Interest In Merchants Drawing At Peak After Only One Week

Interest in the Wheeler Christmas Drawing has climbed to the saturation point in Wheeler after only one week of registration. Shoppers are taking advantage of the many bargains offered in Wheeler and at the same time they are receiving chances on $1,000 to be given away in Wheeler. In addition to the $1,000 to be given away in Wheeler during Christmas Week, several of the local firms are holding individual drawings of their own. The Wheeler Drug has registration blanks for their drawing; and the Wheeler Radio and Refrigeration is giving away several items. Some of the plans for the coming weeks include a visit from Santa on December 17 at 2:30 P.M. Santa will arrive on the Wheeler fire truck as usual. Lots of free candy will be available for the kiddies. Another important feature of the holiday season this year will be the "Home Decoration Contest". The Chamber of Commerce will award 1st, 2nd and 3rd place plaques for the best decorated homes in Wheeler. Many of the business firms have elaborate decoration plans. Mrs. Guthrie and the other merchants, have scheduled five matinees to be shown at 2:00 P.M. Dec. 22nd and 23rd. Christmas hymns will be played through the Methodist Church sound system for one hour each day beginning Dec. 10. The Hymns will begin at 6:00 P.M. each evening Nov. 10 at the Naval Training. And in addition to all of the above mentioned, the merchants of Wheeler are going all-out to offer some really down-to-earth bargains for the holiday shoppers. As you can see, the businessmen of Wheeler, are really trying to make it easy for you to Christmas shop in Wheeler. The following rules will apply to the $1,000.00 Jackpot Christmas drawing:

1. Managers, owners and their families of firms participating in the drawing are not eligible to enter.
2. Employees of participating firms are eligible to register in any firm other than the one in which they are employed.

3. Tickets will be given for service work.
4. No age limit.
5. Drawings will be held at 4:00 P.M. each day.
6. You must be present to win. However, husband and wife can claim each others prize.

Sponsoring firms include: Rogue Theatre, J-Lee Dept. Store, Puckett's, Cicero Smith, H & B Appliance, McElhany Dry Good, Own Service Station, Alberts Truck Stop, Clay Food Store, Ware Chevrolet, Vanpool-Burton, A-B Farm Supply, Whitlock Service Station, N.A.S. Appliance, Daughtry's, Wheeler Lumber Co., City Drug, Ernest Lee Hardware & Furniture, Wheeler County Produce, Alanita Furniture, Wheeler Gas Co., Southwestern Public Service, Chapman's Shamrock Service.

Farmers To Meet In Abilene Dec. 9th

Farmers interested in supporting the "New Frontier for Agriculture" of the Democratic administration are urged to attend the Texas Farmers Union Convention in Abilene, Dec. 9th and 10th. State President Alex Dickie, Jr. reports that county resolutions arriving at the State Office strongly support agriculture policies advocated by President-elect John F. Kennedy.

Dickie pointed out that the Texas Farmers Union endorsed the Democratic Party Platform and did everything we could to insure the election of Kennedy and Johnson. We now invite all farmers and ranchers to join the Texas Farmers Union in its fight for grass root support to help these programs become a reality as soon as possible.

Speakers during the two day convention include the National Farmers Union President, James G. Patton, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White, and Congressman Jim Wright.

The resolutions committee will go into session December 6th at the Windsor Hotel in Abilene to write a program from the county-passed resolutions. The program will then be presented to the voting delegates of the convention.

Farmers who wish to do so are invited to present their thinking to this year's Texas Farmers Union Resolution Committee.

CORRECTION

In the last issue of the Times we accidentally left the A and B Farm Supply signature off of the $1,000.00 Jackpot Drawing Page. Miss Bean is helping sponsor this drawing and the name of her firm should have been on the advertisement.

The editor is very sorry for any inconvenience this may have caused.

COUNCIL MAKES CHANGES

At their regular meeting on Dec. 1, 1960 the City Council took action on two items in an effort to bring policies up to date and clarify some confusion. The Policy regarding Sanitation service for the city was restated so as to make the rules of the city more definite. Beginning January 1, 1961, everyone who has a water connection inside the city and maintains a residence or business will be charged the Sanitation fee each month and Trash Pickup and other Sanitation services will be provided everyone who makes it possible. The Mayor stated that the attitude of the council was that and sanitary, therefore all trash should be picked up regularly and sanitary therefore all trash should be picked up regularly.

The other item acted upon by the council was to eliminate the Summer rate section of the Water Rates in the city. This constitutes a change only for those people who have been on Summer rates in purchasing their water from the city. All people who have been on regular rates will have no change in their water purchase rates at this time. This change will also take effect Jan. 1.

They resided in that community until 1910 when they moved to the Gageby community and in 1943 they came to Wheeler. Here Mr. and Mrs. Mayfield were well and favorable known as "Uncle Pete" and "Aunt Mary" throughout the entire community. Aunt Mary was a housewife, member of the Methodist Church and faithful in attendance as long as her health permitted. On Dec. 2, 1956 her health was impaired by a stroke and in January 1957 she and Uncle Pete were taken to the home of a grand-daughter, Mrs. Cliffo McCauley at Sulphur, Okla., where Aunt Mary remained until her death.

LELA MAN IS KILLED BY CAR

SHAMROCK, Dec. 8 (Special) — Clarence Ellis Hilburn, 58, who lived about four miles east of Shamrock, was killed Sunday afternoon when he stepped into the path of a car on Highway 66 near his home.

Hilburn and his wife had started to walk the mile from their home on the Dale Wells farm to Lela when the accident occurred. The wind was high at the time, and Mrs. Hilburn said the noise of the wind probably kept her husband from hearing her cry as she saw the car approaching. Hilburn was somewhat deaf.

He was knocked about 140 feet when he was hit by a west bound car driven by James Darrell Garner of Wheeler. Officers said Garner was unable to stop in time when he saw the man step into the highway.

The accident occurred at 2:45 P.M., and Hilburn was pronounced dead on arrival at Shamrock General Hospital a short time later.

He was born April 18, 1902, in Dike, Tex., (Hopkins County) and came to Wheeler County from Dumas 10 years ago. He was a veteran of World War II and was a member of the Lela Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Pearl, a daughter, Virginia May, 11, and a son, Bobby Elvis, 3; a brother, J. L. Hilburn of Springdale, Ark., and five sisters, Mrs. Iva Rush, Mrs. Studie Stroud and Mrs. Virgie Cook all of Shamrock, Mrs. Annie Jean Crump of Dallas and Mrs. Roe Stroud of Muleshoe.

Four Fire Departments Called To Allison Gin

The Wheeler, Shamrock, Canadian and Reydan Fire Departments were called Sunday to the Allison Co-op Gin to help put out a fire in the burr pile.

The fire started about 4:00 P.M. Sunday and was still smoldering early Monday morning.

All four of the fire departments worked hard to control the blaze, the gin was not damaged from the fire.

R. J. Holt Jr., chief of the Wheeler Fire Department, reported that the power take-off pump on Wheeler's Rural Fire truck was damaged while fighting the Allison Fire. The truck is now out of commission, but is in the garage being repaired.

It's Time To Take Action

Controlled Automobile Rates And Policy Forms vs. Non-Controlled Automobile Rates And Policy Forms (Flexible Rating)

At the last three Texas Legislative Sessions—1955, 1957, and 1959, The National Association of Independent Insurers of Chicago, Illinois, and two of its largest members, Allstate Insurance Company, Skokie, Ill., and State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, Bloomington, Ill., have sponsored legislation which would derive the insurance buying public of the protection guaranteed by our present Automobile Rating Laws. Even though this legislation hasn't received favorable action by either a House or Senate committee, the spokesmen for this out-of-state group have stated that they will again attempt to pass similar legislation so that individual companies could set their own rates, where they please, when they please, by whatever standard that pleases them at the moment. Likewise, companies would design their own policies. Insureds, with a limited knowledge of insurance, would be placed in a position of having to differentiate between coverages of various policies, and determine whether or not a lower premium would offer a realistic reduction in premium, or simply reflect a reduction in coverage. The State Board of Insurance would have no real voice in either policies or rates. The insurance buying public would have no voice. That is the basic purpose; to take the public out of consideration in deciding what they are charged for automobile insurance.

In the past these out-of-state interests proposed legislation which provided for prior approval by the State Board of Insurance before rates could go into effect. But now they—The National Association of Independent Insurers—publicly state that rate filings should become effective immediately upon filing without prior approval; thereby virtually leaving the matter of rates and policy forms coverages up to the individual companies.

These people from Illinois (where the statewide average automobile premium is approximately $70.00) are trying to change the Texas rate regulatory status which has produced an average statewide automobile premium of approximately $44.00. Not only this, but they are trying to deprive our citizens of the protection of our laws.

DEC. 13 IMPORANT DAY FOR COTTON PRODUCERS

College Station, Dec. 8 — All growers of upland and extra long staple cottons in Texas are reminded by B. P. Davenport, Jr., chairman, Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, that December 13 is referendum day. At stake in the voting is the determination of whether or not marketing quotas will apply to their 1961 crops.

Marketing quotas have been proclaimed for both upland and extra long staple cotton as required by law. However, pointed out Davenport, the quotas do not become operative unless approved by at least two-thirds of the farmers voting in the referendum. Any grower engaged in cotton production in 1960 is eligible to vote, Davenport said.

The state chairman added that all upland growers should receive prior to the referendum, official notices of their 1961 farm acreage allotments. These notices will come from the county ASC offices. Davenport said. The allotments determine the marketing quotas for the individual farm. In a change from the programs in effect for 1959 and 1960, each farm operator will receive only one allotment for 1961. This will represent the farm's share of the national upland acreage allotment for 18 1/2 million acres, Davenport added.

If marketing quotas get the two-thirds favorable vote needed to make them effective, Davenport said all cotton from compliance farms could be marketed without quality and would be eligible for the full available rate of price support. If quotas are disapproved, compliance with the acreage allotment will determine eligibility for the lower rate of price support available.

During the past two years, farm operators had a choice between regular allotment and price support rate and a larger allotment at a reduced rate of support. However, the state chairman said the law that provided his special program applied only to the 1959 and 1960 crops.

Davenport said every eligible cotton producer should vote, and that local ASC officers or committee men could supply additional information on the referendum. Voting plans will be announced locally.

HINTS OFFERED ON STORING COTTON SEED

College Station, Dec. 8 — Do you store your own cotton planting seed? If you do, it would be a good idea to check the seed for stored grain pests, Fred Elliott, extension cotton specialist, and C. F. Garner, extension entomologist, says these pests occasionally infest stored cotton seed. This is especially true if a large percentage of the seed are cracked or if the seed is stored in infested bins.

Cottonseed should only be stored in bins that have been thoroughly cleaned of waste material such as old grain, trash or feed sacks, the specialists say. Sometimes it is necessary to sweep the ceiling and wall and clean the floor to remove hidden waste. It is also a good practice to cover cracks with builder's molding to prevent seed from collecting in them. Waste grain, seed and other materials beneath and near the bins should be destroyed.

After the bin and surrounding area have been thoroughly cleaned, they should be sprayed with a 2 1/2 percent solution of either Methoxychlor, TDE or premium grade Malathion. Hethoxychlor and TDE are also available as wettable powders and emulsion concentrates.

Dysts can also give satisfactory protection against insect pests. Toxaphene (20%), DDT (5%) or malathion (4-5%) should be mixed with the seed at the rate of 2 oz. per bushel.

Elliott and Garner warn that treated seed should never be crushed or used for feed.

How you ever wondered what this old world will look like in fifty years? Well, it probably won't even be recognizable to any of us here that is living today. They will be so many changes in the universe. Oceans and the like that we would think we was on a different planet. Sound silly? Well, just look around and see how many of the little countries have even vanished in the past fifty or even less years. Poland, Rumania and a lot of the places we used to read about are just swallowed up by them. Look at other by us, Hawaii and Alaska are now islands and just a few weeks and months ago they were continents and romantic they were our great Presidents and the like. Sounds its not near as much fun to go visitin them places now they got the same kind of money and the same kind of taxes we got. Next thing you know some rich Texan will buy Pikes Peak and have it hauled down here so his wife can have her own mountain.

TWITTY

Gee, someone at Wheeler forgot to shut the north door, and boy what a mass of cold wind is sweeping in on us at this writing. The north windows do not fit up quite tight enough, so the fresh air comes right on in.

Need some of that cotton now converted into warm flannels.

I noticed some bales of cotton long side the road by the Twitty Gin. I thought they had a fire, but they tell me the cotton was hauled in from Lutie, because we have more water here at Twitty to fight fires.

The burr pile got on fire over the weekend, and threatened the Baptist Church building. Fire fighters brought it under control.

Fire trucks rushed through here Sunday, and heard later that they were headed for Allison.

Mobettie Schools
Lloyd S. Patterson, Supt.

Mobettie teams played Miami high school basketball teams on the home court Tuesday night in the opening game of the conference season.

The girls game started out rather slowly with Miami easily taking the lead at one time in the second quarter they had a 15 point lead. However a rally began before the end of the period. Mobettie girls continued the rally and in the last 2 minutes of the fourth quarter established a 3-point lead. During those last moments the game took on the appearance of a thriller with first one side then the other scoring. However Miami was never able to overcome the lead. Final score, Miami 61, Mobettie 61.

Anna Mae Gogel scored 33 points and Sue Hooker 27, while Miami's Barbara Holland scored 48 points.

Raycorn scored 11 points during the boys game and Garland Lancaster 9. Garland Anderson was high point man for Miami with 16 points. The final score, Mobettie 36, Miami 53.

The boys team played Allison Wednesday at 1 P.M. in the Shamrock Tournament and the girls will play at 3:30 today. Their opponent is Wellington.

The next ball game Tuesday, will be at Kelton.

P.T.A. Meeting scheduled for Dec. 19.

A Christmas program by the grade school will be the feature attraction that evening.

Wheeler Schools
Arling Cordell, Supt.

Our next P.T.A. meeting, on Monday, December 12th at 7:30, will be based upon "Americanism" and will be presented by our Speech Department under the direction of Carroll Killingsworth. Since our Country and its culture became the strongest nation on Earth primarily because of its belief in and practice of Christian principles, it is most fitting that this program be climaxed with an address by Rev. Bob Ely, Methodist Pastor, speaking on "Spiritual Values in the Home". Come to the Grade School Auditorium for this interesting and informative program.

Since our Legislature is to meet soon, may I present a few suggestions for all of us to think about? First, the Hale-Akin proposals made to our Legislature two years ago, will be considered again. These are vital to our public schools if we are to build opportunities in Texas for the future of our youth. As you know, we, as a State are already in a deficit financially. We have slipped to 32nd place nationally in Education, and I am told, will be even further down the ladder next term if we do not get now. It seems to me that the time has come for us to raise the money locally and by the State to adequately support our schools. I'm sure none of us wants our Federal Government to take over this very important task. So, it's up to us to pay for our schools.

It has been discovered that by 1970, we must be prepared to pay $3.00 for each $1.00 that we are now spending locally and statewide for Education. We must decide that if we are going to spend so much where is it to come from? We need to get behind our Legislators with some suggestions about tax bills. Do we want a General Sales Tax, an income tax, higher taxes on natural resources, higher taxes on other selective items?

I have read that if our taxes on beer and whisky alone were raised to the level they are now in Oklahoma, we would not have a deficit.

In the language of one of our Columnists, what do you think, sir?

Wheeler teams opened conference play with double wins over the Kelton Lions Tuesday night. Wheeler girls downed the Kelton lassies 45-38 and the Mustangs slipped by with a 38-35 victory. D. Hall led the scoring with 18 points while Barton had 15 for the winners.

Beasley scored 20 points for the losers. B. Greer of Wheeler and Brady of Kelton scored twelve points each followed by B. Riley of Wheeler with ten.

In Friday's action the local girls whipped Shamrock 41-27 while the Irishmen took an easy 61-46 win over the Mustangs.

The local teams journey to Sweetwater Friday night and entertain the Allison Antelopes Tuesday, Dec. 13 before entering tournament play at Samnorwood on Dec. 15th.

TB QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Here are the questions people most often ask about tuberculosis, with the answers.

Q: If I get TB, what are my chances of a cure? Excellent, if your illness is found early enough and you complete the treatment your doctor prescribes. There are 1,750,000 people living today who once had active TB.

Q: Can TB be cured at home? In a few cases, yes. But most TB patients should start treatment in the hospital, where there are laboratories to make all the necessary tests, a staff of doctors to plan treatment, and good nursing care.

Q: How long would I have a stay in the hospital? There is no one answer to this question, since each TB patient is different. TB cure may take several months in the hospital and continued treatment at home for a year or two.

Q: How is TB cured today? TB is treated mostly with drugs, to help bring the germs under control. Good food and rest are important. Surgery may be needed to remove part of a damaged lung.

Q: Once I am cured of TB, can I get it again? It's possible, unless you are careful to eat the proper food, get enough rest, avoid emotional stress, and keep your resistance high so you don't get frequent infections.

Q: How can I tell if I have TB? You can't, because in its early stages TB causes no symptoms that anyone could notice. But a tuberculin test and, if the test is positive, a chest X-ray, can tell your doctor if you have TB.

By Lavell Stephens

I am sure that many of you have read this, but for you that haven't perhaps you will enjoy it as I did.

Tvashti Crestles Woman: "In the beginning when Tvashti came to the creation of woman, he found that in the making of man, and that its cold element was left. In this dilemma after profound meditation, he did as follows. He took the rotundity of the moon, and the curves of the crescent, and the clinging tendrils and the trembling of grass, the slenderness of the reed, and the bloom of flowers, and the lightness of leaves, and the tapering of the elephants trunk, and the glances of deer, and the clustering of roes of bees, and the joyous gaiety of sunbeams, and the weeping of clouds and the fieldiness of the winds and the timidity of the hare, and the vanity of the peacock, and the softness of the parrot's beak, and the hardness of adamant, and the sweetness of honey, and the cruelty of the tiger, and the warm glow of the fire, and the coldness of snow, and the chattering of jays, and the cooling of the koldia, and the hypocrisy of the crane, and the fidelity of the chakrawake; and compounding all these things together he made woman, and gave her to man. But after one week, man came to him and said: "Lord, this creature that you have given me makes my life miserable. She chatters incessantly, and teases beyond endurance, never leaving me alone; and she requires incessant attention, and takes all my time, and cries about nothing, and is always idle; and so I have come to give her back again, as I cannot live with her."

Lord, I find that my life is very lonely since I gave you back that creature. I remember how she used to dance and sing to me, and play with me, and bring me music, and she was beautiful to look at, and soft to touch; so give her back to me again." So Tvashti said: "Very well, and he gave her back again. Then after only three days, man came back to his agent and said: "Lord, I know not how it is; but after all I have come to the conclusion that she is more of a trouble than a pleasure to me; so please take her back again." But Tvashti said: "Out on you! Be off! I will have no more of this. You must manage how you can." The man said: "But I cannot live with her." And Tvashti replied: "Neither could you live without her." And he turned to his work. Then man said: "What is to be done? for I cannot live either with or without her!" (Vedic legend.)

The Tvashti legend is no quaint survival of a lost, forgotten world of long ago. It symbolizes the daily dilemma of millions of married couples in the modern world. "Come close," they say to each other, and then, apprehensively they add, "But not too close."

As "Ab" says, "Ain't it the truth?"

Audra Pierce and Mrs. W. E. Bowen went shopping in Pampa Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cooper of Shamrock and Hester Dotson attended the Beckham County Singing Convention in Buffalo, Okla., Sunday.

LOCAL SCHOOL DEVELOPES GROUP OF UNDERSTANDING YOUNG VOCAL ARTISTS

Members of the Lions club and several guests enjoyed a pleasant surprise following the meal at Tuesdays luncheon, when they heard a brief recital by the Wheeler High School mixed chorus in the Baptist auditorium. Their surprise, however, was probably greater than would be that of many other Wheeler citizens should they hear this group of 13 boys and girls whose musical talent has been so successfully developed by Mal Wynne, vocal music instructor in the local school. "In my opinion," observed Wynne, "the community is growing in its sense of appreciation of good music generally, including vocal music."

Personnel of the several units follows: Boys' Glee Club—Earl Gilmore, James Brown, Gerald Brown, Clint Westmoreland, Jake Trout, J. W. Cardel, Hansel Parker, W. L. Polly.

Quartet — James Brown, Earl Gilmore, Corald Brown, Grady Anglin.

Girls Glee Club—Arlene Reynolds, Jonnie Faye Templeton, Eloise Reid, Virginia Burgess, Rosalee Bradstreet, Maxine Babba, Janita Voyles, Harriet Tinney, Ira Jo Derryberry; Quartet — Eloise Reid, Arlene Reynolds, Jonnie Faye Templeton and Virginia Burgess.

NEARLY $3000 TAKEN FROM FOUR STORES SUNDAY MORNING — 1938

One of the biggest robberies ever to occur in Wheeler was pulled off last Saturday night or Sunday morning by some leisurely crooks who were skilled at their profession and confident enough of themselves to take time out to eat a snack while they were in Clay's Food Store.

According to reports from the four firms burglarized the culprits escaped with approximately $2,653.80 in cash and checks and a small amount of merchandise. It was reported that the burglarizing presumably took place sometime after 5:00 o'clock Sunday morning after Bud Errington, city night watchman, went off duty because it was reported that as far as he could tell everything was in order when he went in.

The Southwestern Public Service Co. was hit for $1,830.00 of which approximately $450.00 was in cash money. The money represented the last of the first of the month collections for the company. The robbery was first discovered by Raymond Saylor, manager of the Public Service Co., at approximately 7:45 Sunday morning when he came to the office to change a voltage chart. The thieves worked the combination on the safe, it was reported.

The culprits entered the public service company building through a rear window, after breaking down a hole they left a couple of cartons of cigarettes laying outside the window. It was later discovered the cigarettes had been taken from the Clay Food Store.

The second largest haul made by the crooks was at Cicero Smith Lumber Co., where they got $1,287.80 in cash and checks with approximately $50.00 of the total being cash. A total of $522.11 was in cash and small checks of which the lumber company had no record. Besides the cash, the thieves took a quantity of pocket knives.

The unwanted visitors gained admission to the Lumber office through a west window in the office after crawling under the south front gate it was reported.

Sheriff Jesse Swink called a number of the Texas Rangers from Amarillo and a member of the Texas Dept. of Public Safety to help in the investigation it was reported. All possible finger prints were taken but it appeared that they would be of little value because it looked as though the crooks were wearing gloves or some sort to avoid leaving tradacable prints.

Sheriff Swink stated that he had not yet received a report on the prints but that everything else that could be done to trace down the crooks was being done.

Uncle Pete Mayfield has spent the past 4 years in Sulphur, Okla., but has now returned and will make his home in Wheeler. At the present time, he is staying with the Fred Drumb family.

Mrs. Charlie Whitley had a Stanley Party in her home Thursday.

PLANS ARE COMPLETE FOR OPENING OF TEST LABORATORY

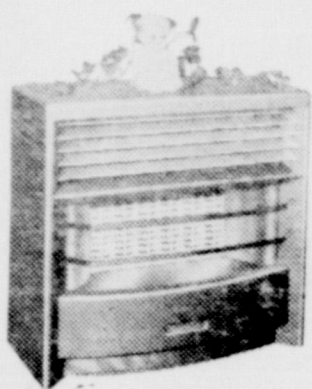

Area Soil Chemist James H. Valentine, A&M College Agricultural Extension Service, has completed preparations for the formal opening of a new Soil Testing Laboratory in Lubbock. Above he is making a final check of the delicate chain balance which is used to measure the minute quantities of chemicals required in running a soil analysis.

A native of Willis Point in Van Zandt County, Valentine is a former Future Farmer of America. He received both his B.S. and M.S. degrees from Texas A&M College with a major in Agronomy and minor in Plant Physiology. The overseas veteran of World War II served 3 years as Soil

Scientist with the Soil Conservation Service and for the past 9 years has been director of the Soil Testing Laboratory at Stephen F. Austin College at Nacogdoches.

Valentine says the new laboratory, which he heads, will devote full time to fertility problems of farmers in the Panhandle and High Plains areas of Texas.

County Agent Bryan Swain, urged local farmers, home gardeners and others with fertility problems, to take advantage of the laboratory's facilities. The cost per sample is only $2. Vocational Agriculture Teachers and Soil Conservation Service technicians, as well as the county agent, will be glad to assist in obtaining samples.

PATRIOTISM IS EVERYBODY'S JOB!

CHRISTMAS SEALS, THE GOVERNOR AND MARY ANNE—Christmas Seals have a special meaning to Mary Anne Copeland, 5, of Austin this year since Christmas Seals provide funds to fight tuberculosis—and tuberculosis is the special enemy which took her father away from her last Christmas. She and her father, E. B. Copeland, (left), visited Governor Price Daniel upon the occasion of his proclaiming the period November 14 to December 24 as "Christmas Seal Days in Texas". Mr. Copeland was a truck driver for the City of Austin before he became ill with tuberculosis. Released from a TB hospital in January, he is presently restrained by medical advice from working for more than two hours each day. He is very grateful, however, that he will be able to spend this Christmas with Mary Anne, her mother and two brothers. Governor Daniel recently appointed a statewide committee on tuberculosis to coordinate activities of all organizations concerned with the disease. Said Governor Daniel in his proclamation, "Texas has a vulnerable spot as far as tuberculosis is concerned. This State has not attained relative freedom from the disease as have a few of our sister states. . . . Through Texans' purchase of Christmas Seals each year, funds have been provided to aid in research and to improve patient care tection which they enjoy under our system of standard policy provisions and forms which apply to all of us alike in Texas, whether we are big or small.

Such legislation, if it becomes law, would remove the ceiling from rates and let every company set its own limits. Such legislation would not reduce rates; it would only take away from the people of Texas protection that has been afforded them for more than 30 years and which requires that all rates and forms must be promulgated by the State Board of Insurance based on the experience of all companies.

The proponents, of course, argue that the passage of such legislation would reduce rates, but that has not happened in the other states. The Texas Automobile Rating Laws provide a ceiling for rates. No company can charge more than the state permits. The comparative results are impressive.

Despite the fact that Texas stands sixth in population, first in miles of highway, third in number of motor vehicles registered, and sixth in licensed drivers, there are 31 states which have higher average automobile insurance premiums. It is interesting to observe that four of the five most populous states rank in the top ten most expensive states with respect to automobile insurance premiums.

Something has held rates down. Since no other state has a rating law like Texas, our rating laws are not holding rates up; it may be doing just the opposite. The contrast today between Texas and other states is significant. Elsewhere—as is commonly known—the public is frequently forced to be clamoring for protection. Situations leading on chaos have been rampant in leading states and cities. By contrast, no such situation exists here—because Texas has the very protection which insures. It would make no sense to strip that away.

The Texas Legislative Council, the research agency of the Legislature, at the direction of the Legislature, studied our automotive rate laws for more than a year. No more thorough or earnest study has been made of the present Texas laws and the out-of-state sponsored legislation. When that study was completed in December of '58, the findings and the recommendations were unanimous against such a change.

The argument at the 57th Legislature which convenes in January, 1961, will probably be a new one. In the past legislative sessions the principal pitch has been that the proposed legislation would authorize merit rating or safe driving plans for individual risks. The Texas Automobile Rating Laws have always authorized the State Board of Insurance to approve an individual merit rating plan if a workable one could be devised. The Texas Safe Driving Insurance Plan prescribed by the Board provides a realistic reduction in rates for careful drivers, and surcharges those motorists who have been involved in accidents or have been convicted of certain moving traffic violations. Comparing the accidents and deaths for the first nine months of 1960 with the average for the five years—1955 through 1959—there has been a reduction of 8.6% in deaths with an average increase of 10.0% in the number of accidents. Even though accidents have increased, the severity of accidents has reduced materially. The Safe Driving Plan may not be wholly responsible but no doubt has had an important effect on the reduction in the number of deaths and the severity of accidents.

Most people in Texas will agree that the Texas Automobile Rating Laws afford the public the greatest protection. The automobile rates in Texas are lower than those in most of the states, and Board prescribes standard forms that must be used by all companies. Our Texas law is not a one-rate law. It is not a rigid law. For many years automobile rates have been made by territories and driver classifications based on age and use, so Texas has a correlation between risks and rates.

If you agree that our present rating laws afford the maximum in protection and benefits for the public discuss this matter with your legislative representatives. If you will see to it that the facts are presented to them, they too will no doubt agree that our Texas laws should not be changed to suit the fancy of out-of-state interests.
