RED BLOCKADE ENFORCED German Police Fire On Speeding Auto

BERLIN, May 6. (AP)—German police enforced the Russian blockade inside Berlin with gunfire today — six days before the barriers are due to be lifted. A wild fusillade from German guards on the east Berlin boundary failed to halt an automobile racing into the American sector under cover of darkness. West Berlin police reported they had been unable to discover whether the driver had been wounded or where the car went after escaping from the Russian sector.

House Passes Bill To Reorganize 70th Judicial District

A bill reorganizing the 70th judicial district has been passed by the Texas House of Representatives. The measure (HB 379) was approved Thursday evening, Rep. R. E. (Peppy) Blount advised. It would split the district, leaving Midland and Ector counties in the 70th district, and creating a new district for Howard, Martin and Glasscock counties. Blount said that enactment of the measure by the Senate was anticipated. He predicted that passage would alleviate the "crowded" condition of court dockets of those progressive West Texas counties.

File Murder Count Against Employe In Rancher's Death

BEEVILLE, May 6. (AP)—Murder charges were filed today against a 52-year-old ranch employe accused of killing Rancher Glenn W. Clark, 68, with an axe yesterday. The charges were filed against Jack Monroe Steel. Steel waived examining trial Justice Fred Malone ruled it is not a bonafide case. Highway Patrolman R. F. Kirkpatrick arrested Steel two hours after the slaying. Kirkpatrick said Steel related in a signed statement that the two men were repairing a leaky cistern, that Clark complained about his work, and that he struck the rancher along the left side of his head.

JIMMIE EASON OFFERS FREE ROSES TO ALL MOTHERS ON MOTHER'S DAY

Roses for mother is the offer of Jimmie Eason for Mothers Day. Every mother who visits his place at the intersection of the Moss Creek lake road with U. S. 80, five miles east of here, on Sunday, will be given a rose (or roses) of her choice. Eason isn't afraid of exhausting the supply. By his estimate he has somewhere between 12,000 and 14,000 roses growing in the fields at his place. How many roses in bloom? Well, that's pure guess. Maybe a couple of hundred thousand he says. For the youngest and oldest mother visiting during the day there will be a large potted gardenia. Hours are from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Applicants For Business Managership City Schools To Be Quizzed May 12

Several applicants for the position of business manager for the Big Spring school system will be invited here for personal interview on May 12, the board of trustees announced Thursday night. After studying a multitude of written applications for the post, the board members selected those who possessed top qualifications and instructed the superintendent to extend the invitations for interviews immediately. Board members expressed hope that a selection could be made in time for the business manager to take over his duties here by July 1. In other business Thursday night

Senate Gives House Federal Education Bill

Efforts To Amend Legislation Are Beaten Down

WASHINGTON, May 6. (AP) The Senate delivered a $300 million federal aid to education bill to the house today for the second year in a row. The measure swept through the Senate last night, 88 to 15. All efforts to amend it were beaten down. It would authorize $300 million to be appropriated annually to help the states pay teacher salaries and other school operating expenses. Many schools have lost teachers to better paying employers, an argument advanced that the bill's supporters. By providing for the largest per pupil allotments to the poorest states, it is intended to more nearly equalize education opportunities throughout the nation. An almost identical bill passed by the Senate last year was piggy-backed by a House committee. This year's measure had strong bipartisan support in the Senate. Last night three Democrats, Sens. Byrd (Va.), Connally (Tex.) and O'Connor (Md.), voted with 12 Republicans against the bill. Thirty-six Democrats and 2—Republicans voted for it. Senator Wherry (R-Nebr.), the GOP floor leader, said it is a "socialistic" program, comparable to the long-range housing bill recently passed by the Senate. He saw it as a step toward federal control of education. But Sen. Taft (R-Ohio), one of its sponsors, denied that the bill would permit federal control over the schools. He also argued that it is essential for the federal government to give all children minimum educational opportunities. The bill provides that the federal grants may be used by the states to aid private and parochial school children, as well as those in public schools, if this is permitted by state law.

Permit For New Radio Station Here Is Granted

Construction permit for a second radio station in Big Spring has been granted by the Federal Communications Commission. Leonard R. Lyon, Big Spring, received notice Thursday evening that the commission had approved his application for a permit to construct and operate a 100 watt station on an assigned frequency of 1400 kilocycles. The station, which Lyon was advised Friday would have the call letters of KTXC, would have unlimited time. Lyon, who said he filed individually for the permit, indicated that it would be approximately 80 days before construction could begin. It will require 20 days before he submits his request for site approval, and normally approval by the FCC takes about two months, he added. Equipment, a Gates unit rated for 250 watt capacity although it will operate at 100, has been on order for several months and Lyon anticipated immediate delivery once the site is approved. He said plans to construct the station in one unit with studios and transmitter at the same location. The venture would require about six employees at the outset, he estimated. Lyon is a former radio announcer here.

Volume Of Trash Increases In City Cleanup Campaign

Status of the city cleanup campaign apparently had changed from one extreme to another this morning, as officials reported a heavy increase in pickup requirements. No figures were available on the volume of trash picked up to date, but city officials said trucks would continue on the job until the task is completed. The city vehicles were behind schedules they hoped to maintain, and indications were that total yardage of trash would exceed the volume of previous years. Most of the trash collection work apparently was accomplished late in the campaign, since earlier reports indicated a light volume. As soon as the trucks complete the pickup work, attention will be devoted to spraying the city with insecticide to combat a heavy infestation of mosquitoes, said City Manager H. W. Whitney. House flies also are expected to develop in substantial numbers due to recent rains, and the city hopes to get all sections a "fog bath" with DDT immediately after the cleanup campaign is finished.

Falfurias Man Gets New Murder Trial

FALFURIAS, May 6. (AP)—Robert S. Bell will be tried anew on a charge he killed his son-in-law, Amos P. Moody. Judge L. Broeter granted the motion for a new trial yesterday. Bell had been convicted April 23 by a jury which gave him 10 years in prison. The defense in its allegation of misconduct said the jury, in reaching a verdict, discussed similar cases and also discussed length of sentence in relation to parole.

Rowe Motor Co. To Show New Cars At Opening Saturday

Nine new motor vehicles will be on display at the Rowe Motor Co. Saturday during its formal opening event. H. M. Rowe, local dealer for Packard automobile and Willys Jeeps, announced this morning. The Rowe Motor company's new building will be open for public inspection between the hours of 10 a. m. and 9 p. m. Saturday. The new establishment is located at 1011 Gregg street. The public will have opportunity to inspect six new Packards and three Jeeps while touring the new building. Packard Motor Car Co. is celebrating its 50th anniversary at this time, and the new Golden Anniversary model will be shown here in several different styles and types at the Rowe Motor company's opening event. The new Packards are said to approach perfection in luxury, safety and performance, with many distinctive new features.

Ask $400,000 For Distribution System For Lunch Program

Sen. Kilmer B. Corbin, Lamesa, and Rep. Lamar Zivley, Temple have introduced legislation for a $400,000 appropriation for a warehouse distribution system for Texas school lunch program. The authors introduced the measure as a means of securing a greater amount of surplus commodities for lunchroom projects. Figures for the U. S. department of agriculture showed from 100 to 120 per cent capita for Arkansas, Colorado, Kansas, Louisiana, New Mexico and Oklahoma where distribution centers have been used, according to the authors.

Former Jailer Found Innocent In Killing

RUSK, May 6. (AP)—Willie Chapman, former Athens jailer, late yesterday was found innocent of the murder of J. D. Robertson. The trial, moved here on a change of venue from Athens, had been in progress since Monday. It was Chapman's second trial. The first ended in a hung jury. Robertson, 26-year-old war veteran, was shot to death Aug. 15, 1947, in the Athens jail lobby. Chapman testified yesterday he found Robertson in the lobby about midnight. He said Robertson cursed him and advanced toward him with his right hand in his hip pocket. "I told him two or three times to stop," Chapman said. "Then I shot."

Ford Plant Circled By 5,000 Pickets

See No Violence In Major Strike

DETROIT, May 6. (AP)—Ford Motor Co.'s huge River Rouge plant was locked today in its first major strike since 1941 as an estimated 5,000 pickets paraded peacefully before main gates. It was the second day of idleness for approximately 65,000 CIO United Auto Workers, who walked out at noon yesterday in union protest against what the UAW called "speed-up" of assembly lines. Nearly 60,000 struck at the Rouge plant, one of America's industrial giants, and approximately 5,000 more walked out at Ford's Lincoln-Mercury plant nearby. Picketing continued in an orderly fashion today, just as when the walkout began. Long lines of pickets, some bearing signs saying simply "Ford is on strike," circled in front of all main gates at the massive Rouge plant. By 9 o'clock an estimated 5,000 pickets, some in lines and some in groups, were marching back and forth. Ford asked Dearborn police for more protection and protested against the massing of pickets at the gates. But Dearborn Mayor Orville L. Hubbard rejected the request. "No plant gates are blocked," he said. "Anyone who wants to can walk right in." All salaried employees not on strike were permitted to enter the plant and at one gate they even were allowed to drive their cars inside. No renewal of negotiations in the dispute was scheduled. However, it was felt that both company and union were agreeable to early peace talks in view of the strike's critical future effects if prolonged. Ultimately Ford's entire operation as the world's second largest auto producer, employing more than 100,000 production workers, would face paralysis. The strike's immediate effect was to cut off Ford's base here as a supplier of automobiles and auto parts. The trade paper, Automobile News, said the strike might take Ford cars virtually out of the market if it lasts a fortnight. UAW President Walter Reuther refused to budge from the "speed-up" charge and said Ford was stepping up rates to secure a "competitive advantage."

COUNT MAURICE MAETERLICK, 86, FAMED BELGIAN AUTHOR, SUCCUMBS

MAURICE MAETERLICK

PARIS, May 6. (AP)—Count Maurice Maeterlinck, famed Belgian author of "The Blue Bird" and other works, died in Nice today, the French press agency reported. He was 86. Maeterlinck's works are noted for their fanciful beauty. Among the most famous are "Pelleas Et Melisande," made into an opera by the French composer, Claude Debussy; "The Blue Bird," "The Life Of The Ant" and "The Life of the Bee." Maeterlinck was awarded the Nobel Prize for literature in 1911. Most of his later years were spent on the French Riviera, but when the Germans moved on Paris in 1940, Maeterlinck fled to the United States with his wife, arriving in New York Dec. 7, 1940. In January, 1941, he made one of his rare public appearances, attending the first English-language presentation of the opera, "Pelleas Et Melisande." Maeterlinck was born in Gent, Belgium, Aug. 29, 1862, the son of wealthy parents. His career as an author began in 1889 with publication of a volume of verse and a play.

BIG ATTACKS LAUNCHED Chinese Red Push For Shanghai Seen

SHANGHAI, May 6. (AP)—The big Chinese Communist push for Shanghai may be on. The garrison today said strong Communist attacks rolled up on the southwest and northwest. It said the one on the southwest was being held, and the Reds on the northwest were beaten back. The Reds knifed deeper into central and southeast China meanwhile. There was little indication of fighting on either of these two fronts. This appeared to be a hint that the two lancing operations into Nationalist China's vitals were virtually unopposed. The attacks on the Shanghai front broke a lull that began when the Communists by-passed the city, seized Hangchow on the southwest, and left Shanghai isolated except by sea. The communists said several thousand Communist troops were attacking Kashing, 30 miles southwest on the railway to Hangchow. A second came west of Kashing. A third hit Nationalist positions around Changchih, about 9 miles to the north. The garrison's communique said that simultaneously 5,000 Red troops struck at Taichang, 37 miles northwest of Shanghai. It asserted that the attackers withdrew after a two-hour fight, leaving 200 dead and wounded. Meanwhile the newspaper Sin Wan Pao said Fukien province officials were worried as Red vanguards moved into the mountains about 20 miles from the northern border of this southeast province. Fukien province is opposite Formosa, island, province converted into a Nationalist fortress.

Elmo Wasson Is Named District Rotary Governor

PLAINVIEW, May 6.—Elmo Wasson, Big Spring, was named governor of the 127th district, Rotary International, at the annual convention which opened here Thursday. Wasson, a charter member of the Big Spring club, will succeed Dr. Ira Woods, Littlefield, on July 1. The new district governor has previously served his local club as secretary and president, and has been a leading worker in other phases of the Rotary club's program. He was nominated unanimously. A delegation of 11 men from Big Spring were on hand Friday to recommend Wasson's nomination, and others from the new governor's home club were expected here today for the closing session. Those present from Big Spring at the Thursday session included Fritz Wehner, Walton S. Morrison, Marvin Saunders, Otto Peters, Sr., Dr. C. F. Dillon, Chester O'Brien, Tom Rossion, H. J. Morrison, Dave Duncan and Wasson. The convention was due to close at noon Friday.

Williams Murder Case Slated To Reach Jury Today

ABILENE, May 6. (AP)—The murder trial of a barber who said he shot the wrong person is expected to reach the jury today. The barber is John Thomas Williams, charged in the Oct. 17, 1948, slaying of Jeannette Paschall, 18. Testimony in the case ended yesterday. The state said it would ask the death penalty. The young woman was killed by a shotgun blast as she, Williams' divorced wife, and a niece covered in the bathroom of a tourist cabin here. Williams testified yesterday he shot into the bathroom, thinking he was shooting at Weldon Coalsion, whom he claimed had broken up his home. He said he feared Coalsion would kill him. Miss Paschall was the fiancée of Williams' 17-year-old son, and was visiting Mrs. Williams.

Juveniles Held On Car-Stripping Charge

Two juveniles, who told authorities they are from Mississippi, were taken into custody in Pecos Wednesday on charges of stripping a car here earlier in the week. The pair are also wanted in their home state on charges of car theft. Most of the equipment taken from the vehicle here was recovered.

Sulphur Springs Students May Strike

SULPHUR SPRINGS, May 6. (AP)—Striking Sulphur Springs high school students planned to picket the school today if their demands are not met. Their demand: That Principal H. C. Check not be fired. About 200 of the protesting students met in the town square last night. Their spokesman—and principal speaker at the meeting—was Senior Class President Billy Wayne Harry. Last night's meeting followed two demonstrations yesterday. The first, shortly before noon, involved a walkout of 100 to 150 students and a downtown parade. The second was a downtown rally. The school board has made no announcements regarding the gray-haired principal. But the board also did not deny widespread rumors that it had taken steps toward discharging Check.

Big Springers Witness Enjoyable Program By Modern Dance Group

Big Springers, who have little opportunity to see modern dance groups in action, had a pleasant two-hour introduction to the art Thursday evening when the American Association of University Women, local chapter, sponsored the Texas State College for Women Modern Dance Group in a public program given in the municipal auditorium.

After a few informative comments from Dr. Anne Schley Duggan, director of the group, and a requested demonstration of rhythmic interpretation based on "Chop Sticks," the stage was set for the formal program.

Featuring Marion Nicoll, a dramatic soprano, the "Negro Spiritual Suite" was highlighted by a very effective presentation of "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot." The lighting was good in this number and the audience seemed to feel the significant meaning of the spiritual. After several serious numbers, the spell was broken pleasantly by a lighter presentation, "De Gospel Trail." Modern dance seems difficult to describe except to say that it is a presentation of the feelings characterized in music. One of the best demonstrations of the art itself was presented in "Walk Together Children," which included a constant marching background of dancers keeping perfect time with one another.

Another good demonstration of the true meaning of modern dance was found in the "Color Suite." This presentation, the performers attempted to create the characteristics of the various colors. Most impressive of the group was "Blue" danced by Bessie Akagi, Nancy Ball, Joan Collard, Ruth Helen Knopfl, Patti McDaniel, and Jeanette Schlotmann. Jeanette Schlotmann did a fine job of interpreting "Green." Most unusual and dramatic of the presentations was that of "Purple," by Patti McDaniel. Percussion accompanists, lighting and costumes added much to the six color interpretations.

Of the four parts of "Heritage of the Southwest," the audience seemed to feel the meaning of the last three most of all. Second of the series, the "Spaniard" left the audience with a feeling of the basic characteristics of the people involved.

Presentations of the "Pioneer" and "Cowboy" were probably the most understandable of the program. The worshipping and praying of the pioneer people were well portrayed. Enjoyable seems a good description of the "Cowboy" theme. Especially good was the interesting, rope-spinning and singing. The spirit of the old West seemed present in the work of the dancers and in the minds of the audience.

Betsy Cunningham was presented in several vocal numbers following the southwest theme. Having an agile voice, the singer was well featured.

Best costuming for the performance was seen in "Suite of Dances for Theater," by Tschalkowsky. Good solo work was done by Peggy Lawler in "Dance of the Candy Fairy," Patti McDaniel, in "Arabian Dance"; and "Dance of the Reed Flutes," by Marion Nicoll.

A two-hour program, the performance seemed shorter and was filled with interest from beginning to end. Most of the audience seemed to agree that "Waltz of the Flowers," a beautiful presentation in the sense of costumes and dancing, was a fitting climax for a well-planned and varied program.

RIBBON RAMBLINGS

By MILDRETT YOUNG

One of the disagreeable elements in trips to the beauty shop for the weekly hairdo is the dried out feeling one has when they leave the dryer to be combed. It's a feeling of having your hair all dressed up and no place to go.

At a local beauty shop, they are experimenting with a little extra service which we think most people will appreciate. Just as the customer is ready for their dryer sentence, the operator removes their makeup and creams their face. The cream remains until the customer is ready for the combing. It is then removed and the face is cooled and refreshed with astringent and new makeup is added.

We don't know how long this service will last, but we think it's a wonderful idea. Reminds us of the days before the war when people used to throw in extra services and think nothing of it.

You wouldn't think that a town which had produced $6,000,000 in gold and silver would ever become a ghost town, but the historic town of Virginia City, 23 miles from Reno, a mining camp in its day, is just that. But plans have been made to rebuild the once important dot on the map. It is to be restored through an elaborate plan being worked out by the Virginia City Foundation Trust. The repair and preservation of the famous landmarks, the historical appearance of the town and all new construction will be made to conform to the turn-of-the-century-type building.

Here it is Friday all over again and if you're like some people I know who haven't done their Mother's Day shopping, it's about time we went down town and did something about it.

Fellowship Day Tea To Be Held Tonight

Big Spring's Council of Church Women will sponsor their annual May Fellowship Day and Welcome Stranger Tea tonight at 8 p. m. in the Episcopal parish house with Episcopal women as the official hostesses. Mrs. Dave Evans will serve as program director for the event which is planned to honor all church women who have moved to Big Spring during the past year.

Lee Milling will be the guest speaker and will take as his topic, "Freedom's Foundation." He will also show a film on family life.

"In His Steps" Is Reviewed For Baptist Groups

Mrs. J. C. Pickle, First Baptist Friendship Class teacher, reviewed Charles M. Sheldon's novel, "In His Steps," for members of the junior and senior adult departments and department friends at a tea held in the church parlor.

Written in 1896, the book is reported to be translated into 21 foreign languages and in 1935 was next to the Bible on the best selling lists. Still high on the list, Mrs. Pickle stated that the story deals with the Rev. Henry Maxwell, who lived in Raymond. This pastor and volunteers of his church agreed to live for one year following the code, "What would Jesus do?" The story is followed until the experiment spreads to all parts of the nation. Mrs. Pickle stated that the purpose of the book is to emphasize standards which Christians might follow.

Mrs. Raymond Covington was at the register. Mrs. Chester Cluck played the musical background for the tea. Mr. H. J. Agee, Friendship class president, served refreshments.

Crystal appointments and the class colors, pink and green, were used in the decorations. Pink carnations formed the floral centerpiece of the table. Other floral arrangements were pink roses.

Those present were: Mrs. Ross Boykin, Mrs. Matt Harrington, Mrs. Cecil D. McDonald, Mrs. John B. Knox, Mrs. G. G. Morehead, Mrs. T. R. Rose, Norma Lou Rose, Mrs. R. E. Jones, Mrs. Kelly Brown, Mrs. R. C. LeFevre, Mrs. Arthur Pickle, Mrs. Paul D. Sledge, Mrs. Loy House, Mrs. Melvin Boatman, Mr. Lila Mae Baird, Mrs. Dwain Leonard, Mrs. Ted Phillips, Mrs. H. G. Hassan, Mrs. Joe Pickle, Mrs. Jack Smith, Mrs. Homer Ward, Mrs. Billy T. Smith, Mrs. Fred Tompkins, Mrs. J. C. Lane and Anna Belle, Mrs. J. E. Hardesty, Mrs. E. E. Reynolds, Mrs. T. J. Clark, Mrs. Della K. Agnell, Mrs. Archie Creighton, Mrs. J. D. Elliott, Mrs. J. C. Pickle, Mrs. M. R. Covington, Mrs. H. J. Agee, Mrs. Clayton McCarty, Mrs. Chester Cluck and Mrs. Harvey Wooten.

Byrnes Warns U. S. Not To Be Misled By Blockade-Lifting

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 6. (AP) — Former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes said last night that the lifting of the Berlin blockade may mislead this nation "into expecting too much" from the coming big four meeting on Germany.

"We may be misled into making too many concessions to Soviet Russia," Byrnes told the South Carolina State Bar Assn. in this city where he was born.

Byrnes advocated "an honest effort to arrive at an agreement with the Soviets" at the four-power foreign ministers meeting Russia has made the condition of lifting the blockade.

"We can not adopt a 'take it or leave it' attitude any more than they can," he added.

At the same time, however, he said the United States should make it clear that this meeting will be the last if "there is a repetition of what occurred in the two previous meetings" of foreign ministers.

He maintained that "we must not let our desire for a treaty cause us to make concessions on fundamental questions."

Byrnes urged prompt ratification of the Atlantic Pact.

"We must hope for a change of policy by the Soviet government," he said, "but while we hope we must see to it that our strength, combined with the strength of other free peoples, is so organized that no nation will think it can violate the right of other nations and secure the fruits of aggression."

Although Russia "has made impossible the attainment of our ideal of one world," he continued, "that does not mean we cannot live in peace with the Soviets."

"You can have satisfactory business relationships with a man even though you do not find him congenial as a golfing or fishing companion."

Byrnes expressed belief it will be to Soviet interest "to keep the peace for many years."

"Even if I am mistaken," he added, "I feel sure they will keep the peace as long as the United States remains strong militarily as well as economically."

Man With Hangover Sought As Abductor Of Three Army Wives

COLUMBUS, Ga., May 6. (AP) — A tall, dark man with a hangover was sought today as the abductor of three young expectant mothers, wives of Fort Benning soldiers.

The three wives returned from Florida by bus yesterday and reported to the Army's criminal investigation department that a drunken man held them captive in his automobile for 12 hours at pistol point.

They had been missing for nearly 17 hours since they stepped out of the pre-natal clinic at the Fort Benning Hospital. An alarm had been spread and Army authorities started a wide-spread search, announcing they feared "foul play."

RELATE STORY

Upon their return, worn and distraught, they related that a dark-complexioned man more than six feet tall enticed them into a "dark coupe" with a promise to drive them home.

They soon found, said an Army statement, that the man was drinking heavily. He flourished an automatic pistol, they said, and forced them to remain in the car for 12 hours—until he stopped near midnight at a filling station near the Georgia-Florida state line.

There, the account continued, he became embroiled in an argument with the station keeper over the price of gasoline. The three young women ran first to a rest room then slipped out and started down the road in the darkness.

A couple picked them up in an auto and drove them to Milton, Fla. Too anxious to get back home to think about telephoning that they were safe, they caught the next bus to Columbus.

The CID called in the FBI to aid in the investigation. The investigators said they were seeking a man answering the women's description and showing positive after-effects of heavy drinking.

The abductor was said to have worn a khaki suit with a Third Division Army patch but no hat or any other identifying insignia. The third division is stationed at Fort Benning.

MEET SET WEDNESDAY Council Of Europe Starts In Summer

LONDON, May 6. (AP) — The council of Europe, forerunner of a hoped-for "parliament of United Europe," will get under way this summer.

A permanent commission will meet in Paris Wednesday to arrange for the council's first meeting. This will be held in the French city of Strasbourg, which has been chosen as the council's headquarters, probably in August.

Ten countries yesterday signed a statute setting up the council. The members are Britain, France, Italy, Ireland, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg. Greece and Turkey are expected to be admitted later.

The council has issued a 3,500-word statute setting forth its organizational plans. It includes:

1. A committee of the 10 foreign ministers to make policy recommendations to member governments.
2. A consultative assembly of 87 delegates, representing member states, who can make recommendations to the committee of 10.
3. A secretariat for running the day-to-day work of the council.

The statute also set forth voting rules which gives every member

Indians Vacate League Cellar

By The Associated Press

Oklahoma City struck out for a higher climate in the Texas League standings last night, vacating the Texas League cellar for the first time this season.

The Indians turned over last place to Houston by thumping the Buffs for the second straight night, 10-0.

Other results were in a familiar pattern. Dallas, San Antonio and Shreveport won.

The league-leading Dallas Eagles beat Beaumont again with late explosion, 8-6; San Antonio edged Tulsa, 4-3, and Shreveport squeaked by Fort Worth, 3-2.

Oklahoma City broke loose for two four-run outbursts in the fifth and sixth innings and collected 16 hits.

Beaumont's big, five-run spurt in the third went for nothing when Jerry Witte sparked a 14-hit Dallas attack with a home run and Buck Frierson did the same.

It was home runs by Gerry McCarthy and Charlie Grant that gave San Antonio its victory over Tulsa. Shreveport stretched its lead over fourth place Fort Worth to three full games when two hits, a sacrifice and a walk gave the Sports the winning run in the eighth.

Scrutiny Of Farm Plan Is Due In Consumer-Producer Interest

One of the bears which Congress has by the tail and must shortly resume its dilemma as to let go, hold on or to what extent to modify or increase either course, is the farm plan.

Secretary of Agriculture Brannan has come up with his proposal, which is not radically different from the Alken bill which congress put through in the closing days of the last session.

It differs in that it extends the list of commodities from eight to 10; pegs a 100 per cent parity instead of the 60 to 90 per cent parity of the Alken plan. It sets a unit limit of production (i.e. acreage control) while the Alken act did not. It will be noted the big difference is in the parity percentage and the number of commodities. The Brannan plan would call for sale of commodities on the open market with the government stepping in to make "production payments" (i.e. subsidies) in the amount of the difference of the market and 100 per cent parity.

There are various other angles, including contingencies for compliance, soil conservation, etc. with shades of differences between the two plans, but the principal difference stands as the most significant one.

Through March of this fiscal year the government has something like $3 billion tied up in the farm program one way or another. Some of this, such as is represented in loans on cotton, grain, etc. and commodities which may be held, may be sold subsequently with or without loss, depending upon the market. Potatoes, etc. represent direct and unrecouped subsidies. Farmers are by no means the only ones under indirect subsidy, and some support of agriculture is certain. But plans should be scrutinized closely as to the most palatable compromise between stabilizing agricultural economy and giving the consumer and the taxpayer a break.

Impotent Selective Service Might Cripple Basic Policy

Economy in government is much to be desired, and one of the best means for substantial saving while moving for increased efficiency is in governmental reorganization. For various reasons, most of them connected vaguely with patronage and pet services, this has hubbed opposition in Congress.

As an alternative, a few corners are proposed for cuts at random. One is that to whack three-fourth off the Selective Service appropriation.

This is a dangerous piece of illogic.

The cause, no doubt, is that the current rate of enlistments has so far made actual calls under Selective Service unnecessary. This is a happy state of affairs. But to emasculate Selective Service because there is little momentary need of it would be to undermine the broad concepts of our foreign policy.

Whatever the Marshall Plan, the Berlin airlift and the North Atlantic pact have accomplished toward mitigating the threat of war is tied inexorably with a demonstration that the United States means business. At the same time, it would be the height of inconsistency to provide $16 billion dollars for defense without machinery geared for instant action to provide the necessary manpower.

While there is cause for more optimism for peace now than at anytime in the past year, it is not yet wise to drop our guard. Nullify Selective Service and enlistments, might drop sharply. The folly of a false economy would then be apparent, but perhaps too late.

Kid's Lobby Needed To Break Up National Cartel Of Parenthood

NEW YORK (AP)—SINCE THIS IS NATIONAL Boys and Girls Week, it's a good time to do something for the boys and girls.

But what to do?

Well, one thing we could do is ask Congress to pass a bill of rights for childhood.

A good children's lobby might be able to break up the worst cartel in the world—the cartel of parenthood. As it is now, adults tell children how to behave, but children have no way in which to compel hard-headed adults to live in a responsible manner.

CONGRESS COULD END THIS NONSENSE by setting up a national system of parents' courts—with children sitting as judges.

At present Junior has no recourse from the stupidity of his parents. But if he could call the cops, and have them into court to be tried by a child's stern sense of justice—oh, boy!

"Listen, Pop," says Junior, "I want to tell the judge here whom you was boozing with the night you said you was going to the baseball game. And quit smoking, Mom. You tell the judge about that freckle faced salesman you're so palsywally with."

"You see, Judge, I got problems with both my parents. They're all mixed up. You gotta help me straighten 'em out."

CONGRESS MIGHT END SOME schools for parents, too. It wouldn't hurt many parents to go to school one day a week, sit side by side with their own children—and learn about the world together.

Too many children are torn between two worlds—the world of ideals and fair play and opportunism at home.

at school, the world of tension, bitterness and despair of today?

Come, little children. Take the lead. And the world will follow.

Don't Mistake Russian Change Of Tactics For Change Of Mind

WASHINGTON (AP)—WHEN YOU change your tactics, it doesn't mean you've changed your mind about what you want. Maybe you've just changed your way of trying to get it.

Just keep that in the top of your head in the months, and maybe years, ahead as new dealings begin between Russia on one side and this country and the other western Democracies on the other.

With the lifting of the Berlin blockade, it's clear the Russians have lost a battle in the cold war—but not necessarily the war. The Berlin blockade was just part of a big engagement.

So hold your breath and your hats, keep your fingers crossed, don't build your hopes high, and wait and see what happens.

The Communists made it plain long ago that their goal is to take over the world. Nothing has happened to indicate they've changed their mind. If they shift their tactics, it doesn't mean their goal has changed.

THEY'VE TAKEN OVER EASTERN Europe and, remembering what their goal is, you don't have to be a mind reader to know they'd like to grab all Germany and western Europe.

And the weaker all Germany and western Europe remain, the better Russia's chances. But two things happened:

1. The United States and its western allies, unable to agree with Russia on a single government for all Germany, decided to set up a separate one in their zones of Germany, leaving it to the Russians to do as they pleased about another German government in their zone.
2. This country started the Marshall Plan to get western Europe back on its feet and thus keep it from becoming a push-over for Communism.

The Russians a year ago threw a blockade around Berlin. If that blockade had worked, the western powers would have been discredited among the German people. But—

1. This country and its allies began the airlift which astonished Europe and the Germans. It worked. It made the Russian blockade meaningless.
2. The Marshall Plan began to work and western Europe grew stronger.

THAT WAS ALL BAD MEDICINE FOR the Russians. But to cap the climax, this country and western Europe then agreed on the Atlantic Pact, binding them all together with hoops of steel in the real sense, for the pact would mean an armed western Europe, facing Russia. That would be a real discouragement.

So now the secretaries of state of the U. S., Britain, France, and Russia will start talking again about Berlin and Germany and other things.

The blockade probably will be lifted around May 12 and the talks resumed about May 25.

If Russia can get the West to drop a separate government for Germany and drop the Atlantic Pact, it will be a victory for Russia without doing anything more than talking.

This isn't likely to happen, since American diplomats talk of going ahead with their plans. What else could Russia want?

Who knows? But any advantage Russia can get out of its dealing with the West in the future will be 100 per cent more than it was getting so long as the blockade lasted.

New International Student House At Alabama College Built By Home Folks

JACKSONVILLE, ALA. — The average Washington newspaperman gets his eyes so riveted on what's going on in the capital that he sometimes forgets what's going on in the rest of the nation. I know I do. That's why, every so often, I try to take a vacation from skulduggery-rooting and see what the rest of the USA is doing.

Down here in Northeast Alabama where the hard rock of the Alleghenies tapers off into the soft limestone of the Black Belt, I found a surprising monument to people-to-people friendship.

This is about the last place in the world you would expect to find such a thing. And if it hadn't been for Harry Ayers, publisher of the Anniston, Ala., Star, who is as much a crusader for the public as he is a publisher, I wouldn't have found it.

In New York and Philadelphia and New Orleans you're not surprised at finding international student houses. But not at relatively obscure Jacksonville State Teachers College in the foothills of Alabama. However, thanks to the tireless devotion of one man, Prof. James H. Jones, Jacksonville last week dedicated an international house just as fine in its way as anything in the great cities of the North.

Prof. Jones is what you might call a true servant of brotherhood. He not only raised the money to build International House, but passed the hat to bring a group of students all the way from France, and send another group from Alabama over to France. The cash for this student exchange was raised not in Wall Street or Washington, but right here in Jacksonville and Anniston and Piedmont and the other neighboring communities.

When it came to building International House, all the home folks contributed. A Jacksonville plumber donated the bathroom fixtures. Someone else gave a refrigerator. A local lumber dealer helped with lumber. Others contributed labor or cash or something else, with the result that a beautiful, though modestly appointed international student center now stands on the Jacksonville campus.

Following the dedication of International House, the irrepressible Champ Pickens woke me up at 5 a. m. by long-distance telephone in order to make sure I got to my next stop, Montgomery, in time for breakfast. And on that 120-mile drive I had a chance to do a little thinking about the way thousands of communities have responded to people-to-people friendship. Without any prompting from their government, the American people have put across friendship trains, democracy letters to Italy, exchange of students, adopted European cities, welcomed the gratitude train and put across scores of other things.

In brief the American people are anxious and itching to do anything and everything to win the peace. They are tired of writing to congressmen. They do not altogether trust ambassadors. They know that if war comes they, not the diplomats, have to do the fighting. So now they are willing to do the working for peace.

So thanks to this people-to-people friendship we have vastly strengthened our ties with France, Italy, Norway, Denmark—in fact,

all of Europe this side of the Iron Curtain.

IRON CURTAIN REMAINS

But the problem of penetrating Eastern Europe and Russia still remains. No matter what is done about the Berlin blockade, no matter what is agreed on at the United Nations, the danger of war continues as long as 14 men in the Kremlin can declare war overnight—with no senate, no press, no church, no radio, no public opinion to put the brake on them.

Obviously these 14 men in the politburo aren't going to lift the Iron Curtain and let Americans into their country—at least for the time being. But there's another way of yanking the Iron Curtain partly open, and at least putting them on the spot. That is to invite 1,000 Russian students to come to this country.

At first blush a lot of people will hold up their hands in horror and claim that we might be horrified by Communism. If we take that point of view, however, we have something of an Iron Curtain ourselves. Furthermore, our system is plenty strong to withstand contact with a few Russians, and the smartest thing the National Association of Manufacturers ever did was to invite Russian Composer Shostakovich to tour the USA.

Almost every Russian who has visited this country goes back flabbergasted at our wealth, our freedom and our culture. Many become so enraptured that they never want to go back at all.

When Andre Brand of the French Gratitude Train visited the Firestone Rubber plant at Akron, O., and saw the tiled swimming pool for workers, he remarked: "If Stalin could see this he would understand why he can never communize the United States."

Of course the comrades in the politburo, being smart, probably would never let 1,000 students or any other of their citizens come to this country. But the point is to invite them anyway.

If a committee of down-to-earth Americans—not the State Department or the Henry Wallaces—invited 1,000 Russians to visit this country it would cause consternation and near-chaos behind the brick walls of the Kremlin. The politburo wouldn't know what to do about it.

In the first place the Voice of America would broadcast the invitation direct to the Russian people, and the mere fact that the Soviet government said "no" would cause thousands of Russians to question their government and wonder why their own leaders were against the people-to-people friendship which the Moscow radio pretended to champion.

The invitation should come from a mixed group of real Americans—farmers, veterans, chambers of commerce, labor unions, the NAM—a true cross-section of the country. It could be made so representative and so genuine that the Kremlin would have an awfully hard time turning it down—though in the end it probably would get noised about, not only in Russia but throughout the world and would create adverse propaganda everywhere.

George Raft Will Join Film Colony In Europe

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—George Raft expects to join the ever-growing Hollywood colony in Europe for the rest of this year.

The film tough guy leaves for France next month after finishing "The Bail, Bond Story." He is seeking a house on the Riviera. He says he's tired.

"I've done four straight pictures in which I appear in every scene," he claims. "No wonder they say I'm a lousy actor; I can't fool anybody, being on the screen so much."

Roberto Rossellini is making a movie, as well as headlines in Stamboul. Rushes of his Ingrid Bergman film arrive daily at the RKO Studios here. The only trouble is that the scenes are marked in Italian. So the film cutters have the studio barber come in to translate.

You may recall my story of last year in which Mariene Dietrich named Rossellini as one of the 10 most fascinating men in the world. Mariene was unwittingly in predictions of things to come.

Evelyn Keyes will hop a slow boat to Italy as soon as she finishes "Mrs. Mike," and she does not care what her studio thinks about it. Her relations with Columbia have often been stormy and reached a climax with her

Wanted: Book On Gentle Art Of Saying 'No' In Diplomatic Way

Maybe Dale Carnegie, or someone else of similar or equal authority, should get busy and produce a new book. If such a person should feel inclined to do so, I have a subject which might prove of interest.

The title could be "How to Say 'No' Politely" or "Putting the Nix On Requests with Diplomacy." I've come to the conclusion that this field is one of the many which have scarcely been touched by research and education, and it's high time someone with proper qualifications did something about it. The benefits, provided cooperation of the general public was properly enlisted, would be universal, and the author would be virtually assured of a commendation from persons who voluntarily work in fund campaigns for welfare and civic projects.

It has been brought to my attention that persons exist who can turn down any type of proposal or solicitation with an abundance of grace, charm of whatever you want to call it. Alway, they can say "no" in a manner which does not dampen the spirit of the person submitting a request, and in some cases they can even make him feel much better for having made a request despite refusal.

Unfortunately, these people represent a pitifully small minority. There are far too many who precede refusal with a gruff discourse, indicating that a mere request is a grave injustice. Others comply with requests grudgingly, leaving the impression that they would refuse, except for "pressure."

But let me hasten to explain without further delay, that the suggested book would not take up the problem of door-to-door salesmen. That topic would require a volume of its own, the subject matter of which might not necessarily deal with diplomacy throughout.

The interest here lies exclusively with those requests which some people find it necessary to submit to their fellow townsmen from time to time.

The argument against such a book would be that readers might practice their diplomatic refusals without discretion, thereby bringing the downfall of worthwhile civic ventures without reason. It seems possible, however, that such a problem could be circumvented by devoting a few chapters of the book to that factor. A good reason would be listed as an essential part of the diplomatic refusal.

Anyway, I believe the matter is worthy of investigation by proper authority. — WACIL McNAIR

Dulles Gives Foreign Relations Group Something To Think About

JOHN FOSTER DULLES TOLD THE Senate Foreign Relations Committee yesterday that "war is highly probable" if the United States doesn't ratify the North Atlantic treaty.

That's a blunt statement to come from the American delegate to the United Nations.

If Russia should be able to establish Communism across western Europe to the English channel another world war would be inevitable.

America and Britain then would stand alone among the great powers against the Bolshevik drive.

THE COROLLARY TO THIS hypothetical situation is that, if it is to be avoided, the Communist offensive must be held on the line which it now occupies through central Europe. The only thing which will hold it there is a strong and united western Europe.

That unity and strength can be provided only through some such alliance as the Atlantic Pact.

Dulles told the committee it is dealing with a totally different world situation now than it was a year ago. Then the pact was only being discussed but now it has been formally signed. To repudiate it now, he said, would indicate a change in America's viewpoint and this would make other countries change their plans.

"Out of that," Dulles added, "would come a war."

WHILE THIS TESTIMONY WAS BEING given, Russia and the three western powers got together in New York and agreed to lift the Berlin blockade and counter blockade measures. They further agreed to resume meetings of the big four foreign ministers' council.

In making this concession the Moscowites presumably are motivated by two considerations:

- (1) They have come up against a defense which they can't penetrate and are being hurt;
- (2) They must shift to other tactics if the Red offensive in Europe isn't to die where it is.

Taking it all in all, it strikes me that while we must expect the war of 1951 to continue, yet the new Big Four agreement is encouraging.

Legendary Anecdotes Are Told Of Cool Receptions To Shows

NEW YORK—The quick failures of pretentious shows on Broadway always receive a wealth of legendary anecdotes about the unfavorable receptions to other highly touted plays and pictures.

For instance, the sudden closing of Mervyn Nelson's recent Broadway play,

English Teachers Gussed Wrong

LONDON (AP)—The old school report cards of many distinguished Englishmen reveal some shocking things.

The school masters of generation ago regarded Field Marshal Lord Montgomery "rather backward for his age," and he was said to be weak in what an artilleryman needs—mathematics. G. K. Chesterton, who became mighty in the world of letters, couldn't write very well, said the school master shortly before the turn of the century.

Old report cards are posted for the public to read at an exhibition called "The English at School."

Both Montgomery and Chesterton attended St. Paul's school and the report cards displayed cover their senior years, when they were 18 years old.

"The Ivy Green," revived one such story. "The Ivy Green" was a long, thoroughly documented and colorfully produced story of the private lives and loves of the novelist, Charles Dickens. But it played for only a few performances.

One Columbia University instructor, who reputedly is an expert on Dickens, said it reminded her of a time when a Hollywood film factory went to great length, trouble and expense to produce a movie based on Dickens' life.

As a preview was shown, an angry voice in the rear of the theater muttered: "This is awful. This is doubly awful and horrible." A film executive sitting down front turned and shouted: "Who said that?" "Charles Dickens," shrieked a voice as a shadow flitted through the exit door.

Probably the most famous critical exit line was the remark of the late Robert Benchley when he was viewing the Broadway premiere of "The Squall," a play which obviously was not making a try for the Pulitzer Prize.

The exit line for the second act curtain was when a native girl named Nool said: "Me good girl. Me stay." Benchley, whose lowest whisper was akin to a high trombone note, reached for his hat and muttered in a voice heard all over the theater: "Me bad boy. Me go."

Despite Benchley's disapproval and that of most every other critic in town, "The Squall" proved to be a hit and had quite a lengthy run. Why? Well, some Broadway managers would say that it shows that critic's re views have no effect on plays. A much more logical reason is that "The Squall" was quite a sexy show and when it opened—about 1925—Broadway was just emerging from its reluctance into a wave of plays hinting at the facts of life.

'American' Cotton Irks Red Scientist

MOSCOW (AP)—The Tashkent paper "Eastern Pravda" has registered a protest against calling Soviet types of cotton "American" or "Egyptian" varieties.

"Eastern Pravda" is reporting a speech before Uzbek scientists stated that the head of the Agriculture Section of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Uzbekistan, Comrade Kudrin, had said that it is unjust that new varieties of cotton bred by Soviet scientists should be called American or Egyptian when they are in fact actually Soviet.

Stalin Is Favorite Soviet Art Subject

MOSCOW (AP)—Generalissimo Stalin was a favorite subject for many of the winners of the Stalin prizes in art this year.

"Among the new works awarded Stalin prizes," wrote P. Syrov discussing the question in Culture and Life, "we see a whole series of canvases and drawings embodying the great image of the leader of the Soviet people."

"In the image of Comrade Stalin the Soviet people see the embodiment of its best traits, its ideals, victories and achievements."

Revival Services At Baptist Church Here Will Honor Mothers On Sunday

Continuing through May 15, revival services at the East Fourth Baptist church will honor mothers at both worship sermons Sunday. Dr. C. Gordon Bayless of Dallas is the visiting evangelist and will speak on "The Man In Chains" during the morning hour and on "Your Greatest Question," in the evening.

Arthur Nelson, a lyri-tenor and accomplished vibraphonist, will present special musical presentations at both services and will lead the congregational singing during the remainder of the revival. Mrs. H. M. Jarrett will provide the piano accompaniment.

Sunday school will meet at 9:45 a. m. and Training Union at 7 p. m. During the week, morning services will be held at 10 a. m. with the exception of Saturday and evening prayer services will be held at 7:30 p. m. with the sermon following at 8 p. m. The Rev. James S. Parks is host pastor.

"A Mother's Wages," will be discussed by the Rev. Lloyd Thompson at 11 a. m. in the First Christian church Sunday. During the evening service (8 p. m.) he will be heard on the subject of "Fortresses of the Soul." Sunday school is at 9:45 a. m. and CYF under the direction of Mrs. Wacil McNair will convene at 7 p. m.

Dr. P. D. O'Brien, pastor, who has returned from a revival meeting at Cleburne, will speak at both services Sunday. At the morning hour the subject will be "Behold Thy Mother," based on John 19:27. There will be appropriate Mother's Day music. In the evening his topic is "A Great Gospel for Great Sinners," taken from I Timothy 1:15.

A special Mother's Day program will be presented prior to the morning worship sermon at the Northside Baptist church Sunday morning. The pastor, the Rev. L. B. Moss will bring the sermon-message at both services of the day. Sunday school will meet at 9:45 a. m. and Training Union at 7 p. m.

At the St. Paul's Lutheran church the Rev. Ad. H. Hoyer will be heard on the sermon-topic, "Honor Thy Mother." Sunday school and Bible class will convene at 10 a. m. and the Concordia Ladies Aid will meet at the church at 2:30 p. m.

"An Ideal Mother," will be the subject for the morning sermon at the State St. Baptist church, with the Rev. Everett M. Ward, pastor, presiding in the pulpit. Biblical references for the sermon may be found in Proverbs 31:10-31. Members of the Junior choir will be heard prior to the evening worship session, which begins at 8 p. m.

The WMA will meet at the church at 3 p. m. Monday afternoon and the regular Wednesday evening prayer service will be held at 8 p. m. under the direction of Charles Robinson.

My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother," from Proverbs 1:8 will serve as the sermon text at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning. The Rev. R. Gage Lloyd will speak on "The Law of Thy Mother." Special music, "A Mother's Prayer," by Wilson will be presented by Mrs. Noble Ken-nemur, Mt. A. D. Brown, Joe Fowler Brooks and Phil Smith. The morning choir will be composed of the Booster group. The Rev. Gage Lloyd will speak on "Christianity Speaks Itself Out," during the evening worship hour.

Revival Services were concluded Wednesday at the Park Methodist church, with 17 professions of faith, eight transfer certificates and seven dedications of infants. The Rev. E. C. Armstrong of Pampa conducted the services.

Sunday school will meet at 9:45 a. m. Sunday morning and Youth League will convene at 6 p. m. under the direction of Mrs. Gould Winn. Both Sunday services will be presented by the Rev. I. A. Smith, pastor of the local church.

Sewell Jones, minister of the Church of Christ, will be heard in a special Mother's Day service at 9 and 11 a. m. Sunday. Jones will speak on the subject of "Mother of Mine," which will be based on outstanding women of the Bible.

During the evening service, Jones will present "Thou Foolish Man." Scriptural reference will be found in I Cor. 15:36 and reads, "Thou, Fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened except it die."

Sunday school will convene at 10 a. m. and Young People's Bible class will meet at the regular Sunday evening hour.

Morning services at the Wesley Methodist church will be under the direction of Dr. O. P. Clark, superintendent of the Sweetwater district. At 2:30 p. m., Dr. Clark will preside at the final quarterly conference of the year, at which time departmental reports will be made. During the evening worship hour, the Rev. Aubrey White will deliver a special Mother's Day program.

Dr. Luther C. Peak, pastor of the Central Baptist church in Dallas, will conduct the concluding sessions of a week-long revival at the Trinity Baptist church Sunday. Dr. Peak has traveled extensively throughout Europe and the Holy Land and is considered an authority on Bible prophecy and world affairs.

Based on the text from Genesis 18:19, the Rev. John E. Kolar will speak on the sermon-topic, "Family Religion," at 10:50 a. m. Sunday at the Main Street Church of God, corner Tenth and Main. The Rev. Kolar will also bring the evening message. Sunday school will convene at 9:45 a. m. and Youth Fellowship under the direction of Georgia Stroppe will meet at 6:45 p. m.

"As in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive." (I Cor. 15:22) will serve as the Golden Text for the lesson-sermon, "Adam and The Fallen Man," which will be read in the Christian Scientist reading room, 217 1/2 Main, Sunday morning.

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage." (Gal. 5:1).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook: "It is only by acknowledging the supremacy of Spirit, which annuls the claims of matter, that mortals can lay off mortality and find the indissoluble spiritual link which established man forever in the divine likeness, inseparable from his Creator."

Sunday mass at St. Thomas Catholic church, 508 North Main, will be at 7 and 9 a. m. At the Sacred Heart Catholic church mass will be read at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m. First communion of children will be held at the St. Thomas Catholic church.

Last Dance Is Set
All members are urged to attend the last dance of the season sponsored by the Chaparral Dance Club in the American Legion home, Monday, May 9 from 8 to 11 p. m. Hoyle Nix and his band will furnish the music. Announcement is made by Harry King.

Holding Tomorrow in her Arms

Many mothers and fathers overlook the long-range meaning of parenthood. This beautiful mother, cuddling her little boy, may not realize it, but she is holding an armful of tomorrow.

This child of her heart belongs to another generation—the one that is to follow. It is her high privilege to rear him and train him for that future life.

If she thinks merely of the happiness the little fellow has brought into her life and home, she has missed the point entirely. Her main thought should be of what he may mean to his own generation and the world, and of his own future happiness.

It is a sobering thought that the next generation is being molded like clay in the hands of the present generation of parents.

Religion is an essential element in the training of a child. Teach him to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly before God, and he is not likely to stray into dangerous paths.

The Church can give valuable aid to parents in fulfilling this duty.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

NEW FIRM TO BE PACKARD AGENCY

Rowe Motor Co. Will Hold Open House Here Saturday

Open house between the hours of 10 a. m. and 9 p. m. Saturday will mark the formal opening of Big Spring's newest automobile dealer's establishment, the Rowe Motor Co. located at 1011 Gregg St.

The spacious new building which was completed at that address only a few days ago will serve as Packard automobile headquarters for the Big Spring area. H. M. Rowe, veteran automobile repair expert who took over the Packard agency a few months ago, heads the firm which bears his name. The Saturday observance will be a two-fold project, since the Rowe Motor company's formal opening comes up simultaneously with Packard's celebration of its 50th anniversary. Rowe's new building provides modern facilities for all departments of an up-to-date automobile agency. Principal materials used in construction were brick, tile, concrete and steel. Fronting on Gregg street, the display room which embraces offices for the concern, has the north and west sides enclosed with glass. Adjoining the display room is the parts department, while space has been provided for a complete service station on the southwest corner. Entrance to the service and repair department, which is among the largest and most modern in West Texas, is located on the south side of the building adjacent to West 11th street. The exit is on the north side, with a concrete driveway leading out to Gregg street. Parkways extending the length and width of the building have been paved with concrete, and 11th street has been paved the depth of Rowe Motor company's property from the Gregg street intersection.

Congratulations ROWE MOTOR CO.

UN Group Says Recovery Plan Is Damaging Economy Of Europe

GENEVA, Switzerland, May 6. (U.P.)—A United Nations Commission contended today the European recovery program is hurting Europe's economy more than it helps. The assertion marked a survey report of the UN Economic Commission for Europe. Nations from both sides of the Iron Curtain constitute the commission, created in 1947 by the UN Economic and Social Council to coordinate emergency organizations working to rehabilitate Europe. In 100,000 words the commission said European nations, striving for an economic comeback, are tripping over their own isolationism, and that the ERP is aggravating the situation. The Marshall Plan, through ERP, pours in money with the avowed intention of helping to integrate European economy; European nations themselves adopt plans to integrate it, but the ob-servable trends are away from integration, the commission reported. For lack of such integration, it continued, national economy is disintegrating all over the continent. Prospects for the future are unfavorable, despite a remarkable improvement in industrial production in 1948, it added. The commission said a long term program of American capital investment, much like the way Britain financed economic development overseas in the 19th century, is the only solution it can see. Increased trade between the Iron Curtain countries of eastern Europe and western European areas also would be helpful, it said. Eastern European countries, the report said, because of American restrictions on imports to them are the only ones in Europe having a favorable trade balance with the United States.

Best Wishes on Your Formal Opening Saturday

HOME TWO DAYS

Cayuses Entertain Cats Here Saturday Nite

Locked in a four-way scrap for first place, the Big Spring Broncos return home Saturday night for another two-day stand that will see them in action against the torrid Ballinger Cats.

The Hoses will meet the Felines here in an 8:15 o'clock battle Saturday night, then return to action against Charley English's gang in a 3:30 p. m. contest on Sunday.

On Monday night, the Broncos are booked to appear in Odessa to resume activity against the Oilers. They stay in Odessa Tuesday for a second imbroglio, then return here Wednesday to launch a two-game set with Sweetwater.

Chances are, Freddy Rodriguez or Gil Guerra will get the pitching assignment here Saturday against Ballinger. Of course, that depends upon how fast Lefty Gumbo Helba comes around and how soon he is ready to pitch.

The Cayuses terminate their three game stand in Sweetwater tonight.

SWEETWATER, May 6.—Lefty Julio Ramos registered his third mound victory, led the year and Big Spring slipped back into a tie for first place in Longhorn league standings as the Broncos flattened the Sweetwater Swatigs, 11-5, here Thursday night.

The Swatters touched Ramos for 13 assorted blows, including five by Manager Diet Gyselman, the same number Big Spring managed off three Sweetwater flingers.

However, smoother fielding and clutch hitting on the part of the visitors proved the difference.

Bert Hernandez paced the Bronco attack with three singles. The Hoses picked up five tallies in the eighth that all but settled the outcome. They led from the first inning on, however, at which time they lanked two markers.

Ray Vasquez banged out a triple for the guests.

Looking 'Em Over by Tommy Hart

Clarence Brown and Eddie Hammond are about the best ball-and-strike arbiters we've seen in Longhorn league action this season. Brown is a bit reluctant to call an outside pitch (and therein lies a story) but otherwise knows the plate isn't round. Hammond worked only exhibition games here but he seemed to have found himself before the season officially got underway and should compare favorably with any umpire in the circuit.

Back to Brown, Freddy Rodriguez of Our Town discovered Alex Monchak's weakness early and that by throwing outside to the Odessa manager. Trompoloco tossed a couple to the far side to Monchak but Brown didn't think they had caught the outer boundaries of the dish. Behind on the mound, Roddy then had to bring the ball in there and Monchak deposited it beyond the palings.

ODESSA WRITER THINKS HIGHLY OF FRANK MORMINO. Dick Snider, the Odessa sports scribe who saw the Monday night game here, seems to think the Big Springers will be tough all season long because they have few weaknesses, defensively. Catching, he adds, is fair "but far from being on a par with the Oilers' backstopping line of Frank Mormino and Tom Kinney."

Of his latter assertion, we think the opposite is true. Al Valdes of the village nine looks like a smarter and certainly is a more alert catcher than Mormino.

Mormino looked to disadvantage here Tuesday night when he let two third strikes get through him and roll to the screen.

According to San Angelo sources, the Concho City Colts have put Chuck Chapetta on the trading block, which means that Jake McClain, the ex-Big Spring, has probably won a regular position with Sam Harshaney's club. Both are class-men along with Manager Sam Harshaney and the team can carry but two.

EX-LONGHORN PLAYERS DOT RIO GRANDE LOOP ROSTERS. Several Longhorn and WT-NM league graduates are now doing business in the Rio Grande Valley league.

Frank McAlexander, who was with Midland for a while in 1947 and later was a Lubbock hand, has joined the Corpus Christi team.

Joe Lucio, who pitched here in an exhibition game for Lamesa two seasons ago, is being carried on the Donna roster.

Ed Vasquez, the Cuban who reported here as a third sacker but didn't get into a game, is now holding down that position for Del Rio.

Bill Gann, pilot of the Sweetwater club a year ago, holds the same position at Corpus Christi. One of his help is Ben Pardue, the Odessa ex.

Florencio Quesada, the one-time third sacker for Vernon, is now with Del Rio as is Dave (Porkchop) Guedes, who tried out here as a pitcher.

One of the Brownville hands, by the way is a second generation Japanese. He is Brooks Iwakiri, a second sacker who was with the Miami, Oklahoma, club in the KOM league last season.

BIG SPRING NOT TO ENTER TEAM IN GOLF MEET. The District 3AA golf tournament will be staged at Abilene a week from tomorrow. Only Lamesa, Midland, Odessa and the host city will probably be represented.

Big Spring high school boasts no links squad this year, all of the 1948 hands having graduated.

ACC Track Team In Final Drills

ABILENE, May 6.—With successful visits to the Kansas and Drake Relays behind it, Coach Oliver Jackson's Abilene Christian College track team this week is pointing for its final appearance, at the Texas Conference track and field meet in Brownwood, May 12 and 13.

Host to the conference meet will be Howard Payne College, which won the 1948 conference title by one and one-half points over ACC.

In spite of two hard licks of bad luck, ACC placed no worse than third in the three final races run at Lawrence and Des Moines.

At the Kansas meet Leroy Middleton, H. D. Terry, John Sikes and Leon Leppard won the two-mile in 7:57. This was nearly nine seconds over the all time Kansas college division record set by ACC in 1940 but 14 seconds faster than the Christians' 1948 winning time.

At Drake, the two-mile quartet finished second. Winning time was 7:53.9.

The Wildcat mile relay team of Johnny Mason, Arnold Fairley Terry and Leppard, finished third at Kansas, in 3:21. East Texas State won that event.

Leppard, the freshman from Big Spring, ate up a 20 yard lead of the Kansas State of Emporia anchor man to finish ahead by inches in the two-mile at Kansas. His time for the quarter-mile was 1:52.8.

At Drake the Christians led its qualifying heats for the sprint medley and mile relays. They were disqualified for the sprint medley for stepping out of the lane. As finals were started Johnny Mason suffered a locked knee, that knocked the team out of the mile relay final.

Jacobs Retires As Boxing Chief

NEW YORK, May 6.—Mike Jacobs is out and Joe Louis, the man he made champion, is the new heir to the boxing promoter throne.

Uncle Mike's retirement yesterday, after 12 years as boxing boss, clears the way for a new combination, including Louis' International Boxing Club of Chicago, to dominate the sport on a nationwide basis.

Radio cash is said to be involved in the deal by which Jacobs sold his 20th Century Sporting Club's promotional rights to a new, unnamed corporation.

It is understood that the National Broadcasting System, moving to combat Columbia's part-ownership of the rival tournament of champions, soon will announce a tie-up with the new corporation. A $750,000 television contract is reported involved.

Corpus, Sandies Are Favorites In High Meet

AUSTIN, May 6. (U)—An army of athletes moved into preliminaries today in the annual Texas Interscholastic League three-division track and field meet.

A projected duel between Corpus Christi and Amarillo for the Class AA championship was the major interest. These two teams could run a dead heat in the point-making although Corpus Christi was granted a slight edge because of apparent superiority in the relays.

Sprint battles between Kerrville's Billy Ed Daniels and Corpus Christi's Bobby Dean were considered the feature events. These two split honors in the regional meet, Dean winning the 100-yard dash in 10.0 but Daniels taking the 220 in 21.7.

Falunrias was a heavy favorite to win the Class A championship on the basis of two top relay teams and some leading individuals.

White Oak and Refugio were expected to wage a battle to the last gun in Class A with White Oak the light favorite because of its great Sonny Mitchell, sprinter and hurdler. Both teams have crack relay teams.

Two defending champions return. They are Charles Thomas of Splendora, who won the Class B 220-yard dash last year, and Melvin Barfield of Athens, who tied for first in the pole vault in Class A. Barfield, incidentally, is expected to break his own co-record of 11 feet in the Class A division. He has gone over that mark this season.

Finals in all divisions of the meet will be held tomorrow afternoon starting at 2 p. m. Preliminaries today will cut the field from 500 to about 275 athletes.

KBST To Carry Track Finals

Beginning at 3:30 p. m. Saturday, the Conferences AA, A and B State High School Track & Field Meet in Austin, will be broadcast over 24 Texas Radio Stations.

A description of the final races of four events, in three Conferences will be given Texas sports fans by Ves Box, Charlie Jordan and Fred Kincaid.

The races represent the climax for more than 900 boys from the three Conferences from every section of the State of Texas.

In addition to the athletic contests winners of the literary and academic events will be announced. These winners represent the champions of more than 1,700 High School boys and girls who will have assembled in Austin to vie for championships.

The broadcast beginning at 3:30 p. m. and lasting until 5:00 p. m., may be heard over KBST, Big Spring 1490 Kc.

Hospital Adds To Loop Lead

Only Nathan's Jewelers now have a chance to overtake the Malone-Hogan team in Women's Bowling league standings and the Nathan gang is two games off the pace. The race ends next week.

Nathan's chances suffered a blow last night when the Jewelers were knocked over, 2-1, by Bendix Automatic Laundry. At the same time, Malone-Hogan undged Douglass Coffe shop, 2-1, while Clark Motor company turned back Zack's of Margo's, 2-1.

Mary Ruth Robertson of Malone Hogan led all scorers with 193-528 while Clark grabbed team honors with 621-1738.

Standings: TEAM W L Pct. Malone-Hogan 30 18 625. Nathan's 28 20 583. Bendix 25 23 521. Zack's 21 27 438. Clark 19 29 396. Douglass 19 29 396.

It's Olympia Against Field In Saturday's Derby Run

Arcaro Seeks Fifth Victory

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 6. (U)—They've got 13 horses and Olympia primed and ready for Col. Matt Winn's 75th Kentucky Derby tomorrow. And somewhere in the list there has to be a colt with enough speed to go out and run with Fred Hooper's favorite or it just won't be a horse race.

Olympia has been grabbing the big ones this year by the simple formula of blasting out of the gate like a Florida hurricane and whistling around the track ahead of the pack all the way.

Now, there is no guarantee that Jockey Eddie Arcaro is going to run that sort of a race this time. Furthermore, it just could come up muddy on Derby Day, and must up the well-made plans of the Hooper board of strategy.

Arcaro will be seeking his fifth Derby victory in history, by the way. Nevertheless, Derby charts for the last 12 years show that five of the winners got there with the same from running fashion characteristic of Olympia.

Olympia doesn't have to go to the front, and he might not do it. Trainer Ivan Parke said. I've left it all up to Eddie how he wants to run his race. It just depends on how the race develops and what the jockey thinks is best at the time.

Parke remained confident of the outcome, and most everyone agreed with him that Olympia will drag down the best part of the $100,000 unless he breaks a leg. Ben Jones, the Calumet trainer who will try again with Ponder reiterated his opinion that Olympia is the best horse in the race. "I wouldn't take 100 to 1 on my horse," said Ben.

The horse to keep out in front with Olympia could be Johns Joy trained by Monte Parke, younger brother of Ivan. Monte wants a fast track, and he has a speed horse that could provide a real brother act in this diamond jubilee Derby classic.

There was a lot of support for Palestinian, the Isidor Bieber horse which almost beat Olympia in the Wood Memorial mud two weeks ago. Palestinian had an impressive workout yesterday, clipping six furlongs in 1:12.45.

Olympia undoubtedly will be the odds-on choice, and it was the general opinion that the Greentree pair of Capot and Wine List would rule second in the mutual department. Stolid-faced John Gaver, the Greentree trainer, won't concede a thing to Olympia. He says Ted Atkinson who will ride Capot, and Doug Dodson aboard Wine List will be out there shooting the works.

The rest of the field shapes up as expected, with one startling new comer—a virtually unknown colt named Senecas Coin. He is owned by Mrs. Albert Roth of Louisville, who admits she thinks Olympia will win, but wants to see her colors in the Derby. Senecas Coin ran once as a two-year-old and once at three, both times out of the money.

Others in the lineup are Old Rockport, Halt, Duplicator, Mode Cadet, Jacks Town, and Lextown. On Derby Day the forecast is for "fair and mild." Post time for the big race is 4:30 o'clock this afternoon (CST).

Martinez Nine On Road Sunday

The Big Spring Latin-American Tigers hit the road again Sunday, moving to Grandfalls for an afternoon joust with that city's strong independent nine.

In two games with Grandfalls last season, the Bengals managed to break even. Isa Mendoza is Manager Tacho, Martinez's nomination to pitch the game for Big Spring.

MEETS CURTIS

PAT O'DOWDY GETS BIG CHANCE TONITE

The local wrestling pride, Pat O'Dowdy, will try to show local patrons the stuff that has made him such an attraction on the road when tonight he steps into the BSAC ring against popular George Curtis of Tennessee.

O'Dowdy has appeared here a couple of times in the past but has never really had a chance to display his wares. He was a member of an Australian Tag match team on one occasion and, on the other, made a brief—and regrettable—appearance in a rattle royal.

In Curtis, O'Dowdy gets one of the more talented and certainly one of the most popular th-ears to work in here in a long, long while. George is no Robert Taylor but he's got a clean cut look the patrons go for. He boasts an infectious grin too.

Jackie Pappenheim of Oregon and Arturo Ruiz, the claimant of the Mexican junior heavyweight crown, tangle in the chief supporting card. Ruiz was slow in getting started here but has come along well and should be ready for Pappenheim who cleaned up on George Dusette last week.

Pappenheim is "old reliable" as far as the local club is concerned, not especially spectacular but always competent. Two local amateurs, Bobby Johnson and Kenneth Walker, will have at it in an abbreviated struggle that will open the show at 8:30 o'clock. Walker is the boy O'Dowdy has picked to go a long way in the grapple game.

Muny Softball Asked Changed

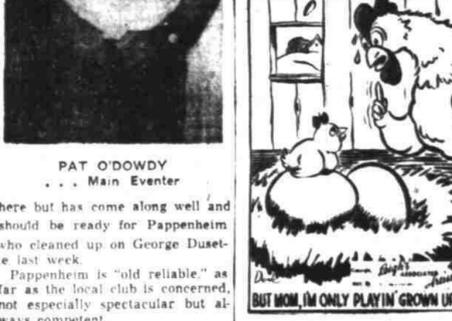

A change in the Muny softball league schedule tonight will send the T & P Shops into action against the Blue Caps in the 9 o'clock engagement. Originally, Tresco was to have met the Blue Caps.

At 7:30 p. m., the Big Spring Merchants and the Red Caps have at it. Both games will take place on the city park diamond.

FACT, FIGURES ON DERBY RUN

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 6. (U) Here are the facts and figures on the Kentucky Derby here today: Post time: 4:30 p. m., Central Standard Time. Weather forecast: fair and mild. Purse: $100,000 added money; net value to winner, if 14 starters. Starters: estimated at 14. Favorite: Olympia, owned by F. W. Hooper, trained by Van Parke and ridden by Eddie Arcaro. Crowd: more than 100,000 expected. Broadcast: CBS, 4:15 P. M., Central Standard Time.

FORMALLY PRESENTED TO PUBLIC - Here is a view of the new home of the Rowe Motor company, 1011 Gregg street, which will be presented to the public in an "open house" event Saturday from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. Along with the showing of this modern automotive home the Rowe concern will present the new golden anniversary Packard. The public is invited to call at the new establishment. (Jack M. Haynes Photo).

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY CAR - Here is a sketch of the 135-hp Packard Eight Club Sedan, one of five new models being presented by Packard in its 50th year, as Golden Anniversary models. A new Packard is to be displayed Saturday at the new home of the local dealer, Rowe Motor company, 1011 Gregg. The new Packard features an "ultramatic drive", called the latest development in automatic, no-shift control.

New Officers Elected At Model Meeting

Ruth Webb was named president of the local chapter, Epilon Sigma Alpha, at a model meeting held for rushers in the Settles Hotel Thursday evening. Other new officers who will be installed at a formal banquet to be held next Wednesday in the Maverick Room of the Douglas Hotel, are: vice president, Jamie Bilbo; recording secretary, Wanda Richardson; corresponding secretary, Bo Bowen; treasurer, Minnie Earl Johnston; and program director, Stella Mae Wheat. Six pledges will receive jewel pins and new rushers will receive pledge pins at the banquet.

In discussing flower arrangement Stella Mae Wheat stated that the art began in Japan. She emphasized the idea that arrangements should correspond with the room decorations and that the size of the container plays an important part. Location and selection theme are also important, she said. She suggested that white flowers are always a good background and

Additional Strawn Production Tapped In Scurry County

Additional Strawn production has been tapped in Scurry county. J. L. Collins, et al No. 2 G. E. Parks, a mile and a half east of the North Snyder pool and three and a half miles northwest of the Placid Oil No. 1 J. B. Early, recently completed after acidizing for 291 barrels of 39 gravity oil daily, topped the strain at 7,312 feet, reportedly 150 hig to the No. 1 Early. Results were incomplete, but the venture reportedly flowed from 25 to 50 barrels of oil in a hour from 7,308-22. Oil was to surface in 24 minutes. Location is 1,980 feet from the north and 330 feet from the west lines of section 44-27, H&TC.

Magnolia No. 1-A Gartner, northeast Magnolia exploration being tested in the Mississippi near Vincent, covered 10 barrels of oil plus 4.32 barrels of water in 24 hours of swabbing. The last hour returned only .6 of one per cent water, offering hope previous recovery included acid water. The zone from 8,190-8,215 feet was treated with 4,000 gallons of acid.

Twisters Accompany Cool Front In Texas

Two tornadoes swooped over the Texas Panhandle last night as a cold front invaded Texas. One damaged a farm house near Dalhart. There were no reports of injuries. The other twister put on a show for the folks of Adrian, a tiny town in Oldham county, west of Amarillo. It plowed through wheat fields at dusk, but did little damage. The slow-moving cold-front moved southeastward down through the Panhandle this morning. It was backed by genuine cold weather—but it won't pack any real temperature punch for Texas.

Local Scouters To Participate In Camping Program

Scouters from the Big Spring district made preliminary plans Thursday evening for maximum participation by their units in the Buffalo Trails summer camping program. Less than half had made reservations for any of the 12 weekly periods starting May 29 at the Boy Scout ranch in the Davis mountains, but as a result of the meeting under the direction of W. R. Puckett, district camping and activities chairman, all agreed to close dates within a fortnight.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Church Elders Fail In Trying To Trap Jesus

Scripture—Mark 11:27-12:44. By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

In our modern world of clashing ideologies we can readily understand the religious and social turmoil in Jesus' day. The established church was striving to maintain the status quo; this is, keeping things as they were.

church authority, able to answer all questions, might lose their comfortable livings if too many questions were raised and changes were to take place in consequence. The people were under the domination of Rome and they yearned for freedom—another source of restlessness and dissatisfaction. They were hoping for the promised Messiah who would lead them not only out of their subjection to the Romans, but give them new spiritual life.

Negro Actor In Guilty Plea On Morals Charge

TOPEKA, Kas., May 6. (AP) — Actor Rex Ingram, charged with transporting a 15-year-old girl from Kansas to New York for immoral purposes, pleaded guilty yesterday in federal court.

The 54-year-old Negro actor was accused in an indictment of transporting Jeannette Anna Hughes, a white school girl, from her Salina, Kas., home to New York City last September.

Ingram also pleaded guilty to a charge of sending a lewd letter through the mails to Miss Hughes. He will be sentenced during the October term of federal court in Kansas City, Kas.

Ingram is best known for his portrayal of "De Lawd" in "The Green Pastures."

Work On W. German Constitution Goes On After Slowdown

BONN, Germany, May 6. (AP) — Work on a constitution for an independent West German republic pushed forward today after quashing of a Bavarian independence move.

Target date for formation of the new republic, sponsored by the United States, Great Britain and France, is July 15. The Bavarian cabinet said yesterday it would "reject any removal of Bavaria from the German community." But it added that Bavaria would not give its final approval to the Bonn constitution until it had seen the completed document.

The Bavarian position will be discussed at a special session of the state's legislature May 11.

No Tests Made In Texas City Disaster

HOUSTON, May 6. (AP) — Testimony has been introduced at the $200 million Texas City disaster suit in an effort to show that no tests were made by the ordinance department on army-manufactured ammonium nitrate after the department had information that it was dangerous.

Official reports of the Texas City explosions also were presented yesterday in an effort to show the absence of adequate warning to those handling the fertilizer and to the residents of Texas City.

More than 500 persons were killed or missing after the disaster.

Junior Entry Top Winner At Gladewater

GLADEWATER, May 6. (AP) — A junior entry, Katherine Morrison was the top winner in the open class of the sixth annual Gladewater dairy show here.

Miss Morrison's two-year-old Jersey cow yesterday took the senior and grand championships in the female section in both junior and senior open divisions. She also won the best-fitted animal and showmanship awards.

Burl Elliott of ARP won the championship and grand championship of both the junior and open divisions with his bull.
