the Munitions Control Board as actual or potential producers of implements of war.

Program Held At Opening Of Moore School

MOORE, Sept. 5—A large group assembled in the auditorium Monday morning for the opening exercises of school. Following introductory remarks by Miss Arah Phillips, principal of the school, the Rev. J. A. English conducted the devotional exercises. Each teacher and trustee also made a brief speech. Mrs. J. F. Sellers, principal of Couble school spoke briefly. Following assembly students met in home rooms for assignments and books. Seven grades of work will be offered this term. Fifty-seven pupils were enrolled. Teachers include Miss Arah Phillips, sixth and seventh grades; Miss Anna Smith, fifth grade and coaching; Mrs. Lottie Holland, third and fourth grades; and Mrs. J. C. Groff, first and second grades.

Mr. and Mrs. Coy Thomas and children, Richard Bryant and Donald, returned to their home in Akron, O., Friday after spending two weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Thomas, and other relatives here.

O. E. Bryan, project superintendent of the Carrock Electric Co-operative, was busy with sign-up work and securing easements for the REA line this week.

J. W. Phillips, Mrs. Lee Castle of Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Phillips and son, Everett Doyle, of Big Spring spent Sunday at Duhart visiting Mr. Phillips' brother, Aubrey Phillips.

Helena May Daniels was honored Sunday with a birthday dinner given by her parents. A cake with eleven candles was placed in the center of the table. After the noon meal the children engaged in games, while the elders spent the afternoon visiting. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Rowland and son, Bill, Mrs. J. W. Phillips and son, Cecil, Pete Queen, Jerry Grissam of East Texas, Miss Arah Phillips, Miss Anna Smith, Mrs. W. H. Ward, Mrs. J. C. Groff and Wanda Jo, Sheridan Jane and Murphy Lee Daniels. HURLER, WHO WANTED FILLING STATION, CHANGES MIND

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 5 (AP)—For a country kid who didn't care for baseball in the first place, Dewey Adkins has done mighty well. He has just completed, in one year, a rise from the sandlots to the major leagues.

The Oklahoma City Indians sold the 21-year-old, 200-pound rookie pitcher—leader of all Texas league hurlers—to the Cleveland Indians, to report at the close of the season. And for once Adkins, who aspired to a filling station management and figured baseball didn't offer much of a future—was happy. "Whew!" he exclaimed when informed of the deal. "Thanks!"

Adkins made Texas league pitching history with a pair of huge fists that smothered a baseball like the rocks he used to chuck at street lights in the old home town, Wilsonville, Neb.

"That kid's got a future," Adkins remarked one night after Dewey had virtually darkened the town. He called Dewey in and said:

"Son, you've cost me $25 replacing street lights and it's time you paid me back. There's a ball game here tonight and you're gonna pitch."

"I've got a date," Dewey objected. "You'll pitch or get out," his father stormed. "You're not going to get any place minding a filling station."

Dewey called up his date (she's Mrs. Adkins now) and asked her advice. "Pitch," she said. "I'll go with you."

Adkins got a shutout, striking out 18 men.

GOING TOO FAR

SAN ANGELO, Sept. 5 (AP)—Creath Goodwin, San Angelo meter reader, jabbed his long key into a customer's lawn in search of a meter.

The housewife came to the door. "Look here," she cried, "I might tolerate you looking over my yard before you guess how much water we used, but when you start digging holes to test the depth of the moisture, it's going too far!"

DIES IN AMARILLO

AMARILLO, Sept. 5 (AP)—Rep. Martin Dies of Orange, chairman of the house committee investigating un-American activities, will speak at Amarillo's municipal auditorium tomorrow afternoon and night.

143 Attend Inter-Club Luncheon

The four service clubs of Big Spring met jointly for a noon luncheon at the Settles hotel Thursday, an affair out of which is expected to grow a planned program of inter-club cooperation on community enterprises.

There were 143 present, Rotarians, Kiwanians, Lions and ABC's, and some 15 newcomers here from the Cosden offices who were given a special introduction by Elmer Potter.

Dave Duncan presided for the program which featured an address by Fred Wemple of Midland, a past district governor of Rotary who talked on employer-employee relationships. Wemple was introduced by Elmo Wasson, after vocal selections by Bill Dawes.

Wemple advocated the setting up of an "individual code of ethics," by which an employer could judge his attitude toward his employees and his competitors. Tokrans and understanding, and a studied manner of approach were cited by the Midland man as the secret to pleasant profitable intra-company relationships. Service to others, in a business way, can be as self-compensating as service through other channels, he said. Wemple advocated "craft" meetings, in which executives and workers in a given line of business would meet together along service club principles. The inter-club move of Big Spring drew his endorsement.

The four clubs here plan regular joint meetings. In addition, there was proposed the establishment of a monthly Round Table, to be attended by the president, secretary and one other member of each club, and to head up the cooperative programs.

The Rotary club was host for the meeting. The Lions will be next hosts, with the joint affair to be held in about three months.

SCHOOLS RECEIVE MORE TAX MONEY

Howard county's rural school districts will have a little more money, result of a distribution of funds received Thursday by the office of County Superintendent Anne Martin.

A check for $202.67 was received, representing the schools' share on delinquent tax collections by the county.

Oldsmobile's styling and advanced engineering principles for 1941 received highest praise from top ranking executives of General Motors Corporation at a special preview of the new cars at Lansing this week. Following a complete inspection of the full line of new Oldsmobiles, Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., chairman of the Board of General Motors, predicted the biggest year for Oldsmobile in the company's history for 1941. Photo shows Mr. Sloan at the wheel of a 1941 Oldsmobile convertible and C. E. Wilson, acting president of General Motors; D. E. Ralston, general sales manager of Oldsmobile; C. L. McCuen, R. H. Grant and Albert Bradley, vice presidents of General Motors. S. E. Skinner, general manager of Oldsmobile is shown beside the new model.

Fistfight

during Woodrow Wilson's 1916 campaign was "He kept us out of war."

"And the people believed it," he said, "and they returned that individual to the White House."

"Then they were brought to their senses 5 months later when he put us into war."

Sweeney returned to a seat beside Vincent, 5 years his junior, and the flare-up occurred. Each representative landed hard blows to the face until colleagues intervened.

Sweeney apologized to the house. Vincent at first repeated his charge of "traitor"—but later withdrew it. Each gave the house his version of the altercation.

Sweeney's account: "As I resumed my seat, the gentleman with whom I had difficulties called me a traitor. He repeated it again and you know what happened."

Vincent's account: "I served in the World war. x x x To say that my president of that time brought on that war to me was an untruth. x x x"

"When he came down to sit with me, I got up and moved. x x x I said I did not want to sit by a traitor to my country. Then he attacked me and you know what happened."

Health Depots Are Established In Flood Zones

PAWNEE, Okla., Sept. 5 (AP)—Eight health depots were established in northeastern Oklahoma today in the wake of the worst local flood since 1923.

More than 200 families were homeless and the Red Cross and health officials worked to prevent an outbreak of disease.

Dr. G. F. Mathews, state health commissioner, said that if dysentery and typhoid fever outbreaks appeared imminent mass immunization would be started.

Under a clear sky waters swollen by cloudburst began to recede, but many sections were still inundated.

Four-fifths of Bixby, Arkansas river bottomland town of 1,300 residents, was under water during the night. More than 150 families were removed in boats.

The Frisco railroad reported water over the tracks at Kellyville was holding up service between Oklahoma City and Tulsa.

Cleveland was hardest hit. Waters chewed gaps in the top of the dam at the municipal lake, leaving the reservoir with only a week's supply. The city was without gas service.

Six homes were washed away at Haskell. Heavy livestock losses were reported and much cotton and corn was destroyed.

The waters fell fast at Sapulpa, and water service was restored. One hundred families were chased from their homes yesterday.

BORDER QUIET
LAREDO, Sept. 5 (AP)—Despite reports of political tension in Mexico, border passage proceeded as usual here today.

Reports from Pedro Coronado, chief of Mexican immigration at Nuevo Laredo, indicated no expectation of disturbances there.

MARKETS Wall Street

NEW YORK, Sept. 5 (AP)—A better brand of war and business news today helped the stock market extend Wednesday's rally by 1 to around 4 points despite comparatively heavy profit selling.

Dealings, amounting to some 1,300,000 shares, were the fastest since mid-June, although slow-downs appeared now and then as prices shifted from their tops. After absorbing offerings, leaders generally resumed the advance.

Wall street, brokers said, was more hopeful than ever, in the light of European dispatches, that John Bull would succeed in beating off attacking nazis. A long conflict, it was added, with a probable British victory, might further stimulate American industry.

A number of Big Spring folk were in Colorado City Thursday afternoon for opening events of that town's annual Frontier Roundup, and others were planning to see shows either tonight or Friday.

The city has a sponsor at Colorado City, Miss Anna Belle Edwards, winner of the Midland contest last weekend, appearing in tonight's events. There were also several from here in the Colorado City rodeo contests. Jess Slaught-ter had entered the cutting horse contest, and E. P. 360-Bbl. Well Completed In Mitchell Co.

One of the most active oil development spots in West Texas, the northwestern corner of Mitchell county continued in the limelight this week, with completion of a large producer, sale of lease acreage and planning of new locations.

What was said to be the largest pay well in the area is the Echolds well in the northwest corner of subdivision 13, which gauged 360 barrels on a railroad commission test. Total depth is 1,745 feet, some shallower than other wells in the area.

Guy Anderson, who drilled the Echolds well, staked a new location in the northeast corner of the northwest quarter of subdivision 10, on the Annette Mills land. Another location is due to be made next week by R. L. Holcomb and associates of Amarillo, on an 80-acre tract in section 81, block 97, H&TC, the north half of the northeast quarter. The new owners will drill an offset to the Hilburn well.

About a mile and a half south of the Echolds well, Jimmy Ewing was cleaning out a test on section 63, and planned to make a test Friday. Oil was standing 1,400 feet in the hole, with a total depth of 1,740.

Mickey Green this week spudded a west offset to the Haynes No. 1

Grable, 280 feet out of the southeast corner of the northwest quarter of section 105, I&GN. The Grable well has made a good producer.

Because the pay in the northwestern Mitchell area is shallow, and because acreage is held in many small blocks both by majors and independents, the sector is due to continue active.

Reports Seizure Of U.S. Citizens

NEW YORK, Sept. 5 (AP)—Capture of six Americans on a steamship seized by German warships was reported today in a broadcast by Edwin Hartich, CBS correspondent in Berlin, quoting the newspaper Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung.

Hartich said the Berlin newspaper related the Americans were taken from the steamship Atlantic en route to South Africa.

They were first taken to a French port, he said, and then "given transportation" to Iran, Spain. No details were given as to whether the six were ultimately released.

CBS studio officials here gave the following names of the six, adding that there was no confirmation of the spellings and no addresses:

Mr. and Mrs. O. Yoder, F. A. Schmalenberger, Jesse M. Nicholson, Frank J. and Zona C. Kuntzer.

YOUR ARMY

A Series Of Articles Describing The Arms And Services Of The Regular Army

No. 3—Coast Artillery

"From the rock-ribbed coast of Maine—"

In fact, on any coast where the Stars and Stripes float in the pulsing breeze, the Coast Artillery of the United States army serves like "a solid wall of steel." Its line of defense extends 25 miles to sea. It cooperates with the navy and army air corps—defense in the middle name of the Coast Artillery. The Coast Artillery holds a special appeal for young men who want to see the world, because approximately fifty per cent of the men in this arm of the service are stationed in overseas garrisons. The equipment is both permanent and mobile, and anti-aircraft units are the most active adjuncts of the Coast Artillery. This arm of service is also in charge of mine-laying for harbor defense.

Young men who want to get ahead in the Coast Artillery must have scientific knowledge and precise mechanical skill. For this reason this arm of patriotic service offers a liberal allotment of non-commissioned officer grades and specialist ratings. Forty per cent of the enlisted men in the Coast

Artillery Draw pay higher than that of privates.

High school graduates have the best chance of making progress in the Coast Artillery, although grammar school graduates may enlist and qualify for the various schools operated to provide training essential to advancement. These schools instruct in motor mechanics, radio operation and maintenance, telephone operation and maintenance, power plant operation, truck and tractor driving and searchlight operation. Courses are also open in stenography, typewriting and general clerical work.

The Coast Artillery School at Fort Monroe, Va., is the goal of most men in this arm of service. For those who make the army a career, promotions are dependent upon graduation from this school where specialized training second to none in the world is provided. The Coast Artillery has long been recognized for the quality of its personnel—young, ambitious men who, in addition to serving their country, are acquiring life-long training for themselves—and, in many instances, seeing the world while they are doing it.

(Tomorrow: Field Artillery.)

Local Man Called Into Service

DALLAS, Sept. 5 (AP)—Lieut. Col. Henry F. Phillips, United States army, retired, of Big Spring, has been called to active duty as professor of military science and tactics at Baylor university school of medicine here.

Col. Phillips, who held a similar position at Baylor a few years ago, has been transferred to another post. His appointment became effective Sept. 1.

Lieut. Col. Phillips is a brother to Shine Phillips, local druggist. He was a visitor in the Phillips home until about three weeks ago.

The first round pairings for Friday include:

Men's division: Oklahoma vs. Chicago, Nebraska vs. Texas, Louisiana vs. Montana.

Women's division: Georgia vs. Texas.

African possessions are held by six European countries—Britain, Belgium, France, Italy, Portugal and Spain.

Many Factors Govern Quality Of Your Tea

For a product as universally used and enjoyed as tea very little is known by the average person as to how and where it is grown and what makes a good quality tea. This is largely due, of course, to the remoteness from this part of the world of the tea-growing countries. Ceylon, India, Java, Sumatra, China, Japan, Formosa and Africa produce practically all the tea grown.

Tea is raised in these countries in enormous gardens or on estates. The fact that a healthy young tea bush 2-1/2 feet high produces only 1-2 ounces of black manufactured tea a year gives an idea of how tremendous these estates are. The quality of tea depends first on climatic conditions and the elevation at which the estate is located. The ideal weather for growth is when sunshine and rain alternate. Such conditions are found at their best high up on the sides of hills. Tea grown on estates so situated is known as "high grown tea and is of the finest quality. All the large estates of the late Sir Thomas Lipton, for instance, are to be found high on the Ceylon hills where conditions are perfect for growing the best tea. "Low grown" tea originates from estates planted on the plains and never attains the standard of "high grown" tea.

Rattler's 2nd Bite Is Not So Serious

KIMBALL, Neb., Sept. 5 (UP)—Does a person once bitten by a rattlesnake become immune from future attacks by America's most deadly serpents? That is the question Kimball doctors asked after Ruel Schindler, farmer, came to see them several days after he had been bitten by a diamondback.

Schindler complained of a stinging sensation in his leg and his hip pained him, but had been able to perform his duties for a long time after being bitten. The physician figured the poison had already spread throughout his body and could offer no remedy. Schindler said he had been bitten by a rattler several years ago, but recovered fully after suction treatment.

RAMS HUMBLE STARS, 29-0

CLEVELAND, Sept. 5 (UP)—The Cleveland Rams of the National football league opened their season last night with a 29 to 0 victory over the midwest college all-stars in a game that gave clear indication that Parker Hall is still the key man of the club.

Hall showed unexpected strength as a ball-carrier in racing through the college line for two touchdowns.

Jack Nix, Mississippi State, scored on a 10-yard pass from Ken Heineman, Texas Mines.

Justice Goes Into High Gear EL CENTRO, Calif. (UP)—Justice reached a new high in streamlining here in the case of Ray E. Smith, who within one hour and a half from the commission of his crime was serving his sentence. At 7:35 a. m., Smith stole $10; at 7:45 he was arrested; at 8 a. m. he was sentenced to 30 days, and at 8:15 was in jail.

Plans to take care of visitors from Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Colorado are being made by the Amarillo club, Bailey said.

Marital Flare-Ups Break Out In Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 5 (UP)—Anti-marital tidings from the film colony:

Beauteous, black-haired Hedy Lamarr is suing writer-producer Gene Markey for divorce. The veteran thespian-ironicist, John Barrymore, and his young wife, Elaine Barrie, have "busted up" again. Blonde Carole Landis has left her wealthy, socially-connected yacht broker husband, Willis Hunt, planning an early divorce suit.

In her brief complaint, Miss Lamarr charged she had been subjected to "grievous mental and physical suffering" but omitted details.

Barrymore, the rabelaisian, pungent "Old Man River" of the stage and screen, declared he and his 25-year-old fourth wife are separated permanently this time. In previous rows, she has started and then dropped two divorce suits.

Barrymore said he left Elaine at their Bel-Air home a week ago.

"Neither of us is to blame," he said. "I came to the realization that we'd both be happier, so I beat it."

Tornadoes Set To Make A Better Showing This Year

By HANK HART
LAMESA, Sept. 5—Enthusiastic promoters are predicting that the Lamesa high school gridder will make a better showing in District 5-A-A competition than did the 1939 aggregation despite the loss of such outstanding backs as Jackie Vaughn and Bob Crawley, linemen like Captain LeRoy Holliday.

Coaches Ted McCullom and Red Gregg and their boys apparently are dead set on showing improvement over the departed eleven that won only one conference game, finished but one step out of the cellar.

McCullom has been scrimmaging his charges since the first of the week, Wednesday employed the services of Vaughn and Crawley, who next week leave to enroll at the University of Texas, and Roy Wilson, who also gained his sheepskin at the termination of last school term, in an oldtime rock 'em and sock 'em drill.

And the strange part about it was that Vaughn and Crawley were experiencing but little success against the scrapping hopefuls, try what they might. In McCullom's new line, Gus White, Jr., stood out like a sore thumb. He's one of three returning letter-men and apparently he's set to make a serious bid for all-conference end honors.

White patrols the left wing. The other side of the wall seems to be well taken care of by Kent Morgan, a tackle and last of three football playing brothers. Morgan, who gained his numeral last fall, is growing up and learning to get around.

The other letterman is L. Z. Oswald, a guard, who Wednesday propelled his way into many a play.

McCullom had to completely rebuild his secondary, as yet hasn't found anyone to replace Vaughn as a pitcher. However, at the present time Allen Barnard, a 145-pound speedster, and Obie Cates, who also tips in at 145 pounds, are doing very well. They're being given some help by Rue Calhoun, 152-pounder, and Foy Futrel, who at 155 pounds will be the heaviest man in the backfield. Futrel may have to do most of the ball carrying.

S. R. Jeter is a capable back but is suffering from a bad leg. Don Reeves is to be reckoned with, too. And Vaughn has a little brother who may be heard from.

Opposite Morgan will probably be Jack McBride, a scrapping youngster who suffered a bloody wound in the Wednesday collision but who refused to be replaced.

Others being counted on to rate the starting lineup include Cecil Blair, rangy end; Charles Smith, guard; and Vernel Roberts, center. Jack Harris, a wing, may fit into the picture.

The Tornadoes open their campaign against Slaton in Lamesa, Friday night, Sept. 12, then play hosts to the Rowell, N. M., club Sept. 20, before moving to Lamesa the following weekend.

Cafego Gone But Vols To Be Strong

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 5 (AP)—If you don't mind too much, Major Robert Reece Neyland, generalissimo of the University of Tennessee football forces, won't clamor out on the prediction limb.

Most everyone knows that the Volunteers have been big stuff the last two years, wrapping up a string of 23 wins—15 of them without the foot scoring—before getting knocked off 14 to 0 by Southern California in the Rose Bowl last New Year's day.

This autumn the Vols begin anew.

Through three days of double-portion workouts, the major has seen his squad of 48 young hopefuls.

And when the inevitable query strikes the major, he answers with a shake of the head:

"I'm always pessimistic, but this year I'm more so."

"Sure, we've got seniors—bushy, capable, seasoned men—but we're short on reserves. We've got to depend on our sophomores—unknowns. If they come through—"

From last year's starters graduation clipped tailback George (Bad News) Cafego, fullbacks Len Coffman and Joe Wallen, blocking back Sam Bartholomew, tackle Boyd Clay, and center Jimmy Rife, "You can't lose fellows like those and not feel it," commented the major.

Here are the men around whom the new Vols will be built—all-America Ed Molinski, of Massillon, O., and Bob Sufridge, of Knoxville, at guards; Marshall Shires, of Alderson, W. Va., at tackle; Ed Cifers, of Kingsport, Tenn., and Jim Coleman of St. Albans, W. Va., at ends; and center Jimmy Rife, of Knoxville, doubling at tailback—Cafego's spot—and wingback.

To fill the gaps, Neyland is looking toward Norbert Ackerman, Louisville, Ky., center; Bill Luttrell, Knoxville, tackle; Fred Newman, Knoxville, fullback; Ike Peel, Dyersburg, Tenn., blocking back; and Bob Andridge, Knoxville, wingback.

About that ominous Duke game, Neyland says:

"We hear that my good friend, Wallace Wade, has good men four and five deep. We can only hope to be ready."

Tigers Rout Feller, Tighten American League Debate

Sports

The Big Spring Daily Herald

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1940 PAGE NINE

The Sports Parade

—By Hank Hart—

Since we won't be around when the time comes to pick our all-star teams at season's end, we're going to do a bit of long range guessing and give the readers our version of the 1940 all-Southwest conference football team.

Here 'tis:

Roland Goss, SMU, and Howard Hickey, Arkansas, ends; Ernie Pannell, A&M, and Don Williams, Texas, tackles; Marshall Robnett, A&M, and Ed Bianchi, SMU, guards; Robert Nelson, Baylor, center; Jack Wilson, Baylor, quarter; Preston Johnston, SMU, and Jack Crain, Texas, halves, and John Kimbrough, A&M, full.

Don't be surprised if both Johnston and Wilson outshine Kimbrough over the season's play, if Crain fails to measure up to his form of a year ago, if all the conference's teams take at least one licking.

Picking the way the teams will stack up in the chase is more difficult but here's the way we see it.

1. S.M.U. Equipped with the greatest backfield in the history of the school and a big, strong line the Mustangs have the best chance of going through the campaign unbeaten.
2. Baylor. Great players at the Waco school seemingly always come in pairs. This time it's Jack Wilson and Robert Nelson. But this time Coach Morley Jennings has more than just two boys, a big, strapping line, some good backs to team with Wilson.
3. A&M. The Aggies are fighting tradition plus three of the strongest teams on enemy fields.
4. TCU. The Frogs are a year away from greatness.
5. Rice. The surprise package. Watch Bob Brumley, T. A. Weems and the boys throw an upset or two at some stage in the race.
6. Texas. If it's there we can't see it, even with a pack of dynamite like Crain apparent.
7. Arkansas. Weaker than last year but always dangerous with her overhead game.

YANKS FAIL TO GAIN, LOSE TO WASHINGTON

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Detroit Tigers have turned the American league pennant scramble inside out again.

They crushed the Cleveland Indians, 7-2, yesterday while the Washington Senators pounced upon the New York Yankees, 6-5.

The Tigers, their backs to the wall, made 11 hits, including three home runs, off Bob Feller in seven innings and had the youngster so befuddled he didn't know which way to turn. Dick Bartell stole second once while Feller was going through his complicated windup, and Bob couldn't get settled down enough to throw to first when Campbell hit a bouncer at him.

Manager Oscar Vitt announced Feller would be given until Tuesday to recover. The Indians lost slugging Hal Trosky indefinitely because of a leg injury. He hit a homer and a single and scored both Cleveland's runs. He was almost the only thorn Rowe encountered in scattering seven hits.

Charlie Gehring battered in four of Detroit's runs with a homer and a double. Hank Greenberg and Bruce Campbell hit circuit drives.

The victory lifted the Tigers back into second place, three games back of the Tribe.

The Boston Red Sox hovered close to pennant contenders by sweeping two extra-inning games from the Philadelphia Athletics, 6-5 and 5-4.

The St. Louis Browns continued to make trouble by whipping the Chicago White Sox, 4-1, with Jack Harris scattering eight hits.

In the National league, the champion Cincinnati Reds copied their 33rd one-run victory with a 3-2, 12-inning verdict over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Brooklyn Dodgers and the St. Louis Cardinals maintained their margins behind the leaders by winning night encounters. Luke Hamlin pitched the Dodgers to a 5-0 shutout over last-place Phillies. Max Lanier of the Cardinals held the Chicago Cubs scoreless for seven innings, but got help from Clyde Shoun in the ninth before winning, 4-2.

One of the season's finest pitching duels was rendered by Dick Erickson of the Boston Bees and Carl Hubbell of the New York Giants. The only runs of the game came on an error by Eddie Miller in the seventh inning.

Fred Wolcott, Through With College Track, Now Gridder

Mentor Calls Snyder Youth Top Athlete

By WILLIAM T. RIVES
HOUSTON, Sept. 5 (AP)—Fred Wolcott, the blond blur, has finished his collegiate track career, but for at least one more year fans will see his churning legs challenge hurdle records he himself lowered to seemingly unapproachable marks.

Wolcott said today that after a fling at intercollegiate football—his first—he would compete unattached next season in various important non-college meets.

Then he plans to coach track.

The tow-headed Rice Institute hurdler has set more world and American records than any athlete in history. He is no one-time Charley; most of his record performances he has duplicated frequently.

More than a year ago Lawson Robertson, famed Olympic track coach, called Wolcott "the greatest athlete of today; perhaps of tomorrow."

That was before Wolcott ran the 200-meter low hurdles in 22.3; before he sped over the 220-yard high barriers in 22.5; before he ran the 120-yard-high hurdles in 13.7; before he ran the 220-low around a turn in 22.9, and before he raced the 110-meter highs in 13.9.

Freddy is the only man in Southwest conference annals to sweep three championships three straight times, setting records for each event. Besides the hurdles, Wolcott runs the 100-yard dash—he's done the event in 9.5).

Best Athlete
Brunson, the Rice coach, considers Wolcott the greatest athlete of "all time." A look at the record will prove that, he says.

"To me the most impressive thing about Fred is that he was not one of those sophomore stars who wilt as time goes on. Fred's greatest races were his last races. He ran the 120-yard highs in 13.9 or better in five of the last six meets in which he competed. The other time rain slowed him up."

Wolcott started his track career by accident.

One day at the county track meet at Snyder, the West Texas town Wolcott calls home, the sprinter of the Snyder high school team be-

Fem's Golf Meeting Underway At C-C

Event Will Be Brought To A Close Sunday

By JACK DOUGLAS
Big Spring women's city tournament got underway today with the first entrants teeing off for the qualifying rounds at the country club at 1:30 this afternoon. Position play will be followed with distance driving competition. The meet is open to present members of the club and the women's golf association. Those eligible for the golfing events are also in line to enter in the deciding play for tops in ping-pong and bridge.

The first round will be played Friday and Saturday and putting winners will be decided on the same day. Saturday will find the hopefuls battling to stay out of the ranks of the also-rans in the third round. The meet will be brought to a close on Sunday when the city championship is decided.

Enough entrants to make three flights are expected to make Mrs. Alice Phillips. If enough enter she said there might be nine hole rounds. There will be two divisions for the long driving, pitching and putting. Prizes will be given winners in all events and for medals.

Mrs. Phillips, defending champion from last year, announced that a chicken barbecue would be the order of the day for Sunday afternoon and all entrants and their escorts will be guests.

Padres Cling To 2nd Place

By the Associated Press
A nip-and-tuck battle for second place between Beaumont and San Antonio is about all Texas league fans have to look forward to until the regular season ends Sunday.

The Shaughnessy play-off contestants have been determined with Houston to play Oklahoma City and Beaumont to meet San Antonio.

San Antonio clung to a half-game lead over Beaumont when both clubs won their games last night.

The Missions defeated Shreveport 4-3 and the Exporters won over Houston 4-1.

Rain caused cancellation of the Dallas-Tulsa and Fort Worth-Oklahoma City games.

O'Brien, Luckman Are Matched In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 5 (AP)—Two of professional football's greatest aerial artists clash tonight as the Philadelphia Eagles and the Chicago Bears pry the lid off a brand new football season in an exhibition game.

Matching wits—and tomes—will be tiny Davey O'Brien, of the Eagles, and Chicago's Sid Luckman, whose strong arm completed many a pass for Columbia. O'Brien may get the help of a former teammate at Texas Christian, Don Looney, who joined Philadelphia this year, is a top replacement at end.

France Reopens Pawnshop
VICHY (UP)—The first of the French official administrations to reopen its doors in Paris was "My Aunt," the familiar name given to the official operated national pawnshop. It now is open for business again.

Playoff Tilts Rained Out

By the Associated Press
Three of four play-off games in the East Texas and West Texas-New Mexico leagues were washed out by rain last night.

Tyler defeated Longview 5-3 in the only tilt played—that in the East Texas loop.

Amario to have been at Lubbock and Berger at Pampa in the West Texas-New Mexico circuit. The same schedule prevails tonight.

Henderson was scheduled to entertain Marshall in the other East Texas game. The teams play at Henderson tonight.

Little Interest In Heavy Bout

NEW YORK, Sept. 5 (AP)—There's to be a fight at Madison Square Garden tomorrow night between Billy Conn, the light heavyweight champion, and Bob Pastor.

The fight "mob" are the only ones showing any great amount of interest. The general public hasn't been mobbing the box offices, although the fight may bring Conn a fight with heavyweight champion Joe Louis.

Billy was a lopsided favorite before the fight was postponed from Aug. 13, but the odds-makers give him only a 5 to 8 edge now.

"Stop The Aggies" Is Cry In SW Grid Camps

DALLAS, Sept. 5 (AP)—Cloaked in chic fall woolen jerseys with gay leather accessories, the football boys who give you fall thrills up slumped from behind a topcoat collar, staggered out in even temperatures today to start drilling for the Southwest conference chase.

Intense heat was general at every training camp as the squads of seven conference schools headed straight into the wildest campaign of all, started two-day practice sessions.

First games are still three weeks away, but the cry rose today: "Stop the Texas Aggies."

Not that the other six schools have definitely bitter feelings against the Aggies, but they just happen to be the team trying to defend its title.

The quaintest tradition of the conference concerns the fact that a team has never won the flag two years hand running. Reason for this bit of history can be traced to the fact that the other six schools set about at this time of the year to train their sights on the culprit who whacked them all the season before.

On that basis, it is safe to say that the Aggies will have a terrific time repeating and that, as usual, some other team will come loping in with the unsuspecting aid of the other.

Quite ready to fill the interloper's role are Southern Methodist and Baylor. The former, blistering in near 100-degree Dallas heat, started practice with one of the finest bunch of backfielders in the old league's history.

No fewer than eight lettermen were available for the offensive bright sophomore talent on hand. Notable in this group was Orville (Bull) Johnson, a strapping fellow from Bryan who was not exactly an eyegore to Coach Matty Bell in spring training.

Coach D. X. Bible got a last minute jolt when his University of Texas Longhorns started practice without Malcolm Kutner, a fine looking end from Dallas slated to play one of Mr. Bible's eleven first string positions. A knee injury he received playing basketball has ended the football career of a lad who ranked as a marvelous pass receiver and good defensive player.

But at Texas A. and M., things picked up a bit when it was learned that Willie Zapalac, a great Class B player of two years ago and star of last year's freshman team, would be available after a similar knee operation. It was still doubtful, however, whether he would wait until next year, or wait until next year. But big John Kimbrough and the rest of the lads who captured the nation's fancy last season were definitely on hand.

To Jess Neely, starting at Rice Institute as head coach, it was the beginning of a rough season—a season the fans have waited for. Neely is Houston's Moses, and the faithful, a persistent lot, predict considerable leading out of the wilderness.

Texas Christian greeted Kyle Gillespie, great junior back who successfully underwent a knee operation and prayed he would last out the season. If he does, he will be another Baugh or O'Brien. He is just that good. Baylor, who is just that good. Baylor, who is just that good. Baylor, who is just that good. Baylor, who is just that good.

Steer Drills Well Advanced

Running through formations with plenty of vim despite the hot weather, the Big Spring Steers appear to be developing into a football machine that will give the Resourcers from Mineral Wells plenty of trouble in the 1940 debut a week from Friday. According to the observations of some of the coaching staff, the Herd gridder are further advanced now than they were after the same amount of training last year.

Head Mentor Pat Murphy put his season's offerings to grid fans' slumbers from behind a topcoat collar, staggered out in even temperatures today to start drilling for the Southwest conference chase.

Intense heat was general at every training camp as the squads of seven conference schools headed straight into the wildest campaign of all, started two-day practice sessions.

First games are still three weeks away, but the cry rose today: "Stop the Texas Aggies."

Not that the other six schools have definitely bitter feelings against the Aggies, but they just happen to be the team trying to defend its title.

The quaintest tradition of the conference concerns the fact that a team has never won the flag two years hand running. Reason for this bit of history can be traced to the fact that the other six schools set about at this time of the year to train their sights on the culprit who whacked them all the season before.

On that basis, it is safe to say that the Aggies will have a terrific time repeating and that, as usual, some other team will come loping in with the unsuspecting aid of the other.

Quite ready to fill the interloper's role are Southern Methodist and Baylor. The former, blistering in near 100-degree Dallas heat, started practice with one of the finest bunch of backfielders in the old league's history.

No fewer than eight lettermen were available for the offensive bright sophomore talent on hand. Notable in this group was Orville (Bull) Johnson, a strapping fellow from Bryan who was not exactly an eyegore to Coach Matty Bell in spring training.

All-Stars Trip Giants, 16 To 7

NEW YORK, Sept. 5 (AP)—A "star-less" squad of eastern collegiate all-star gridmen tumbled the New York professional Giants' proud, unbeaten exhibition record to last night, 16 to 7.

The Giants never had been whipped before in eight tussles with all-star squads from coast to coast and were 1 to 3 pre-game favorites to take their fifth straight in this series with the eastern all-stars for the New York Herald Tribune's fresh air fund.

Sparked by Marilyn Condit, a Southpaw passer from Carnegie Tech who never came closer to an all-American team than seeing it in the movies, the stars scored one touchdown in the second period, a field goal in the third and another six-pointer in the fourth to roll up their total.

Toss McLaughry, Brown coach and all-star pilot, had picked this squad so well that most of the few really headline names on the list saw either only a few brief moments of action, or none at all.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

NEW YORK, Sept. 5—Latest pennant race prices: Cleveland, even money; Yankees 2-1; Detroit 4-1.

Dick Chapman, the socialist golfer-crooner, is on pick to win the National amateur.

Kearns will have to net $55,000 to stay out of the red on Bear vs. Comiskey and lots of folks think he won't do it. . . . Doc Sutherland is very, very high on Banks M'Fadden.

Today's Guest Star.
Jack Singer, N. Y. Journal-American: "The greatest job of wrecking since Mayor La Guardia tore down the Sixth Avenue 'L' is confronted by Willie Terry this winter. . . . He must break up the Giants before they break him. . . . There is nothing wrong with the Giants that a new ball club won't cure."

That's Hank Prusoff, the Tennis, with the red pan. . . . While entering a movie, a light-fingered dip lifted Hank's wallet containing 110 yams. . . . He removed the dough, then, to rub it in, put the empty purse back in Prusoff's pocket.

Johnny Murphy, Yankee relief pitcher, has a baby. Dittie Herb Hask of the Red Sox. . . . Mike Jacobs has promised Billy Conn that if he licks Bob Pastor, he can have a shot at Joe Louis in the Garden, Oct. 3. . . . First man to check in for the National amateur golf meet at Mammoth was Maurice McCarthy of Cincinnati. Bing Crosby had 'em talking with a 73 on his second time out. . . . Jim Mallory, who chucked a football career at North Carolina U. to sign with Washington, was the standout of the recent national semi-pro tournament.

Oh, Elmer.
Pete Layden, Texas U's classy junior tailback, is a cousin of the Notre Dame coach and how Elmer ever let Pete get away is a misery to us, as the late Ring Lardner's "Jack Keefer" was to say.

Man About Manhattan

NEW YORK—If you walk into almost any store in the mid-town sector and wait a reasonable length of time you are almost certain to see a young woman canvassing public opinion as to the presidential possibilities for November.

We ran into several in one day, although in only one instance were we able to ascertain whom they represented. This was in a men's haberdashery on west 49th street.

All the while this was going on the young woman was writing furiously which we couldn't hear, much to our regret.

YOUNG TAYLOR
Constance smiled at him—"how you do jump to conclusions. I really came to find out why you were offering so much for the ranch?"

G. O. C., San Francisco, Calif.—That was a swell letter, but you'll have to forgive my not commenting on it in detail. Maybe I'm wrong, but I have an idea that I best can serve you and other readers more by passing along an inside picture of the Washington scene as I see it.

"Who's winning?" we wanted to know. She laughed. "I'm not permitted to tell you. Anyway, what's true of Manhattan probably wouldn't be true in some other places."

A very pleasant young woman in white asked us what side we took our name, and then introduced us to a doctor. We were led into a great white tiled room. A nurse lifted the sleeve and another nurse held the arm for the doctor to examine it.

When we were all wrapped up we said, "How much, Doctor?" "There is no charge," he said. "Very, very nice. And very thoughtful, too, of Nelson Rockefeller."

Memory Of The Moon

At least the horse was beautiful, a shining chestnut mare with restless head, glancing resentfully back at the ornate Mexican saddle. It was such a contrast to the flat English pads she had ridden in parks. Constance felt that she was in an armchair.

And then Tim's Min began to worry about the car. She'd nearly lost it when it went over the cliff with Tim in it, so she telephoned Meg to be on the lookout...not for her...but for the cat. "Juliano went down to the highway, and you tried to run over him as he attempted to flag you down. He sent a rider after me and I posted men along every road. You wanted until you reached the last one before turning east and I happened to have posted myself."

FAMILY KEEPS PROUD RECORD AS GUNSMITHS

DETROIT (UP) — Arthur J. Strong, 75, whose uncle engaged Abraham Lincoln in a target match to prove superiority of his repeating rifle which later was credited with aiding the Union army, has followed the family tradition.

Strong, who worked with his uncle, Christopher M. Spencer, until his death several years ago, has submitted a new device to Canadian officials for straightening rifle barrels and stepping up light arms production.

"My uncle often used to tell me of his target match with Lincoln," he said. "He invented the first lever action repeater and went to Washington to sell it to the Union army. Lincoln was interested in the new gun because he was quite a marksman himself. They set up targets on the banks of the Potomac river and shot it out. My uncle won the match but Lincoln laughed it off. He said my uncle was a younger man."

Gen. Joseph Hooker, Strong said, credited the gun with a large share of the success of the Union army.

Sawmill To Be Moved; Lumber Town For Sale

PINE VALLEY, Okla., Sept. 5 (UP)—Anybody want to buy a town?

The houses, public buildings and utilities systems of this community of 1,500 have been put up for sale by the Dierks Lumber Co. Included are a 60-room hotel, theater, postoffice building, store, office buildings and two schools.

Company officials said they planned to move their sawmill and other equipment to a new location. Pine Valley is in mountainous terrain in the southeast part of Oklahoma, and "undoubtedly would make a good health resort," the officials said.

The port of Montreal is capable of accommodating 253,000 tons of steamers.

200 Palominos To Be Shown At The Abilene Fair
 ABILENE, Sept. 5—There will literally be color galore at the West Texas fair October 7 to 12. Not that it will be lacking in other departments, but it will sparkle all over the grounds when the second annual Texas Palomino association horse show is staged the first three days and nights of the exposition.
 Dr. M. T. Ramsey, chairman of the show, said this week more than 200 of the finest Palomino horses of the southwest will be exhibited. All the Palominos will be seen in the grand parade of the fair Tuesday morning, October 8, in addition to five performances before the arena in three days.
 Dr. Ramsey has arranged an eleven-event arena program which provides competition for both men and women riders. Palominos will be used exclusively.

Jobless Insurance Moratorium Planned
 WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 (AP)—Private employers of national guardsmen called for a year's active service may be granted a moratorium on payment of unemployment benefit insurance premiums during their employees' absence.
 A tentative proposal for withholding collection of the 3 per cent payroll tax paid by employers developed today from a series of social security board conferences on various suggestions for federal and state cooperation to "freeze" the unemployment benefit status of men taken from their jobs in the defense program.
 Administration officials, who refrained from direct comment in advance of prospective legislation, said that some authorities favored a moratorium also for employers of the men who would be called if the conscription bill is enacted.

Grassland Conclave At Amarillo Opens
 AMARILLO, Sept. 5 (AP)—Several hundred government and college specialists, government employees and ranchers were here today for the opening of the Southern Great Plains Grassland conference.
 The specialists have completed a four-day tour of regrassing projects and experiment station work in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Colorado and Kansas.

Girl Returning To Texas Says The People Of New Zealand Want U. S. To 'Take Over' If England Loses

By J. LINDLEY WOOD
 MERTZON, Sept. 5—It was not the war, but the simple desire to see her father again, and to return to her native land, that influenced Loma Rutledge, 18-year-old daughter of Judge W. P. Rutledge, Mertzson, to leave her adopted home in New Zealand, almost 10,000 miles away, and return to her childhood home in Irion, where her father's people have lived for the past 54 years.
 Eight years ago, Miss Rutledge went to New Zealand to live with an aunt in Wellington, on the North Island. The war came, and with it many changes in the Islands. According to Miss Rutledge, the people of New Zealand live in constant fear of being conquered and dominated by the Japanese. The great majority of people there hope that if England loses the war the United States will take over the Islands.
 "Money" No Good
 New Zealand money isn't any good outside of the islands. When Judge Rutledge sent his daughter passage money, she rushed to the bank, hoping to secure some United States greenbacks, or a few silver coins with the eagle engraving, but the banker told her that American money was greedily grabbed up by patrons as soon as it came into the bank; so she had to be satisfied with English pounds.
 Boarding the American Monterey at Auckland, July 27, she found her English pounds were worth only two dollars in American money. Whether or not this small amount would be any use to her, she wasn't sure until her ship cleared the German mined waters off the coast. After being on the ocean 20 days, Miss Rutledge landed in California—broke. Luckily she had an aunt, Mrs. Leslie Lake, living at Wilmington; and with her she visited until her dad sent her more money.
 Went Ashore At Tahiti
 The Monterey, one her voyage over, stopped at the islands of Tahiti, Hawaii, Samoa, and Fiji, where passengers were permitted to go ashore. Fiji, French owned, hadn't seen a ship in two years. The inhabitants, long ago, ran out of white bread, and have only a limited amount of coarse black bread made from a native product. War has not affected the food supply in New Zealand to a great extent. Prices are high and there is practically no sugar. Oranges sell for eight cents each; gasoline for 80 cents a gallon, but motorists are allowed only seven gallons a month. The supply of brown paper has run out. When a person goes to buy his bread there, he has to take his own pa-

Livestock Show To Be A Feature Of The State Fair

DALLAS, Sept. 5—The livestock show at the State Fair of Texas, headlined by the National Hereford show and the regional show of the Holstein-Friesian Breeders association, promises to make Texas and Dallas the livestock capital of the world between Oct. 5 and 20, date of the fair. Pedigreed stock of every breed, already being culled and manured for the event, will compete for a record-breaking $100,000 in cash premiums.
 Among features of the week-long Hereford judging, to be held in a big arena with the public invited, will be an auction of 50 head of herd bulls by the Texas Hereford Breeders association, a sale sponsored by the American Hereford Breeders association and the pride of champions in which selection will be made of the grand champion of the show. Cattlemen from 13 states and the Dominion of Canada will enter prize stock.
 Increase in exhibit space and amount of premiums by the Texas Jersey Cattle club, the National Holstein-Friesian organization, the American Shorthorn Breeders association and by breeders of Guernsey will insure the most extensive dairy show ever to be held at the state fair, according to Frank E. Holland, Jr., director in charge of the livestock department.

May Stage A Horse Show

Possibility that a horse show—a full exhibition of gaited animals similar to that staged here last April—will be put on in Big Spring in mid-October was seen as the result of a conference Wednesday night of riding enthusiasts.
 C. T. McLaughlin and Dr. M. H. Bennett, who directed last April's show, discussed the plans for a possible new event with Grover Dunham, E. V. Spence, J. H. Greene, R. R. McEwen and Adolf Swartz. The group plans to contact others in the city on a plan whereby a part of the show cost may be underwritten.
 A two or three-performance event would be held, with purses offered to attract major exhibitors of Texas here. The horse show of last April, first ever staged here, was considered a standout, and was so popular with crowds that it is believed that a repeat event will prove a big drawing card.
