FARM-CITY WEEK TO BEGIN NOV. 18

National Farm-City Week begins Friday, November 18. There are hundreds of nationally proclaimed weeks, ranging from the sublime to the ridiculous. Certainly we can live without many of them.

However, one of the really worth-while ones come along recently, especially for our agricultural-conscious area, is National Farm-City Week. This is simply seven days which have been set aside to promote goodwill and understanding between the nation's agricultural and city-dwelling economies.

Here in our area we probably have a closer understanding of mutual problems than in many places. Certainly the farmer, the rancher and the dairyman of our area are close business and personal friends of most of us in the city.

However, Farm-City Week gives those of us in the city a special opportunity to welcome the farmers and ranchers into our offices, our places of business and our homes; to make a special effort to understand the economic strains under which he has labored for the past 20 years; and, yes, to give the farmer and the rancher a little closer insight to our own problems; our goals and our hopes for the future.

Progress and advancement are possible only where there is more complete understanding. National Farm-City Week gives us the opportunity to gain a little more knowledge and understanding. Let us all make some use of it.

Several hundred area beauty operators and salon owners attended the meeting which was held in the Commercial Exhibits Building in Amarillo.

Baptists Get First Glimpse Of Building

Last Sunday climaxed one of the biggest strides in the history of the First Baptist Church of Wheeler. Church goes get their first glimpse of the new educational building and what a glimpse it was. Everything was beautiful.

The overall size of the new building is 70' by 90' with approximately 6300 sq. ft. of floor space. The total cost of the project was approximately $54,000.00. The general contract was for $43,000.00. The heating and 2 1/2 ton refrigerated air conditioning cost about $7,800.00 and the furniture cost approximately $3,000.

The building contains 10 classrooms, a large fellowship hall, which when equipped with folding doors will house 5 classrooms, a large, ultra modern kitchen and 2 rest rooms.

As soon as possible repairs will begin on the old educational building and upon its completion approximately $75,000.00 will be invested in the two buildings.

Everyone in Wheeler should make it a point to visit the new building. It is definitely a credit to our town and people.

FIREMEN AT WORK: Local Volunteer Firemen are shown as they extinguish a fire behind the Hibler Implement Company last week. Wonder what Wheeler would mean without their Fire Department. These men are all do without their Fire Department. These men are all volunteers and deserve our support and praise.

Electric Company Files Suit Against City Of Wheeler

A suit for $1500.00 has been filed against the Jordan Electric Company and the city of Wheeler for the non payment of electrical contract work.

The suit is the result of the recent work on the water and sewer expansion program in Wheeler. The suit has been filed by the Sims Electric Company of Pampa. The Pampa firm was a sub contractor under the H. B. Jordan Company.

Mayor Daughtry explained to the Times that the city has definitely paid for the electrical work and has receipts to verify the payment. However, the payment was made to the H. B. Jordan Company, which was the contracting firm.

"Wheeler will probably be dropped from the suit, since we were included as a matter of formality," Daughtry said.

IT'S A GIRL

CLAUDE MIF'S MUSTANGS IN FINAL GAME

Approximately 400 fans turned out at Nicholson Field last Friday night to witness the final football game of the 1960 season. The majority of these fans will testify that all the fans that did not attend he game missed the best one of the year as the Claude Mustangs finally overcame a fighting Wheeler Mustang team to the tune of 20-16.

Overcoming a 10 point deficit at halftime, the visitors took the lead in the final quarter and then held on with the final gun catching Wheeler less than a yard away from victory. Thrills and high spirited play abounded throughout the contest and tempers flared several times as the hard hitting contest progressed.

Claude took the opening kickoff facing a stiff south breeze as Wheeler took the wind advantage to begin the contest. Claude was unable to muster a thrust on their first two possessions, but Wheeler cashed in the second time they had the pie skin. Taking over on downs at the midfield stripe, Wheeler needed only three plays to score first points of the night. The Mustangs were penalized back to their 45 and two running plays netted a yard to the 46. Facing third and 16, G. C. Baker broke over his right tackle and outran the Claude secondary for a 54 yard touchdown run. Jim Jolly went over his left side for the two pointer and with 5:17 remaining, Wheeler took the lead 8-0. Not to be outdone in the long run category, Harry Wood, Claude quarterback, took the ensuing kickoff and headed for the east sideline. Breaking out of the pocket of Wheeler defenders about midfield, Wood raced down the sideline for 81 yards and a touchdown. Wood attempted to pass for the extra point but it fell incomplete and Wheeler's lead was cut to 8-6. Tumble fell on the kickoff on the 37 and the Mustangs were away once more. Wheeler was penalized 15 on the first play and found themselves back to the 26. Baker made 11 and Jolly 17 and the Mustangs had a first down on the Claude 46 yard line. Trimble and Baker made nine on the next two carries and then Trimble added 13 down to the Claude 24 and another first down. Jolly picked up 5 and David Trimble circled left end from 19 yards out and Wheeler had their second TD of the game. Baker ran right end for the extra point and although hit about the line of scrimmage, managed to keep driving and fell over the goal line. 1:09 remained and Claude was unable to gain following the kickoff and Wheeler took the Claude punt on their own 45 as the first period ended. Wheeler seemed intent to add to their margin as they drove to the Claude 15 where a first down was set up. The Mustangs moved to the 7 in three plays but instead of facing 4th and 2, the Mustangs found themselves back on the 12 following a 5 yard penalty for too much time in the huddle. Bradshaw made a couple to the 10 but Claude took over on downs at that point. Wood took matters in his own hands and either running or passing, handled the ball on nine of the 12 plays Claude needed to get to the Wheeler 29 yard line. There the defense stiffened and the Mustangs took over on downs. On the first play, Baker broke into the clear once more and ran 42 yards to the Claude 29 where he was overtaken, Jolly picked up 7 to the 22 but the Wheeler offense sputtered and only 2 yards were gained the next three carries and Claude took over on their 20. Claude had time for three plays and the half ended with them on their own 36 and the scoreboard reading Wheeler ahead 16-6.

The drawing for the shotgun, sponsored by the Wheeler Quarterback Club was held at halftime and Mr. Harold Hill of Wheeler (Continued on Page 8, No. 8)

Santa Fe Railroad Gives Property To Allison School

The Panhandle and Santa Fe Railroad long known for its generosity and interest in civic pride, has again shown this interest by donating to the Allison ISD approximately 1.38 acres of land, which contains a section house, bunk houses, and other properties. This property will be used by the school for teacherages and probably a reserve water supply.

Mr. T. V. Goolsby, District Superintendent presented school officials with a deed to this property in person, coming to Allison to make the presentation.

Again the Santa Fe is to be commended for this type of active interest in the welfare of the cities which it serves.

Let's back both the teams all the way this season.

The teams would like to ask the local fans to show better sportsmanship this year. Please, no "booming" or shouting at the referees. Let's make this a better season in both sportsmanship and attendance.

You can select any of five lines - talk on one while holding calls on others - "buzz" your secretary - or use the phone as an office intercom. Lights in the buttons tell you which lines are busy, which are free.

Our "phone with the built-in switchboard" is another example of how General Telephone works to make the telephone a more convenient and valuable instrument of communications for everyone. Call or visit our Business Office and learn how little it costs to have the "switchboard" service of a push-button phone.

Pore ole Fido Casteroil is really havin a time with his folk down in the Sugar country, seems they are now hunting a new premier to idolize, seems like he in favor of havin too much of the confidated booty for himself. He took over all the holdings we got down there and now is tryin to take over the church's holdins in the same manner, guess he forgot them Catholics don't take to kindly to havin things taken away from them. Matter of fact I don't recon any of our religious groups like to have things just snatched away in an unfriendly manner. Guess he forgot that the Churches aint an idle bunch of ticket holders like some organizations he might have come in contact with. If he'd ever been a Stuart or a Deacon he would have found how hard it wuzz to get them holdins and known better than to try and take the property away from them.

How Do You Pick Your Sitter?

You hire someone to come into your house and stay with your children while you take a well-deserved evening out. She plays with your children, gives them their supper, puts them to bed, carries them the glasses of water they demand before settling down. For a few hours she's as close to your children as you normally are.

Of course, you know her. She's that elderly woman from down the block, or from the agency, or the teen-age daughter of your best friend. You know that she's reliable, that the children like her.

But are they safe with her? Are you sure that she doesn't have an infectious disease that might be passed on to your children? Are you as cautious about your baby sitter's health as about her character?

If the baby sitter arrived coughing and sneezing you'd send her home, sorry as you might be to miss your fun. But, tuberculosis has no warning symptoms in its early stages. Unless you know that your baby sitter has been examined and found free of tuberculosis and other communicable disease, you can't be sure that your children will be safe with her.

Many older women, when asked about their health, will say proudly, "I haven't been to a doctor in years." It's nothing to boast about. Tuberculosis has no respect for age and gray hair. In fact, it is becoming increasingly a disease of older age.

You owe it to your children to inquire into the health of your baby sitter. And if she's offended? Well, they're your children, aren't they?

The Four-Way Test

1. Is it the Truth?
2. Is it Fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build Goodwill and Better Friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

Despite the hundreds of advertised aids to beauty, loveliness, slenderness, and sparkle, it seems strange that 4 out of 5 women look no better than their grandmothers did at their age sixty years ago.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship of the Kelton Methodist Church was host to the sub-district Methodist Youth Fellowship meeting at their church Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

Miss Kitty Hiller, president from Wheeler, was in charge of the meeting.

Mrs. Tom Bryant and children went to Guyman, Okla., this week to visit her sister and husband. Mr. Bryant went to Guyman Saturday to visit and bring his family home.

Saturday night Dolores and Chester Beasley spent the night with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Pepper in Shamrock.

Good Builders Concentrate On Year-Around Comfort

Home builders throughout the country today are giving all-weather comfort a more important role in their plans for better houses.

This is evidenced in a recent announcement by the Air Conditioning and Refrigeration Institute that the number of homes with central air conditioning has doubled in the last three years. By the end of 1960, says the Institute, more than 1,000,000 of the nation's 60,000,000 homes will have complete air conditioning. In 1957, only about 500,000 houses had central cooling.

A leading factor in this increase is insulation. Research has proved that sufficient mineral wool in the walls, ceilings, and floors of a house make it possible to install smaller, less expensive cooling equipment that operates efficiently at lower cost.

Conscientious builders follow the All-Weather Comfort Standard for insulation when they build an air-conditioned house. Batts or blankets of mineral wool that conform to this standard are now available from building material dealers. For ceilings, batts or blankets labeled "R-19" are recommended. Insulation for walls is labeled "R-11," and for floors, "R-13."

White or pastel roofing also has made a significant contribution to more efficient, economical air conditioning. A roof of white or light pastel asphalt shingles reflects the sun's heat, helping to reduce the amount of heat the air conditioning system must remove.

A roof of asphalt shingles in white or one of many pastel colors available provides this heat reflection without harsh gleam or glare. They have a rich textured look designed for beauty as well as durability.

Kenny Abernethy hurt himself in the basketball game Tuesday. His wrist is doing much better. We hope you get well soon, Ken. So you can play ball again.

Saturday afternoon guests in the T. A. Treadwell home were Mrs. Wayne Trendwell, Rebecca and Carolyn of Mobeetie.

Shirley Swab, the sister of Mrs. Chester Beasley, visited with her in her home this week.

Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Lister and children and Rev. and Mrs. Joe P. Weldon and children went to Canadian.

The High Places

Does the goal you're seeking seem as remote—as unattainable—as this snow-frosted mountain top? Does it seem, sometimes, as if you'll never get there? Are you on the verge of giving up?

Don't! Though your objective may seem light-years beyond your reach, if it's the right thing for you, God will help you to attain it, if you'll let Him. The teachings of His Church will help you find the patience and endurance you need to accept setbacks... and still keep trying.

Don't try to climb to the top all by yourself. It's a lonely ascent. Let the Church help you, as it helped those who were here before you... and as it will help those who come after you

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... I CALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

SUPERINTENDENT

Wheeler Schools
Arling Cordeli, Supt.

The Senior Class of Wheeler High School will bring to life a scene of the memorable scenes from Lloyd Douglas's outstanding novel, "Magnificent Obsession" Friday, November 18, at 7:30 in the local gym. This play, a serious study of the life and work of Dr. Hudson and his boundless influence on those with whom he came in contact, will present some outstanding acting talent.

Dorothy Hall, star of Summer Playhouse productions, "Arsenic and Old Lace" and "Tattletale" will portray Helen Hudson, wife of the great brain surgeon, played by Joe Leter. Carol's Sims, also of "Arsenic and Old Lace", will be seen as Joyce, the beautiful temperamental daughter of Dr. Hudson. Bob Riley, one of the three angels in "Down to Earth" will share the male lead with Wayne Hill. Barbara Barton, who will be remembered for her role in Mobeetie's "Road Into the Sun" will play Nancy Ashford, assistant to Dr. Hudson.

Jerry Burgess and Frances Alexander as Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Trovce Hunter as Dr. Pyle, Eileen Moore as Mrs. Wickes, Kathleen Garrison as Martha and Marshall Watson as Perry, complete the cast.

Kitty Hubler, Bobbie Adams, Eileen Linder and Nancy Moore will entertain between acts.

The play is under the direction of Carroll Killingsworth and Geo. Gandy, the class sponsors.

Thanksgiving holidays are Nov. 24-25 and our Christmas Holidays are to be December 21-January 2 inclusive.

We are especially proud of the way our public is helping us to protect our gym floor by walking on the sidelines, and by remaining seated during our programs and ball games. When our Senior play is presented by the senior class and Mr. Killingsworth on Friday night, a floor covering will be over a portion of the floor where the chairs are placed. Please walk on the sidelines and on the covering to your seat. You may sit in the bleachers if you wish.

Our "Open House" was attended by a large group of parents and friends. We enjoyed the fellowship and address by Mr. Arnie Anderson, Supt. of State Schools who spoke on "Should I Plan to send my child to College", arranged by our P.T.A.

Mobeetie School's
Lloyd S. Patterson, Supt.

Mobeetie Seniors enjoyed a fine party at the Capitol in Pampa last Thursday evening and supper afterwards at Pople's Cafe. A good time was had by all.

Included in the group were Sue Hooker, Gene Harrison, James Lester, Ada Allen, Ann Gattlin, Keith McLaughlin, Carolyn Trout, Jimmy Simpson and the sponsors, Mrs. W. C. Harrison and Mr. L. S. Patterson.

The Harvest Festival of last Friday night, November 11 can best be described as a huge success. A large crowd attended the carnival events that the various classes had arranged for the occasion.

Classes vied with each other in the queen contest. The contest was won by the eighth grade and Miss Judy Rowell was crowned Queen of the Festival and Joe Fred Mixon was the King.

After the coronation exercises directed by Mrs. Marie Wright, English teacher and Mrs. Jolene Corcoran, Homemaking instructor, most everyone played Bingo.

Grand prizes in Bingo went to Mrs. Harper Short and to Ray Corcoran.

The Food Boothe sponsored by the P.T.A. provided good food and netted a financial success. The money from the P.T.A. booth is to be used to buy meat, preferably beef to further enrich the lunch program. The number of patrons at the lunch room has slowly but steadily increased. More and more students should avail themselves of the warm, nourishing meal provided by the lunchroom at a low price.

We in Mobeetie would take this opportunity to express our thanks to everyone that helped to make our Festival a success. Especially we are grateful to the merchants of all the surrounding towns for the generous amount of merchandise used for prizes at the Bingo game.

It is hoped that daily attendance will be maintained and we urge that pupils and parents cooperate in this matter, now that the epidemic of rumps seems to be over. Quite a bit of the chances from high school classes is causing falling grades on the part of a number of students besides what it does for our report to the state.

The Junior Play entitled "Constable Jerry from Fulton's Ferry" Nov. 18 at 7:30.

We have been requested to announce that the bi-district football game between M.A.M. and G.A.I. will be at Miami.

Also on Friday night, Nov. 18 at 7:30.

TB Has Been Cornered! Can Be Conquered!

Everyone hails the progress that has been made against Tuberculosis, one of mankind's most stubborn foes. Since the first Christmas Seal was sold there has been a dramatic decline in the number of deaths caused by TB. Seven million American lives were saved.

TB is down but not OUT

Although progress has been made, we dare not assume that TB is licked. There was only 3% decline in the number of new cases reported in 1959 from the year before. One new case is found every 5 minutes. As yet, there is no miracle drug which can permanently cure a case of TB and there is no satisfactory vaccine to prevent TB. Tuberculosis is still a major health problem.

can do something about it. If you can, you'll gain the respect of your hunting companions as well as all other men and women in the field and on the stream.

First, bird we want to call attention to is the heavy footed fencehawk. He rides the fences for all they are worth. He spreads the barbed wire enclosures so wide you could drive a truck through them.

Crawling through one of the opening he makes in a barbed wire fence is a snap. In fact, he is heavy footed and so strong armed, he pops the staples clear out of the posts.

Then he is wont to say, "They just don't make them staples like they used to!"

Another fine feathered friend is the Snipeflicker.

He's the bird who tosses away cigarette stubs and cigar butts with reckless abandon.

This adobe did snipeflicker has best Uncle Sam (that's you and me, Bub) millions of dollars in fire damage to timber and wildlife.

He's just not careless in our book. He's one bird that doesn't give a hoot. If his grandchildren have no place to hunt, it makes no difference to him. What the heck does he care about the future? He won't be here anyway.

This bird's even worse than the Migratory Litterbird. That creature has the same attitude, true enough. Also the same lack of respect for the property of others.

And the same lack of appreciation of what has been made available to him by the farmer, or the park board, or the game and fish commission. He's a litterbird wherever he goes.

Often wonder what his home looks like inside... don't you? Betcha there are banana peels everywhere, apple cores all over the house and empty beer cans scattered about every room.

Goodness knows what the messy place really looks like. Sure it wouldn't be a very tidy spot... judging by the way this bird litters up the outdoors.

There are plenty of other creatures of the woods and waves. For example... the Red-eyed Swallowtail... better known as Boozeybird.

No need for him to wear heavy hunting clothes. He's fired up internally.

Why be a comfortable 98 degrees, body temperature bird, when you can feather your nest with 100-proof alcohol and feel oh so light-headed.

Actually this bird isn't light-headed, he's empty headed. There are just no brain cells in that ivory-covered skull. Couldn't be, or he wouldn't be out hunting in that condition.

And, anyone who hunts with him better be a Roadrunner and in the finest trim. Otherwise he'll never make it back to camp... alive.

This Boozeybird, incidentally... more often than not... is part Snipeflicker and part Litterbird. They seem to team together in the roughest sort of way.

The Red-eyed Swallowtail also has many traits common to the Large-mouth Grouse... a very loquacious and vociferous animal. Much of his time is allocated to complaints that are reminiscent of even a part of the feathery tribe, the Bellyaching Bullfrog, who's not even a part of the feathery tribe.

While we're at it, let's not overlook the Dimwitted Woodstuck. He is the hot tempered animal who clobbers the park fountain if it fails to work. He does so with the park bench and he doesn't care which collapses first, so long as his temper is not retained.

You've seen this bird I know. I'm talking about the Sneakeyed Woodpecker. He transfers shrubbery from the field to his own front yard.

Not to be overlooked is the Large-pocketed Camprobber. He is known to have carried off the grate from the roadside barbecue pits, to appropriate it for his own use. Neither does he think anything of totting all the extra state park firewood home with him.

Then there's the Redhatted Loon who doesn't know the difference (or care) between a 12-point buck and the farmer's choice Jersey Cow. He's the farmer's devil. But only if the cow is heavily insured.

Too, let's not forget the Rooster-tailed Waterthrasher. He's the speed demon of the waterways. This gink "wakes up" the fishermen with mammoth man-made waves. He boils them up as close to the angler's boat as the law allows... if not closer.

All these birds are fun spotters for everyone else. Evidently all they are out for is a lark.

These birds are not legal game. But more than one hunter thinks they should be. Among those who think so are the farmers whose cows are killed; the landowners whose fences are torn down; and the hunters whose lives are endangered.

Let's not spoil the fun for anyone. As we take to the field for a day of pleasant hunting, let's be more considerate of "the other fellow." Let's give thanks to those who make this great sport possible. And let's do our part to make it an event for all to enjoy and to live to remember.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS FROM YOUR STATE CAPITOL

Shell-shocked and exhausted from one of the hardest-fought general elections in decades, Texas now can get a second wind and turn to new issues and decisions.

Some of the significant decisions ahead grow out of decisions made at the polls earlier this month.

As a result of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson's election to the vice presidency his senate seat will become vacant on or before Jan. 20. It's a highly coveted position, seldom up for grabs, since the winner of a six-year term can be fairly sure of holding it for life.

It is likely that the race for Johnson's post will be the first special election in Texas history to have a run-off. A 1957 law, called the Pool Bill, provided that in special elections for congressional vacancies, there shall be a run-off if no candidate receives a majority of the votes in the first polling. Previously, special elections had been on a high-man-wins basis.

Many possible candidates are mentioned. Among them: John Connally of Fort Worth, Jack Cox of Breckenridge, Martin Dies, Sr. of Lufkin, Congressman Joe Kilgore of McAllen, Wright Morrow of Houston, Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey, John Ben Sheppard of Odessa, John G. Tower, Johnson's Republican opponent in the general election, Atty. Gen. Will Wilson and Congressman Jim Wright of Weatherford.

It is unlikely that any candidate will make a public announcement until Senator Johnson officially resigns and Gov. Price Daniel sets the date for the special election. Under the law, the governor must call the election in no less than 60 days and not later than 90 days from the time the vacancy occurs.

If Congress is in session at the time the vacancy occurs, it would also be the governor's duty to name an interim senator to serve until a successor is elected. Gov. Daniel already has said that Former Senator William Blakely would have first chance at such an appointment.

When the vacancy will occur depends entirely on Senator Johnson. There is speculation that he will not lay aside his senatorial toga until he takes the oath as vice president (Jan. 20). Many feel that his presence and assistance in organizing the Senate prior to that date would help get the incoming Democratic administration off to a good start.

Okayed Amendments Pose Problem—On the purely state level, voters' approval of the four constitutional amendments during the general election pose some new decisions and issues for the state legislators next January. Among them:

1. More Pay—From Where—By constitutional amendment, voters have, for the first time in history, put members of the Texas Legislature on an annual salary.

They will be entitled to $4,800 a year, whether in session or not. They will have to pay $1,000 in expenses for 120 days of a regular session plus $250 for extra sessions. This replaces the old $25-a-day pay plan.

Question is where to get the money. State's general revenue fund is, according to State Treasurer Jesse James' latest report, $60,535,631 in the red. By the time the next session starts, this figure is expected to be higher.

So, legislators will turn their attention quickly to a means of finding money somewhere if they are going to meet their own grocery bills.

Loan Company Regulation—Passage of Amendment Four dumps in the Legislature's lap the tremendous job of passing laws to regulate lending practices in Texas. Some lawmakers gloomily and privately predict that it will result in a worse fight than trying to pass a new tax bill.

Previously, the Constitution limited legal interest rates to 10 per cent. This provision was repealed.

Under the new provision the Legislature has the responsibility to (1) license and regulate lenders, (2) prevent misleading advertising, (3) fix and limit maximum charges and (4) impose effective penalties for violations.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson elected over the passage of the amendment, warned that "the loan shark will pitch their final battle in the Legislature to try to eliminate the penalties and to develop loop holes."

Abner V. McCall, executive vice-president of Baylor University and head of a citizens committee that worked for passage of the amendment, predicted "a real dog fight" in the Legislature over control legislation.

Land Program Picks Up—Since the voters gave it permission, Nov. 8 to pay higher interest on its bonds, the Veterans Land Board is getting ready to do a bigger business.

Maximum interest the board can pay on the bonds it sells was raised from 3 to 3.5 per cent. With this easing of restrictions, the board expects to be able to sell more bonds and have more money available to loan veterans for land purchases.

A new bond sale is planned tentatively for December. Meanwhile the board secretary said mailing of applications to veterans has been stepped up from 100 a week to 225 a week.

Some 40,000 veterans are now waiting for loans, but in actual practice, only about one in five finally finds land and qualifies for a loan.

Board has authority to issue $62,500,000 more in bonds. This amount of money is expected to take care of those waiting to buy who will qualify.

According to the constitutional amendment setting up the programs, no new loans are supposed to be made after Dec. 1, 1965.

School Goals Set—Knowing it will be a tough job in this debt-ridden era, Texas school people are, nevertheless, setting their sights on a $100,000,000 improvement program.

At an Austin meeting of educators, legislators and interested citizens, Governor Daniel promised his support to the effort to pass a bill to raise teachers salaries.

This is one of the main items of the $100,000,000 Hale-Aikin recommendations. This program resulted from a study begun in 1957. It sat on the shelf during the last legislature because of the acute money shortage.

was the holder of the lucky ticket.

Claude had the advantage of the south wind in the third quarter, but it seemed to have no effect on the play of either ball club as both teams fought for the advantage until late in the quarter. Wheeler drove to the Claude 47 where the drive bogged down and M. Hunter got off a nice kick into the wind that went out of bounds on the Claude 15. Using the remaining time in minutes of the last stanza, Claude moved 85 yards in 18 plays for a touchdown. Three times during the drive, Claude faced 4th down situations with yardage to be gained and each time they made it to keep the drive going. Harry Wood passed to his brother, Bill Wood for the final 25 yards to paydirt. Baker broke up the attempted pass for conversion and the Wheeler lead was cut to the game. Wheeler couldn't make a first down after the kickoff and Hunter kicked to the Claude 47. Ten plays were needed for the visitors to score and again Harry Wood was the big gun as he toted the ball on eight of the plays including two incomplete passes. Wood made the final 4 yards to the end zone of his left tackle. The run for the extra point was good and with only 3:35 to go in the game, Claude took the lead for the first time, 20-16. Unless for health reasons, no one remained seated the remainder of the game. Claude attempted an outside kick on the kickoff but it didn't work and Wheeler faced a long 52 yards to paydirt with barely three minutes on the clock. Hunter, on a keeper, picked up a 4 to the Claude 48 and Jolly carried twice to the 44. Fourth down and two faced the Mustangs and Hunter called on Trimble to get it and he did with inches to spare on the Claude 33 as time was rapidly running out. Jolly was brought down on the Claude 10 yard line. Fans were screaming for time to be called but Wheeler had used up their allotted time outs (in fact, the Mustangs had taken 6 timeouts already in the half but were not penalized for the extra one) and had they called time, they would have drawn a 5-yard penalty. G. C. Baker got the call from the 10 and fighting hard to get in the end zone, was brought down about a half yard away which set up first and goal with the clock ticking away the final 5 seconds. Before the Mustangs could get another play off, time ran out and a group of heartbroken Mustangs were saddled with a 20-16 defeat. This was the final game for 8 Mustang seniors and for these boys, defeat was much harder to take. These boys along with the entire team can be justly proud of the battle they put up in his final game. They kept up their spirit and when it seemed like all hope had vanished for victory with the last Claude touchdown, they fought back and were just inches away from that victory they wanted so badly. To the entire team and their coaches should go out thanks and congratulations for the fine effort they displayed last Friday night.

COLLEGE PRESIDENT SAYS TO STAY UPON COLLEGE EDUCATION

B. Alexander, guest speaker at the regular meeting of the PTA Monday night, gave the "yes" to the question, "Should we continue to send our children to college?" He said, "For every dime we spend on education we receive a return for men its need. For women its the best insurance policy we can have. Let's talk to our children while they are young when they go to college."

Alexander is the president of Sayre Junior College, Sayre, Okla. Mrs. Loyde Weatherly presided during the business session. According to the treasurer's statement the net profit from the dinner and Fun night program was $277. Mrs. Brown's fifth grade won the room count.

Open House was held following the meeting and everyone was invited to visit the class rooms. Refreshments were served by the fourth grade room mothers to about 75 adults.

PHILOSOPHER PROVES STUMBLING BLOCK IN FIRST STEP FORWARD

Editor's note: The Sweetwater Philosopher on his Shinnery grass farm on Sweetwater creek seems to be dragging his feet on a new idea, his letter this week indicates.

Dear Editor:
Here it is only a week after the country has elected a new President and some things have already moved forward.

For example, the mail service—not the postal service generally, it's about where it always was and I don't have any complaints, but a particular idea for the mail service.

As I understand it, the post office department in Washington is experimenting with a new type of mail delivery in which you write a letter on a special piece of paper, fold it into an envelope, drop it in a machine. The machine then opens it, looks at it, finds out where it's going, transmits it electronically to its destination, then tears up the original. On the receiving end, another machine reproduces it, seals it, and hands it over to the local post office for delivery.

I have been thinking about this system and I have my doubts. In the first place, if the machines can deliver a letter from New York to the Wheeler Post office, it won't be long before somebody wanting to move even further forward will figure out how to have it delivered electronically to my mail box, and I'm having trouble enough keeping my present mail box propped up without having to maintain an electronic brain machine alongside it.

In the second place, I don't ever remember having received a letter on any day that I'd have been better off or more informed if it had gotten to me two days earlier. Very few people have any thoughts or messages to convey to me that are that important. And I don't know of anybody, congressman, governor, newspaper editor, who would be any better off or any more informed finding out what I think two days earlier than he can find out now. I take the position that if it takes me a week to think up an idea, anybody waiting on it can wait an extra day and not be hurt. In some cases he could never hear and be as well off. And this thing works vice-versa.

It may be important to get a guided missile to its destination in thirty minutes, but very few thoughts are that devastating.

I think this country ought to move forward, even if it has to go around me to do it, but electronic mail service may not be in that category. I'm not interested in this country's spending money to get my monthly bills to me two days earlier than I'm getting them now.

TWITTY

Mr. Glenn King became ill last Sunday and was confined to his home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Nora Hiltbruner is a patient in the Shamrock hospital as a result of two much gas pressure on the pipes in her home. Lawrence was almost over come with the gas in the room, but was dismissed from the hospital next day.

The regulator on the gas pipe leading to the Hiltbruner home was removed for repair, and the pressure built up during the night to such an extent that the thermostat on the refrigerator broke and gas was permitted to escape into the room.

About four o'clock Friday morning Mrs. Hiltbruner got up to see what was making the refrigerator make so much noise and when she went to the kitchen she lit a burner on the cook stove. There was a big flash, but fortunately the fire was blown out. Lawrence rushed to the kitchen just in time to see his wife fall. He had great difficulty in getting her into the open door where she could get some fresh air. The gas was so thick in the kitchen that Lawrence himself was almost overcome with the fumes.

Nora was unconscious and had it not been for the work of her husband she would not have survived.

She is still in bad condition, with her arms paralyzed, as a result of the poisoning. However, she is improving.

Mrs. J. Loyd Rice stepped on a nail Saturday and has been suffering much as a result. The Doctor opened the wound to let it drain, and she is doing better at this writing.

Patrol Investigates 10 Rural Accidents

The Highway Patrol investigated 10 rural accidents in Wheeler County during the month of October, according to Sergeant E. G. Albers, Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These wrecks have accounted for no persons killed, 11 injured, and a property damage of $4,675.

This brings the total for the year in this county to 2 persons killed, 16 injured and a property damage of 26,415.00.

"In 1959, eight thousand and two hundred pedestrians were killed on the streets and roads of America," Sergeant Albers said. That figure represents about twenty-four percent of all traffic fatalities in this country in one year's time. If we could eliminate this one category from our death toll, it would contribute heavily toward a general massive reduction in traffic fatalities.

True, a pedestrian doesn't have much of a chance against two tons of steel. But, if the driver and pedestrian both would use good defensive measures and common sense this type of casualty could be averted.

Fashion Harmony in Dress and Car Top

Something new in high fashion for the American woman who wants a personalized car—a dress created by Pedro Rodriguez, the celebrated Spanish couturier, and his suggestion for a matching top on a '61 Buick convertible. The dress is one of a collection with designs for interchangeable, harmonious snap-on tops by leading couturiers in Paris, Rome, Dublin, London and Madrid and shown in a high-fashion preview in New York. This dress is in exotic polka dots of delicately puckered silk marquisette, each dot ruched in a different color. The convertible top is a magnified version of the dress fabric and was executed by Buick craftsmen in hand-stitched gold thread.

HINTS FOR TURKEY BUYERS

College Station, Nov. 17 — Thanksgiving and Christmas are almost here, and turkey buying fever is beginning to rise. Will your dinner centerpiece be something to be proud of, or will it be a bird that does not quite fill the bill?

F. Z. Beanblossom, extension poultry marketing specialist, offers the following tips to help home-makers buy a bird that they will be proud of on these festive occasions. Factors such as body conformation, size and quality should be considered when shopping for the holiday turkey.

What would you look for in body conformation? Most important are proportions—a broad breast, deep body and medium length. Also, the legs should have bulging thighs and thick drumsticks.

How large a turkey should you buy? The size will be influenced by the number of people you expect to serve and the attitude of your family toward leftovers. Beanblossom says you should allow about 1/2 pound of oven ready turkey for each person to be served.

After you have decided on the size or turkey to buy, you should consider quality. Grade A turkeys will have an even covering of fat over the entire body. In addition to this fat, top quality birds will also be broad breasted and have bulging thighs and large drumsticks. Turkeys with these qualities will have the highest ratio of meat to bone, thus giving edible meat for each dollar spent. Specialists point out. Blemishes such as torn skin and bruises are also factors to consider when determining quality.

Has the turkey been inspected for wholesomeness? Turkeys that have been inspected for wholesomeness under USDA supervision will be so tagged. Birds that have been graded under USDA supervision also carry this information. Do not confuse the two, Beanblossom warns.

In addition to buying tips, Beanblossom passes on these suggestions on cooking. Kathrwn Bell Nyles, home economist for the Poultry and Egg National Board suggests that you allow 15 to 20 minutes cooking time per pound of oven ready turkey weight. She also recommends a temperature of 325 degrees Fahrenheit. The larger the turkey the less time per pound will be needed for cooking.

1961 ALLOTMENTS EXPLAINED

College Station, Nov. 17 — In response to questions raised by some growers about 1961 upland allotments, B. P. Davenport, Jr., chairman, Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, today explained the difference between the 1961 program and the one in effect for the past two cotton crops.

He pointed out that the 1961 national allotment of 18.5 million acres compares with the "regular" 1960 allotment of 16.3 million acres. This 1960 figure was increased to 17.5 million acres under Choice (B) elections. In 1961, there will be only one upland cotton allotment, whereas for the past two crops, growers had a choice between the "regular" farm allotment and the 40 per cent larger (B) allotment. All eligible growers in 1961 may receive the full available price support on their cotton, whereas in 1960 the eligible (B) growers received lower support but a larger acreage allotment.

Because of the provisions of the law, the effect of the increased national allotment on the size of the State, county and farm allotments will vary widely. Some farms may receive no increase in their available allotment acreage for 1961 primarily because of the operation of the minimum allotment provisions of the program in Choice (B) farms and on farms with allotments of 10 acres or less when they receive their notices of 1961 upland allotments.

Davenport reminded farmers that the allotments will remain in effect for 1961-crop cotton whether or not growers approve the marketing quotas in the national referendum to be held December 13. Allotments are used as a means of determining eligibility for the available price support.

A two thirds favorable vote in the referendum would mean quotas for the 1961 cotton crop, marketing quotas penalties on any "excess" cotton, and price support not less than 70 percent of parity. Opposition to the quotas by more than a third of parity to growers who complied with their acreage allotments.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Blackburn this weekend were their children Finis and Joan Wood and baby Ross from California, and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Wheeler from Stinnett, Joan's parents, Sue, Torrey and Tammie Wood from California, and Sue's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Allen from Amarillo.

They had a wonderful time, and Sue's husband, James, will be here Thanksgiving and they are planning a family reunion at that time.

Mrs. Don Earney and Gladys Miller were in Amarillo Thursday.
